"Only recently Mr Velayati, our homeland's foreign minister, paid a visit to so-called Islamic Pakistan, and certain agreements were reached on the expansion of political, commercial and economic relations with Pakistan between the government delegations of Iran and Pakistan. Mr Velayati said in Pakistan that the Muslims of the world should unify their forces against the Zionists of Israel. Although Mr Velayati had called upon the Muslims of the world to unite against the Zionist Israel, nevertheless, Pakistan's newspapers immediately came out in protest against these remarks by our homeland's foreign minister, and wrote with total bluntness that Pakistan can never and should not take part in the Muslim people's confrontation against Israel, for Israel relies on the United States, and war with Israel means hostility toward the United States."

"Having confidence in two fierce wolves and two bloody foes of revolutionary Iran -- the subservient Turkish and Pakistani regimes -- because they falsely and hypocritically carry the Islamic name, is a great and unforgivable mistake. Confidence in and rapprochement with these two subservient regimes of the great Satan means being indifferent toward the preparations that are being made in these countries against our revolution and gains. In simple language it means laying the ground for fresh plots by the great Satan against the existence of our Islamic Republic's system. Our ever-present-on-the-scene people will never forgive such mistakes that could cost our country and nation a high price and new countless sacrificies."

RADIO IRAN REPORTS PRC DELEGATION SEEKING OIL

GF221742 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 22 May 82

[Text] In pursuance of its policy of expanding of political and economic ties with communist countries, Khomeyni's regime has invited a PRC economic and trade delegation to Iran. This delegation is now in Tehran. It is led by the deputy director of the Chinese oil company.

The Chinese want to purchase oil from the Islamic regime and to provide technical and agricultural services to the mullahs in return, instead of cash. The Chinese have proposed certain conditions for the purchase of oil from Iran. They will be selling oil to Japan throughout the year.

Since Iranian oil is far cheaper than Chinese oil, in this way they will be able to buy cheaper oil for domestic consumption and retail the same amount of their own more expensive oil to others and thus make a profit.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Military Situation -- An Iraqi military spokesman announced that on 2 June an Iraqi fighter plane flew over Tehran and Qom, Baghdad Voice of the Masses radio reported. Asserting that this warning raid demonstrates Iraq's ability to reach any spot in Iran, the spokesman warned that any new attempts to bombard Iraqi cities and vital installations will be firmly confronted. In other action, a military spokesman cited by Baghdad radio reported that 150 Iranians were killed during an unsuccessful attack on Iraqi forward units north of Khorramshahr.

According to an Iranian military communique carried by Tehran radio, one Iraqi aircraft was shot down in the area northeast of Khark Island. Iraqi tank and infantry positions in the western operational sector suffered losses and casualties when Iranian units opened fire on them, the communique reported. It also said heavy Iranian artillery fire neutralized Iraqi military activity in the southern operational sector.

Velayati Remarks -- Iran will continue to defend itself and will preserve this right until it silences the Iraqi artillery fire and stops Iraqi aggression, Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati declared at a nonaligned foreign minister's meeting in Havana, Tehran radio reported. Velayati said Iran will not restrict itself in responding to Iraqi aggression on the border regions. He said the fighting will continue, even if it takes several months or several years, until Iran's conditions are met completely.

Arms Purchases -- During a speech in Tehran, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni claimed that rumors about Iranian arms purchases from Israel were propagated to discredit Iran, IRNA reported. According to President 'Ali Khamene'i, Iran has not requested arms from anybody, Tehran radio reported. He declared that none of the world powers has done Iran any favors since the war started.

Majlis Speaker's Interview -- Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani, in an interview with the monthly magazine PASDAR-E ESLAM cited by IRNA, said Iran should strangle the Iraqis in the Persian Gulf, at Al-Faw and the Al-Bakr jetty. He added that once Iran increases its "defense operations," Iraq will de deprived of some of its resources.

Chatti Interview -- Both Iran and Iraq have committed themselves to refrain from securing each other's territory by force and to solve their differences peacefully through Islamic organizations, Islamic Conference Organization Secretary General Habib Chatti stated in an interview with the Saudi paper AL-MADINAH cited by SPA. Describing these commitments as a cause for hope, Chatti said the Islamic Good Offices Committee will meet on 5 June in Jidda to consider amending proposals for ending the war that would make them acceptable to both sides.

Husayn Meetings -- President Saddam Husayn chaired a further series of meetings with army commanders and military officials, INA reported. According to an Amman radio report, Husayn also met with Jordanian Prime Minister Mudar Badran who conveyed a verbal message from the Jordanian king. The radio report on the meeting said Badran and the Iraqi president exchanged views on developments in the war and discussed the establishment of a united Arab stand to confront Iranian ambitions toward Iraq.

Iran

Ten members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq in Hormozgan Province were executed on 30 May, according to a communique from the Hormozgan prosecutor's office carried by Bandar-e 'Abbas radio.

Israel

Autonomy Talks -- Prime Minister Menahem Begin told the Cabinet that he is ready to attend a summit meeting with the U.S. and Egyptian presidents if such a meeting is convened in Washington, Jerusalem radio reported. However, Begin emphasized that he would not agree to participate in a summit meeting in Washington to discuss the autonomy issue unless the Egyptians agree not to boycott Jerusalem as an additional venue for the talks.

Meanwhile, visiting former Egyptian Prime Minister Mustafa Khalil held a press conference reported by Jerusalem radio in which he said it is impossible for one party to stipulate that the autonomy talks be held according to its conditions or not at all. This never happened in the previous negotiations, he said, since both Egypt and Israel always agreed to hold negotiations without preconditions.

Jordan River Crossings -- Male residents of Judaea, Samaria and the Gaza District who want to cross over to Jordan must henceforth submit exit permission forms for approval by the civilian administration beforehand, Jerusalem radio reported. Noting that this means Arabs may have to wait up to a week for permission to cross the bridges, MA'ARIV said the new arrangement is aimed at increasing control over the inhabitants of the territories.

Denial on Missile Sale to Argentina -- The Foreign Ministry spokesman denied a report by the London SUNDAY TIMES that Israel recently sent Ga'vriel missiles to Argentina via Peru, Jerusalem television noted. He emphasized that Israel has never sold either Ga'vriel or other missiles to Argentina.

Jordan

When Jordan accepted UN Resolution 242 that acceptance implied the right of all, including Israel, to live in peace and security, King Husayn declared in an interview with the Italian paper L'ESPRESSO published on 23 May. Asked whether Jordan's proposal of total peace for a total Israeli withdrawal form the occupied territories means a definitive recognition of Israel, Husayn answered that this is implied by Jordan's acceptance of Resolution 242. In response to an observation that the Saudi Government never refers to "Israel" but to the "Zionist entity," Husayn agreed that it is essential for the word Israel to be explicitly used. Israel is not a specter but a reality, Husayn said.

Lebanon

Syria Arab Deterrent Forces halted violent clashes between local organizations in west Beirut in which 6 people were killed and 28 wounded, Beirut radio reported. The fighting was between the Shi'ite Amal movement and pro-Iraqi groups, according to Voice of Lebanon radio.

Egypt-Sudan

During a brief visit to Egypt, Sudanese President Ja'far Numayri held a joint press conference with President Husni Mubarak, transmitted by MENA, in which Numayri indicated that advancement toward Egyptian-Sudanese integration requires the establishment of joint political institutions. However, time had not permitted him and Mubarak to study the matter during his current visit, Numayri admitted. He said Egypt and Sudan want to achieve economic integration.

On inter-Arab affairs, Numayri revealed that Sudan has proposed that nonrejectionist Arab states hold an immediate Arab League meeting in Egypt to discuss the current situation and dangers facing the Arab world. He said a number of heads of state and kings have agreed with him on the importance of holding such a meeting.

BBC: 'MAJOR' PANJSHER OFFENSIVE CONTINUING

TA300647 London BBC World Service in English 0600 GMT 30 May 82

[Text] Soviet and Afghan Government troops are reported to be continuing a major military operation to try to gain control of a guerrilla stronghold in the Panjsher Valley, north of the capital Kabul.

Rebel sources in Islamabad say the government sources have suffered heavy casualties in the fighting, which has been going on for the past 2 weeks.

A BBC correspondent in Islamabad says it is becoming increasingly clear that the offensive in the Panjsher Valley is the most concerted of several being made against antigovernment resistance in Afghanistan.

AFP: SOVIETS BOMB OWN TROOPS IN PANJSHER ATTACK

BK310145 Hong Kong AFP in English 0045 GMT 31 May 82

[Excerpt] Islamabad, 31 May (AFP) -- Soviet MiGs and helicopters, supporting a major attack on Afghanistan's strategic Panjsher Valley, were led by false signals from defecting Afghan soldiers to bomb their own troops who suffered heavy casualties, the rebel-run news agency AFGHAN PRESS said here Sunday.

The fifth Soviet attempt to recapture the stronghold of Moslem guerrillas was confirmed last week by Western diplomatic sources in Islamabad.

AFGHAN PRESS said the attacking force retreated after losing over 1,000 Afghan and Soviet soldiers during the bloody clashes from May 20 to 24 in which 57 tanks, several trucks and MiG fighters and helicopter gunships were destroyed.

WHITE PAPER ON DISPUTED AREAS RELEASED

BK201700 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 29 May 82

[Text] A white paper issued by the Jammu and Kashmir government today says that Gilgit, Hunza, Nagar, Yasin, Punial, Chitral and Skardu are inalienable parts of the state which have always exercised sovereignty and suzerainty over them.

The white paper says that this was proved beyond doubt by records, documents and correspondence with the then British Government and by various treaties. It was also proved by the de facto and de jure administrative control of the state over these areas.

Releasing the white paper at a news conference in Srinagar today, State Chief Minister Sheikh Abduallah refuted the charge of the Pakistan president that these areas never formed part of the Jammu and Kashmir state and were under British administration before 1947.

The white paper traces the history of Gilgit as part of Jammu and Kashmir from ancient time down to 1947. It says that toward the end of the 19th century the British became apprehensive of a possible southwest thrust by czarist Russia. In 1889, the British formed a Gilgit Agency but the area continued to be administered by the maharaja of Kashmir. Later, the British persuaded the maharaja to lease out the territory to them, which was done through a lease deed signed on 26 March 1935. The deed, however, made it clear that the territory fell within the boundaries of the maharaja's domain who continued to exercise sovereign rights over the area.

The white paper says that when the British withdrew from India, the lease was terminated and the area reverted to Jammu and Kashmir state. The maharaja then deputed a governor to Gilgit who took over on 31 July 1947.

The white paper gives historical and documentary details about these places to show that these areas were under the maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir.

HERALD ON PAKISTAN'S TERRITORIAL CLAIMS

BK011248 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 26 May 82 p 7

[P.B. Sinha article: "Zia's Land Grab"]

[Text] Gen Ziaul Haq has now laid claim to Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu in that part of the Indian state of Jammu and Kashmir which has been under illegal occupation of Pakistan. His answer is that he took the step in deference to the demand of the people of those areas. Further, Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu are "part of the northern areas of Pakistan", which are being directly administered by the federal government. They "do not form part of the disputed area between India and Pakistan."

When India came to know of this it took up the matter with Pakistan. Subsequently, India protested, but to no avail. Indeed, Pakistani Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Ali Khan has "accused India of whipping up things for its own ends."

History belies Zia's claim. Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu have been parts of the territory of the state of Kashmir which, in accordance with the Indian Independence Act of 1947, acceded to the union of India. The three areas are situated in that part of the state which was grabbed by Pakistan by force and which continues to be under its illegal, unconstitutional and immoral occupation.

As a matter of fact, Pakistani maps have hitherto included Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu not in Pakistani territory but as part of what Pakistan unjustifiably calls the "disputed territory of Kashmir". The Pak constitution of 1973, too, did not mention those three areas as parts of Pakistan. It was in accordance with this understanding that for the last 35 years Pakistan did not include their representatives in its legislative bodies even during the short period when Pakistan had an elected and representative parliament.

Gen. Zia's plea that Pakistan has been governing the three areas through a federally appointed commissioner cannot change their juridicial status. Even when Pakistan conceded to China some territory in the Gilgit region under the so-called Sino-Pak boundary agreement in 1963, India had strongly protested against this illegal transaction.

Also, Gen. Zia's argument in support of his unilateral annexationist claim that "the ceasefire line is on the far side" is incomprehensible. If one were to imagine that by the above statement what Gen Zia meant was that since the distance of the three places from the line of actual control is relatively large, they should not be treated as forming part of the "disputed territory," then a natural corollary of it must be that areas which are comparatively much nearer to the line of control, e.g. Islamabad, could be treated as "disputed territory". Is Gen. Zia prepared to accept the logic of his own argument?

The hollow claims and flimsy arguments of Gen. Zia cannot be of any consequence. The truth of the matter is that Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu are parts of Pakistan-occupied Kashmir which is an integral part of India as much as is the part already within India. The only problem is vacation by Pakistan of that illegally occupied territory, including Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu, which the Pakistani rulers, in their fancy, call "Azad Kashmir".

Ever since Pakistan grabbed the northern and western parts of the state of Jammu and Kashmir by force, it has been in physical possession of those areas, enjoying all the geo-strategic advantages accruing to it from such occupation. By establishing a direct road link with China passing through this strategically important region, Pakistan has generated China's interest vested in those areas remaining in pliant hands. Under the circumstances, what was the provocation for Gen Zia to advance a claim which is so untenable and, as a matter of fact, unnecessary even from Pakistan's own point of view?

One explanation given for Gen. Zia's statement is his style of functioning -- blowing hot and cold at the same time. He has been holding out the olive branch to India in his repeated offers of a no-war pact while, at the same time, making outrageous and unpalatable allegations against India and untenable claims regarding Indian territory.

According to a well-informed observer from Pakistan, there was no pre-planning or forethought behind Gen. Zia's move or his statement to the Indian journalist. It so happened that some feudal lords from those areas asked for their inclusion in the Majlis-i-Shoora to which Gen. Zia agreed. When the journalists questioned the Pak president on this move, Gen. Zia gave an answer on the spur of moment, departing from the prepared text. This is why Pakistani diplomats reportedly pleaded with the journalists to put Gen. Zia's "northern areas" remarks off the record.

While attempts -- so far unsuccessful -- have been made to look for some rational explanation of Gen. Zia's statement, a Pakistani official is said to have asserted that "it was not intended at any stage to throw into the fray another issue which might be considered contentious."

Interestingly, the nomination of "representatives" to the Federal Council from the "northern areas" was mentioned along with observers from Baluchistan. The impression that one gets from this is that, probably, the two sets of observers have been placed on par. The most liberal interpretation that one can give to this fact is that Gen. Zia probably realises now the reality of the situation in Kashmir and, by his move and statement, might be preparing public opinion for the acceptance of the line of control virtually as the international frontier.

The reported decision of the Pak military regime to "integrate" the civil services of Pakistan-occupied Kashmir with those of Pakistan, though objectionable to India, is contradictory to Pakistan's known stand on the Kashmir problem. This decision, however, gives support to the view that the Pak rulers might be taking steps to give a de jure form to the de facto situation in Kashmir.

But when the whole interview is taken into consideration, a conciliatory Pak posture on the Kashmir question seems to rule itself out. Gen. Zia's reply to the question -- "after the no-war pact is signed, will you agree not to mention Kashmir in outside forums?" -- was pregnant with serious implications for Indo-Pak relations. He said:

"The no-war pact does not change our stand on the Kashmir issue. Kashmir should be resolved in accordance with the United Nations resolutions. The remaining problems between us must be resolved bilaterally."

This statement of Gen. Zia exposes the hollowness of his professed peaceful and friendly disposition towards India. By harping on the necessity of a no-war pact with India Gen. Zia, who himself asserted not long ago that the Simla Agreement is virtually a no-war pact and also that a no-war pact is "not worth the paper" on which it might be written, wants "to push the Simla Agreement aside and replace it with one of his own making."

Also, Gen. Zia's effort to make Kashmir "an international issue" is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Simla Agreement which enjoins on the two countries to seek solutions to all problems, including Kashmir, through peaceful bilateral negotiations. The moves with respect to the so-called "northern areas" are probably intended to provoke India and thus activise the Kashmir question. By signing a no-war pact, the Simla Agreement would be rendered redundant and with this the obligation to seek a solution to the Kashmir problem bilaterally would be removed. The Kashmir question could then be projected as an "international issue" with full force.

Be the case as it may, Gen. Zia's recent moves and statement with respect to Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu have added another irritant to the complex process of normalisation of relations between India and Pakistan. It would definitely raise doubts about the sincerity of his much trumpeted desire to live in peace and amity with India.

Even the most ardent supporters of Gen. Zia, including that "strong segment of society in India" which, he claims, supports him, might be constrained to feel that by making the unilateral, untenable and annexationist claim to Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu, President Zia has hurt the cause of what was once described by Pakistan's former Foreign Minister Agha Shahi as forging "a new relationship of mutual trust and confidence on a lasting basis."

EXPRESS ON VICISSITUDES OF INDO-U.S. RELATIONS

BK301646 Delhi INDIAN EXPRESS in English 25 May 82 p 6

[Article "Building New Bridges of Friendship" by T.V. Parasuram of EXPRESS news service in Washington]

[Text] Indo-American relations have always had their ups and downs. On account of various interlocking relationships, ideological affinity and mutual interests, they are never allowed to dip below a certain point. But due to differing perceptions, conflicts of interest, bilateral, multilateral and geopolitical factors, they cannot improve beyond a point. So the position is hardly likely to result in change at the forthcoming meetings in Washington between President Reagan and Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

These top-level meetings, it goes without saying, are highly important. They set the tone of the relationship. In the absence of such meetings at fairly frequent intervals by the top leaders, business is transacted not at the level of policy-makers but the policy executors whose business it is to rationalize policies such as they are. Such visits become all the more important when a drastic change has gradually taken place at the normal level of meetings in the capitals.

Time was when meetings between the U.S. President and the Indian ambassador were frequent. That changed under Nixon. A meeting even with the secretary of state becomes a big event. Today only the Soviet ambassador, the ambassadors of the chief allies and the ambassador of Israel, who in the American context enjoys superpower status at least as far as the legislature, the media and public opinion are concerned, have regular access to the president and secretary of state. The loss is mutual.

Objectively speaking, Indo-American relations have become suddenly very important. U.S. foreign policy on all continents is in a shambles. Indian foreign policy too has had many setbacks. The U.S. has lost its old ability to influence and dominate events. It was unable to prevent the Falklands dispute from erupting into war. Its policy in Africa is in a mess. The effort everywhere to ride two horses pulling in different directions is not succeeding. Lavish military and economic aid does not give enough influence to the U.S. to prevent Israel from jeopardising long-term U.S. interests in the Arab world. Israel is digging in its heels on the West Bank, east Jerusalem and the Golan Heights and the U.S. can apparently do nothing about it. The idea of overwhelming the Soviet Union with U.S. technology and Chinese manpower has failed. The Taiwan issue is proving to be a time bomb in the relationship with Beijing.

On the Indian side, to say that India is non-aligned means nothing new. Non-alignment is bereft of meaning or content. Cuba, secure in the Soviet orbit, is regarded as non-aligned. Indeed Cuba is today the titular leader of the non-aligned world. Similarly, Pakistan, allied to the U.S. for all practical purposes, is also in the Non-aligned Movement. The movement has lost its old vigour. Also, the basic Indian problem has increasingly become economic. The United States remains the best hope for transfer of technology on a big scale. The Soviet move into Afghanistan, the U.S. action in modernising Pakistan's Armed Forces and the gradual evolution of China into a major military power dictate a relationship based on friendship and a certain degree of trust both with the Soviet Union and the U.S. in order to safeguard Indian interests.

At one time Americans used to criticise India for being too critical of the U.S. while finding excuses for the Soviet Union. India, the U.S. used to complain, took America for granted. Today one hears a similar complaint against the U.S., namely, that it is taking India for granted. The theory that whatever the U.S. does India has to remain friendly with the U.S. was formulated by former Secretary of State Kissinger who wrote "Just as our wooing (of India) for two decades had not managed to tempt India out of its non-alignment, so India was unlikely to move irrevocably to one side as a result of our defending our own interests." To Kissinger India is "a country which had distanced itself from most of our foreign policy objectives in the name of non-alignment."

To Americans the litmus test is the attitude towards the Soviet Union at the moment. At one time it was China. To India the litmus test in the past used to be Kashmir, Goa and Bangladesh. Today it is the level of arms the U.S. is prepared to pour into unstable Pakistan.

Hopefully the prime minister's visit will provide an opportunity to both sides to place the relationship on a stable, pragmatic basis taking into account the vital interests of both parties.

Both face some in-built prejudices. The U.S. has the habit of expecting automatic support in all the turns and twists of its foreign policy.

On the Indian side there is, no doubt, at certain levels a latent anti-Americanism which colours the approach to the U.S. All the grievances against the old colonialist powers are transferred to the U.S. by proxy. The U.S. is today the only foreign country where as many as 20,000 Indians are welcome as immigrants every year. Practically anyone who counts in India has a son or daughter or son-in-law in the U.S.

Indians occupy key positions in many major American corporations, hospitals and educational and research institutions. They represent not a brain drain but a potential brain bank on which India can draw as it attempts to achieve faster growth. It should be possible to improve relations with the U.S. without sacrificing the equally important relations with the Soviet Union.

India's interest in maintaining good relations with both the Soviet Union and the U.S. is paralleled by U.S. interest in maintaining good relations with India and Pakistan, Britain and Argentina, the Africans and apartheid regime and Arabs and Israelis. It is not easy but somehow one has to succeed.

ARAB ASSISTANCE SOUGHT TO COPE WITH REFUGEES

BK310754 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 0200 GMT 31 May 82

[Text] Pakistan has urged the Arab countries to render material assistance to the Afghan refugees who had taken shelter in the country following foreign military intervention in Afghanistan. A memorandum by the Pakistan Government to this effect has been circulated by the Arab League Secretariat among its 22 members.

The memorandum says the number of Afghan refugees in Pakistan stands at 2.7 million and is the largest concentration of refugees anywhere in the world today. About 800 tented villages have been set up in the Northwest Frontier Province and Baluchistan to house homeless Afghan refugees.

Besides providing food and cash allowances, the government has taken steps to open schools, dispensaries and training centers to teach the refugees useful skills. This costs Pakistan about $1 million per day. Pakistan is receiving help from various international organizations and friendly countries, but it is too small compared to the expenses.

BAR ASSOCIATION DEMANDS RELEASE OF NDP LEADERS

GF301540 Karachi DAWN in English 27 May 82 p 3

["Release of NDP Leaders Demanded"]

[Text] Lahore, 26 May -- The Lahore High Court Bar Association has demanded that all leaders of the defunct NDP [National Democratic Party] arrested at Lahore yesterday, particularly the lawyers among them, should be released without any delay.

A resolution adopted at a meeting held under the chairmanship of Mr Abid Minto noted with concern that those detained under the martial law regulations included Mr Ehsan, a member of Lahore Bar, Arbab Humayun, a member of the Pakistan Bar Council and Mr Hasan Hameedi, advocate of Sukkur.

The meeting observed that while some other political parties were allowed to hold their meetings and their proceedings were published, the authorities had chosen to take action against the NDP.

Four MRD [Movement for the Restoration of Democracy] leaders, Mr Mairaj Mohammad Khan, Mr Zainul Abedin, Mr Fatahyab Ali Khan and Qari Sher Afzal, criticised the externment of defunct NDP leaders from Punjab and arrest of over 20 members of the party's working committee.

In a joint statement they said the meetings of the executive bodies of some other defunct parties were allowed to be held at one time or the other.

The MRD leaders demanded release of the NDP leaders and urged the Punjab government to withdraw its externment order against Sardar Sherbaz Mazari, Khan Abdul Wali Khan and Haji Ghulam Mohammad Bilore.

They also protected against the NWFP [Northwest Frontier Province] government's order restraining the entry of Mrs Nusrat Bhutto and Malik Mohammad Qasim into the NWFP.

RAFSANJANI DENIES ARMS PURCHASES FROM ISRAEL

LD012020 Tehran IRNA in English 1929 GMT 1 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 1 Jun (IRNA) -- The Majlis speaker yesterday called the country's welfare organisation an indispensable asset in view of Islam's orders to attend to the needs of the impoverished people.

Speaking to the organisation's officials, who have gathered in Tehran to hold a seminar, Hashemi-Rafsanjani noted the organisation's massive responsibility in serving the deprived sections of society.

Praising the endeavours of the people in the war effort through the organisation, the Majlis speaker urged the employment of women in this field in light of their capability in such work. The speaker then called on the organisation to open its activities, since war conditions were an opportunity to expand services.

The speaker added that enemies of the Islamic revolution had now lost all hope of returning to Iran.

He then added that adversaries spread stories that Iran had purchased arms from the Zionist regime which contradicted the fact that Iran is a staunch enemy of the Zionist regime and supporter of the Palestinians.

Iran, he noted, was one of the few countries which had outrightly denounced the Zionist regime after the Islamic revolution. The Zionist regime was illegal and no country had taken as decisive a stand against the Zionist regime as Iran had.

Recounting the superpowers' conspiracies to distort the Islamic revolution of Iran, the Majlis speaker said Sa'd Haddad, a U.S. and Zionist instrument, was made to announce his willingness to fight on Iran's side, following Jordan's announced intention to help Iraq.

He then said the imperialists alleged Iran had bought some 27 million dollars worth of arms from the Zionist regime, while any Public Mobilisation patrol could seize as much in a single raid on Iraq.

KHOMEYNI ON NONALIGNED SUMMIT VENUE, ISRAELI ARMS

[Text] Tehran, 1 Jun (IRNA) -- Imam Khomeyni today said that whether nonaligned country members gather in Baghdad or not will not affect the fate of Saddam, since Saddam's situation was so bad that, as Imam Khomeyni himself said, "this dead man cannot be brought back to life."

Talking to a group in Tehran, Imam Khomeyni addressed the nonaligned members and said if they went to Baghdad and chose a dead man or a criminal for their president this infamy would remain with them until resurrection day. Warning the representatives of the nonaligned countries on possible security dangers in travelling to Iraq, Imam Khomeyni also said that Saddam, who is on the verge of death, might kill some of the participants and subsequently blame Iran to discredit it.

Referring to those people who come from overseas in attempts to rescue Saddam, Imam Khomeyni said that even Jesus [word indistinct] who could raise people from the dead, would not be able to rescue "this dead man."

On rumours about arms purchases from the Zionist regime, Imam Khomeyni said that such things were propagated because the U.S. and Zionists thought that these rumours would discredit Iran.

Speaking to the Majlis speaker and all deputies, as well as the chief justice, the prosecutor general of the country and religious judges, the imam urged the Majlis to speed up its work in dealing with issues introduced by the government and the Majlis itself, implementing Islamic principles.

VELAYATI LEAVES FOR HAVANA NONALIGNED MEETING

LD281236 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 28 May 82

According to the report, the foreign minister will take part in the Nonaligned Movement foreign ministers meeting, and in the second special UN session on disarmament, which will be held on 7 June in New York. He will speak at both meetings.

Before leaving, Mr Velayati was interviewed by a Central News Unit reporter on his trip to Cuba, the positions of the Islamic Republic of Iran about changing the venue of the summit conference of the Nonaligned Movement from Baghdad to somewhere else, participation in the special UN session, and America's conspiracies in the region.

In part of his interview, the foreign minister declared that the attempts being made on the basis of the Camp David agreement for returning Husni Mubarak to the Arab world are U.S.-initiated. He expressed thanks for the decisive and principled positions of the steadfastness front in inflicting defeat upon these plans.

He also declared the existence of the Arab Deterrent Forces to be the means of safeguarding the territorial integrity and unity of Lebanon. He said: With all our ability we support Syria in connection with the withdrawal [as heard].

KHAMENE'I COMMENTS ON ANTI-IRANIAN PROPAGANDA

LD011312 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 1 Jun 82

[Excerpts] The Central News Unit reports that Mr Rohani, the minister of state in charge of the country's welfare organization, and general managers, deputies and officials of the welfare organization from provinces and towns throughout the country met with President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i this morning at the end of a national conference of welfare officials.

The president talked about the conspiracies of the superpowers and their agents in the region, terrorist propaganda and the resistance put up by the brave and selfless people of the Islamic Republic of Iran in the face of these conspiracies. He said: The mouthpieces of international Zionism are spreading ridiculous propaganda charging that Iran has bought arms from various countries. We have not asked for arms from anybody and would like to announce officially that none of the world powers has done us any favors during the 20 months since the beginning of the war. They have done their best to obstruct our path and rain blows on us. Only God has helped us.

He added: The divine assistance and the spiritual power of Islam and the revolution have succeeded in making the people of our country more efficient, more motivated, more interested and more willing to make sacrifices every day; this tendency will continue. Who is going to follow the call against the Islamic revolution? What are we threatened with? Is the American military going to carry out the crusade decree [fatva-ye jahzd] passed by the irresponsible reactionary officials of the region? They are welcome to try.

We have repeatedly announced that we place importance on the security of the Persian Gulf region and will not allow it to be disturbed for one moment. Of course, the duped subversive mercenaries are responsible for their own madness, and we will not suffer any losses because of it.

We are a revolutionary nation. We began from scratch to build what we have now. We are capable of starting from scratch again and achieving a great deal. This is our experience.

What can you talk about, you who rely entirely on your oil wells, jetties and oil production, pipelines and sales? What can you talk about, you whose lifeline is the Hormuz Strait? Who is going to help you? Is the Satan going to help you? The same Satan encouraged our stupid, ignorant and disconcerted neighbor to enter our country, but today they are waiting for him to fall in order to remove his corpse. But you have not learned from this incident and, provoked by false propaganda, you are becoming more dependent on the Satan.

The great Satan and all his accomplices in the region will not be able to achieve anything in this part of the world.

RAFSANJANI: 'STRANGLE ENEMY IN PERSIAN GULF'

[Text] Tehran, 1 Jun (IRNA) -- Majlis speaker Rafsanjani revealed more information on the Iraqi imposed war. The Majlis speaker, who was interviewed by the monthly magazine "PASDAR-E ESLAM" (GUARDIAN OF ISLAM) said that he had received a chart which was taken from an Iraqi officer during the Fath Operations (launched on March 22) which showed that there was a plan for formation of a new state with the name of "Arabistan" in the region. The map was a well calculated one and apparently was drawn up in 1980 prior to the outbreak of the war. In this plan the boundaries of this "Arabistan" in addition to the areas that Iraq had occupied in the course of the 20 month old war, also included areas in the south as far as Mahshahr Port and from the eastern part of Ahvaz and Dezful up to Haft Tappeh, south of Dezful in Khuzestan Province.

Rafsanjani said that this chart showed the range of the plot and a vicious plan which had been designed for Iran by the Iraqi Ba'thists with the cooperation of reactionaries of the region and the superpowers. He further told the magazine that measures, such as creating the so-called "organisations for the liberation of Arabistan," which had gathered a group of thugs and also referring to Ahvaz, capital of Khuzestan Province as "Al-Ahvaz" giving it an Arabic tone and referring to Khorramshahr as "Muhammarah" were steps taken by Saddam to achieve his goals.

Along with this move, the Majlis speaker added, after the victory of the Islamic revolution of Iran there were plots to establish a state of Kordestan which would have included areas from Urumiyeh, capital of West Azarbayjan Province, to Ilam, capital of Ilam province, in western Iran.

After the victory of the Islamic revolution of Iran there were certain moves in Kordestan Province by elements such as Qasemlu (the head of the defunct Kordestan Democratic Party) and Izz ad-Din Hoseyni, who after the victory of the revolution were fed by Iraq. This was how they had planned to dismember the country [words indistinct] establish two adjacent separate states [word indistinct] depend on one another. Under this plan, Rafsanjani further explained, Naftshahr in Bakhtaran Province bordering Iraq, as well as the Bakhtaran refinery and also oil wells in northern Khuzestan would be part of the projected northern state and most parts of Khuzestan's oil facilities and installations, including oil reserves in Abadan and other cities, would have been part of the (?southern) part. Meanwhile, the oil reserves in the Aqa Jari areas, in southern Khuzestan would have been left for Iran, he added.

Rafsanjani also analysed issues pertaining to the war and internal situation which led to the Iraqi troops crossing the Iran-Iraq border. He referred to the ousted President Bani-Sadr as having been responsible for the country's failure to oust the enemy troops immediately and noted there were documents which attested to Bani-Sadr's complicity with the outlawed Mojahedin-e Khalq Organisation (MKO).

The following is an outline summary of the hojjat ol-Eslam's statements to the magazine in connection with Bani-Sadr and his evaluation of the pre-war situation in the country which embroiled Iran in the war:

"(On Bani-Sadr): He was supported by the West, and the Western powers spared no effort for him. He was found to have been in Israel sometime in the past and fronts sympathetic with the Soviet Union, and or the United States, such as Peykar, the monafeqin [hypocrites] (MKO), the communists, Ranjbaran [toilers; Maoist political party] and the likes of them had entered into a strategic alliance with him.

"During his office he would (?not) end the revolt in Kordestan Province and insisted that we do not exert pressure on them and instead shift to course of more peaceful terms with them.... After Iraq had invaded Iran from several points such as Shalamcheh, Toveyleh, Fakeh, Meymak, (?Ilam) and Qasr-e Shirin, Bani-Sadr only flattered himself by saying that [words indistinct] off to pull its forces back to the city of Dezful and adopt a position of defence from that city.

"'If they occupied other parts,' said Bani-Sadr,'we will take them back from the Iraqis in due course'...

"During Bani-Sadr's office, there was a plot against the Islamic Republic: one for dismembering the country into three small nations, an Arab nation, another Kurdish state and a third country with a puppet government led by such personalities as Bani-Sadr or by the National Front ... the outlawed Mojahedin-e Khalq Organisation had a hand in the plot. They hindered the progress of work, they would go to the warfronts -- not with the idea of fighting against the invading enemy troops rather with one of stealing arms. Bani-Sadr and his aides were involved in the plot and even though they had not been really involved in it, they had been exploited by others due to their incapacity, rawness and their ambitions...

"There was another plot against the armed forces, one for incapacitating the Iran Air Force. Whenever it was expected of the ground force to involve itself in ground operations in battles needing the involvement of the artillery and infantry troops, Bani-Sadr involved the air force in the same operations which was all too costly and illogical... The United States intended to cripple our air force, so that the region would be for ever deprived of an air force such as ours. They wasted a part of our capability in the air force within the first few days of the advent of the war. They were hopeful that we could not maintain our aircraft because we did not have spare parts...

"We managed, however, to use our air force's capability soon after Bani-Sadr was ousted.

"Today we do not send our aircraft on senseless sorties. We use them for the right purpose and in the right place. Since March 21 until today (April 30th) the Iraqis have lost about 45 aircraft while we have lost none. But one of our aircraft might have been slightly damaged during its mission. Our resistance gained an impetus soon after Bani-Sadr was somewhat docked of his excess power. Simultaneously Imam Khomeyni founded the Supreme Defence Council. The move made it possible for the people, as well as for the Islamic Consultative Assembly and the imam, to involve themselves in the issue of the war....

"In my judgement, our recent thrusts against the enemy troops in Khuzestan Province will determine the fate of the war. Once our plans have been fully carried we will have repelled the enemy troops from all parts of the province except for a narrow strip near the town of Fakeh. After that it will be the Iranian forces which will threaten Saddam rather than the other way around.

"So far we have insisted that the aggressor should evacuate our territories and that the enemy had to pay war reparations. We had warned them that if they stayed here, we would push them out of our lands and we kept our word. Now we should strangle the enemy in the Persian Gulf, and in Al-Bakr jetty, and elsewhere in Al-Faw and in Iraq's infiltration roads. I think we can maintain our presence in those spots without having to shed blood. Once we increase our defence operations, Iraq will be deprived of some of its resources.

"Our efforts for safeguarding the city of Khorramshahr will place Iraq in such a situation. Once we have achieved this, there remains not much else for us to do. We will not need to bolster our forces very much in such spots as Qasr-e Shirin and part of Ilam in order that we may expel the invading enemy troops from those spots. We should array our troops along the borders in a manner that will ensure our people inside the country so that they may embark on reconstruction tasks in the war-stricken areas with peace of mind..."

PRESS SEEKS SADDAM'S OUSTER, INVASION OF IRAQ

NC291241 Paris AFP in English 1232 GMT 29 May 82

[Text] Tehran, 29 May (AFP) -- The Iranian press today unanimously said the war between Iraq and Iran could only end when Iraqi President Saddam Husayn fell from power, and some newspapers called for Iran to invade Iraq.

"Iranian public opinion wants Saddam to fall," said the ISLAMIC REPUBLIC, the daily of the ruling Islamic Republic Party.

"It is not right to leave a bloody animal dying," the daily added.

The AZADEGAN newspaper, which generally speaks for the radical elements of the Islamic revolution, said: "The savage beasts ruling in Baghdad and their protectors are not reasonable and only understand the language of arms."

AZADEGAN proposed "first conquering an area 50 kms (31 miles) into Iraq, where the artillery which is shelling Iran is set up...then we must cut all means of land, air and sea supply to the corrupt band ruling in Iraq."

"The third stage must be to seize all Iraq's military air bases so that Iraq can no longer bomb Iran. After these actions, the Iraqi people will choose through free elections the regime they want," AZADEGAN concluded in an editorial.

ISLAMIC REPUBLIC added: "The fall of Saddam is not the only goal of the combatants for Islam. Another is the end of American domination in the region."

ISLAMIC REPUBLIC said recent statements by U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig on U.S. concern over the growing dimensions of the Iran-Iraq conflict showed that "their interests in the region are threatened."

The English-language daily KEYHAN said rumours of an American initiative at the United Nations Security Council towards a cease-fire were currently circulating.

The newspaper said politicians should know that if Iranian conditions were met Iran was ready to end hostilities but that if even one such condition was ignored, cease-fire resolutions would have no practical value.

KEYHAN was also the only newspaper to mention statements by Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon on Israeli military aid to Iran, which it said were completely false.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 931

[Communique No 931 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. While saluting all Islam's intrepid fighting troops and expressing appreciation for the hardships endured by each one of the heroes on the battlefields, we wish to bring to your attention a summary of the military operations conducted by the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

At 0939 today, one raiding Iraqi aircraft became the target of fire from one of the fighter aircraft of the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran and was downed over the region northeast of Khark Island. Thanks to heavy fire by our artillery units during the past 24 hours, all activities by the aggressive enemy in the southern operational areas were neutralized. While enjoying fighting superiority, Islam's forces defended those regions under their control.

Yesterday the Saddamist criminals opened fire on residential districts in Abadan, destroying several houses and, by their barbarous act, killing or wounding a number of Abadani compatriots.

In the western operational areas, our combatants opened fire on the Saddamists' tank and infantry positions and fortifications, inflicting losses and casualties on the enemy.

Exchange of fire continued in the Meymak, Sumar, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb regions. On these fronts, Islam's forces destroyed one enemy 106-mm rifle, one heavy machinegun and one ammunition dump, set ablaze one enemy vehicle and several ammunition piles and destroyed a number of trenches, together with the servicemen manning them.

Exchange of fire also continued in the Marivan and Paveh regions. Our forces enjoyed firepower superiority and silenced the enemy artillery fire.

During the past 24 hours, a number of aggressive Iraqi aircraft that violated our country's airspace were forced to flee without having achieved anything, thanks to the timely fire of our antiaircraft units.

12,000 IRAQIS CAPTURED IN RECENT OPERATION

[Text] Gorgan, 1 Jun (IRNA) -- Over 1,400 more Iraqi POWs, captured in Khorramshahr on May 24th, were transferred to Gorgan, Mazandaran Province, northern Iran, Monday morning.

In the continuation of the third stage of the Bayt al-Moqaddas Operation that concluded with the liberation of Khorramshahr, more than twelve thousand Iraqi soldiers have been captured, many of whom have been taken to different parts of the country so far.

CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS' FOUND IN KHORRAMSHAHR

[Text] Tehran, 1 Jun (IRNA) — The high command of the Ba'thist forces of Iraq, according to its instructions, had declared that defence of Khorramshahr was equivalent to the defence of Baghdad and Basrah. This was revealed in confidential documents found in Iraqi bunkers in the liberated port city of Khorramshahr.

On Friday the Majlis speaker in the Friday prayers sermons said that the documents revealed that the enemy had prior information on the place the date and the hour of the Iranian offensive to liberate Khorramshahr. Three days later more confidential documents were found in Khorramshahr by the Islamic troops. These documents revealed that the Iraqi commanders had issued orders to resist against the Iranian forces as much as possible. In the documents, Saddam had said Khorramshahr was a strategic region and part of the defence axis of Baghdad and Basrah and had exphasised that the Iraqi forces should resist until their last bullet.

Following the aggression launched by the Iraqi Ba'thists on September 22nd 1980, the Iranian Armed Forces command, in order to confront the enemy, announced a three stage project as follows: The first stage was to stop the enemy's advance, the second stage was to smash enemy forces and the third stage was to expel Iraqi troops from Iran.

After performing the first two stages, in which it appeared a war of attrition had begun, the third stage was started by the Islamic combatants. In the third stage the Iranian forces, including the armed forces, the revolutionary guards, Public Mobilisation, tribal guerrillas and other popular forces started regional and local offensives. All were successful. The first Iranian operations started by recapturing the strategic heights in western Iran and ended by clearing more than 5,000 square kms of Khuzestan Province, southern Iran. The most important fortress of Iraq in the south was the port city of Khorramshahr.

The well-equipped Iraqi forces in an unequal battle against a small group of Islamic revolutionary guards finally after a one month battle on October 16 1980 occupied Khorramshahr. Saddam intended to occupy Khorramshahr forever and to maintain the control over the whole of the Shatt al-'Arab.

The Fathal-Mubin Operation, which begun on March 22nd 1982, led to the liberation of more than 2,000 square kms of land by Islamic combatants, the capture of 15,000 Iraqi POWs, the killing of 15,000 Iraqi troops and seizing much Iraqi weapons undamaged.

The four armies which Saddam managed to withdraw from these fronts were settled around Khorramshahr and all defensive positions were bolstered to maintain control over this town. Saddam did not imagine that even with all this array of armies and weaponry, one Iranian could penetrate his defence works.

In spite of Iraq's prior knowledge of Iranian strategy, finally the Islamic troops in the Jerusalem Operation offensive on May 24 1982, in less than 24 hours penetrated Iraqi positions in Khorramshahr and the Iraqi forces surrendered themselves hurriedly to the Iranian combatants. The extraordinary forces of the Islamic troops snapped Saddam out of his reveries and taught him and the command staff of the Iraqi Armed Forces that Iranian forces could reoccupy Khuzestan.

Imam Khomeyni said the reactionaries, including Egyptian President Mubarak, cannot now save Saddam. Now Saddam has realised that he will face the same destiny that the defunct Shah as-Sadat faced. This explains Saddam's vengefulness in ordering artillery fire on the residential units of Khorramshahr.

NVOI CALLS FOR END TO WAR ON IRANIAN TERMS

TA020532 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 1 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "America Should Be Deprived of the Opportunity of Exploiting the Imposed War"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: War is continuing, and the Islamic Republic Army, the guards and the popular forces of the Islamic Republic are liberating our homeland's territory step by step from the claws of the foreign aggressors and the agents of the United States in the region.

In the midst of all this, in accordance with Shah Husayn's request, the Security Council held a meeting in order to consult and to review the problem of the war between Iran and Iraq. War and bloodshed, which due to the fault of U.S. imperialism and its elements has been continuing for about 2 years, has rightly aroused the concern of all progressive people in the world.

Therefore, this concern is deriving a wider dimension because every day the war goes on greater human and material losses are inflicted on our combatant nation and the oppressed Iraqi nation as a result of the plot and ploy of America and the region's reactionary regimes. In fact, the nations of our country and Iraq, and in general the nations of our region, enjoy a great economic, political and popular power in the region, and had they implemented an anti-imperialist and anti-Zionist policy and adopted such a stance in the international arena they could have rubbed the mouth of America and Zionism in the dust. However, unfortunately, the situation is not so.

Presently the fighters of the army and the popular forces of our homeland are moving forward victoriously, and our ever-on-the-scene nation has risen, weapons in hand, to crush the aggressive forces and to defend its national sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity. However, this issue does not prevent us from thinking about this point: Who in the final analysis is benefiting from this imposed war, this bloodshed, casualties and damages?

From the very outset of the war, world-devouring America strived and is striving to exploit it for its own benefit. This imposed war provided a new pretext for world-devouring America to escalate its military preparations in the Near East and the Indian Ocean. Under the excuse that an extraordinary and tense situation has developed, the United States is endeavoring to sow as much discord as possible among our region's countries and nations to divert their attention from the aggressions of Zionism. In the hope of speeding up the formation of a pro-Western alliance dependent on the Pentagon and comprising Arab countries, on the basis of the so-called thesis of strategic agreement, America is striving piratically to frighten the region's countries with the danger of the Iranian revolution.

Our region has for a long time now attracted the attention of the Americans as an oil-rich region for implementing their neocolonialist policies. The smell of oil draws the large plundering U.S. oil monopolies toward it. By employing the very colonialist policy of divide and rule in the current circumstances, America is exploiting it extensively to implement its hegemonistic plans. By creating disputes between neighboring countries, America exploits military clashes between them as a pretext for intervention in order to allegedly control the situation and in the final analysis to ascertain its domination over countries and nations. This is the very policy favored by the Americans. The United States resorts to this disagreeable policy every time that a dispute arises between developing countries over territorial issues -- issues that the colonialists themselves left as a legacy. America is precisely exploiting this very policy in the imposed war against our homeland.

As far as we are aware, up to now good-will missions from the United Nations, the nonaligned countries and the Islamic Conference Organization visited our country and Iraq, but all their efforts for ending the war have reached nowhere.

Our Islamic homeland has presented its legitimate demands: the unconditional withdrawal of all Iraqi military personnel from our homeland's territory, payment by Iraq of all damages resulting from the war, provision of the possibility for the return of all those who were forcibly expelled from Iraqi soil and condemnation of the aggressor.

At the same time the war continues and, as we are aware, every day that this imposed war goes on it inflicts more deprivations, devastation and casualties. America and the reactionary regimes have an interest in the prolongation of this imposed war and are exacerbating it to the utmost.

As the leaders of our Islamic Republic have repeatedly stated, our nation does not want to be at war with any country or nation; if the Security Council can take any step in ending this imposed war on the basis of the legitimate and just demands of our Islamic Republic, without doubt this will be welcomed. Our nation is aware that ending this imposed war and aggression is at the same time tantamount to a defeat for America's policy in the Near and Middle East, and to creating a vast potential for mobilizing all popular forces of our region for struggle against U.S. imperialism and Zionism.

BAQIR AL-HAKIM ON NEXT GOVERNMENT IN IRAQ

GF300753 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0700 GMT 30 May 82

[Text] In a statement to our correspondent in Mashhad, Hojjat ol-Eslam al-Hakim, director of the office of the Islamic revolution of Iraq, said that the Muslim Iraqi people, through their great mass demonstrations in most of Iraq's northern cities, are now awaiting the fall of Saddam's regime and the triumph of the Islamic revolution in Iraq.

His eminence said that the number of Iraqi soldiers deserting is constantly increasing and that this indicates the awareness of the Iraqi Armed Forces. He said that the present Iraqi regime will be totally destroyed soon as a result of the awareness of the armed forces, which constitute Saddam's last support in Iraq.

Referring to the next government in Iraq, Hojjat ol-Eslam al-Hakim said: Let the United States, the plunderer of the wealth of nations, and all stooges in the East and the West, know that the Iraqi people will not accept anything short of an Islamic republic similar to the revolutionary Islamic regime in Iran. His eminence added: Such an Islamic government should be led by a person who will assume the authority of theocratic rule and who has demonstrated his dedication to Islam throughout the stages of the Islamic revolution. He declared: Theocratic rule is to supervise the running of the country.

MUSAVI-TABRIZI ON SITUATION OF 'MINIGROUPS'

GF011620 Tehran ETTELA'AT in Persian 20 May 82 p 18

[Interview with Islamic Revolution Prosecutor General Hojjat ol-Eslam Musavi-Tabrizi -- date, place not given]

[Excerpts] The chief revolution prosecutor said the following about the present position of the minigroups:

Thank God, the minigroups have made no progress in society. They constantly commit inhuman acts, such as indiscriminate assassinations in the streets. With respect to political position and relations with foreign countries, the minigroups abroad no longer have customers since the Government of the Islamic Republic, which is on the verge of complete victory in the war of right against wrong, can voice its opinions in the world with preseverence and firmness. Political actors who had daily interviews with Rajavi and Bani-Sadr or others which were then broadcast by the Western trumpets now realize that such empty words cannot be effective in Iran or in international circles. Therefore, they have been defeated politically as well.

On the subject of the military position of the minigroups, the chief revolution prosecutor said: From the military and terrorist points of view, those who want to do things on the basis of politics and doctrine must surely base such acts on specific aims. When they are defeated and have reached a dead end, they resort to indiscriminate actions out of rage. Only terrorists resort to terrorist acts! After the 20 June incident [date of Bani-Sadr's dismissal], we asked them why they resorted to terrorism and destruction. They said: Since we have the support of the majority of the people, we want to establish a just government based on true Islam and thus bring about a popular government favored by the people. This was the slogan of such people and their aim. When they martyred the president and prime minister, they presumably thought that they are fighting the regime of the Islamic Republic. Politically, the people gave the necessary cooperation to the Government of the Islamic Republic.

This is when they became disenchanted with the people. They realized that the slogans they were chanting in the first days could not be implemented by them and the people no longer accepted them. They thus decided to assassinate more and more figures at the cost of their own lives and began attacking people for revenge. This is where the blind and aimless assassinations began. Now it does not matter to them whether it is a child or an old man or a shopkeeper. By planting bombs and grenades in water canals at the side of the road where innocent pedestrians walk and exploding them, they want to create terror.

He added: They are pacing the streets aimlessly now and should they come fact to face with a clergyman or a faithful person, they open fire without being aware of their victim's character. Alternatively, they go to schools in the guise of guards and with forged warrants, gather up members of the school's Islamic society in one place, blow the school up and then escape. They planted a bomb in Imam Khomeyni's mosque. This must be investigated. When you plant a bomb in a mosque, it is not aimed at an individual; the mosque belongs to the people.

He added: Ninety percent of the warring minigroup members have been arrested. The hideout of the treacherous Musa Khiabani and the central command of the hypocrite organization was discovered and destroyed with the aid of the 36-million-strong intelligence organization and the cooperation of the guards, committees and law enforcement agents.

In the second phase of the operation, following 1 and 1/2 months of search and observation, around 14 other safehouses were discovered, in which over 60 of the leading members of the organization -- they only number between 200 to 300 throughout the country -- were arrested or annihilated. Another safehouse was discovered following these operations and nine active members of the hypocrites, including Javad Fazel, were annihilated. Following this another two safehouses were discovered, in which four were arrested and the rest of the occupants killed. In general, around 86 high-ranking members of these warring minigroups and hypocrites were, thank God, killed or arrested by the Hezbollahi.

The chief revolution prosecutor made the following statement in conclusion to warn and inform Hezbollahi nation and national officials:

The people must be aware that the treacherous terrorists go to shops, houses, offices and homes, streets and government offices and deal blows. Some of them go to the houses in the guise of the Guard Corps, committee guards or prosecutor's agents, take those inside to undisclosed locations, and then threaten the people, ordering them to contact their relatives and tell them that they are on such and such committee. When the relatives go, there is no sign of them. Then the terrorists assassinate those they kidnapped. The chief revolution prosecutor's office warns the Hezbollahi nation to beware and contact the prosecutor's office or the Central Committee or the revolution guards about such contacts and make inquiries. Schoolmasters are especially required not to allow anyone to contact the students inside the schools.

He added: Those who want to rent their houses should be aware of the identity of the tenant or look into his identity before renting their property. They must report all suspicious movements to the revolution prosecutor's office. If they do not, then they have committed a crime and will be prosecuted.

Free Voice of Iran Report

GF311610 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 31 May 82

[Text] We start the newscast with a report from Tehran: Street clashes have again occurred in Tehran. According to our reporter, dozens of guards have been killed in the clashes. The radio and television of the mullahs regime, however, have not reported any of this.

According to various dispatches, in armed clashes yesterday between the people and armed opposition members and the regime's guards, five of the armed fighters unfortunately lost their lives. In the past week 68 of the Khomeyni regime's agents were killed in lightning attacks by the opposition or during street clashes in Tehran. In his report, our correspondent revealed that many of the dead were guards who lost their lives in bomb explosions at headquarters of committee guards.

Our correspondent, quoting the Mojahedin-e Khalq-e Iran organization in Paris, reported that two regime agents who were members of the anti-Islamic society of the Education and Development [Ministry] were killed by the Mojahedin task force.

In a statement issued in Paris, the organization also refuted the regime's claim concerning the arrest and execution of Mrs 'Aliyeh Bazargan, which allegedly occurred during recent clashes. According to the Mojahedin organization, Mrs Bazargan and several others said to be her colleagues were executed last year and the regime issued their names for propaganda purposes.

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. God is great! God is great! With the dawning of the victory of Islam over international paganism, once again with divine succor, the fiery wrath of the Islamic nation has fallen on the weblike nests and Satanic installations of another American minigroup and, with lightning speed, has cleansed the martyr-nurturing region of Lorestan of these counterrevolutionary deceivers.

The organization of the American Cherikha-ye [Feda'i-ye Khalq] minority, whose hands are stained with the blood of the elite of the Islamic nation's offspring and which has blackened the pages of history in Kordestan, Gonbad and all the various parts of the country, has been completely dismantled with the cooperation of the 36-million-strong intelligence organization and the persevering efforts of the fearless guards.

With the discovery of 4 publishing centers and 3 military centers, more than 80 persons of the central cadre of the Lorestan branch and the active members and office holders in the cities of Khorramabad, Borujerd, Dowrud, Arak, Nahavand and villages between the cities have been arrested.

These will be placed at the disposal of the combatant and martyr-nurturing nation at the first opportunity as soon as more data is obtained.

The Islamic Revolution Guards Corps of Lorestan warns all supporters of this minigroup that the membership and machinery of the organization have been completely wrecked. They should take advantage of this opportunity to ponder seriously and realistically or they will meet the same fate as their deceased colleagues.

[Excerpts] Oh heroic and martyr-nurturing nation of Iran: The sworn enemies of the Islamic revolution and mercenary elements of the United States and the Soviet Union imagined that they could stand up before God, the Hezbollahi and Khomeyni, the spirit of God, and by murder, arson and massacring innocent people be able to halt the revolution. They are unaware of the fact that God is the guardian of the revolution and it is not possible to fight God. We saw how the criminal hand of the United States which emerged from the sleeve of Ba'thist Iraq was cut off by our selfless youths on the battlefield, how they achieve (?repeated) miraculous victories and how in the country itself the conspiracies of the superpowers' agents are foiled one after another and their stooges are identified by the 36 million people, arrested and given to the hands of justice.

GOVERNMENT FACILITIES ATTACKED IN KORDESTAN

[Text] Attacks by nationalist forces in Kordestan have inflicted heavy damage on the headquarters of guards, committees and government organizations in Oshnoviyeh. According to our reporter, the Department of Education and library buildings in the city are among the government facilities that were almost destroyed.

Our correspondent, quoting the spokesmen for the armed combatants in Kordestan, states that the destruction of government facilities is a warning to those individuals who continue to serve the Khomeyni regime in disregard of previous warnings.

The same spokesmen asked residents of Western Azarbayjan cities not to leave their houses if they hear shots being fired since the armed combatants' battle is against the agents of the regime. Citizens may endanger their lives if they leave their houses.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

4 JUNE 1982

Israel

Shooting of London Ambassador -- Israel's Ambassador to Britain Shlomo Argov was rushed to the hospital in critical condition after being shot in the head near a London hotel late on 3 June, Jerusalem radio reported. His assailant was wounded and captured by police and two more suspects were subsequently arrested. The three men were carrying Jordanian and Iraqi passports but are believed to be Palestinians, according to the LONDON PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir said he was "shocked" by the "criminal attack" staged by Arab terrorists and asserted that the wave of terrorist acts against Israeli representatives throughout the world is being renewed, Jerusalem radio noted. In an interview with IDF radio, an Israeli military analyst opined that the PLO is undoubtedly connected with the attack and that it is hard to believe such an attack will pass without an Israeli reaction.

The PLO's London representative denied responsibility for the assassination attempt, according to the LONDON PRESS ASSOCIATION. Asserting that the attack served Israeli and not Palestinian interests, he said it will be used by the Israeli Government to justify further attacks on Palestinians in Lebanon. However, political sources in Jerusalem rejected the PLO denial, saying the question of which organization the assassins were acting for is unimportant since all the terrorist organizations are under the PLO's umbrella, IDF radio reported.

Shamir Call for PLO Liquidation -- One should aim at the final liquidation of the PLO as a terrorist and political element since only this will prepare the ground for "completing" the Camp David process and make possible the signing of peace agreements with the rest of Israel's neighbors, Foreign Minister Shamir said in remarks transmitted by ITIM on 3 June.

Genscher Visit -- Visiting FRG Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher held separate meetings with Prime Minister Menahem Begin and Foreign Minister Shamir, according to Jerusalem radio and television reports. Begin said Europe should take care not to suggest a solution to the Middle East conflict that endangers the well-being of the Jewish people and Genscher replied that the European countries do not intend to impose a solution unacceptable to Israel, the television reported.

Egypt

'Ali U.S. Visit, Summit and Autonomy Issues -- During his forthcoming visit to Washington, Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali will deliver an important message to President Ronald Reagan from President Husni Mubarak, MENA reported citing AL-AHRAM. The message deals with the Iran-Iraq war, the reactivation of the Palestinian autonomy talks and bilateral relations, the report said. Noting that the ending of the Iran-Iraq war and the realization of progress in the autonomy discussions would contribute to stability in the Middle East, AL-AHRAM said Egypt wants to hold separate ministerial negotiations with Israel and the United States to ascertain their stands on the autonomy issue. This will determine the possibility of holding a tripartite summit among the three states. "Expediting" the summit will not produce the desired results, AL-AHRAM added. Therefore, discussions at ministerial and expert level are necessary to prepare for such a summit. Meanwhile, Kuwait's AL-ANBA' reported that Mubarak is resisting U.S. pressure to attend a tripartite summit with Reagan and Begin because he considers such a meeting to be futile unless Israel makes new concessions.

According to another AL-AHRAM report cited by MENA, Foreign Ministry First Under Secretary Usumah al-Baz has submitted a report to Mubarak emphasizing that Egypt considers: 1) It is necessary to resume the autonomy talks to end current conditions in the West Bank and Gaza; 2) it is possible at a future stage to hold a tripartite summit to resolve urgent issues; 3) it is necessary to avoid procedural differences such as the venue for holding the negotiations.

Abu Ghazalah Interview -- Because Gulf oil is transported through Egyptian territory, the Gulf's security falls within the framework of Egyptian interests, Defense Minister 'Abd al-Halim Abu Ghazalah said in an interview with the weekly AL-MUSAWWAR reported by MENA. Abu Ghazalah said responsibility for Gulf security lies with the Arab nation, which can create a deterrent force capable of defending this security provided intentions are sincere. According to AFP, he also told AL-MUSAWWAR that Egypt is studying a proposal by Britain and France for joint military exercises with the Egyptian Army.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Military Situation -- Iraqi forward units pounded Iranian positions in the Khorramshahr area and fighter planes raided Iranian troop concentrations in the southern sector of the operational theater, according to a military communique carried by INA.

According to an armed forces communique carried by Tehran radio, exchanges of fire continued on most fronts in the southern areas of Iran with the heaviest exchanges taking place in the Kushk and Shalamcheh regions.

Iraqi Commentary -- Iraqi aircraft will deal a "fatal blow" to Iran next time it shells Iraqi cities and civilian installations, INA reported citing an ATH-THAWRAH commentary. INA noted that the commentary brought to mind previous Iraqi warnings and the Iraqi aircraft raids against Khark Island and the Tabriz refinery.

Peace Plan -- The GCC foreign ministers have drawn up a three-point peace plan to end the Iran-Iraq war, according to well-informed sources close to the council cited by Kuwait's AL-ANBA'. The plan calls for a cease-fire, Iraqi withdrawal from Iranian territory to the common international border based on the 1975 Algiers agreement and negotiations with third parties to solve disputed issues.

Iraq

Deputy Prime Minister Tariq 'Aziz arrived in Moscow for talks with Soviet officials on bilateral relations, the situation in the region and other issues of mutual interest, INA reported.

Iran-Kuwait Relations

The Iranian ambassador to Kuwait, 'Ali Shams Ardakani, sent a message to the Kuwaiti Chamber of Commerce warning traders not to use the term "Arabian Gulf" on shipping manifests, AL-ANBA' reported citing chamber sources. The envoy's message said Iranian authorities would intercept ships heading for Kuwait if the Gulf is referred to as the Arabian Gulf and not the Persian Gulf, AL-ANBA' claimed. In a letter published by the paper, the chamber's legal adviser confirmed that the chamber had received a circular from the Iranian Embassy which announced that ship owners should use the term "Persian Gulf" on their documents, but he denied the circular had mentioned that Iranian authorities would search, intercept or waylay ships coming to Kuwait.

Meanwhile an Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesman categorically denied that Iran had issued any such warning to the Kuwaiti Chamber of Commerce, Tehran radio reported. Nevertheless, Ardakani admitted he had spoken to the chamber on the subject and had pointed out the "historic and traditional" name of the Gulf, according to Kuwait's ARAB TIMES.

Kuwait

The first secretary of the Kuwaiti Embassy in New Delhi was shot and killed near his home, KUNA reported citing the Kuwaiti ambassador to India.

AFP ON FIGHTING IN PANJSHER, ELSEWHERE

BK040236 Hong Kong AFP in English 0214 GMT 4 Jun 82

[Text] Islamabad, 4 Jun (AFP) -- The Kabul regime and Afghanistan's Moslem resistance both claim to be in control of the Panjsher Valley 90 kilometers (56 miles) north of the capital, an area that for two years has been a symbol of the fight against Soviet intervention forces.

Radio Kabul Wednesday night issued a bulletin reporting that the sixth Soviet offensive in the valley had been successful and that the "counter-revolutionaries" inhabiting the region had fled.

At Peshawar, Pakistan, on the other hand, the Jam'iat-e Eslami organization to which the Panjsher rebels belong claimed that Soviet-Afghan troops had withdrawn from the valley after suffering heavy losses. The bulletin said the offensive was the largest confrontation since the Soviet intervention in December 1979.

Journalists were unable to confirm the conflicting reports on the region, where Afghan resistance until now has been well-organized.

Western diplomats in Kabul said on Wednesday that the Soviet-backed Afghan troops had perhaps taken some "key positions" in the Panjsher Valley, and they reported that long vehicle convoys belonging to Soviet units involved in the offensive were making their way back to Kabul.

There were reports meanwhile that resistance in other areas of the country was increasing.

There were reports at the French Embassy in Kabul of Afghan Government rumors concerning the possible capture by Soviet-Afghan forces of four French doctors who had run the rebel hospital in the Panjsher Valley.

At Peshawar, sources close to the resistance said that the doctors had "disappeared" because the rebel commander, Masud Shah, had evacuated them toward another region when the offensive began.

The sources said that an American journalist, Edward Girardey of the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR, and Peter Juvenal, a British free-lance photographer, probably had witnessed the offensive.

The diplomats said they had seen on Afghan television "spontaneous pro-governmental demonstrations" filmed in Panjsher Valley villages, but the news director of Afghan television, who fled the country one year ago, said that the demonstrators were mostly party members or military personnel dressed in traditional peasant clothing.

According to the diplomats, while the Panjsher Valley was attacked by converging forces of several thousand soldiers, the resistance destroyed approximately 12 airplanes at Baghram Air Base north of Kabul.

There were reports also of attacks within the capital.

The rebels are said to have reopened operations in Herat, the country's third-largest city, where last month mortar shells damaged the secret police headquarters, a sports stadium during a government rally and several other public buildings.

Official media reported that the explosions were due to an "artillery salvo" that was part of an official ceremony, but the shells left many victims, and Soviet helicopters carried out reprisals against surrounding villages.

PANJSHER VILLAGERS INTERVIEWED ON REBEL ACTIVITY

LD031334 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 0930 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Text] The heroic armed forces, with the cooperation of the people, recently eliminated rebels in the Panjsher District, thus saving the toiling and persecuted people of the district from their ordeals. The people are continuing their normal daily life.

In connection with the inhuman and anti-Islamic actions of the servants of imperialism in Panjsher, the BAKHTAR correspondent interviewed a number of the inhabitants of the Panjsher District villages.

Mohammad Osman, an inhabitant of Astana village, in reply to a question said that the people of our village suffered great losses during the period they were under the oppression and torture of rebels. We did not know what to do, or where to go and complain; we had no choice but to be patient. All routes to Parvan Province were closed. Hunger grew and prices rose day by day. One gallon of kerosene sold for 200 afghanis. There was no wheat flour at all in our village. The people had nothing to eat. The rebels increased their pressure on us every day. When the heroic troops rescued us they did not spare any kind of help and human love.

Regarding the activities of the rebels, he said the rebels came every day to our village and they followed us. Now that we have been rescued from the clutches of the rebels we want peace, and we know that the rebels have been shut out forever from our region.

He added that from the day when the armed forces gained complete and full control of the Panjsher District the people realized that the armed forces had come to rescue us. The people throughout Panjsher, because of the trust they give the armed forces, all came down from the mountains and are returning to their homes.

Khan Joma. another inhabitant of the locality, stated that the sacrifice and heroism of the armed forces who eliminated so quickly all the rebels in Panjsher, are praiseworthy. They took people every day to the mountains and forced them to work. They built hideouts and, when the armed forces gained control of all the regions, we became confident that the so-called mujahidin have been completely eliminated. He said that we accept everything the government says; we believe and trust the government. He also added that the rebels and their ringleaders had a comfortable life; they did whatever they wanted, they emptied our reserves of wheat flour and they took whatever they wanted from us.

BRIEFS

BAN ON FOREIGN DRUGS -- Dacca, 1 Jun (AFP) -- The military regime of Lt. Gen. Ershad has decided to stop some multinational pharmaceutical companies from marketing their products in Bangladesh, the daily BANGLADESH TIMES reported. The daily said a decision has also been taken to prohibit manufacture and sale of over 1,740 items of pharmaceutical products in the country. The decisions were taken after consideration of the recommendation of the eight-member expert committee on drugs constituted about a month ago. The committee which submitted its reports to government recently evaluated different aspects of about 4,170 items of registered drugs currently available in the market. The committee followed guidelines that not more than 248 basic drugs are essential, the paper said, adding that although the prohibited drugs numbering over 1,740 would be allowed to be sold till December 31, some of the dangerous drugs would be banned with immediate effect. A decision has also been taken to the effect that no foreign product will be allowed to be manufactured under license in any factory if the same or similar products are available or manufactured in Bangladesh. The measure, according to experts, would save the government a lot of money annually by stopping import of or manufacture of unnecessary drugs. [Hong Kong AFP in English 0029 GMT 1 Jun 82 BK]

HERALD REPORTS ON NUCLEAR FUEL RESEARCH

BK030955 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 27 May 82 p 7

[V.H. Desai article: "How Well Can India Make N-Fuel?"]

[Excerpt] With the USA refusing to give nuclear fuel for the Tarapur plant, how is India placed to produce her own nuclear fuel? The answer is that we are really well placed. Indeed, we are among a select band of countries, and the only developing one among them, to have mastered the technology of the complete nuclear fuel cycle -- from uranium exploration, mining, extraction and conversion, fuel fabrication, heavy water production, reactors and reprocessing of the spent fuel. Nuclear fuel production is an important part of the cycle.

As a culmination of the research work done at the Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, the Nuclear Fuel Complex (NFC) was set up at Hyderabad in 1971.

This unit has got the facility to produce ceramic grade natural uranium fuel for Candu-type reactors as well as to process enriched uranium fuel for the Tarapur atomic power station.

Nuclear fuel has two basic components -- uranium oxide pellets and thin-walled zircaloy tubes. The different plants in NFC produce these two components starting right from the raw material.

On the uranium side, the "yellow cake" which is received from Jaduguda mines in Bihar is processed through a series of chemical operations for production of uranium oxide powder which is further processed by compaction and sintering for production of uranium oxide pellets.

On the zirconium side the zircon sand which is received from the Indian rare earths plant in Kerala is processed to produce zirconium oxide which is converted into zirconium sponge by magnesium reduction and further into zircaloy. The zircaloy ingots go through the process of extrusion for producing thin-walled fuel tubes and coolant tubes. The uranium oxide pellets are encased in zircaloy tubes and made into bundles which are used as basic fuel elements in nuclear reactors. The coolant tubes and calandria tube, which form the core of the nuclear reactor are also manufactured in NFC.

NFC is one of the very few places in the world where the entire process starting from raw material to assembly of fuel bundles is made under one roof. All the processes used in NFC are initially tried and perfected at the Bhabha Atomic Research Centre (BARC) and later transferred for production on an industrial scale.

NFC has also got a special materials plant where ultra high purity materials like tantolum, tin, indium, bismuth, gallium etc. are produced for application in the electronics industry.

As an important substitution measure adopted by the Government of India, NFC has gone into the production of seamless stainless steel and ball-bearing tubes. The seamless stainless steel tube plant has a capacity of 2,000 tonnes and can cater to a number of industries for fabrication of heat exchangers and other chemical operations. The ball-bearing tubes plant, with a capacity of 21,000 tonnes, can cater to the needs of the ball-bearing industry in the country.

With vast reserves of thorium, India has a good potential for developing fast breeder reactors which employ thorium as a basic raw material. In the fast breeder type of reactors, thorium oxide pellets are used as fertile material in the core of the reactor. A plant for fabricating components for the fast breeder test reactor coming up at Kalpakkam near Madras has also been set up at NFC.

To meet the needs of fuel for the new reactors coming up in the sixth plan, the capacity of fuel production at NFC is to be doubled to 200 tonnes per year for which additional facilities are coming up in the various fuel plants.

As a supplier of nuclear fuel, which is vital to the setting up of nuclear power reactors in different parts of the country, NFC occupies a unique position on the nuclear map of India.

Since radioactive materials like uranium are a health hazard the Department of Atomic Energy, which runs NFC, gives overriding priority to the conservation of the ecology of the areas. Prevention of air and water pollution are the paramount consideration.

There is a health physics division to monitor the pollution levels in air and water sources around nuclear installations like NFC and take preventive measures.

HAQ DEPARTS FOR JIDDA PEACE COMMITTEE TALKS

BK040335 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1700 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Text] President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq has said that the Islamic peace committee's meeting in Jidda is another effort in the series of attempts to bring about a peaceful end to the Iran-Iraq war. He was talking to newsmen at the Karachi airport this evening before leaving for Jidda to attend the committee's meeting which begins on Saturday. The president said so far as he was aware there was no specific proposal before the committee for ending the war. He said the breakthrough could be achieved if there was some flexibility in the stand of both Iraq and Iran. He said that we can only hope and pray that the two Islamic states will end the war, which will not only be in the interest of both of them but the entire Islamic world. He said if the war continued the advantage would only go to the anti-Islamic forces. The president, therefore, stressed that the efforts to end the Iran-Iraq war should continue to the pursuit.

Replying to a question about the India-Pakistan talks, the president said no date has been fixed, but the mere fact that Natwar Singh [secretary in the Indian Foreign Ministry] came was a step forward.

A correspondent drew the president's attention to a recent statement in Karachi by the Soviet ambassador to the alleged existence of training camps for subversive activities in Afghanistan. The president categorically stated that no such camp existed on the Pakistani soil. He said we have invited the Soviet Union to identify the places where such camps existed. He had even offered to take them himself to such places to see for themselves that there were no such camps in Pakistan. But, the president added, there had been no response from them.

The president, who left by a commercial flight, was accompanied by the secretary general of foreign affairs, Shahnawaz, and the additional foreign secretary, Zafarul Islam. The president was seen off at the airport by Sind Governor Lt Gen S.M. Abbasi and other senior civil and military officials.

KHAMENE'I: $150 BILLION IN WAR DAMAGES SOUGHT

LD041054 Tehran IRNA in English 1015 GMT 4 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, [date indistinct] (IRNA) -- President Khamene'i today reiterated that Iran was not belligerent and was only seeking its due rights in the war.

Addressing thousands of Friday prayers worshippers in Tehran University campus on the eve of the anniversary of the June 5th uprising led by Imam Khomeyni in 1963, the president urged neighboring countries to unite with Iran, now that the war was nearing its end, and pool their efforts to liberate Jerusalem.

He added Iran wanted Saddam to be tried for the crimes he had perpetrated and that Iran wanted 150 billion dollars in war remuneration.

Speaking on the catastrophes the Iraqi regime was creating, President Khamene'i said still Iranian towns were under the volleys of Iraqi bombs and the Iraqi regime did not seem to be planning to end this policy of aggression.

The president, speaking on the imperialist news agencies, said people of the world had to punish them for they kept lying to the people all the time.

He then called once again for the expulsion of the aggressor Iraqis from Iran and the return of the Iraqi deportees to their country.

Referring to the U.S.'s calls for the safeguarding of its interests in the region, President Khamene'i emphasised that the region's problems concerned only Iran and the countries of the region, and did not concern anyone else including the U.S. and other powers.

In this context, he said Iran would not allow any other entity in the region except the countries of the region and he warned countries not to forego their interests in the region.

Speaking on the liberation of Khorramshahr, the president said he predicted an increase in counterrevolutionaries' activities for after a great victory they all augmented their sabotage.

President Khamene'i said that Iran had made considerable progress in the war when compared to last year and it now felt powerful in the fact of the strongest power in the world - the U.S.

During Friday prayers, which this week enjoys special importance, since it coincides not only with the June 5th uprising, but also with the birth anniversary of imam mahdi (the 12th imam of the household of the prophet), on Tuesday, President Khamene'i said that the movement of June 5th 1963 was the beginning of the Islamic revolution which culminated in the victory of February 11th 1979.

He said that three elements: The people, leadership and religious motivation were the leading factors in that movement. He said it was the ordinary Muslim people who were active in that uprising and no party, neither Marxists nor nationalists even had a role in the uprising.

On June 5th 1963, more than 15,000 people were martyred by the defunct shah's troops as people, led by Imam Khomeyni, protested to the policies of the shah, dictated to him by the U.S. and the Zionist regime. Also, June 5th marks the anniversary of the uprising of another member of the militant ulema, (Mirza Kuchk Khan Jangali), who rose to oppose the deviation of the constitutional revolution of Iran in 1906.

FOREIGN MINISTRY DENIES WARNING KUWAIT

LD031842 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, the Foreign Affairs Ministry spokesman has categorically denied a baseless rumor that Iran has warned Kuwait's Chamber of Commerce that in case merchant vessels did not use the true name of the Persian Gulf, these vessels would be searched by the Iranian fleet.

The Foreign Ministry spokesman, referring to the rumor spread by Western media quoting the Kuwaiti newspaper AL-ANBA said: Both the papers that are receiving money from Iraq and the imperialist news agencies are trying to create an atmosphere of mistrust between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the countries of the region through such false news.

Meanwhile, the IRNA correspondent in Kuwait has reported that Mr Shams Ardakani, the Iranian ambassador to Kuwait, has also denied the said rumor in an interview.

KHOMEYNI PRAISES UNITY OF GUARDS, ARMED FORCES

GF031807 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Speech by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni to gathering of Islamic Revolution Guard Corps commanders on 3 June -- no location given -- recorded, duration 11 minutes]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. As these brothers, these very dear brothers, wish to meet me, I also like to see their shining, dear faces. However, there are some important and other matters that should (?gradually be solved). Thanks to the Almighty, now we are so close to 15 Khordad [5 June anniversary of uprising], the situation in Iran generally and the condition of the armed forces especially is very different than that at the same time last year. Thank the Almighty for the cohesiveness that has now been achieved in all the armed forces. The attempts that were being made to divide them via a U.S. plan to pit those people who could be active against one another have been doomed and neutralized. The people and the clergymen who come to me are all surprised at the brotherhood among all the groups.

It should be said that when people who are not familiar come, they cannot recognize who is from the army, who from the guards and who from the Mobilization. Such is their closeness and unity.

If those who are active militarily become divided, God forbid, that will be the day the United States will come close to its aims. Therefore, if you and the courts see that some, for example, are acting for or against your desires, at such a time people should not consider their own desires. When the honor of Islam is at stake and you see that all the powerful ones and all the propaganda are against everyone -- it has always been against all and especially the dear guards from the start -- people should sacrifice all their desires for [word indistinct] for Islam, for the decrees of Islam.

You and all our combatants are truly the ones who put people to shame when they compare themselves with you, people who are sacrificing their lives, which are the true possessions of human beings. We have no such blessing but pray for you.

Rest assured that so long as Iran is in the same situation and, thank God, is progressing... [sentence left incomplete]. Many people who have been and are pessimistic regarding Islam continue to hope that Islam had only a few more months. They kept saying "a few months" but now they see that 3 years have passed and the cohesiveness and [word indistinct] are greater.

I hope that the longer this life continues, the more the activity and the nation will increase and the greater our cohesiveness will be.

Those who are sitting in the hope of a return of monarchy to Iran -- what the monarchists want -- or a return to a democratic republic without a religious interpretation will go to the graveyard and, God willing, cannot [do anything].

The condition, though, is that [words indistinct]. The Almighty has approved. [Words indistinct] follows our [word indistinct]. If we (?ask God's help) and work for God and His religion...[sentence left incomplete] One case is that if we have any complaints, now is (?not) the time; they should be filed now and when (?things have been sorted out), if any remain, then [words indistinct]. Today is not the time for people who hold grudges. If you say something or the army people something else, such things should not take place now.

We must all be together. There is a common enemy whom we should defeat first and then solve the complaints. If they are not solved [words indistinct].

I pray for all of you and hope that the honor you have now in the world and in Iran... [sentence left incomplete] If you look at (?all the pages), Iran is discussed everywhere. Everyone is afraid of this Iranian and Islamic movement, even though the Islamic nations are not scared and the Islamic governments should not be scared either since Iran has no plan to pressure Islamic governments.

We wish for the success of Islam. They should conform to Islam and we all agree with them. Our common enemies today -- Israel, the United States and those like them who want to dishonor us and oppress us again -- can then be defeated. When we defeat this common enemy, then everyone can govern in his own place. God willing, you will be successful and (?united). I pray for you and you should pray that I do not become negligent of such prayers.

RECONSTRUCTION OF WAR-DAMAGED AREAS TO BEGIN

Khomeyni Message

LD031022 Tehran IRNA in English 0935 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 3 Jun (IRNA) -- In a message on Thursday, Imam Khomeyni, the leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran, while appreciating the nation's sacrifices, stressed on coordination in reconstruction of war-stricken areas, through the war-demolished areas rehabilitation high council.

Imam Khomeyni attributed peoples' all-out and voluntary efforts to rehabilitate the areas ruined in the war, in the aftermath of the liberation of Khorramshahr, to God's bounties and one of war's [word indistinct]. The imam then said that had made people closer to each other thus sharing each other's griefs and joys.

He then noted he was never capable of thanking people from all walks of life who had expressed their readiness for undertaking such a task, and that only the supreme Lord was capable of doing so.

The leader of the Islamic revolution then called on all volunteers to coordinate their efforts through the war-demolished areas rehabilitation high council operating under the aegis of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, to avoid energy wastes and discrepancies, and achieving the goal sooner.

The imam then implored the Almighty God for elimination of Islam's and mankind's enemies.

Repairs to Oil Industry

LD032302 Tehran IRNA in English 1945 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 3 Jun (IRNA) -- Special groups of the Oil Ministry and the national petrochemical industries company are preparing plans to reconstruct those parts of the oil industry which have been damaged in the Iraqi imposed war, announced Deputy Oil Minister Taheri Najafabadi. He added that the Oil Ministry was empowered with sufficient personnel to carry out the task.

The oil and petrochemical industries, he continued, had always been the targets of Iraqi bombings, and hence reconstructing them was to be implemented according to the damage they have sustained. He concluded that all units had been working despite the incessant attacks of the enemy, and this, he noted, was due only to the efforts of the workers and most important of all, Almighty God.

Tehran Commentary

GF031526 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 2 Jun 82

[Text] Dear listeners: The crusade for the reconstruction of war-stricken areas has begun work after the wide-ranging attacks the Islamic fighters launched against the mercenary Ba'thist Iraqis, scoring consecutive defeats on the latter and forcing them to withdraw. The crusade, which consists of representatives of the Ministries of Housing and Urban Development, Roads and Transport, Energy, Industry, Defense, Petroleum, Agriculture, Economy and Finance, and the Ministry of State in charge of the Plan and Budget Organization, as well as representatives of the reconstruction crusade and war refugees organizations, has commenced work to reconstruct and repair the battle zones destroyed by the mercenary Ba'thists.

It will be recalled that numerous towns and villages and industrial and agricultural regions have been totally destroyed by the artillery shells the Saddam forces have been firing in the course of the war which Iraq imposed on the Islamic Republic of Iran. The Ba'thist forces of Saddam have not only burned down homes and sacred places like mosques, schools and tombs in Khorramshahr, Susangerd and other villages and towns in western Iran, but they have also caused extensive damage to industrial and residential regions of Dezful, Ahvaz and Abadan with their long-range artillery.

Following the liberation of Khorramshahr, the Government of the Islamic Republic allocated R400 billion as a first step in reconstruction. Just as they forced the world oppressors to kneel at the battlefronts, the self-sacrificing Iranians are now working day and night to reconstruct the battle zones, voluntarily sharing the responsibilities in the effort required.

The Red Crescent of the Islamic Republic has shouldered the responsibility of reconstructing Khorramshahr -- a city of martyrs and resistance. The foundation for the (?oppressed) has pledged to finance the cost of reconstructing Dezful and [word indistinct]. The heroic Azeri people have pledged to reconstruct Bostan and Hamidiyeh. Meanwhile, the (?Sar) organization in Iran has announced it will restore mosques and tombs giving particular emphasis to their regional [word indistinct] and historic value. The heroic people of Kerman, meanwhile, have announced that they are prepared to meet the cost of reconstructing Susangerd.

Thanks to sagacious planning, material aid and manpower are being channeled to both the southern and the western sectors of Iran to restore the devastated regions.

The inhumane crimes committed by world oppressors have moved the conscientious people of the world. The wise and vigilant people of the world are rushing to help Iran at this juncture. A British freedom-loving woman, for example, has donated her [word indistinct] jewelry to the Iranian Embassy in Britain, saying that she wished to contribute toward reconstructing Khorramshahr. Such examples are too numerous to count.

Meanwhile, as a result of intensive work, the railway linking Ahvaz and Khorramshahr will be put into service shortly. Apart from this, plans are ready to supply water and electricity to Khorramshahr and [word indistinct].

It is obvious that the world oppressors are as much disturbed by the effort to reconstruct the devastated battle zones as they were by the liberation of Khorramshahr. This is obvious from the mercenary Ba'thist Iraqi forces' shelling of sacred places like homes and mosques with long-range artillery. For example, the central mosque of Khorramshahr became the target of Saddam's artillery only 24 hours after the city was liberated. Twelve defenseless people were martyred and many others wounded during the incident. Yesterday, on the other hand, a number of the heroic people of Abadan were martyred by long-range artillery. Numerous houses sustained damage.

All this is indicative of the fact that the world oppressors and the Ba'thist Saddam will not cease committing shameful crimes. Nevertheless, our people and the Islamic revolution can no longer tolerate new ruins and the martyrdom of people in a new city every day. The commander of the Iranian Ground Forces has said the following in this respect: By God's will, the regions which have become the target of enemy fire will soon cease to be objectives of attack. It is the Iranian people's most natural right to have secure borders and airspace. The Islamic revolution will continue in its struggle to achieve this.

All international organizations, peace delegations, and all Arab peoples and freedom-loving masses of the world must understand well that if Saddam is not prevented from committing such crimes, the Iranian people will continue the war until they secure their rights and until the centers of [word indistinct] and fire are totally eradicated.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 933

LD031844 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 3 Jun 82

[Communique No 933 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The proud heroes of the battlefields are selflessly fighting in the trenches of honor and faith, and have given a pledge to every drop of the blood of their martyred friends and fellow fighters that so long as any alien remains on this sacred land they will not rest, but will continue to defend Islam and the Islamic homeland until final victory over the aggressive enemies.

During the past 48 hours, exchanges of fire continued on most fronts in the southern areas of the country. The intensity of that fire was greater in the Kushk and Shalamcheh regions.

Saddam's helpless army, with a force made up of one tank battalion and one infantry battalion, resorted to an offensive in the (?Kut) region at 1930 on 1 June, but was confronted by Islam's powerful forces. After losing five tanks, four mortars, two 106-mm rifles, one rocket launcher, several vehicles and diverse weapons it was forced to retreat. During these operations large number of Iraqi soldiers were either killed or wounded.

In the Abadan region, an exchange of fire continued across the banks of the Shatt al-'Arab. Combatants of the Islamic Republic of Iran Gendarmerie destroyed one enemy vehicle carrying fuel, two squad trenches and one assembly point on the opposite bank of the river, and a group of Saddamists wee killed.

In the operational zone in the west of the country sporadic exchanges of fire continued along the Gilan-e Gharb and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab fronts between our irregular tribal warfare fighters along with the rest of our forces deployed in the region and the enemy forces, and in the Ilam and Qasr-e Shirin regions. Our firepower superiority silenced the enemy artillery fire.

During 1-2 June, 42 Iraqi civilians crossed the country's western borders, entered the territory of the Islamic Republic of Iran and requested asylum. Among them were one dentist, two engineers, four teachers and two students.

7 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- Israeli forces moved into southern Lebanon along three axes: the coast, the central sector and the "Fatahland" area, the IDF spokesman announced on 6 June in a statement reported by Jerusalem radio. Citing Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin, the radio said the "Peace of Galilee Operation" is aimed at driving the terrorists 40 km northward to a line above Sidon.

Early on 7 June, the IDF spokesman announced that an IDF infantry force had captured Beaufort Castle during the night, according to Jerusalem radio. However, a Palestinian source claimed Palestinian fedayeen are continuing to defend the castle, Monte Carlo radio reported. Meanwhile, Beirut radio said that despite fierce opposition, Israeli forces entered An-Nabatiyah early on 7 June. Voice of Lebanon radio subsequently reported that the IDF had taken control of the town. Beirut radio also said the Israelis had entered the outskirts of Sidon. Earlier, Monte Carlo radio had noted that the numerous Israeli air and sea-born assaults had included landings at the Awwali bridge north of Sidon and at Az-Zahrani to the south. This followed heavy air attacks on Sidon and the Az-Zahrani refinery as well as on numerous other targets in southern Lebanon, according to Jerusalem radio. By 7 June Israeli troops had generally penetrated around 40 km into Lebanon and had also landed as far north as As-Sa'idiyah, 25 km from Beirut, according to AFP. The Voice of Lebanon said the IDF had destoryed 80 Palestinian posts in the war zone. Meanwhile, VOP claimed that the Palestinians repulsed the Israeli forces in Tyre early on 7 June. However, Voice of Lebanon reported earlier that the situation of the Palestinians in Tyre had become critical due to encirclement by Israeli forces. One hundred Israeli tanks spearheaded the Israeli drive toward Tyre on 6 June, according to Beirut radio.

WAFA claimed on 6 June that the invading forces, which comprise more than 20,000 men, had lost 42 tanks and military vehicles, 2 fighter planes, 2 helicopters, and over 200 men killed, wounded or captured. The IDF spokesman admitted that one Israeli plane and one helicopter had been downed, IDF radio noted.

In the eastern sector the IDF captured Hasbayya, bringing Israeli forces into close proximity with Syrian forces that had advanced to 4 km north of the town, according to Jerusalem radio. Syrian armored forces have also moved toward Israeli positions around An-Nabatiyah, Beirut radio reported on 7 June. Although an Israeli Cabinet statement reported by IDF radio stressed that Syrian forces would not be attacked unless they intervened against the IDF and that Israel has no intention of acting against the Syrians in the Golan or Lebanon, a Syrian military spokesman announced on 6 June that Syrian forces in Lebanon had been instructed to confront the advancing Israeli forces. According to the Syrian announcement, which was carried by Damascus radio, Syrian forces began to clash with the Israelis during the afternoon in Al Jarmaq, Burghuth and at the Hasbayya junction. Citing correspondents in the Al-Biqa' Valley, AFP said the Israelis and Syrians began artillery exchanges in the central and eastern sectors early on 7 June. The previous day, two Syrian armored brigades had moved toward Al-'Ayshiyah in the central sector, according to the Voice of Lebanon. In a statement reported by IDF radio, the IDF spokesman denied a Voice of Lebanon report that a Syrian-Israeli aerial dogfight occurred over the Al-Biqa' Valley early on 7 June. However, a Syrian military spokesman said Syrian planes shot down an Israeli aircraft in a dogfight over Lebanon early on 7 June, according to the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio. The previous day a Syrian military spokesman announced that Syrian air defenses downed an Israeli drone north of Ba'labakk, Damascus radio reported.

Pre-invasion Air Attack, Shelling -- On 4 June Israeli airplanes carried out nine air attacks on Beirut, Beirut radio reported. According to a Voice of Lebanon radio report, at least 250 people were killed and more than 200 injured when the Israelis attacked Palestinian positions in western Beirut and in the southern suburb of the city. An IDF spokesman said the intended targets for the air attack were a Fatah combat training school and an ammunition arsenal located in a sports stadium in Beirut.

According to subsequent Jerusalem radio reports, the terrorists fired on the Galilee panhandle and western Galilee with katyusha missiles and recoilless cannon. One Israeli was killed and three were wounded in the shelling and Israeli forces responded with heavy shelling on terrorist positions on the An-Nabatiyah plateau, the radio said.

On 5 June Israeli planes resumed air raids on southern Lebanon, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. The IDF spokesman announced that the Cabinet had instructed the IDF to continue the assault missions in view of the terrorist shelling in Galilee, Jerusalem radio said. According to a subsequent radio report, Israeli aircraft launched attacks on terrorist targets in the areas of Ad-Damur, Sidon, Tyre, Beaufort Castle and the Arnun plateau in southern Lebanon. Another Jerusalem radio report noted that the terrorists resumed shelling of the Galilee panhandle. The shelling continued early on 6 June, IDF radio noted, but there were no casualties. Jerusalem radio reported no further shelling the night of 7 June.

Reagan, Begin Exchanges -- President Reagan called on the Israeli prime minister to do what he could to prevent military measures that might expand the conflict, IDF radio reported. Prime Minister Begin responded that the IDF had been instructed to drive the terrorists northward so that all Galilee residents would be free from the continual threat to their lives, a GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE text of the message stated. Begin emphasized that Israel does not covet "one inch" of Lebanese territory but has the right to defend itself. He went on to request that Reagan take into consideration the special situation Israel has found itself in as a result of repeated terrorist aggression, which has been encouraged by the Soviet Union. Begin asserted that Israel aspires to sign a peace treaty with a free and independent Lebanon, which can preserve its territory integrity.

Israeli Justification -- Following the attack on the Israeli ambassador in London and in the wake of other cease-fire violations, the Israeli Cabinet ordered the IDF to attack terrorist targets in Beirut, Jerusalem radio reported on 4 June citing an IDF spokesman. In other radio reports, Prime Ministerial Adviser Uri Porat said the assassination attempt against the ambassador had put an end to Israel's "long restraint." He emphasized that despite repeated warnings, the terrorists continued to plant mines and bombs and to murder Israeli citizens while holding the "hostages" in the north under the threat of artillery fire. Porat said that had Israel continued to exercise restraint it would have meant that the PLO version of the cease-fire, which says that the agreement only applies to the northern border, was the acceptable version.

The war against the PLO is a war for peace since the PLO has become an obstacle on the road to peace, Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir stated, according to IDF radio. Shamir said the annihilation of the PLO terrorists will also contribute to the welfare of the Arab inhabitants of Judaea, Samaria and the Gaza District and the chance of incorporating them in the peace process.

Reaction to Attack -- Egypt denounced the "flagrant aggression" against the sovereignty of Lebanon and demanded that Israel cease all military operations and withdraw from Lebanese territory, according to a presidential statement carried by Cairo radio. In the statement Egypt appealed to all peace-loving people to take a firm stand against this aggression, to shoulder their responsibility in removing its effects and to take the necessary measures to impose respect for the rule of law. It added that urgent instructions had been issued to Egypt's delegation to the United Nations to take part in the Security Council debate on the matter with a view to stopping the acts of aggression. An Egyptian Cabinet statement carried by Cairo radio condemned the Israeli aggression and said that under no circumstances did the attempt on the life of the Israeli ambassador in London justify the Israeli action. Foreign Ministry First Under Secretary Usamah al-Baz stated that Egypt is following with "extreme interest" developments in Lebanon and is making urgent contacts with all parties concerned in order to achieve a cease-fire and the withdrawal of Israeli troops, MENA reported.

Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad in a telephone conversation with PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat asserted that Syria will not allow anybody to liquidate the Palestinian Revolution and will stand alongside the Palestinians, Damascus television reported. In a conversation with Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis, Al-Asad declared that Syria will also stand by Lebanon with all its resources, the television said. According to the Syrian paper ATH-THAWRAH cited by Damascus radio, the United States is directly responsible for encouraging Israel to continue its aggression and expansion and for protecting it from the sanctions provided by the UN Charter.

The Israeli attack is taking place as part of an extended plan to commit aggression against the Palestinians and to occupy parts of southern Lebanon, Yasir 'Arafat declared in a statement to the Saudi paper AR-RIYAD reported by SPA. According to Monte Carlo radio, the PFLP issued a statement saying that the cease-fire agreement has become "ineffective" as a result of the Israeli aggression. It said that the Palestinians will not stop just at immediately retaliating but will also have the right to continue to retaliate at the appropriate time and place. A PFLP official spokesman said the attack demonstrates the falseness of Secretary of State Alexander Haig's statement in which he alleged that the United States seeks a peaceful solution in Lebanon, SANA reported.

In a message to President Ronald Reagan and West European leaders, Saudi King Khalid ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz urged the world's leaders to shoulder their responsibilities, Riyadh radio reported. He called on the countries of the world to urgently intervene to stop the "massacres".

An official Iraqi spokesman called for a unified stand to confront the aggression, INA reported. The spokesman said the aggression is aimed at liquidating the Palestinian Resistance and at occupying Arab territory.

A Libyan Voice of Arab Homeland radio commentary asked why Syria had not yet entered the war while at the same time praising the Palestinian-Lebanese forces who have "regrettably been engaged on their own." The commentary went on to point out that Syria has a historic opportunity to liberate the Golan Heights and to regain dignity lost by the annexation of the Golan. While asserting that the Israelis are flying with impunity over Syrian missile sites in the Sannin mountains, the commentary said the political leadership in Damascus is dutybound to drop all Arab and international reservations because it has been proven that the United States and Israel are attempting to occupy the entire region.

An Amman radio commentary asked what Syria, as a member of the Steadfastness and Confrontation Front, is doing in Lebanon with its 40,000 soldiers, who sit "idly by" while hundreds of Lebanese and Palestinians are killed. The Jordanian paper AD-DUSTUR, cited by Amman radio, said that if the major powers do not intervene to stop the Israelis, the conflagration will spread everywhere.

In a message to Syrian President al-Asad carried by Tehran radio, Iranian President 'Ali Khamene'i declared that Iran has prepared part of its ground forces and armored units to be sent to fight against the Israelis at the earliest opportunity.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Military Situation -- On 5 June Iraqi planes attacked vital installations in the Iranian town of Ilam and inflicted heavy losses, INA reported citing a military spokesman. The spokesman explained that the raid was in retaliation for Iranian shelling of installations and residential areas in Basrah.

According to an IRNA report, Iraqi fighters bombed a rally being held in Ilam to commemorate the 1963 Iranian uprising, killing at least 20 people and wounding more than 100 others. The report said the Iraqis bombed at least 10 points in the city, including residential areas.

Iranian Demands -- Declaring that Iran is only seeking its due rights in the war, Iranian President Khamene'i told a Friday prayers rally that Iran seeks $150 billion in war reparations and the trial of the Iraqi president, IRNA reported.

Peace Mission -- The Good Offices Committee met in Jidda on 5 June to consider fresh proposals to end the war, according to KUNA. INA subsequently reported that a delegation from the committee, led by Senegalese Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Moustapha Niasse, arrived in Baghdad for talks with Iraqi officials. It also noted that another delegation had been sent to Iran. Tehran radio reported that a delegation led by Guinea Foreign Affairs Minister Abdoulaye Toure arrived in Tehran and met with Iranian Foreign Ministry officials.

Iraq-Syria

Four Iraqi border guards were killed and another four wounded on 6 June when a vehicle they were riding in was fired on by Syrian "authorities" near an Iraqi police post, INA reported. It added that five other guards were killed during a similar incident the previous day.

AFP: FOUR FRENCH DOCTORS REPORTEDLY CAPTURED

[Text] Islamabad, 4 Jun (AFP) -- Four French doctors who disappeared from the Afghan rebel hospital in the Panjsher Valley were captured by Soviet-Afghan forces, informed sources confirmed here today.

The sources said an "unofficial Afghan figure" told the French Embassy in Kabul that the four doctors, of the humanitarian association International Medical Assistance (AMI), were being held.

The captured team included Doctor Laurence Lemonier who was in Afghanistan on his fourth secret humanitarian mission. The names of the other captured doctors were not given.

AMI officials contacted the International Red Cross which has recently been allowed to continue visiting Afghan prisons. The French Foreign Ministry is expected to call on the Red Cross for assistance in an inquiry into the doctor's disappearance.

The Soviet Embassy here had frequently expressed irritation concerning the role of doctors operating clandestinely in Afghanistan. Soviet officials said the doctors boosted Afghan rebel morale, and were an important source of information on the situation inside Afghanistan.

It is the first time doctors have been held, but observers recalled that two French journalists and a French tourist were earlier taken captive and released several months later after "confessing" on Kabul television.

MINISTRY CONDEMNS ISRAELI ATTACKS ON LEBANON

LD070054 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 6 Jun 82

["Text" of 6 June statement issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Israel must be wiped out.

Following the victories of the combatants of Islam in Khuzestan and on the eve of the infidel Saddam's overthrow and the disgraceful failure of the joint strategy of America and Israel against the Islamic revolution of Iran, international imperialism and Zionism have started extensive attacks on south Lebanon and the residential areas of Beirut.

One of the important aims of these criminal measures, apart from the expansionist and invading policies of the Zionist regime, is undoubtedly to divert world attention from the crimes committed by the mercenary Iraqi Army against the oppressed Islamic nation in Ilam and Khuzestan and to prepare grounds for saving Saddam.

The Foreign Ministry of the Islamic Republic of Iran condemns the criminal actions of America and Israel against the people of Lebanon and the oppressed Muslim Palestinian nation. The Foreign Ministry of the Islamic Republic of Iran declares its full support for the just struggle of the Palestine Liberation Organization and the deprived people of Lebanon and warns all Muslim countries, particularly those in the Persian Gulf region that in alliance with America and Saddam have waged war against the Islamic revolution of Iran instead of struggling against Israel, that they must use all their human and material resources to eradicate this symbol of corruption from the region before Israel finds the opportunity to achieve its satanic goals.

Regarding the strategic treaty between America and Israel, we remind these countries that the claim of anti-Zionist struggle without full-scale confrontation with American imperialism is nothing more than a lie.

We declare to the combative Palestinian nation and Lebanon's deprived Muslims that the raging movement of the Islamic nation in the world will soon turn the satanic dreams of America and usurping Israel into disappointment and will foil their conspiracies.

KHAMENE'I OFFERS TROOPS TO SYRIA'S AL-ASAD

LD061914 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1726 GMT 6 Jun 82

[Message from President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i to Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad, sent 6 June -- read by announcer]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Your Excellency Hafiz al-Asad, the president of the fraternal country of Syria:

I have received the painful news of the extensive attack on southern Lebanon by the occupier of Jerusalem. This brazen Zionist move undoubtedly heralds a new plot against the existence and respect of the world's Muslims. All indications point to the fact that the occupiers of the Holy Land intend to achieve their design of occupying southern Lebanon so as to step up their pressure on progressive Middle Eastern countries in association with others in the region dependent on America and to continue their disgraceful existence.

In response to such an attack it is essential to find answers to two important questions in these particular circumstances. First, which factors have given the Zionists the impudence to occupy yet another part of the Islamic homeland? Second, how should one confront this move?

The order to occupy a vast area of dear Lebanese territory, the increasing pressure on the town of Sidon and, above all, the bombardment of the Muslim and defenseless inhabitants of southern Lebanon and the PLO camps, undoubtedly emanate from the mysterious conference of imperialist leaders in France. World powers have constantly been seeking and continue to seek to commit aggression against Islamic lands. What is happening in Lebanon today, as well as yesterday's bombing of the defenseless citizens of Ilam, which claimed more than 50 dead and hundreds injured and the rolling of Khorramshahr and Abadan in blood and dust, are an example of the implementation of this evil intention.

What emboldens colonialist forces and their puppets to violate the sanctity of freedom lovers and the world's deprived nations is undoubtedly the long silence of the Islamic countries to aggressions similar to those committed by the regime occupying Jerusalem against the deprived Lebanese nation and by the hireling, imperialist-Zionist Baghdad regime against the Muslim and revolutionary, Iranian nation. For many years now Israel has been occupying a vast portion of Islamic land; for years now America and Europe have been supporting this monumental Israeli crime, and for years now imperialists and those associated with the Western bloc have been encouraging this crime in various ways.

It is not the first time that Middle Eastern nations have been asking: Why is it that the resources of the Islamic world are not employed to end the tragic scenes which take place daily, rendering the Palestinian people destitute and rolling southern Lebanon in blood and dust? However, this question arises now more seriously than ever before, and it would be better for the Zionists' concealed friends to appreciate this fact and take note of the firm determination that is behind this serious attitude. The time has come today to mobilize the human, propaganda, research, oolitical and economic resources of the Islamic world against the repeated aggressions committed against the sanctities of the oppressed.

Despite its involement in a war imposed on it for the same purpose, the Islamic Republic declares that it will devote its force, within its capabilities, to repulse the attack by the regime occupying Jerusalem and to southern Lebanon [as heard]. As a first step, we have prepared part of our ground forces and armoured forces so that they can be sent into battle against the Zionist enemy at the earliest opportunity. I hope that this move will earn the satisfaction of the most exalted God.

[Signed] Your brother, Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i, president of the Islamic Republic of Iran

KHAMENE'I ASSAILS HOSTILITY OF GULF COUNTRIES

LD041422 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 4 Jun 82

[Text] Friday prayers were held today at Tehran University, and were led by President Khamene'i, who is also the Friday imam of Tehran. Hojjat ol-Eslam Khamene'i devoted the sermon to reviewing the country's current affairs and their reflection abroad and said:

[Begin Khamene'i recording] At last the war is drawing to a close. Of course, I should mention here that the creation of a poisonous atmosphere by our enemies, who want to accuse and condemn the aggressor and have Iran in mind, like inexperienced thieves made a mistake and did not realize that several of our cities, such as Qasr-e Shirin, Naftshahr and Mehran, and many of our villages are still under the heels of the usurpers of the infidel Baghdad regime.

However, they realized that the war will end with the victory of Islam and Iran; this applies both to America and the other big powers and to the dependent rulers in the region. Their reaction was only propaganda and rumor mongering at first. Even though they mentioned the news of Iran's victory and the recapture of Khorramshahr after several days, they mentioned it together with false news in order to neutralize its effect, such as the rumor of the purchase of arms from Israel, which is a big and crazy lie. Then they started making threats.

Here I have two things to say, one to the countries in the region and one to the big powers. I would like to say to the big powers that in their confrontation with our nation they have made a grave miscalculation and cannot do anything. They might make a mad move and bomb several cities, villages or desert areas but the big powers' incursion into this region will disgrace them further.

I would like to say to the countries in the region which oppose us that it would not be a good idea for them to try their chance here, because people in glass houses shouldn't throw stones. They are vulnerable and they should return to Islam and to the Koran. They should fight against the enemies of Islam and Iran and against their own enemies instead of fighting against Islam and Iran. They should go and fight against Israel, our forces will be with them. Of course, their fight against Iran is nothing more than an empty threat. We are telling them, as we have said many times before: We have no fight against you but if you intend to wage a war against us your fate will be that of Saddam and the shah. [end recording]

Further on in his sermon, the Friday imam of Tehran referred to the account opened by the Central Bank to provide interest-free loans to help people in reconstruction and to help the war victims. He said: People are giving sums of money to the bank as interest-free loans and the banks put these funds at the disposal of the people from the areas damaged by the imposed war in the form of housing loans. This is one of the best things done with the banks' initiative. I recommend that everybody make such a loan to the bank, in fact to the people.

Referring to the enemy's propaganda, he said: We are not warmongers and have a common demand with all the world's righteous people. Saddam is a war criminal and must be put on trial and punished and all the damage he has inflicted on the Islamic Republic of Iran must be compensated for.

He added: If the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran remains indifferent to the loss of $150 billion inflicted on this nation then it will certainly mean that it has not carried out its duty.

Hojjat ol-Eslam Khamene'i then referred to the peace conditions and said: The conditions set by us are the same as those announced by us at the beginning of the war, when many kilometers of our territory were under enemy occupation, and they are: Saddam's punishment, the withdrawal of the aggressor from our territory, reparations and the repatriation of those who have been expelled. He added: The United Nations and the Islamic council recently said that they are going to resume peace activities. We will not say no to them but if they think this can make us igore the truth through the creation of a poisonous atmosphere and of political pressure they are mistaken.

The Friday imam of Tehran added: We do not want a thug like Saddam to blackmail the small countries in the Persian Gulf region. We do not want to see the big powers interfere in the affairs of our region. We will not allow them to do so.

In conclusion, Hojjat ol-Eslam Khamene'i referred to the mischievous acts of counterrevolutionary minigroups inside the country and said: As it is the minigroups' custom to create incidents when there is a great victory on the fronts which makes the people happy, now, after the reconquest of Khorramshahr, once again they think that through their mischief they can make people regret being present on the scene. They are filthy [word indistinct] who want to take revenge for the reconquest of Khorramshahr.

Finally, the Friday imam of Tehran, referring to the presence of 10,000 tribesmen of the Mobilisation at the Friday prayers, asked all the people to avoid petty differences and to continue preserving their unity and integrity.

Then he gave a sermon in Arabic for the benefit of the Muslim Arab brothers.

'AZIZI DENIES PLANS TO CHECK GULF SHIPPING

LD061100 Tehran IRNA in English 0930 GMT 6 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 6 Jun (IRNA) -- Iranian Deputy Foreign Minister Ahmad 'Azizi Saturday called on governments supporting Saddam to revise their policy and, instead of confronting the Islamic revolution, take steps to fight with the Zionist regime. He added that the Zionist regime was infamous for its false allegations and suppressions, of which airing the rumour that Iran was purchasing arms from this regime was a good example. Referring further to the conspiracies of the Zionist regime, 'Azizi said that the Zionist-sponsored mass media recently began another plot against the Islamic Republic by alleging that Iran's ambassador to Kuwait had warned the Kuwaiti Chamber of Commerce on the checking by the Iranian fleet of any commercial ships which did not use the name of the Persian Gulf.

Illustrating the Zionist regime's aggressive policies, 'Azizi cited the bombing of southern Lebanon under the pretext of the assassination of the Zionist ambassador to London by the Palestinians which had been categorically denied by the PLO. How could the attack on a hospital where 20 children were under intensive care, or the massacre of a number of students in southern Lebanon be justified as revenge for the blood of a single ambassador? 'Azizi argued. In the same way Saddam bombed the Iranian cities of Ilam, Abadan and Khorramshahr under the pretext of Iran having bombed Basrah in Iraq, he noted. Moreover, the Iraqi foreign minister boasted at the current Nonaligned Conference that although Iraq had lost a vast area of lands it occupied in Iran, it had killed thousands of Iranian forces, the deputy foreign minister remarked. Such a statement, he added, was made simultaneously with the Iraqi regime's voicing peace-seeking cries, alleging that it was after reaching a reasonable agreement through holding negotiations.

'Azizi stressed that while the Iraqi forces were continuing to usurp Iranian territory, the Iraqi foreign minister had confessed that his government had no political, economic or military anxiety.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN AFGHAN TALKS

LD062124 Tehran IRNA in English 2011 GMT 6 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 6 Jun (IRNA) -- Iran will never take part in Geneva talks on the Afghanistan problem, announced a Foreign Ministry spokesman. While stressing Iran's conditions for resolving the Afghanistan problem, he emphasized that Iran will do anything for the realisation of such goals. In conclusion, the Foreign Ministry official categorically denied all rumours spread by foreign imperialist news agencies on Iran's alleged participation in those talks as an observor or with any other status.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUES 934-936

934: 4 Jun Report

[Communique No 934 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. "While being a national mourning day for the oppressed people, 5 June is also a day of epics and rebirth of Islam and Muslims" -- Imam Khomeyni.

Our heroic combatants and our Islamic victorious forces continue with complete firmness to resist the infidels on all battlefronts and are creating brilliant victories.

Sporadic fighting and exchange of fire continued yesterday along Jerusalem Operation [bayt al-moqaddas] fronts, with our powerful and victorious forces closely observing the slightest moves made by the enemy on all fronts, smashing the Saddam forces' position and putting their equipment out of action. Our forces also maintained superiority and combat readiness and inflicted considerable losses on the enemy.

During an exchange of fire on the Abadan-Khorramshahr front, our naval and gendarmerie forces destroyed seven light- and heavy-weapon emplacements on the opposite bank of the Arvand Rud. They destroyed one command post and several Iraqi observation posts and, while preventing the deployment of Iraqi forces, killed or wounded a number of enemy troops.

Yesterday certain residential industrial districts in Abadan came under long-range enemy artillery fire, resulting in some damage. Moreover, an exchange of fire continued yesterday on the western fronts of the country. Following some heavy and intensive artillery fire by our ground forces on Iraqi positions in (Hajj Umran), 15 Iraqi troops were killed and a number of emplacements, 5 trucks and 5 Iraqi troops concentration sites were smashed. Two Iraqi tanks were put out of action.

On the Salehabad, Sumar, Gilan-e Gharb and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab fronts, our ground forces maintained their firepower superiority and destroyed three Iraqi 50-calibre heavy machineguns and several Iraqi trenches.

Yesterday, a number of planes of the Iraqi aggressive forces tried to violate our airspace in a number of western and southern border towns, but were repulsed by our ground fire.

935: 5 Jun Report

[Communique No 935 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. June 5th is the day of martyrdom and crusade, the day of the revival of dear Islam under the leadership of the struggling and committed clergy and the day of glad tidings of the liberation of the oppressed from the blood-sucking oppressors. World-devouring America has suffered irreparable blows from the bloody uprising of 5 June 1963 and its offspring, the revolution of 11 February 1979. Today, on the occasion of the glorification of that historical day, America has committed a new crime through its puppet agent, the mercenary Saddam. It has made the Muslim and struggling people of Ilam the target of aerial bombardment, shed the blood of many Ilami sisters and brothers, children and youth and wrecked parts of the residential areas of that city, including a mosque, a religious center, a school and about 20 houses.

The criminal Saddam, who is unable to fight the combatants of Islam face-to-face, contrary to all international regulations and on the orders of his masters who proclaim support for civil rights, today staged another show of American civil rights by dropping bombs on the defenseless civilians of Ilam. This horrific crime has brought more disgrace to his already disgraced regime. It will have no other result but to accumulate eternal curse and misery and a speedier downfall for his cruel regime.

The blood of the martyrs of Ilam and all the martyrs of the imposed war testifies to the justification of a nation which has been attacked by supercriminals and their puppets for defending Islam, the Islamic homeland, liberty and human integrity. But aggressive powers and the usurping Zionism, headed by the great Satan, the world-devouring America, should know that the heroic and blood-stained nation of Iran, which has given martyrs, will not succumb to any pressure.

The brave offspring of the Islamic nation will give a courageous reply on the battlefield to such dastardly acts. The pious people and those who fight for right, led by their great imam, the idol-crushing Khomeyni -- may his blissful life continue until the revolution of mahdi, may God speed his auspicious advent -- will continue their struggle to wipe out evil world blasphemy and to destroy oppressive powers and to raise the banner of Islam throughout the world.

According to reports, the right-seeking combatants of Islam continue their holy struggle against the enemies of Islam. They have dealt effective blows at the Saddamist aggressors on the southern and western fronts during the past 24 hours, a summary of which is brought to your attention:

In the areas covered by the Jerusalem Operation [bayt al-moqaddas], thanks to our firepower superiority, the enemy was not given any opportunity to move. Intensity of fire in the Shalamcheh and Kushk sectors was greater than in other areas.

In the Abadan sector, our forces brought enemy positions under fire. They destroyed three trucks, a trench and a number of weapon emplacements on the other side of the Arvand Rud and killed a number of Iraqi personnel.

Yesterday, the Saddamist criminals destroyed a number of residential areas of Abadan with heavy-weapon fire, martyring or injuring several of our compatriots.

In the western operational sectors, thanks to our forces' fire on enemy positions in the Marivan sector, the movements of enemy columns were prevented and a number of their vehicles were destroyed. During a clash between the forces of Islam and Saddam's men in the (Shanehdari) sector, 16 Iraqis were killed and 8 were wounded and a military post in that sector was destroyed. In the Konjancham sector, thanks to our forces' artillery and mortar fire, an ammunition dump, a number of combat supply depots and a number of trenches were destroyed together with their personnel.

[Text] In His exalted name. According to a report by the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran, at 1100 today the quickflying heroes and the zealous and brave pilots of the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran opened fire on two aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi enemy in the Al-Buq'ah and Al-Umayyah areas and downed them. At 1140 they bombed the Al-Buq'ah jetty, inflicting numerous losses, and hit and destroyed one vessel of the Ba'thist Iraqi mercenaries in the same area. Honor be to you, victorious and humanist pilots. The history of warfare will be proud of you and your values.

You, the foul Iraqi pilot, shame on you that you have recorded your name at the top of the black pages of the history of war by carrying out these inhuman and anti-Islamic acts by dropping bombs on innocent people and women and children in cities, hospitals, schools and mosques. Through these savage acts you want to compensate for your disgraceful defeats on the battlefronts in the course of battle.

Dear compatriots, the efforts and self-sacrifices of the other devotees of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the situation on the fronts of the imposed war in the past 24 hours are as follows:

Yesterday exchanges of fire continued on the southern fronts and the victorious forces of Islam guarded their positions and brought the positions and trenches of the Iraqi forces under fire, inflicting considerable losses and casualties upon them.

In the course of the exchanges of fire on the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts, the heroes of the gendarmerie opened fire on the enemy positions and inflicted losses and casualties on them. On the Khorramshahr front, a number of the Saddamists were killed and five trenches and foxholes were destroyed.

Residential areas in the city of Abadan came under the enemy's long-range artillery fire yesterday.

Exchanges of artillery fire between our powerful forces and the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries continued sporadically on the western fronts. As a result of the powerful artillery fire of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran all the movements and activities of the aggressive Iraqi forces were stopped, their supply routes were blocked and several supply points, trenches, weapons belonging to the Saddamists were destroyed.

The brave combatants of the irregular tribal warfare units and the heroes of the gendarmerie also bravely defended their positions and inflicted effective blows on the Iraqi forces.

On the Marivan front, as a result of the heavy fire of the ground forces' artillery, several enemy trenches, foxholes and ammunition dumps were set on fire and destroyed in the areas of (Harqineh) and Haftvan and over five of the enemy forces were killed.

26 KILLED, 105 WOUNDED IN IRAQI BOMBING OF ILAM

[Text] Ilam, 5 Jun (IRNA) -- Iraqi fighters, flying at low attitude, at 9.30 local time this morning bombed a demonstration in Ilam being held to commemorate the June 5, 1963 uprising. The attack martyred at least twenty and wounded more than 100 others.

The Iraqi fighters violated the airspace of Ilam city, western Iran, and savagely bombed at least ten points in the central parts of the city, including residential areas. Most of the martyrs are innocent children and women. Following the air raid the wounded were immediately taken to the local hospitals. Residential areas have been damaged in this savage attack.

Following the inhuman air raid on the Ilam demonstration today, Sunday was announced a public holiday and three days of public mourning were also declared in the city. Meanwhile, the latest reports indicated that casualty figures had reached 26 martyred and 105 wounded.

Musavi Message on Bombing

LD051240 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 5 Jun 82

[Message issued by Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi on 5 June]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Dear heroic Muslim nation of Iran and resisting and combatant fellow countrymen of Ilam:

At the dawn of the 19th bloody anniversary of the 5 June uprising and when the people throughout our country were getting ready to extol the memory of the martyrs who had fallen in blood and dust at the behest of the criminal United States and by the traitorous and mercenary shah, and when the aggressive and usurping Israel was subjecting the Muslim and deprived citizens of southern Lebanon and the camps of the Muslim, homeless and defenseless Palestinian people to heavy air bombardment, the regime of the criminal Saddam, at the behest of his masters and in emulation of such mercenary collaborators as the shah and the occupation regime in Jerusalem, committed a new crime by subjecting a number of the deprived and defenseless Muslims in Ilam to an air bombardment using MiG's and Mirage aircraft.

The masters and protectors of the mercenary Saddam, who have lost their credibility and prestige following our combatants' recent victories and their conquest of Khorramshahr and the defeat of the declining Ba'thist army, imagined that an attack on residential areas and the bombing of defenseless citizens could gain some honor and prestige for the ragtag and bobtail army of that falling regime.

This deed by the mercenaries of the 'Aflaqite Ba'thist regime ruling Baghdad is really an answer to those who babble about peace, reconciliation and a cease-fire and who close their eyes to the crimes perpetrated by such a blasphemous regime. These people either are unaware of the savage nature of that regime -- and we hope that the cry of those mothers who have lost their children and that the torn and pure bodies of the children and defenseless citizens will prove the depravity and the danger of such a regime, which resorts to such crimes following its resounding defeat on the battlefields -- or have views similar to the U.S.-backed Saddam. In the case of the latter, our reply would be the same as the one that we have given to the aggressors.

Brothers and sisters in Ilam and honorable sons of Islam: Rest assured that the sacrifices which you have made and are making along the path of God will make our nation more determined to deal a final, crushing blow to the aggressors and undoubtedly the day for seeking revenge from Iraq's criminal Ba'thist leaders is near. Following the conquest of Khorramshahr, which discredited the ramshackle and declining pro-U.S. Ba'thist regime and its backers in the eyes of the world and made nonsense of Saddam's phoney battle of Qadisiyah [early victory by Islam over the Persian Sassanian empire] such desperate efforts shall not revive the broken Saddam regime.

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran swears that it shall take its revenge for the blood of the oppressed orphans from the criminal U.S. and mercenary Iraqi regimes. Also, in honor of the blood of the dear Ilami martyrs, tomorrow will be a public holiday and will mark the beginning of a 3-day period of public mourning throughout the province. "And those who have perpetrated injustice shall verily know what fate awaits them." [Koranic verse]

Rafsanjani on Bombing

[Excerpts] According to the Central News Unit, the Majlis held an open session today. During the session, which was chaired by Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the Majlis speaker spoke on the new crimes by the 'Aflaqist Saddam and his mercenaries in bombarding Ilam.

[Begin recording] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Unfortunately, yesterday we witnessed another example of the cruelty of the Ba'thist, 'Aflaqist Saddam in Ilam. For whatever reason it was committed, this crime and the more horrific crime committed by Israel in southern Lebanon, killing or wounding more than 600 Palestinian refugees and Lebanese Shi'ites, are not accidental. It is a plot whose signs can be sought in the presence of the leader of the great Satan in Europe and the secret meetings of the heads of NATO countries.

In any case, we ask our combatants to keep cool and not to reply to such crimes in the same manner. The people of Iraq are our brothers, friends and future allies. If you wish to reply decisively, you should do so on the battlefronts against the bloodsucking Ba'thist Iraqi military. [end recording]

RALLY HELD TO COMMEMORATE 1963 UPRISING

[Text] Tehran, 5 Jun (IRNA) -- A massive rally was held in Imam Khomeyni Square, southern Tehran, this morning to mark the anniversary of the June 5th, 1963, uprising against the former regime. On June 5, 1963, when the Iranian Muslims learned about the arrest of Imam Khomeyni by the former regime, massive protest demonstrations were held in the holy city of Qom, Tehran and other cities. Several thousands of people were martyred or wounded on that day.

In Tehran this morning hundreds of thousands of people from all walks of life, marching through various streets of the capital, gathered in Imam Khomeyni Square to commemorate the event and listen to the message of the imam. The marchers, who were carrying portraits of the leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Imam Khomeyni, President Khamene'i, Ayatollah Hoseyn 'Ali Montazeri, Majlis Speaker Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani and other figures, were chanting slogans in favour of the imam and the revolution and slogans in condemnation of Saddam. Families of the martyrs of the revolution and of the Iraqi-imposed war, tribes-men, representatives of many world liberation movements, the public Mobilisation and various other groups, who participated in this march, once again illustrated the strong unity among the people of the country.

In one of the main streets of Tehran, while the military band was playing revolutionary songs and people were chanting "Death to America," the marchers walked over the American flag, thus showing their hatred of U.S. imperialissm.

In Imam Khomeyni Square, where governmental, religious and military dignitaries were present, the message of the imam was read to the crowd by his son, Seyyed Ahmad. In his message Imam Khomeyni, referring to the commemoration of June 5th last year and this year, said that they differed because last year the country and the people had many problems. On the one hand, the nation was entangled with the Iraqi-imposed war and on the other was experiencing the treachery of some trouble-makers, saboteurs and corrupt elements as well as the terrorist monafeqin [hypocrities] faction which martyred a large number of beloved committed Muslims who were serving the Islamic Republic. However, God willing, the message continued, this year the courageous Iranian combatants, with their great self-sacrifice and under the blessings of God Almighty and the guidance of the twelfth imam, imam mahdi, and the all out support of the Iranian people, would triumph over the warmonger and were now taking the last steps.

Khomeyni Message

[Message from Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni read by his son Ahmad at a 5 June rally held at Imam Khomeyni Square in Tehran to mark the anniversary of the 1963 uprising -- recorded]

[Excerpts] The situation in which we found ourselves on 5 June last year was quite different from that which exists this year. Last year our noble nation and country faced great difficulties. These included the imposed war, treason by certain seditious elements in the service of aliens, and sabotage activities carried out by the corrupt hypocrites and by other deviants and terrorist groups. All this led to the martyrdom if a large number of our dear ones [words indistinct] Islam and Islamic Republic. But, thank God, the anniversary of the 5 June uprising this year finds that our powerful, decicated and self-sacrificing combatants -- with the support of the master of the ages, peace be upon him, and of the great nation -- have triumphed over the warmongers.

Now we are taking the last steps. The criminal Saddamists are taking their last breaths. At the same time the corrupt organizations at home and the mercenary minigroups have been crushed by the guards, committees, police and the Mobilization forces, as well as by our dear nation's cooperation.

Last year we were about to witness a division between the Guards Corps -- these committed and selfless youths -- and the dedicated and dear personnel of the armed forces, whose dedication we have all witnessed on the war fronts. The traitors and the associates of the United States tried to bring about this division through multifaceted activities, satanic tricks and the use of criminal terrorists. God knows to where our dear country would have been led had this plot been successful. What would have been the fate of Islam and our noble nation?

Through the Almighty's blessing and the efforts rendered by the Islamic Consultative Assembly and with the support of the noble nation, we are celebrating the 5 June anniversary at a time when the nests of corruption and treason and the American criminals have been removed from the scene and gone to the [word indistinct] cemetery. Today, thank God, the forces of Islam are enjoying a degree of unity and solidarity that has brought great fear to the hearts of our filthy enemies. In spite of and contrary to the false propaganda disseminated by our enemies' mass media, there is unprecedented unity and solidarity among our three powers and our people from all walks of life.

Let our defeated enemies and the isolated malevolents whose hands have been cut from [word indistinct] remain happy with their false propaganda and childish and wishful thinking that Iran is suffering from a power struggle, that the clergymen are fighting among themselves for power and that Iran in the very near future [words indistinct] face chaos and be transformed to a secular and democratic republic. Those who assert this must know that they will be taking these golden wishes to their graves. Thank God, our dear Iran has reached the stage in which unity, brotherhood and dedication exist among all groups and organs. Iran has reached a stage of stability which will not suffer from the death of its personalities, no matter who.

At a time that the Islamic Republic is inviting Muslims throughout the world to unify, to protect Islamic territory and the holy shrines, a proposal for a jihad to suppress our call and to oppose this invitation is being launched from the center of the revelation [Mecca]. This initiative serves the interests of the enemies of Islam, the United States and Israel, which are trying to capture Islamic territories from the Euphrates right to the Nile in order to dominate the holy shrines.

Once again the United States is threatening Iran. The United States has not yet realized that a country which rose to cut off American hands with martyrdom as its main motivation and which is ready to sacrifice itself for a jihad for the sake of the Almighty has no fear of such threats.

If the Muslims of the world awaken and shake the hands of unity and devotion, no power could dare to threaten them. Iranian officials have invited them for unity and brotherhood at any time. It is hoped that they will be awakened and will not sacrifice their personal and Islamic honor for the sake of the satanical powers. It is hoped that instead of sacrificing themselves for Saddam 'Aflaqi [reference to Michel 'Aflaq, cofounder of the Ba'th Party] and his masters, they will shake the hands of brotherhood with the Islamic Republic of Iran, a country which is willing to support them and to rescue them.

Otherwise, the great nation of Iran and its mighty armed forces will not consider itself responsible before God Almighty and the Islamic nations for anything that may happen as a result of actions undertaken by those who oppose Iran. Iran cannot remain indifferent toward events which could threaten Islam or the Islamic countries, especially our movements and the holy shrines. Iran, like the rest of the Muslim nations of the world, feels responsible before God Almighty for the problems and dangers developing against Islam.

Today, the most dangerous threats are the Camp David and Fahd plans, which would (?recognize) Israel and its crimes. All of us, especially the Government of Saudi Arabia, are responsible before Islam and the holy Koran and to future generations.

I fear, God forbid, that one day the Muslim nations and their governments will be awakened only to see that with the help of the criminal U.S. hand, Israel has achieved its criminal and oppressive goals. That day Muslims will not be able to do anything. I consider support for the proposed plan for the independence and recognition of Israel as a tragedy for the Muslims of the world and as suicide for Islamic governments. I consider opposition to this plan as a great religious task.

I take refuge with God Almighty for these designs drawn up by the [words indistinct] Muslims for Islam.

[Text] At a time when every second we witness remarkable victories by the Islamic armed forces on the fronts and our nation is selflessly involved in trying to expel the forces of wrong from our soil, the despicable internal agents of the criminal United States have, as usual, shown their frustration at the disgraceful defeat by planting bombs. While condemning this atrocity, the Railroads Department of the Islamic Republic of Iran announced that following the explosion an investigation was conducted by the brother guards, the results of which will be made known to the public later.

Following the activities of the brother guards in this area, the main leaders of this movement, together with a number of the elements of the minigroup, were annihilated in these forests. They are:

Military Situation -- Israeli forces have captured Tyre and An-Nabatiyah and have surrounded Sidon, the IDF spokesman announced in a statement carried by ITIM during the afternoon of 7 June. However, the joint forces' military spokesman, in a statement carried by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio on 8 June, said fighting continued throughout the night in Tyre and nearby refugee camps and in the An-Nabatiyah hills. An earlier Palestinian statement carried by the radio claimed that the joint forces were still in control of An-Nabatiyah and Tyre. According to a related Voice of Palestine report, the joint forces have recaptured positions in the Sidon area and have counterattacked against Israeli concentrations in the Al-Jiyah area, south of Beirut. Throughout the morning of 8 June Israeli aircraft raided targets south of Beirut, the radio also noted. Israeli planes bombed Beirut four times the previous afternoon hitting the PLO headquarters in Al-Fakihani, according to Jerusalem radio. Beirut radio said the targets included the Arab University and the sports stadium. Voice of Palestine subsequently denied a Voice of Lebanon radio report that PLO leaders Khalil al-Wazir and Salah Khalaf had been killed in the raids. Voice of Lebanon had also reported that hundreds of people were killed or injured by Israeli raids on Sidon and that the Israelis were preparing to occupy the city. The IDF landed on Sidon beach on 7 June, the radio said, and launched an intensive bombardment of the city from the sea, land and air on 8 June. The radio spoke of hand-to-hand fighting in the approaches to the city. The Lebanese Army barracks in Sidon has been destroyed, according to Beirut radio. Meanwhile, Monte Carlo radio said Israeli armored columns have begun to advance on Ad-Damur, An-Na'imah and Al-Jiyah.

Confirming that Syrian-Israeli clashes have occurred, the IDF spokesman announced that one Syrian MiG was downed in a dogfight on 7 June and that two more were downed early on 8 June, according to Jerusalem radio reports. The IDF spokesman also noted that artillery fire was directed at Israeli forces around Hasbayya from an area under Syrian control. In a statement carried by SANA, a Syrian military spokesman admitted that two Syrian planes were hit in a dogfight on 8 June but claimed one Israeli Skyhawk was downed. An earlier statement carried by Damascus television claimed that two Israeli planes and one Syrian aircraft were downed in dogfights on 7 June and that Syrian ground forces checked an Israeli advance, destroying several enemy tanks near Jazzin. Israeli aircraft strafed Syrian supply lines in Jazzin early on 8 June, according to Monte Carlo radio. While Jerusalem radio spoke of massive Syrian reinforcements being sent from Syria into the Al-Biqa' Valley, Monte Carlo radio said the Syrians have withdrawn from Suhmur and Yuhmur in the western Al-Biqa'.

Palestinian artillery shelled the Galilee panhandle during the night but caused no casualties or damage, Jerusalem radio noted.

Casualties, Losses, Refugees -- By the end of 7 June, the IDF had lost 25 dead, 7 missing, 1 captured and 96 injured, the IDF spokesman announced in a communique carried by ITIM on 8 June. However, a joint forces statement carried by Voice of Palestine the previous day claimed the Israelis had already lost 400 dead or wounded, as well as 50 tanks, 40 armored cars and 5 aircraft. On 8 June the radio carried another statement claiming the Israelis had lost a further 120 men killed or injured, 38 vehicles and 4 aircraft. Damascus radio cited a PLO announcement that the Palestinians have captured more than 26 Israelis. The Syrians claim to have lost 5 dead and 10 wounded, according to Damascus television.

U.S. Embassy Attacked -- The U.S. Embassy in Beirut was hit by a rocket on its sixth floor, according to Beirut radio. The radio reported that no one was injured.

Habib-Begin Meeting; U.S. Position -- U.S. special envoy Philip Habib met with Prime Minister Menahem Begin and presented him with a personal message from President Ronald Reagan, IDF radio reported. Israeli sources stated that the United States is asking Israel to withdraw from Lebanon and "for now" Israel is listening, the radio added. However, IDF radio reported that Israel's UN ambassador informed the UN secretary general that the withdrawal of Israeli forces in Lebanon is "inconceivable" before arrangements are made "which will permanently and reliably exclude the possibility of hostile acts against Israel's citizens." According to a press agency correspondent cited by Jerusalem radio, the United States will not impose sanctions on Israel to force it to withdraw but will ask it to resolve the dispute through political means. However, MA'ARIV reported that Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger has demanded that the United States end its special relationship with Israel.

Further Reaction to Invasion -- In a statement carried by Beirut radio, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan condemned the Israeli invasion and declared that Lebanon rejects the Israeli viewpoint that wants to dictate a "humiliating peace". He said Lebanon will continue to defend itself by all available means.

Following a meeting between Egyptian President Husni Mubarak and members of the political group, Prime Minister Ahmad Fu'ad Muhyi ad-Din announced that Egypt will take several steps to curtail the Israeli "aggression" but added that Egypt has no plans to send military aid to Lebanon, MENA reported. The prime minister said Egypt decided to send verbal messages to the U.S. President and the Israeli prime minister. A subsequent MENA report said the Egyptian president had sent an "urgent" message to President Reagan on the need to immediately stop the Israeli "aggression" and ensure Israel's withdrawal from Lebanon. Meanwhile, MENA reported that the Egyptian ambassador to Israel conveyed an urgent verbal message to Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir expressing Egypt's "deep concern and condemnation and strong protest" over the Israeli invasion.

Jordan will provide all the necessary facilities for any Jordanian who wants to fight in southern Lebanon against the Israelis, Prime Minister Mudar Badran declared in a speech to the National Consultative Council (NCC) reported by Amman radio. PETRA-JNA subsequently carried a statement issued by the NCC that denounced the continued U.S. "hostile stand" which is supporting and encouraging Israeli aggression. It called upon the big powers, the Soviet Union and the European group, to play an immediate and positive role to halt the aggression. The statement also called upon the Arab forces in Lebanon to do their duty and shoulder their responsibility.

In response to Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni's call for the defense of Lebanon, the armed forces and Guards Corps will send a number of units to southern Lebanon to confront the Israelis, according to a Guards Corps and armed forces communique carried by Tehran radio. Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani told a Majlis session that in response to the aggression in Lebanon, Iran will enter the arena with all of its political, military and economic forces, Tehran radio reported. He stated that a military representative would go to Syria to review with officials there any kind of assistance and cooperation that can be provided. Damascus radio subsequently reported that on 7 June Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad received an Iranian delegation that included the minister of defense and the commanders of the ground forces and Guards Corps. The delegation informed Al-Asad of Iran's decision to fight against the Israelis and expressed a desire to discuss how to implement this decision, the radio said.

SECOND NFF NATIONAL COMMITTEE PLENUM HELD

LD072026 Kabul Domestic Service in Pashto 1730 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Excerpts] The Second DRA National Fatherland Front [NFF] National Committee Plenum opened today at the committee's headquarters. The DRA national anthem was played at the start of the plenum's work, and verses from the holy Koran were recited. After electing the presiding board of the session, the basic report concerning the work and activity of the National Committee since the formation of the NFF constituent congress was read by Dr Saleh Mohammad Ziray, Politburo member and secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the NFF National Committee.

After reviewing the past activities of the front, the tasks of NFF members were defined. They were asked to organize all national, progressive, true and patriotic forces into a united broad front; to work and struggle toward prosperity for the people of the homeland; and to wage a relentless struggle to maintain security and to eliminate mercenary bands.

Present at the opening ceremony of the Second NFF National Committee Plenum were members of the PDPA Central Committee Politburo; secretaries and members of the party Central Committee; Revolutionary Council and Council of Ministers members; party cadres and activists; heads of social organizations and trade unions; and members of the executive board of the NFF National Committee.

According to BAKHTAR, following the reading of the basic report, Satar Pordeli, president of the Afghan Trade Unions Central Council; 'Abdol Ghafar Lakanwal, chairman of the agricultural cooperatives council; Farid Mazdak, Democratic Youth Organization secretary of the Central Committee; Gol Jan, member of the Democratic Women's Organization executive board; Dr Sa'id Afghani, vice chairman of the NFF National Committee and head of Islamic affairs; and [name indistinct] chairman of the NFF provincial committee of Nangarhar Province, made statements on behalf of their relevant departments, expressing confidence concerning their activities with regard to the appeals contained in the basic report. They stressed that they would accomplish their national and historical mission in line with NFF aspirations, and they would make every effort for prosperity for the homeland and for eliminating counterrevolutionary bands. Subsequently the basic report, being put to a vote, was approved unanimously.

The second part of the NFF National Committee Plenum started with a report by NFF National Committee Secretary Nasim Joya on the new NFF Charter and its amendments and supplements.

The new NFF National Committee Charter was approved unanimously after being put to a vote.

The third part of the plenum's work was concerned with organizational issues. The name list of new members of the Central Council and its first deputy chairman was read by a head of organization of the NFF National Committee. It was approved that Bareq Shafi'i, member of the PDPA Central Committee, be appointed as member of the executive board and first deputy chairman of the Central Council; 'Abdol Salam, secretary general of the Afghan Red Crescent, as member of the executive board; and all provincial chairmen of the NFF National Committee, as members of the NFF Central Council.

A BAKHTAR correspondent reports: Expressing wishes for the success of the new members in further organizing and unifying the NFF and congratulating them on their appointment. Dr Saleh Mohammad Ziray said: Our people have now realized that the foul actions and vain efforts of imperialism, reaction and hegemonism regarding the prevention of the process and consolidation of the April Revolution and its new development stage, are doomed to failure. Wood dust can never block the way of the storm of the revolution.

The Second NFF National Committee Plenum concluded after a resolution was issued.

REDDY REFUSES RENOMINATION; OPPOSITION DISARRAY

[By K.V.S. Rama Sarma]

[Text] New Delhi, May 31 -- President Neelam Sanjiva Reddy has reportedly rejected opposition leaders' suggestion in the last two weeks to be their presidential candidate. He is retiring as president on July 24.

He told opposition leaders that he was against renomination for the post, it is learnt. He made it clear that there was no question of his becoming the candidate of the opposition.

When the opposition leaders met him on a number of occasions, he made it plain to them that he was disillusioned by their functioning and behaviour.

Lack of constructive spirit on the part of the opposition seems to have upset Mr. Reddy as much as the absence of any desire on their part to establish healthy norms for proper functioning of the democratic system.

In the case of Haryana itself, the president was unhappy over the noise the opposition leaders made, including a demand on him to dismiss the governor. Clearly, the only way to settle the issue was to call the Legislative Assembly and that is what is being done.

The president is also reportedly unhappy over the consistent campaign in certain sections of the press on the alleged differences between him and Prime Minister Indira Gandhi. It is pointed out that being charged with the responsibility of governing the country, they exchange views and notes in a candid manner.

This did not involve any disrespect or ill-will. Having made up his mind, the president does not want to be involved in any unsavoury controversy. Perhaps keeping this in mind he has decided to leave for Hyderabad on June 7 and remain there till the end of the month.

Mr. Reddy reportedly told his close friends and associates that only Mrs. Gandhi could keep the country together at this crucial juncture and strengthening her hands was necessary in the interest of the nation.

Given this position of Mr. Reddy, the opposition parties appear to be in a quandary as to who they should select their candidate. Leaders of six parties met here today and decided to request Mrs. Gandhi to open a dialogue with them to arrive at a "consensus candidate."

Although Lok Dal General-Secretary Madhu Limaye, who briefed the press, said that no names were discussed, some opposition parties are understood to be in favour of fielding Mr. Jagjivan Ram as the candidate. While on this issue the opposition predictably does not want any confrontation with the Congress-I, on other issues it is bent upon fighting out issues in the streets.

The meeting decided to intensify its agitation against the installation of the Bhajan Lal ministry in Haryana and for the ouster of Haryana Governor Tapase. The meeting was attended by Mr. Samar Mukherjee and Mr. Harkrishen Singh Surjeet (CPI-M), Mr. Madhu Limaye and Mr. Rabi Ray (Lok Dal), Mr. L.K. Advani (BJP), Mr. Brij Mohan (Congress-J) and Mr. P.S. Badal (Akali Dal-L).

ARMY CHIEF ON KASHMIR CITIZENSHIP BILL

BK060652 Hong Kong AFP in English 0018 GMT 5 Jun 82

[Text] New Delhi, 4 Jun (AFP) -- Indian Army Chief Gen. K.V. Krishna Rao today expressed opposition to the state administration in Indian-held Kashmir to allow the return of Kashmiris who migrated to Pakistan.

"Who knows who will be coming in the name of Kashmiris," the PRESS TRUST OF INDIA (PTI) quoted him as saying to journalists at Hyderabad, southern India.

He said such return of refugees would create serious security problems to India.

PTI said he was commenting on the controversial citizenship bill adopted by the legislative assembly of Kashmir ruled by Chief Minister Mohammed Abdullah's regional party.

The bill is, however, yet to receive the required assent of Federal President Neelam Sanjiva Reddy before coming into effect.

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's ruling Congress Party, which is in the opposition in the disputed border state with Pakistan, is reported to be not in agreement with the Abdullah government's move.

Gen. Rao, however, said that the issue was totally political and he did not want to discuss it. But the agency quoted him as further observing that what he felt was from the national security point of view.

The bill seeks to allow the return of anyone who voluntarily migrated to Pakistan in the past 35 years, following the partition of the then undivided sub-continent into independent India and Pakistan.

Answering a separate question, Gen. Rao said there was no room for complacency or laxity in view of what was happening across the border.

"Pakistan is getting aid from the United States. In the next two to three years, it will improve its strike capability substantially. We cannot be complacent or take it easy," he said.

He further commented that Pakistan asked for a no-war pact, "but our offer for a friendship pact was not well received by them."

AFP: NAXALITES KILL 5 IN WEST BENGAL ATTACK

BK051727 Hong Kong AFP in English 1713 GMT 5 Jun 82

[Excerpt] New Delhi, 5 Jun (AFP) -- Extremist pro-Beijing communists or Naxalites lynched five people in a surprise attack in West Bengal's (state capital Calcutta) Jalpaiguri District in the northern part of the state Friday, official reports said tonight.

The victims were supporters of the Communist Party of India, Marxist (CPI-M), the dominant partner in the left alliance ruling the state, the PRESS TRUST OF INDIA (PTI) said in a Calcutta dispatch, quoting police officials.

One of the members of the attackers' group was also killed. He was believed to have been injured in a police firing and his body was recovered later from a nearby paddy field.

Police believed the group involved in the attack were members of the pro-Lin Biao faction of the splintered extremist movement, led by Binod Mishra.

The attack came when the CPI-M supporters were engaging in a private party meeting and they were beaten to death.

Police rushed to the spot when being informed of the incident and opened fire to neutralise the raiders. But they were counter-attacked by the extremists and two of them were seriously injured.

HAQ INTERVIEWED ON U.S., AFGHANISTAN, INDIA

BK071730 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 1500 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Text] President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq has said that he will visit the United States in December this year at the invitation of President Reagan. In an interview with the INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC NEWS AGENCY in Jidda he said that the details of the agenda are yet to be determined. However, these discussions will deal primarily with bilateral matters and some regional issues will be reviewed.

The president said that Pakistan will receive the first batch of F-16's by the end of the year. The pace at which the agreement with the United States on the supply of economic aid and the purchase of arms is being implemented is good and the two countries are working according to the program, he added.

The president said that he will also visit Bangladesh later this year. Describing Pakistan's relations with Bangladesh as very cordial, he expressed the hope that relations between the two friendly countries will continue to develop as both desire peace.

In reply to a question on the indirect talks under UN auspices in Geneva on the Afghanistan issue, the president said that he hopes that the talks will prove another step toward a political settlement of the Afghanistan issue. He said that the Iranian envoy in Geneva will be kept fully informed of the talks.

Answering a question, the president said that the rate of influx of Afghan refugees to Pakistan ranged from 60,000 to 80,000 every month. He said that Pakistan is very obliged to the fraternal Islamic countries, other friendly countries and international organizations for providing aid for the Afghan refugees. However, there is still a need for further aid for the refugees. The president expressed the hope that with the efforts of fraternal countries like Saudi Arabia more aid for the refugees will be forthcoming.

In reply to a question regarding India-Pakistan relations, he said that Pakistan wants to establish relations with India free from mistrust and suspicion. Pakistan has made an offer of a no-war pact and India's preliminary reaction in this regard has been very good. He hoped that this process will continue and that it will eventually lead to a speedy normalization of relations between the two countries.

The president said that the process of the Islamization of the law in Pakistan is proceeding very well and in a speedy manner. The day is not too far off, he said, when our civil laws will closely follow religious laws with regard to the regular activities of the people, their daily lives and in the system of administration. The president said that the Islamic ideology council has submitted its recommendations and that he has reviewed them. Now these recommendations will be presented to the Cabinet. Some necessary clarifications have been sought in this regard.

Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal had a meeting with the president in Jidda this afternoon which lasted for an hour. This was the second meeting between the two leaders since the president of Pakistan's arrival in Jidda.

AID FOR REFUGEES SOUGHT THROUGH ARAB LEAGUE

GF041133 Karachi DAWN in English 31 May 82 p 1

["Pakistan Seeks Arab Aid for Afghan Camps"]

[Text] Tunis, 30 May -- Pakistan has urged the Arab countries to render material assistance to the 2.7 million Afghan refugees living on its territories, in a request made through the Arab League's General Secretariat.

The Pakistani memorandum, distributed by the Secretariat among the 22 members, appealed for urgent assistance needed by the refugees who fled their country following the Soviet military intervention.

The Pakistan Government is said to have put together an elaborate administrative structure comprising about 6,000 persons to take care of the manifold needs of the Afghan refugees.

About 800 tent villages have been set up in the NWFP [Northwest Frontier Province] and Baluchistan to house the homeless Afghans.

Besides providing food and cash allowances, the government has taken steps to open schools and dispensaries and training centres have been started to teach the refugees useful skills. These cost Pakistan about $1 million per day.

Pakistan has been getting help from international agencies and various friendly countries but even then a big shortfall remains.

It is estimated that for every dollar that comes from abroad, Pakistan has to provide an equal amount.

MINISTER HAROON ON ELECTIONS, PARTIES, AMNESTY

GF041125 Karachi DAWN in English 31 May 82 p 1

["Gov't Determined To Hold Polls -- Haroon"]

[Excerpts] Quetta, 30 May -- President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq was determined to hold elections in the country as he sincerely believed that without elected representatives of the people the affairs of the government could not be run effectively. This was stated by the federal minister for interior, Mr Mahmud A. Haroon, while talking to newsmen here this afternoon.

Mr Haroon regretted that none of the political parties could give a solid programme or policy to the people. In spite of the restrictions on political activities in the country the executive bodies of political parties had been holding meetings. Heaven would not have fallen if in one of their such meetings these parties would have issued some concrete economic programmes, he remarked.

The minister said that these political parties should first identify their own programme by consensus and which was directed towards the welfare of the country, he stated.

Replying to a question, he said that President Ziaul Haq had been meeting political leaders. The doors were open and he (president) would meet them whenever they so desired.

The minister said that in an ideological state there could be no room for criticism of the ideology, and referred to some of the ideological states where such people were dealt with severely.

Our staff correspondent adds: Mr Haroon said that those persons who had left their homes and crossed over to a neighbouring country during the previous regime, should avail themselves of general amnesty granted by the present government.

He said they were Pakistanis and they should return to their country and participate in welfare activities. The number of such people was between 1,400 and 1,500, he added.

DAWN REPORTS 20 INJURED IN KASHMIR CLASH

["Held Kashmir Clash: 20 Hurt"]

[Text] Sialkot, 30 May (PPI) -- Over 20 workers of the People's Conference, an opposition party in occupied Kashmir, were wounded, when they were attacked by a large number of workers and supporters of the ruling party, National Conference, at Hurmain Shopian town, on Saturday, says a report reaching here from across the ceasefire line.

Meanwhile, Mr Muzaffar Hussian, vice-chairman of the People's Conference, while addressing a press conference, in Srinagar on Saturday alleged that ruling party workers started pelting stones and bricksbats on the leaders and members of his party during the concluding session of the workers meeting as a result of which 20 persons sustained injuries. He said condition of three of them was critical.

Mr Hussain denounced the role of the police and said the police kept away while the ruling party workers were engaged in hooliganism.

Commenting on the re-settlement bill, passed recently by the state assembly, the opposition leader accused the ruling party of using the bill as a political tool. Criticising the recent speech of Sheikh Abdullah, he said that Mr Abdullah was spreading parochial hatred among the people of different areas.

PASHTUN LEADER EXPOSES PASHTUNISTAN 'STUNT'

GF071216 Karachi NAWA-I-WAQT in Urdu 1 Jun 82 pp 1, 9

[Text] Islamabad, 31 May -- The red shirt leader Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan has said that Pashtunistan was a stunt set up by Afghanistan and India for propaganda against Pakistan. In an interview he said: "We have no connections with Pashtunistan." Although I attended, on some occasions, Pashtunistan day celebrations in Afghanistan, I was in fact ignorant at that time of what it stood for, he said. "However, when I came to know [the real meaning], I stopped attending those ceremonies," Ghaffar Khan added.

"As far as the Pashtun nationality is concerned," Ghaffar Khan said, "we still believe that there are four nationalities in Pakistan. They are Pashtuns, Baluchis, Sindhis, and Punjabis." Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan gave this interview to an English-language newspaper of Islamabad at his residence in Charsadda.

In reply to a question Ghaffar Khan admitted that there is continued resistance to the Karmal regime within Afghanistan. However, he refused to give any details and added that if he spoke against the Soviet Union he would be dubbed as being pro-United States. If he spoke against the United States, he would be dubbed as pro-Soviet. He declined to comment on whether the present conflict was started by Pakistan or Afghanistan. He said he had once sent a letter to President Ziaul Haq informing him that the situation had changed in the region and that now was the time for Pakistan and Afghanistan to resolve their differences. "I am ready to tell the same thing to the leaders in Kabul," he added, "and I believe that their reply would be positive."

The red shirt leader said that he was in constant touch with President Ziaul Haq and that he and Ziaul Haq are corresponding.

In reply to another question, Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan said that the Afghanistan problem was started by Afghanistan itself. It has entangled not only Pakistan in it but also the two world powers.

BK021107 Colombo International Service in English 1045 GMT 2 Jun 82

[Text] The Soviet Union has submitted bids for use of the Trincomalee tank farm, according to the Ceylon Petroleum Corporation [CPC]. A Soviet delegation, which arrived on the island recently, has already inspected the tanks.

The corporation called for worldwide tenders to upgrade and operate the Trincomalee tank farm. CPC Chairman Daham Wimalasena said that seven bids have been received by the corporation from India, Switzerland, West Germany, the United States, Britain, the Netherlands and the Soviet Union. Wimalesena said that the bids are being evaluated.

Sri Lanka has made it clear that any agreement will totally safeguard the country's territorial and political sovereignty and its nonaligned foreign policy.

CABINET GRANTS EMERGENCY POWERS TO PRESIDENT

BK080625 Colombo SUN in English 3 Jun 82 p 1

[By Kenneth Amerasekera and Jennifer Henricus]

[Text] The Cabinet yesterday empowered President J.R. Jayewardene to invoke provisions of the Public Security Act, if he feels it necessary, to deal with attempts by persons to rouse communal discord and unleash violence.

This came after President Jayewardene briefed ministers about what Cabinet Spokesman and Minister of State Anandatissa de Alwis said was "the distribution of inflammatory pamphlets seeking to rouse communal discord and racial violence."

Mr de Alwis announced that criminal [as published] action would be taken against those who indulged in this activity.

He did not give details but said Prime Minister R. Premadasa would make a statement on the matter to Parliament on June 8.

'SUN' reliably learns yesterday's Cabinet discussion came in the wake of Tuesday's meeting of the National Security Council [NSC].

The NSC which reviewed the security situation in the country is learnt to have examined intelligence reports of attempts to create religious disharmony. The council is learnt to have been told of "highly inflammatory" literature that was being sent to persons living in the plantation sector.

Police have already seized the literature and traced the printing concerns responsible for it, according to criminal investigation division sources.

MINISTER ON VIOLENT ACTS ORGANIZED BY SLFP

BK280934 Colombo SUN in English 21 May 82 p 1

[Text] An action committee of a select group of the Sri Lanka Freedom Party organised violent and disruptive action against the government in 1980, Internal Security Minister and Deputy Defence Minister T.B. Werapitiya, told Parliament last night. "They have been identified," he added.

There is evidence that this group sent special emissaries to various parts of the country to organise:

-- the breaching of the bunds of major irrigation tanks,
-- blowing up of major bridges and culverts,
-- disrupting the telecommunications network,
-- causing derailment of trains,
-- blocking the main roads by felling trees across them,
-- destroying water supply schemes,
-- causing damage to government property, etc.

Mr Werapitiya said in a report to Parliament that it was also proposed to bring large masses of people into Colombo on October 15, 1980, and to destroy the Parliament buildings. Some of them admitted having given instructions to commit acts of violence. The offences disclosed come within section 120 of the Penal Code and certain acts have been committed in furtherance of the conspiracy charges.

"Unfortunately there did not appear to be public support for these acts of violence. The scheme failed. Only in a few places damage was caused", he said.

Mr Werapitiya's report contains the findings of the inspector-general of police [IGP].

The IGP was directed by the government to conduct an inquiry after the parliamentary select committee on "responsibilities of ministers for continuance of a state of emergency" submitted a report to Parliament.

In the course of its report the committee referred to a paragraph in a letter sent by Maithripala Senanayake, MP, dated August 23, 1981, to Mrs Srimavo Bandaranaike, and published in the Ceylon DAILY MIRROR of August 25, 1981. In this letter Mr Senanayake referred to certain instructions issued by Ratnasiri Wickremanayake to the party's youth organisations and other groups about the campaign carried out against the deprivation of civic rights of Mrs Bandaranaike which could lead "to the people (being) destroyed".

Mr Werapitiya's report states:

Investigations were conducted in the following electorates: -- Colombo, Kelaniya, Mahara, Gampaha, Attanagalla, Mirigama, Ambalangoda, Galle, Matara, Minipe, Teldeniya, Anamaduwa, Hakmana, Ratgama, Kandy, Senkadagala, Kundasale, Galagedera, Harispattuwa, Patha Dumbara, Hewaheta, Nawalapitiya and Bingiriya.

These investigations reveal that meetings had been held in these electorates to organize the people to protest against the deprivation of civic rights of Mrs Bandaranaike.

These were to take the form of mass meetings, the sending of telegrams and letters of protest, poster campaigns, etc.

However, the investigations reveal that a separate action committee had been formed of a select group in the Sri Lanka Freedom Party to make the protest a violent one with a view to disrupting the economy. There is evidence that this action group had sent special emissaries to various parts of the country to organise violent and disruptive action. The members of this action group have been identified.

KHOMEYNI SCORES SILENCE OF 'INDIFFERENT' ARABS

[Message to "reactionary Arab" governments issued on 7 June by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni -- read by announcer]

[Text] In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. We come from God and to God we shall return. I look at the blessed word recovery [esterja'] not only for the crimes committed by Israel nor for the martyrdom and devastating damage inflicted upon the oppressed Muslims in dear southern Lebanon -- though it requires recovery; nor in connection with the towns and villages of that Islamic country, which have been occupied and destroyed by the infidel usurper Zionist regime of Israel -- although those too require recovery; nor do I see it in connection with the homelessness of thousands of our sisters and brothers in that Islamic place -- although that also requires recovery. Neither do I see it in connection with the oppressed Palestinians subjected to Israeli ruthlessness, again something needing recovery. Neither do I see it with regard to the martyrdom of more than 40 men, women and children of Ilam who were martyred by the hand of Saddam while speaking against blood-sucking America and Israel; nor the wounding of more than 200 innocent tribal Muslims and the destruction of mosques, schools and hospitals and houses -- although those too will have to be recovered. What I am saying is that the indifference demonstrated by Islamic governments is what recovery applies to.

If there was only indifference, it would not be too bad. I am referring to recovery in connection with the support provided by a great many governments to Israel and to Saddam, these two illegitimate offspring of America.

I, and every Muslim, must resort to recovery of the financial and psychological assistance given by the governments of Islamic countries to America, the leader of criminals, and to Israel and the Iraqi Ba'thist and 'Aflaqist regime, the executor of Israel's and America's sinister intentions. An honorable Muslim must recover from the jihad proposal against a country opposing Israel, under the false accusation of receiving arms from Israel and the attempt [by some Arab countries] to recognize the aggressive action against Islamic Lebanon by Israel as well as the martyrdom of thousands of innocent Muslims in the south.

Aggressive and criminal Israel is being commended, while America -- this leader of aggressors enjoying the resources of poor and oppressed Islamic countries -- is being provided with financial assistance as well as receiving political and psychological assistance through the efforts of the region's Islamic media, while Palestine and Syria remain alone. In his aggression against Iran, Saddam -- who is 100-percent opposed to Islam -- is enjoying financial and military assistance in the murder of a generation of Arabs and others. He is enjoying propaganda support, when the Islamic country of Iran, which has risen for the revival of Islam and the holy Koran, is being left on its own.

These, and a great many other issues, have posed certain problems for Muslims for which they must take action collectively. I express my condolences for the immense tragedies suffered by our helpless brethren in southern Lebanon as well as the hardships inflicted upon our brethren in Ilam and other war-stricken regions in Iran. I pray for the martyrs in their defense of these two Islamic countries and ask God to give their families patience. I pray to God Almighty to awaken those governments which are indifferent to the interests of Islamic countries, which are oblivious to the holy Koran's precepts. May God crush the enemies of Islam and Muslims. God bless you all.

RAFSANJANI: IRANIANS WILL DEFEND LEBANON

LD071226 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Text] The Central News Unit reports that the Islamic Majlis held an open session this morning. At this session, chaired by Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the Majlis speaker first condemned the (?repeated) attacks launched by the occupying Zionist regime on southern Lebanon. Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani said:

[Begin recording] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. [passage indistinct]

We caution the champion nation of Iran, we caution the [word indistinct] forces in the region, and we warn the reactionary forces which might be party to the conspiracy or might be behind it. The occupation of southern Lebanon is by no means acceptable to us or to any of the other progressive Muslim Arab countries. We will defend it, just as we did our Iranian soil, like Khorramshahr or Bostan. [shouts of "God is great!" and other slogans]

The occupation of PLO centers in Lebanon, the bombing of the Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon and the crushing of the struggling Amal forces in Lebanon is to us just like the occupation of Khorramshahr [word indistinct] garrison, or the occupation of Dezful or Hamid garrison, and we will not tolerate it.

We now announce that all political, military and economic forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran will enter the arena with all our might in response to the aggression against Lebanon by Zionists, imperialists and reactionary forces in the region. Today our representative, our military representative, will go to Syria in order to review every kind of cooperation and assistance with the officials of the friendly, struggling and steadfast country of Syria and the PLO.

But this issue concerns not only us, Syria, Lebanon and the PLO. First, the countries of the steadfastness front and, second, all Islamic countries and Islamic nations are invited to enter the arena and cut off the hand of aggression from the region now that they have begun this aggression. We propose the dispatch of armed forces from all Muslim countries, and we once again stress and repeat this proposal. We once again stress the proposal to use all our economic capabilities, including oil and strategic routes on land and by sea at our disposal in the region.

We announce that the Islamic Republic will not be deceived this time. You cannot prevent us from taking our right from Saddam who is now in step with Begin, on the pretext of the agression on Lebanon. [sentence as heard] Saddam is attacking Iran as part of a joint conspiracy with the attack on Lebanon. As part of this joint conspiracy they are bombing Iran and Lebanon. No one can stop us from recapturing what is rightfully ours. With all our might we will fight for our rights inside our country and will defend it. We also have the power to take part officially in the jihad against Israel together with our Arab and Muslim brothers in the region.

And so [shouts of "God is great!"] we tell all those who [word indistinct] are trying to end the [word indistinct] war by Iraq against Iran that they should not try to take advantage of the situation, because we will accept no settlement other than those rights already announced.

Peace be upon you all. [end recording]

JOINT COMMUNIQUE ON SENDING UNITS TO LEBANON

LD071820 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Unnumbered joint communique of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. In the name of God, the crusher of the oppressors. "Israel must be destroyed" -- Imam Khomeyni.

On the eve of 9 June, the international day of the oppressed, the day of the liberation of the deprived people from the shameful yoke of arrogant world imperialism led by the criminal America and its mercenary and criminal agents, the usurping Israel and the Zionist Saddam, these man-devouring wolves, with their evil union have extended their savage attacks against the deprived Muslims in south Lebanon and the Palestinian refugees and have made them targets of their bullets and repeatedly and unceasingly are spilling their blood.

Now that Israel, this vile germ of corruption produced by world imperialism, has shamelessly and impudently started the occupation of south Lebanon while slaughtering the Muslims, it is clear that a courageous response should be given to such obvious aggression. All this is taking place at a time when the deprived people in Lebanon and Palestine and our brave Iranian compatriots are shouting the slogan "Death to America and death to Israel" with their fists clenched. It is only for the sake of seeking and demanding justice that such pure and holy blood is mixed together. We believe that, in accordance with the decisive and clear decree of the Almighty and in accordance with our religious duties and ideological commitment, Israel, that corrupt cancerous cell of the region, should be destroyed so that the rebellion of the usurpers is terminated, God's decree is obeyed and peace and security reign in the Islamic region.

In obedience to the orders of His Great Eminence Imam Khomeyni, the great leader and commander in chief of the armed forces, the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran give a positive response to his call for recovery [Arabic word: esterja'] and will send a number of units from the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran to south Lebanon in order to engage in face-to-face combat against Israel, this number one enemy of Islam and the Muslims.

The self-sacrificing members of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Mobilization of the Guards Corps and the brave fighters of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, who are also engaged in unceasing battle against the criminal Ba'thist regime, by expanding these fronts will fight against its collaborator, the number one enemy of the Muslims, thereby engaging in unceasing and face-to-face combat against world imperialism. They respond to the plea of the deprived people of Lebanon and the Palestinian refugees calling: Muslims, where are you? The forces of Islam will form a steel barrier on the side of the brave Palestinian and Syrian fighters in south Lebanon. With the grace of God they will teach an unforgettable lesson to criminal imperialism and the usurping Zionists.

Details about the places for registration of the volunteers to take part in battle against the Zionist aggressors will be brought to the notice of our heroic and Muslim nation in later communiques. Hoping for the final victory of the fighters of Islam and the liberation of Jerusalem from the clutches of usurping Zionism. With God's assistance, victory is near.

MUSAVI URGES ARABS TO USE 'OIL WEAPON'

GF080610 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 0430 GMT 8 Jun 82

[Text] Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, speaking on the role of some of the rulers of the region vis-a-vis Israel, has said: Naturally, the agents of the United States in the area are on the side of the United States and Israel. We declare to all such nations that if AWACS aircraft and Phantoms acquired with the money of the Muslims are not brought to the fronts, at least use the oil weapon and fire the bullets of your oil into the face of the United States. But these countries have saved their airplanes for the United States. AWACS planes and Phantoms are entirely in the service of the United States and Israel.

Regarding the relationship between the Saddam regime's large-scale aggression against Islamic Iran and its bombing of residential areas and the barbaric attack of the Zionist regime on southern Lebanon and on defenseless Muslims living there, he said: War with Saddam or Begin does not make any difference to us. Basically, we consider Israel's aggression against southern Lebanon and Saddam's aggression against the south and west of Iran to be linked. We see both as the special strategy of the Pentagon. This Islamic revolution is so strong that we can conduct a war on the two fronts of this conspiracy, that is, in southern Lebanon and Syria and in the southern and western areas of our country.

MAJLIS CALLS FOR RESPONSE TO 'ZIONIST AGGRESSION'

LD072120 Tehran IRNA in English 2023 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 7 Jun (IRNA) -- In today's open session of the Majlis, Hojjat ol-Eslam Khatam'i, the head of Foreign Affairs Committee, read the statement of the Majlis representatives in relation to the savage aggression of the Zionist regime against south Lebanon.

(?A part) of the statement said that the Zionists' full scale invasion by air, ground and sea into south Lebanon and slaying the Muslim combatants and brave Palestinians, illustrated a part of the aggressive strategy of this regime, intended to [word indistinct] the illegal designs of Zionist dominion from the Nile to the Euphrates.

The statment further said that the coordination of these savage aggressions with the crimes of another mercenary of international imperialism, i.e. Saddam, in another part of the Islamic world, delineated the strategic union of [word indistinct] in confronting the Islamic revolution.

These brutal massacres, added the statement, expressed the weakness and wretchedness of imperialism in confronting the great revolution which started from the Islamic country of (?Iran) and is expanding over all the region.

Another part of the statement said that when the oppressed nations noticed the difference of international assemblies and the sessions of the so-called defenders of human rights, vis-a-vis the savage crimes of the Zionist regime and Saddam, people quickly understood that these assemblies and conferences instead of (?being at) the service of the oppressed people's objectives and needs, were willingly or unwillingly the agents of these aggressors against the rights of the oppressed, consequently the downtrodden did not expect justice from these assemblies.

The end of the statement said now as a suitable opportunity has been presented to inspire all the Muslims to enter the warfronts and destroy the cancer which has bothered the body of the Islamic and oppressed world for years, i.e. the Zionist regime. [sentence as received] This action would be a confirmation of the suggestion of President Khamene'i and Majlis Speaker Rafsanjani to dispatch forces to fight against the regime occupying Al-Quds. Iran had expressed hope that other nations would follow suit in this regard, concluded the statement.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 937

LD071942 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 7 Jun 82

[Communique No 937 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] "When the hidden imam arises, the call 'I testify that there is no god but God and that Muhammad is the prophet of God' will be raised in every land," said Imam Sadiq [seventh Shi'ite imam], may God's peace be upon him.

On the occasion of the blessed birthday of the proof of God, the reformer of the earth and of the age, the pillar of the universe, the promised mahdi, the leader of the world government of Islam, may God hasten his glad advent, and on the occasion of the international day of the oppressed, we express our congratulations to his rightful vice regent, Imam Khomeyni, to the Muslim and combative Iranian nation, to the martyrs in the history of Islam, to the martyrs of the Islamic revolution in the imposed war and to all the steadfast fighters on the battlefronts of the war between truth and falsehood who fight against the manifestations of infidelity and blasphemy until his return.

We hereby notify you of a part of the operations of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran during the past 24 hours:

Yesterday exchange of fire continued on all the southern fronts of the country with complete superiority of the forces of Islam; our heroic fighters, while defending their positions, smashed the positions of the Iraqi forces.

Yesterday some residential parts of Abadan came under heavy enemy fire, which caused some human and material losses.

On the western fronts of the country the exchange of fire continued in Meymak, Salehabad, Sumar, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb; in all the defensive areas our forces, while silencing enemy fire, destroyed some of their supply centers and weapons' emplacements. They set on fire and destroyed two vehicles, one mortar, one observation post and a number of weapons dumps. Also, as the result of our artillery fire, the movement of one enemy armored column in the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab region was stopped.

In the Marivan region, exchange of fire continued and our artillery units destroyed 2 enemy artillery pieces on Iraqi territory and killed or wounded at least 12 of the enemy's personnel. In the same region, a few Iraqi personnel presented themselves to the officials of the Islamic Republic of Iran, asked for asylum and were welcomed by our brothers.

KUWAITI REACTION TO, POSITION IN WAR NOTED

GF071311 Tehran JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI in Persian 29 May 82 p 1

[Editorial: "Waiting for the Killing Blow"]

[Excerpts] The smell of gunpowder still hangs in the air over Khorramshahr. The evacuation of thousands of POW's behind the fronts has not yet been completed. The ruler of Baghdad is still dizzy from the heavy and crushing blow dealt him by the Islamic revolution.

Now the question posed is: What changes have occurred in the position of the countries of the region, including the Baghdad regime, following the liberation of Khorramshahr? Even though an answer to this question requires a longer time in order to realize the dimensions of this heavy blow, the evidence shows that Saddam and his supporters have not learned their lesson. The reactions so far have three points clearly in common:

1. The aggressor has not yet confessed to his crimes and even claims that it has taught the Iranian revolution its lesson. Therefore, it has retreated from Khorramshahr, since its occupation seemed unnecessary!

2. The puppet regimes of the region have not confessed to their treachery in supporting the criminal actions of the Baghdad regime and continue to publish and broadcast the quarrelsome noises of the Baghdad regime from their propaganda trumpets.

3. The U.S. State Department, the EEC foreign ministers and their other so-called friends whose interests are endangered have begun praying and crying for a cease-fire and the return of peace to the area!

They want a quick cease-fire and have openly announced that the fall of the Baghdad regime will endanger the security of the region. We should see if the Islamic Republic of Iran can rest while its soil is still occupied by the blood-sucking military of the Baghdad regime, thus allowing Saddam to rebuild his strength.

Can a regime which has shown that, should the opportunity arise, it will not rest easy until the entire region is engulfed in fire, continue to exist? Considering this, who will pay for the crimes of Saddam? Would it not be an encouragement to the aggressor should such opportunities arise?

Can such great crimes be easily forgiven without the aggressor being tried as a war criminal? Can the Iranian nation accept the continued rule of a regime, which has been the instigator of the crimes of the past 20 months, so that it can reconstruct its forces for future wars, murder and bloodshed? In this respect can the continued support by the reactionary leaders of the region be explained? The countries of the region should make their position clear once and for all. Are they still willing to support the regime of Saddam at-Tikriti or have the chants of "God is great" by the Islamic fighters brought them to and made them realize that they are playing with fire?

It is natural that the people of Iran cannot accept a warmongering regime on their borders. The regime of Saddam has clearly shown that it cannot rule Iraq as a neighbor of the Islamic Republic of Iran. The people of Iran cannot easily forget all these crimes and treachery of Saddam. Public opinion in Iran wants the fall of the regime which is directly responsible for all these crimes. How can we accept an end to the war unless it results in the fall of Saddam at-Tikriti?

What guarantee is there that, following a reconstruction of forces, the regime of Baghdad will not attack another country, for instance, to teach Kuwait a lesson? What guarantee is there that should Saddam's power increase he will not decide on settling accounts with Kuwait? The people of Kuwait have the right to ask themselves which hands are trying to maintain Saddam's regime so that when it regains power it can spill the blood of people of Kuwait.

This is why the people of Kuwait support, more than people of other countries, the victory of the Islamic fighters and the destruction of Saddam's army and celebrate each Iranian victory. Why is it that listening to the Voice of the Islamic Republic is considered a normal thing everywhere in Kuwait nowadays? Why is it that the Muslim people of Kuwait show such sensitivity to the reports of the 20-month-old Iran-Iraq war, irrespective of the blows of the Kuwaiti policies? The reason is that they are awaiting the news of the fall of Baghdad regime.

They have the right to know whether the superpowers are maintaining Saddam in order to complete the project of bombing the Kuwait refinery. Should this happen, will the Egyptian mercenaries, Saudi petrodollars and U.S. AWACS aircraft positioned in Saudi Arabia go to Saddam's aid? They want to know whether Saddam will try to get revenge on Kuwait should he stay and his power increase. Will Saddam consider Kuwait one of the reasons for his immense defeat in Iran for having refused to allow him the use of Bubian Islands? It is true that the regime of Kuwait has given to -- paid ransom to -- the Iraqi regime billions of dollars in loans following the threats of Baghdad regime. However, history will show that regimes such as that of the At-Tikritis in Iraq have never shown mercy even on its friends.

We should ask whether the Kuwaiti people can resist an Iraqi attack against their country and support their army in the fight against these criminals in the manner of the martyr-nurturing people of Iran. Naturally Kuwait, with its small population and limited military and manpower, will not be able to resist the blood-sucking regime of Iraq alone. However, Islamic Iran will never leave the Muslim people of Kuwait alone and will go to their aid. Yet, is it logical to let a blood-sucking wild animal who is on the verge of death recover its strength and then begin another fight with it in a different place? The answer to this question is surely negative from every aspect. Therefore, there is only one solution for the return of peace and quiet to the area and that is the fall of Saddam.

Meeting With Khamene'i

LD061952 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 6 Jun 82

[Excerpts] According to a Central News Unit report, Mr Belkacem Nabi, the Algerian energy and petrochemical industries minister, accompanied by the Algerian ambassador to the Islamic Republic of Iran, this morning met and held talks with President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i. The 2-hour meeting was also attended by Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, Petroleum Minister Mr Gharazi, and the deputy oil minister.

President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i said that, in our view, the relationship between the Iranian Islamic revolution and the Algerian revolution is very close and important. We want such relations to develop as much as possible. The president then referred to latest developments in the Persian Gulf.

He said that we believe that this should be a secure and peaceful region and that the Persian Gulf region states should plan their relations without crises or tension. For this reason, since the beginning of the revolution, we have tried to have friendly and healthy relations with our neighbors around the Persian Gulf, but provocations, which are nothing more than excuses, are always carried out by states outside the region.

The president added: Since the beginning of the revolution we have declared that we neither intend to be the Persian Gulf's gendarme, nor shall we allow anyone else to be the Persian Gulf's gendarme. We, through struggle, overthrew the regime of the shah, who was a U.S. lackey and the guardian of its interests in the region, and today we cannot tolerate a successor to the American regime of the shah in the region, be it the Iraqi regime or any other regime in the region.

He added that the Algerian delegation's proposal was that a [word indistinct] bank be set up to help the countries being held back without allowing the domination of industrial countries to influence it.

ENVOY TO USSR SEEKING ASYLUM IN AMSTERDAM

RADIO, TV DIRECTOR ON DOMESTIC, FOREIGN BROADCASTS

GF041205 Tehran ETTELA'AT in Persian 22 May 82 p 4

[Excerpts] Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, the roads and transportation minister, the director-general of the Voice and Vision of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Bushehr governor general, inspected the various sections of the television center of (Kuh Mond), which is located in the south of Bushehr, after its opening ceremony. During this inspection, Mir-Hoseyn Musavi lauded the services of the employees of this center.

According to the IRNA correspondent, Mr Mohammad Hashemi, the director general of the Voice and Vision of the Islamic Republic of Iran spoke to correspondents about the operations of the new transmitter.

Regarding the extent of the area covered by the new transmitter, Mr Hashemi said: This transmitter covers 90 percent of Bushehr Province from Bandar-e Asaluyeh to Bandar-e Deylam, the cities of Bushehr, Borazjan and 360 villages and even beyond the frontiers. It also covers some Gulf countries, including Kuwait.

Regarding the programs of the Voice and Vision for the domestic and external services, Mr Hashemi said: At present, 64 projects are underway on the domestic level. Most of them will be completed by the end of this year and some by next year. These projects include powerful radio television and FM transmitters which are being completed according to the needs of the region and which will cover the domestic and external areas in a better way.

He added: At present, more than 80 percent of the population of the country can view the Channel 1 programs of the Vision of Iran and over 90 percent can hear the Voice of the Islamic Republic's programs.

Mr Hashemi then spoke about future programs. He said: The farflung areas of the country have a greater priority as far as we are concerned because under the present circumstances, although some parts of the country are covered by six channels, others do not have a single transmitter.

He continued: The problem of the external services also has great priority because at present, 35 radios are broadcasting against the Islamic revolution in Persian and include mostly [news from] the international press.

In conclusion, he said: During the current year, we have in hand three important foreign broadcasting projects which will soon be implemented.

NVOI CRITICIZES STATEMENTS ON IRANIAN THREAT

[Unattributed commentary: "The Main Objective of Our Combatant Nation"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: Now that, as a result of the selflessness and sacrifice of the heroic Iranian nation, the hope of ending the imposed war and cleansing our homeland's sacred soil from the presence of foreign aggressors is materializing, imperialist and above all, U.S. circles, have become active in order to prevent an end to this war.

More than anyone else, world-devouring America has an interest in the prolongation of this imposed war. America has always exploited and continues to exploit differences and disputes among nations to escalate further its military presence. In our region too, under the pretext of checking the Iranian regime's so-called aggressive intentions with respect to the countries of the Persian Gulf region, America wants to pave the way for implementing its hegemonistic plans.

Progressive mankind and the nations of our region are aware that our Islamic Republic did not and does not have any design whatsoever on the territory of others. World-devouring America and the region's reaction, in order to induce the countries of this region to confront revolutionary Iran, are advancing such idle talk. We are all aware that Imam Khomeyni, during statements addressed to the region's governments, particularly the leaders of the region's Arab states, while refuting the false accusations and claims of imperialist and reactionary mouthpieces, requested these governments to review their relations with world-devouring America, and to liberate themselves from dependence on America. Imam Khomeyni stressed that no danger whatsoever threatens them from the direction of Iran.

As we are aware, in connection with the defeat of its anti-Iranian plans, especially in view of the recent victories of the Islamic Republic in the imposed war, America is striving to prevent this war from ending. America is exerting all its efforts to render an international dimension to this war and to involve other regimes dependent on it in the war. Thus, we see that after Shah Husayn and the mini-shahs of Saudi Arabia, Oman and so forth, the Egyptian regime has also entered the arena and, in accordance with America's plan and directive, is beating the drum of an imaginary Iranian danger which is allegedly threatening the region's Arab states.

With this ploy America wants to bring some of the regimes dependent on it into the battlefield against emancipated Iran, to divert the attention of Arab states from the constant and real danger, namely, the Zionist and aggressive Israel.

As we are aware, in rejecting the false claims of imperialist and reactionary circles, our homeland's realistic authorities defined clearly the policy of the Islamic Republic of Iran in respect to the countries of the region, particularly neighboring states, and without doubt our revolutionary homeland did not and does not have any design whatsoever on the territory of others.

Of course, unfortunately, some extremist officials, in their irresponsible statements project the Islamic Republic of Iran in the international arena in such a manner that allegedly it intends, after cleansing its territory from the presence of foreign troops, to penetrate into the territory of other countries and to maintain the Islamic revolution there as well. It goes without saying that such irresponsible statements are only to the detriment of the Islamic Republic of Iran, and are tantamount to pouring grist into the mill of Iran's enemies.

The final objective of the people of our emancipated homeland is that the domination of U.S. imperialism in the region be terminated, that the nations of the region's countries themselves hold their destiny in their own hands, and that they establish a government of justice on their territory without pressure and interference from outside. This does not mean that Iran will export its revolution to these countries, for the choice of a system and the form of government is the task of the nations of our region themselves. Naturally, these nations are able to learn from the valuable experience of other nations.

As far as our emancipated homeland is concerned it should be stated that our nation's goal is the expulsion of the aggressors from Iran's soil, the maintenance of territorial integrity and the consolidation of the country's independence. Without doubt our homeland's combatant people will support every popular and anti-imperialist movement in the region, and this principle has also been stipulated in our Islamic Republic's Constitution.

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

U.S. Cease-Fire Demand -- U.S. President Ronald Reagan sent an urgent message to Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin "demanding" that Israel immediately cease fire in Lebanon, Jerusalem radio reported. The radio speculated that the U.S. move resulted from contacts between Reagan and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev.

Military Situation -- The Israeli Air Force attacked and destroyed Syria's SAM system in the Al-Biqa' Valley during the afternoon of 9 June, the IDF spokesman announced in a statement reported by IDF radio. All Israeli planes returned safely to base, he said, while 22 Syrian MiG's were shot down and 7 others were hit. However, the Syrian military spokesman, in statements broadcast by Damascus radio, said 19 Israeli F-15's and F-16's and 16 Syrian MiG's were downed in the course of two Israeli attacks on the missiles. In the first attack 62 Syrian planes confronted 26 Israeli raiders; in the second raid 54 Syrian aircraft intercepted 92 Israeli planes. Citing a Syrian military official, Monte Carlo radio said the first Israeli attack failed to score direct hits but that the Israelis' second attempt was successful. However, the radio said, the Syrians immediately replaced their losses, which Jerusalem television reported as 19 destroyed batteries.

The Israeli Air Force also strafed a Damascus housing complex, killing 8 citizens and wounding 47, Damascus radio reported. The IDF spokesman denied that any Israeli aircraft had attacked Damascus or had entered Syrian airspace, according to Jerusalem television. AFP said the attack came from a single bomb dropped by an Israeli plane being pursued by Syrian fighters after the engagement over Al-Biqa'. According to Damascus radio, Israeli aircraft strafed passenger cars at the Syrian-Lebanese border early on 10 June, killing 57 persons and wounding 75.

In another action the Syrians claimed to have knocked out 2 Israeli aircraft and 23 tanks, and to have prevented an Israeli advance near Bayt ad-Din, according to statements carried by Damascus radio and television. Beirut radio said Syrian and Israeli forces engaged in a fierce battle around 'Ayn Zhalta to the south of the Beirut-Damascus highway. Jerusalem television cited a report by foreign sources that IDF units were moving on the highway. Meanwhile, the Syrians called up reservists and sent a Palestinian Liberation Army brigade into Lebanon, according to AFP and Voice of Lebanon radio. The latter source also reported Syrian withdrawals from western and southern Beirut, where Israeli planes continued to pound Palestinian and Syrian positions early on 10 June. The Israelis were bombarding Beirut International Airport, the Burj al-Barajinah refugee camp, Khaldah, An-Na'imah and Ad-Damur, according to a Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces statement broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio on 10 June. IDF radio said Israeli planes bombed the PLO headquarters in Beirut on 10 June.

South of the capital, the IDF captured Ad-Damur on 9 June and invited the town's former Christian inhabitants to return to their homes when the fighting is over, according to an announcement by the IDF spokesman broadcast by IDF radio. However, the joint forces spokesman said fighting was still continuing in Ad-Damur, where an Israeli plane had been downed, and that joint forces foiled an Israeli landing near Khaldah, destroying six tanks and capturing two, according to statements broadcast by the Voice of Palestine and Beirut radio. On the other hand, the Voice of Lebanon said Israeli tanks had reached Khaldah and An-Na'imah. However, Beirut radio said Syrian tanks and not Israeli tanks had entered Khaldah during the afternoon. The Voice of Palestine also reported that an Israeli landing at Beirut airport early on 10 June was foiled.

Israeli losses over the past day amounted to 8 dead, 4 missing and 164 wounded, according to an IDF announcement broadcast by Jerusalem television early on 10 June.

Sharon Remarks -- Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon, in a news conference carried by Jerusalem radio, called the destruction of the Syrian missile system in Lebanon the "turning point" of the war. While stressing that Israel has no intention of entering into a war with Syria, Sharon maintained that Israel was forced to attack the missiles and deal with the eastern side of Lebanon because of the entry of more Syrians into the field and the enlargement of the area in which they had missiles.

Al-Asad Contacts; Correspondence -- During a telephone call to Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad, Saudi Crown Prince Fahd declared that Saudi Arabia's full resources will be placed at the service of Syria, Damascus television reported. He stressed that Saudi Arabia will meet all Syrian needs. Al-Asad also received a phone call from Algerian President Chadli Bendjedid who stated that Algeria is backing Syria with all of its capabilities, the television noted in another report. According to Damascus radio, the Syrian president met with an Iranian military delegation that included the minister of defense and the commanders of the ground forces and Guards Corps. The radio said they discussed the implementation of the Iranian decision to send volunteers to confront the Israelis. The delegation informed Al-Asad that Iran has decided to allocate a special budget for this operation.

Meanwhile, Damascus television reported without elaboration that Al-Asad received a written message from Soviet leaders.

Habib Mission -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib outlined U.S. concepts on what can be done to address the current situation and also conveyed a message from President Reagan during a meeting with President al-Asad, according to Damascus radio reports. The radio said Al-Asad reiterated Syria's stand on preserving Lebanon's regional security.

Arab Initiatives -- Jordan's King Husayn arrived in Baghdad where he met with Iraqi President Saddam Husayn, Amman radio reported. The two leaders reviewed the critical situation in the Arab region in light of the Israeli invasion and underlined the need for building up a unified Arab stand, according to a later radio report.

Arab League Secretary General Chedli Klibi has called for a meeting of Arab chiefs of staff in Tunis on 10 June to discuss drawing up a strategic Arab plan to defend southern Lebanon, INA reported.

According to Cairo radio, Foreign Ministry First Under Secretary Usamah al-Baz will leave for Washington on 11 June to hold talks with U.S. officials on the Lebanese situation. It added that Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali will visit Washington on 13 June to convey a message from Egyptian President Husni Mubarak to President Reagan.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

In a statement broadcast by INA, the Revolution Command Council announced Iraq's readiness to observe a cease-fire and end all armed hostilities upon Iran's immediate agreement. According to the statement, Iraq declared its immediate readiness to withdraw its forces from all Iranian towns and territories where they are now stationed. It added that the withdrawal could be completed in 2 weeks or less. The statement said if agreement cannot be reached on the issues under dispute through the commissions mediating between the two sides, Iraq is prepared to accept a binding arbitration decision by an emergency session of the Islamic Conference; if Iran rejects Islamic Conference arbitration, then Iraq would accept binding arbitration by the Nonaligned Movement or the UN Security Council. The statement said Iraq is calling for the cease-fire out of its belief in the great necessity to devote all resources and efforts to confronting the Israeli invasion.

A 10 June IRNA commentary said the Iraqi cease-fire offer was too late. The "Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi rulers" should have given a positive response to Iran's peace conditions before the Zionist invasion of Lebanon, which was merely aimed to save Saddam Husayn from his imminent overthrow, IRNA said.

KABUL: PASHTUN LEADERS SPEAK ON RIGHTS

GF091834 Kabul International Service in Arabic 1700 GMT 9 Jun 82

[Text] According to a report by the Rawalpindi-based JANG newspaper, Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan, outstanding and foremost leader of the Pashtuns, has called on the Pashtuns to unite and struggle to attain their rights. A few days ago Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan delivered a speech at a dinner held in his honor in his village near Peshawar, in which he urged the Pashtuns to work to successfully overcome their present critical situation.

The Pakistani newspaper adds that Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan's son delivered a speech at the same party, in which he said that the Pashtuns today are deprived of the rights which they enjoyed during the odious British colonialism. This means that the Pakistani people at present do not have the right to live and are deprived of their human rights.

Khan Abdul Wali Khan accused Gen Ziaul Haq of using Islam for his personal interest and called on the army generals to throw away the medals granted to them by British colonialism before they speak in the name of Islam. He also accused Pakistan's military rulers of trying to hatch intrigues among the Muslim Pashtun.

EXPRESS HAILS RESUMPTION OF TALKS WITH PAKISTAN

BK081644 Delhi INDIAN EXPRESS in English 3 Jun 82 p 6

[Editorial: "All to the Good"]

[Text] The decision to resume India-Pakistan talks will be widely welcomed. The joint announcement came soon after the prime minister's letter to President Ziaul Haq, and Mr Natwar Singh's meetings with Pakistani leaders in Islamabad. Obviously, Mrs Gandhi's message helped clear the last hurdle in getting on with the talks. It is pointless now to find fault with either side for the sudden setback in negotiations after the positive outcome of the foreign ministers' meeting in Delhi last February. The important thing is that both governments have realised the need to pick up the threads and to forget the mutual irritations they believed they suffered.

The formal incorporation of Hunza, Skardu and Gilgit into Pakistan necessitated a technical protest from India. But if Pakistan's purpose is to absorb POK [Pakistan-occupied Kashmir] in demonstration of its acceptance of the actual reality that the line of control has come to represent a more or less firm international boundary, then it is all to the good. Indeed, this could set the stage for exploration of a final Kashmir settlement for which the internal and external environment in both countries is more favourable than ever before.

The crux of the matter is to clear the mutual suspicions that bedevil Indo-Pakistan relations. Without a measure of trust, neither a no-war pact nor a friendship treaty will be of any avail. All the same, there is no reason to shy away from a fresh attempt to improve upon and move beyond the Simla pact. It would be unfortunate if such efforts are baulked by semantic quibbling over the relative importance and precedence of a no-war treaty or a friendship pact. And why should talks on arms limitation be excluded? India may well claim that a friendship treaty must imply commitment not to fire a gun in anger, but that "no-war" does not necessarily mean friendship. These concepts, however, are not mutually exclusive. The joint commission proposed can go into all these and other issues. The peoples of both countries yearn for peace and friendship. This is the single most important truth that neither government can afford to forget.

HERALD: U.S. AID TO PARTIES DIRECT INTERFERENCE

BK091247 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 4 Jun 82 p 7

[Editorial: "Dollar Democracy"]

[Text] The American CIA has the dubious reputation of organising coups and coutercoups to destabilise even democratic governments the Pentagon does not relish. Chile was one such example where the victim was President Allende.

The Reagan administration is now going one step further. It proposes to directly finance political parties, newspapers and labour unions in poor countries to "promote democracy abroad". In plain terms, it means the USA wants to control the reins of power within developing countries by floating its own brand of dollar-fed candidates. We know how the USA props up military regimes in the name of democracy. Its new sugar-coated move amounts to direct interference in the affairs of other countries and hence it is both immoral and antidemocratic. How will the Americans take it if the socialist bloc were to extend "political aid" to various groups, newspapers and labour unions in the USA to promote its own version of democracy there?

Democracies in the Third World cannot be floated with the help of dollars and sophisticated weapons. Basically it is a question of political culture that has to be indigenously evolved and indigenously nurtured. It is indeed paradoxical that whereas the USA has maintained hostile postures to well-established democratic regimes like India, it should think of directly financing parties, newspapers and labour unions to promote democracy in the Third World. Apparently the USA wants to create conditions for political instability so as to enable it to install puppet regimes and create lobbies to serve its politico-military interests. This was surely not the idea of democracy of the founding fathers of the American nation.

The trouble with the Pentagon-controlled American system is that it has not only lost its traditional moorings but also a sense of direction. The whole scenario is disturbing. The Reagan administration does not even offer legitimate concessions to developing countries in trade and aid where they are needed most. Be that as it may Third World nations are not the plaything of American politics. They are the masters of their destiny and can take care of their democratic institutions without having to depend on American doles.

MITTERRAND VERSAILLES ADDRESS WELCOMED

BK061416 Delhi General Overseas Service in English 1330 GMT 6 Jun 82

[Text] India today called for immediate resumption of global negotiations to bring about the much needed new international economic order. Welcoming French President Mitterrand's address to the world's seven major industrialized nations at Versailles yesterday, an official spokesman of the External Affairs Ministry said in New Delhi the problems of human society in different parts of the globe are interlinked and must be resolved in a global perspective. He said the Group of 77 in the United Nations has recently made a significant proposal in this regard.

In a statement, the spokesman said that President Mitterrand's call for cooperation among nations to halt the spread of economic isolationism deserves serious attention by industrially advanced countries as protectionist tendencies have had disastrous effects on the economic activities in developing countries.

Of special interest to us in India is the French president's marked emphasis on the accelerated transfer of the latest technologies to the developing countries for the industrialization and for vastly enhanced production of energy and food. During Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi's visit to France in November last, Mitterrand and Mrs Gandhi had decided with similar purposes in mind to set up an Indo-French institute of higher scientific learning in India.

The spokesman said that a new international information and communications order is of equal importance to mankind's future and the French suggestion for a possible charter of communication merits respect and attention. India has given constant support in UNESCO and elsewhere to all endeavors to bring about a new international information and communications order.

The spokesman added that India shares President Mitterrand's desire to ensure the fair distribution of the resources of the seabed among the nations of the world.

HAQ GIVES NEWS CONFERENCE ON RETURN FROM JIDDA

[Text] President Ziaul Haq has described the latest Israeli barbarism against Lebanon as murder and plunder in broad daylight in which innocent Lebanese and Palestinians are being killed. On his arrival in Islamabad from Jidda this afternoon, he told a news conference at the airport that the Islamic peace committee held an emergency session in Mecca to consider the situation arising out of the Israeli wanton attack on Lebanon. The committee urged the UN Security Council to impose sanctions on Israel in fulfillment of its responsibility in accordance with the UN Charter.

In reply to a question, the president said that the entire Pakistani nation supported the Palestinian cause and the people and the Government of Pakistan are wholeheartedly behind the Palestinian people. The problem of Palestine has come into being as a result of a grave injustice in human history. He said that the people of Pakistan have been fully supporting their Palestinian brethren since both before and after gaining independence.

The president made a specific reference to the critical situation which the Islamic community was facing. He made an impassioned appeal to both Iran and Iraq to end their conflict in the name of Islam and the unity of Muslim world. Every Muslim is weeping over the conflict between two fraternal Muslim countries, which can cause severe damage. He appealed to both Iran and Iraq to cooperate in the Islamic peace committee's efforts to find ways for conciliation between the two countries. The president said that the committee members expressed grave concern over the Iran-Iraq war and pointed out that if the conflict did not end, it might engulf the entire Muslim world. The members of the committee also expressed the opinion that the enemies of Islam were taking advantage of the conflict between the two countries which had relegated their common problems -- such as foreign intervention in Afghanistan and the Israeli aggression in Lebanon -- into the background.

The president said the Islamic peace committee has renewed the mandate of President Sekou Toure of Guinea and the Islamic Conference Organization Secretary General Habib Chatti to continue to seek a solution to the dispute and maintain close contacts with Iran and Iraq so that ways can be found to pursue conciliation between them. The president said that every Muslim expected that in view of Israel's repeated aggression against the Palestinians and its sacrilege in holy places, both Iran and Iraq should fulfill their religious duty and cooperate in the efforts of the Islamic community's peace committee.

In reply to a question about Afghanistan, the president said that Pakistan was going to attend talks in Geneva with a spirit of finding a political solution to the problem. He expressed optimism over the outcome of the talks and said, if nothing else, at least a dialogue has been initiated under the auspices of the United Nations.

In reply to another question, the president pointed out that the guidelines which were drawn up by the UN Secretary General's personal representative at the time of his visit to Pakistan, Iran and Afghanistan included the four principles outlined by Pakistan.

The principles are: The withdrawal of foreign troops from Afghanistan; the maintenance of the nonaligned and Islamic status of Afghanistan; the return of Afghan refugees to their homes with honor and safety; and the opportunity for the people of Afghanistan to choose their own form of government.

In reply to a question, the president said that Pakistan has agreed to enter into negotiations with a representative of the ruling political party in Afghanistan to find a political solution to the Afghanistan problem. He said the only feasible solution to this problem would be one which was acceptable to the people of Afghanistan and not one which was in accordance with the wishes of others.

In reply to a question about Indian Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi's recent letter, the president said that the letter was very encouraging and that it was a step in the right direction leading to not only normalizing relations but to improving relations between India and Pakistan.

["Baghdad's False Allegations" -- IRNA headline]

[Text] Tehran, June 10, IRNA -- Baghdad Government announced Wednesday night that it was prepared for a truce of war and was ready to evacuate its forces from parts of the Iranion territory to provide preliminaries for a ceasefire. The so-called Iraqi Command Council stressed in a statement that Iraq was ready to withdraw its forces from the ruined cities of Qasr-e Shirin and Khosrow and to stop its hostilities against the Islamic Republic of Iran.

The request is being made only one week after a meeting between the Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali and the Zionist Prime Minister Menahem Begin during which the two sides agreed on a coordinated policy to spport the Iraqi regime and to stop further spread of the Islamic revolution. To implement this policy, on the U.S. instructions carried out by the Zionist lackeys, hundreds of Muslim civilians in southern Lebanon and a great number of militant Palestinian and Syrian brethren were martyred in the Zionist invasion against southern Lebanon last week. Several Muslim populated cities of Lebanon also became target of the Zionist aggression as part of the implementation of the vicious plot of reactionaries in the region to rescue Saddam and the Ba'thist government in Iraq.

Political observers believe that the Zionist invasion against southern Lebanon was merely aimed to save Saddam from his imminent overthrow, and this time Muslims in southern Lebanon as well as Palestinian and Syrian brethren should tolerate this imposed war only designed to revive Baghdad's unstable dictatorship.

What was included in the Baghdad statement on Wednesday night was in fact one of the conditions already set by the Islamic Republic of Iran and was not a new subject. If the Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi rulers were seeking peace they could achieve it, before the outbreak of a new war in southern Lebanon, by giving a positive response to provisions set by Iran. But it is too late now and in view of the Iranians Saddam, Begin and Mubarak are the main elements of the vicious triangle of imperialism in the region whose common interests would hinder the establishment of peace in the Middle East and the Persian Gulf region.

FURTHER ON VELAYATI NEW YORK PRESS CONFERENCE

[Text] Our country's foreign minister, Mr Velayati, who is in New York in order to take part in the UN disarmament conference, answered questions by reporters at a press conference.

[Begin recording of Voice and Vision correspondent in New York] Today, Brother Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs of our Islamic homeland, took part in a press conference attended by a large number of reporters from international news agencies and answered their questions. At first, the text of a press release was read by Brother Velayati, in which reference was made to three important topics: the recent attack by the regime occupying Jerusalem against southern Lebanon, the imposed war and American interventions, as well Mr Haig's recent remarks.

In part of this statement, while announcing the explicit and consistent Iranian positions -- namely, that it is only through the formation of a united Islamic front and through making use of all the possibilities and forces of the Islamic countries that we can overcome the racist and usurping Zionist regime -- Iran has announced its complete readiness to confront that regime directly on a military, economic and political level.

Referring to the latest statement by Imam Khomeyni on the need for unity among Muslim countries and for making use of all possibilities in order to confront the illegitimate child of American imperialism, Mr Velayati said: The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran cannot see any difference between the interests of America and the regime occupying Jerusalem in the region. It does not regard the Zionist aggression as any different from the aggression of Saddam at-Tikriti against Iran and feels equally concerned about both these aggressions.

In another part of this press statement, the foreign minister of our country referred to the conspiratorial policies of America, manifest in the foreign policies of that country, and to the evil practices of Mr Haig, the foreign minister of that country, and said: The question which we wish to put to Mr Haig is whether he is the guardian of the people of the Middle East and of the Persian Gulf and determines policies for them. He added: Tell Mr Haig that the shah is dead and the other shahs of the region will also follow after him. The people of the Middle East region have woken up because of the revival of Islamic values and they will no longer tolerate mercenaries such as Husni Mubarak, the Jordanian Husayn, the Moroccan Hassan, the Omani Qabus and Saddam at-Tikriti. You should learn a lesson from the fates of the shah and As-Sadat.

Brother Velayati then replied to numerous questions from reporters, In answer to a question about the rumor concerning the sale of arms by Israel to Islamic Iran, he said: Mr Sharon has claimed that he has given about $27 million in military assistance to Iran. Everyone knows that one cannot buy more than one or two tanks for $27 million dollars. Our fronts with the Arabs are 700-km long and 50-km deep and this war has been going on for about 20 months. According to preliminary estimates, this war has caused about $150-billion worth of damage to our country. You know that, according to the figures which have been published, the reactionary Arab countries have given $30 billion of assistance to Iraq. According to the figures which we possess, this figure exceeds $50 billion.

In order to confront such a great power with such huge financial backing we needed a great deal of weapons and a large military budget; and the figure of $27 million mentioned by Mr Sharon is nothing but an empty claim. Once again, we strongly deny it and we believe that this claim has been made in order to support the reactionary forces in the region and in order to win support for the Camp David and Fahd plans. Every time we scored a great victory they immediately made such claims.

In reply to the question: Have you already declared war against Israel?, the foreign minister of our country said: Yes, we have announced our readiness to start fighting against Israel through the officials in Tehran. Our government even intends to allocate funds.

One of the reporters asked about Iran's readiness to defend the Islamic Republic in case of a sudden Israeli attack. His answer was: It is clear that when we say we are prepared to fight against Israel we mean that we are ready to accept all the probable consequences and outcomes. Naturally, one of the consequences could be an Israeli attack against the Islamic Republic of Iran. We will be completely prepared for an engagement with Israel at any price.

In response to another question about sending troops to support Syria against Israel, Brother Velayati said: We regard it as one of our basic duties and it has been one of the strategic goals of the Islamic revolution to fight against Israel. At the moment, the minister of defense, the commander of the ground forces, the commander of the Guards Corps and our president's special envoy are in Syria in order to evaluate the level of the assistance required and the nature of the assistance. They are busy studying the assistance required by Syria, by the Palestinian fighters and by the Lebanese fighters. If our brothers in Syria, Palestine and Lebanon ask us we shall show no hesitation and we shall join the war. [end recording]

MUSAVI VIEWS ISRAELI 'ATTACK' ON LEBANON

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, at noon today Prime Minister Musavi took part in a press conference attended by local reporters and answered their questions regarding various issues.

In answer to our correspondent's question on the stance of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran regarding the Zionist regime's attack on southern Lebanon, as well as on the outcome of our country's military-political delegation's visit to Syria, the prime minister said: Our nation's stance vis-a-vis the repeated Zionist aggressions against the Islamic world has been clear for a long time, particularly during the past 20 years. Imam Khomeyni has been a pioneer in every move against the Zionist regime and has made its nature clear. The recent aggression is also a link in the chain of expansionist plots and designs by Zionism and imperialism against Muslim nations. This will not be the last link either, unless Muslim nations come to their senses, take a firm stand against these aggressions and strike effective blows to this regime through their unity.

He said: Our revolution achieved victory with the slogan victory to Al-Quds. In our perception of the world and the Muslim nations, Palestine is a part of our Islamic homeland and there is no difference between Khuninshahr and southern Lebanon. The prime minister added: Just as we feel angry over this [Khuninshahr] we shall confront the aggression there [southern Lebanon]. Of course, realities have changed: With its revolution, our country is in a position to confront Israel more rapidly and clearly. Our national manifested its determination against Israel right from the start of the revolution.

The prime minister said: The Supreme Defense Council has made certain decisions so that it can approach this matter seriously. A political-military delegation has gone to Syria in this connection. Today the Cabinet unanimously approved a budget for this, to be sent to the Majlis as a supplementary budget covering the year ending 20 March 1983.

Regarding the decision of the recent Nonaligned Foreign Ministers Conference to convene the forthcoming conference in Baghdad, the prime minister said: As things stand now the conference is doomed to failure, for if the conference were to be held in Baghdad it would be contrary to the organization's commitment to nonalignment. We see many indications that the conference will not be convened in Baghdad, and even if it is convened there it will not be complete, which is worse than not convening it at all. He said: The war in the region, the insecurity the conference would experience and the problem of Saddam being conference chairman would all create a kind of ludicrous and illogical situation. In my view, if the conference were convened in Baghdad it would be tantamount to a coup de grace to the Nonaligned Movement and the conference would never be able to restore the respect it would lose.

On Islamic art, the prime minister said: Our revolution is more cultural than Islamic. Using [word indistinct] artistic methods will be inadequate. For this reason, the counterrevolution always exploits art to achieve what it fails to achieve through other means. He said: We have observed arrangements and seminars, indicating that a kind of cultural-artistic consciousness has come about and that we have achieved a certain amount of growth which indicates our creativity. However, our development has reached a level that can compensate for shortcomings. Sometimes certain publications are distributed by discredited intellectuals, indicating that they nurture satanic dreams in their defective minds and imagine they can pass them on to others.

Regarding the connection between the Zionists' attacks against southern Lebanon and the Islamic combatants' victory in Khorramshahr, the prime minister said: From their own viewpoint the attacks are taking place at an opportune moment.

For example, Egypt has been ensnared in the Camp David trap and cannot move. It has turned into a country under imperialist and Zionist domination. Similarly, Morocco and other reactionary states are concluding agreements with and putting bases at the disposal of America. Meanwhile, there is the Iran-Iraq war and the propaganda noises that Iran is a greater danger than Israel to the Arabs. All this created a golden opportunity for Israel to attack southern Lebanon. I think the new situation created by this aggression will drive the nations and governments dependent on imperialism further apart, for this attack further exposes America and Israel, reveals the hands of those who only pay lip service to struggle against Israel, clarifies the truth to the nations and makes these nations realize that the solution lies in reverting to their pure nature and dear Islam.

RAFSANJANI ON IRANIAN AID TO PLO, SYRIA

[Excerpts] Hojjat ol-Eslam 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani, speaker of the Majlis, discussed with an IRNA correspondent the aggression against Lebanon by the occupying regime in Jerusalem, and the dispatch of a delegation by Iran to Syria for coordination with Syrian and PLO officials in countering the Zionist regime's aggression against southern Lebanon.

The Majlis speaker said that we need to plan in order to coordinate between the forces which will be dispatched to Lebanon and those Palestinian and Syrian forces stationed in Lebanon. Our forces will soon be present at the front and we will be sending as much as is required.

Commenting on the link between the occupying regime's aggression against southern Lebanon and U.S. imperialism, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani said: This is so apparent that Israel itself has confirmed it and we have no doubt that what is going on at the moment in Lebanon is a design launched with the cooperation of the United States, its associates in the West and with the prior agreement of the reactionaries in the region.

What is very important and we have to bear in mind is the fact that the Arab and Islamic countries can stop this aggression very quickly. But so far, they have not done anything. If countries such as Saudi Arabia and Kuwait were to declare that they would not export oil until the withdrawal of the Israel forces from Lebanon, the United States would no longer allow this regime to continue its aggression.

[Text] In His exalted name. Loyal to their sacred covenant, Islam's combatants, more steadfast than ever, are fighting on the battlefronts of good against evil toward the achievement of their great mission. The mighty hand of Almighty God is at all times supporting these self-sacrificing forces on the path of Islam and of the Islamic homeland and is granting them worthy successes along the path of final victory over the troops of Satan.

During the past 24 hours, exchanges of fire continued on most battlefronts and in each of the operational zones losses and casualties were inflicted on the enemy.

In the southern regions, our forces, while defending the areas under their control and maintaining firepower superiority, pounded enemy positions in the (Ra's al-Bishan) region and inflicted losses on the Iraqi forces. Also, thanks to fire by our combatant units on enemy positions on the other side of the Arvand Rud digging in by the Iraqi forces was prevented.

Yesterday an exchange of fire continued on all the fronts in the western parts of the country. Our zealous tribal warriors on the Gilan-e Gharb and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab axes continued their efforts to crush the enemy in those areas under their control and by carrying out patrol and ambush operations dealt effective blows at the enemy.

Thanks to artillery fire by the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran one enemy motor pool in the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab region was set ablaze and in the Sumar, Meymak and Salehabad regions our combatant forces destroyed several enemy vehicles and a number of trenches. Also two tanks of the aggressors in these regions were destroyed and another three enemy tanks and one antiaircraft gun were damaged. A number of Iraqi servicemen were either killed or wounded.

Cease-Fire Announcements -- The Israeli Cabinet instructed the IDF to cease firing at 1000 GMT, according to an announcement by Israeli Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor carried live by Jerusalem radio on 11 June. The announcement declared that Israeli soldiers would at that time cease fire "on any of the fronts in Lebanon unless fired upon." It warned, however, that if the Syrian Army continued to fire at IDF soldiers and to attack their positions, the responsibility for the "grave results of this initiated aggression" would fall on the Syrian Government. The Cabinet secretary stated that the IDF has carried out its mission in full and that there are grounds to believe that from now on no one will harass the Galilee and its inhabitants. He said the Cabinet expressed the hope that the day will soon come when real peace will prevail between a free, independent Lebanon and the State of Israel.

According to an official Syrian spokesman cited by Damascus radio, instructions have been passed to all Syrian formations in Lebanon to observe the cease-fire as of 1000 GMT on 11 June. The spokesman said that during a meeting between Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad and U.S. envoy Philip Habib on 10 June, Al-Asad explained that Syria would agree to a cease-fire on the basis of a comprehensive Israeli withdrawal from Lebanese territory.

However, the PLO is not involved in the cease-fire, AFP reported citing the Palestinian new agency WAFA. The Israeli Government emphasized that there is no cease-fire with the terrorists, Jerusalem radio reported.

Earlier, Jerusalem radio reported that President Ronald Reagan had sent another message to Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin. The radio cited a White House spokesman as saying that Reagan had demanded that Israel cease fire and withdraw from Lebanon. The radio said Reagan's message was sent following intensive contacts between the White House and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev, with the Soviets threatening to "deteriorate interbloc relations" as a result of the Israeli invasion. It also reported that Secretary of State Alexander Haig had canceled a planned visit to Israel because of the conditions Israel had set for a cease-fire.

Military Situation -- Israeli aircraft shot down at least 25 Syrian MiG's and 3 helicopters on 10 June and downed another 18 Syrian MiG's early on 11 June, Jerusalem and IDF radios reported, citing the IDF spokesman. The Israeli Air Force also destroyed two more Syrian missile batteries in the Al-Biqa' Valley while IDF ground forces inflicted serious losses on the Syrians in the south of the valley, forcing them to retreat north of Lake Al-Qir'awn, according to IDF radio reports. On the central front the IDF had not yet reached the Damascus-Beirut highway, for which fighting was particularly difficult, but Israeli tanks were only a few kilometers from this objective, IDF and Jerusalem radios said. Along the coast Israeli forces moved slowly north and east of Ad-Damur into the Beirut suburbs, Jerusalem radio said. To the south the IDF faced a protracted and costly task of flushing out hundreds of terrorists still barricaded in Sidon, according to the Jerusalem POST.

AFP reported that Israeli planes overflew Damascus early on 11 June, drawing missile fire; the air force also pounded Syrian positions in Beirut, according to IDF radio. Earlier Israeli airstrikes destroyed the Syrian headquarters in Shtawrah and the Al-Mudayrij bridge, closing the Damascus-Beirut highway, according to Voice of Lebanon radio. Israeli forces were only 6 km from Shaawrah early on 11 June, Jerusalem radio said.

Confirming that fighting between Syrian and Israeli forces had intensifed, a Syrian military communique carried by SANA said Syrian ground forces foiled Israeli landing attempts near Beirut, prevented an Israeli advance in the Ash-Shuf mountain region and waged violent battles with Israeli armored units in the Al-Biqa' Valley. The Israelis lost 6 planes and 164 tanks and armored vehicles, the communique claimed, while Syrian losses amounted to 6 helicopters, 7 MiG's, 83 tanks, 17 guns, 2 missile batteries and 194 men. Early on 11 June Syrian forces destroyed 40 Israeli tanks and killed or wounded 130 Israelis in raids on IDF concentrations in the southeastern sector, Damascus radio reported, citing Syria's military spokesman. Earlier, Beirut radio said Lebanese forces had downed an Israeli F-15 and the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio carried a joint forces claim that another Israeli plane had been downed. The joint forces also reported the destruction of 15 IDF tanks in 'Ayn 'Ata, Az-Zahra' and Sidon, according to statements carried by the Voice of Palestine on 10 and 11 June.

PLO Executive Chairman Yasir 'Arafat welcomed the Lebanese Army's deployment in defensive positions in west Beirut, the radio noted.

Casualties, Captives -- The IDF spokesman announced that 23 IDF soldiers were killed and 116 were wounded on 10 June, Jerusalem radio reported. Maj Gen Yequti'el Adam and a colonel were among the dead. Meanwhile, the Palestinian Red Crescent association said the Israeli invasion has caused over 10,000 civilian casualties, the Voice of Palestine reported. Jerusalem radio said more than 300 terrorists had been captured in the Tyre region.

Psychological Warfare -- Israeli planes showered Beirut with leaflets early on 10 June urging Syrian forces to evacuate the city, which the IDF was determined to capture, AFP noted. Jerusalem radio's Arabic service carried IDF statements calling on the Syrians to flee from Al-Biqa' and telling "the remnants of the armed elements in southern Lebanon" to surrender. Meanwhile, both the Voice of Palestine and Damascus radio accused Israel of disseminating false information.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Iraqi Cease-Fire -- According to a military communique carried by INA, Iraqi forces were abiding by the spirit of the Revolution Command Council statement issued on 10 June and were not initiating any firing or military activities. However, the statement added that Iraqi units in operational sectors came under Iranian artillery fire and were forced to fire back.

A Tehran radio commentary called the Revolution Command Council's cease-fire proposal a repetition of their earlier "nonsensical" words which they are "opportunistically" repeating under the pretext of the Israeli invasion of Lebanon.

Iranian Peace Condition -- Tehran radio reported that following a meeting of the Supreme Defense Council, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni's representative to that council announced Iran's new peace condition: that Iraq give permission for Iranian armored units to cross Iraqi territory so that Iran can quickly deploy its forces to Syria.

FOREIGN MINISTRY CONDEMNS ISRAELI ACTIONS

LD110814 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0431 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Text] Kabul, June 10 (BAKHTAR) -- A declaration issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan on Israeli aggression in Lebanon which reads:

In continuation of the prolonged invasions by Israeli Zionists on the south of Lebanon, the land, sea and air forces of Israel have waged new large-scale attacks to the depth of Lebanon.

These attacks, which are being launched under the pretext of ensuring security in the northern part of Zionist regime, have inflicted tremendous damage on the residential places of Palestinian refugees and the residential areas of Beirut. As a result of these attacks, hundreds of women, men and children were killed and thousands of them were wounded.

The recent aggressive military attacks is another black ring of the long chain of the conspiracy and invasion of Zionists and imperialists in the Middle East.

The recent statements by the Israeli leaders leave no doubt in this regard that the scope of the offensive programmes of the Israeli occupiers will not remain limited to the recent operations launched in the past few days but it entails the danger of expanding its invasions to other Arab countries as well. The development of the present situation has drawn the Middle East crisis to an explosion point and has seriously endangered the peace in the region and the world. The people of Arab, the peace-loving countries of the world and all progressive humanity have called the invasions of Israeli war-mongering circles as contrary to the devisions of the Security Council and other resolutions of the United Nations organization pertaining to the Middle East situation and hence strongly condemns and denounces (?these) Israeli aggressions. [sentence as received]

The international media report that the Israeli invaders have even made an attack on the regions where the peace keeping forces of the United Nations exist.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan believes that the U.S. imperialism has a felonious hand in all these invasions. Without the extensive military, political, economical and publicity support of the U.S.A., the Zionist regime of Israel could never have the strength of invading on the independent country of Lebanon. The recent veto of the United States in the UN Security Council testifies to this fact and exposes the hypocritical face of the U.S. imperialism.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the DRA is strongly denouncing and condemning the recent barbarous invasion of Israel and is expressing its full solidarity with the peoples of Lebanon and the Palestinian Arab people in their struggles against the aggression and expansionism of Zionism and imperialism and for the cause of peace and territorial integrity of Lebanon.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the DRA is supporting the resolutions of the United Nations in this regard, including the imposition of the severe sanctions provided in Chapter Seven of the UN Charter.

We believe that Zionism and imperialism with their recent invasions will not be able to create an obstacle in the way of the just struggles of Arab people for the restoration of their occupied land, for the recognition of their legal and legitimate rights of the Palestinian Arab people, for the cause of their self-determination and the establishment of an independent and democratic Palestinian state.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the DRA deems it necessary that the full sovereignty of Lebanon must be honored by the aggressor Israel. It also believes that the unity of action of all national and patriotic forces of the Arab world and the progressive and peace-loving forces of the world is an urgent and necessary task for bringing to nought the aggressive and offensive plans for the imperialistic Zionist.

COMMUNIST CLANS CLASH; SOVIET FAMILIES EVACUATE

GF101220 Karachi JASARAT in Urdu 6 Jun 82 pp 1, 8

[By Shakil Ahmad]

[Text] Peshawar, 5 Jun -- According to news received from Afghanistan, after suffering several routs in various parts of Afghanistan, the Soviets have called high ranking Soviet officers to Kabul from all over the country. Along with this, officers of various ranks are being transferred to the Soviet Union. It is being rumored that after the failure of new strategies adopted by Soviet forces, Soviet military leaders want to analyze the causes of failure and force a new strategy. It has been revealed that with these new movements a great exodus of Soviet families to the Soviet Union has also begun. The families include those of Soviet advisers.

According to other news, military personnel belonging to the Khalq and Parcham clans of the ruling party have been fighting for the past 3 days at Qarghah and (Qala Balahissar). The two points have been surrounded by Soviet armored vehicles, and roadblocks have been set on all roads leading to the two places. No person is allowed to visit these places. Listeners are reminded that 1 week ago there was a bitter clash between the Khalq and and Parcham communists at the police academy attached to the Interior Ministry. According to eyewitness accounts, more than 100 persons were killed and 200 wounded during the clash. This was the biggest clash ever between the two PDPA factions since the National Party convention held in Kabul [in March 1982]. The gulf between the two factions has widened further following the convention, and the friction is now nationwide.

According to the Agency Afghan Press, the PDPA ruling party (in fact, the Khalq faction) deputy chairman for Herat Province was recently waylaid on his way home from his office and killed by the Mujahidin, despite the Soviet guards traveling with him. He was killed by a grenade thrown at his car. His personal guard was following him in another vehicle. The Soviet guards fled the scene toward their camp firing their machine pistols.

500,000 PATHANS 'READY' TO JOIN PALESTINIANS

[Text] Islamabad, 10 Jun (AFP) -- Some 500,000 Pakistani Pathans are "ready" to join the Palestinians for the defence of Lebanon, Associated Press of Pakistan news agency reported today.

Quoting a statement by tribal leader Malik Jehangir Khan from north Waziristan, bordering Afghanistan, it said that the Israeli aggression against Lebanon has sent "a wave of indignation across the tribal territory" and people have been volunteering to fight alongside the Palestinians.

The statement carried by the official news agency did not make it clear when the Pathans, who are known for guerrilla warfare, will be sent to the front.

An unknown number of Pakistantis voluntarily have joined the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO) and bodies of those killed in the previous engagements were returned here last year.

But official Pakistani sources have refrained from comment on the reports.

MILITARY DELEGATION RETURNS FROM SYRIA

LD101914 [Editorial Report] Tehran Domestic Service in Persian at 1630 GMT on 10 June carries a very poorly received Central News Unit report on the return to Tehran of an Iranian political and military delegation from Syria.

The report contains recorded interviews with Defense Minister Colonel Salimi, with Commander of the Islamic Revolution Guard Corps Mohsen Reza'i and with the Commander of the Ground Forces Colonel Sayyad-Shirazi.

Commenting on the delegation's talks in Damascus, Colonel Salimi says the delegation was received by President Hafiz al-Asad and by other senior Syrian officials.

Colonel Sayyad-Shirazi is asked about plans for Iranian participation in the war in Lebanon. He maintains that the invasion is a U.S. plot launched through Israel and continues: "We told the Syrians we cannot be indifferent to such oppression against Muslims and [words indistinct]. We reached a positive result in our talks and decided that with the help of God Almighty we would open the road for our combatants to enter the field."

With regard to the latest Iraqi proposal for a cease-fire Colonel Sayyad-Shirazi says it is quite clear Iraq had to find a pretext to relieve itself of the war.

Mohsen Reza'i is asked about a U.S. official's recent remarks to the effect that Iran should stay out of the war in Lebanon. Reza'i maintains that the invasion of Lebanon was launched jointly by the United States and by Israel with the aim of regaining lost power in the Islamic region. "They are also aiming to increase their domination over Islamic nations." Commenting on the U.S. official's remarks, Reza'i says: "We are usually the kind of people who do not make a lot of publicity before acting. We chant our slogans only after our deeds and the world will see how Islam's combatants will stride toward the Lebanese fronts to help their Muslim brothers and how they will inflict repeated blows on the Zionist regime." He concludes his remarks by saying he hopes the Iranian nation will continue its active participation both in the war against Iraq and in the fight against international Zionism.

HASHEMI-RAFSANJANI DEMANDS TRANSIT RIGHTS IN IRAQ

[Excerpts] The Supreme Defense Council met yesterday at the residence of Imam Khomeyni, commander in chief of the armed forces, for the first time since the return of the political military delegation which visited Syria and Lebanon. The session was attended by the president, the speaker of the Islamic Consultative Assembly, the prime minister, the chief of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, and Hojjat ol-Eslam Ahmad Khomeyni. Sayyad Shirazi, commander of the ground forces, Mohsen Reza'i, commander of the Guards Corps, and Colonel Salimi, minister of defense, submitted a report to the Supreme Defense Council on their visit. At the end of the meeting the members of the Supreme Defense Council and the delegation sent to Syria submitted a report about the session to the imam of the ummah.

After this, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, representative of the imam in the Supreme Defense Council, gave an interview to our reporter. We draw your attention to this interview:

[Begin recording] [Question] Rumors have been spread recently by imperialist radios and news agencies, including the BBC, about changes in the main leadership of the Iraqi Government. Also, leaders of the Iraqi Government have announced certain conditions for a cease-fire and for peace, including withdrawal of its forces. What are the aims behind such reports broadcast by imperialist radios? These radios have even announced that Iran has rejected these conditions and does not agree with them.

[Answer] Last night, 1 hour after midnight, the deputy commander of the ground forces informed me that such a situation has come about in Iraq, [sentence as heard]. The situation there is ambiguous. A statement has been published in the name of the Iraqi Command Council. So far, such statements have been signed by Saddam but we do not know why he did not sign this one. Certain rumors have been spread, mainly by Western sources, on whether Saddam is or is not in power. The situation is vague; it may be clarified in the near future. Again, Western sources have quoted what has been broadcast on our radio in the form of, for instance, an article from a free newspaper or a text by the radio and have portrayed it as the views of the government or as a government statement. So far, we have not expressed our views, because the situation inside Iraq is vague. It is clear that certain events are taking place there. Either Saddam is really no longer on the scene, or he still is. It is a conspiracy. They wish to make use of the situation they have created in Israel in order to save the Ba'thist Party in Iraq; whether Saddam or [words indistinct]. So far we have studied the situation.

The view of the Supreme Defense Council is that we repeat our earlier words: We desire peace even more than Iraq does. We feel the need for our presence on the battlefield against Israel more than anyone else. We regard it as our religious duty. However, we regard the situation which has been brought about by Iraq as a great danger. That issue should be solved. The aggressor should receive his punishment and the wronged party should also receive his rights. We shall not forego our conditions. Our other conditions are that they should pay reparations. We shall certainly obtain our war damages. The other condition is to punish the guilty. As we have said, we are prepared to put it in the hands of an international commission or an international Islamic court. They should punish the guilty party, that is, the Ba'thist Party. The other condition is repatriation of Iraqi refugees to Iraq. Now we have added one other condition: Because we do not have any access route to the Israeli border, a route should be provided for us inside Iraqi territory so we can speedily dispatch our armed forces to Syria. This is one of our important conditions because after the war with Iraq is ended we see [words indistinct] in Israel; and we need this route. The Islamic governments should help us to obtain this route.

[Question] How much damage has been inflicted on Iran during the imposed war and what steps will be taken by our fighters to make sure war preparations are received from Iraq?

[Answer] The amount of the damage is not exactly clear. We have not calculated it. Figures have been quoted by some observers and those who know the nature of such wars, by calculating the number of planes, tanks and war materiel lost, the destruction caused to cities, roads, factories, ports and other things, and the closure of many centers of activity, caring for 2 million war refugees for nearly 2 years, and other such things. Some figures have been guessed and our president once referred to the figure of $150 billion [words indistinct]. It is natural that the figure which should be paid on a serious basis should depend on the convening of an acceptable commission; and that commission should investigate the matter and define the amount of the damage. How do we force Iraq to pay? Well, in the same way we expelled them; and if they do not pay it willingly, we shall get it from them by force; if they don't have it, arrangements will be made for them to pay it.

[Question] As you know, at the end of the meeting of foreign ministers of the nonaligned countries, a statement was issued in which the possibility of holding the nonaligned summit conference in Iraq was mentioned. Please tell us the position of the Islamic Republic of Iran on this issue and what steps will be taken to prevent this conference from being held in Iraq.

[Answer] We have stated our position. It is not at all suitable for the nonaligned conference to be held in an aggressive country with a Ba'thist aggressive government, while the nonaligned themselves have made one of the conditions of membership in their movement nonaggression by one member against another -- and then to make him their chairman for 3 years, we are opposed to this. Of course, our measures will be political. [words indistinct] to resort to force. However, we do not think Baghdad has the necessary security requirements for holding the conference -- unless the government is changed by then and a suitable government is formed in Iraq. In that case, we will attend the conference and will have no objections. [end recording]

IRAQ CEASE-FIRE OFFER CALLED 'NONSENSICAL'

[Excerpts] Six days after the military aggression and attack of the Zionist armed forces against Lebanon, the aggressive aims of the Zionist forces clearly reflect a joint imperialist-Zionist conspiracy.

Aware of the evil plots of the imperialists and Zionists aimed at crushing, imposing peace on or forcing compromises on the struggling and Muslim peoples and groups in the region, the Islamic Republic of Iran is calling for steadfastness and unity under the banner of Islam and the Koran for the liberation of the defenseless Palestinian and Lebanese brothers and sisters. By making use of the opportunity provided by the Zionist attack against Lebanon, the Ba'thist regime of Iraq has again thought of a cease-fire and has volunteered to withdraw from all the occupied Iranian territory within 2 weeks. The reason it has offered for this seemingly well-meaning proposal is the need to unite forces against the Zionists.

The members of the so-called Iraqi Command Council do not explain why they did not fire a single bullet against Zionist aggressors during the earlier wars between the Arabs and Israelis, when they [the Iraqis] were not caught in the trap they have themselves set. Is not the main reason behind Israel's bold aggression against Lebanon the planned attack of Iraq against Iran? If revolutionary Iran were not today engaged in a war imposed on it by imperialism, would the Zionist forces have dared to attack Lebanon?

Basically, the Iraqi cease-fire proposal is a repetition of earlier nonsensical words. The Iraqis are repeating it opportunistically now under the pretext of Israeli military aggression. Since the early moments of the Israeli attack, Iran has proclaimed its readiness to stand shoulder to shoulder with the Lebanese brothers despite the fact that it is engaged in a battle against the mercenary Ba'thist forces, and that it will not give up until Jerusalem is liberated and Palestinian aspirations are victorious.

War Will Continue

GF110513 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1730 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary]

[Text] Wounded Lebanon pays its precious blood as a price for the salvation of the Saddam regime. This is what consequent events revealed and what communiques of the Baghdad regime's Command Council have said.

The arena has been expecting a surgical operation by the imperialist circles to save the life of their agent Saddam Husayn. Recently, this reckless regime has been looking for safety from the perdition awaiting it. Therefore, the Israeli decision was made to invade the Lebanese territories in concurrence with the Egyptian regime in order to salvage the remnants of the Baghdad regime and achieve other objectives that concern the Israeli enemy. The Israeli decision was made following the visit of Mubarak's Foreign Minister Hasan Kamal 'Ali after he delivered a message from his president to Begin in which Mubarak demanded a paved road to end the aggressive Saddam war in order to save their ally Saddam from the inevitable fall.

The scenario of the solution was set as follows:

A member of Abu Nidal's network, the agent of Iraqi intelligence, shoots the Israeli ambassador in London to provide the enemy with the pretext to unleash his tyrannical aggression. After the ambassador is shot, the enemy launches its intensive raids and attacks against the south of Lebanon on the ground, in the air, and from the sea, and in a few days the enemy occupies wide areas in Lebanon, resulting in a political atmosphere in the region where voices ring out from everywhere calling for an end to the war between the Islamic forces and the remnants of infidelity. Then, after 5 days of ferocious war in Lebanon, the regime announces its intention to cease fire and withdraw its forces from the Islamic territories in two weeks. The communique of the regime's command justifies this by saying the objective of this decision is to resist the Israeli invasion in Lebanon. The Saddam communique concludes in flowery phrases, addressing the Iraqi people and saying the decision has been made just to serve the Arab cause and rescue the Palestinian people.

The first chapter of the scenario ends here and the second begins where the pro-Saddam parties move to pressure the Islamic Republic into accepting the Iraqi proposal under the pretext of the aggravating situation in Lebanon.

The truth is something other than this scenario and the Saddam falsehood. The truth says the Islamic Republic will continue the war without being fooled by Saddam's ways in which imperialism insinuates itself. The stand of the Islamic Republic is very (?clear) and based on logic, not on Saddam's version of truth or on a minute part of it. This principled stand is dictated by factors that exist to this moment. The battle between the Islamic forces and the remnants of Saddam's army is not just for the sake of an inch of land. It is a real conflict between right and wrong and this conflict is forever, so long as the wrong remains wrong. The war will continue against Saddam. It is not a war against a person. It is a war against wrong values and aggressive philosophy through which the aggressors commit their crimes. Our war against Saddam is the war of Islam versus infidelity whether he withdraws from the land or not. Our war against this manslayer is waged in order to uphold the values of peace. It is a war against whomever oppresses the Muslim people of Iraq and against whomever shackles them and shoves them in prisons and detention camps. It is the war of the people with the blood of the freemen of both the Iraqi and Iranian Muslim peoples.

The war will continue so long as the blood of the martyrs keeps boiling in the hearts of the living and so long as the blood of martyr As-Sadr invokes us. These are the reasons for the continuation of war. Those who consider these justifications superfluous should review the files of crimes perpetrated by the agent of imperialism against the Muslim peoples of Iran and Iraq. They should have a look at Hoveyzah City and the collective graveyards this manslayer built with the bodies of the Arab women and children in Khozistan. They should have a look at Ilam City where the blood of its innocent sons is still fresh.

We, with all the good sons of the nation, refuse this Saddam logic based on aggression. If every tyrant could enter the territories of others to kill, loot, and destroy homes and then call for a cease-fire, aggression would become law and every aggressor would become a valiant hero -- a hero when he protests and when he decides to withdraw. This is what the imperialist press is trying to make Saddam.

We reject the logic of aggression because Islam rejects it, and because we reject any attempt to legitimize the aggressor's aggression. We also reject any decision inspired by this sick logic. Therefore, our logic has always been to retaliate against aggression until it subsides. Without this retaliation, aggression would become law in this war -- a matter the Islamic Republic is trying to destroy. Here we have to recall certain facts that make the Islamic Republic adhere to its stand, announced long ago. The first fact is that the cease-fire should not be established until all the conditions set by the Islamic Republic are fulfilled, conditions providing grounds for peace in the region as far as possible. Any attempt to cease fire without fulfilling these conditions is void because it is not based on justice and equity.

The second fact is that the Baghdad rulers are trying to bargain for the withdrawal from a small portion of land in return for the cease-fire. It is an overt attempt of the rulers to buy their lives cheaply. The land will return to its sons sooner or later. In the same way Khorramshahr and the rest of the Islamic countries were liberated in a few hours' time. The Baghdad rulers know this and experience has taught them the Islamic land is not legally theirs and they must pay the price of its usurpation, the thousands of dead and the POW's. That is why they found it appropriate to leave this land through a bargain that is categorically rejected.

The last fact involves the aggressive nature characterizing the regime of terrorism in Iraq. It is like the Zionist enemy who was born with aggression and cannot live without it. Saddam, his clique, executioners and masters, are not meek lambs. When they talk about peace, it is for a personal interest; when they talk about [word indistinct], let all the world know they are weak because aggression is burning in them and peace is their chance to commit a new aggression.

These irrefutable facts leave us only one alternative: to continue war until the unjust are routed and so that no more aggression will be committed. We tell those who justify the cease-fire because of the tragic events in Lebanon that our war with Saddam and his imperialist regime is part of the all-out war against world Zionism -- it is a war against the logic of aggression Zionist and colonialists adhere to. Our war is the decisive measure against the Zionist plots and it is not different from the confrontation of the enemy in the occupied lands and the Lebanese territory.

Because the war was originally a Zionist-U.S. decision, resisting and confronting it valiantly is a holy task that is part of the conflict between right and wrong. Our war with Saddam is part of our conflict with Israel; there is no difference between our confrontation of the Zionist enemy, represented in Saddam's regime in Iraq, and the resistance of the armed Israeli invasion of Lebanon. It is impossible that this battle will keep us from carrying out our duty in Lebanon. He who can fight on many fronts can carry out all his duties; he who can fight the remnants of the United States on the internal front and its merceuaries on the external front, can fight on the Lebanese and the Iraqi fronts at the same time. There was a time when our valiant combatants were fighting on more than 10 fronts without (?faltering) on any of them. This genuine experience produced confidence for victory in them and enables them to decide to enter the Lebanese territory to confront the Israeli ambitions for usurpation. This is the inherent difference between Iran's stand and the stand of the treacherous clique in Baghdad, which colluded with the Zionists to kill the sons of Palestine and Lebanon to save its life. This is our stand and the stand of the valiant fighters who are sacrificing everything at each call for the holy duty prescribed by Islam and conscience.

NVOI COMMENTS ON IRAQ'S NEW PEACE PROPOSALS

[Unattributed commentary: "Let Us Fight in a Single Front Against Israel's Aggressions"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As you are aware, Iraq has declared its readiness to put an immediate end to all war operations against our Islamic Republic providing that Iran agrees to a cease-fire. Baghdad announced that it can pull out its armed units from our country's territory within 2 weeks. Iraq claims that it took this step in response to the proposal by the Islamic Conference Organization which is acting as a mediator.

In our view Iraq's proposal -- meaning putting an end to the war in principle -- is tantamount to a blow at the positions of our bloodsucker enemy, world-devouring America, which is exploiting this imposed war for its own interest. However, terminating the war is possible only when Baghdad gives in to the just demands of the Islamic Republic of Iran. It seems that Baghdad is ready in this respect.

As we are aware, some time ago U.S. Secretary of State Haig termed this imposed war the number one problem for America's policy in the Persian Gulf region. In a Pentagon secret document published in the WASHINGTON POST it is said that the Iran-Iraq War has created a suitable pretext for the permanent stationing of the U.S. Army in the Persian Gulf.

The important thing now is putting an end to bloodshed because in addition to all the consequences, devastations and casualties, the calculation of the Americans is that ultimately the participants in this war have practically become impotent and weak, and that they will come to their knees when the issue of repairing their destroyed economy is raised. For example, reportedly Iraq needs 5 to 7 years to repair the damages and to raise its oil production to the previous level. Currently Iraq's income from the export of oil has been reduced by 75 percent. During the past year alone Baghdad received about $22 billion in loans.

This imposed war has produced a grave situation in our homeland as well. The plots of world-devouring America and this imposed war have caused our country's productive institutions to operate at less than their potential due to a lack or shortage of spare parts and raw materials. The gross national income has decreased by about 40 percent compared to 1978. Without doubt heavy military expenditures and economic problems are having their negative effects on the everyday life of our homeland's million-strong masses. However, it is not only these factors that count. Putting an end to war and bloodshed allows our nation and the Muslim Iraqi nation to exert all their efforts to confront Israel's aggressive measures against the Islamic world.

Currently Mr Velayati, our homeland's minister of foreign affairs, declared in New York at the UN General Assembly session that Israel is the principal source of tensions in the region, and that the Iranian Government sees no difference between the interests of Israel and the United States. He said: We are ready to assist the Lebanese, the Syrians and the Palestinians to counter Israel's aggression, and we officially declare that we are ready to enter into war agianst Israel, irrespective of all its consequences. Our homeland's minister of foreign affairs emphasized that the Islamic Republic is fully ready to mobilize all its war, economic and political capabilities to confront the aggressor. Our Islamic Republic's foreign minister added that at present a high-ranking Iranian delegation headed by the minister of defense of our Islamic Republic is in Syria, and that it is studying possible ways of coordinating the necessary assistance to Lebanese, Syrian and Palestinian forces. Putting an end to (?military) operations will without doubt allow this assistance to be given on a larger scale. Our country's minister of foreign affairs also said that America's present foreign policy is a continuation of the self-same policy of the United States in Iran during August 1953 when the CIA staged the military coup in our country. He said: Until this day America has not refrained from interfering in Iran's internal affairs. Putting an end to the imposed war, on condition that the just demands of the Islamic Republic of Iran are accepted, will allow both our nation and the Iraqi nation to more successfully counter the conspiracies of world-devouring America and Israel.

SRI LANKA

BOMB ATTACKS LINKED TO TAMIL SECESSIONISTS

BK100855 Hong Kong AFP in English 0745 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Text] Colombo, 10 Jun (AFP) -- Army and police bomb disposal squads yesterday rushed to northern Sri Lanka to investigate a rash of IRA-style bomb attacks allegedly linked to Tamil secessionists.

The call for specialised units came after the detonation of two powerful explosives which killed two and injured several on the mail train bound for Colombo from the north, the SUN newspaper reported today. Two explosions occured within a short space of time killing or injuring postal workers in the "travelling post office." The explosives are believed to have been in parcels delivered at post offices in the north, it was reported.

Meanwhile police have warned politicians in the north, including several members of the Tamil United Liberation Front (TULF) not to open any suspicious-looking parcels. This warning followed the discovery of several parcel bombs at post offices. They had been addressed to Tamil politicians working for major political parties with [whom] the militants are at loggerheads. Although the TULF is also seeking to establish a separate Tamil state because of alleged discrimination by the Sinhala majority, the militants believe the party has gone soft, observers said today.

The militants argue that the TULF has compromised itself by having a continuous dialogue now with President Junius Jayewardene's government which launched an "anti-terrorist" drive nearly 4 years ago, these observers said. TULF politicians are therefore likely candidates for attacks by the militants who are trying to dramatise their continuing presence despite the arrests of the two leaders of rival factions in south India last month, they said.

Investigators here believed that with the arrests of the rival leaders the two factions will go for each other here, to establish supremacy. But the parcel bomb attacks not only show that the militants are going for politicians, but that they have turned to a dangerous new weapon, observers said. Experts believe that the bombs were the handiwork of a West Asian trained militant, on the wanted list of the security forces, the SUN said. The militants have so far been credited with the killing of over 20 policemen and army officers and the robbing of several banks.

BANDARANAIKE NOT TO HAVE CIVIC RIGHTS RESTORED

He said that Mrs Bandaranaike lost her civic rights because of her misdeeds.

No one was above law, he declared again.

"If I abuse my powers, I also will face the same fate, but I can't do what Mrs Bandaranaike did under emergency powers," the president told the gathering.

The president, referring to the current political situation, said that the present Parliment would cease to function from July 1983, and the government would go into a general election four months after the dissolution of Parliament.

The president revealed that the government would take necessary action to file cases against MPs of the previous regime who were allegedly involved in corruption in cooperative societies.

The president also stressed the need for communal harmony to form a stable government.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

14 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- Despite reports by Jerusalem radio and the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio that the IDF and the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces had agreed to cease fire on the evening of 12 June, the fighting around Beirut was renewed the next day, according to both Israeli and Arab media. The IDF completed the encirclement of Beirut and cut off its links with Damascus, Jerusalem radio reported early on 14 June. AFP said Israeli troops moved into B'abda, where the Lebanese presidential palace is located, and also reached the suburb of Al-Hadath after minimal resistance from the Lebanese Army. Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon, who personally commanded the troops that reached B'abda, conferred with Lebanese Christian representatives in the area, according to the Voice of Lebanon and Jerusalem radio reports.

In a Jerusalem radio interview, Israeli Chief of Staff Lt Gen Refa'el Eytan said that over the weekend the IDF destroyed the Syrian forces defending western Beirut, knocking out seven Syrian tanks near the international airport, where large Israeli forces are situated. Asserting that the Israeli Cabinet does not intend to order the IDF to capture Beirut, Eytan accused the terrorists of violating the 12 June PLO-IDF cease-fire by launching a "counterattack of sorts" to which the IDF responded, improving its positions and achieving the total isolation of Beirut. However, Beirut sources cited by AFP said renewed IDF shelling of Khaldah early on 13 June was responsible for the breakdown of the cease-fire. Israeli planes subsequently resumed their attacks on targets in and around Beirut, according to Jerusalem radio. A WAFA communique reported by Monte Carlo radio during the afternoon said Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces, Amal movement militia and Syrian units had repulsed an IDF advance on Khaldah, destroying a number of Israeli tanks. Meanwhile, AFP cited an eyewitness report that the Israelis have established a roadblock at 'Ayn Anun on the Damascus-Beirut highway.

Further south the IDF used heavy weapons against Palestinian bunkers in the 'Ayn al-Hulwah refugee camp near Sidon, according to Jerusalem radio.

Before the shortlived PLO-Israeli cease-fire on 12 June, the Israelis launched intensive airstrike against targets in Beirut, bombarded the capital from the sea and staged repeated attacks on Khaldah, according to reports by Beirut radio. On the same day Syrian tanks covered by SAM's moved into combat positions in the southern part of the Al-Biqa' Valley, AFP reported. Jerusalem television said the Syrians have transferred their headquarters in Lebanon northeast from Shtawrah to Ba'labakk. Meanwhile, two Soviet-made rockets hit the Lebanese presidential palace in B'abda, according to the Voice of Lebanon.

Casualties, Refugees -- The IDF spokesman announced that during 11-12 June, 16 Israeli soldiers were killed and 176 were wounded, Jerusalem radio reported. Lebanese police revealed that 700 people were killed and about 2,000 were wounded in Israeli air attacks on Beirut, according to another Jerusalem radio report. The Lebanese Red Cross said 1,000 people were killed and 2,000 were wounded by IDF shelling of Sidon, where the Red Cross is encountering enormous problems with regard to foodstuffs and medicines, Beirut radio said. Citing local correspondents, AFP reported that on 11 June Israeli planes strafed convoys of cars headed for Syria, killing more than 100 civilians. AFP also cited reports that some 600,000 people -- 1/5 of the Lebanese population -- has been made homeless as a result of the fighting. In a 13 June statement to the Knesset Security and Foreign Affairs Committee, Israeli Defense Minister Sharon rejected Red Cross estimates of civilian casualties and refugees, IDF radio noted.

Request for Soviet Arms -- According to Voice of Lebanon radio, the PLO asked the Soviet ambassador in Beirut for ammunition and arms from the Soviet Union. JANA reported that Staff Major 'Abd as-Salam Jallud met with the Soviet ambassador to Libya and asked the Soviet Union to supply the PLO and Syria with weapons.

Iranian Troops in Syria -- A Syrian diplomatic source said 500 Iranian troops arrived in Damascus on 13 June, AFP reported. It added that Iranian diplomats in Damascus said that 3,000-4,000 Iranian volunteers would go directly from the Iran-Iraq front to Lebanon in groups of 300 to 400. According to an armed forces and Guards Corps communique carried by Tehran radio, Iranian volunteers had been leaving for the battlefront since 12 June.

Egyptian, U.S. Diplomacy -- Egypt has transmitted to Israel a message that includes a request from the terrorists that Israel cease fire, Jerusalem radio reported on 14 June. Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir told the Egyptian ambassador in reply that if the terrorists cease fire, Israel will likewise hold its fire in Beirut.

Jerusalem radio also indicated that Israel may comply with U.S. requests that the Israeli Air Force stop bombing Beirut. "Deep misunderstanding" has developed between Israel and the United States over this issue, the radio said.

Israel Position on Lebanese Settlement -- The Israeli Cabinet has formulated a basic proposal regarding a future settlement in Lebanon which states that Israel will not withdraw from conquered territory until the appropriate arrangements guaranteeing no new terrorist infrastructure are established, Jerusalem radio reported. The proposal also requires that the northern settlements be out of range of cannons and katyushas and says that Israel will not agree to terrorist bases in Lebanon. The proposal raises various ideas for the establishment of an international force that would supervise the demilitarized areas in Lebanon. However, the radio said Israel will not initiate a move that will lead to the establishment of a force under UN aegis because the Soviet Union would be a partner to it. According to another radio report, Israel will present a "demand in principle" for the exit of all foreign forces from Lebanon, including the Syrians and the PLO, although it appears this is not an "unambiguous condition."

A communique on the 13 June Israeli Cabinet session carried by IDF radio reported that the Cabinet appointed a committee of experts which will submit proposals regarding future security arrangements in the north. Jerusalem radio reported that the negotiations on a political settlement in Lebanon will not enter a practical stage until Prime Minister Begin returns from talks with President Ronald Reagan next week. Nevertheless, in a news conference broadcast by IDF radio prior to his departure for France, Foreign Minister Shamir revealed that Israel and the United States have begun discussions on future arrangements for Lebanon.

Arab Summit Canceled -- The Arab League Secretariat General sent notes to Arab states informing them of the indefinite postponement of an emergency meeting of Arab foreign ministers in Tunis, Beirut radio reported on 12 June. It said the meeting was postponed after Lebanon refused to attend the conference in protest against the Arab states' previous and present positions on what Lebanon is facing. A Lebanese Government source cited by the radio said Lebanon had demanded an Arab summit conference and not a meeting at the foreign minister level which is "only meant for an ordinary situation."

JANA reported on 11 June that Libya had called for an urgent Arab summit within 24 hours. The report said Syria, Algeria, the PDRY, Kuwait and the UAE had all agreed to attend.

Reaction to Cease-Fire Announcements -- During an interview with KUNA, PLO Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf made it clear that the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces responded to the cease-fire with the Israelis following its acceptance by the Lebanese Government. Khalaf, however, expressed the conviction that the cease-fire would not last long and that Israel would strengthen its positions south of Beirut in order to liquidate the Palestinian and Lebanese forces. He acknowledged that the Syrian commitment to cease-fire had affected the situation but pledged continued PLO steadfastness and resistance against the Israelis. According to Monte Carlo radio, PLO Executive Committee member Faruq Qaddumi announced that the PLO is ready to withdraw from Lebanon if Israel agrees to the Palestinians returning to their homeland. A WAFA commentary carried by the Voice of Palestine observed that Israel has decided to go deeper into the "quagmire" and is trying to besiege Beirut despite claims that it is adhering to the cease-fire. A Voice of Palestine commentary warned that the matter has not ended yet and asserted that PLO forces are ready for an unending number of rounds.

A Damascus radio commentary declared that the cease-fire does not mean the battle is over and claimed that Syria has not abandoned its national and pan-Arab commitment to defend Lebanon and the Palestinian Resistance. Maintaining that Syria will not be driven out of Lebanon, the commentary asserted that Israel will not remain in Lebanon, not matter what the cost.

An AL-AHRAM editorial cited by MENA stated that the cease-fire declared by Israel should not divert attention from the continuing Israeli aggression against Lebanon and other Arabs. It added that the Israeli concept of a cease-fire, according to "our past experience," is merely a pause while continuing to impose a fait accompli on the territory it is occupying.

Amman radio, citing the Jordanian paper AR-RA'Y, claimed that the main results of the Syrian-Israeli cease-fire will be to permit the Israelis to remain in the positions they have reached and to permit an Israeli occupation of over half of Lebanon. The paper stated that the dangerous situation has been aggravated by the Syrians, who, committed to the cease-fire, have begun to keep Arab volunteers from reaching Lebanon. The JORDAN TIMES said that without an immediate Israeli withdrawal, the cease-fire will become a new death trap and should not be allowed to hold.

Baghdad radio stated that the cease-fire agreement between Syria and Israel has disclosed the dangers of the "suspect role" played by the Syrian regime in Lebanon. The radio added that the cease-fire agreement gives the Israelis the opportunity to annihilate the Palestinians and impose their own conditions.

JANA reported that the Permanent Secretariat of the Arab People's Congress rejected the cease-fire and called for a continuation of fighting until Israeli forces withdraw unconditionally.

Noting that Iran's presence in Syria gives it a right to comment on the cease-fire, Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani stated that if the cease-fire is accepted, Israel's next step will be to invade northern Lebanon and then Syria, Tehran radio reported. The Majlis speaker declared that the right course now is to attack Israel and destroy its forces in Lebanon.

Death of Saudi King

Announcement of Khalid Death, Fahd Appointment -- On 13 June a royal court statement braodcast by SPA announced the death of King Khalid ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz following a heart attack. SPA subsequently announced that Crown Prince Fahd ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz would succeed the late king and that Second Deputy Prime Minister 'Abdallah ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz had been appointed crown prince.

Royal Decree -- According to a royal decree carried by Riyadh radio, King Fahd instructed that all current members of the Council of Ministers continue in their posts. The decree also stated that 'Abdallah ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz would be appointed deputy prime minister and that Defense and Aviation Minister Sultan ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz would become second deputy prime minister.

Reaction to Khalid Death -- A presidential statement carried by MENA announced that Egyptian President Husni Mubarak would visit Saudi Arabia to offer condolences. AL-AHRAM reported that the delegation accompanying Mubarak to Saudi Arabia is expected to include Defense and War Production Minister 'Abd al-Halim Abu Ghazalah, according to MENA. INA reported that Iraqi President Saddam Husayn paid a brief visit to Saudi Arabia during which he offered condolences. Damascus radio carried a condolence cable from Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad and Damascus television subsequently reported that a Syrian delegation that included Prime Minister 'Abd ar-Ra'uf al-Kasm had visited Riyadh to express condolences. Amman radio carried a statement by the royal court declaring a 14-day mourning period in Jordan. The radio also reported a condolence message from King Husayn to King Fahd. Meanwhile, JANA reported that Al-Qadhdhafi cabled condolences on Khalid's death.

Tehran radio's Arabic service also reported on Khalid's death but noted that independent news sources linked his death to a dispute between members of the Al Sa'ud family. The radio cited reliable sources as saying that Khalid had been in good health and that there were no indications of his illness.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Passage of Troops -- Iraq agrees to the transit of Iranian forces through its territory to Syria and Lebanon regardless of the size or kind of these forces on condition that Iran approves a cease-fire in its war with Iraq, an Iraqi official spokesman announced in a statement transmitted by INA on 11 June. Iraq is ready to discuss arrangements for the passage of Iranian forces as soon as Iran approves a cease-fire, he said.

Khomeyni Speech -- Providing safe passage for Iranian troops to go to Syria does not mean that Iraq is doing Iran any favors, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni said in a 12 June speech to military commanders braodcast by Tehran radio. However, while Khomeyni reemphasized Iranian demands for reparations for war damages, he said that Iran would not demand "a single dime" from the Iraqis if the oppressed Iraqi people remove the Ba'th Party from power and set up a government for themselves.

Military Situation -- Iraqi military communiques carried by Baghdad radio and Voice of the Masses radio over the weekend claimed that since Iraq's unilateral cease-fire declaration on 10 June, Iraqi forces have initiated no military activities although they have responded in kind to Iranian artillery fire. In a statement broadcast by Voice of the Masses, an Iraqi spokesman denied Iranian reports that Iraqi aircraft strafed Abadan on 11 June. Meanwhile, Iranian communiques carried by Tehran radio reported exchanges of fire along a number of fronts.

RAFSANJANI CONDEMNS LEBANON CEASE-FIRE

[Excerpts] The Central News Unit reports that the Islamic Consultative Assembly held an open session today chaired by Hashemi-Rafsanjani. During today's session Mr Rafsanjani addressed the session:

[Begin recording] I would like to discuss the question of the cease-fire in Lebanon. As you might have heard, late last night the two sides accepted the cease-fire. If we had had a finger in the pie from afar, or if the issue did not concern us, we would not express a serious reaction. But in the case of Lebanon and the Israeli invasion, today we are actively participating in countering Israel. Some of our combatant forces are already in Lebanon and some are on their way to Lebanon. We are a partner in the defense and have the right to express our view. [Words indistinct] thus, no doubt the principle of aggression against southern Lebanon involves the Islamic Republic of Iran at this moment. That is, when our victory became certain and the United States decided to defeat the Islamic Republic and cut our hands from the region [words indistinct] started with the southern Lebanon. We more than others have the right to express our views.

In our view, the cease-fire is in the interest of Israel and against the interest of world Muslims and Islam, and the cease-fire has been planned and accepted with such concepts. We believe it possible to say today [words indistinct] to put before the people of the region. One is Iran's resistance against Saddam's aggression and the other defeat and compatibility shown by the Islamic Arab nations in the last 3 years toward Israeli aggression. History has proved the fact that whoever resists wins. If we had accepted Saddam's cease-fire offer in the first few months of the war, today in Khuzestan, Kordestan and many other places the might of Saddam's weapon would have been in force; either a few small countries would have been created or those areas would have been annexed to Iraq. But, through resistance and sacrifices the Islamic Republic is victorious today, Saddam's army has been destroyed and th great force that lived on imperialism, Zionism and reaction today has been forced to its knees before our people's resistance.

The reverse of our experience has taken place in Palestine. Whatever step Israel took, any aggression it committed, a cease-fire was immediately declared and the Arabs compromised. As a result, Israel consolidated its position and took the next step of its aggression. As a result of our presence in Syria, we give ourselves the right to condemn the acceptance of the cease-fire.

We would like to declare that in our view the right course to take now that Israel has been trapped is not to allow it to escape. We have to attack Israel and destroy its forces in Lebanon. We did the same with the Iraqi forces in Iran. If we resist for 5 months, if the Islamic volunteer forces reach [word indistinct] in this engagement which has come about, we can predict the end of Zionism in the region. But if, as on previous occasions, we approach the issue with conservatism and [word indistinct], the crime which Israel has committed in the last few days would be considered by it as concession. This is against the backdrop of thousands of noble Muslims killed by Israel, tens of thousands of others injured, more than 200,000 forced to migrate, of Israel's razing and plunder of hundreds of villages and destruction of several cities. Even the international Red Cross [word indistinct] has been prevented from going to the area to give relief. Even AFP, which is a partner to the crime itself, is being prevented by Israel from giving a true picture of what is happening in Lebanon: The world has no idea of the crimes being committed by Israel in Lebanon.

Today Israel is in control in Beirut, in Tyre, in An-Nabatiyah, in Sidon. Its forces are near the Beirut-Damascus highway. In Tyre, Sidon and An-Nabatiyah the Muslims are still resisting. It is a great sin to shut our eyes to the blood shed by so many innocent people and to their aspirations and to accept the cease-fire. If we accept the cease-fire, Israel's next step will be to invade northern Lebanon and then Syria.

This crime cannot be tolerated. Today inside Lebanon the Americans, the Phalangists [word indistinct] and many other groups are helping Israel. We ought, with the assistance of the Islamic countries and the steadfastness movement, to resist, to continue our war with Israel to the end and not be afraid of even an engagement with the United States. If at this stage the United States were to become involved with the Muslims, this would be in our interest. This will lead to the end of the American presence in the region. [end recording]

MUSAVI CALLS FOR TRANSIT ACROSS IRAQI TERRITORY

[Excerpts] According to the Central News Unit, on the occasion of the seventh day after the martyrdom of some of our compatriots in Ilam, caused by a cowardly bombardment by Iraqi planes, Prime Minister Musavi sent the following message to the martyr-nurturing and steadfast people of Ilam:

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Heroic and brave brothers and sisters in Ilam: I planned to take part in the ceremonies on the seventh day after the martyrdom of the beloved ones who were martyred in the savage bombardment of Ilam by mercenaries of world arrogance. However, I was unable to do so.

It is very strange that as a result of conspiracy hatched by American imperialism and usurping Zionism this criminal [Saddam Husayn] talks of peace, cease-fire and withdrawal so that he can continue his disgraceful existence for a few more days and be relieved of responsibility for the slaughter of the best children of the Islamic revolution, the children of the Muslim people of Iraq, and the damage and harm inflicted upon the two Islamic countries.

America and usurping Israel are shamelessly trying to save his regime by occupying Lebanon, attacking the Palestinian nation and crushing the deprived people of beloved Lebanon. But who in the Islamic world does not know that the Zionist regime of the 'Aflaqite Ba'thists is a servant of America and an ally of Israel? Only through the collaboration and participation of the Iraqi regime could the usurping Israelis preoccupy our fighting forces and our material and military resources so that we cannot struggle directly against Zionism. However, our fighting Muslim nation is too strong to be prevented by its confrontation with the aggressive infidel Iraqi regime from struggling against America and aggressive Israel.

Therefore, we added another condition to our previous conditions for ending the war against the aggressive regime of Iraq: Namely, that they should provide us with a route for our armored and fighting forces to enter the war against criminal Israel. All Muslims throughout the world know that this one of the elementary rights of a Muslim nation. We announce to all Islamic countries that if they do not wish to get involved in direct battle against usurping Israel to save Lebanon and to liberate Jerusalem they should at least grant the simplest and most elementary right of the Muslims: providing a transit route for fighting forces to go to the battlefronts against Zionism.

With complete honesty and sincerity we announce to all Muslim countries that nothing prevents the fighter planes of Saudi Arabia and other Arab countries that are close to occupied Palestine from confronting the Zionists' savage invasion. At present there is nothing to prevent the leaders of the oil-producing countries from turning off their oil taps to America, and there will be no obstacles in the future, either. These governments should stop disgracing themselves for the sake of deceiving the masses. They should not separate themselves from a billions-strong Islamic nation that wishes to fight Zionism. They should know that by merely chanting slogans, making noises and sending messages to Reagan they disgrace themselves further in the eyes of the Muslims of the world.

[Signed] Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, prime minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran

VOICE OF IRAN ON TRANSIT ROUTE THROUGH IRAQ

GF130600 (Clandestine) Voice of Iran in Persian 0330 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] The agreement by Baghdad to the passage of Iranian forces through Iraqi soil to Syria in order to fight against Israelis in Lebanon has foiled the propaganda program of the secular mullahs. Our correspondent, quoting a very well-informed source, has reported that Khomeyni's regime made the suggestion to Iraq because it was certain that the Baghdad government would refuse it and thus give the ruling mullahs another excuse for a propaganda attack against Iraq.

According to this report, as soon as Iraq's acceptance was broadcast, the mullahs began contacting [one another] in order to establish a new policy. According to the same source, the regime of Khomeyni has no intention of dispatching forces to Syria through Iraq and will simply resort to the dispatch of a few hundred guards by aircraft.

IRANIAN VOLUNTEERS DEPLOYED TO FIGHT ISRAEL

GF131832 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1730 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] A joint communique issued by the army command and the Islamic revolutionary guards notes that yesterday and today Iranian volunteer units were deployed to the warfronts. They will fight the Zionist entity alongside Muslim Syrian, Palestinian and Lebanese combatants to expel the aggressors from the occupied territories.

Joint Communique

LD131824 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Unnumbered joint communique of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islmaic Republic of Iran]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. "Israel must be wiped out" -- Imam Khomeyni.

The Zionist Israeli regime, the dirty symbol of world imperialism, in a sinister and unholy alliance with the Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi regime, and through their joint dirty conspiracies, are paving the way for the expansion of the criminal domination of world oppression in the region. One regime committed the most criminal acts in Lebanon and destroyed the homes of oppressed people in Lebanon and Palestine with its weapons, and by occupying vast parts of land in the region. It martyred or wounded thousands of oppressed people of Abadan, Ilam and tens of cities and villages in Islamic Iran under its fire and bombs and martyred innocent men, women and children and, like its Zionist allies, made them homeless refugees.

The heroic volunteers of the army of Islam, considering their divine duties and their ideological commitment, are dutybound to confront the corrupt mercenaries of world imperialism, Israel and Iraq, in an uncompromising manner and to guard the glory of Islam and Muslims.

We believe that the battle against the usurping Israeli regime can be carried out in practice only when the domination of the Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi regime, this ally of criminal Israel, is cleared away from the Muslim nation so that the extensive presence of zealous combatants of the Islamic Republic of Iran on the battlefronts against world blasphemy can be made possible.

As we informed you in the previous communique, units of the volunteer forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran are going to fight against the Zionist usurpers.

Units of these martyrdom-seeking heroes were leaving for the battlezones since yesterday so that, God willing, alongside Muslim and zealous Syrian, Palestinian and Lebanese combatants they could launch a great battle and can end the disgraceful oppression and aggression committed by world Zionism.

With hope for the Islamic combatants' final victory and the liberation of Jerusalem from occupying Zionism. With the assistance of God, victory is near.

[Signed] The Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

KHOMEYNI SCORES SILENCE OVER LEBANON 'DISASTER'

LD131400 Tehran Domestic Service in Perisal 1030 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] A group of leaders and representatives of liberation movements of the world oppressed, who have come to Tehran, the minister of Islamic guidance and several directors and employees of this ministry, the commander and a group of the personnel of the Navy of the Islamic Republic of Iran met with Imam Khomeyni, leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic, at Hoseyniyeh Jamaran this morning. At this ceremony, first a special song was sung by the navy personnel. Then the minister of Islamic guidance and Captain Afzali, commander of the navy, reported to the imam.

At this meeting the imam of the nation referred to the deathly silence of the countries of the region, saying: Do the governments of the region now consider the issue of Lebanon a disaster? Do they not consider this a disaster for Islam and Muslims? Is the Israeli attack on Lebanon not [words indistinct] a disaster for Islam amd Muslims?

Does this act, approved by America, not enter their hearing? Why can't they hear the cries and groans of our beloved in Lebanon if they are not deaf? And why can't they see the blood that is being shed in (?Iran) and Lebanon, the young who die on the fronts and the men, women, children and old people who die behind the frontlines in towns? If they see these things and (?condemn) them, why do they say nothing? If they love Islam, the holy Koran, the holy shrines, why do they say nothing today? Why do they help the situation? What has happened to them? Why do these incidents happen in southern Lebanon? [passage indistinct]

In addition to being silent, they confirm this act, would still like to approve the Camp David accord and Fahd's proposals, and to recognize Israel.

With whom can we dicuss these disasters? Governments which have closed their ears and eyes and have surrendered to America and have no will of their own? Or oppressed nations which are being suppressed by these governments? We should discuss these issues with nations.

The leader of the revolution referred to the way the Iranian nation dealt with the hated Pahlavi regime which was subservient to America, stressing: Until these nations gain such an awareness and until nations achieve such a unity, they should know that they will be condemned to having corrupt governments and condemned to criminal America and other superpowers. Referring to the facilities at the disposal of the governments of the region, the imam said: Despite having all those resources and facilities, despite the fact that if they stop the supply of their oil to these criminals all these problems would be solved, we see that they do nothing. Other than turning to God Almighty because of these tragedies, these silences confirming crimes, these tragedies, who else can we turn to? To whom can we complain for these deathly silences, these silences which encourage oppressors? Who can we ask to support us in order to break these silences?

The hope of the oppressed of the world, addressing the liberation movements of the oppressed, stressed: These dear guests who have come here should carry back the message of faith to their nations, the message that they should act by themselves. They should not wait for U.S. hirelings to work for them. Referring to Khalid's (?sale) of (?camels) for his private zoo, he said: These people buy camels for their private zoo while (?Iran) is in such trouble. To whom can we turn? Those people are plundering our possessions and these people are buying camels.

The imam referred to the conditions proposed by the Iraqi fascist Ba'thist regime with regard to allowing the combatant Iranian forces to pass through Iraq in order to go and fight the Zionist regime, saying: Saddam finds his own salvation in allowing us to pass through: Fighting Israel is not his main consideration. These are strange happenings that will be recorded in history: The facts that Iran wanted to go and fight for the liberation of Arabs, for the liberation of the holy shrines and other Islamic countries which are all threatened by Israel and in order to fight this cancerous growth, the fact that Iran wanted to go and fight and the demands made on Iran by other countries. These are the points which will be recorded in history, and disgrace will be written on the foreheads of these persons.

You [Islamic countries] cannot claim that you do not have weapons; you have a weapon that the world does not have: your oil. The world needs your weapon, your weapon is the lifeline of the world. This is the weapon put at your disposal by God Almighty and you should use it for the sake of God Almighty.

The Friday imam of Esfahan also met this morning with Imam Khomeyni, leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

ARMED FORCES COMMANDERS MEET WITH KHOMEYNI

LD121250 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 12 Jun 82

[From the news headlines]

[Text] The commander of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, together with the commanders of the other forces of the realm met and had talks today with Imam Khomeyni, commander in chief of the armed forces.

During this meeting, the imam of the Islamic nation, referring to the progress achieved after the Islamic revolution, said: If this progress were an ordinary thing the United States would not be so keen to immediately strangle it on any level. But an extraordinary thing has been achieved and even if you were to measure it superficially, in accordance with the superficial values employed by the world mass media and military authorities, you would perceive the profound depth of it which is gradually manifesting itself to the world.

Referring to the material advancements achieved in the short period since the revolution the leader of the revolution graciously said: These young people have changed within a short time and reached positions that even those who have toiled for 50 years have not been able to reach, so much so that these young people seek nothing but God and crave and embrace martyrdom.

Referring to the intense propaganda carried out before the revolution in order to subjugate everything we had to the whims of others, the founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran graciously said: If this revolution did not respond to the people's cry for help, Iran would now be on the slippery slope of destruction and extinction and even its name would be erased from the annals of history.

Referring to the succour given by God toward achieving these advancements, the imam of the Islamic nation emphasized: The power which now exists in Iran, which is being taken into consideration by all countries and which has unnecessarily frightened many countries, is a power granted by God and it is not something which we could easily acquire.

Referring to the Saddam regime's false claims to be seeking peace and calling for a cease-fire, the leader of the meek of the world emphasized: Their peace-seeking is like Israel's peace-seeking. Israel has entered Lebanon, has occupied its cities and now says: "Let us make peace!" A cease-fire will be achieved the day you deliver a blow to Israel and expel it from these cities. Their [Iraqi] cease-fire is such that 3 hours after declaring it they bombed Abadan and killed people.

The imam stressed: How can we overlook something which will encourage a criminal to perpetrate his crime? We must expose the criminal.

The leader of the revolution said: If the Iraqi Ba'th Party were to be lost while pursuing its work and the oppressed Iraqi people were to appoint a government for themselves we would not demand a single dime as indemnity from them!

Khomeyni Speech

[Address by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni to Colonel Sayyad-Shirazi, commander of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic, and other armed forces commnaders on 12 June -- venue not given -- recorded, duration 38 minutes]

[Excerpts] As far as the issues that we are facing are concerned, ever since the war with Iraq started until today; from the day that Saddam was boasting about Al-Qadisiyah to today when (?Saddam's name no longer is being mentioned) and he has gone somewhere, God only knows -- these were the issues which were there. That is why we said we did not want to impose anything. What we said were topics we wanted to present to the world's wisemen and the world's warriors, things which they would accept. (?You should remember that) from the very first day we said: You poured into our homes, into our cities, into our country. You attacked us and entered our country in a surprise attack. You perpetrated all this destruction and injustice and carried out all these massacres. (?You should now comply with our conditions). For what man could say that these (?conditions) are imposed? Well, a thief has come into our home and taken our furniture and now says: Let us make peace!

We say: You are thieves and should leave unconditionally; if you do not leave we will throw you out. It would behove us not to bring in these wretched young men and expose them to death. You yourselves should leave. This is a matter that [words indistinct]. When someone has come to your house and has destroyed it (?he must leave if) [words indistinct] the second matter is the damages they have inflicted.

As for the question of giving reparations, this has a material aspect and a political-moral aspect. The material value of the situation is not great. What is important is its moral and political value. If things were such that a man would come along and do whatever he wants and perpetrate crimes to his heart's content and then say: "Well, I will now make peace and I will pull out." What are we to do? What about all these crimes you have perpetrated? If we were to close our eyes to this issue this would not mean that we would be closing our eyes to a material issue. This would be a moral issue to which we closed our eyes. In other words, we have encouraged an oppressor and an archtyrant to perpetrate his crimes. Suppose they were to return tomorrow and do exactly the same thing and then say: "Well Sir, we will make peace." This sort of thing should be prevented. Such acts of aggression taking place in the world should be prevented.

What we say is that a criminal should be identified and people should find out who he is. If we were the criminals then let the world tell us whatever it may wish; but if they are the criminals then they should be similarly judged -- judged with justice. We want justice. You who say: "We are seeking peace." Your peace-seeking is akin to that of Israel. Israel too is now saying: "Let us make peace." In other words they have entered and occupied Lebanon's cities and now say: "Let us have a cease-fire!" A cease-fire will be achieved on the day they push Israel out of your cities. [passage indistinct]

We reiterate the conditions which we said in the very beginning, one of these being the unconditional withdrawal of all the Iraqi troops, all Iraqi combatants from our country. No conditions can be stipulated.

Now they say: "We will pull out so that you can pass through our country so that there will be peace and the issue will be terminated." In other words, no matter what harm they have done us, whatever they have perpetrated against us, it is all as nothing.

Were Iraq, were the Ba'th Party to remove its clutches from Iraq, were it to leave and were the Iraqi people themselves, the oppressed people themselves, to set up a government for themselves, we would not demand a single dime from them. The moral dimension would no longer apply; the criminal would have gone and the moral aspect would no longer apply. We are (?concerned) with the moral dimension of the issue.

We are responsible for all these women and men who have lost their children and young men. How could we say to them unconditionally: "(?Give up) your children?" This is not the way of Islam. We want to help them and then are asked to pay bribery for this help. Indeed, there are certain governments which do operate this way [words indistinct].

Providing safe passage for our (?Islamic fighters) to go to Syria does not mean that you are doing us a favor; it is we who are doing you a favor, if it is considered to be a (?unanimous wish). However, you should not expect to receive something from us, simply because we want to help you. You who claim to oppose Israel -- something we know to be a lie -- assert that a condition for our safe passage is to establish peace; that whatever has happened should be forgotten. Is this the meaning of peace? Is this the meaning of safe passage?

One sets conditions for providing access which is supposed to be not viable. The world must realize that we are prepared to have peace; we are prepared to take steps in this direction. However, during this period when they are making promises, claiming to be amenable to accept certain conditions, a group, an international group, needs to sit down and assess the destruction and damages caused by the Iraqis to our towns and villages. Obviously, there are certain damages which cannot be compensated, such as our young men. For this, they are answerable before God.

Therefore, while you state that you would provide safe passage, a group needs to assess the crimes and destruction committed against Iran.

The point is that you need to pay us something for our readiness to fight your enemies. If you really mean it when you claim to be against Israel; if you do not intend to cheat us under such a pretext, being under the illusion that Iran is unaware of these issues, that the authorities are unaware of these issues; if you are not in the process of hatching a plot or doing something contrary to what you claim, then consider the matters we have already raised.

We have been saying that you must pull out. However, you must not think that by pulling out the problem is solved. This is only one of the conditions we have specified.

There are two other conditions: one concerning the spiritual dimension, the political dimension, rather than the financial aspect [words indistinct]. Can we ignore something which encourages a criminal to continue his crimes? We must expose the criminal to the world and make him pay for his crime so that this would serve to minimize, if not abolish, such acts.

Forget this kind of talk; you no longer enjoy the power to make claims. If you think that others might help you, that will not do either. Your own troops' performance bore witness to this; you noticed how a small group managed to liberate Khorramshahr. Now imagine others who want to help you as your masters, how can they achieve anything? They mean to serve their own interests.

KHAMENE'I AFFIRMS SUPPORT FOR LEBANESE

[Text] Tehran, June 13, IRNA -- Iran should stand against the aggressor Zionist enemy who imposed force by relying on the United States, to bring it down to its knees, said President Khamene'i in a meeting with commander and deputy commanders of ground forces Saturday.

The president noted that some 100 million Arabs and about one billion Muslims would support Iranians if their governments failed to back Iran. The president added that as a Muslim nation Iran could not accept the Zionist aggression and denounced the silence of reactionary Arab countries in this respect. He questioned that how they could accept an Arab country be disintegrated. [sentence as received]

Khamene'i reiterated Iran's support for defenceless Lebanese nation saying that those who granted any type of aid to Saddam under the pretext of defending pan-Arabism were now keeping silent before the Zionists who were massacring innocent masses.

President Khamene'i said that while billions of dollars of oil of the oppressed people fuelled arsenals of great powers, in return of which billions of dollars of weapons were received, never a bullet was used in the region against the Zionist enemy.

The president emphasised that there was no difference between aggressions of Begin and Saddam. Some 21 months ago ambitious rulers of Baghdad staged a war against Iran supposing to usurp parts of the Islamic land but now that they were weakened they would demand for peace. But if Saddam found any opportunity, he would continue his aggression against Iran, Khamene'i added.

He then told the military officials that they were the only commanders in the world who could claim to have followed humanitarian objectives and were representatives of a nation and government which was resisting injustice.

Prior to the President Khamene'i speech, Colonel Sayyad-Shirazi, commander of the ground forces, announced ground forces' readiness to fight against the Zionist regime.

GOLPAYEGANI: CUT OIL SUPPLIES TO U.S.

LD121030 Tehran IRNA in English 0911 GMT 12 Jun 82

[Text] Qom, June 12, IRNA -- The renowned religious scholar Ayatollah Golpayegani Friday called on the Muslims to employ all their means, especially the cutting of their flow of oil to the U.S. and other states supporting the Zionist regime, to express their opposition.

In a statement issued in connection with the recent Zionist invasion of southern Lebanon, Ayatollah Golpayegani said that it was the Muslims' duty to prohibit their governments from following imperialist policies. They should rather ask their governments to eradicate this cancerous tumor -- the Zionist regime -- which threatens peace and security not only in the region but in the whole world, by relying on the faith and Islamic unity which has manifested in the Islamic revolution of Iran, the message said.

It stressed that the brutal attack of the Zionists against southern Lebanon once again revealed the vicious nature of the U.S. and the Zionists and showed how human rights were trampled for the sake of the imperialist aspirations of the superpowers.

He deplored the fact that at this time when the oppressed people of Lebanon and Palestine had become the target of land, air and marine attacks, the heads of the Islamic countries were wasting time by holding talks with the Eastern and Western rulers. The Islamic world, Ayatollah Golpayegani remarked, should take immediate measures and should know that any political contact with the superpowers will have no benefit but, on the contrary, will further expand their influence. Why have those who approved Saddam's aggression against the Islamic revolution of Iran, by paying him billions of dollars and providing him with the required weaponry, kept silent now when the fate of Islam was being endangered in Lebanon and Palestine, the message argued.

The ayatollah also prayed for the liberation of Al-Quds (Jerusalem) and for the victory of Muslims in all the fronts of the struggle of truth with falsehood in his message.

Meanwhile it was reported that the Saudi foreign minister, Sa'ud al-Faysal, assured Washington that the Zionist invasion against southern Lebanon would not have the least effect on the flow of oil to the West and that his country would provide the West with its required oil demands as before.

MONTAZERI COMMENTS ON ISRAELI 'AGGRESSION'

[Text] The Central News Unit reports that Esfahan's Friday imam, together with Hojjat ol-Eslam Khalkhali, Seyyed Mohammad Tabataba'i and Seyyed Mohammad Baqer Hakim, conferred with Ayatollah Montazeri this morning. During this meeting Ayatollah Montazeri spoke about Zionism's threat to Islam and the Muslims and expressed profound regret for the indifference shown by a great many heads of Muslim states with regard to Zionist aggression and the massacre of Lebanese Muslims by the Israeli racists. He said: The only way to destroy Israel, this dangerous cancer in the region, is through immense preparation of the Iranian nation for a march and a vast and comprehensive onslaught against the Israeli entity.

Ayatollah Montazeri emphasized: I am confident that the oppressed, Muslim nation of Iraq is fully prepared for the Muslim nation and the fighting forces of Iran to transit Iraqi territory to save the Al-Aqsa Mosque. Iraq knows full well that Iran's Muslim government and nation will never need nor covet a single inch of the sacred soil of that country. It knows that the primary goal of our armed and people's forces is to repulse the oppression of usurping Zionism.

Undoubtedly our Arab brothers and sisters and all the Islamic countries whose religious and national shrines have for years been the playthings of a handful of racist criminals, will welcome this divine and sacrosanct aspiration of the Muslim nation of Iran.

[Text] In His exalted name. The outcome of the acts of self-sacrifice by the combatants of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran on the battlefronts of good against evil, with the aim of expelling and destroying the mercenary Saddamists and achieving the final goal, which is none other than the victory of Islam, is hereby brought to the attention of the dear compatriots:

During the past 24 hours, fighting and exchange of fire continued sporadically on the country's western fronts and Islam's mighty combatants, by opening artillery and heavy-weapon fire on the Saddamist positions, destroyed one truck, one observation post and several supply points of the Iraqi forces and, by preventing the movement of the Saddamist forces on the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab, Gilan-e Gharb, Sumar and Salehabad fronts, killed or wounded a number of their servicemen.

On the fronts and in the regions where the heroic forces of the tribal irregular warfare units and the gendarmerie combatants are deployed, exchanges of fire continued and after silencing the fire of the Saddamists our mighty forces inflicted losses and casualties on them.

On the Marivan front, the self-sacrificing forces of Islam, by carrying out a series of offensive operations, achieved successes and inflicted blows at the Iraqi forces. Exchanges of fire continued to rage between our forces and the Saddamist mercenaries.

[Text] In His exalted name. Efforts by the powerful combatants of Islam to crush and destroy the mercenary and aggressive enemy are continuing along all southern and western fronts. Each blow dealt by the champion combatants on the weak and disintegrating body of Saddam's army has doomed the hopes of world devourers and oppressors and their lackeys to weaken the Islamic revolution. According to reports received during the past 24 hours, exchange of fire on the western fronts continued sporadically and our forces, maintaining their supremacy and control, inflicted damage and casualties on the enemy.

Our forces' fire on enemy positions in the operational regions destroyed five vehicles, one command jeep, one tank, one construction vehicle, one cannon and a 106-mm recoilless rifle belonging to the aggressors. In addition, a number of entrenchments, together with their crews, were destroyed.

As a result of our artillery fire on enemy positions in the Khormal area, an ammunition dump was set on fire and several trenches were destroyed. The number of enemy casualties in this region is not known.

In the Ilam region and [name indistinct] our forces have the upper hand.

Yesterday, Abadan came under the enemy's long-range artillery fire and as a result several residential areas and one government building sustained damages and a number of our compatriots were martyred or injured. In this region, the fighting units of the navy and gendarmerie opened fire and stopped the activities of Saddamist forces beyond the Arvand Rud, destroying several trenches and killing Iraqi soldiers.

In the south, the attack launched by several Iraqi planes was foiled by our antiaircraft units and our victorious forces, while defending their positions, kept the activities of Saddamist forces under check.

[Text] In His exalted name. Part of the total efforts by the selfless combatants of the Iranian Armed Forces on the fronts of the war imposed between right and wrong and a summary of the disgraceful activities of the mercenary Saddamists are hereby brought to the attention of the dear compatriots:

Yesterday the victorious forces of Islam defended their positions and strongholds and returned enemy fire all along the southern fronts, checking their activities and fire. The gendarmerie warriors in Abadan and Khorramshahr opened fire on Iraqi positions beyond the Arvand Rud and destroyed three observation posts, several trenches and killed or wounded a number of enemy soldiers.

Residential districts and other installations in Abadan came under intense fire by the enemy's long-range artillery and several houses were demolished. Two of our Abadani compatriots were martyred and a number were wounded.

Fighting and exchanges of fire continued on most western fronts and on each front our brave combatants returned the enemy fire, causing damages and casualties.

At Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Salehabad, several enemy trenches, supply points and a truck were destroyed.

In the Sumar region, the mercenary Ba'thists continued their criminal and disgraceful activities, destroying villages and hamlets under their occupation and opening fire on our positions, thus forcing our strong and powerful ground forces to return their fire and pound Iraqi positions, inflicting considerable damage on them and silencing their guns. In the Gilan-e Gharb region, Saddamist forces continued firing their heavy weapons. In response, our combatants opened fire on Saddamist positions and units and silenced their fire.

On the Marivan front, enemy positions were pounded and heavy damage was inflicted on [name indistinct] garrison inside Iraq. On the Paveh front, the selfless combatants of the ground forces returned enemy fire, setting ablaze an ammunition dump inside Iraqi territory and killing a number of their personnel.

During the past 24 hours, a number of planes belonging to the Iraqi aggressors tried to attack several southern towns in our country but were forced to flee by the fire of our antiaircraft units.

During the past 24 hours, the enemy continued firing along the western fronts. However, returning the fire, our forces inflicted considerable casualties and damage on the aggressors.

In the Paveh sector, while maintaining their superiority with continued artillery shelling of the enemy positions, our forces destroyed two Iraqi vehicles on the Toveyleh-Shushgan road. Our forces also managed to silence enemy artillery fire, put out of action three tanks and set ablaze one munitions dump in Meymak, Salehabad, [name indistinct], Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb regions. TEHRAN REPORTS SADDAM HUSAYN KILLED IN CLASH

[Text] Dear brothers: We have received the following important report: Our correspondent reports from Paris that a rumor is being circulated by diplomatic sources in the French capital saying that Saddam Husayn was killed in a short clash in his office.

This clash, which took place on the eve of last Thursday, resulted in the killing of no less than 28 from the two parties in the clash.

According to this information, Iraq is now being ruled by the council of the so-called Iraqi Revolution Council [as heard]. It is said that there is a bitter struggle going on between the two wings of the council -- the Taha Yasin Ramadan wing and the 'Izzat ad-Duri wing -- on taking over Saddam's responsibilities and authority, and that the council of the so-called Iraqi Revolution Council is blocking the report from spreading out of political considerations and out of fear of the spread of international unrest.

JALLUD-LED LIBYAN DELEGATION ARRIVES IN TEHRAN

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. At 1230 today a high-ranking Libyan delegation led by Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud arrived in Tehran on an official visit and for talks with the authorities of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

This high-ranking delegation, which comprises diplomatic, economic and banking officials and those from the Libyan Ministries [as heard] of Foreign Affairs, Agriculture, Industries and Guidance, was formally welcomed at Mehrabad Airport by Premier Mr Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, Minister of Islamic Guidance Mr Ma'adikhah, Petroleum Minister Mr Gharazi, and a group of high-ranking Iranian officials.

After inspecting the honor guard, Mr Jallud was welcomed by ambassadors of several countries including Mr az-Zawawi, Palestinian ambassador to Iran, and Mr Sa'd Mujbir, head of the Libyan People's Bureau in Tehran.

In an interview with the Voice and Vision of Iran Mr Jallud first expressed his gladness. He said: I am glad to come to the liberated land of Iran for the second time. Land which overcame the forces of world blasphemy and oppression under the leadership of Imam Khomeyni and with faith in Islam. He said: The victory of the Islamic Republic was the victory of Islam; it was the victory of all the world freedom seekers and the triumph of Eastern culture over the West.

He explained the aim of this trip as strengthening existing relations between Iran and Libya and giving wider dimensions to Islam's international role [as heard]. He said: We expect that one day Islam will stretch from Iran to Algeria, so that the holy places such as Mecca and Medina, Palestine and Jerusalem are liberated. Mr Jallud said: The victory of Islam is the triumph of freedom and humanity, and we have common aims.

Asked whether his trip is connected with the Arab summit and the role of the steadfastness front, he said: In our view Iran could play an active role in international events. Iran could take an effective and useful part in all our struggles.

Then in an interview with the Voice and Vision of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Prime Minister Musavi said: Our revolutions have always had special characteristics, especially now, since Lebanon and Palestine have been invaded and our revolution has also been attacked, this trip [words indistinct]. We expect to discuss the problems of the region, the Muslims and the issue of Jerusalem.

The prime minister stressed the role of Iran in the steadfastness front. He said: We have declared our support for that front. We will strive to strengthen our relations with that front, especially now that the war with Israel is at a climax.

Talks Begin

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. At 1830 today Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud, the second-ranking member of the Libyan Revolution Council and of the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriyah, who arrived in Tehran at noon today, arrived at the prime minister's office of the Islamic Republic of Iran and was warmly received by Mr Mir-Hoseyn Musavi.

Later, the two delegations headed by their respective prime ministers [as heard], held their first round of discussions.

The Iranian delegation includes Minister of National Guidance Ma'adikhah, Minister of Petroleum Gharazi, Governor of the Central Bank Nurbakhsh, Defense Minister Colonel Salimi, Minister of Industries Hashemi, Minister of State for Executive Affairs Aqazadeh, and officials from the Foreign Ministry and Ministry of Agriculture.

The Libyan delegation included the secretary of the General People's Committee for Agrarian Reform and Land Reclamation, Abu Zayd Durdah; the secretary of the General People's Committee for Light Industries, Musa Abu Furaywah; the secretary of the General People's Committee for Petroleum, Kamil al-Maqhur; the governor of the Central Bank, Rajab (as-Salladi); the secretary of the General People's Committee for Guidance [title as heard], Mohammad Ahmad Sharif, and other Libyan officials.

Mr Musavi said: The outstanding outcome of our combatants' victories are such that they can completely change the face of the region, and the Zionist and imperialist interest has been endangered as a result of these victories.

Commenting on the savage and aggressive attack launched by the Zionist regime on southern Lebanon, the prime minister said: The offensive has so far killed tens of thousands of Muslim people in Lebanon and the aim of the offensive is to put an end to Palestine and to its aspiration. We see no differences between the savage Israeli attack and the efforts in the region to consolidate the rule of U.S. elements.

We are going through a period in which Islam is facing the world of blasphemy and oppression. The oppressive regimes are afraid of the mere presence of Islam as the alternative and better regime for the world. It is quite natural to see the superpowers' conspiracies, including the imperialist-Zionist plot to show our war as a war between the Arabs and the Persians. The reactionary countries' mass media have given Saddam extensive assistance and Western and the U.S. mass media have also come to assist Saddam. Efforts have been made to identify the interest of the Islamic revolution of Iran, which is the interest of the world Muslims, with the interest of Israel. Right from the start we could detect the alliance between Iraq and the powers associated with the United States.

Mr Musavi added: By the way, who are Iraq's friends? Morocco, that is a U.S. base; Sultan Husayn, whose attachment to Zionism and to the United States is as clear as the sun; Husni Mubarak, no one can doubt his treason against the Muslims' and Arabs' aspirations and no one has any doubt about the relations between Saudi Arabia and Sudan in the [word indistinct] world.

In reply, Mr Jallud, while introducing his delegation, said: There are young officers here who staged revolution and entrusted the Libyan revolution to the Libyan people. I take pride in stating that I am in my own country. I do not want to name Iran as my second home. In fact I consider Iran as my main country. In 1969 [as heard] we declared that the Iranian revolution was also the Libyan revolution because the Koran is the basis of our revolution. Following our revolution we expelled the Americans and the Italians and safeguarded our national interests.

At 1930 the specialized committees were formed and these committees are due to begin their deliberations tomorrow morning.

Before today's meeting Mr Gharazi, the minister of petroleum, told me that the main issue of discussions is transfer of oil technology to Libya. We will also be discussing current OPEC issues with the aim of coordinating our two policies and we hope to outvote the reactionary members of OPEC.

Also commenting on the Iranian-Libyan talks, Mr Nurbakhsh told me that the topics of discussion with the Libyan officials will include mutual cooperation in banking, joint investment for the establishment of a bank abroad, coordination of the two nations' stands, international finance and the IMF.

JANA Report

LD131536 Tripoli JANA in English 1421 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, Shaaban 29, June 13, JAMAHIRIYAH NEWS AGENCY -- Staff Major 'Abd as-Salam Ahmad Jallud said the Great Al Fatih and Iranian Islamic revolutions could act as the cornerstone of the international Islamic revolution that will topple established thrones, end reaction and start the march towards jihad (holy war) for realising dignity and honour for the world's oppressed peoples.

In a speech delivered at the first session of the Libyan-Arab-Iranian talks, Staff Major Jallud stressed the importance of true strategic solidarity between the two revolutions.

He pointed to the courageous stands taken by the Libyan Arab peoples towards the Iranian people during the shah's reign. He said the Libyans were the only people who expressed solidarity with Iran's Moslems in their struggle against the shah's rule. He said the Libyans took this decision after declaring their clear position against the shah, hostile forces, the SAVAK and the U.S., and in support of the Iranian people.

He said the Libyans refused to believe assertions that the shah is Iran's fate because he was supported by the U.S. In fact, the Muslim Iranian people were capable of gaining victory over the shah's tanks and SAVAK's terror.

He went on to say that the victory of the Iranian people over the shah was in reality the triumph of the Eastern civilization, i.e., Islamic civilization, over that of the West.

He then pointed to fears expressed by West European circles regarding the Great Al Fatih Revolution threat on the materialistic civilization of the West, stressing that when the great revolution gave a blow to U.S. imperialism by evacuating U.S. and British military bases, fascist Italians and nationalizing oil, the fears of a number of Western thinkers emerged. They said that real Libyan danger does not only lie in the evacuation of bases and nationalization of oil, it heralds an Islamic resurgence threatening the Western civilization.

Staff Major Jallud then reviewed the U.S. imperialist and reactionary conspiracies against the Iranian Islamic revolution and stressed the necessity to establish joint Islamic institutions between the two brotherly countries to serve the objectives of Muslims everywhere, confronting the common enemy.

He also discussed Zionist barbaric invasion of Lebanon and stressed that it is the outcome of a U.S.-Zionist-reactionary conspiracy.

IRNA INTERNATIONAL SATELLITE NETWORK LINE OPENS

LD102114 Tehran IRNA in English 2009 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 10 June (IRNA) -- The first line of the international satellite network of IRNA opened this morning.

The line will enable the news agency to send news to its six major branches in various parts of the world simultaneously with Tehran, via London. Direct contacts with news agencies of brother and friendly countries will also become possible.

Prior to the victory of the Islamic revolution of Iran, only Western news agencies, attached to the cancerous network of news imperialism, enjoyed such privileges.

The opening of the line is the third phase of expanding the overseas activities of IRNA. In the past one and half years, IRNA has established more than 18 branches and the transmitters of the news agency operate over 16 hours a day. At present five overseas bureaus of IRNA put out daily bulletins.

OPPOSITION PAPER ON ANTI-ARAB IRANIAN BROADCASTS

[Text] At a time when the people of Iran are drowning in a sea of difficulties and bottlenecks stemming from the long war with Iraq and when, for decades to come, our homeland will have to bear the brunt of economic and social losses resulting from this war, the Islamic Republic continues its instigations in the Persian Gulf and its interventions in other countries' affairs for the sake of continuing its rule.

Among these instigations is the setting up of radio transmitters opposing various Persian Gulf countries and the daily broadcasting of programs against Arab governments in the Gulf of Oman region. These transmitters, with such names as "the Voice of Free Kuwait" and "the Voice of Free Bahrain," broadcast from Iranian territory and constantly instigate these countries to revolt and overthrow their rule.

The Islamic Republic needs such instigations and propaganda to deflect Iranian public opinion from its own shortcomings. In addition, the Islamic Republic is training other countries' terrorists in subversion in camps in Iran, terrorists who are sent to other countries to "export the revolution."

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- The fronts around Beirut were calm early on 15 June, although the Israelis had tightened their siege of the eastern and southern approaches to the capital, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. The previous day IDF units took up positions east of the capital in areas controlled by the Phalangist Lebanese Front and also moved to within 2 km of the Sabra and Shatila refugee camps, according to Beirut radio reports. While AFP said the Israelis had cut the road between Beirut and the international airport, a military statement broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed that Palestinian, Lebanese and Syrian forces retained control of the airport. However, in a press conference broadcast by IDF radio, Israeli Chief of Staff Lt Gen Refa'el Eytan said Israeli forces now control the airport although they are not inside it.

The IDF handed a captured Syrian position near B'abda over to the Phalangists, who welcomed the Israeli presence in the Christian sector, according to Jerusalem radio and television reports. An IDF communique carried by ITIM noted that 24 Palestinians were killed in an engagement with the IDF in eastern Lebanon. Many more have surrendered to the IDF both in the south and near Beirut, according to Jerusalem and IDF radios. Jerusalem radio's Arabic service said Syrian and Israeli tank units clashed on the Damascus-Beirut highway. Israeli paratroopers engaged a 200-strong Libyan unit near Beirut, according to Jerusalem radio.

Israeli Comment, Intentions -- The "terrorists" are on their knees, and crumbling, Israeli Chief of Staff Eytan said in a news conference broadcast by IDF radio. Their main establishment in Beirut is destroyed and they are cut off from sources of aid. Nevertheless they have displayed good fighting ability and self-sacrifice, Eytan continued. He also said that while the Syrian ground forces were obstinate, their air force showed a low level of skill. According to an IDF radio report, Eytan claimed that Syrian losses included 1,000 casualties and 60 captured, as well as 300 tanks, 85 aircraft and 19 SAM batteries destroyed. The terrorists sustained 2,000 dead and 6,000 captured, he added. Approximate Israeli losses are 170 dead, 700 wounded and 10 prisoners, Eytan noted.

Meanwhile, Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin said in remarks broadcast by Jerusalem radio that Israel wants a cease-fire on all fronts and in all sectors. The cease-fire with the Syrians has held, Begin asserted, and there are grounds to believe the "terrorists" will cease fire soon. Earlier, Begin told the Knesset Defense and Foreign Affairs Committee that the IDF does not intend to occupy or enter Beirut, Jerusalem television said. Begin also rejected Alignment criticism of air force bombardments of civilian areas.

Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said the main moves of the war are over. Speaking in a Jerusalem television interview, he said Israeli forces have now achieved their objective of guaranteeing the 45-km strip north of the Israeli border. He claimed Israel has no interest in intervening in Lebanon's internal affairs, which Lebanon must decide how to run. Noting the possibility of political changes in Lebanon, he said the wisest step the Lebanese Government could take would be to demand that all foreign armies and "terrorists" organizations leave the country so Lebanon can emerge as a sovereign and independent state possibly allied to Israel.

National Salvation Body -- The formation of a national salvation body that would be under the Lebanese president and would assist him in confronting the present situation was announced in a statement issued by the Presidential Directorate General, Beirut radio reported. The radio said the group included Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan, Deputy Prime Minister Fu'ad Butrus, Amal movement leader Nabih Birri, Lebanese Front Military Commander Shaykh Bashir al-Jumayyil and Lebanese Progressive Socialist Party leader Walid Jumblatt. Voice of Lebanon radio subsequently reported that a scheduled meeting of the body did not take place because of the "intransigence" of some sides. The radio reported that Walid Jumblatt did not approve of the body in its proposed form and that he prefers that the group be more "comprehensive" in the national, Christian and Muslim sectors. Officials are continuing their contacts in order to achieve a common denominator, the radio noted.

Diplomatic Activity -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib arrived in Damascus for talks with Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad, according to Monte Carlo radio. Beirut radio later reported Habib's arrival in Lebanon where he met with Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis.

Meanwhile, according to Jerusalem radio, Egypt again asked Israel to cease fire in Lebanon. The radio said Egypt's ambassador to Israel informed the Israeli Foreign Ministry that the PLO is interested in a cease-fire at any time Israel sets. However, the Foreign Ministry replied that Israel will not negotiate with the PLO and that Israel will cease fire when the firing against its forces stops. Egyptian Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Butrus Ghali said Egypt is continuing its efforts to help the Palestinians achieve a cease-fire and to ensure a complete Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon, MENA reported. MENA later reported on a 3-hour meeting between Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali and Secretary of State Alexander Haig during which the two men discussed an Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon. 'Ali described his talks with Haig as "fruitful" and said the two sides focused on the "importance of preserving the cease-fire."

Soviet Measures -- The Soviet ambassador to Lebanon has disclosed that Soviet warships, including a nuclear submarine, are heading for the eastern Mediterranean and that the Soviet Union has established an airlift with Syria to assist the Syrian and Palestinian forces, AFP reported citing Palestinian sources. Meanwhile, the Voice of Palestine noted the Soviet warning to Israel that the events in the Middle East concern Soviet interests and that the Soviet Union stands by the Arab struggle not only with words but with deeds.

Arab Stands -- In a cable to PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat carried by the Voice of Palestine, Saudi King Fahd declared that Saudi Arabia will not hesitate to do all it can to force the Israelis to withdraw to their international border.

During a meeting with Libyan Armed Forces officers, Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi stressed that had it not been for "geographical reasons", Libya would have transported its resources to the fighting in Lebanon, Tripoli Voice of Arab Homeland radio reported. He added that such action must be left to countries geographically adjacent to Israel. Al-Qadhdhafi went on to praise the "heroic role of Syrian air and naval forces."

According to Jerusalem radio, Jordan would be prepared to allow Yasir 'Arafat to carry out political activity in Jordan on the condition that no armed Palestinians are on its soil. Citing a Jordanian source, the radio said that as part of a confederation between the West Bank and Jordan, Amman would be amenable to putting 'Arafat in charge of West Bank affairs if he recognized the primacy of Jordanian rule.

Saudi-Egyptian Relations

After offering his condolences to the royal family on the death of King Khalid, Egyptian President Husni Mubarak and King Fahd exchanged cordial words during a 75-minute meeting between the two leaders, MENA reported. According to SPA, the meeting was also attended by the delegation that accompanied Mubarak to Riyadh as well as by Crown Prince 'Abdallah and Prince Sultan. In a statement prior to his return to Cairo, Mubarak affirmed his close ties with King Fahd and declared that the two men are "wholeheartedly linked" despite the current rupture of relations, MENA reported. Mubarak stressed how much his visit to Riyadh meant to him personally and to the Egyptian people. The Egyptian president underscored his close ties with Crown Prince 'Abdallah and the other Saudi princes and added that there is a common understanding on all issues.

NEW TIMES: U.S. RESPONSIBLE FOR ISRAELI 'CRIMES'

LD130602 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0418 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] Kabul, June 12, BAKHTAR -- Denouncing the beastly invasion of Israel over Lebanon, the people of Afghanistan call for endeavours by the peace-loving countries for the implementation of the recent decision adopted by the UN Security Council in this regard and once again express their decisive solidarity with the militant Palestinian heroes and the patriotic people of Lebanon, writes Kabul NEW TIMES in an editorial titled "Hands Off Lebanon".

The notorious U.S. imperialism, the closest ally of Israel, is primarily responsible for the crimes of Israeli Zionism and for the aggression of the latter in the Middle East, especially in south Lebanon.

History testifies that the militant people of Palestine and the patriots of Lebanon will not give up their just struggles for the restoration to the Arabs occupied lands and for the Palestinians. They will fight every plot and conspiracy of Israel and the U.S. world devouring imperialism.

These bandits had been plundering and killing people and burning schools and mosques in those areas.

The people of Karan and Munjan, who were fed up with these bandits, welcomed the arrival of the security forces and showed them the hideout of the bandits.

WALI KHAN PROPOSES TO DIRECT AFGHAN-PAKISTANI TALKS

GF141741 Kabul in Urdu to South Asia 1330 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] The fighter leader of the Pashtun people, and leader of the National Democratic Party [of Pakistan], Khan Abdul Wali Khan, in a recent interview with the Pakistan daily MUSLIM, said that he made a proposal to the Pakistani Government to hold direct talks between Pakistan and Afghanistan. However, the Pakistani Government did not accept the proposal, although direct talks between the parties could help resolve the dispute regarding the situation around Afghanistan.

Wali Khan said: As Pakistan will not tolerate interference in its domestic affairs, so Afghanistan has similar views, and the problem should be looked at from that angle because all sovereign countries want to settle their domestic problems themselves.

Wali Khan, expressing his views on the situation around Afghanistan, said that this problem has been created by U.S. imperialism, the Arab conservative elements and Pakistan. Wali Khan said the peace proposals made by Afghanistan are realistic because the Afghan leaders are sincere in trying to solve the problem around Afghanistan.

Wali Khan warned that if the Pakistani Government does not agree to solve the problems connected with Afghanistan through direct talks and imposes a war on Pakistani people to achieve its own militarist objectives, it will achieve few results.

He said Pakistan has already had the bitter experience of several wars. Because the Pakistani people do not want (?conflict) with the Afghan people, the Pakistani Government must hold direct talks with the Afghan leaders to find a solution to the Afghan problem through talks.

Wali Khan said that the military regime, which 5 years ago seized power through a coup d'etat, objects to having talks with what is a legal government in Afghanistan.

Wali Khan, with regard to the terrorists -- that is, the enemies to the revolution in Afghanistan -- has said that these people have no right to interfere in the domestic affairs of Pakistan. Wali Khan said if these people are really refugees, as they claim, why do they not divide and go to other towns in Pakistan? Why have they concentrated around Peshawar, in Baluchistan and the territories around it? Wali Khan added that during his recent stay in Kabul he had seen that the people there were leading happy and contented lives and, in this regard, contrary propaganda by Western sources was baseless. He said the best example of peace and security prevailing in Afghanistan is that he himself went to and came from that country over the land route.

GANDHI PROPOSES FIVE-POINT DISARMAMENT PROGRAM

BK120614 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0240 GMT 12 Jun 82

[Text] India has proposed a five-point concrete program of action for disarmament. It calls for a freeze on nuclear weapons, immediate suspension of all nuclear tests and a binding convention on the nonuse of nuclear weapons.

In a message to the UN second session on disarmament Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi said all nuclear-weapon powers and their allies must help pull the world back from the precipice of a nuclear war. Mrs Gandhi's message was delivered by External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao at the UN special session last night.

Mrs Gandhi urged the great powers to start negotiations with determination to reach agreement on disarmament. She noted that never before has mankind as a whole faced the possibility of destruction by the weapons. She said the danger of a nuclear war is inherent in the very dynamics of the arms race. The prime minister suggested that disarmament negotiations must again revert to the task of achieving a treaty on general and complete disarmament within the agreed time frame (?as) was discussed between the United States and the Soviet Union in the early 60's. Besides, the United Nations and special agencies should take the lead in educating the public on the dangers of nuclear war and the harmful effects of the arms race on the world economy. The positive aspects of disarmament should be highlighted, Mrs Gandhi said.

In his address, Narasimha Rao made a fervent plea that international relations must not be pursued in terms of conflict and competition or for gaining supremacy in nuclear arsenals. Welcoming the recently announced resumption of strategic arms limitation talks between the Soviet Union and the United States, Rao pleaded for expanding the scope of these talks to cover all nuclear weapon systems. He said it was India's conviction that the focus on disarmament must be clearly directed on nuclear weapons and other weapons of mass destruction. Rao announced the contribution of 1 million rupees from India for the world disarmament campaign.

RAO RETURNS, VIEWS GANDHI VISIT TO U.S.

BK140322 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0240 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao has said that Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi's forthcoming visit to the United States is aimed at greater mutual understanding between the two countries. Addressing a press conference in New York before his departure for New Delhi, Rao said that there is always a scope for increase in economic cooperation between the two countries. The United States happens to be India's largest trading partner, he added.

Talking to an All-India Radio correspondent at Delhi airport on his arrival last night, Rao expressed the hope that some positive results will come out of the current UN special session on disarmament. He said the prime minister's message to the session was received with great acclaim. The points mentioned by Mrs Gandhi were discussed by the delegates with attention and at great length.

Narasimha Rao, during his 20-day foreign tour, also attended the meeting of the nonaligned bureau at Havana. He had also visited Bulgaria on his way to Cuba. Rao met UN Secretary General de Cuellar and other leaders.

Rao described the mammoth demonstration against armament in New York yesterday as unprecedented. About 700,000 people from all parts of the world joined the demonstration. It had a profound effect on the minds of the delegates, Rao added.

Asked about the Havana meeting, Rao said the declaration was quite comprehensive. The meeting stuck to the decision of holding the next nonaligned summit in Baghdad.

AFP: NUCLEAR COOPERATION WITH GDR TO BEGIN

BK120731 Hong Kong AFP in English 0716 GMT 12 Jun 82

[Text] New Delhi, 12 Jun (AFP) -- India and East Germany will shortly begin nuclear cooperation following talks earlier this week between a high-powered East German team and top Indian nuclear officials, the PRESS TRUST OF INDIA reported today.

Details of the talks were being kept secret but the agency said Indian atomic energy officials had told it that "some agreement" had been reached.

The East German team comprised Dr Harry Menz, director in the Ministry of Science and Technology, and Dr Heinz Hillmann, director-general of the East German Academy of Sciences.

The two had flown earlier this week to Bombay to meet Homi N. Sethna, chairman of India's Atomic Energy Commission. The East German officials refused to divulge details of their talks, PTI said.

India has the indigenous technology to set up any plant in the entire nuclear fuel cycle but is short of enriched uranium and heavy-water reserves, which the country imports.

Imports of enriched uranium have stopped following U.S. reluctance to continue supplies despite an agreement that runs till 1993. It was not clear in what area the East Germans would assist India.

The cultural centre is in the diplomatic enclave and managed by the Arab League, which has been informed of the "takeover."

Ambassadors of all Arab countries were also being told, the spokesman said.

"We entered the premises peacefully, and without much ado," he added.

YAQUB KHAN REMARKS AT UN SESSION REPORTED

BK110558 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 0200 GMT 11 Jun 82

[Text] At the United Nations, Pakistan has stressed the need for a comprehensive program for disarmament aimed at ending the arms race and ensuring the security of all countries.

Addressing the second special session of the UN General Assembly on disarmament yesterday, Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan said that the goal of disarmament cannot be achieved unless the member countries, by strictly adhering to the UN Charter, refrain from the use or threat of force and settle their disputes by peaceful means. He said that the settlement of international disputes is very important in achieving the objectives of disarmament. Pakistan has been participating in every effort aimed at establishing peace in its region.

He reiterated Pakistan's determination not to develop or acquire nuclear weapons. He said that Pakistan is prepared to explore with its neighbors any means to ensure nuclear nonproliferation.

On Afghanistan, the foreign minister said Pakistan has been making efforts for a political settlement of the Afghanistan crisis in accordance with UN resolutions and it has always cooperated with the UN secretary general in this regard.

He said that Pakistan welcomes the positive response expressed by India to the proposal for a pact on the nonuse of force. Success in this effort will herald a new era of peace and friendship between India and Pakistan.

The foreign minister said that Israel's shameful raid on Iraq's peaceful nuclear installations in June last year has further enhanced the nuclear threat to nonaligned and developing countries.

Referring to Israel's military action against Lebanon, the Pakistani foreign minister called for forcing the invader to end its aggression.

VELAYATI QUESTIONED ON LEBANON, IRAQ, NONALIGNED

LD141756 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Mr 'Ali Akbar Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs, participated in a news conference this afternoon with domestic and foreign reporters. He answered their questions about various international issues and about the situation in the region.

Concerning the Zionist regime's repeated attacks against southern Lebanon and the sending of the Islamic Republic of Iran's forces in order to confront the savage attacks of the regime occupying Jerusalem, our foreign minister said: We will put all of our power -- which is very great and immense -- at the service of the liberation of Palestine and occupied Jerusalem in the same way that, soon after the attack against southern Lebanon, practical steps were taken in accordance with the imam's decrees.

He added: The forces we have sent to Lebanon are the vanguard of the Islamic Republic of Iran's struggle against the Zionist regime. Our principled struggle will continue until the Islamic land which has been occupied is completely liberated.

Concerning collaboration with the steadfastness front, Mr Velayati emphasized the importance of extending relations between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the region and said: Our presence in the struggle against Zionism demonstrates that we are faithful in what we say. Our participation in any organization or any links we have with another country would depend on the decisions of the Islamic Consultative Assembly.

If the supreme council of the steadfastness front makes it clear that Iran's presence would strengthen the united front against imperialism, we will participate and we will not refrain from it.

Mr Velayati added: We do not make any distinction between Saddam's aggression against the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Zionist aggression against southern Lebanon. The struggles of our Muslim nation and their self-sacrifices have brought Saddam to the point of certain downfall. We shall not leave this work unfinished.

In connection with the internal situation in Iraq, he said: It is not unlikely that Saddam might be ousted by the Ba'thist Party. The united front of blasphemy supports people like Saddam and Michel 'Aflaq. What is important to them is the type of the government and the nature of the mercenaries. If imperialism and colonialism do this [replace Saddam Husayn], we warn them that the only regime and government that will be acceptable to the Islamic Republic of Iran is one in accordance with the wishes of the Iraqi people and in accordance with Islamic wishes and ideals.

Further Details

LD142056 Tehran IRNA in English 2024 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 14 Jun (IRNA) -- The minister of foreign affairs, Dr. Velayati, said here today Baghdad's making the right of transit for Iranian forces bound to Lebanon contingent upon Iran's agreement to an unconditional cease-fire was not acceptable to Iran, because it meant that in order "to stand against an aggression outside our territories we should accept another aggression against ourselves." Velayati, who was talking in an interview with the printed and broadcast media, noted that years before the culmination of the Islamic revolution, Imam Khomeyni had avowed that the annihilation of the Zionist regime was the Muslim's "principal strategic objective" and that Iran had welcomed this opportunity to "prove to the world that we are sincere in our promise and that we mean what we say".

Asked about the possibility of Iran's joining the steadfastness front, he said the issue was one which constitutionally had to be decided by the Majlis but that in the meanwhile if members of the front should request Iran's participation the Islamic Republic would act in an observer capacity.

Asked about the chances of the upcoming non-aligned summit conference likely to be held in Baghdad, he said many representatives of the movement in Cuba had said indirectly that they did not think Baghdad was secure for them and that they would not go to Iraq at the risk of their lives. He noted that even though the upcoming conference might be held in Baghdad it would be at a much lower level and with much less significance than the 1979 Cuba conference.

Asked about his evaluation of the latest developments in Saudi Arabia he said that the new government in that country seemed more likely to become closer to U.S. imperialism than to the Muslim's interests.

AFP Report

NC141617 Paris AFP in English 1555 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 14 Jun (AFP) -- Iranian troops now in Syria and Lebanon to help resist Israeli forces are the advance guard of "an immense force" from the Iranian Islamic Republic, Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati said here today.

Mr Velayati told reporters that Iran will continue its "fundamental" struggle against Israel "until all Islamic territories occupied by Israel have been liberated."

On the question of the appointment of Nabih Birri, head of the Shi'ite Amal movement, to the National Salvation Committee appointed by the Lebanese Government, Mr Velayati said Iran would "wait and see" the result of this "recent political action." The Iranian regime is dominated by Shi'ite Moslems.

Mr Velayati said he thought yesterday's death of King Khalid of Saudi Arabia was unlikely to lead to a fundamental change in Saudi policy.

"From what we know about (King) Fahd, Saudi policy will draw even closer to that of the United States'. This government, like preceding ones, will not pay any attention to the ideals of the Moslem people," he said.

Asked about speculation on the fate of Iraqi President Saddam Husayn, Mr Velayati said it was "not unlikely that imperialism and colonialism believe that by changing the pawn, they will keep the same tendency in power in Baghdad."

Mr Velayati said that the only government acceptable to Iran would be one that reflects the will of the Iraqi Moslem people."

MONTAZERI URGES MUSLIMS TO LIBERATE JERUSALEM

LD121410 Tehran IRNA in English 1040 GMT 12 Jun 82

[Text] Qom, June 12, IRNA -- Ayatollah Montazeri, in a meeting with Arab poets currently touring Iran, said for two years the United States, with all of its devilish power had kept the Islamic Republic of Iran engaged in the war with Iraq and imposed an economic boycott on the country. With the recapturing of the port city of Khorramshahr by the Islamic combatants, he continued, the U.S. instigated Zionists to attack the Lebanese Muslims. The U.S. had shown its nature, said Ayatollah Montazeri, by vetoing the condemnation of Zionists' attack in the U.N. He then quoted Zionist Prime Minister Begin as saying: "We have attacked south Lebanon on the order of the U.S."

Ayatollah Montazeri thanked the Arab poets for their attendance on the warfronts and for encouraging the Islamic combatants. He said that though the Islamic combatants had recaptured the port city of Khorramshahr their job was not yet finished. He added that Al-Aqsa belonged to all of the Muslims of the world and for its liberation all Muslims were responsible.

Ayatollah Montazeri said that as the European Christians marched on foot, captured and ruled Palestine for approximately 150 years, the Iranian Muslim combatants must all march towards Al-Quds and other Muslims of the world should follow them for Al-Quds' liberation. "Do not expect Al-Quds to be liberated by Khalids and King Husayn," said he. Woe to the Muslims if they sit and the Zionists continue their expansionist aims each day, he concluded.

[Unattributed commentary: "Idolatrous Regimes Oppressing the Muslims Are Israel's Main Source of Power; Therefore, They Should Be Hit First"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: The rulers of the so-called State of Israel, which is composed of a group of contemporary highwaymen, are gradually intensifying their 35-year-old stance of bullying in the Middle East and moving with unrestricted insolence to commit new crimes in order to find an excuse for their original crime -- a mentality which is characteristic of murderers. While engaged in all this, the rulers of Israel are not only challenging the poor peoples of the Middle East but are also defying the Islamic nation, the sons of the prophet who make up a great society of more than 1 billion people.

Regrettably, in the face of all this, many of those who rule hundreds of millions of Muslims are maintaining silence, regardless of their hypocritical remarks in the past over the activities of Zionist Jews. In fact, looking into the eyes of their patron, the United States, they hint that nothing more should be expected from them beyond what the United States allows them to do.

It will be recalled that following Israel's incursion into Lebanon and its so-called heroic advance by crushing unarmed and defenseless people -- a development tantamount to new aggression in addition to the Islamic lands Israel has been occupying and usurping during the past 35 years -- a resolution submitted to the UN Security Council, which was set up to assist imperialist infidels and Zionism to achieve their objectives, was quickly vetoed by the United States. The resolution called for an immediate withdrawal by Zionist forces from Lebanon. Even if it had not been vetoed, it has long been common knowledge that the council lacks any power to put its resolutions into effect. This being the case, it can be said that a person who rides a horse regards it his own and a person who girds s sword believes it is his property.

The irony is that the regimes which rule the world Muslims, particularly the Muslims of the Middle East, have been purporting to be anti-Israel for years. However, their leaders are nothing but poor souls who have fallen into the embrace of imperialist infidels, particularly those of U.S. imperialism. This is the reason for the ugly tragedies that are currently taking place on Islamic lands, in fact historic developments regarding the fate of Muslims. Taking their past and current stand against Israel as a starting point, they purport to be an enemy of that country. However, each and every one of them is engaged in a show of alignment to every imperialist infidel. In fact, their relations with U.S. imperialism in particular are so close that anyone who is unaware of international developments would believe the United States is the greatest enemy of Israel. Of course, this is the normal impression desired in those who consider the situation as outsiders.

The tragically comic aspect of the question, however, is that the United States is not only Israel's ally but is also Israel's branch beyond the Atlantic Ocean in the full meaning of the word.

The puppet administrations in the Middle East, in total disregard of the fact that the Zionist highwaymen who established the Zionist State of Israel were actually settled on Islamic land with the cooperation of all imperialist infidel forces, are continuously purchasing arms from the superpowers to safeguard their beliefs, ideologies and interests which have taken form in accordance with the objection and approval of the infidels. The said purchase of arms is so great that the war industries of the superpowers operate around the clock at full capacity.

It must be noted that those who purchase the arms do not want it to be known that they cannot use them against any country without the approval of imperialist powers. They are actually piling up arms for crushing the struggle of the masses they rule. God willing, the day will come when neither their patrons nor the arms they buy will be able to save them.

As Imam Khomeyni has said, Muslims have no alternative but faith in God in the face of the political and spiritual disasters prevailing over them. If Muslims can [words indistinct] in God, the downfall of idolatrous regimes on Islamic lands will be unavoidable.

Reagan, who is a former actor and the current leader of U.S. imperialism, has felt the danger that is arising in Islamic lands. That is why he is moving to commit new crimes and realize new usurpations via the hand of Israeli highwaymen and murderers. That is why he has been talking about the need for new crusades, a remark he repeated in an address in Britain last night. Nevertheless, if the Muslims struggle in the name of God, the fate of the new crusades will be similar to those that took place in the past.

NVOI URGES CONSOLIDATION OF FRIENDSHIP WITH USSR

TA140908 [Editorial Report] The clandestine National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran at 1730 GMT on 13 June carried a commentary, entitled "How Can the Joint Plots of America and Israel Be Foiled?"

It said: The great Satan's illegitimate offspring, Israel, is this time engaged with the all-out support and assistance of world-devouring America in shedding the blood of innocent Lebanese and Palestinian women, men and children. Socialist countries, headed by the Soviet Union, anti-imperialist states, our Islamic Republic, member countries of the steadfastness front, national liberation movements and progressive mankind have raised their voices in protest against this brutal aggression and violence by the Israeli Zionists, and have demanded an immediate end to this aggression, the evacuation of occupied lands and the punishment of the aggressor Israel.

However, the leaders of some Arab states and of Islamic countries dependent on America and the West do not seem to be annoyed by this joint Israeli-U.S. aggression. One cannot see the slightest reaction by Ziaul Haq's Islamic Pakistan against this joint aggression by Zionism and imperialism. The Turkish regime has closed its eyes and ears in the face of this antihuman aggression. Moreover, in this aggression Egypt is at the side of the great Satan and the Zionist Israel, and has officially declared that in this war it will not take the slightest measure against Israel. Although the leaders of Saudi Arabia have protested the massacre of the Muslims by the Israeli Zionists, they continue to provide fuel for Israel's and America's military machines and to implement the great Satan's plan against the region's emancipated and anti-imperialist countries, including revolutionary Iran. "Instead of aiming its military power against Israel, Iraq is still engaged in massacring Iranian children, women and men by bombing our homeland's residential areas and towns."

This joint aggression by Israel and the United States on Lebanese territory should be an instructive lesson for the leaders of subservient Arab and Islamic states and should awaken them and make them understand that one day America is liable to deal with them the same way by means of Israel. At the same time, the impudent and brutal aggression by the Zionist Israel and U.S. imperialism against Lebanon's territorial integrity and national sovereignty should also awaken some of our government figures who are sincere but who are still under the influence of intimations by imperialist mass media.

They should understand that one of the current necessities for achieving final victory over world-devouring America and the Zionist Israel, simultaneously with the maintenance of unity of the nations of Islamic countries, is the consolidation of alliance and friendship with all anti-imperialist countries and national liberation movements, foremost of all with the Soviet Union.

Those who under pretext of the slogan "Neither East nor West" place socialist and anti-imperialist countries at the side of world-devouring America are in fact undermining the natural alliance between countries that are in bondage or liberated with the powerful camp of socialist and anti-imperialist countries. In order to safeguard the gains of the revolution, one should not be under the influence of superficiality, blind fanaticism and mental prejudice when dealing with the true friends and foes of the Iranian revolution, and should foil the joint plots of U.S. imperialism and the Zionist Israel by consolidating friendship with all the real friends of the revolution.

TEHRAN COMMENTS ON KING KHALID'S DEATH

[Unattributed commentary: "The King Is Dead, Long Live the King]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: King Khalid ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz Al Sa'ud, who ruled Saudi Arabia as shah for 8 years as a member of the Al Sa'ud dynasty, which has been oppressing the Arabian Islamic land, has died. King Khalid was the son of King 'Abd al-'Aziz ibn Al Sa'ud, who was the father of King Faysal and King Sa'ud -- the two predecessors of King Khalid -- and who established the Saudi regime with the help of the British.

There is a well-known proverb which Europe has used since the Middle Ages after the death of a king. Messengers inform the people about the death of a king by announcing the following: "The king is dead, long live the king." This is due to the fact that even if a king dies, the monarchy continues to exist and a new king immediately replaces the deceased. The best thing to say then is the following: "The king is dead, long live the king."

We can apply the same term in the case of King Khalid: The king is dead, long live the king.

We should note at this point that it is not our intention to discuss in detail the question of whether Islam permits monarchic systems. This is because there is no need to be preoccupied with absurdities. After this short explanation, let us return to our subject and discuss King Khalid's death and the king who will be his successor in the light of the proverb: The king is dead, long live the king.

King Khalid, who died today, ruled for 8 years as the head of the Sa'ud dynasty, a dynasty which placed all the human and natural resources of the Arabian Islamic land at the disposal of Western imperialism. In reality, he was probably the most pitiable member of the Sa'ud family. He had no power at all. The administration was in the hands of the pro-Zionist and pro-American Fahd, who was addressed as prince or heir to the throne and whose situation is unknown as of this writing. Nevertheless, it is expected that he will be the next to sit on the throne to replace King Khalid.

Furthermore, Khalid could also be described as lacking a sound sense of judgment. In fact, he became famous for his behavior, which was reminiscent of that of the convent dervishes, and for his frequent shedding of tears in the presence of those who called on him. Now he has died. May he get what he deserves from God.

As for the question of how he died, news agencies report that he had a heart attack. What has been reported could be true.

However, it will be recalled that when Khalid's predecessor, King Faysal, decided to challenge the United States and put his foot down on matters related to the 1973 war, he was stabbed to death by one of his relatives who was raised in the United States. The incident was linked to an insignificant difference within the family. It was presented as being carried out by a member of the Sa'ud family who was insane. It is, however, too early to say whether such a reality exists with regard to King Khalid's death. Nevertheless, although it is a strong possibility that Fahd will be Khalid's successor, new storms can be expected to rage within the 6,000-member Sa'ud family until a new equilibrium is established.

Yes, it is easy for the royalists to say "The king is dead, long live the king." However, it must be taken into consideration that the Arabian Islamic land, which houses Mecca and Al-Madinah, expects people to chant "Long live Islam" rather than "The King is dead, long live the king," and if U.S. imperialism does not have its finger in Khalid's death, as in the case of Faysal's death, then it is certain that it is currently uneasy and daunted by the incident that has caught it unawares. [sentence as heard] We therefore pray that the voice of the Muslims, who should not accept anyone's sovereignty except God's will rise at a time when a new balance is being set up, and that the Islamic land which houses Mecca and Jerusalem will be rid of the oppression and assault of exploitative forces.

LIBYAN PETROLEUM MINISTER ARRIVES IN ESFAHAN

LD141308 Tehran IRNA in English 1050 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Text] Esfahan, June 14, IRNA -- The Libyan oil minister, Kamil al-Maqhur, arrived in Esfahan Monday morning along with his entourage and the Iranian oil minister deputy, Dr. 'Abbas Honardust. They were welcomed by the province's governor general and a group of provincial officials.

Citing Sunday's speech by Imam Khomeyni on using oil as a weapon against the U.S. and its agents, the Libyan oil minister stated that the Muslims were not only involved in a war between the world of Islam and the Zionist regime, but also a direct war against the U.S. and its expansionist designs vis-a-vis the world's oppressed.

He added that the Islamic countries, through exporting oil to the U.S. and the Zionist regime, not only helped in launching the aggression against Lebanon, but also encouraged attacks against all the world of Islam and the Arab nation as well. Continuing his talk, Kamil al-Maqhur expressed his agreement with the imam's sayings and asserted that the Muslim nation should struggle against the U.S. and its agents.

Referring to his tour of the devastated city of Khorramshahr and the crimes committed and ruins created in this region by the Iraqi Ba'thist forces, Al-Maqhur, while praising the self-sacrificing morale of the defenders of Islam, added that the only capital Khuzestan presently had was the high morale of the committed and faithful combatants of Islam in fighting against their enemy.

The Libyan minister and his companions then went to the martyrs' cemetery and paid homage to those martyred in the course of the revolution and the Iraqi imposed war.

IRANIAN, INDIAN OFFICIALS DISCUSS TIES, LEBANON

LD132036 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] The Central News Unit reports that the political director general of the Indian Foreign Ministry, who is visiting Iran, yesterday met the political under secretary in the Foreign Ministry, Sheykh ol-Eslam. In the course of the meeting, also attended by the Indian ambassador, the Indian official said that his visit is to follow up the results achieved during Velayati's visit to India, expand bilateral relations and to become familiar with Iran's global view within its Islamic context vis-a-vis the region's sensitive situations and international issues.

Responding to these remarks, the Iranian Foreign Ministry under secretary, after explaining the Islamic Republic's stance in the region, said: The imam stated many years ago: Israel must be eliminated. We now say that Israel has no place on the world map. Iranian volunteers, shoulder to shoulder with other Muslim brethren, are ready to go into battle against the occupying regime in Jerusalem. We believe that this regime is serving as a stepping stone for America in order to dominate the region; therefore, it must be eliminated.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 944

LD141746 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 14 Jun 82

[Communique No 944 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The results of the efforts and self-sacrifices of the combatants of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran in the past 24 hours are brought to the attention of the beloved compatriots:

The lying mercenaries of the Iraqi Ba'thists yesterday morning brought the positions of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic in the Kushk area under their heavy-artillery fire; our strong and victorious forces returned fire on their artillery and personnel positions and silenced the Saddamists' fire, inflicting losses and casualties.

On the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts, the heroes of the navy and the brave personnel of the gendarmerie silenced the artillery and heavy-weapon fire of the Iraqi forces by bringing the enemy's positions and unit bases under artillery and heavy-weapon fire, thus destroying some positions and killing a number of enemy servicemen and halting the enemy fire. According to reports, the Iraqi forces suffered the destruction of five slit trenchs and foxholes and several vehicles and the death of more than 10 servicemen.

In the past 24 hours, fighting and exchanges of fire continued on most of the western fronts of the country between our victorious and powerful forces and the deceived Saddamist forces. As a result of the fire of the forces of Islam on the positions of the Saddamist infidels, several trenches of heavy and light weapons of the Iraqis were destroyed and two tanks and one 130-mm gun were also damaged. In a series of surprise attacks, the self-sacrificing combatants of the ground forces killed or wounded a number of the enemy personnel and set fire to and destroyed one fuel tanker.

The zealous combatants of the irregular tribal warfare units, as on past days, watched for any movement of the enemy and bravely and with full control inflicted losses and casualties on the enemy in their defense zone.

Exchanges of fire also continued sporadically between our combatants and the enemy in the areas guarded by the heroes of the gendarmerie in the west of the country; through the clash the forces of Islam enjoyed firepower superiority. In the Chenareh region of Qasr-e Shirin, the heroes of the gendarmerie in a clash managed to kill a number of the forces of blasphemy and to take an Iraqi officer prisoner.

Yesterday all the air raids of the intruding aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi Army were foiled by the air defense units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

RADIO IRAN REPORTS EXECUTION OF ARMY OFFICERS

GF101507 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Text] Two army personnel who are members of the National Resistance Movement of Iran [NRMI] told our reporter in Paris yesterday that six lieutenant colonels, three majors and one captain were recalled to Tehran from Khorramshahr and the surrounding sensitive areas on 27 May in order to supposedly receive commendations for their role in the Khuzestan war and the liberation of Khorramshahr.

The 10 officers were put in front of firing squads on the order of Mohammadi-Reyshahri, the army's revolution prosecutor, in Evin Prison on Sunday, 30 May.

The Islamic Republic has not yet mentioned the execution of 10 of the most zealous Iranian children. However, on the basis of information supplied by the two army officers of the NRMI to our correspondent, the executed were accused of objecting to the participation of the guards in operational planning and also of confrontation with the political-ideological officers of the units who are Khomeyni's spies in the army.

NATIONAL FRONT ASKS TO VISIT POW'S IN IRAQ

GF101811 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Text] The National Front representatives in Europe, in a cable sent to the United Nations last week, have asked for arrangements to be made in conjunction with the International Red Cross organization and other similar organizations for a meeting between the National Front representatives and Iranian POW's in Iraq.

The message also asks for the participation of foreign observers and international press representatives. The officials of the International Red Cross, in a reply which was received by the National Front office in Europe yesterday, have praised the suggestion and have announced that following contact with the Iraqi Red Crescent and a review of conditions for the visit, they will inform the representatives of the National Front of the results as soon as possible, in order to make the necessary arrangements.

GUARD ASSASSINATED ON HARAZ ROAD 8 JUNE

GF100630 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 9 Jun 82

[Text] Our correspondent in the Islamic Republic reported that at 0600 yesterday combatants, who probably had come from the mountains, killed one guard and wounded another named Mohammad Zardkuhi on Haraz road. Our correspondent reported the location as 5 km from Gazanak village, which is located 75 km from the city of Amol. The fighters left the scene following their partial success. The Islamic Republic has not yet reported the incident.

The wounded guard was taken to Tehran, even though it would have only taken 1 hour to reach the city of Amol from the scene of the operation. Our correspondent obtained the report from a driver of one of the cars, who carries passengers to the north.

It seems that the annihilation and wounding of the two guards occurred at the hands of the organization that is now becoming known as the Jangal movement. The authorities of the Islamic Republic announced the complete destruction of this organization following the occupation of Amol some months ago and the guerrilla operations on Haraz road. However, Lajvardi, Tehran's public prosecutor, in a press conference 3 weeks ago was forced to agree that in one case, 100 pardoned prisoners joined the Jangal movement.

CLANDESTINE REPORTS 2,000 CLERGYMEN ARRESTED

GF141630 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 13 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Free Voice of Iran reporter, about 2,000 clergymen, who were opponents of the anti-Islamic regime of the mullahs, have been arrested during the past 3 months.

The campaign of the Khomeyni regime against Ayatollah Shari'atmadari provided the regime with a fresh pretext for attacking the anti-Khomeyni clergy. Among the prominent clergymen who are being detained in Qom, including Ayatollah Shari'atmadari, are Ayatollah Hajj Hasan Tabataba'i Qomi, Ayatollah Ale-Shobeyr Khaqani and Ayatollah Hajj Mohammad Taqi Qomi.

Other persons, such as Ayatollah Golzadeh Ghafuri and Ostad 'Ali Tehrani, have been in hiding for a long time because the anti-Islamic regime of Khomeyni has imprisoned 2,000 clergymen of Iran in the past three months.

CLANDESTINE REPORTS KHAMENE'I-RAFSANJANI RIFT

GF091634 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 9 Jun 82

[Text] The meeting between Khamene'i and Rafsanjani and Khomeyni has attracted the attention of the well-informed in Tehran. According to our correspondent in Tehran who quotes Khomeyni's colleagues in Jamaran, in the meeting Khomeyni invited the two mullahs, the president and the speaker of his (?inauspicious) Majlis to establish an understanding and iron out their differences. He also threatened both of them with dismissal should they continue their disagreements.

Khomeyni went into a rage during the meeting and began shouting to such an extent that his son Ahmad finally had to intervene and ask him to calm himself down because of his heart problems.

The disagreements between Rafsanjani and Khamene'i have recently intensified; due to this, Rafsanjani did not attend the Friday prayers in Tehran last week and stayed home for a while sulking. The disagreement between these two mullahs stems from the war with Iraq, the economic policies of the government and the power struggle within the regime.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

16 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- Noting that the Arab Deterrent Forces (ADF) commander had received an Israeli ultimatum demanding the withdrawal of Syrian forces from Beirut, Damascus radio said the ADF will remain alongside their Lebanese and Palestinian brothers in confronting the Israeli invasion. Meanwhile, the Syrians engaged in artillery exchanges with Israeli forces advancing from B'abda toward the Ash-Shuwayfat area, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. While Monte Carlo radio said the Israelis had reopened fire at the Syrians, the IDF spokesman accused the Syrians and "terrorists" of renewing the fighting by firing at IDF positions east of Beirut airport, according to Jerusalem radio. Early on 16 June, Damascus radio accused Israel of continuing to violate the cease-fire and said the ADF and the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces had halted Israeli attempts to advance in some areas near Beirut. However, the IDF spokesman said Beirut was calm early on 16 June, IDF radio reported.

The previous day, an Iranian unit and some Jordanian volunteers arrived in the Al-Biqa' area, according to Monte Carlo radio. Israeli forces entered and purged the Ayn al-Hulwah Palestinian refugee camp near Sidon, killing 40-50 "terrorists" and freeing some hostages, IDF radio reported.

Both PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat and Palestinian Deputy Military Commander Khalil al-Wazir inspected the Palestinian positions in Beirut, according to reports by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio. Israeli Chief of Staff Lt Gen Refa'el Eytan told MK's visiting the eastern sector that 'Arafat is staying at the Soviet Embassy in Beirut, IDF radio noted.

Begin Remarks -- The United States and Israel are agreed that there should no longer be foreign armies in Lebanon, Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin said in a Jerusalem television interview prior to his departure for the United States. Asserting that Israel wants to withdraw from Lebanon, Begin said Israel requires political arrangements that will preclude further bloodshed occurring in or from Lebanon. The Syrian Army and the "terrorist" organizations have no business in Lebanon, Begin said. The "terrorist" organizations must be disarmed, he continued, and if they stay in Lebanon with the permission of the Lebanese Government, they should do so only as inhabitants, not as citizens, and without weapons. Israeli forces will meanwhile remain on the line 40 km north of Israel "until we solve the problem in its entirety." Asked about Israeli intentions toward the PLO leadership, Begin declined to divulge details but said the answer may be known by the time he returns from the United States. Israel does not plan to capture Yasir 'Arafat, Begin said, but wants 'Arafat "to be no longer able to command his armies." Likening the bombing of Sidon to the British bombing of Dresden in World War II, Begin said Israel will help rebuild Sidon and noted that the Cabinet has established a committee to coordinate welfare activity. He also called for peace talks with the Lebanese, Syrian and Jordanian leaders and claimed this is a "very good time" for an Israeli leader to speak to the UN General Assembly about disarmament and international peace.

On the same day, Begin told the Cabinet that Israel will use its control of the Damascus-Beirut highway as a political bargaining chip in future negotiations, Jerusalem radio reported.

Nationalist Movement Position -- During an emergency meeting the Lebanese Nationalist Movement formulated a statement calling for cooperation between the Lebanese state and all the forces eager to free Lebanon from Israeli occupation, the Voice of Palestine reported. Stressing that national salvation will be achieved only by the commitment of all to the demand for complete Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon, the statement asserted that the existing political authority should not be changed under current circumstances.

Diplomatic Activity -- During talks with U.S. envoy Philip Habib, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan affirmed Lebanon's official demand for an "immediate and unconditional" Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon, according to official sources cited by Beirut radio. Al-Wazzan cautioned that the continuation of the occupation might change many factors, which would not be in the interest of peace in the region. The radio later reported that Habib met with Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis. According to Voice of Lebanon radio, Habib also met with the commander of the Lebanese forces.

The question of Israel's unconditional withdrawal from Lebanon was "forcefully" raised during a meeting between Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali and Secretary of State Alexander Haig, MENA reported. In a statement to the Egyptian paper AL-AHRAM, cited by MENA, 'Ali said Egypt does not "equate" the withdrawal of the Israeli forces from Lebanon with a Syrian withdrawal. During the discussions 'Ali told Haig that the United States was "required" to see that a cease-fire is observed and work for an unconditional Israeli withdrawal; ensure that wounded Palestinians and Lebanese are evacuated; and see that Palestinian prisoners are treated as prisoners of war according to international law. AL-AHRAM said these "Palestinian requests" to the United States were the result of talks between PLO Executive Committee member Faruq Qaddumi and Egypt's permanent representative to the United Nations, according to Monte Carlo radio.

During talks with Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir, French President Francois Mitterrand insisted that Israel immediately withdraw its troops from Lebanon, AFP reported citing a presidential spokesman.

Soviet Involvement -- A Soviet military delegation led by the first deputy commander in chief of the Soviet Air Defense Forces has been in Syria for 3 days, according to the Qatari News Agency (QNA). The delegation is holding talks with Syrian military officials on ways to develop and promote the combat capability of the Syrian Air Force and air defense in light of the results of recent Israeli-Syrian air battles, QNA said. It added that another Soviet delegation led by an unnamed deputy foreign minister arrived in Syria on 15 June for several days of talks with Syrian officials.

According to Arab diplomatic sources cited by WAKH, the Soviet Union has warned Syrian leaders not to get involved in agreements with Israel via the United States. The Soviet warning said U.S. envoy Habib is trying to "neutralize" the international community.

A Jerusalem radio report said the Soviet Union has been airlifting military equipment to Syria for the past 5 days, although it noted that the airlift has not been on the scale used by the USSR in past crises. IDF radio cited Israeli political sources as saying recent Soviet steps in the region are "ineffective." The sources added that the presence of Soviet forces in the area is only intended to show Soviet involvement.

Libya

Relations With Saudi Arabia -- In a speech carried by Voice of Arab Homeland radio, Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi declared that "curses and disgrace" should be directed at Arab leaders who deal with the United States and Israel, who are led by the "pig of the Arabian Peninsula," Saudi King Fahd. Al-Qadhdhafi continues by saying that a strong hand must be extended to the forces of opposition in the peninsula and in all Arab countries which are suffering from reaction and fascism.

Relations With Iran -- Staff Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud and Iranian Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani agreed on the formation of an "Islamic liberation army" during talks in Tehran, Tehran radio reported. It added that further details on this matter would be discussed later by a joint commission. During the talks the two officials stressed the imminent downfall of the Iraqi president and the Ba'th Party in Iraq.

AFP: REBELS SUFFER 'SEVERE' DEFEATS IN NORTH

BK151656 Hong Kong AFP in English 1626 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] Islamabad, 15 Jun (AFP) -- The Afghan Moslem resistance recently suffered a number of severe defeats in the northern part of Afghanistan, Western diplomatic sources said here today.

According to information garnered in Kabul by diplomats, it is now established that Soviet/Afghan forces have succeeded in implanting themselves in the Panjsher Valley, previously totally controlled by the resistance.

The sources said that the success of the government offensive could have repercussions on the morale of the resistance and the civilian population and had already seriously hindered resistance movements in the region.

At the same time, it has eased transport problems for the government. Convoys carrying 500 containers of Western merchandise that had transited the Soviet Union arrived in Kabul during the week, diplomats say.

In the Panjsher, 100 km (about 62 miles) north of Kabul, the government has succeeded in implanting a militia made up of young men and women from Kabul, according to the same sources.

In Kabul, a number of prominent figures sympathising with the Panjsher resistance are said to have been arrested.

In northern Afghanistan, Soviet aircraft carried out a heavy airraid against the city of Tasuqorghan, killing part of the civilian population and routing the occupying mujahidin, according to the diplomats.

A similar operation is said to have inflicted a setback on the resistance movement in neighbouring Samangan Province.

In the Shamali, north of Kabul, a regional official of the Hezb-e Eslami Party is reported to have been killed earlier this month in a fight near the city of Kariz-e Mir.

However, according to information received in Kabul, Soviet/Afghan troops suffered worse losses than the resistance on that particular occasion.

There were a number of clashes in Kabul's outskirts during the week, but the guerrillas do not seem to have obtained any notable success, and the second congress of the "Fatherland National Front," the official mass organisation, was held without incident last Saturday.

On Sunday, a demonstration protesting the Israeli invasion in Lebanon brought 10,000 high school and university students together outside the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, according to the sources.

It is also reported that four Afghan Army officers and 12 militia were killed in fighting among themselves in a village near the Soviet Baghram Airbase after the militia tried to turn the local people against the officers by accusing them of being traitors.

TRANSPORT OFFICIAL ON BORDER TRADE WITH USSR

LD160650 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0418 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Text] Kabul, June 15, BAKHTAR -- "Over 400,000 tons of consignment were transfered and forwarded through three Afghan ports -- the Hairatan, the Sher Khan and the Torghundi, during the last year". The volume of transport and forward trade reached to 400,000 tons, that is, 25 per cent more than in 1980, said Dr. Shams Samadi, president of the AFSOTR transport and forwarding company in an interview with the Kabul NEW TIMES recently.

86 per cent of the foreign trade commodities pass via the Hairatan port. The exchange of commodities in this port has shown a 42-3 per cent increase last year.

This increase has been caused by some necessary decisions taken by the Soviet Union in providing material and technical assistance to the Afghan ports. According to these decisions, the Soviet side has provided additional technical instruments such as crimes and other mechanical instruments to the Afghan side.

At present, the company possesses 406 trucks, and a contract on purchasing 100 more trucks was signed recently between the company and the Avto-Export Union of the Soviet Union, so that the number of trucks will soon reach to [figure indistinct]. Most of these trucks are of the MAZ-504 type.

After the victory of the Sawr Revolution, the counterrevolutionary forces and the elements attached to imperialism and reactionary circles have resorted to desperate efforts to materialise their ominous plans and to impede the development of economic life of the country. They therefore very often attack transport caravans, setting fire to trucks, annoy the noble and patriotic drivers and cleaners, and pose numerous obstacles to transporting foodstuffs and other necessities for the people and merchandise.

But, despite all these difficulties, our noble and patriotic transport staff, especially our drivers and cleaners have succeeded in transporting essential commodities and basic necessities of the people without very much delay.

After the victory of the Amu Darya (Oyus River) and its importance in transfering of commodities and further facilities for goods transportation, the president of the AFSOTR said: "The tie between the DRA and the Soviet Union has deep and fundamental roots and these friendly ties are firm and confident. Commissioning of the friendship bridge is another step taken towards the further consolidation of good-neighbourly relations between the DRA and the Soviet Union and is an outstanding example of this fraternal, real and friendly relations of the toiling peoples of the two countries.

Speaking at a press conference, the ambassador, 'Ali Heydari-Khahpur, did not elaborate on how the Iranian soldiers arrived or whether there had been clashes with Israeli forces. Mr Heydari-Khahpur also said more Iranian forces would be sent to Lebanon.

PLO EMBASSY CALLS FOR VOLUNTEERS AGAINST ISRAEL

GF151147 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0900 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] The Palestinian Embassy in Tehran has made the following call to the Muslim masses in Iran:

In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. Our Muslim brothers in Iran: In its bombing by air, land and sea, the enemy has destroyed most of our camps and shacks in Lebanon. The joint forces, Amal movement and our Palestinian and Lebanese people have been facing a war of annihilation for 11 days. Thousands have been killed or wounded, hundreds of thousands have become homeless, and dozens of inhabited buildings have been demolished on top of their occupants.

Beirut is besieged from the sea, air and land. Our heroic steadfastness has destroyed more than 350 enemy tanks and killed more than 3,000 Zionists, among whom were a number of senior enemy leaders, in addition to capturing hundreds of enemy personnel.

Is it not time to see that what we are suffering for concerns the Arabs and Muslims? We are expecting news from the heroes of the Islamic Republic of Iran fighting against the Zionist enemy and the news of their victory over this enemy.

More than a week ago we said, Muslim brothers in Beirut, Sidon, Tyre and Ad-Damur, we are waiting for you. So when will you arrive to help us change the face of the history of this Islamic world which is incurious about all that is going on? We do not only expect that the Iranian Muslim blood will mix with ours, but we expect that Muslim Iran will start with all its leverage, principles and values the course of liberating Jerusalem and supporting those who are martyred in Lebanon on the road to liberating Jerusalem.

We have been creating epics of steadfastness for 11 long full days, while the regimes of the Arab and Islamic world stand divided among those who are silent, those who are watching and those who are conspirators waiting for the end of the revolution and its torch bearers.

Dear brothers in the army, guards, and recruitment offices: All our people and all our steadfast fighters are waiting for you, and all the Muslim peoples are waiting for the news of your victories, so when shall we hear the news of your struggle and victories?

ISLAMIC LIBERATION MOVEMENTS SEMINAR ENDS

LD151024 Tehran IRNA in English 0904 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 14, IRNA -- The seminar of the Islamic liberation movements concluded its work today in Tehran by releasing a resolution. Declaring support for the Islamic revolution of Iran and its leadership, the resolution reaffirmed that the attending liberation movements would try to expand their struggle against world oppression on the basis of the Islamic revolution's policies.

According to the leading committee of the seminar composed of Islamic ulema, the acceptance of the leadership of Imam Khomeyni by all Islamic schools of thought was permitted, the resolution added. The mobilisation of the world's Muslims to struggle against Zionism was vital for the world-wide Islamic movement, the resolution said while condemning the Zionist aggression against Lebanon. Condemning conciliatory designs, such as the Camp David accord and the Fahd plan, as well as any compromising cease-fire with the Zionist regime, the resolution supported a continuous liberation struggle against U.S. imperialism and international Zionism.

Reaffirming the Islamic revolution of Iran as a strategic focus for the world-wide Islamic movements against imperialism and Zionism, the resolution approved the proposal of Ayatollah Montazeri to establish a united Islamic front, composed of the oppressed masses and the Islamic liberation movements.

The resolution suggested the establishment of an ideological-political movement capable of extensively propagating the ideology of the Islamic revolution to mobilise the world's deprived masses. Supporting the Islamic liberation movements of the Asian, African and Latin American peoples as well as the just struggles of the Irish people and Black Americans, the resolution said granting aid to these strugglers was an Islamic duty.

Condemning nationalism, chauvinism and racism, the resolution called on the deprived nations and world Muslims to unite on the basis of Islamic principles in order to fight against the world oppression.

The resolution urged the non-Islamic nations to join the anti-imperialist front for the sake of achieving social justice, peace and freedom.

The resolution concluded by calling for the creation of a mass madia system and information campaign for the world's oppressed to help them confront world oppression and a common economic framework which would promote the common economic interests of the anti-imperialist movements on the basis of Islamic principles.

This seminar started its sessions on June 8th.

MINISTRY DENIES ROLE IN UN AFGHAN TALKS

LD151734 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Statement issued on 15 June by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Muslim Iranian nation: Today international news agencies transmitted a report about the participation of the representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran in the special UN committee in Geneva for finding a solution to the crisis in Afghanistan. This report is false.

The rumor has been spread by the enemies of the Islamic revolution of Iran and of Afghanistan and its aim is to destroy the aspirations of the two nations.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran, decisively denying this report, hereby announces that it will not take part in any committee or conference in which the true representatives of the Muslim nation of Afghanistan are not present. While emphasizing the principles which have been announced before, the ministry stresses that the Muslim nation of Afghanistan are the people who have to take the final decision for solving the problem of Afghanistan.

NVOI ASSAILS IRANIAN PROPOSALS ON AFGHAN PROBLEM

[Unattributed commentary: "On the Talks About Afghanistan"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As you are aware, on 16 June the first round of talks between the envoy of the secretary general and delegations from Afghanistan, Pakistan and our Islamic Republic are to take place in Geneva at the UN office in the Palace of Nations about the Afghan problem.

Agreement was reached with regard to these talks at the beginning of this year in the course of the visits by the UN secretary general's deputy on political affairs to Islamabad, Kabul and Tehran.

Reportedly the talks must continue a process whose aim is the achievement of an all-out settlement with regard to four issues on the agenda. These are: the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Afghanistan, noninterference in the internal affairs of countries, international guarantee in connection with noninterference, and the voluntary return of Afghan fugitives.

Reportedly, Mr Velayati, our homeland's minister of foreign affairs, does not wish Iran to participate in these talks, whereas the normalization of relations with Kabul is not only in the interests of the Afghan nation -- which under the leadership of its government is advancing toward the construction of a new life for the deprived and the oppressed of society -- but at the same time is one of the tasks and goals of our revolution and Islamic Republic.

A joint enemy was and is confronting the revolutions of our homeland's people and the Afghan nation, and that is U.S. imperialism. Above all, U.S. ruling circles perceive in the visage of our nation's revolution a fatal blow to their military and strategic positions in the Near and Middle East, and the loss of a regime that was the best friend and ally of world-devouring America. Since the very first days of our nation's revolution the Americans resorted to various plots and ruses. They sent and are sending their professional killers, spies and saboteurs to revolutionary Iran.

The United States is pursuing this same stance and policy with respect to Afghanistan. In Afghanistan, too, the mercenary bands and the professional killers operate in the same manner that the counterrevolution operates in our Islamic Republic. The only difference is that the counterrevolution's dregs in Iran operate against the Islamic revolution and the imam's line, and in Afghanistan they perpetrate all their crimes, bloodshed and subversions under the guise of religion and Islam. U.S. elements in Afghanistan plot against the legal government of the deprived and oppressed of this country -- which is similar to our country's government -- under the banner of the guardians of Islam or so-called mujahidin on the path of religion.

Mr Babrak Karmal, Afghanistan's leader, has repeatedly said that our country and nation persistently demands the consolidation and expansion of mutual friendly relations and cooperation with Islamic fraternal nations and countries in the joint struggle for general peace, disarmament, human rights and human progress. The Afghan Government has repeatedly proposed to our Islamic Republic the holding of talks aimed at drafting an agreement in connection with the expansion of friendly relations and all-out cooperation on the basis of mutual interest, including commercial questions, economic cooperation, transit and cultural relations -- namely, the normalization of relations in all fields.

Now, let us see what the response of our country's officials has been to all these proposals. So far, with respect to Afghanistan, our country's authorities have put forward different plans and various proposals which in fact are compatible with the hostile intentions of international imperialism and opportunistic and reactionary forces in the region, all of whose efforts are aimed at stifling the revolution of the oppressed in Afghanistan. Those who put forth such plans believe that they can impose the political system of their own favor upon the Afghan nation. Wittingly or unwittingly, they are striving to impose on the Afghan nation a government consisting of the representatives of the most reactionary strata of the clergy and court preachers who serve imperialism, and to actually bring Afghanistan under the occupation of foreigners or the United States through the use of so-called Islamic peace-keeping forces.

Such unrealistic views and plans can only be raised by certain persons who are unaware of Afghanistan's history and its long struggles against various forms of foreign occupation. Without doubt such so-called plans are indicative of the futile attempt of certain circles who want to build Afghan society on the basis of fogyish ideas and the plans favored by the region's reaction and world-devouring America.

It seems that these circles want to impose their views about the political system and the role of religion upon all the world. Such an attitude toward international problems and the current issues of nations will without doubt have a tragic ending. Such an attitude cannot constitute a basis and foundation for a fruitful discussion, and is categorically and decisively rejected not only by the Afghan nation and our own nation, but also from the viewpoint of other Islamic nations which are expressing solidarity with the Afghan nation's popular revolution.

It seems that some of the authorities, wittingly or unwittingly, are in the same trench with those who do not spare any effort to strike at the Afghan revolution. The continuation of such a policy will actually mean that in the Afghan problem certain individuals in the Islamic government are placing our country in the same front with Pakistan, China, Egypt, Israel and Saudi Arabia -- namely, these sworn foes of the Iranian revolution -- and with the regimes supported by the United States.

KHOMEYNI, MAHALLATI DISCUSS ARMED FORCES

LD152106 Tehran IRNA in English 1951 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 15, IRNA -- Imam Khomeyni, the leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran, emphasised the necessity of the complete political independence of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran when talking to Hojjat ol-Eslam Mahallati, the reporter quoted the reporter of the Defence Committee of the Majlis on Monday.

Mahallati quoted the leader of the revolution to the effect that the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran should not have any membership in any political groups.

Ayatollah Mahallati continued that in his meeting with the founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran he had presented a report on the re-organisation of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran and on the inspection tour of the Defence Committee of various parts of the defence industries, garrisons and political-ideological offices of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Imam Khomeyni gave guidelines concerning each area, concluded Mahallati.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 945

LD151736 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Communique No 945 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran are sincerely respecting their bloody allegiance to the imam and the people. They are ready to sacrifice their lives and belongings in order to carry out their divine duties for the benefit of Islam, society, virtue and morality and in order to free the oppressed and the suffering deprived people of the world from the filthy and criminal claws of the world arrogance and its corrupt mercenaries.

According to a report from the Navy of the Islamic Republic of Iran, at 1003 this morning a reconnaissance vessel belonging to Iraq was hit by fire from one of our helicopters south of the Al-Bakr jetty and was destroyed.

Exchange of fire continued in the western operational sectors of the country during the past 24 hours. On every front of this sector, the enemy suffered loss and damage. In the Paveh sector, our artillery units returned enemy fire. Our artillery fire on the Saddamist positions in this sector prevented their road-building activities inside Iraqi territory and set fire to a troop assembly point. Several Iraqi troops were killed or wounded.

The combatants of Islam returned enemy fire in the Meymak, Sumar, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb sectors. These warriors, while defending their own positions, destroyed one tank and three other vehicles belonging to the Saddamists. Enemy casualties in these sectors included about 60 dead and 40 wounded. Also in the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab sector, two enemy ammunition dumps were set on fire and destroyed.

Exchange of fire continued in the Ilam and Qasr-e Shirin sectors. In the Qasr-e Shirin sector, our forces opened heavy-artillery fire on an enemy motorized column and inflicted some loss and damage on the invaders.

Thanks to our forces' artillery fire on Saddamist positions in the (Khanon Sheykhan) sector, one enemy vehicle, one command jeep and several trenches were destroyed and the military installations of Khormal garrison were damaged.

Sporadic exchange of fire continued on the country's southern fronts and our heroic combatants defended their own positions.

In the Abadan sector, the forces of Islam opened fire on the positions of Saddam's troops on the other side of the Arvand Rud. As a result, seven trenches and foxholes were destroyed and several enemy troops who were moving along the Al-Faw-Basrah highway were either killed or wounded.

Yesterday several residential districts of Abadan were demolished under the heavy long-range fire of the mercenary Saddam's armed forces. One of our dear Abadani compatriots was martyred as a result and 27 others were wounded.

During the past 24 hours, five Iraqi planes violated the airspace of operational sectors and border cities in the south of the country, but the timely reaction of our air defense units forced them to flee before carrying out any operations.

IRAQI CEASE-FIRE ANNOUNCEMENT DENOUNCED

GF151751 Ahvaz Domestic Service in Persian 1330 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] The Iraqi regime, following its severe defeat at the hands of the Islamic fighters, and in order to save itself from certain fall, has resorted to (?lies) and thinks that, in this manner, it can neutralize the public opinion of the world concerning its barbaric actions.

Last night, while Radio Baghdad's Persian program was announcing that the Iraqi forces are maintaining the cease-fire declared by the Iraqi Command Council and have not carried out any military actions, Iraqi bombers shamelessly violated Ahvaz airspace as before and were forced to flee by the powerful antiaircraft fire of the Army of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

It is noteworthy that Iraq continues to shell residential areas on the border using long-range artillery. The fighting Iranian forces, naturally, reply in kind and do not allow the slightest moves by the Ba'thist mercenaries.

KEYHAN REPORTS ATTACK ON AHMAD KHOMEYNI'S CAR

NC151126 Paris AFP in English 1101 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 15 Jun (AFP) -- Unknown assailants opened fire here today on the car of Hojjat ol-Eslam Seyyed Ahmad Khomeyni, the son of Iran's spiritual leader Ayatollah Khomeyni, injuring two passers-by, the newspaper KEYHAN reported.

Hojjat ol-Eslam Khomeyni was not in the car at the time of the attack, the evening newspaper said.

The driver and "another occupant" escaped injury after assailants opened fire at an intersection in the center of the capital, hitting the car with several bullets.

The paper said the attack was the work of the opposition group Mojahedin-e Khalq, who were following in several cars armed with assault rifles and hand grenades.

Witnesses said they heard the sound of automatic fire and at least one strong explosion followed by ambulance sirens.

The neighborhood was quickly cordoned off by police and revolutionary guards militia.

A search is on for the assailants, the paper said.

UNREST IN AZARBAYJAN REPORTEDLY INCREASING

GF131305 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 12 Jun 82

[Text] The Free Voice of Iran correspondent in Tabriz reports that, following the baseless allegations against the holy person of the Grand Ayatollah Seyyed Kazem Shari'atmadari by the anti-Islamic regime of Khomeyni, the public rage across Iran, and especially in Azarbayjan and Tabriz, is increasing. The people of [words indistinct] and hatred against the [word indistinct] of Khomeyni.

The same report states that one of the biggest signs of the hatred for Khomeyni in both East and West Azarbayjan is nonparticipation of the heroic people of the provinces in the propaganda plays on Fridays where the mullahs of Khomeyni's regime talk about the filthy beliefs of Khomeyni and other British [as heard] puppet mullahs instead of talking about the holy beliefs of Islam.

Our correspondent in Tabriz notes that, in disregard of the threats and strongarm tactics of the regime, only 2,000-4,000 people participated in the latest show in Tabriz. These were the (?relatives) of the mullahs and of the regime's guards.

PROSECUTOR EXPLAINS DELAY IN QOTBZADEH TRIAL

[Text] Shahr-e Kord, 15 Jun, IRNA -- Prosecutor General Rabbani-Amlashi said in an interview here today that so far about 18,000 former prisoners' sentences had been commuted and they had been set free on various occasions upon the order of Imam Khomeyni.

He said prison administrators throughout the country had long since received orders to be as kind to prisoners as possible and that prisoners were also to be provided semi-educational programmes for spiritual guidance.

Asked why the trial of Qotbzadeh and his accomplices in the aborted coup d'etat plot (April 20) had been delayed, Amlashi said the task of collecting data and information about Qotbzadeh and others involved in the aborted coup was continuing and that once the job was finished all people involved in the coup would be brought to trial.

BAKHTIAR INTERVIEWED ON IRANIAN ECONOMY, PLANS

GF110644 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 10 Jun 82

[Excerpts] Shapur Bakhtiar, the leader of the National Resistance Movement of Iran [NRMI], in an interview with the German magazine (ECONOMIC WEEK), has given his opinion on the Iranian economy, future government of our homeland and the role of army in toppling the regime of the Islamic Republic.

The NRMI leader, answering a question on the reasons for the continuation of the regime of mullahs, said: Many Western governments, including the FRG, have political and economic relations with Khomeyni's Iran and thus support a regime that would not otherwise have been able to last more than a year.

He added: I believed it would be unthinkable for civilized nations to equate themselves with such a regime of terror and blood. Cooperating with such a barbaric regime does not agree with their long-term interests or the moral values of the West.

The German correspondent then asked Bakhtiar's opinion on the Iranian economic situation.

He said: The statistics and figures speak for themselves. Our industrial production has been reduced by 80 percent. Of course, in some areas, such as textiles, we still have a production of about 40 percent, but the situation in the industries which need raw materials, spare parts and expert technicians is grave.

People are facing hunger and are having a great deal of trouble obtaining food.

The ordinary people are suffering from unsettling health problems and medicine shortages. The number of doctors has decreased and medicine is scarce and, in many cases, unavailable. A large number of people are dying in Iran every day. It is ridiculous to see that there is a shortage of fuel in an oil-rich country like Iran.

The (ECONOMIC WEEK) correspondent then asked about the situation of the opposition and the program for toppling the Khomeyni regime.

Shapur Bakhtiar answered: Terror has achieved frightening dimensions and therefore it would be difficult to topple the Khomeyni regime in a few days. In order to achieve this we have to rely on an organization which enjoys the support of the majority of the people and the Iranian Army. However, we will act on our patriotic duty soon and will topple this regime.

The correspondent then asked Bakhtiar if by saying we, he included Khomeyni's former adviser [Rajavi] and former President Bani-Sadr.

Bakhtiar replied: Do not mention the name in front of me. I divide the opposition to the regime into two groups: The first includes those who are the true opposition who were against the Islamic Republic from the beginning; the second includes those who established this Islamic Republic and are now talking about human rights in exile. This is while they themselves trampled human rights in Iran. Such individuals have no right to portray themselves as opposition to the regime.

Answering a question about whether he is ready to cooperate with Mas'ud Rajavi and the Mojahedin-e Khalq organization, Bakhtiar stressed: Definitely not. I will not accept someone whose flag contains the hammer and sickle next to Koranic verses. The two are irreconcilable. I respect any faithful communist who is independent but do not accept deceitful people like Rajavi who wish to explain communism from within the Koran.

He added: I believe that all Iran-loving people, democrats or nationalists should cooperate and topple the regime. However, Messrs Bani-Sadr and Rajavi were the designers of the Islamic revolution and have no place among us.

The German correspondent then asked about the role of the army.

Shapur Bakhtiar replied: Khomeyni has imposed a meaningless war on the Iranian nation. It is a war which he created using all his resources and thus separated the army from Tehran by hundreds of kilometers, keeping them busy in a front over 600-km long.

Khomeyni is doing his utmost to spread and continue this war, since if the Iranian Army wins the war, it will return home stronger and thus become dangerous. If the army loses the war, then the military will return from the front demoralized and in such a case they are even more dangerous. The army is dangerous for the ayatollahs under any circumstances.

The NRMI leader added: The army is a very important force in Iran. It can be looked at as the main element in toppling Khomeyni. However, I do not believe in exchanging the turbaned regime for a booted one. I do not want a military regime in Iran.

The future government of Iran must be democratic, nationalist and, especially, have a leaning toward economic growth. During the shah's era there was a great deal of social injustice. We neither can nor want to return to the situation of 3 and 1/2 years ago.

With reference to the economic situation in Iran, Bakhtiar said: Our economy was in better shape before Khomeyni's era. Yet even in that period many mistakes were present in the economy. The shah had busied himself with showcase economic programs. Iran needs an economic program that can work on the basis of the present facilities and finance and follow the industrialization plan for the country.

He added: In order to reconstruct the Iranian economy, we first of all should sell our oil, following consultations with other exporters, at a reasonable price and quantity in order to stop the supply inflation in the oil market.

On the other hand, people, industrialists, workers, technicians, government workers and businessmen must work as hard as they can. Work and (?human resources) are the main elements in the economic reconstruction. Germany resumed work following the war with much greater problems than the Iran after Khomeyni.

The correspondent then asked Bakhtiar: What sort of legal foundation will you consider in forming your government?

Bakhtiar said: On the basis of the 1906 constitution. It should obviously be changed somewhat. However, we will use it at the beginning. What is of special importance in Iran is democracy, freedom, independence and social progress.

Whether I am a monarchist or a republican is of secondary importance. We all know that a monarchist system like that of Sweden is far more democratic than a republic like Chile.

I want democracy and social progress. If I can achieve this in a system of monarchy then I have no objection to it. If the son of the shah wants to become the next shah, he should know that he is only a symbol and should respect the constitution. The time of headstrong governments is at an end.

We should also realize that complete chaos has been ruling Iran for some time. I therefore believe that following the abominable era of terror, an Islamic regime needs an (?independent) provisional government to end its great problems.

In France following the war and the return of De Gaulle, a similar situation existed. A provisional government was in office for 18 months without a parliament.

If we hold elections immediately after Khomeyni, we will be faced with a situation like that of El Salvador.

At the beginning calm should be restored to the country and, therefore, a powerful government should be established.

Israel Invasion of Lebanon

PLO Disarmament Conditions -- Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan was informed during a meeting with PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat that the PLO is prepared to lay down its arms in Beirut in return for U.S. recognition of the PLO, unimpeded exit from the city for the organization's leaders and the inclusion of the PLO in peace talks with Israel, Jerusalem radio reported citing official Lebanese sources. Earlier, the radio reported that U.S. envoy Philip Habib conducted indirect contacts with the PLO through former Lebanese Prime Minister Sa'ib Salam, who communicated the Palestinian requests. PLO official adviser Hani al-Hasan said the PLO wants to have direct talks with the United States, according to the radio. He added that the PLO is prepared to discuss the disarming of its members within the framework of these talks. Al-Hasan said if Habib wants to save Beirut he should offer the PLO something and direct talks would be the first step, the radio reported.

However, according to the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio, PLO Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf denied that Palestinian leaders are holding direct or indirect contacts with the United States. He added that the PLO rejects any negotiations or contacts with the United States under the U.S.-backed Israeli occupation of Arab lands. Khalaf affirmed the final decision of the joint forces and Amal movement forces is to stand fast and fight. Meanwhile, according to SANA, PLO Executive Committee member Ahmad al-Yamani denied that the PLO had requested the Egyptian Government contact Israel to achieve a cease-fire.

In other developments, a "responsible" Palestinian source told the Kuwaiti newspaper AS-SIYASAH that some Palestinian leaders have begun to reconsider their strategic alliances after finding their ties with some Arab countries to be artificial, MENA reported. The source said the PLO Command has held secret meetings over the past 2 days during which it reviewed the PLO's relations with all sides. According to the source, the PLO will soon announce a number of decisions that will represent a major turning point in Palestinian policy.

Lebanese Comment, Contacts -- Calling on the Lebanese to support each other before asking others to help them, Prime Minister al-Wazzan stressed the need for all to confront the Israeli occupation, Beirut radio reported. Meanwhile, President Ilyas Sarkis met with Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil, who said afterwards that priority must be given to rescuing Beirut and sparing innocent people from destruction and ruin, the radio noted. Asked about the National Salvation Council, he said the Phalangists have put all their capabilities at Sarkis's disposal in this regard. Al-Jumayyil also met again with U.S. envoy Philip Habib, who is exerting efforts to activate the Salvation Council, according to Voice of Lebanon radio reports. The radio also reported that after a Lebanese Front meeting, former President Camille Sham'un said the front will exert efforts to ensure the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Lebanon without exception, adding that this means the Syrian, Palestinian and Israeli forces.

The Progressive Socialist Party Command Council decided to ask party leader Walid Jumblatt to participate in the National Salvation Council, according to Beirut radio. However, Jumblatt has instructed the Socialist ministers of economy and tourism to resign from the government, Voice of Lebanon said. Nevertheless, the radio subsequently reported that both Jumblatt and Amal movement Chairman Nabih Birri have taken "positive stances" toward the National Salvation Council, thus tipping the scale in its favor. A Nationalist Movement statement broadcast by the Voice of Palestine radio early on 17 June called on the government to confront the Israeli invasion by all means and to move the presidential headquarters to a site where the authorities can exercise freedom of decision.

Saudi Position -- Following a meeting with Vice President George Bush, Saudi Foreign Affairs Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal announced that if Israel refuses to implement the UN resolutions calling for a cease-fire and an immediate withdrawal of Israeli forces, Saudi Arabia "will be forced to adopt the necessary measures to force it to do so," SPA reported. The foreign minister made it clear that linking the Israeli withdrawal with the withdrawal of all non-Lebanese forces is a matter for the Lebanese Government to decide. He said Saudi Arabia hopes the United States will use its influence to force Israel to withdraw and suggested this could be achieved if the United States cuts off military aid to Israel. The foreign minister cautioned that U.S. nonintervention would undoubtedly have a negative effect on Arab-American relations.

Egyptian Position -- Following a meeting with President Ronald Reagan, Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali asserted that the United States must embark on a leading role in stopping the bloodshed in Lebanon and urge Israel to adhere to international laws, MENA reported. According to a subsequent MENA report, 'Ali said the Middle East will not be stable as long as the Palestinian question is not solved. He added that a solution can only come about if the United States applies its influence and Israel shows further flexibility on the autonomy issue. 'Ali pointed out that a dialogue between the United States and the Palestinians would ease the tension and strengthen the position of the moderates in any future solution.

Begin-Reagan Meeting -- Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin contacted Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor requesting that he inform the Cabinet ministers about U.S. media reports which hint that if Israel does not behave properly the U.S. President may call off his meeting with the prime minister, Jerusalem radio reported. The radio said Begin wanted to inform the ministers that whatever the Cabinet decided upon for the security of Israel should be carried out irrespective of these pressures.

Sharon Interview -- The IDF has achieved all the objectives set for it in Lebanon so its "defensive" war in Lebanon can be thought of as over, Israeli Defense Minister Ar'iel Sharon said in a Jerusalem television interview. The Israelis have destroyed the infrastructure of the "terrorist organizations," inflicting heavy casualties and capturing many "terrorists." In the political arrangement that will be reached, no "terrorists" will be able to remain in the 40-45 km belt north of Israel, nor will they be given immunity beyond that line, Sharon added. The Lebanese Government and the PLO can reach some kind of arrangement whereby the "terrorists" will lay down their arms, he said. Commenting on the fighting, he noted that experienced IDF commanders consider it to have been one of the IDF's most difficult campaigns.

Military Situation -- Artillery duels around Beirut resumed at dawn on 17 June but died down later, according to Beirut radio reports. The previous day, the radio reported that Israeli forces had entered the Science College building in Ash-Shuwayfat. However AFP reported that the Phalangist Lebanese forces were responsible for the attack on the university building. On the other hand, the Lebanese forces denied the AFP report, according to Voice of Lebanon, and subsequently issued a statement affirming that the Phalangists have not and will not take military initiatives, but will respond to attacks. Meanwhile, Monte Carlo radio quoted a Phalangist officer as saying that the Lebanese Front had received orders to attack positions of the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces and Jerusalem radio said the Phalangists had begun expelling the "terrorists" from the airport and were shelling their positions at the university.

[Text] The indirect talks on the Afghanistan issue under UN auspices began in Geneva today. These talks are aimed at assisting in resolving the Afghanistan dispute. The talks began with a meeting between the UN secretary general's personal representative, Diego Cordovez, and Pakistani Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan. Later Cordovez held talks with the foreign minister of the Karmal administration of Afghanistan, Shan Mohammad Dost.

The UN officials have said that the closed-door talks may last for 10 days.

Among the four important topics included on the agenda are: The withdrawal of foreign troops from Afghanistan; return of approximately 3 million Afghan refugees, the majority of whom are in Pakistan, to their homes; the end of foreign intervention; and the issues on providing international guarantees in this regard.

BK170342 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 0200 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] The UN secretary general's personal representative on Afghanistan, Diego Cordovez, is again holding talks with Pakistani Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan in Geneva today. He is holding these negotiations in connection with the UN-sponsored indirect talks on Afghanistan which are aimed at finding a political solution to the crisis.

According to UN sources, it is thought that Iran's permanent representative in Geneva, (Dr Mohammad Jafar Mahallati), will arrive in Geneva from New York today so that Cordovez can contact him if he needs to do so. Later, Cordovez will meet with the Karmal administration's foreign minister, Shah Mohammad Dost.

UN sources also said that discussions on the four issues included in the agenda might not necessarily be in the same sequence as they are placed on the agenda. However, according to Pakistani sources the beginning point of the talks for Pakistan will be the problem of the return of some 3 million Afghan refugees. This issue is, however, closely connected with the withdrawal of Soviet troops.

According to the Voice of America, Sahabzada Yaqub Khan said in an interview that so far he had discussed only the modus operandi of the talks in his meetings with Cordovez. He said that Pakistan generally agreed to the modus operandi and the agenda for the talks.

AFGHAN REFUGEES ON HUNGER STRIKE IN DELHI

BK161213 Hong Kong AFP in English 1142 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Text] New Delhi, 16 Jun (AFP) -- Some 70 Afghan families have gone on a hunger strike outside the local office of the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) demanding that the UN body grant them refugee status.

The fugitive Afghans, several of them Sikhs of Indian origin, have been demonstrating since Monday [14 June], sitting silently in a tented pavilion with familiar anti-Soviet placards displayed prominently and their leaders wearing garlands of marigolds, Indian style.

Although they claimed they were united in their protest, press statements announcing their intentions have been consistently signed by four seemingly different Afghan Muslim organisations.

UNHCR officials said most of the strikers had been refused refugee relief since they were not really in dire need, having already survived two to three years in India without assistance.

The Afghans however claimed that they had not been in India as long as that, as they had journeyed overland through Pakistan.

They said that conditions were not congenial in Afghan refugee camps in Pakistan, especially for Sikhs and Hindus.

But the Indian office of the UNHCR decided last year to turn away refugees migrating to India from first asylum in Pakistan to curb an influx of "tourist refugees."

The UNHCR doles out about 1,400 rupees (about 155 U.S. dollars) a month to the average family of five.

UN officials said most of the protestors were smalltime businessmen who still travelled to Afghanistan frequently for trade and most of the sit-in strikers were only trying to make an easy buck, they claimed.

They did not rule out the presence of odd genuine cases among the protestors but said there was little chance of a case being reviewed once an application was turned down.

Meanwhile, an increasing number of refugees from Iran have also been seeking refuge in India, officials said, and figures show that the number of families arriving for help had jumped from an average two a day to over six.

The UNHCR supports about 1,450 Afghan and nearly 600 Iranian families in India.

HAQ ON KING KHALID, LEBANON SITUATION

BK161039 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1005 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Text] The Majlis-i-Shoora [Federal Advisory Council] which began its third session in Islamabad this morning took up general debate on the federal budget for the fiscal year 1982-83.

At the very start, President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq told the members of the Majlis-i-Shoora that he would take them into confidence about the internal and external situation and the foreign policy of Pakistan in the next few days.

Later, talking to newsmen informally the president said that the suggestions and viewpoints of the members on the budget will be given due consideration by the government.

President Mohammad Ziaul Haq paid rich tributes to late King Khalid of Saudi Arabia whom he described as a great statesman. He said he had fostered special relations with Pakistan. These relations were so deep-rooted. He said that the void caused by the passing away of King Khalid would be more than filled by his successor King Fahd.

The president agreed with the correspondent that the situation in Lebanon following the aggression of Israel was very critical and said that we should tackle it in a very careful and bold manner.

The president pointed out that the Islamic community peace committee had already adopted a resolution calling for sanctions against Israel. The secretary general of the Organization of Islamic Conference, Habib Chatti, had asked all the Islamic countries to help the Palestinians.

As far as Pakistan was concerned, it would provide whatever aid it could to its Palestinian brothers as in the past.

AFP: POLICE ARREST NDP PRESIDENT MAZARI, OTHERS

BK170433 Hong Kong AFP in English 0409 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] Karachi, 16 Jun (AFP) -- A veteran Pakistani politician, Sardar Sherbaz Mazari, was arrested today when he flew to Quetta, 600 miles north of Karachi, to take part in political activities banned under the martial law, sources close to his party said.

Police arrested Mr Mazari, president of the outlawed leftist National Democratic Party (NDP), at Quetta airport and he was put on the same flight back to Karachi.

Abdul Wali Khan, a senior leader of Mr Mazari's National Democratic Party had visited Afghanistan recently and met Afghan rulers, including President Babrak Karmal, in Kabul before returning to Pakistan.

The Pakistani Government later prevented Mr Abdul Wali Khan and other leaders of the NDP from holding political meetings in Lahore, the capital of Punjab Province. Mr Wali Khan was also put under house arrest when announced his intention to visit Karachi last week.

[Text] In Pakistan, three opposition leaders -- Khan Abdul Wali Khan, his wife and secretary of the National Democratic Party Ghulam Ahmad Billore -- have been put on house arrest in Peshawar, Northwest Frontier Province. No reasons for the arrests have been disclosed. Wali Khan was to address the bar association in Peshawar today and later go on a visit to Sind and Baluchistan Provinces.

Wali Khan and Billore have been banned from entering Sind Province. Last month, the two leaders were expelled from Punjab after the authorities broke up a National Democratic Party meeting in Lahore and arrested 49 persons. They were later released on bail.

The four-party alliance in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir has made a public demand for an elected government before July, when the military regime completes 5 years in power.

Addressing a public meeting at Kotli, about 125 kolometers from Islamabad, they said they will make all sacrifices for restoration of democracy in the Pak-held territory.

MINISTER SPEAKS ON DEFENSE EXPENDITURE IN BUDGET

BK151136 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1005 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Excerpts] Finance Minister Ghulam Ishaq Khan has said that the country is maintaining and seeking to increase its own doemstic non-inflationary financing share of the annual development program and, to achieve this objective, efforts are being made in all directions. Addressing the post-budget news conference in Islamabad today, he said the development program is not only larger but it is also aimed at meeting the needs of the people particularly in the rural areas and poorer regions.

He said during the next financial year the country would be completing all the languishing major public sector projects and would simultaneously be seeking to capture a bridgehead for a major thrust on new priorities in the sixth plan. To achieve this objective the annual development plan has been enlarged by 16 percent from 27 billion rupees in 1981-82 to 31.46 billion rupees in the next financial year.

About the defense expenditure, he said larger resources are being provided in this sector. In the 2 years since 1981-82 to 1982-83 the defense expenditure shows an increase of 6.83 billion rupees, but the ratio of defense expenditure to the gross national product has been maintained at around 6 percent.

OPPOSITION CRITICIZES DEFENSE EXPENDITURE

BK160907 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Text] Pakistan Finance Minister Ghulam Ishaq Khan has estimated that in 1982-83 Pakistan will have to face a resource gap of nearly 8.1 billion rupees. According to agency reports, he has proposed taxes on a wide variety of items to yield 3.75 billion rupees for covering part of the estimated gap.

As already reported, of the total budget of about 78 billion rupees, defense alone gets about 22 billion rupees. This is more than 28 percent of the total budget.

The Movement for the Restoration of Democracy, consisting of 12 banned political parties, has criticized the imposition of new taxes and heavy spending of defense. In a statement in Islamabad it said that in view of the proposed no-war pact with India and peace overtures in Afghanistan, increased defense spending is not justified.

DETAILS OF PAKISTANI ECONOMIC SURVEY REPORTED

[Text] The growth in gross domestic product [GDP] is expected to surpass 6 percent for the fifth successive year. This is because of continuation this year of the process of economic revival and financial discipline which characterized economic policies since 1977.

This has been stated in the Pakistan economic survey for the current fiscal year released in Islamabad today. The survey, which is the basic pre-budget document, says the national economy was hit by a deepening world recession, collapse in world cotton prices and growing influx of Afghan refugees. These causes had a marked impact on the balance of payments and the budget. Yet, both balance of payments and budget were kept within the plan level. However, the export growth momentum was temporarily reversed and tax receipts fell below budget provisions.

The survey says all the sectors of the economy contributed significantly to the vital growth of the gross domestic product. In manufacturing, production rose by 12.1 percent and its large-scale component by 14 percent. The output of sugar showed a record increase of 41 percent and because of this the country attained a sizable export surplus. The production of fertilizers and cement also recorded sharp increases, easing the balance of payments situation and assuring uninterrupted supply for domestic users.

The pace of industrial sanctions shot up. Sanctions worth 87 billion rupees were issued during July 1977 to March 82, almost 4 times the amount sanctioned in the previous 5 years.

The survey says the country is now on the threshold of developing an engineering-based industry. A national engineering manufactures and export council has been set up to suggest ways and means to promote the engineering industry in line with the national industrial policy. It says the government has decided to launch a program for the progressive local manufacture of imported components. Programs have been finalized for progressive local manufacturing of motorcycles, refrigerators, air conditioners and agricultural tractors.

The economic survey says despite the unusual rains, which badly affected wheat production, the country has reached self-sufficiency in wheat. Even if the final estimates are substantially lower than those currently available, the country would not face any shortage since now its reserves are in stock from last year's crop.

The survey says a significant discovery of oil has been made in the southern Indus basin of Khaskheli and five wells have been completed there. Efforts are being made to get a production of 5,000 barrels a day from these wells.

It says the monetary policy continued to conform with the socioeconomic goals laid down in the national development plan. The inflation rate recorded during the first 9 months of this year showed a marked decline over last year. Increase in the wholesale prices had declined from 10.5 percent to 3.6 percent and in the case of consumer price index from 12 percent to 7.7 percent.

The economic survey says the government is determined to Islamize the economy and its efforts in this direction were intensified during the year. During the first 6 months of the current year, zakat amounting to over 258 million rupees were distributed among 1.4 million mustahiqeen [needy people]. The deposits under the profit and loss-sharing system were 8.231 billion rupees as on 25 March this year.

Due to the deepening world recession, the current account deficit in the balance of payments is expected to increase by $318 million and the basic balance by $232 million.

The economic survey says the increase in the nation's efforts for improvement in efficiency and development of human capital are being taken into account in preparation of the sixth 5-year plan. The decisive thrust in this direction is being incorporated in the budget and the annual plan for the next year.

TAVAKKOLI PLEDGES STRUGGLE AGAINST ISRAEL

LD151724 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, government spokesman Mr Ahmad Tavakkoli, minister of labor and social affairs, has taken part in a press conference with dometic reporters. Presenting a brief report on the results of the participation of the Iranian delegation in the Geneva conference, he referred to the silence of the reactionary Arab countries concerning the aggression of the Zionist regime against south Lebanon and mentioned the mysterious death of Khalid, saying: The death of Khalid, however it happened, should be a lesson to other reactionary countries. He added: In view of the cooperation between Fahd and the American Government, it is quite clear in which direction Saudi Arabia is moving.

Concerning the dispatch of Muslim Iranian forces to south Lebanon, Mr Tavakkoli said: We believe that blasphemy transcends the boundaries of geography. We will fight against the usurping Zionists for the same reason that we fight against Saddam and we will continue the fight until we achieve our goal, which is the downfall of Saddam. We believe that the existence of Zionism, this cancerous cell, has deprived the region of peace.

Concerning the announcement of the so-called cease-fire by the fascist Ba'thist regime of Iraq, the government spokesman said: We look on Saddam as being the same as Begin; under no circumstances will we submit to such blackmail. We will expel the aggressive enemy from our land. We will also go to south Lebanon in any way possible in order to fight against the Zionist regime.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 946

LD161820 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Communique No 946 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Combatants and warriors of the path of justice continue their battle by destroying the Saddamist infidels and by bravely defending their consolidated positions on the pride-giving battlefronts with great power and superior firepower.

Some of their self-sacrifices are announced and brought to the attention of our dear compatriots:

Exchanges of artillery and other heavy-weapon fire continued sporadically during the past 24 hours on most of the southern fronts between our victorious forces and the disintegrating Saddamist forces. Timely and intense fire of the powerful combatants of Islam gave the enemy no chance to move or open fire.

On the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts, brave warriors of the navy and valiant combatants of the gendarmerie returned enemy fire, setting on fire and destroying more than nine light- and heavy-weapon bunkers and killing several of their troops.

Our forces also controlled enemy movement along the Al-Faw-Basrah supply route, preventing movement by the Saddamist forces.

Yesterday, as on previous days, residential districts and oil installations in Abadan came under heavy- and long-range artillery fire of the Saddamist mercenaries. Residential houses and installations were damaged; 1 of our dear Abadan compatriots was martyred and 19 others were wounded.

During exchanges of fire on the Salehabad, Sumar, Gilan-e Gharb and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab fronts, proud combatants of our ground forces silenced enemy fire and destroyed several trenches and foxholes of the Saddamist forces. Our forces also succeeded in setting on fire and destroying 1 ammunition depot, 2 tanks and 14 light and heavy vehicles with their loads. Two tanks and five other vehicles of the Iraqi forces were also severely damaged.

Combatants of Islam on the Marivan front inflicted heavy losses on the enemy in the (Hani Garmaleh) sector.

According to a report from the Gendarmerie of the Islamic Republic of Iran, sporadic exchange of fire continued yesterday on most fronts in the west of the country, where the brave gendarmerie combatants are stationed. In the (Pir-e Hushang) sector, the powerful combatants of our ground forces opened fire on enemy positions and units in the (Haji 'Omran) region and, while preventing any activity by the Iraqi forces, destroyed five of their assembly points and killed several Saddamist troops.

Yesterday several enemy fighter planes attempted to violate the airspace of several border cities in the west and south of the country, but they were confronted with heavy antiaircraft fire by the air defense units of the Islamic Republic of Iran and were forced to flee before they could accomplish their missions.

NVOI CALLS FOR 'REALISTIC' SOLUTION TO GULF WAR

TA170043 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 16 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "A War Whose Continuation Is to the Benefit of America and the Aggressor Israel"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As a result of the self-sacrifice of the Army of our Islamic Republic, the guards and the popular forces, the major part of our homeland's soil has been cleansed from the presence of the aggressors. So far as documents and evidence indicate, those who most of all have benefited and are benefiting from this imposed war are world-devouring America and its evil offspring, the aggressor Israel.

Lebanon's recent tragedy and the cowardly and armed aggression by the army of the criminal Israel on Lebanon, the brutal massacre and the even more brutal bombing of this country once more confirm the view that the imposed war upon our homeland and ultimately the continuation of this war is only in the interest of America and its allies.

Therefore, the fact confronting our nation and all nations that want to rise in confrontation against this savage aggression by Israel and America is the issue of the future of this imposed war and seeking rational and realistic solutions aimed at bringing the war to an end.

The fact is, as the imam of the nation and high-ranking officials of our country have repeatedly stated, we have never had nor do we have any designs on the territory and soil of others, and the goal of the Islamic Republic of Iran in this war which has been imposed upon us is the liberation of our soil from the presence of foreign forces. In this case the first step and primary aim is the preservation of our homeland's territorial integrity and national sovereignty.

In this context, as some of our country's authorities have also pointed out, Iraq's proposal with regard to pulling out its armed forces from our homeland's soil is in fact the fulfillment of the first demand and condition that we have presented for terminating this war.

The second point in this connection is to determine the war indemnities resulting from the damages which have been caused by this aggression on our country and on our homeland's economy. First of all we must emphasize the point once more that under the present contitions the issue of aiding the struggling Palestinian people, getting rid of Israel and America and forcing them to retreat is the number one task and the current issue that faces all the nations of our region; and we, by necessity of solidarity and necessity of defending the region's security, should assess all issues within this context and framework, and seek solutions to the problems.

Thus, by maintaining the responsibility that we have to the Palestinian people from the human and moral standpoint, and by sensing and comprehending the great danger of Israel's aggressions -- which pursue farfetched aims -- we review the conditions that are able to end this imposed war and which will allow us to give more assistance to the Palestinian people.

Of course, no one expects and indeed can expect any effective assistance to the Palestinian people and repelling of Israel's and America's aggression by the regimes of Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Turkey, Pakistan and the treacherous and dependent leaders of these regimes which are subservient to the United States. On the contrary, America is striving to render the climate and the situation in our region more tense with the aid of these regimes in order to implement its plans in crushing the popular movements of the region, particularly the suppression of the Iranian revolution, with ease of mind.

In view of these facts we study the second condition for terminating this imposed war: the setting of war indemnities. It seems Baghdad has agreed that after the withdrawal of Iraqi forces from Iran arbitration to determine war reparations be assigned to a delegation comprising representatives of governments accepted by both sides. The imam of the nation, too, in his recent remarks stated: We accept their conditions, but they must withdraw their armed forces and allow experts to come and see what they have done in our country and who is responsible for these crimes.

The third issue or the third condition which sometimes is put forward by some of our Islamic Republic's officals is the problem of the regime ruling Iraq. It is a fact that because of this imposed war our homeland has sustained the greatest financial and human losses. Many industrial units, residential area, bridges, roads, and, in some cases, entire towns and villages have been leveled to the ground. Tens of thousands of our homeland's best sons have sacrificed their lives in defending freedom, independence, territorial integrity and national and human prestige.

Without doubt, the right is reserved for our nation and Islamic Republic that in its neighborhood a government must be in power that will not impose again such an adventure and tragedy over our nation and the Iraqi nation. This is an obvious question and an undeniable right.

However, it is also a fact that determining the destiny and the political system is the legitimate and indisputable right of every nation, including the Iraqi nation. In other words, it is the Iraqi nation that must determine its own destiny and the system of its choice by taking into consideration the characteristics of its own society.

Our pride is that our revolution contains the special characteristics of our homeland. It took place without foreign interference and without imitating others. We must also allow this right for others, including the Iraqi nation, to select the system of its choice in accordance with the characteristics of its homeland, and of course by gaining from the experience of all revolutions, particularly our homeland's popular, Islamic and anti-imperialist revolution. But when we make one of the conditions for ending the war the overthrow of the present Iraqi regime, the result will be that it will be heard, whether from some of the individuals in the various levels of government and the institutions or in the mass media that, for example, we will advance to Karbala'. This statement is without responsibility and in contrast to the remarks of our homeland's highest authorities.

Such an attitude toward the sensitive and vital problem of ending the war is not only detrimental to our Islamic Republic, but decreases to the minimum our Islamic Republic's solidarity with and assistance to liberation and anti-imperialist movements repelling Israel's aggression. When the imam of the nation, the president and the foreign minister of our country say the issue for us is only retrieving Iran's territory, not the occupation of other's territory, in that case certain individuals at different junctures must not be allowed to distort the Islamic Republic's foreign policy with irresponsible statements.

The country's acute problems cannot be solved merely with slogans and propaganda. One must be realistic. We should seek realistic solutions to the problems that are confronting our nation and the struggling peoples of our region by comprehending the sensitive situation in the region, by assessing the actual capabilities of the adversary, and the duty which all progressive and popular systems, in particular our Islamic Republic, have toward the oppressed Palestinian people and the aggression by Israel and America.

18 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Beirut Political, Military Situation -- The Israeli Cabinet has displayed a "clear inclination" to accept a request by U.S. envoy Philip Habib for a 48-hour cease-fire in Beirut in order for quiet negotiations to be conducted with Lebanese authorities -- and "indirectly with the PLO" -- for a temporary arrangement that would allow the cease-fire to stabilize, Jerusalem television reported. It added, however, that no new resolution on a cease-fire was officially announced by the Cabinet. The television reported that Habib believes it is possible to disarm the PLO as part of a new political arrangement which the United States will initiate in the next few days or weeks.

In response to a message from Secretary of State Alexander Haig that Israel use its influence on the Lebanese Christians so they will halt activities against the "terrorists," the Israeli Cabinet declared that Israel is not responsible for the actions of the Christians, Jerusalem radio reported. The radio added that the Cabinet also said it has not given the United States the go-ahead to conduct negotiations with the PLO.

In a statement carried by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio, PLO Executive Committee chairman Yasir 'Arafat declared that the battle for Beirut is just beginning. He added that Beirut will become the Arab "Stalingrad." 'Arafat asserted that "despite the negligence of some and the hesitation of others, which is paralyzing the decision of the Arab nation" the sacrifices which have been made will not be in vain. He then declared that it is his right to ask the reason for the "hesitation and negligence" in mobilizing the resources of the Arab nation.

A source at the Joint Forces Command cited by Voice of Palestine radio said the Israeli Cabinet knows very well that no one can divest the joint Lebanese national and Palestinian forces of their arms. Jerusalem television cited diplomatic sources in Beirut as saying 'Arafat had turned down a Soviet offer to evacuate him and other PLO leaders from Beirut aboard a Soviet ship.

Meanwhile, Monte Carlo radio cited a press agency report claiming Syrian authorities had turned down a request by Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis to withdraw the Arab Deterrent Forces from Beirut and its suburbs.

In other developments Voice of Lebanon radio reported on 18 June that the 48-hour cease-fire has been violated more than once. The radio noted that intermittent artillery shelling has been going on throughout the morning of 18 June in the Beirut area and said that heavy guns on land and at sea are being used in the shelling. However, the IDF spokesman denied that Israeli forces are participating in any fighting in Beirut and stressed that the IDF is not involved in these incidents, Jerusalem radio reported.

Lebanese Contacts -- Progressive Socialist Party leader Walid Junblatt asked for guarantees that Beirut will not be overrun and for an expansion of the National Salvation Council during a meeting with President Ilyas Sarkis, Beirut radio reported. Following his talks, Junblatt told AFP he is continuing to refuse to serve on the council in its present form. He said the council dies not represent all political points of view. Junblatt particularly objected to the inclusion of Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil as the sole representative of the Maronite-Christian community, AFP reported.

Begin Remarks -- Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin declared at a speech in New York that the IDF will evacuate Lebanon within a few weeks, but he noted that a primary condition for the evacuation is the establishment of an independent government in Lebanon, IDF radio reported. According to a subsequent Jerusalem radio report, Begin said Israel wants good relations with an independent and free Lebanon, without Syrian forces or "terrorists" on its soil. Begin also cautioned that Israel will not give in to pressure by friends on the matter of Lebanon, the radio reported.

Casualty, Prisoner Statistics -- In a message to the UN secretary general, Yasir 'Arafat estimated that Lebanese and Palestinian civilian losses have so far amounted to 30,000 killed or wounded, 10,000 missing and 800,000 homeless, Voice of Palestine radio reported.

According to an announcement by the head of the IDF Manpower Branch broadcast by Jerusalem radio, IDF losses as of 15 June are: 214 dead, 1,114 wounded, 23 missing and 1 captured. In another radio report the IDF said it is detaining 5,000 "terrorists," including nationals from Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Syria and Kuwait.

Syria on Volunteers, Ba'th Meeting -- Syria welcomes Arab volunteers from any Arab country who would like to participate in fighting alongside their Syrian, Palestinian and Lebanese brothers in Lebanon, Damascus radio reported. Earlier, the radio said the Ba'th Party Regional Command had met in Damascus to discuss military and political developments in Lebanon.

Al-Qadhdhafi Message -- In a message to Arab leaders carried by Voice of Arab Homeland radio, Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi warned that if an Arab summit is not immediately convened on the Lebanese situation, Libya "will not be bound by any ties with you anymore" and will not hesitate to take "any action that would push you and entangle you."

PLO

A high-ranking PLO official in Italy was killed in Rome when his boobytrapped car exploded, according to the Italian news agency ANSA. The PLO office in Italy later released a note linking the killing with "Begin's terrorists," ANSA subsequently reported.

Syrian-Iranian Relations

Iranian Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati and Defense Minister Salimi arrived in Damascus at the head of a "high-ranking political-military delegation," Tehran radio reported. Salimi and Syrian Defense Minister Mustafa Talas held talks on mutual cooperation between the two countries, while Velayati and the Amal movement's deputy director discussed "Zionist aggression" against Lebanon and Iranian assistance to and cooperation with the Amal movement, the radio added.

Iran

Ahmad Khomeyni, son of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni, was injured during a clash with members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq on 15 June, AFP reported citing a communique by the leftist group. A 15 June AFP report cited KEYHAN as saying that unknown gunmen had opened fire on Ahmad Khomeyni's car but added that Khomeyni was not in the car at the time of the attack.

VENKATARAMAN COMMENTS ON PAKISTAN, KASHMIR

[Text] Defense Minister Venkataraman has said India will consider Pakistan's proposal of a no-war pact on its own merit. Speaking to newsmen at Calcutta airport on his way back from a tour of northeastern states, he said India's policy is to maintain peace and friendly relations with all neighboring countries.

In reply to a question as to whether he apprehended any conflict with Pakistan while that country is showing some interest in the no-war pact with India, Venkataraman said we cannot take anything for granted. We must always be alert. India, he said, will never be the first to provoke or create an atmosphere of conflict but we will take necessary precautionary steps.

Replying to another question on Kashmir, the defense minister said Kashmir is an integral part of India.

About President Zia's claim that Gilgit and some other areas of Jammu and Kashmir originally formed part of Pakistan, Venkataraman asserted that India will never accept it.

About disturbances in northeastern states, the minister said the incidents are sporadic and not continuous. He did not expect any large-scale disturbances in the region.

Venkataraman said that the morale of the jawans [soldiers] and officers in forward areas is very high.

According to Press Trust of India, Mrs Gandhi said this in her reply to the joint letter of 10 opposition leaders. BK171235 Calcutta THE STATESMAN in English 12 Jun 82 p 1

[Excerpts] Nisith Bhattacharya, 45-year-old former lecturer of Bangabasi College and leader of the Lin Biao group of Naxalites in West Bengal, was arrested along with six other members of his group in Sian District, Bihar, early on May 27. A rifle snatched by Naxalites from the Korchpukur police camp in South 24-Parganas last year, was found in their possession.

Gora Bhattacharya, wanted in connection with the murder of Tarapada Basu, a criminal investigation department officer, at Ariadaha in 24-Parganas, about 6 months ago, was among the seven arrested by the Bihar police.

U.S. INFORMED OF PAKISTANI CONCERN OVER LEBANON

BK171622 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 1500 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] The secretary in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs summoned the U.S. charge d'affaires to the Foreign Office in Islamabad today and informed him of Pakistan's concern over the fast-deteriorating situation in Lebanon. Pakistan has also asked its ambassador in Washington to apprise the United States of Pakistan's concern.

Radio Pakistan's diplomatic correspondent says that Pakistan has expressed deep anxiety over Israel's unprovoked, barbarous aggression against Lebanon. An extremely serious situation has been created due to the Israeli siege of Beirut and the reported Israeli plan to wipe out the Palestinians and their Lebanese allies.

Pakistan feels that Israel's failure to stop this series of murder and aggression in Lebanon and immediately withdraw its troops will create serious dangers to the peace and security of the entire region.

President Mohammad Ziaul Haq has already expressed Pakistan's full support to the Palestinians during this grave, critical juncture. Reports reaching Islamabad reveal that the situation in Beirut has turned extremely serious, naturally creating deep concern and anxiety in Pakistan and other Islamic countries.

Two aircraft have left Islamabad with relief materials to help the fraternal Palestinians during the present difficult times. These include blankets, tents, clothes, medicine, rice, tea and sugar. Further relief materials are expected to be dispatched soon. Medical teams are being formed to look after the wounded Palestinian residents which will leave shortly.

On the way back, these aircraft will take back the Pakistanis who have arrived in Damascus from Lebanon.

Pakistan is sending relief materials worth 15 million rupees for the Palestinian victims of Israel's inhuman action. These include 3,000 tons of rice, 500 tons of sugar, tents, blankets, clothes and medicine.

The Government of Pakistan will also bear the air transportation costs of the Palestinians living in Pakistan numbering about 250 and those who want to return home to join the war to Damascus from Pakistan. The Radio Pakistan correspondent added that Pakistan will continue to provide every possible assistance to the Palestinians. The Pakistani Red Crescent Society and generous people are also collecting relief materials and donations and they will be sent to Damascus as soon as they are collected.

Pakistan has asked for the requirements from Damascus and PLO so that these are met as soon as possible.

JALLUD: LIBYA PREPARING TO CONFRONT ZIONISTS

LD171046 Tehran IRNA in English 0915 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] Qom, 17 Jun IRNA -- The visiting Libyan prime minister [title as received] 'Abd as-Salam Jallud met and conferred with the renowned religious scholar Ayatollah Montazeri here on Wednesday. During the meeting, also attended by the Libyan ambassador to Iran, Sa'd Mujbir, the Libyan prime minister hoped that the existing relations of the two Muslim countries would be further expanded.

Ayatollah Montazeri referring to 'Neither Eastern nor Western' policy of Iran, stated that relations with Eastern and Western bloc should not be in a way to damage genuine Islamic policy. He added that at present Islamic progressive countries were being threatened by the Zionist regime and its ever-increasing aggressions. He noted that Islamic countries should, according to their Islamic responsibilities, mobilise all their means to repell this dangerous enemy, instead of sufficing to slogans and sending messages. Referring to his dispatch of Iranian combatants to Al-Quds fronts Ayatollah Montazeri said that despite being involved in war with Saddam, Iran despatched volunteers to confront the Zionist enemy and that Iranian nation and government expected Libya to rush to aid Muslims of southern Lebanon without wasting time. To save Islam and Muslims and Al-Aqsa Mosque was very vital for Muslims.

At the end of the meeting Jallud told IRNA that Libyan nation and government were preparing themselves to confront the usurper Zionists.

The Libyan premier then made a pilgrimage to the holy shrine of Hazrat Maasuma and paid tribute to martyr Mohammad Montazeri by laying a wreath of flowers on his tomb.

VICTORY OVER IRAQ 'MORE IMPORTANT' THAN PALESTINE

LD171800 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, the visiting Libyan Revolution Command Council member, Mr A. Jallud, met and conferred this morning with President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i.

The meeting was also attended by Foreign Affairs Minister Mr 'Ali Akbar Velayati, Minister of State for Executive Affairs Mr Aqazadeh and Libyan People's Bureau Chief in Tehran Mr Sa'd Mujbir.

During this meeting, during which he supported the Iranian Islamic revolution, Mr Jallud said: If your freedom or revolution is threatened, Libya will not stand by only as a witness.

Commenting on the invasion launched by the occupying regime of Jerusalem on Lebanon, Mr Jallud said: The recent aggression by the Zionists in the region -- which is supported by U.S. imperialism, reactionaries and their associate mercenaries -- has no other aim but liquidation of the Islamic revolution and the Palestinians. The Libyan Government considers the liberation of Palestine as its main task. He added: The liberation of Palestine will require the effort of the Iranian, the Libyan and all other Islamic nations. Mr Jallud added: In our view, victory over Iraq's Ba'th regime and Saddam, and other Satans, is of more importance than the question of Palestine; in fact such development is a practical step toward liberation of Palestine. In our view the collapse of Saddam's regime can be achieved through an Islamic force originated from the people -- not only from Iran but also from Libya, Palestine, Syria and all other Arab states.

In reply, Mr Khamene'i referred to the Libyan revolution and its approaches, and said: The day our Islamic revolution was victorious, you were among our allies. You neither made terms with the shah nor did you waste a moment in according our Islamic revolution your recognition. We have known you with such feeling toward us ever since.

Commenting on the savage aggression launched by the Zionists on southern Lebanon, Mr Khamene'i said: If the forces which have gone to Lebanon from Iran to fight the Zionist regime were accompanied by your forces, they would be complete. In our dealings with the region's reactionary governments we have never pursued a conservative approach and have not hidden our feelings with regard to the region's reactionary centers. We neither expressed any pleasure in connection with Fahd's coming to power or even accorded him the usual diplomatic courtesies. We have always treated both our friends or our enemies with such sincerity and frankness. God willing, we will continue to do so.

KHAMENE'I, JALLUD ATTEND GUARDS CORPS GRADUATION

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, the graduation ceremonies of the 24th and 25th military training courses of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps were held this morning in the presence of President Khamene'i at Imam Hoseyn barracks in Tehran. Also present at these ceremonies, which began with the recitation of some verses from the glorious Koran, were 'Abd as-Salam Jallud, member of the Revolution Command Council of Libya; Brigadier General Zahirnezhad, chairman of the Joint Staff of the armed forces; Colonel Salimi, minister of defense; Aqazadeh, minister of state for executive affairs; Mr Sham'khani, deputy commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps; Captain Afzali, commander of the navy; Colonel Hejazi, head of the police; Mr Salem, the commander of the Mobilization units; and a number of national officials, military commanders and commanders of the Islamic revolution guards.

The president and his entourage first received a salute from the military units stationed at the barracks. Then the commander of the 10th District Guards Corps reported on the activities of the Guards Corps against foreign and domestic enemies and the Muslim fighters' confrontation with world arrogance and world-devouring Zionism in southern Lebanon.

He said: By taking military, political and ideological training, our Muslim fighters prepare themselves to support all the oppressed people of the world and to confront world arrogance. He added: Imam Hoseyn barracks, like other training centers, has taken some effective steps in training the fighting forces.

The commander of the 10th District Guards Corps said: So far, about 8,000 of the members of the Islamic revolution guards as well as 14,000 members of the Mobilization units have completed courses at this barracks and have actively participated in the battlefronts of the war between truth and falsehood.

President Khamene'i then delivered a speech referring to the importance and the valuable role of the Guards Corps in implementing, consolidating and continuing the Islamic revolution. He said: So far the Guards Corps has achieved many honors. The growth of this revolutionary organization and this network has angered the infidels. Despite the expectations of the enemies, this consolidation has protected and continued the revolution.

In another part of his speech, while referring to the aggressive acts of the Zionist regime, the president said: Unfortunately, those who should be confronting the inhuman activities and aggression of the regime occupying Jerusalem have not shown any positive reaction. However, our country, even if it is alone in the region, will have no doubt in confronting Zionism and supporting the oppressed people of Lebanon. The revolutionary and progressive countries of the region are also on our side in this important matter.

Mr Khamene'i added: To us there is no difference between the fronts in southern Iran and in southern Lebanon, and the conspiracies of world imperialism and their lackeys in the region against the Islamic revolution of Iran will be neutralized because of the unity between all the strata, the solidarity of the nation, the support of the people for the revolution and for the government and the self-sacrifice of our fighters.

He said: We are prepared to put our facilities and necessary training at the disposal of all Muslims who are prepared to fight against the Zionist regime. We believe that victory will belong to the Muslims and to those who are on the side of truth.

In conclusion, the president thanked the commanders and instructors of the Guards Corps for training believing and brave fighters and emphasized the need for political and ideological training along with military training.

At the end of the ceremonies and march, the chairman of the Supreme Defense Council, accompanied by Major 'Abd as-Salam Jallud, inspected the training centers of the Mobilization of the Oppressed units of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the war booty that has been seized from the Iraqi aggressors, which is kept on the training field. During the inspection one of the guards commanders briefed the president and Major Jallud.

According to this report, the president, Mr 'Abd as-Salam Jallud and their entourage left Imam Hoseyn barracks at noon. According to the same report, during these ceremonies, some of the brother guards took part in free falls from helicopters and parachute jumps in the presence of those assembled at the barracks.

KHAMENE'I DENOUNCES ISRAELI 'AGGRESSION'

GF170855 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0700 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] 'Ali Khamene'i, the president of the republic, has denounced the Zionist aggression against Lebanon. He said no other Islamic country has denounced this aggression more vigorously than the Islamic Republic of Iran and Syria.

During his reception yesterday of a group of clergymen assigned to guide pilgrims, he referred to the Majlis speaker's call to each Islamic country to send a regiment of its military forces to defend Lebanon. He said: If these forces had been sent, would the belligerent forces in the region have accepted the cease-fire? Nonetheless, in our view it is unnecessary to accept the cease-fire. Fighting should continue because the outcome of a cease-fire is much worse than the current situation.

Denouncing any haggling with the Zionist entity, President Khamene'i said the Islamic countries will receive worse blows if they confront such conspiracies with haggling and submissive solutions. The president added that he is sorry for the savage massacre to which the deprived Lebanese Muslims and the homeless Palestinians are being exposed by the occupation of the Zionist entity.

Referring to the tyranny which Jordan's Shah Husayn exercised when he banished the Palestinians from Jordan, President Khamene'i said: If the Islamic countries had responded to our call and had sent forces to support the people of southern Lebanon and the homeless Palestinians, the Zionist entity would have never been able to launch such attacks today. We announce that the Islamic Republic of Iran will send ten times the forces these countries send. The struggling Muslim Iranian forces are in the vanguard of forces on the fronts of war against the Zionist entity.

Referring to the great interest of the world's peoples in Iran's Islamic revolution, President Khamene'i said: The world wants to hear the call of our revolution to know that this revolution, despite all international pressures exercised against it, is not ready to shun its principles or divert from them. Khamene'i also said many of those who do not believe in the role of religion, who lead the Islamic countries today and who loudly speak of Islam do not really believe that Islam has a role in the world today.

Addressing clergymen in charge of guiding pilgrims, the president said: During this year's pilgrimage, you should brief the world's Muslim peoples on the sublime Islamic values which have been achieved thanks to the victory of the Islamic provisions. He said the rituals of pilgrimage of the Islamic Iranian people should be able to spread the new ideas and thoughts of the world's Muslims further and further.

RAFSANJANI ON IRANIAN FORCES IN LEBANON, SYRIA

LD172022 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Excerpts] According to IRNA, a large number of Tabriz Islamic association members met this afternoon with Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the speaker of the Majlis. Tabriz deputies to the Majlis were also present and Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani addressed the audience.

Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani said: Our nation proved its competence both before and after the success of the Islamic revolution. What is important is our ability to maintain our competence, our worth and our sincerity in a manner by which we would neither be denied our revolutionary pride and victory nor allow the revolution's problems and clashes to defeat us.

Referring to Iran's decision to send its troops to Syria to fight against the Zionist regime, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani said: A cease-fire was due to take place in Lebanon, just as on similar occasions when Israel embarked upon a surprise offensive; then it declared another cease-fire in order to take the next step a few years later. But the presence of our forces in Syria and Lebanon confused all Israel's designs and calculations. The presence of our forces also gave the countries neighboring Lebanon, as well as the Palestinians and other Muslim forces in Lebanon, a fresh heart, and the new situation confused the enemies of Islam.

Since the day our forces arrived in Syria the situation has changed. That is, the name of the Islamic Republic of Iran and its youth have such a reputation that according to Syrian and Lebanese assertions, the value of the few planeloads of Iranian combatants is far more than if 10 divisions had come from the Arab countries.

The Majlis speaker added: Your country, due to its sacrifices, has changed dramatically, because during the rule of the defunct shah, Iran was an associate of Israel. The shah and his relatives were among the world's most important supporters of Israel. Our market, oil and allother potentials were in the service of Israel and the United States.

Nevertheless, in the course of a short time, our young have become revolutionized, to the extent of scaring the United States and Israel; our younger generation has been transformed into a volcanic force at the service of the revolution.

Referring to the numerous problems created for the Islamic Republic by our enemies and the way our people have managed to remove these difficulties, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani said: After 20 months of the Iraqi-imposed war against Iran, we are now in full control, and the hearts of the reactionaries of the region are shaking and anxious to know what will be our next step. During this period we have been able to revive our economy, halted inflation, resumed the activities of our factories and (?housed), to the best of our ability, 2 million war-stricken refugees as well as 1 and 1/2 million refugees from Afghanistan. Our nation is currently racing to reconstruct the war-stricken regions. Such a country with such a nation gains credit in the world and there is not a single country which has been able to solve its problems the way we did; we stand on our own feet and are not prepared to move 1 inch from the revolution's principles, even at the climax of its difficult period.

Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani added: The Syrian, Palestinian and the Libyan officials have remarked that when Iran announced it would be sending troops to Lebanon, no one believed it. They said a country which had been fighting a war along 800 km of its border while at the same time being under the pressure of economic sanctions could not possibly send its forces beyond its borders.

The presence of our forces and their cry of "God is great" is increasing the morale of the Syrian people, and the atmosphere of the garrison where our dear ones have been stationed has changed, and the Syrian militarymen, by merely observing the conduct of our forces and paying attention to Islam, are changing into Islamic forces.

KHOMEYNI MESSAGE ON RECONSTRUCTION CRUSADE

LD172216 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, special ceremonies marking the anniversary of the establishment of the reconstruction crusade have been held throughout Iran. In Tehran, villagers from various parts of the country wearing traditional dress marked the occasion by staging a march from 7 Tir Square to Enqelab Square.

During an Enqelab Square ceremony, the message sent on the occasion by Imam Khomeyni, leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran, was read by Hojjat ol-Eslam Seyyed Ahmad Khomeyni. The text of the imam's message is as follows:

In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. I congratulate the entire revolutionary and noble people of Iran, all the committed and dedicated strugglers pursuing the aspirations of the Muslim nation of Iran, on the occasion of 17 June, the reconstruction crusade's anniversary.

With the establishment of this valuable organization, our Islamic revolution was able to make its way into distant, deprived regions of the country and achieve, and to take its historical and Islamic mission, despite all plots and barriers, to all points of the country. Truly, the sons of Islam, the dedicated brothers and sisters with their participation in this revolutionary foundation, through their unprecedented sacrifices in the most difficult living conditions and in the hardest geographical regions of the country, have, in such a short time, been able to create so much at all levels for the benefit of Iran's deprived people.

There are quite a few among our strugglers who, on the path to improve the living of the deprived and oppressed people, have been martyred or disabled, and there are quite a few among our brothers and sisters who, in the most difficult conditions, embarked upon cultural and development projects and were martyred in a most ugly way by the Godless minigroups and the materialist hypocrites.

These Godless people well understood that it was these relief workers who planted the revolution's seeds in the villages and that it is through the development of the deprived regions that the deprived villager becomes a soldier and a guardian of his noble and Islamic revolution. The U.S. and its wage-taking mercenaries quickly arrived at the conclusion that it was through the sacred holy war by the sons of Islam that the saplings of the Islamic revolution grow in the remote villages and towns of this territory. It is for the same reason they consider any relief worker defending the revolution, Islam and this Koran to be like a combatant on the battlefield.

The role played by the reconstruction crusade in the war is no less than that of our combatant forces. Our military and Guards Corps commanders have repeatedly confessed that without the role played by the reconstruction crusade, victory would have not been achieved so quickly. One has to confess that the crusade has brought their Islamic revolution the greatest honor, and by committing and dedicating themselves to Almighty God and the faith, they have emerged as the best example for all the committed and Muslim youth of the Islamic Republic. Nowadays, in every corner of the country and in the most remote, deprived villages, one would see the dedicated personnel of the reconstruction crusade who have arrived there well before anyone else. You would see that despite the lack of the necessary means, they, with whatever means they had at their disposal, have made every effort to eliminate [word indistinct], problems, disease and other shortcomings, and in many cases have not spared their lives in order to provide the people with welfare equipment. Every time I meet with the young, energetic and dedicated members of the reconstruction crusade or I hear and see the results of their valuable and living cultural works, through the media, I pray in my heart for their prosperity and success.

Congratulations for what you have done to give Islam and the Islamic revolution such honor. Greetings be upon you for the way you have agreed to face martyrdom in order to realize the aspirations of the Muslim and revolutionary people of Iran, and for the fulfillment of Islam's concepts. I thank you for ignoring our enemies' empty propaganda, any differences in language and cloth, so that nothing prevented you from individual and collective effort.

Now you are witnessing how -- by wearing your traditional costumes, speaking your local dialects, walking hand in hand -- you are participating in such a great and important gathering. I hope the way you have used your material and spiritual means for reconstruction of the country has left you strength enough for reconstructing yourselves and the others, which in my view has priority over any other reconstruction needs. As I have repeatedly said, make reconstruction of the spirit a priority. Thus, with the assistance of God, with the force of faith, your tasks will advance in the best manner and in quickest time so that we can achieve [word indistinct] and lead this country to self-sufficiency and full development as quickly as possible.

May Almighty God desire it. May peace be upon you.

NVOI PRAISES EAST, DENIES SOVIET-U.S. COLLUSION

TA172135 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Let Us Learn a Lesson From the Bitter Experiences Resulting From the Ploy of the Qotbzadehs"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As we are aware, these days our homeland's newspapers and mass media are reporting on the work of the international seminar pertaining to the issues that concern national and liberation movements. In the broad and real sense, national and liberation movements constitute such a powerful force in our world that so far, by solidarity and unity with the socialist camp and the great international labor movement, they have been able to fulfil a lofty and determining role in our world in the struggle of captive nations against imperialism, headed by the United States.

In our era and in the various countries of the world, national liberation movements have never been confined within the framework of single and exclusive ideological and religious beliefs, but rather, on the contrary, they comprised and continue to comprise organizations, associations and parties that have various ideas, ideologies and faiths and which have pursued and continue to pursue a single goal, namely, the expulsion of imperialism, the achievement of independence, freedom and national sovereignty and the attainment of a government of justice and law.

We do not have to look very far. These days there is talk everywhere about the aggressions of the criminal Israel and the brave battle of the Palestinian combatants and the Palestine liberation movement against the Israeli and American aggressors. In this same Palestine liberation movement various associations, organizations and societies with different beliefs, faiths and ideologies are united and fighting for a single goal, namely, the liberation of their homeland's soil from the presence of foreign occupiers and the establishment of an independent and free Palestinian government.

For many years these associations and societies that have different religious and ideological beliefs, despite various plots by imperialism and Zionism carried out under various guises and by different elements, have fought and are fighting Israel and America in a unified manner within the framework of the Palestine Liberation Organization.

In our world if we truly and seriously want to talk about national liberation movements it is difficult to find a national liberation movement in a developing and captive country in which progressive, national and religious organizations, associations and parties have not participated collectively. This is the reality of our era and one of the undeniable characteristics of liberation movements.

The reality is -- and experience has repeatedly confirmed this fact -- that in any country a national liberation movement can only triumph in the struggle against despotism and imperialism when it encompasses all struggling and revolutionary religious and nonreligious organizations, parties, associations and group.

It is not without reason that imperialism and reaction have always strived to prevent the formation in one country or another of a national liberation movement within the context of alliance and unity of deed and expression of all true revolutionary forces, whether religious or nonreligious.

One of the methods employed by colonialism and imperialism in preventing the cohesion of the national liberation movement in this or that country is the creation of ideological and religious differences. Under the pretext that revolutionary parties and organizations which have different views are pagan and apostate, and that their cooperation with religious people and the revolutionary clergy in a single front and for the sake of a common aim is impossible, imperialist elements have always strived actually to prevent their unity and struggle in a unified national liberation movement. This is the bitter and painful experience of life.

In the past some of the liberation movements suffered fatal blows as a result of these same acts by the mass media and the mercenary imperialist ideologues. Indeed if today in a world in which so many bitter experiences of colonialism and imperialism are before our eyes, certain persons continue to insist on testing that which has already been tested, these persons are either unaware of what is going on in the world or they have a motive.

One does not expect the pseudoclergy, who are the implementors of the plans of U.S. imperialism and its allies, or the associates of the large landowners and major capitalists to take any step toward the cohesion of national liberation movements.

We are addressing those whose anti-imperialism is not in doubt but who, because of a lack of complete information and due to the impact of the intimations of imperialist mass media and these same pseudoclergy and court preachers, do not have a realistic assessment and judgment about national liberation movements and their actual allies in our world.

One should give a convincing reply to this question: Who other than socialist countries, and above all the Soviet Union, and the great international labor movement and national liberation movements are the real and actual allies of the same Palestine liberation movements and the countries of the steadfastness front -- about whom we make so much of our solidarity -- in the face of Israel's and world-devouring America's aggression and crime? Which government other than the Soviet Union, and according to the gentlemen "the East," defended and continues to defend the Palestine liberation movement from the moral, military and economic standpoint against Israel's and America's aggression?

The leaders of the Palestine liberation movement themselves and the countries of the steadfastness front explicitly acknowledge and confirm this fact, but at the same time there are certain persons in our country who, contrary to all moral, human and Islamic mores, put forward the absurd and ridiculous claim that allegedly Israel's aggression on Lebanon as well is the result of Soviet-U.S. collusion.

This is precisely the same as the nonsense by the dregs of the counterrevolution who say that, for example, the leaders of our revolution and our Islamic government were brought to power by the Americans themselves with a specific plan. Where is the human and Islamic ethics about which they keep talking?

Or for instance, in connection with this same international seminar, they say: Do not believe that the East is better than the West; if you are struggling against imperialism do not rely on the East and vice versa. Namely, they place the fraternal and human cooperation of the East, that is, socialist countries and foremost of all the Soviet Union, with nations that are struggling against U.S. imperialism on the same level with the unequal, dependent and plundering relations of the United States with these nations.

How does this claim conform with reality and with the standards of Islamic ethics? Why do you mislead public opinion, and why do you not want to learn a lesson from the bitter experiences resulting from the plots and ploys of the Qotbzadehs and Bani-Sadrs?

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- Israel has set no time limit for the cease-fire but will react to any infringements by the other side, Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor announced after the 20 June Israeli Cabinet meeting in remarks broadcast by Jerusalem radio. Asked about reports that U.S. envoy Philip Habib has said the PLO may lay down its arms in exchange for participation in autonomy negotiations, Meridor reaffirmed that Israel will never negotiate with an organization whose stated aim is to liberate Palestine from the Jews.

Meanwhile, AFP reported that renewed artillery exchanges in south Beirut late on 20 June threatened to end the tacit truce that had endured beyond the 48-hour limit. Beirut radio said the shelling continued unabated early on 21 June with Israeli warships bombarding Beirut. While Jerusalem radio, citing the IDF spokesman, said Israeli forces had returned "terrorist" fire, a statement carried by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio accused the IDF of violating the cease-fire by resuming the shelling of Beirut and inflicting losses on civilians. The Israelis also shelled Syrian positions in 'Alayh early on 21 June, according to Voice of Lebanon radio. The radio subsequently reported that 4 Syrian tanks were hit and that Iranian volunteers have meanwhile deployed heavy weapons in the Bhamdun area.

Earlier, Jerusalem television noted that Israeli forces had occupied Beirut International Airport.

Sharon Remarks -- As a military and political center for the "terrorists," Beirut is a target that cannot be left as it is, Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said in remarks broadcast by Jerusalem radio on 20 June. Sharon likewise said in an interview broadcast by Jerusalem television the same day that as long as the "terrorist organizations" retain their headquarters in Beirut, it is dfficult to say the IDF's mission has been fully achieved. In an earlier television interview the defense minister noted that the IDF faces some 6,000 "terrorists" in Beirut along with dispersed remnants of the Syrian forces there, as well as a Syrian force in the 'Alayh sector which has been reinforced by volunteers from other countries. Regarding Israel's ability to pressure Syria into withdrawing from Lebanon, Sharon said the deployment of Israeli forces on the Lebanese-Syrian borders, which has brought Damascus within Israeli artillery range, is a strong bargaining chip for Israel.

Syrian Statements, Diplomacy -- Syria wants to raise its treaty of friendship and alliance with the USSR to the level of a "strategic alliance" in order to confront Israel and the Arab nation's enemies, Syrian Information Minister Ahmad Iskandar Ahmad declared at a Damascus press conference reported by Damascus radio.

Asked about the reasons behind Syria's moves to expand its relations with the USSR and whether the treaty of friendship has become insufficient, Ahmad said Syria does not want any ceiling to its friendship and cooperation with the USSR, Damascus television reported; he added that when the alliance is signed and the terms are published, the answer will be very clean. Commenting on reports that Syria rejected a request by Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis to withdraw Syrian forces from Lebanon, the minister said Syria is convinced that the request was made under duress and therefore Syrian forces could not withdraw, according to the television. He said Syrian forces entered Lebanon at the request of the legitimate Lebanese authority and by an Arab summit resolution and added that "as they entered Lebanese territory...so shall they leave."

Asked about Syria's acceptance of a cease-fire with Israel, Ahmad said Syria does not object to a cease-fire if it is based on a comprehensive Israeli withdrawal. However, he went on to stress that Syrian forces will stand by the Lebanese and Palestinians until the last Israeli soldier leaves.

A Progressive National Front Central Command statement broadcast by Damascus radio called on the Arab masses to destroy U.S. interests and struggle against U.S. institutions with all available means to show their support for the Palestinian Revolution.

Meanwhile, Syrian Foreign Minister 'Abd al-Halim Khaddam held separate meetings with Saudi King Fahd and Foreign Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal over the weekend, according to SPA reports. The situation in Lebanon was one of the subjects discussed at the sessions.

Egyptian Proposal, PLO Rejection -- Egypt welcomes the formation of a "provisional Palestinian government" in Cairo which would shoulder the responsibility of the political struggle, President Husni Mubarak declared in a statement to journalists carried by MENA. Mubarak noted that the idea was first proposed by President Anwar as-Sadat. However, Palestinian sources subsequently announced the PLO's rejection of the Egyptian idea of forming a government-in-exile, according to Monte Carlo radio.

Egyptian Media, President on U.S. Role -- An AL-AKHBAR editorial cited by MENA criticized the U.S. role in Lebanon which supports Israel's aggression against Lebanon and the Palestinians. The paper added that the United States has committed a big mistake against itself and its interests and noted that the Arabs have resources with which they can influence the world. It said Secretary of State Alexander Haig's repeated statements about U.S. efforts to achieve a cease-fire in Lebanon only arouse ridicule and laughter.

President Mubarak, during an interview carried by MENA, warned that Israel's continued occupation of Lebanon could affect not only Egyptian-U.S. relations but all Arab-U.S. relations. Asked about the possibility of U.S. forces being stationed in Lebanon, Mubarak said the United States should keep its forces away from this area.

Saudi Warning -- In a royal court statement carried by Riyadh radio, Saudi Arabia warned Israel against storming Beirut and declared that such a step would impede all the political and Arab efforts which are being exerted in all spheres and would present the Arab nation with its historic responsibility: to defend its territories with all its resources.

PLO Statement, Leader Remarks -- A statement issued by the Palestine National Council in Jordan expressed sorrow and bitterness over the general Arab attitude toward the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and called on the Arab states to give greater support to the Palestinian Resistance, Amman television reported. The statement called for an Arab political, economic and oil boycott of the United States while at the same time calling on the USSR to increase its support to the PLO.

In an interview with the FRG newspaper FRANKFURTER RUNDSCHAU, PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat reaffirmed that the Palestinian Resistance will not lay down its arms, the Voice of Palestine reported. Earlier, during an interview carried by Monte Carlo radio, PLO Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf categorically rejected a U.S. proposal for the PLO to hand over its weapons to the Lebanese Army. He declared that the PLO will remain in its camps and fight alone until the whole world realizes that the PLO will not willingly turn over its weapons. Asked about Arab silence regarding the events in Lebanon, Khalaf warned that if a Palestinian or Lebanese fighter survives this battle he will know how to take all these "onlooking and silent people to task."

National Salvation Council Meeting -- The National Salvation Council held its first meeting on 20 June under the chairmanship of Lebanese President Sarkis with all members in attendance, Beirut radio reported. In a statement after the meeting, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan noted that the session was held in a "good atmosphere."

He said views expressed at the meeting were given in "complete frankness" and added that it is with such frankness that understanding and agreement on ideas and solutions can be easily reached, according to the radio. Al-Wazzan noted that another meeting of the council might take place in the next 2 days after the council has undertaken some tasks.

Arab Meetings -- Libya's Voice of Arab Homeland radio reported that the Steadfastness and Confrontation Front countries as well as a number of other Arab countries including Lebanon have agreed to the urgent convening of an Arab summit. However, INA reported that Lebanon has refused to attend an emergency meeting of Arab foreign ministers to prepare for an Arab summit conference.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Iraqi Withdrawal -- In a live speech to the nation carried by the Baghdad radio on 20 June, Iraqi President Saddam Husayn announced that Iraq has begun and will complete within 10 days the withdrawal of all its forces from Iranian towns and territory. He noted that despite Iran's negative response to the 10 June Revolution Command Council (RCC) statement, in which Iraq unilaterally declared a cease-fire, the RCC has decided to abide by the contents of the statement. Husayn went on to say that one of the reasons for the withdrawal decision is to eliminate an important pretext being used by Iran to continue the war and to put Iran to a decisive test to disclose the rest of its real intentions to Arab and world public opinion. He added that this decision also eliminates the pretext used by some Arab rulers who hesitated to support Iraq because it was occupying parts of Iranian territory. The Iraqi president continued by saying that this action also places before the Arab states their obligations in accordance with the Arab League Charter and pan-Arab responsibility.

Husayn said that because of this decision Iraq's forces will be stationed on their own borders and will remain inflexible concerning territory since any further withdrawal would allow Iranian forces to enter Iraq. He cautioned the nation that it now faces the possibility of a direct defense of its territory and a more noble battle that will demand greater sacrifices.

Husayn also said Iraq will continue its efforts with the bodies that undertook to mediate the conflict in order to end the dispute and reach a just and honorable settlement.

Commenting on Husayn's decision, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni declared this is only one of Iran's conditions to end the war, Tehran radio reported. He said that until Iran's other conditions are met the war will continue.

Military Situation -- Iraqi military communiques carried by Baghdad radio from 18 to 20 June maintained that Iraqi forces were continuing to abide by the RCC's decision to halt combat operations. The communiques noted that Iraqi units returned fire only in response to Iranian artillery fire.

According to a 19 June military communique carried by Tehran radio, 160 Iraqis were killed or wounded during operations on the western front on 17 June.

Iran

Relations with Libya -- In a joint communique broadcast by Tehran radio on 20 June, Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi and visiting Libyan Staff Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud announced their firm intention to use all available resources to destroy Zionism and invite all the world's Muslims to join the army of Jerusalem. Both sides also demand the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Afghanistan, the communique noted. While the Libyan side condemned the Iraqi regime's war against Iran, the Iranians condemned U.S. "aggression" and "provocations" against Libya and expressed thanks for the support given Iran by the Steadfastness and Confrontation Front. Stressing that Iran has strengthened the front by "joining" it, the Libyan side invited Iranian officials to participate in future front conferences at any level they wish. According to IRNA, Jallud met earlier with Ayatollah Hoseyn 'Ali Montazeri, who said Iran expects Libya to rush aid to the Muslims of southern Lebanon without wasting time.

Security Situation -- Sixty counterrevolutionaries were killed or wounded in a 19 June clash with security forces in the Miando'ab region and over 14 Mojahedin-e Khalq were killed by revolution guards in Tehran, according to Tehran radio reports.

Libya

Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi, during an interview with an Austrian political science delegation, warned that if the United States holds maneuvers in the Gulf of Sidra area this fall it will mean war, Vienna radio reported. He added that Libya hopes the United States does not commit itself to a disastrous mistake that could result in a military conflict with Libya, in which the Soviet Union might intervene.

Jordan

A joint Jordanian-Romanian communique called for the convocation of a UN-sponsored international conference to achieve a comprehensive solution to the Middle East conflict and condemned the Israeli invasion of Lebanon. The communique, which was broadcast by Amman radio on 19 June, came at the end of President Nicolae Ceausescu's official visit to Jordan.

Cordovez told Pakistani newsmen after the talks that although their task was difficult, so far the talks were going well.

A Pakistani Government official, commenting on the talks, told REUTER in Geneva that the Karmal administration has said it wants to find a solution to this problem. We have to see whether it really wants one.

[Text] The personal representative of the UN secretary general, Diego Cordovez, held separate closed-door discussions with Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan and Foreign Minister of the Karmal regime Shah Mohammad Dost in a bid to find the comprehensive solution to the Afghan crisis in Geneva today.

Later, a spokesman for Cordovez said the negotiations will be resumed on Monday. Informed sources said the two sides were still engaged in seeking clarifications from each other's standpoint on the agenda. Pakistan's reply in nutshell, the sources said, was that what the Karmal regime spokesman described as interference was in fact spontaneous struggle of the Afghan people inside their own country against the presence of foreign troops.

Mujahidin were fighting their war all by themselves and on their own resources. There were no training camps on Pakistan side nor was a free route for the transit of arms to the resistance movement. Pakistan was not cooperating with any foreign power to help the mujahidin. In this connection, the Pakistan delegation reiterated its offer of inspection of Pakistani border along Afghanistan by an agreed international group.

Pakistan also pointed out that it was keeping the Afghan refugees purely on humanitarian considerations and if the other side still had doubts the United Nations could organize an independent and impartial commission to ascertain the wishes of the Afghan refugees.

AFP: 2 FRENCH DOCTORS ESCAPE SOVIET DRAGNET

BK191445 Hong Kong AFP in English 1418 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Text] Peshawar, June 19 (AFP) -- Two French women doctors who escaped a Soviet dragnet in the Panjsher Valley by hiding in caves with Afghan rebels witnessed a successful 18-day Soviet offensive which crushed resistance in the rebel stronghold.

Laurence Lemonnier and Capucine de Bretagne, of the International Medical Aid association (AMI), said the Soviet-Afghan forces have occupied two thirds of the Panjsher Valley, about 100 kms (60 miles) northeast of Kabul.

The doctors, who were in the Panjsher Valley since last October, were earlier believed captured by the Soviet forces. They hid out in caves with people from the Panjsher Valley while Soviet warplanes poured bombs into the valley and 10,000 Soviet-Afghan troops attacked.

"The Russians were looking for us personally. In every village they asked the old people who were there "where are the two French women?" Dr. Lemonnier said.

She said that helicopters dropped leaflets on to a village near where they were hiding, calling on the population to help capture Masud Ahmed Shah, the rebel leader.

The leaflet's tracts said that the "immoral Masud who is hiding in the mountains with the two French prostitutes wants to help the Americans, the French and the Chinese to grab the Panjsher emeralds," Dr. Lemonnier said.

"Even if the Soviet argument was correct, it soon lost its effect as the village was smashed by bombs one hour later," Dr. Lemonnier said.

She said her medical team was in the valley May 17 when news broke of an imminent Soviet offensive, and was ordered to evacuate the hospital containing 10 wounded to a neighbouring valley which was quiet.

"For five days, from 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., about 100 helicopters and SU-24 fighter bombers led by a big observation plane systematically pounded the valley along its 60 kms (35 miles)," Dr. Lemonnier said.

The first Soviet troops were massacred by night by the Afghan rebels, who seized 550 Kalashnikov assault rifles, she said. "They (the rebels) reacted to the offensive by saying 'It's just as well they're coming so we can kill some and steal their weapons,'" the doctor said.

She said that as the fighting went on through the night, Panjsher villagers went back to their devastated homes and watered their crops in the hope of harvesting once the Soviets had left.

Dr. Lemonnier said that the small plain where they found refuge was the target of Soviet attacks.

"After we were bombed we became frightened. It took me four days to get over the shock, while Capucine after two days' rest had already started to go on her rounds of the mountain hideouts again to care for the wounded," she said.

"The Afghans were lucky. We only had about a dozen wounded in 18 days and the number of dead was low," she said.

Dr. Lemonnier noted that a report received here from Masud Ahmed Shah conceded that two-thirds of the valley was now under Soviet control, but that the Soviet-Afghan forces had lost 2,000-3,000 men while the rebel forces had very few losses.

She said the rebel leader asked 1,000 rebels sent as reinforcements from Bamyan in central Afghanistan to block roads between Kabul and the Panjsher "because he obviously thought he could confront the situation in the valley itself."

RAO MAKES 'STRONG CONDEMNATION' OF ISRAEL

BK191629 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Excerpt] External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao has said that India is in touch with countries concerned for a possible nonaligned initiative to deal with the West Asian crisis. He was speaking at a meeting organized by the All-India Indo-Arab Friendship Association in New Delhi today.

In a strong condemnation of the Israeli aggression on Lebanon and Palestinians, Rao said it is not merely aggression but total lawlessness in international affairs. He said Israel, small in size but armed to the teeth, is launching aggression in another country in the name of self-defense. It is a challenge to the whole international community. India has always been opposed to the induction of arms disproportionate to the size of a country as it leads to destabilization in the entire region.

Rao said there is no doubt that the PLO is bound to succeed in its struggle. India is alert to the situation and is not relenting in providing assistance to the suffering Palestinians.

The Soviet Union is to give 960 million rupees as credit for project planning, supply of equipment and training facilities. Project reports are being prepared for two major open cast mines in India. They are Mukunda mines in Jharia coalfields in Bihar and Nigahi project in Singrauli in Madhya Pradesh. Jharia coalfield is estimated to yield 12 million tons of coal a year while the Nigahi project will have an annual capacity of 14 million tons. A team of Indian experts are to visit Moscow soon in this connection.

The chief engineer of the USSR State Mine Planning Institute in Leningrad, (Nohimin), told Press Trust of India in Moscow that the institute is also preparing project reports for the improvement of the two existing washeries -- Kataria and Pathardin -- to handle increased production of coal.

EXPRESS URGES RESTRUCTURING OF ARMED FORCES

BK201527 Delhi INDIAN EXPRESS in English 9 Jun 82 p 6

[Editorial: "Restructuring Defence"]

The chief of army staff was obviously offering a considered opinion based on his own experience and, presumably, reflecting the informal thinking of his opposite numbers in the air force and navy. The idea is not new and has been mooted on several occasions over the past two decades. But it has always been turned down on the ground that the role in which the Indian Armed Forces was cast did not warrant the creation of a new focus for security planning and that the existing Joint Chiefs of Staff Committee was perfectly adequate for purposes of inter-service coordination. The unspoken argument against creating the new office was the fear of vesting too much power and prestige in the hands of a single military officer who might then be tempted to stage a coup. Such reasoning is entirely fallacious and fanciful and must be dismissed. It was perhaps also earlier felt that the growth of the two smaller services, the air force and the navy, might be inhibited by a dominant chairman of the joint chiefs of staff who, in all probability, would always be drawn from the army.

Structural change is, however, overdue. India now possesses one of the largest armed forces in the world. The new technology that has been inducted into all three services is also of a kind that requires much more careful planning and coordination. The three services were never independent arms at any time, but the degree of interdependence has grown greatly with the passage of time. Joint operations are likely to become increasingly necessary and would require a different structure of command and control and new forms of training.

Apart from all this, the external security environment has undergone change, especially in the Gulf and West Asia and in the Indian Ocean. The Indian Armed Forces must therefore be structured for tomorrow's battles, not yesterday's.

There is equal need for closer integration between foreign policy, internal security and defence. The Political Affairs Committee of the Cabinet is no substitute for a national security council as an aid to strategic planning and decision making. Unfortunately, defence has been treated as a sacred cow and placed under wraps and hard questioning on security issues has almost come to be regarded as unpatriotic. This is nonsense. Hopefully, General Krishna Rao's statement will start a debate on a critical area of national policy which has been too little discussed for too long.

VELAYATI: FORCES TO ENGAGE IN LEBANON 'SHORTLY'

LD201214 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 20 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati, accompanied by a high-ranking political-military delegation, returned to Tehran from Syria this morning.

Commenting on his visit and on its outcome in an interview with an IRNA correspondent, the foreign minister said: The purpose of our visit to Syria was to coordinate the political and military aspects of relations between Iran and Syria in the light of the recent invasion of southern Lebanon by Zionist forces which took place on the order of the arch-Satan, America.

He added: In the course of the meeting with Hafiz al-Asad and other Syrian officials we came to the conclusion that a certain amount of coordination is necessary, so that the Iranian and Syrian forces, side by side with their Lebanese and Palestinian brothers, may put the usurping Israel in its place.

Referring to the sending of Iranian forces to southern Lebanon, Velayati said: Preliminary steps for this move have already been taken; our forces have already carried out reconnaissance. They will shortly become engaged in action.

Commending on the cease-fire between Syria and Israel, he said: As already stated by our Brother Hafiz al-Asad, a cease-fire depends on the withdrawal of Zionist forces from Lebanon. Right now Syrian forces are engaged in battle alongside Palestinian forces in southern Lebanon and even in Beirut against Zionist forces. Therefore, there is no cease-fire.

RAFSANJANI: OPPORTUNITY TO DESTROY ZIONISM

LD182110 Tehran IRNA in English 1940 GMT 18 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 18, IRNA -- Hojatt ol-Eslam Rafsanjani in today's Friday prayers delivered a sermon in Arabic addressed to the Muslims of the region. In his speech he discussed the Zionist attack on southern Lebanon.

Rafsanjani said that the Islamic world was currently going through a crucial period. World oppressors and infidels had launched a repulsive and inhuman attack against the Muslims and this great plot was in the process of implementation. The Zionist regime, using all its resources, had shamelessly attacked the oppressed and deprived people of Lebanon and was brutally massacring the Palestinian refugees and war victims who have been suffering from injustice for many years, said Rafsanjani.

Referring to the role of the United States in the Zionist attack the hojatt ol-Eslam said that the U.S. had instigated the action, officially approved it, promised more arms to the Zionist regime and vetoed the proposal for sanctions against the Zionists in the United Nations.

At the same time Menahem Begin has travelled to the U.S., the French Government has openly and officially announced that the Zionists had been successful in crushing 'terrorists', the Zionist foreign minister had been visiting France and the West German foreign minister had been in occupied Palestine right before the Zionist regime launched the act of aggression. Meanwhile, he added, the heads of NATO in their secret meetings in Versailles approved the plot and the Zionist Cabinet announced officially that it had been acting within the framework of U.S. policies.

Continuing his speech, Hojjat ol-Eslam Rafsanjani, referring to the extensive collaboration involved in the Zionist aggression, said that high-ranking U.S. officials visiting the capitals of Arab countries were being given warm welcomes and Egypt, by establishing airline routes with Tel Aviv, had in fact disgraced the Islamic world.

The Iraqi Ba'thist regime imposed conditions for allowing the passage of the Iranian combatants through its territory to join the Lebanese and Palestinian combatants fighting against the Zionist regime. The condition was, he added, that the Iranian forces should surrender and a cease-fire be accepted by the Islamic Republic in which Iran would [word indistinct] rights.

In another part of his speech Rafsanjani referred to the silence of the leaders of the Islamic countries as "mean spirited." These same leaders who approved Saddam's aggression against the Islamic Republic of Iran had mobilised all their political, economic and military resources to this end but had not taken a single step towards combatting the aggression and injustice of the Zionist regime except by uttering a few empty words, Rafsanjani pointed out. By doing this they had left the Syrians and Lebanese isolated in their confrontation with the attacks of unbelievers and were still continuing to concentrate all their efforts on crushing Islam in Iran and rescuing the criminal aggressor Saddam.

However, Hojjat ol-Eslam Rafsanjani continued, despite all these calamities there were bright horizons in sight which heralded hopes for ridding the region of the Zionists. He cited these as being the fact that the people of Lebanon and the Palestinians were continuing their resistance with all their might, that part of the Iranian forces who have been defending their homeland, have gone to join the Palestinian and Lebanese forces in their fight against the Zionist regime, that the Muslim volunteers were pouring in to join the Muslim combatants in southern Lebanon and, undoubtedly, this move would bring the Muslim governments into the arena of action whether they wanted it or not.

At the same time, talks between Iran and the steadfastness front to form a great organisation to attract and absorb parts of the large numbers of volunteers, were in process. He further added that Syria [words indistinct] for jihad and that the Zionist regime had fallen into the trap and had engaged a large number of its forces in Lebanon. As a result, the [words indistinct] prayers leader added, an opportunity had become available to destroy all Zionist forces in a long-term war. The impudence and audacity of the Zionism in this action were so clear for the world that a move by the Muslims for the elimination of the Zionist state would have an acceptable basis in international public opinion. At the same time, the Iraqi Ba'thist Government and the king of Jordan, who have always been obstacles in the way of jihad, were not in a position to create any problems, he explained.

Rafsanjani further hoped that this obstacle would soon be removed and that the extent of the anti-Zionist front would cover the area between the [words indistinct] river, located in south-eastern Iran.

At the end of his speech Rafsanjani said that the reactionaries of the region were not in a position to stand against Iran and added: "Now the time for the creation of an army for the salvation of Al-Quds and Palestine, with the participation of volunteer forces and the financial and moral support of the Muslims of the world, has come."

LD182120 Tehran IRNA in English 1955 GMT 18 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 18, IRNA -- Majlis speaker and temporary Friday prayers leader of Tehran, Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani, said here today that the only way to stand against the regime occupying Al-Quds would be to form a joint army of the Muslim nations of the region.

He said the Zionist aggression against southern Lebanon and its massacre of civilians had helped to open the eyes of the people and the situation is ideal for a united struggle against the regime. Rafsanjani said that economically the Zionist regime was in a very bad shape and that if ever the Muslim peoples of the region should beseige it, the regime would soon be annihilated.

Hojatt ol-Eslam Rafsanjani, who was talking to thousands of worshippers at Tehran University campus minutes before the Friday mid-day prayers here, said that the United States had attacked against Lebanon because it had failed to defeat Iran in the war imposed by Iraq. He said if Iran had not sent troops to Syria, then in all probability a cease-fire would have already been imposed on the Arab nations of the region.

Rafsanjani said the dispatching of troops by Iran to Syria would not adversely affect Iran's capability for fighting the invading Iraqi troops since there were "already thousands of volunteers who are anxiously looking forward to be sent to the battlefronts." He said Iran would continue supporting the people who were being transgressed against by the Zionist regime because it considered the Zionist invasion against southern Lebanon closely related to the invasion against the Islamic Republic by the Baghdad regime.

The hojatt ol-Eslam sharply denounced the United Nations and its affiliated organizations for remaining silent in the face of the continuing massacre of civilians in southern Lebanon. He said while such organisations had established "institutions for the prevention of cruelty to animals", they were watching in cold blood civilians "being butchered" by the Zionist forces in Lebanon.

He also denounced the Western societies for remaining silent in the face of the massacre in southern Lebanon and also censored the French "Zionist" president for having spoken of the Zionists success in suppressing what the French president had termed "terrorism" in southern Lebanon.

KHAMENE'I REJECTS LEBANESE SALVATION COUNCIL

LD201428 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 20 Jun 82

[Excerpts] The Islamic Republic of Iran, being the very essence of the Islamic revolution, cannot leave Saddam, the Ba'th Party -- this pro-'Aflaq criminal Iraqi party -- unpunished in view of its many sins. This is our humanitarian obligation; it is not simply an obligation toward the people and the oppressed. This is a worldwide obligation. The Iraqi problem is not merely a border or regional problem.

Our analysis shows that at least one of the objectives of Israel's invasion of southern Lebanon was to save Saddam, thus minimizing Saddam's issue. However, with God's blessing, we shall smash Saddam here and his sympathizers, collaborators and Zionist friends there through the Islamic revolution's blows. [shouts of approval and "God is great"]

The Iraqi problem is a live and topical issue for us here. As before, gigantic Muslim forces deal with this problem; they must deal with it. Here we refused to accept a cease-fire; we refused to submit to this imposed peace.

As for Lebanon, we believe the cease-fire must be rejected; we shall not accept it. There, too, an American peace and things within the context of an American peace are unacceptable to us.

Policies such as those of the National Salvation (?Council) of Lebanon, meant as a means to help the enemies of the Palestinian Revolution, are considered by us rejected and doomed policies.

Our participation on the fronts in Lebanon is tantamount to participating on one of two similar fronts, both springing from the same source.

LIBYA'S JALLUD MAKES PREDEPARTURE STATEMENT

LD182348 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 18 Jun 82

He said presently one billion Muslims are being oppressed by rulers, kings and [word indistinct]. At the same time, the position taken by the Islamic revolutions of Libya and Iran is being attacked by America, Zionism, fuedals and capitalists of the West. Therefore, we should mobilize the exploited Muslim oppressed masses with an Islamic and popular revolution to make them rise and defeat idols, kings and reactionaries with their Islamic revolution. If the prophet, peace be upon him, at the dawn of Islam had to destroy stone idols that could not speak, there are now idols and pigs in Saudi Arabia and other reactionary countries who can talk and eat and are conspiring against Muslim masses. It is up to the Muslim revolutionaries in Libya and Iran to persuade the Muslim masses to stage a popular and Islamic revolution so that the oppressed can defeat the oppressors, and the committed and Hezbollahi can come to power as promised in the Koran.

Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud said he is happy with his visit to Iran. He said: I believe that this visit will strengthen relations between the two Muslim nations and the two revolutions, and these relations will use all the spiritual, material, military and political capabilities of the two countries to defend the two Islamic revolutions and implement the jihad to liberate Palestine, Jerusalem and gain victory over reactionaries, Zionism and America. This is through Islam, under which all are equal and brothers. It is the duty of the two Muslim and brotherly nations of Libya and Iran to launch a jihad in order to achieve a progressive and authentic Islam.

Today, the world of Islam has been attacked by a crusade in which Christianity, Zionism and reactionaries have joined forces. Now it is the wealth of the Arab nations that, in the form of tanks and airplanes, is used to annihilate Muslims in Lebanon and Palestinians and Syrians in Lebanon.

It is the duty of Muslim masses to rise and defend them against this aggression. In this connection, belief is the greatest force, and we shall be victorious. We will destroy Satans and reactionaries. Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud said: The all-round cooperation agreed on should be implemented by all Muslim revolutionaries in Iran and Libya and not just be up to Brother Musavi and I to implement. This cooperation is a jihad and will strengthen our spiritual and material powers and give us strength to rise against this crusade and defeat it in order to restore Islam's honor.

JOINT COMMUNIQUE ISSUED ON JALLUD'S VISIT

["Text" of joint Iranian-Libyan communique signed by Libyan Revolution Command Council member Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud and Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi -- released on 20 June]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. At the invitation of Mr Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, the prime minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Maj 'Abd as-Salam Ahmad Jallud and a delegation accompanying him paid a brotherly and official visit to the Islamic Republic of Iran from 12-18 June. Brother Maj 'Abd as-Salam Ahmad Jallud met with Mr Khamene'i, the president of the Islamic Republic of Iran, and with Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the speaker of the Islamic Majlis, and at these meetings matters of mutual interest to both sides were discussed and debated.

Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud had important talks with Brother Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, the prime minister, in connection with different spiritual, political, military, economic and cultural issues.

Mr Jallud and Mr Musavi described these meetings as very beneficial and helpful in strengthening the unity of world Muslims and the struggles of the oppressed against oppression and world Zionism and stressed the importance of continuing such contacts. Major Jallud and the delegation accompanying him visited the graves of martyrs of the Islamic revolution and of the imposed war at Behesht-e Zahra cemetery and, while praising the stature of the innocent martyr Ayatollah Beheshti, of the martyred President Raja'i of the martyred Prime Minister Bahonar and of the other martyrs, he prayed for them.

While expressing his happiness over the victories gained by the combatants of Islam, and especially the liberation of Khorramshahr from the hands of the mercenary regime of Saddam, Major Jallud considered these victories to be the first step in the liberation of all the dear land of Palestine, of all other occupied Islamic lands and dear Jerusalem. Mr Musavi described the situation regarding the imposed war and announced that the Islamic Republic of Iran deems it its natural right to resort to any action in order to regain all its rights from the aggressive regime of Saddam. Major Jallud condemned the imposed and aggressive war waged by Saddam's regime and announced his support for Iran's stance.

Brother Jallud gave an account of the attack launched by American imperialism and the economic pressures imposed by America on the Libyan Jamahiriyah and on its nation in order to stop the progress of that country's revolution. Brother Musavi announced his strong support for the resistance shown by the Libyan people against American imperialism.

The Islamic Republic of Iran condemns the direct aggression against the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamihiriyah and America's repeated violations of the territorial sovereignty, airspace and coastal waters of the Libyan Jamahiriyah in the Gulf of Sidra and also the unethical behavior and economic provocations and pressures against the Arab Jamahiriyah.

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, supporting the struggles of the Steadfastness and Confrontation Front in fighting imperialism, Zionism and reactionary forces, thanks the front for the expression of support from its member countries for the position adopted by the Islamic Republic of Iran regarding the imposed war, and the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriyah stresses that Iran's joining the front has strengthened it.

Major Jallud invited the officials of the Islamic Republic of Iran to take part in the front's future conference at any level they wish. Both sides confirmed the sublime objectives of the Nonaligned Movement and emphasized that holding the seventh nonaligned summit in Baghdad will neutralize the efforts of this movement in carrying out its duties toward the oppressed masses. Both sides' believe that all the holy shrines of the Muslims of the world, like Mecca, Medina, the Al-Aqsa Mosque and others should be liberated from individual, imperialist and Zionist influences.

Both sides believe that the treacherous Zionist aggression against southern Lebanon is a plot and a conspiracy to expand Zionism, which is backed by America and by reactionary forces, and its objective is to fulfill the dreams of the Zionist enemy in destroying the Muslim people of Palestine, crushing the Palestine Liberation Organization, smashing the national force and the Muslim and revolutionary people of Lebanon, exerting pressure on Syria in order to impose compromising conditions on this country and saving Saddam's mercenary regime from certain downfall -- which would warrant the military presence of American imperialism -- and preventing the wave of Islamic revolution from expanding. Both sides consider it their Islamic duty and their strategic objective to liberate dear Jerusalem and all the other occupied Palestinian territories from the claws of usurping Zionism and, while rejecting all compromising plans, such as the treacherous Camp David accord and the disgraceful Fahd proposal, announce their firm intention to use all their human, military, economic and political resources to destroy Zionism and invite all the Muslims of the world to respond positively to the call for the holy jihad and join the army of Jerusalem to liberate Palestine.

Both sides emphasize that any effort to return Egypt to the Arab fold before Egypt renounces its commitments to the Camp David accord is void. In fact, the restoration of relations with the mercenary regime in Egypt under the present circumstances is like establishing relations with the Zionist enemy.

Both sides confirm their commitment to defend Islam, Islamic nations and the oppressed people and to resist the domination of colonialism.

Both sides announce that they will confront the enemy along a united front to defend the united Islamic objectives and ask the Muslims of the world to chant "God is great" and to break Satans and idols. The power of the people originates from the will of God and, therefore, faith is the only weapon of the people in fighting Satan.

Both sides announce their support for the struggles of the Muslim people of the Sahara in their liberating fight against the puppet regime of Morocco's King Hassan and demand the right of self-determination for the people of the Sahara.

Both governments are determined to prevent the efforts of Zionism to penetrate Africa and condemn Zaire's action in establishing political relations with the Zionist enemy. Both countries announce their support for the rightful struggle of the people of southern Africa against domination and racism, which is backed by American imperialism, racism and Zionism, and also their support for the struggles of the people of South-West Africa/Namibia, led by SWAPO, and announce their solidarity with the progressive African countries which are fighting racist aggression.

Both sides have viewed the situation in Afghanistan and demand the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Afghanistan and a chance for the Muslim people of Afghanistan to determine their own destiny and put an end to the conspiracies of imperialism and reactionary forces. Both sides announce that in international relations the size of a country does not give that country right over a smaller country and, therefore, both sides demand the abolition of the superpowers' right to veto.

In talks between the revolutionary forces of the two countries about revolutionary, [word indistinct] and Islamic concepts, which highlighted the fact that Islam is a constant revolution to liberate the people from any exploitation and (?ill intentions), both sides agreed that Islamic cultural bureaus should be opened in Tehran and Tripoli and that they should take the necessary steps to exchange thinkers and missionaries and hold cultural conferences, congresses and symposiums. Also, both sides emphasize that cultural and propaganda media be used to awaken Muslims and encourage them to stage revolutions and bring them the good tidings of a new Islamic society.

In this connection it was decided that the following Islamic organizations and institutions be formed:

1. An Islamic revolution transmitter;
2. An Islamic revolution news agency;
3. An Islamic propaganda organization;
4. An Islamic university for training Islamic missionaries; and
5. An Islamic world association.

In order to create more coordination between the two revolutions and maintain active cooperation in political, economic and cultural fields, both sides signed statements and notes of understanding. Finally, Brother Maj 'Abd as-Salam Ahmad Jallud expressed his gratitude for the welcome and warm hospitality extended to him and the delegation accompanying him by the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran and invited Brother Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, the prime minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran, and Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the speaker of the Islamic Majlis, and also on behalf of Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi, invited President Khamene'i to visit the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriyah. This invitation was gladly accepted. It was decided that the time for these visits will be determined at a later date.

Written on 18 June 1982 in Tehran,

[Signed] On behalf of the Government of the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriyah, Maj 'Abd as-Salam Ahmad Jallud

MONTAZERI CABLE ON DISPATCH OF DELEGATIONS

LD181242 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 18 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, the following message was cabled by Ayatollah Montazeri to Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi dealing with repulsing the dangers emanating from the united front of world blasphemy and infidelity and sending Islamic delegations to other Muslim countries in order to convey the message of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

In His exalted name. Your Excellency Mr Musavi, prime minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran. May your successes continue.

Following the great conspiracy of the great Satan, America, and its collaborators and the invasion of the Islamic country of Lebanon by the Zionist racists and massacre of Lebanese and Palestinian brothers, sisters and children; and in view of the decisive position taken by the great leader of the revolution, may his shadow be extended, and his request for assistance from all the world's Muslims to repulse the threat posed by the united front of blasphemy and infidelity, it was decided that some delegations led by a number of committed ulema and scholars, may God increase their blessings, should be sent to a number of Arab and non-Arab Muslim countries.

While conveying to these countries the Islamic revolution's message and expressing the readiness of the Muslim Iranian Government and nation, which is fighting and repulsing infidel Saddam's aggression, for a comprehensive confrontation and battle against the aggressive Israel, this enemy of Islam and the Arab masses, the delegations should become aware of the views of Islamic ulema, Friday and congregational imams and officials, so that the Muslim nations may adopt joint decisions for the participation of all Muslims in the Jerusalem front and sending volunteers, donations and necessary materials.

It is hoped that the governments of the countries to be visited will provide to the delegation members the cooperation necessary for implementing this great human and Islamic duty.

May God's grace and blessings be upon you.

KHOMEYNI ON IRAQI TROOP WITHDRAWAL DECISION

LD211154 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 21 Jun 82

[From the news headlines]

[Text] Imam Khomeyni today received on the eve of the month of Ramadan a number of ulema, congregational imams, clergymen and preachers from Tehran and Qom.

Commenting on the mourning and memorial services during Ramadan, the imam said: The fact that so much importance is attached to mourning services, eulogies and [word indistinct] apart from its religious and spiritual aspects, is due to an important political matter. The leader of the revolution emphasized that the political aspect of these services and attention to God -- the concentration of people's attention to one particular source -- is aimed at mobilizing a nation for one particular Islamic aim.

Referring to the failure on the part of the Westerners and some internal elements to understand the issue of weeping, the leader of the revolution stressed that if they managed to understand the meaning of this weeping, then they would no longer refer to us as a weeping nation; rather, they would recognize us as an epic nation. Referring to the Zionist regime's invasion of Lebanon, the imam said: Realizing that Iran is quite sensitive about Lebanon, that it is concentrating all its forces toward Lebanon, it is therefore an American plot to persuade Begin to invade Lebanon so that should Iran be rid of the war against Iraq, then Iraq would fulfill its duty. [sentence as heard]

The leader of the revolution went on: If all powers and attentions are turned toward Lebanon today; if all speakers speak about Lebanon, then this would be a success for America, for, having forgotten its own war, Iran would be ignoring both Iraq and Lebanon, thus failing to achieve anything in either place.

The imam emphasized: Our way is to go after Lebanon by defeating Iraq, rather than doing it independently. [sentence as heard]

He then said: To neglect this is to commit suicide. Consequently, all preachers, orators, congregational and Friday imams as well as writers are dutybound to expose this plot.

The founder of the Islamic Republic then added: We intend to liberate Jerusalem. However, we cannot do this without rescuing Iraq from this sinister party.

Alluding to recent remarks by Saddam Husayn, who had claimed that he would withdraw his forces from Iran within 10 days, the imam said: If he really means what he says, then I must say that this is only one of our conditions. We do have several other conditions which must be met. Until such time when these conditions are met we shall continue the war.

Citing the reparations for this imposed war as another point in the conditions set by Iran, the imam said: We demand these reparations from you in [word indistinct]. If you refuse to pay, then we shall continue the war and will make you pay.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 948

LD181828 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 18 Jun 82

[Communique No 948 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. A part of the battle and self-sacrifice of the selfless combatants of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran on the battlefronts between right and wrong is brought to the attention of the dear Muslim compatriots:

Yesterday exchanges of fire on the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab, Gilan-e Gharb, Sumar and Salehabad fronts continued and the victorious ground forces returned the enemy fire, preventing the Saddamist forces from moving about.

They also killed or wounded more than 30 enemy soldiers and destroyed about 20 trenches, 2 ammunition depots, 1 vehicle containing a 106-mm gun, 2 75-mm guns and 8 heavy and light vehicles. Also, our forces disrupted the enemy's supply activities by firing on their communications routes.

At 0400 yesterday our ground forces and the gendarmerie warriors carried out a series of joint operations near Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and in a 5 5-hour-long confrontation with Saddamist forces succeeded in killing 100 Saddamists and wounding a number of others. They returned to their bases unharmed after inflicting further damage on the enemy.

Gendarmerie warriors carried out a series of surprise attacks and inflicted effective blows on the Iraqi forces, killing a number of their troops, destroying four radio sets and seizing other communications equipment as booty.

On the Marivan front, the exchange of artillery and heavy-weapon fire between our powerful forces and the enemy continued sporadically, inflicting heavy casualties and damage on Iraqi forces in Toveyleh and Biarreh, inside Iraq.

In [name indistinct] region, confrontations and exchange of fire continued but there is no information available on the extent of enemy casualties or damages.

In the exchange of fire on the Paveh front, our forces halted road-construction work by the Saddamist forces and silenced their fire, destroying a cannon, two tanks and several trenches and observation posts across the border.

During the past 24 hours, exchange of fire continued all along the southern front; it was most intensive on the Khorramshahr front.

Our forces showed courage and bravery in returning the fire of the mercenary Saddamists and inflicted considerable casualties and damage on them, at the same time silencing their fire on these fronts. On one of the southern fronts, two Iraqi soldiers were captured.

Yesterday, on the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts, exchange of fire between our powerful forces and that of the enemy continued sporadically and members of the gendarmerie and navy returned the enemy fire, maintaining their supremacy while pounding a number of Iraqi positions and fortifications.

They took control of the Al-Faw-Basrah road and set fire to a fuel supply depot of the Saddamists, putting three of their construction vehicles out of action.

During the past 24 hours, the Ba'thist mercenaries shamelessly opened their long-range artillery fire on residential areas and installations in Abadan, killing 2 of our dear compatriots and wounding 25. A number of houses were damaged as well.

The ever-ready defenders of the skies yesterday foiled enemy attempts to violate our air-space, forcing the enemy to flee before they were able to carry out their plans.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 949

LD191750 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Communique No 949 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Yesterday fire was exchanged on all western fronts. Returning enemy fire, our forces fired on their armored infantry positions and supply roads, inflicting losses and casualties on the aggressors. Because of the artillery fire of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran enemy movements in the Toveyleh sector were prevented. During these operations several vehicles and quantities of ammunition of the Saddamists were destroyed. Our forces also fired with katyushas on Garmuk garrison in Iraq, destroying an ammunition dump and setting fire to approximately half of the vehicles in that garrison.

On 17 June several Islamic combatants comprising personnel of the Ground Forces, brother guards and the Gendarmerie of the Islamic Republic of Iran in a series of operations to penetrate enemy positions in several sectors on the western fronts dealt effective blows at the deceived Saddamists, killing or wounding more than 160 aggressors and capturing quantities of their supply equipment.

In the last 24 hours our forces have continued to consolidate and defend their positions in the liberated areas on the southern fronts and have returned enemy fire. The combatant personnel of the Navy of the Islamic Republic of Iran destroyed three observation posts of the Saddamists on the other side of the Arvand Rud with their heavy-weapon fire. The personnel of the Gendarmerie of the Islamic Republic of Iran fired on Iraqi personnel assembly points in the same sector, killing several Iraqis.

Yesterday as a result of enemy mortar fire on several residential areas in Abadan, 19 Abadan residents were wounded.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

22 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- Israeli artillery shelled west and south Beirut throughout 21 June causing extensive damage and hitting a number of targets including the street in front of the Soviet Embassy and the Acre hospital, according to Beirut radio reports. A Beirut medical source cited by Voice of Lebanon radio estimated that 20 people were killed and 75 wounded in the bombardment. Jerusalem radio noted a UPI report that the shelling was the heaviest since the cease-fire took effect. In an IDF radio interview, an Israeli artillery officer said there has been a steep decline in the intensity of "terrorist" artillery fire. The IDF spokesman confirmed that four Syrian tanks were destroyed in exchanges of fire east of Beirut, according to the radio. Statements broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed that Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces and Syrian forces confronted and checked an Israeli armored attack in the Ru'aysat an-Nu'man area, east of Beirut. The IDF exchanged artillery fire with Syrian forces in 'Alayh, according to the Voice of Lebanon.

Early on 22 June, Israeli forces reached Bkhishtay in a move to outflank and cut off their opponents in 'Alayh and Bhamdun, the Voice of Lebanon said, and Israeli armored columns moved toward Al-Mansuriyah in the Bhamdun area. The IDF spokesman announced that the IDF returned Syrian artillery fire from the Hammana area, north of the Beirut-Damascus road, and that Israeli planes attacked the sources of fire, IDF radio reported on 22 June. Beirut radio confirmed the renewed Israeli-Syrian clashes in the Lebanese mountains.

Soviet Embassy -- A high-ranking source in Jerusalem denied that IDF fire had hit the Soviet Embassy on 21 June, asserting that any hit on the embassy was by "terrorists' fire," Jerusalem radio reported. Citing eyewitnesses, AFP reported that a shell had fallen inside the embassy; IDF radio cited a UPI report that two diplomats were slightly wounded when a shell landed in the embassy garden. Israel's IDF radio reported that the Soviet Union had earlier transmitted a message to Prime Minister Menahem Begin warning Israel that responsibility for any harm to the Beirut embassy would "rest with the one commiting the harm."

PLO Proposals, Contacts -- In a statement to the French newspaper LE MONDE reported by Voice of Lebanon radio, PLO Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf proposed "disarmament in west Beirut" and the gathering together of the PLO fighters in the four Palestinian refugee camps in Beirut's southern suburb while also calling for Israel's withdrawal 10 km from Beirut, the opening of the Damascus road and the deployment of the Lebanese forces in the western part of Beirut, "around the camps and not inside them." Noting that this proposal is the "bottom line in our policy," he warned that "if our Lebanese friends and enemies consider that this formula, which is our last concession, is not acceptable, we will propose that we fortify ourselves in our camps to wage the final battle." Khalaf went on to criticize Syria for being "scared" while also expressing regret at the negative stand adopted by the Soviet Union.

Earlier, Beirut radio reported that National Salvation Council members Nabih Birri and Walid Junblatt met with PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat to reach an understanding on the way gunmen and weapons should be withdrawn and the Lebanese Army deployed in Beirut, Beirut radio reported. According to sources cited by the radio, the PLO supports the army's deployment in the capital but would first prefer an Israeli withdrawal from some positions or at least an Israeli commitment to a timetable for withdrawal before anything else is dicussed. According to another radio report, a PLO delegation headed by 'Arafat met with Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan, Birri and Junblatt during which political and military developments were discussed.

Reagan-Begin Meeting -- Jerusalem television, quoting a "senior White House source," reported that the talks between President Reagan and Prime Minister Begin resulted in agreement on "many points." The report noted that Israel and the United States agree on the need to "strengthen Lebanon" and the need to create a multinational force to police a buffer zone between Lebanon and Israel. According to the report, the White House source said President Reagan was "far less enthusiastic" about sending troops to Lebanon to take part in a multinational force. Both leaders, the source noted, agreed on the need for all forces, "including Syria and the PLO," to withdraw from Lebanon. The sources reported one point of friction during the talks which occurred when President Reagan reported to the Israeli prime minister on his talks with Arab leaders.

A later television reort noted the U.S. believes the IDF should not withdraw until three "demands" are met: Lebanon is "strengthened"; all foreign forces withdraw; and a multinational force is established to defend a buffer zone between Lebanon and Israel.

Sharon, Ben-Elisar Remarks -- The IDF will stand firmly in Lebanon until a political arrangement is achieved, Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said in a BBC television interview. If no arrangements are made, "we will stay," he added. Meanwhile, the chairman of the Knesset Defense and Foreign Affairs Committee, Eliyahu Ben-Elisar, said in a Jerusalem radio interview that Israel has no choice but to knock out what is left of the PLO in west Beirut.

Syrian Contacts, Cabinet Meeting -- PDRY leader 'Ali Nasir Muhammad paid a brief visit to Damascus and discussed the Lebanese situation with Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad, Aden radio reported. The two leaders evaluated the threat posed by the Israeli invasion and stressed the necessity of linking all Arab material, human, political and military potential in defense of the Palestinian Revolution. Al-Asad reaffirmed during the meeting that Syria will continue to shoulder its national duty of defending Lebanon and the Palestinian Revolution, SANA reported.

The "U.S.-Israeli" direct military intervention in Lebanon is placing the region on the verge of an all-out war, according to a Syrian Cabinet assessment reported by Damascus television. During a meeting with Prime Minister 'Abd ar-Ra'uf al-Kashm, the Cabinet discussed the current situation in Lebanon and conducted a detailed assessment of the general situation including U.S. envoy Philip Habib's talks in Damascus, Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev's letter to Al-Asad and the outcome of visits by Soviet diplomatic and military officials.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Further on Khomeyni Speech -- In his 21 June speech to clergymen, broadcast by Tehran radio, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni said that if Iran defeats Iraq, "Iraq will be annexed to Iran," that is the Iraqi people will overthrow their rulers and link themselves with the Iranian nation. If Iran and Iraq can merge, he added, all the small nations of the region will join them. Asserting that Iranian forces should "go to Lebanon by defeating Iraq," Khomeyni said the Iraqis should not be allowed to rest, rally their resources and inflict a surprise attack. According to the radio's headline report of the speech, Khomeyni also stressed that if Iraq refuses to pay reparations to Iran, "we shall continue the war and will make you pay."

Military Situation -- An Iraqi military communique carried by INA said Iraqi forces continued to abide by the cease-fire but were forced to reply to Iranian artillery bombardment of Basra.

Iran

Islamic revolution guards killed 17 top members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq and arrested another 14 during operations in Tehran, Tehran radio reported. The radio also reported that eight more members of the organization were killed during street clashes with the guards.

ERSHAD INTERVIEWED ON DOMESTIC SITUATION, POLICY

BK211551 Dacca Domestic Service in Bengali 0100 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] Chief Martial Law Administrator [CMLA] Lt Gen H.M. Ershad said that the present government is going to introduce a permanent system in the country to save the people from repeated sufferings as victims of corrupt politics. In a special interview telecast on Bangladesh television last night, the CMLS said that the government is determined to bring about a revolutionary change in the country to ensure a secure future for the nation.

General Ershad said that the government is committed to carrying the nation forward toward progress by bringing about structural changes in the country's economic and social order. He said the long-term changes being contemplated by the present government will make it different from the previous martial law regimes.

Replying to a question, the CMLA said that democracy as such has not failed, rather imitating foreign policies has failed in our country. Referring to countries like Singapore, South Korea and Japan, he said that they have evolved their own political system suited to their needs.

General Ershad regretted that in our country we have not been able to evolve our own industrial policy or achieved progress in the political field because, he said, we could not introduce a political system suitable to our own country which could take the nation forward. He said that he considered democracy as a state system which will carry Bangladesh along the path of lasting progress.

The CMLA told the interviewer that in view of the rapid deterioration of the political, economic and law and order situation, the proclamation of martial law last March had become inevitable. After the death of President Ziaur Rahman the capital investment in the country practically came to a standstill and the nation hovered on the verge of economic collapse. At this critical moment for the nation, the persons in power were engaged in sharing the nation's wealth among themselves. Such a situation could never be allowed to continue for a long time in any civilized nation.

The CMLA said that one of the biggest failures on the part of our political parties was that in the past they did not set up any institution which could win the confidence and respect of the people.

The CMLA said that corruption was rampant everywhere in the country. He said revolutionary changes will occur in any social system riddled with corruption. He said that through our joint endeavor of inflicting punishment and bringing about social reforms we will continue our holy war against corruption.

Referring to his government's efforts to start the decentralization of the administrative system with the police station as the center, General Ershad said that this system will enable the central administration to reach the doorsteps of the rural people. In this critical moment the country needs an administration which will be responsible, which meets the needs of the people, and which is also bound by a pledge to the public. With this objective in view, the present government has undertaken the task of decentralization of the administration.

On industrialization, the CMLA said that the government will pursue a steady economic policy. He hoped that with the joint efforts of all people, Bangladesh will be able to become an industrialized nation within the next 10 years.

About student politics, the CMLA said that students and youth are the future and principle force of the nation. The government hopes that intelligent students and youths will pay attention to national politics. Student politics, however, cannot be allowed to be controlled by bad elements.

The CMLA stressed the need for women to participate in the building of the nation. Women, who constituted half of the population of the country, can make a giant contribution in the progress and prosperity of the nation.

On land reform General Ershad said that without administrative land reforms in the country, the conditions of the farmers cannot improve. The government has drawn up a plan on land ownership and an announcement in this regard will be made soon. The government is considering the introduction of a system of cultivation on a joint and cooperative basis.

Regarding the food situation in the country, General Ershad said that the food situation is satisfactory and we have been able to overcome the food problem.

On the role of the armed forces in the country, General Ershad said that the armed forces can act as a balancing force in our political and social affairs. The armed forces -- with their skills and capabilities -- can meet the shortage in the organizational, administrative, technical and engineering fields in the country. The services of the patriotic armed forces should naturally be used in the reconstruction of a harmonious, powerful and united nation, he said.

On the possibility of reintroducing democratic practices in the country, the CMLA said that it will depend on the people. He said, however, that with the effective implementation of different programs and projects of the present government the responsibility of the armed forces will be completed. He hoped that in about 2 years the responsibility of the martial law government will be accomplished.

(Scott) said that the extremists are trying to create panic by killing innocent people, but the government will not spare any effort in bringing to book the culprits involved in recent killings.

13-NATION CONSORTIUM APPROVES INCREASED AID

BK151630 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 15 Jun 82

[Text] The Aid-India consortium has pledged aid worth about 33,000 million rupees to India for the current financial year. This represents a 5.7-percent increase over last year's commitment.

At the end of its 2-day session in Paris today, the 13-nation consortium broadly endorsed the policies adopted by India to maintain its development efforts. The World Bank, which is a constituent of the consortium, indicated that its share in the total aid to India will be around 20,000 million rupees.

The leader of the Indian team, R.N. Malhotra, secretary in the Department of Economic Affairs of the Finance Ministry, expressed satisfaction over the consortium's decision. He said the consortium appreciated the strategy adopted by India for increasing production and for promoting the welfare of the people.

Malhotra on Aid

BK181311 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1230 GMT 18 Jun 82

[Text] The Finance Ministry says there is no general recession in the economy of the country and the credit restrictions are not hampering productive activity in any way. The secretary in the Department of Economic Affairs, R.N. Malhotra, told newsmen in New Delhi that the price situation is also very much in control.

Replying to a question on the decline in the demand for commercial vehicles, tractors and fertilizers, Malhotra said it only indicates adjustment between demand and supply. He said the demand for commercial vehicles was (?unexpected) because of large numbers of false registrations. About fertilizers, he said the supply position has eased and farmers are in no hurry to buy and store them.

Malhotra, who led the Indian team at the Aid-India consortium meeting in Paris last week, has expressed satisfaction over the outcome. The consortium pledged aid worth about 33 billion rupees for the current financial year. This is 5.7 percent more in terms of U.S. dollars over the last years.

About complaints regarding lapses in the use of aid, Malhotra said by and large India's record has been good. During the last 3 years we spent almost all the aid available, he added.

HAQ ADDRESSES MAJLIS ON FOREIGN, DOMESTIC ISSUES

BK220510 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1700 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq has called upon the Islamic countries saying that, realizing the responsibilities and crucial nature of the situation facing the Islamic world and to protect their rights, the Islamic countries must assemble on one platform.

Addressing the Majlis-i-Shoora [Federal Advisory Council] this afternoon, he said the Islamic countries must forget their differences and unitedly fight Israeli expansionism and aggression.

He announced the establishment of the president's fund for Palestinian brethren subjected to Israeli aggression and appealed to the people to contribute generously to this fund. He also called on them to offer special prayers on the first Friday of the holy month of Ramadan after the Friday prayers for the solidarity of the Muslim community and success of the valiant struggle of the Palestinian people. He also asked non-Muslim Pakistanis to pray in this connection at their place of worship.

The president regretted that in this critical time the Muslim world, being in disarray, could not face the tragic crisis and Israel had fully benefited from the Iran-Iraq war. He said they tirelessly participated in the efforts of the Islamic community peace committee for reconciliation. Today's news makes us grateful that some signs for the end of the conflict are appearing at last. We welcome Iraq's announcement that the Iraqi forces would be withdrawn from the remaining occupied areas in Iran.

President Mohammad Ziaul Haq said the Muslim world was embraced in oppression and agony. In their neighborhood, in Panjsher in Afghanistan, the enemy forces have mounted a massive attack on the Afghan freedom fighters which they have resolutely resisted and are resisting. But the greatest tragedy confonting the Muslim world is Israel's barbaric aggression against Lebanon. Pakistan has done its best to support its Palestinian and Lebanese brethren. Two Pakistani cargo aircraft carrying essential items have reached Damascus to help the war-affected people. Two more aircraft with medicine, foodstuff, tents, clothes and blankets are scheduled to leave. A Pakistani medical mission is also ready to leave.

Referring to the budget for the next financial year, the president said its most outstanding aspect is that it is an important step in the direction of the enforcement of the Islamic system. He referred to the huge amount collected as zakat during the last 2 years and said the collection of usher [agricultural produce tax] will now also begin on a self-assessment basis from the next spring crop. With this the fundamental needs of the establishment of an Islamic economic system in the country would be fulfilled. He also mentioned the allocations made in the budget for other Islamic purposes.

The president said the development strategy in the new budget is to enhance the productive capacity of the agricultural and industrial sector to an extent that they may enable us to meet our requirements and free us from the burden of external aid.

He said by the grace of God Almighty we have become self-sufficient in our food requirements by waging a hard struggle during the last 2 or 3 years.

He said besides developing the means of communications and transport in rural areas, they have to set up such small and big industrial units as may meet various needs of mechanised farming. With the [word indistinct] of the [Karachi] steel mill, the huge expenditure incurred every year on the import of such essential items as iron and steel will now gradually decrease.

Referring to the price hike, the president said it was not only Pakistan's problem -- it is an international problem. Despite the international scourge of the price hike, by the grace of God, the condition in Pakistan is better than in many other countries. He referred to the artificial price hike created deliberately by the [word indistinct] profiteers and black sheep, and hoped that the trading and commercial community will cooperate in curbing the activities of these elements and the prices of consumer goods will stay at a fixed level during the month of Ramadan.

Referring to the allocation for defense, the president said he was fully conscious of the sentiments of the members of the Majlis-i-Shoora and their demands for increased allocation in view of the situation around Pakistan. He emphatically declared that national defense is their paramount duty and no sacrifice is too great for it.

He said that seen in the light of the price hike, the allocation for defense remains almost at last year's level. He said it has been their effort that there should be some balance of moderation on the huge expenditure incurred on development and the defense of the country.

It has been our established policy from the very beginning to promote peace and security. We want peace and progress not only in our country but all over the world. So the directive principle of the foreign policy of Pakistan has always been to promote international relations on the basis of mutually beneficial friendship and respect keeping in view national and state security. But while pursuing this basic policy of peace and security, we should not forget that weakness from the defense point of view does not guarantee peace and security.

The president said our defense preparations are of a defensive nature and as a nation we have every right to prepare for defense. He assured the nation that the arrangements made for the solidarity, security and defense of Pakistan are strong. There is no room for any concern about the defense of Pakistan.

Referring to democracy, the president reiterated that it has not failed in our country. In fact, no effort was made to set the democratic process in motion and to continue it. Some individuals throttled democratic principles after capturing power in the name of democracy. He said he will have to think over the objective of future elections and promotion of democratic institutions to insure that the individuals elected are not only honest and upright but also have complete faith in the ideology of Pakistan.

The president expressed the confidence that the entire nation was with him in the enforcement of an Islamic system. He was also confident that when the elections will be held the nation will elect only those who come up to the mark of the type of democracy they want to establish.

The president said the sanctity of the holy month of Ramadan will be maintained at all cost.

KHOMEYNI: LIBERATE IRAQ BEFORE LEBANON

GF211415 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Speech by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni to Tehran and Qom clergymen on eve of Ramadan, presumably in Hoseyniyeh Jamaran -- recorded, duration 59 minutes]

[Excerpts] [25-minute passage indistinct] [chants of "God is great," "Khomeyni is the leader," "Death to [words indistinct]," "Death to the United States and the Soviet Union," "Death to the hypocrites and Saddam"]

(?Since advising) the gentlemen and the faithful is beneficial, I shall make a few remarks on the subject. All the gentlemen, wherever they are in the country and while they hear my voice, whether they are from among the ulema, congregational and Friday prayer leaders, or from among the [word indistinct] who are also from ulema, all those who are the clergymen in charge of the affairs in the provinces must know that today the honor of the Islamic Republic is in your hands. Should, God forbid, you commit acts which are not correct for clergymen, interfere without cause, then this Islamic Republic will be soiled.

The government must maintain its power. Today the government is an Islamic one and it is our duty to support this Islamic government. The officials from the government who go everywhere are officials of the Islamic government.

Should, God forbid, such an official do something contrary to your taste or Islam because he makes a mistake or is not well-informed, do not confront him to weaken him. Advise him and if he continues to ignore you, then go to the authorities. The Friday imams of the province must not [word indistinct] him.

Those among the army or other organizations who have Islamic societies must not interfere in matters outside their jurisdiction. They must guide the government, the officials of the government and all the individuals among them. If someone does not listen, then they should go to the officials who are in charge. It will be solved. In order to defend the honor of Islam -- you are its guardians -- and the honor of the Islamic Republic -- you are its guards too -- avoid interfering with the duties of others and do not do things you must not do. Guide everyone.

Let me say something that I may have said before. From the beginning when we entered the arena and when the signs of victory began to appear, in all my interviews with those who came to see me in An-Najaf and Paris and in all my speeches I always said that the job of the clergymen is above administrative affairs and that if Islam wins then the clergy will undertake their jobs.

However, when we entered the scene we realized that if we told all the clergy to go to their mosques, then the country would be swallowed up by the United States or the Soviet Union. We experienced it and saw that those who reached the top and were not from among the clergy -- even though some were faithful -- were unable, did not want to follow the road which we wished to follow: the road of independence and self-sufficiency without bowing to the superpowers. Therefore, when we say we were unable to find (?many) individuals who would work for the purpose this nation of ours sacrificed its youth and belongings for, then we were forced to choose our president from among the ulema and sometimes even our prime minister and other officials in areas which we previously had said we had no desire to do.

I say it now: The day we realize that the country is being run according to the decrees of the Almighty by a group who are not clergymen, then Mr Khamene'i will go back to his role as a prominent clergyman in charge of overseeing affairs and so will the other gentlemen.

So long as there is doubt among us, even if there is one chance in a million that the presence of one individual or group endangers the honor of Islam, then we will go and stop it however we can -- even if they call us the country of mullahs, the rule of Akhundism or some such labels. Of course, these are weapons to force us out of the scene. We will not leave the arena. [sound of laughter]

These are some of the things that I wished to say to the gentlemen. I hope that in the holy month of Ramadan, in this great month, they pray for the Islamic Republic and also guide the people so that they remain on the scene. The people should not think that we have won and there is no longer any need for them. They are always needed. The government cannot govern alone. The nation has to be with it.

Our war is not over yet. We are still at war. So long as we are at war, our youths should help at the fronts. We, today, need our youths in the same manner as before when our dear youths went to the fronts and many of them achieved the presence of God and the gift of martyrdom. The plots are growing.

The matter that is a topic of the day and that I wish to talk about is, following the paralysis of the superpowers, especially the United States, in all the plots and when they realized the war they started for us is, God willing, nearing the end, then it [the United States] started a new and deeper plot. In this plot we were also [words indistinct]. A point which is very important for us and we are very sensitive about is that it brought about the [word indistinct] to divert our nation's attention from the war taking place in its own country.

The matter of the Israeli attack against Lebanon: The United States knew we and our nation are sensitive about the Lebanese nation as well as about Israel. This is a trap set by the United States. It sent its servant to attack Lebanon and cause such damage and commit such criminal acts. We know that if by destroying millions of people the United States can gain some benefit, they will do it.

We have recognized this in the superpowers. Those in the (?country of the oppressed) are not thinking of what is happening to people's wives and children. Their goals are to maintain Saddam in power and keep Iran -- which in their opinion is far more important than Lebanon and other places -- safe for themselves.

The United States sees that we have a common border of hundreds of kilometers with the Soviet Union. What frightens the United States is the Soviet Union. It is afraid that, should Saddam be destroyed, then the Soviet Union might be able to do some damn thing in this area. However, we see that it cannot.

But I cannot do anything afterward. [sentence as heard] The nation is present on the scene and no one can do anything. Apart from this, (?we have seen) that if the war between Iran and Iraq continues and if in the war Iran defeats Iraq, Iraq will be annexed to Iran; that is, the nation of Iraq, the oppressed people of Iraq, will free themselves from the talons of the tyrannical clique and will link themselves with the Iranian nation.

They will set up their own government according to their own wishes -- an Islamic one. If Iran and Iraq can merge and be amalgamated, all the diminutive nations of the region will join them.

And the United States, which is ready to sacrifice thousands of its troops and thousands of its men, will be deprived of this rich area. Its plan was to instigate Begin to attack Lebanon because when Lebanon is attacked, Iran's sensitivity is aroused and it will concentrate its (?forces) to annihilate him. If Iran neglects the Iraqi war, Iraq will complete its mission and Iran will be rendered helpless.

This is the plan. Therefore, our nation, our statesmen should be aware of this: While we do not consider it a separate issue from Iran as regards interests and (?objectives), we should do something; that is, if we cannot liberate Iran and Lebanon, we should refrain from it [as heard].

If today all eyes are focused on Lebanon, and if all the powers and speakers speak of Lebanon, and if all the writers talk about Lebanon, it is a (?victory) for the United States for Iran to forget its own war and thus lose Iraq and Lebanon. It cannot do anything in Iraq or in Lebanon. Our course is that we should go to Lebanon via Iraq, not directly.

You may observe that recently the world media [word indistinct] which I have seen did not mention the Iran-Iraq war. All of them talk about Lebanon. Or maybe they do say a word or two. All else is about Lebanon. All the radios, before the attack by this man, this coward, on Lebanon, talked of Iran and its war with Iraq. The plan of the United States was to divert Iran from its war with Iraq and to turn its attention to an issue it is sensitive about: Lebanon. As of today, see what these radios, the mouthpieces of the foreigners, say about Iran.

You should know that what is being said by Iraq, from the Iraqi majlis [presumably RCC], that they are going to evacuate Iranian territory is a conspiracy. They do not want to evacuate. They wish to (?deceive) us and divert our youths from the warfronts. When our volunteers announce that 10,000, 20,000 or 100,000 of us want to register, they wish to dampen their enthusiasm so that they will not go. When they do not go, God forbid, Iraq will become victorious and [word indistinct]. If Iraq is victorious, rest assured that you will not be able to do anything in Lebanon. Therefore, it is imperative that we foil this plot by the United States.

All our speakers throughout the country, all our Friday imams the length and breadth of our country should proclaim that we should go to Lebanon by defeating Iraq. Iraq should not be allowed to rest and rally all its resources and receive help from others as it consolidates its borders and then inflicts a surprise attack and things return to where they were before. This sort of negligence would be (?fatal). All the speakers are aware of this, whether they are Friday imams or mosque imams, speakers or writers. They are dutybound to unmask this conspiracy and proclaim this to alert the people to be aware of the warfronts and to awaken them. We want to liberate Jerusalem, but we cannot do so until we deliver the Iraqi nation from this accursed party. We consider Lebanon a part of ourselves, but before we liberate it we must liberate Iraq.

I do not know if this communique or announcement issued by Saddam, which is very lengthy, has been perused by them. If not, they should find it. In my opinion, they have written it; those who have the plan in hand have written it and given it to Saddam to read. And what I deduce from my opinion of Saddam is that he is not capable of deep thought or of writing such things. It is beyond him. You do not know how much delirium there is in the speech. Anyone with the comprehension of a first grader would not have read it like this, these things which were written for him.

He says that their retreat is a big victory for Iraq. [laughter] "We have delivered the Iraqi nation from this so-called Islamic country."

If he speaks the truth, it means we have attained one of our objectives. But we have other objectives as well which have to be accomplished and until then we are at war. All the losses inflicted on us which he has admitted, the losses inflicted on Iran, are innumerable.

This man has no idea of the political issues and says that the losses inflicted on Iran cannot be gauged. Therefore, they cannot be compensated. At least that is what he will say tomorrow. [laughter]

You [Saddam] are the one who attacked first. The world knows it, so who are you trying to convince now? You are talking about your own (?suicidal) attempt. Why did you not read what they had written for you at least once?

When they announced a unilateral cease-fire, about 20-30 persons were wounded and some killed in Abadan alone. It is just like the cease-fire of Begin, who announces a cease-fire and then commits crimes later. The world knows what kind of persons they are.

I hope Almighty God and the beneficent may bless all of us, our nation and the bounties which He has endowed us with as always. May they continue as always and in this auspicious month of Ramadan all should raise their hands in prayer for the Islamic Republic, Lebanon, Palestine and all the oppressed of the world. May the blessings of God be upon you! [chants]

KHAMENE'I: IRAQI 'SINS' WILL NEVER BE PARDONED

LD211342 Tehran IRNA in English 1005 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 20, IRNA -- In a meeting with Imam Khomeyni, President Khamene'i today paid a humble tribute to the martyr Dr Mohammad Beheshti and the group of 72 top-ranking government officials who were martyred at the headquarters of the Islamic Republic Party [IRP] this day [as received] last year. Khamene'i, who was delivering a commemoration speech in the presence of the relatives of the group of 72 at the Hoseyniyeh Jamaran, said the martyrdom of the group had been a turning point in the growth of the Islamic revolution in Iran, and one which had in its own right ensured the perpetuation of the revolution.

He said the bombing at the headquarters of the Islamic Republic Party this day last year had in fact climaxed a series of desperate efforts by the enemies of the Islamic revolution for diverting the course of the Islamic revolution.

Reflecting on the opposition groups within the earlier Cabinets and without mentioning any former official in name, Khamene'i said that there had been "cancerous tumours" which had been removed from the main body of the revolution and which expectably cuased subsequent bloodshed.

He said the bombing of the IRP headquarters was a plot conceived by "the world counter-revolution, that is, the great Satan (U.S.) and its flunkeys in retaliation for the decisive stand of the people and of Imam Khomeyni towards the counterrevolution here. He said by doing so the enemies of the Islamic revolution meant to blunt the people's zeal for the revolution, and dampen their enthusiasm and thereby bring the Islamic Republic to its knees.

He said in homage to the group: "As Islam was perpetuated by Imam Hoseyn's foaming blood, so we may rightly recognise such of our sons as having had a similar role in our contemporary history".

Elsewhere in his speech the president said that by staging the Zionist invasion of southern Lebanon, the enemies of the Islamic revolution thought they could thereby overshadow and divert attention from "the crimes and the countless sinful acts of this (Iraqi) regime. These sins will never be forgotten nor pardoned." He said that the Islamic Republic could not afford to let Saddam Husayn and the Ba'thist Party off without due punishment for the crimes that they had committed in Iran.

He said as the Islamic Republic had rejected a forced truce upon Iran, so it would reject a ceasefire in Lebanon. Said he: "They (the Lebanese) should not agree to a ceasefire. In our view a pax Americana and anything of that sort in Lebanon would be equally unacceptable for us."

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 950

LD201930 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 20 Jun 82

[Communique No 950 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Some of the efforts and self-sacrifices of the combatants of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran which took place during the past 24 hours in order to crush and destroy the aggressive Iraqi Army on the southern and western fronts are brought to the attention of our dear compatriots:

During an exchange of artillery and heavy-weapon fire on the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Salehabad fronts, a minefield and a number of enemy supply depots were destroyed and more than 50 Iraqi personnel were killed or injured. The powerful artillery fire of the ground forces on an enemy motor pool damaged more than 30 light and heavy vehicles of the Saddamists.

On the Marivan front, the heavy-artillery fire of the ground forces on enemy positions and units in the Panjwin, Harginah and Diyareh regions disintegrated an enemy motorized column and damaged [words indistinct]. A number of the Saddamists' supply points were also destroyed and their artillery was silenced.

By firing on enemy positions on one of the Ilam fronts, the brave gendarmerie personnel destroyed about 20 Iraqi trenches and foxholes, killed or wounded their crews and put 2 vehicles of the Iraqi forces out of action.

On the Iranshahr front, artillery and heavy-weapon fire of the valiant personnel of Islam on enemy positions and fortifications on the other side of [word indistinct] silenced enemy fire, prevented the [word indistinct] activities of the Saddamists and set on fire and destroyed 3 mortars, 2 ammunition dumps, 5 trucks, 14 trenches and foxholes and observation posts and 2 Iraqi troop concentration points. In the (Haji 'Omran) sector, more than 30 Iraqi personnel were killed or wounded; consequently many enemy ambulances were active for hours.

During the past 24 hours, sporadic exchanges of fire took place on most of the southern fronts. The victorious combatants of Islam returned enemy fire and bravely defended their positions and sectors on all fronts.

Yesterday enemy long-range artillery fire on residential and installation areas of Abadan wrecked a number of houses, martyred 3 dear compatriots and injured 22 others.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 951

LD211742 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Communique No 951 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. On the anniversary of the martyrdom of the armed mystic and ascetic devotee, the brave commander of Islam Dr Mostafa Chamran, by remembering all his efforts for the sake of the ascendency of the word of truth, we send greetings to his great soul which was the embodiment of love and self-sacrifice in the path of the beloved one.

The fighters of Islam, the faithful comrades of Chamran, as a result of the blessings of the blood of all the martyrs of Islam during the past year, inflicted heavy blows on the aggressive forces of Saddam.

While increasing the severity of their blows against the Ba'thist enemies, they will continue their fight until they liberate the rest of the occupied territories and achieve all the legitimate conditions set by the Islamic Republic of Iran for ending the imposed war. They will actively take part on the battlefronts against the usurping Zionists in south Lebanon until the liberation of beloved Jerusalem and will not refrain from sacrificing their lives and belongings.

We hereby inform the Muslim and combative Iranian nation of a summary of the operations during the past 24 hours in the southern and western fronts of the country:

Yesterday exchange of fire continued in the western fronts of the country, especially in Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb, and our forces responded to the enemy fire. As a result, while putting an end to the activities of the aggressive forces, they destroyed one tank, one ammunition depot, four vehicles, some military supply depots and a number of trenches in those regions.

In the (Ban-Sheytan) region, as a result of firing on an enemy vehicle column, damages and losses were inflicted on the forces of Saddam.

Also, our forces stationed in Band-e Kabud, Kan-e Sakht and Konjancham fired at enemy positions and silenced enemy fire, putting an end to their movements.

The forces of Islam killed a number of enemy personnel by firing at concentration points of the forces of Saddam in the Biarreh region.

On the southern fronts, the exchange of fire continued on a sporadic basis and our forces defended their positions. As a result of firing by our forces in response to enemy fire, a number of enemy foxholes and trenches were destroyed on the other side of the Arvand-Rud and a number of Iraqi personnel were killed or wounded. Enemy bunker construction in that region was also stopped.

Yesterday, as a result of heavy-weapon fire by the forces of Saddam over the residential parts of Abadan, 19 of our compatriots were wounded and 1 was martyred. Seven residential homes and shops were also destroyed.

During the past 24 hours, the aggressive acts of enemy planes against border areas in the south and west of the country were repulsed as a result of heavy antiaircraft fire by our units; the violating enemies fled.

ARABS CRITICIZED FOR SILENCE OVER LEBANON

GF191750 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 17 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Lebanon's Occupation"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: Although U.S. maneuvers in the political field following the invasion of Lebanon and the ruthless massacre of poor and defenseless Lebanese Muslims by the regime occupying the Muslim land of Palestine have prepared the ground for the happiness of compromising Arab governments, the poor and oppressed masses have become aware of the fact that has come to light that international oppressors, Zionists and compromising governments see eye to eye and act harmoniously on the question of the Middle East (?crisis).

The agreement on implementing the clause in the treacherous Camp David accords for [words indistinct] by the Palestinians in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip has been foiled by the right and just struggle of the Muslim Palestinians. They are the people who have prevented the realization of this treacherous plan.

If the clauses of the Camp David accords (?were to be studied), the conclusions to be drawn would be that the existence of the Zionist regime is a dagger in the heart of the Islamic world, that the Palestinian Islamic revolution will be contained within the framework of protocols stipulating interventions and that all Muslims in the Middle East will be (?at the mercy) of foreign exploiters and colonialists.

Apart from all this there is the following reality: It has become quite clear to the masses supporting the oppressed of the world and the poor Palestinians that the United States and Israel are endeavoring through their recent political and military onslaughts in the Arab Middle East to bring about a change in the political scene of Lebanon — a change that will be acceptable to Israel. Thus, they aim at acquiring and safeguarding long-term interests for international oppressors in the region. Another objective is to have the minimum negative effect on the conspiracy that the compromising governments are endeavoring to hatch.

Currently, the character of the antipopulist United States and the regimes aligned to it has become more clear to the masses of the world. The silence of compromising Arab governments in the face of the Lebanon crisis is very sad. This is due to the fact that the silence they have preferred. [sentence as heard]

The officials of the Zionist regime, who express their pleasure without feeling the need to conceal it, know and state that their military onslaughts and their massacre of Palestinians will provide compromising Arab governments with an opportunity to continue in power. This state of affairs will even bring them stability.

As a matter of fact, the vampire Tel Aviv regime's ambassador to New York has said in clear terms: The fact that the compromising Arab governments have remained mere onlookers on the question of Lebanon has led us to the conclusion that Israel's weakening of the Palestinian Revolution in Lebanon may create an opportunity to establish peace in the Middle East. Israel's move will lead to the creation of a favorable atmosphere allowing the participation of compromising Arab governments in talks related to granting autonomy to Palestine.

Yes, the remarks of the vampire Tel Aviv regime's ambassador to New York clearly prove that the Zionists and compromising Arab governments are moving in a united manner in the direction of their common interests. The demand put forward by the United States and Israel after the occupation of Lebanon to the effect that Palestinian and Syrian units pull out of that country and their announcement that they intend to transfer the administration of Lebanon to their rightist servants after reinforcing them reveals only a minute corner of the treacherous contents of the Camp David accords.

Under the pretext of a multinational force to safeguard peace in Lebanon, the United States intends to prolong its military intervention in that country. It will be recalled that it has been successful in realizing a similar policy in the Sinai. Meanwhile, by creating a buffer zone, Israel intends to secure the borders of the lands it has usurped, just as in the case of the Sinai.

The conclusion one can draw from all this is that international imperialism intends to destroy the Palestinian Revolution and Islamic movements in order to continue plundering the wealth of the Middle East peoples. This stems from the fact that Islamic movements, which are anti-imperialist and anti-Zionist, are opposed to their despicable acts of robbery.

TURKEY REPORTEDLY REFUSES IRANIAN OVERFLIGHTS

GF210635 (Clandestine) Voice of Iran in Persian 0330 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] Reports received from Ankara indicate that 'Ali Akbar Velayati, the foreign minister of the (?Tehran regime), on his way from Damascus to Tehran, held talks with Turkish Foreign Ministry officials at the Ankara airport.

The informed circles report that Velayati asked the Turkish Government to agree to allow Iranian military planes to overfly Turkish territory on their way to Syria. However, for the second time, the Turkish officials have rejected this request.

We remind the listeners that last week the mullah regime had made the same request to the Turkish officials and the Turkish Government had agreed to allow only two nonmilitary planes to overfly Turkish territory on the conditions that the planes would only carry medicine and food to the (?affected) people in Lebanon.

MONTAZERI CRITICIZES MOJAHEDIN OFFER OF HELP

LD202234 Tehran IRNA in English 1903 GMT 20 Jun 82

[Text] Qom, June 20, IRNA -- Families and survivors of the martyrs of the June 28th bombing of the Islamic Republican Party headquarters, members of the special headquarters to commemorate the event, along with the people wounded in that bomb explosion, met with Ayatollah Montazeri here on Saturday.

Hojjat ol-Eslam Baghani, the Sabzevar deputy in the Majlis, who was wounded in the June 28th bombing, submitted a report to the ayatollah concerning the commemoration ceremony for the event this year.

Ayatollah Montazeri, while condoling the survivors of the martyrs, said those people were not the only ones left with sorrow, for all the Iranian nation was afflicted with the calamity of those martyrdoms. He added that all the ones martyred on June 28th were brilliant columns of the Islamic revolution.

The martyrs, the ayatollah went on, traversed their path and reached their goal by going the shortest route. However, he continued, the ones who were left were shouldering the highest, and heaviest, responsibilities.

Addressing the hypocrites and those who still followed the MKO [Mojahedin-e Khalq organization] Ayatollah Montazeri said they fancied they would undermine the Islamic revolution by martyring those people, but could not imagine that the revolution and Islamic Republic was strengthened and fortified by this event.

Speaking on the responsibility of Iran to defend the Palestinians and the Lebanese in the face of the blatant Zionist aggression against them, the ayatollah said Iran could not remain indifferent in that regard, albeit some reactionary countries' heads of state would resent it.

He then criticised the MKO's recent statement voicing support for the Lebanese and wanting to fight there, and said the MKO had been tested already in the Iraqi imposed war on Iran and that it had not even condemned the U.S., but instead helped Iraq. So, he asked, how could they possibly fight on another such front against U.S. interest?

In conclusion, Ayatollah Montazeri said the Iranian nation was counting days to the fight with the Zionists in the Al-Quds front, and he called on officials to prepare grounds in that regard.

KHOMEYNI PRAISES POLICE FOR UNCOVERING THEFT

LD191312 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Colonel Hejazi, chief of the Police of the Islamic Republic of Iran, accompanied by a number of officials of the police force, criminal investigation department and prosecutor's office who played a role in uncovering the theft from Reza Abbasi Museum were today received by Imam Khomeyni, leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran. During this meeting, the imam of the nation made the following remarks:

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. In the previous regime and in the world today, the police are in the service of powerful individuals. The individuals who wanted to extend their command and influence over the country but were unable to control all the people resorted to installing one or a few strong and powerful people such as Reza Khan, who entered the scene under the pretext of rescuing Iran, grabbed all the powers and put Iran at the disposal of Britain. In the world today, the police do not serve the masses and the poor, they serve the powerful.

The reason all the powers are not on good terms with Iran, exaggerate any insignificant issue and minimize any great achievement is because our police and armed forces today are different. Our police force today mixes with the people. Police and other organs are all at the service of a school of thought that had been suppressed for years. It is due to God Almighty's blessings that this country was saved. This auspicious phenomenon came about only to make everyone aware.

The Reza Abbasi Museum incident is a good example of how the world exaggerates insignificant events taking place in Iran and ignores the great events. As far as I have gathered, the world did not mention this incident at all, although it is one of the most important crimes uncovered by the police. Had this taken place somewhere else, in a friendly country, they would have given it a hundred times more publicity. They fear Iran -- not its individuals but the unity among our people and the fact that the police, the armed forces and the government are all in the service of the masses and the latter supports the former. If a policeman patrolling the street gets into trouble, people come to help him out. You should keep this in mind and remind your personnel that there are still hands constantly working against us.

What they have lost is their foundation, which has deprived them of everything. This event and phenomenon has had far-reaching effects. That is because everyone here is in the service of Islam. Ther police also are in the service of Islam and what you do is in fact as important as prayers. Your service is of value before God Almighty. You give honor to the country that has risen for God's sake and I must thank you for uncovering this theft.

Peace be upon you.

GUARDS REPORT SUCCESSES AGAINST 'HYPOCRITES'

LD211824 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, the Central Islamic Revolution Committee in a statement revealed the successful and fruitful performances in recent days by the guards of the Islamic Revolution Committee, with the cooperation of the 36-million-strong intelligence organization, as follows:

The self-sacrificing guards of the Islamic Revolution Committee, with the help of the selfless brothers of the central Islamic revolution prosecutor's office, discovered and destroyed 11 safehouses belonging to the criminal hypocrites organization in various parts of Tehran, in the course of which 17 top members of the hypocrites organization were killed and another 14 were arrested. Assorted weapons, including G-3's, M-3's, Colts, grenades, RPG-7's, and a vast amount of organizational documents and a large number of cyanide tablets were seized from these hideouts.

During the course of the discovery and destruction of these safehouses, one selfless Islamic Revolution Committee guard, named (Majid 'Abbasiyan), was martyred and through the redness of his blood signed these criminals' elimination document.

Also, in the course of four street clashes between the antipeople hypocrites and the selfless guards of the Islamic Revolution Committee, eight hypocrites organization members were killed and a few were arrested. A number of stolen vehicles, G-3's, [word indistinct] Colts and organizational documents as well as a number of cyanide tablets were seized from these criminal fighters who were involved in the assassinations of a number of defenseless members of the Islamic Republican Party and the theft of a number of vehicles.

[Words indistinct] through cooperation of the party more than 15 important hypocrite organization members were arrested and handed over to justice.

Once again, we warn all deceived persons, as long as there is a chance to come back to the [word indistinct] of imam of the nation, Imam Khomeyni, they will face the same destiny as other mercenaries face.

The names of some of them are:

8. Mohammad Samadi, an old and active member of the hypocrites;
9. Mohammad Samadi's wife;
10. Parviz Naqipur, an old and active member of the hypocrites;
11. Parviz Naqipur's wife;
12. 'Ali Akbar Zamani, an old and active member of the hypocrites;
13. 'Ali Akbar Zamani's wife; and
14. Sudabeh Mo'ezi, an old and active member of the hypocrites and the wife of Tariqat Monfared.

Several other terrorist hypocrites were also killed in a confrontation with the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, and from the safehouses a number of firearms such as G-3's, Colts, machineguns, grenades, cyanide capsules and homemade bombs, forged documents and papers, forging equipment and a number of interorganizational documents were found.

Once again, while warning all these duped elements subservient to the East and the West, we announce that they should return to the bosom of dear Islam and the imam of the martyr-nurturing nation; otherwise they will suffer the same fate as other hirelings of worldwide oppression.

MOJAHEDIN CLAIM OF WOUNDING AHMAD KHOMEYNI SCORED

[Text] Tehran, June 19, IRNA -- The evening daily ETTELA'AT today carried a commentary on the recent BBC report which quoted the MKO (Mojahedin-e Khalq organization) leader as claiming that the MKO members in their attack on the automobile of the son of Imam Khomeyni, had wounded him and killed ten people and wounded 5 others.

The newspaper said this claim may have created joy among the circle of politically bankrupt and discarded elements, including the counterrevolutionaries in Paris, London and Washington. However, it added, all these vicious hopes fell into pieces when on Thursday, one day after the BBC announcement, Hojjat ol-Eslam Ahmad Khomeyni in Enqelab (Revolution) Square read the message of Imam Khomeyni, marking the fourth anniversary of the foundation of the reconstruction jihad, to a large crowd.

The newspaper pointed out that in fact the mean spirited MKO organization was already dead. If the question is then raised who is behind these acts of terrorism, the answer is that it is not difficult to attack an old man or woman or a worker's house or a public bus. Besides, the intelligence organisations of the United States, England and the Zionist regime were yet active. The article further added that it was possible that the MKO, in order to save itself, had resorted to the intelligence organisations. But the recent great lie of the spokesman of the MKO concerning wounding Hojjat ol-Eslam Ahmad Khomeyni showed that even these organisation did not have hope in the MKO.

The idea behind such a claim by the spokesman of the MKO, was to give hope to the intelligence organisations of the U.S., Britain and the Zionist regime and it seemed that the MKO wanted these organisations to believe that the MKO had not fallen to pieces. However the presence of Hojjat ol-Eslam Khomeyni in Enqelab Square proved that the claims of the MKO of "iron organisational discipline" were just empty words, although to begin with the foundation of the MKO was baseless, the article said.

23 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

New Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- After a day in which Israeli and Syrian forces engaged in heavy exchanges of fire along the Damascus-Beirut highway and Israeli planes struck at Syrian positions, Israeli and Syrian forces ceased firing at 1900 local time, Jerusalem radio reported. Following telephone contacts between Deputy Prime Minister Simha Ehrlich and Prime Minister Menahem Begin, the Israelis accepted U.S. envoy Philip Habib's request for a cease-fire, on condition that the Syrians also hold their fire, the radio noted. In Washington, Begin pledged the IDF would also observe the cease-fire with the "terrorists" in Beirut if they likewise stopped firing, according to the radio. Despite the new cease-fire, an advancing Syrian force clashed with the IDF east of Lake al-Qir'awn early on 23 June, losing two dead, IDF radio reported citing the IDF spokesman.

While a Syrian military spokesman cited by Monte Carlo radio said the Israelis had been responsible for the renewed clashes on 22 June, the IDF spokesman said "provocation by the Syrian Army and the terrorists" had led to the resumption of the fighting, ITIM noted. In a subsequent statement carried by ITIM, the IDF spokesman said that in the course of the fighting the air force destroyed Syrian artillery batteries and the IDF suffered 47 casualties. A military statement broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed that the IDF lost 8 tanks, 12 armored cars and 100 casualties in its attempt to advance toward Al-Mansuriyah and Bhamdun. Israeli artillery and aircraft again pounded south and west Beirut during 22 June, according to Beirut radio.

Israeli Intentions -- Israel rejects a PLO demand that it move the IDF 5 km from Beirut as a precondition to the PLO retreating to the refugee camps and turning Palestinian strongholds over to the Lebanese Army, Jerusalem radio reported citing a reliable source in Beirut. According to the radio, the National Salvation Council discussed this proposal and transmitted it to Israel through U.S. envoy Philip Habib. However, Palestinian sources cited by Beirut radio said that Saudi Arabia has informed the PLO of "Israel's approval through the United States" of a 5-km disengagement around Beirut.

Noting that the Phalangists in Beirut have proved unwilling to carry out the "final mopping-up operation" themselves, Jerusalem radio cited a UPI report that Israel has moved heavy cannon, ammunition and ambulances toward Beirut, indicating preparations for an assault on the city.

In an interview reported by IDF radio, Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir said the PLO, which has been dealt a "mortal blow" and will "never rise again," must be eradicated from the Middle East landscape.

Begin Talks in U.S. -- Israel and the United States agree on three principles regarding an arrangement in Lebanon, Secretary of State Alexander Haig and Israeli Prime Minister Begin stated following their talks in Washington, Jerusalem radio reported. The points involved: the removal of all foreign forces from Lebanon; the creation of security conditions that would prevent attacks on Israel; and Lebanese sovereignty over all its territory. Asked during a meeting with Israeli reporters what kind of agreement had been reached with the United States regarding the establishment of a multinational force in southern Lebanon and about U.S. participation in it, Begin said the U.S. response to the force is positive in principle, IDF radio reported. However, he cautioned that no decision had been made yet. Regarding U.S. participation in the force, Begin said some further consideration is required although he noted that Reagan did not turn down the suggestion.

While describing his talks with Reagan and Haig as very warm and friendly, Begin added that there were certain remarks that he could not agree with and had to react to, Jerusalem radio reported.

National Salvation Council -- After a 22 Jun National Salvation Council meeting, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan said in remarks broadcast by Beirut radio that the council had made important progress and had agreed on a stance that could be the start of "the required solution." In other remarks reported by the radio, Al-Wazzan noted that contacts with the Palestinians had led to the crystallization of a Lebanese stand which has been communicated to U.S. envoy Habib. The radio also reported that Progressive Socialist Party leader Walid Junblatt said serious consultations on resolving the Beirut crisis are dependent on the consolidation of the cease-fire. Unless the United States can guarantee the cease-fire, Junblatt indicated, it would be useless for him to attend the next National Salvation Council meeting.

Syrian ADF Mandate -- The Lebanese Government has officially informed the Arab League and the United Nations that it will not renew the mandate of the Syrian Arab Deterrent Forces (ADF) in Lebanon, Voice of Lebanon radio reported citing a U.S. television interview with the Lebanese ambassador to the United Nations. Noting that the Lebanese Government has been on record for over 1 and 1/2 years as being opposed to any foreign presence, the ambassador said his government aspires to the establishment of a Lebanon that belongs to the Lebanese alone. However, according to Beirut radio, the ambassador subsequently said reports of his interview had been distorted. He noted that when asked in the television interview whether Lebanon has requested a Syrian withdrawal, he observed that over 1 year ago Lebanon presented to the Arab Followup Committee a plan providing for the gradual replacement of the ADF by the Lebanese Army.

Iranian Forces in Lebanon -- Once the Iran-Iraq war is "sorted out," Iran will definitely send a major part of its forces to Lebanon to sort out the situation there, Iranian President 'Ali Khamene'i said in an interview broadcast by Tehran radio.

PLO Appeal -- PLO Political Department chief Faruq Qaddumi has called on Arab countries to cut off oil supplies to the United States and to withdraw their assets from U.S. banks, WAKH reported. He added that the Israeli siege of Beirut is a "serious and unprecedented matter that the Arabs cannot disregard." Qaddumi said the Arabs must take every possible political, economic or military measure, for however long the conflict continues, so they can preserve their dignity.

Egyptian-Palestinian Relations

The Palestinian National Salvation Movement has called for the establishment of a provisional Palestinian government to be based in Cairo, according to an AL-AHRAM report cited by MENA. The paper said the organization has called on Gaza Mayor Rashad ash-Shawwa to hold urgent consultations to form a national coalition government comprised of all Palestinian factions, including the PLO. The paper added that the movement's spokesman thanked President Husni Mubarak for welcoming the idea of a Palestinian government in Cairo.

Jordan

King Husayn departed for Moscow on 23 June to start an official visit to the Soviet Union, KUNA reported. Husayn will hold extensive talks with Soviet leaders on bilateral relations and the Israeli invasion of Lebanon, according to official Jordanian sources cited by KUNA.

IRAN DENIES PARTICIPATION IN UN AFGHAN TALKS

LD212036 Tehran IRNA in English 1912 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, 21 Jun (IRNA) -- The Foreign Affairs Ministry's denial concerning the alleged participation of an Iranian representative in the talks held by the United Nations on the issue of Afghanistan was released today.

The weekly, UN ACTIVITIES, printed in Geneva, in its June 14th issue, discussing the issue of Afghanistan had reported that the Iranian representative participated in the talks.

The Iranian permanent representative to the UN European bureau in Geneva, releasing the denial, stressed the previous position taken by the Islamic Republic on the issue of Afghanistan. He reiterated that talks would not be acceptable without withdrawal of the occupying Soviet forces, the return of millions of Afghan refugees to their homeland, the right of the Afghans to determine their own destiny and participation of the real representatives of the Muslim people of Afghanistan, i.e. the mujahidin (Islamic warriors), in the talks.

In the absence of these conditions, the talks would not lead anywhere, the statement said.

AFP: RESISTANCE HITTING BACK AT OFFENSIVES

BK221412 Hong Kong AFP in English 1324 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Text] Islamabad, June 22 (AFP) -- Afghan Moslem resistance fighters have hit back sharply against offensives by Soviet and Afghan troops in various parts of Afghanistan, Western diplomatic sources said here today.

In the Panjsher Valley, 100 kms (65 miles) northeast of Kabul, dozens of trucks carrying the bodies of government or Soviet soldiers have left the area where fighting is raging, according to reports from diplomats in the Afghan capital.

A long convoy of militiamen from Kabul was attacked on its way to the Panjsher and largely wiped out, the sources said.

Reports reaching Kabul confirmed an accout by French writer Gerard Chalian, who returned here yesterday from a clandestine stay in Afghanistan. He said the only government presence in the valley was a series of fortified Afghan Army posts that would be difficult to defend in totally hostile surroundings.

After four weeks of an offensive that has cost dear in men and equipment, the Soviet troops seem to have returned to their garrisons giving only air support to the Afghan Army.

In Maidan, administrative capital of Vardak Province south of Kabul, resistance fighters from the liberal Mahaz-e-Milli Party inflicted losses on a military convoy on the road leading to Lowgar Province, the diplomats said.

Government reinforcements were brought in to search the farms around Maidan. A messenger of the party who arrived in Pakistan yesterday said 42 civilians had been killed.

The sources said resistance fighters in Kabul Province had resorted to "extreme methods" against the inhabitants of Deh Sabz village near Kabul airport, where villagers had accepted land given out by the government under the agricultural reform programme.

On June 12 the local chief of the official Afghan People's Democratic Party, Habib Zalmai, was shot dead and mujahidin fighters mutilated two farmers described as "collaborators" by cutting off their noses and one ear.

In Kabul, nine supporters of the regime have been assassinated during the past week. They include a university professor, Nur Mohammad Ghanjan, who had just announced he had joined the party.

FEDERAL COUNCIL DENOUNCES ISRAELI 'AGGRESSION'

GF221130 Karachi DAWN in English 20 Jun 82 p 1

[Excerpts] Islamabad, June 19 -- The Federal Council (Majlis-i-Shoora) today expressed its great indignation over the blatant and brutal Israeli aggression in Lebanon, which has cost thousands of innocent lives. The shoora was also deeply distressed by the fact that the world community has been unable to take necessary measures to force the Zionist entity to stop the cold-blooded massacre of the defenceless civilian population in Lebanon.

About 40 speakers, who participated in the resolution condemning the Israeli aggression, emphasised the need for action and unity among the Muslim nations.

They said that the Israeli expansionism could not be dealt with unless the Muslims made concerted efforts to fight off the enemy who was supported by the super powers of the world.

The speakers also called for forging a joint defence programme in the light of the proposal to the effect by President Mohammad Ziaul Haq. They also said that the Muslims should express their resentment by boycotting the Jewish products being sold in the Muslim countries.

The speakers also felt that the United Nations had not been able to deliver goods and had not been able to make any positive contribution in stopping the Israeli aggression in Lebanon, which fact called for strengthening an international body of the Muslim countries, which could bring about peace and justice to prevail.

The resolution, which was adopted with several amendments by the members of the shoora, besides condemning the aggression called upon the United Nations to impose sanctions against Israel to bring about the implementation of the United Nations Resolution Nos. 508 and 509 of June 5 and 6, 1982.

It also called upon the Islamic Conference to discharge its historic duties by forging a joint action against Israel.

The resolution also appealed to the Islamic world to sink their internal differences for the realisation of the proposal of joint defence against Israel.

The driver of the deceased said that a car followed them and when their car stopped at a traffic signal at (Rahmanabad), three persons left the other car and fired revolvers at (Malik) and his bodyguards. The bodyguard retaliated but he was too late and within a few seconds (Malik) and his bodyguard succumbed to their injuries.

BK211609 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 1500 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] A pressnote has been issued in Peshawar today which stated that while the doctors of Sind and Punjab ended their strike following an understanding with the government on their demands, house officers and other doctors in Peshawar are continuing their strike and are not attending even severely ill patients, as a result of which the patients as well as their relatives are facing unbearable hardships. The government has issued a notice to house officers to vacate the hostel, which they resisted.

The pressnote recalled that the provincial government has provided maximum facilities to doctors in hospitals performing house job duties. However, according to the pressnote, house officers are taking no interest in their training and at the same time are placing obstacles in the functioning of the hospitals.

The pressnote added that the provincial government was left with no alternative but to evict them from the hostels; 70 of them have been detained. The pressnote further said that situation is now fully under control.

PAKISTANIS, AFGHAN REFUGEES CLASH IN NWFP

BK220953 Hong Kong AFP in English 1403 GMT 21 Jun 82

[Text] Islamabad, June 21 (AFP) -- Over 100 people were killed in a tribal war in Pakistan's Northwestern Frontier Province [NWFP] of Parachinar, a delegation from the Tori tribe reported here today.

They said the Tori -- the only Shi'ite majority Pashtu tribe -- were attacked by a dozen Sunni communities and groups of Afghan refugees after the Afghans occupied Tori lands.

A Shi'ite mosque was demolished and about 100 houses were burned down by thousands of attackers -- mainly Afghans -- wielding automatic weapons, rocket launchers and mortars, the Tori spokesman said.

They added that a 50-day truce had been concluded, but criticised the Pakistani Government, saying the fighting could have been prevented "if the necessary measures had been taken beforehand."

A similar tribal war broke out last year between the Tori and the neighboring Mengal tribe over wood-chopping rights in a forest claimed by both communities.

KHAMENE'I INTERVIEWED ON DEFENSE COUNCIL SESSION

LD222324 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Excerpts] The Supreme Defense Council held a session tonight chaired by Mr Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i, president and head of the Supreme Defense Council. In this session, Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the imam's representative at the Supreme Defense Council; Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, the prime minister; Brigadier General Zahirnezhad, the chief of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran; Colonel Salimi, the defense minister; Mohsen Reza'i, the commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps; Shamkhani, the deputy commander of the Guards Corps; Kamal Gharazi, the supervisor of the War Publicity Staff; Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs; Gharzai, the oil minister; Captain Afzali, the commander of the navy; and two air force commanders were present. During this session, after reviewing the latest reports from the battlefronts, and after a discussion and investigation of the latest actions taken by the Iraqi Ba'thist regime, decisions were made on future plans and battle operations.

At the end of this session, Mr Khamene'i, head of the Supreme Defense Council, in an interview with Central News Unit correspondent, explained the issues raised in this session:

[Begin recording] [Khamene'i] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. During tonight's session, various issues were raised, all of which were important. As usual, first there was a report from the battlefronts. It was reported that Abadan and some western cities are under Iraqi artillery fire. As it was explained, Abadan had a particularly hard day and came under intense fire.

There was another report about Qasr-e Shirin. An aerial photograph of Qasr-e Shirin was shown. A comparison between this photograph and other photographs of the city taken before the war really causes great distress. There is nothing left of this once-prosperous city. The aerial photographs show that they have destroyed 90 percent of the city.

Exchanges of fire continued on both southern and western fronts. Iraqis are carrying out some movements in the southern sector and are consolidating their defensive positions. They are digging canals and doing other things. These things were reported.

[Question] As you are aware, during his recent remarks Saddam referred to the withdrawal of his troops within the next few days; in your view, what goal is the Iraqi regime pursuing by making such announcements and, in case of a withdrawal, what future actions will be taken by the combatants of Islam?

[Answer] Saddam's claims on this issue in general are insincere. First, they claim this withdrawal is (?taking place). Yes, they may have retreated in some places. But first they demolish a place before they withdraw from it. The same was true of their destruction when they launched the attack on Iran. When they invaded the territory of our homeland, they destroyed every place they entered. In the same way they are now destroying places before leaving. They destroy, demolish and blow up places before departure. What is happening in our western cities is exactly the same as what occurred in Khorramshahr, Hoveyzeh, Hamid and some other cities. They have almost completely destroyed Qasr-e Shirin. Certainly, Sumar, Naftshahr and all other cities of the west are in no better shape.

Second, this withdrawal, even if they tell the truth and retreat, from our point of view does not mean peace and peace loving. Iraq knows that if it continues the war here, it will suffer another 30-40,000 dead and the same number of prisoners, and will be forced to leave our borders that way.

Certainly, if the Iraqi forces clash with Iranian forces in the west and in the Ilam sector or any other place, they will not have a better fate than they had in Khorramshahr, Hoveyzeh and in the western sector of Karun. If they decide to retreat, it will be because they want to save themselves further casualties inflicted by the Iranian forces. They also want to prepare for another attack.

Of course, I would like to repeat what I said -- that this claim for complete withdrawal is a mere claim; such a claim is not true. Saddam is trying to save some of his lost political prestige in the world. In order to show other countries, which keep babbling about peace, that he is peace-loving, he has formally claimed that he is pulling out his forces. They have made several such claims so far, but none were put into action. The claim of a withdrawal is the same as his other claims.

Of course, our reply vis-a-vis this claim of Saddam's is this: Well, when an aggressive (?power) invades a country's territory, it must withdraw. If it does not withdraw, it will be forced to do so, as we have proven. During this (?war, the army of) Islam, we inflicted some blows on them and forced them to retreat from major territories after suffering some losses and damage. But this withdrawal is not [a solution to] all the problems. The problem is that Saddam was the aggressor. They invaded our territory and they confess to this. They destroyed some cities and inflicted heavy damages. Estimates indicate that the damages they have inflicted so far, although no exact figure is available, are very heavy. Once I mentioned a rough estimate of the damages. These reparations must be guaranteed. We will remain in a state of war if they are not guaranteed.

Saddam's claim of being peace-loving will be justified if he withdraws and if his artillery forces stop pounding our cities, and if his planes halt their attacks on our cities.

Every day 10 to 20 of his planes, more or less, attack our cities. They continue pounding our prosperous and populated cities and their defenseless citizens.

He must also pay reparations. When all this is done, it will become clear that Saddam does not want the war to continue. If this is not done, then we cannot be certain he is interested in ending the war. He still wishes to be given an opportunity to regain his political credibility and (?prepare) for another attack.

[Question] As you mentioned, Saddam's mercenaries are repeatedly pounding our cities with artillery fire and planes; what actions will our combatants take to silence the enemy artillery fire?

[Answer] Of course, we announced that we cannot remain in a state of no war and no peace, when our cities come under repeated enemy fire. But we will not resort to similar action. We will not shell any Iraqi city. We have not shelled any Iraqi city so far either. We have not brought misery to its people and we have not made them homeless. I know that we will remain this way in the future. Therefore, we have to take some measures to silence the enemy fire, and for this purpose we will do whatever is necessary.

[Question] As you may well know Zionist and imperialist quarters during the past few days have made announcements to the effect that Iran is pursuing so-called propaganda aims by dispatching forces to Lebanon and that Syria does not have any inclination to wage war against the Zionist aggressors. In your opinion, what aims are these quarters pursuing in making this sort of propaganda?

[Answer] We cannot expect anything but lies from Zionist quarters. If they were to tell the truth and if they were to relate the facts, then we would be surprised. So we are not surprised when they say these things.

Syria wishes to wage this war, we have no doubt that Syria wishes to wage war against the Zionists and against the usurping enemy, and Syria will wage this war. We, too, previously declared this and have now proved by deeds and we hope, God willing, that we will further prove that the duty of waging war against Israel, just as the imam graciously said yesterday, is a religious duty (?and this is why we resorted to this deed).

There is so much fighting that in our analysis they came and started this war [against Lebanon] in order perhaps to force us to dispatch our major forces there from here. Of course, we will never do such a thing; we will never send our major forces to Lebanon. So long as we cannot conclude and settle this war here we will not dispatch our major forces there.

Of course, once this war [against Iraq] is sorted out we will definitely send a major part of our forces there, and there too we will sort out the situation. Certainly that part of our forces which we have decided to send to Lebanon will participate in the war and will undoubtedly deliver telling blows.

We do not have any views about the propaganda effect of this situation. This is the message of our revolution, our revolution necessitates this, and we will not achieve complete victory until we push Israel out of occupied Palestine.

[Correspondent] Thank you very much. [end recording]

MONTAZERI COMMENTS ON EXPOSING ZIONIST 'CRIMES'

LD221752 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 22 Jun 82

Continuing, Ayatollah Montazeri said: We are sure that in this calculated move the Muslim Iraqi nation will assist us and will join with us.

Concerning the exposure of Zionist crimes and about sending Iranian delegations to other Islamic countries, he said: Although the main issue facing our government and nation is to repel the aggression of the American regime of Iraq, nevertheless the problem of Al-Quds concerns all the Muslims of the world, including the Iranian and Iraqi nations. It is appropriate that simultaneous with the heroic deeds of the brave forces of Islam on the fronts of the imposed war, we also expose Israel's crimes to the Muslims and the Muslim ulema throughout the world and to prepare them for a great march on the Al-Aqsa Mosque [in Jerusalem].

In conclusion, thanking the prime minister for providing the means for sending Islamic delegations to other countries, Ayatollah Montazeri said the fact that these trips take place during the holy month of Ramadan and international Al-Quds day is very suspicious.

RAFSANJANI ON CONTINUED EFFORTS AGAINST IRAQ

[Excerpts] The Central News Unit reports that an open session of the Islamic Majlis was held this morning, chaired by Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani. At the session the speaker delivered a speech in which he said:

[Begin recording] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. The slogan "The way to Al-Quds passes through Karbala'" is accepted by all of us and [words indistinct] tnat solving the problem of 'Aflaq's Ba'thist Party in Iraq and that only by removing this obstacle and rejoining the (?eastern) front will we be able to do anything important on the Israeli borders, [words indistinct] the problem of finding a way to send forces.

All the plots hatched by the superpowers, reactionaries of the region and the 'Aflaqi Ba'thist Party were exposed by the imam's program announced in his speech yesterday. Especially Saddam's extremely odd speech which, like someone who chants slogans while running away, was both intended to boost the morale of his forces and was an effort to save face for the Iraqi nation after the disgraces he had brought upon them.

By taking a meek and peace-loving position, he tried to stop us from seeking our rights. But with the imam's speech and his decisive position our way is once again clear. We do not want anything but our rights in Iraq.

We will not withdraw our claims to our rights which are the rights of Islam, the rights of the deprived people of the region and the Muslims inside Iraq.

We draw the attention of our youths and especially our combatants to the point that the blessed month of Ramadan is the month of victory for Islam and the annihilation of blasphemy. We had the great Badr victory [referring to dawn of Islam, one of the battles fought by the prophet] and hopefully with your presence in the scene, another Badr will happen in the new dawn of the history of Islam. [end recording]

SAYYAD SHIRAZI PLEDGES WAR WILL CONTINUE

LD221640 Tehran IRNA in English 1010 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Text] Esfahan, June 22 IRNA -- The commander of the Islamic Republic's Ground Forces, Colonel Sayyad Shirazi, proposed that the country's officials keep the evidence of Saddam's crimes intact in Khorramshahr as a war memorial.

Colonel Sayyad Shirazi, who was talking at the commemoration ceremony of the first anniversary of martyrdom of Mostafa Chamran yesterday, in Esfahan, referred to the development in the armed forces after the revolution and said that the internal and external plots, such as the imposed war and the recent Zionist attack against southern Lebanon, were undertaken to damage the Islamic revolution of Iran.

Colonel Shirazi also talked about the operations which led to the liberation of Khorramshahr.

In another part of his speech, Sayyad Shirazi outlined the Iranian conditions for peace with Baghdad and said that the Iranian combatants were ready to remove Saddam and his colleagues.

Referring to the recent trip of the Iranian delegation to Syria and negotiations concerning the aggression of the Zionist regime against southern Lebanon he said that Iran and Syria have established Al-Quds station [as received] between Syria and Lebanon which would be the centre of Muslims operation.

He then referred to Saddam's plot and said that despite the recent conspiracies of Saddam, Iran did not consider the war as being concluded and would continue the war until the overthrow of Saddam, and holding prayers in Karbala'. Treading the path to Al-Quds would then be the next step, Colonel Shirazi concluded.

GUARDS: CONTINUE WAR UNTIL IRAQI REGIME FALLS

LD222210 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Text] The Public Relations Office of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps issued a statement on the important speech delivered yesterday by the imam of the nation, who revealed the conspiracy of world imperialism about the savage attack on Lebanon in order to save Saddam and to make us forget the war against the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of Iraq. The statement says:

The Islamic Revolution Guards Corps regards it as its binding duty to continue the war until the complete downfall of the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of Iraq. It will continue until the holy cities, such as the Karbala' of Hoseyn and holy An-Najaf, are liberated, until the Muslim people of Iraq are freed from the claws of the Ba'thist mercenaries who are dependent upon world arrogance, and until the savage crimes of this dependent regime and the bombing of cities such as Abadan and Ilam and other residential areas are ended.

TEHRAN EXAMINES CRITERIA OF VICTORY IN WAR

[Unattributed commentary]

[Excerpts] The criteria of winning and losing in any battle are dependent upon the extent of accomplishment of the objectives of the war. Victory in any battle is the outcome of the military and political efficacy to achieve all objectives. If we want to apply this fact to the hostile Saddam war and wonder, in light of the primary results of the battles during the past 20 months, who the victor is in this war, we can reach a clear conclusion about the result of this hostile war.

The flimsy Saddam regime every time announces that it is the alltime victor. When Saddam unleashed his tyrannical aggression against the peaceful Muslim people he said he was the victor, and when he changed from offensive to defensive he claimed he was the victor too. When his fortresses and castles tumbled down and when he was forced to knuckle under the status quo which was imposed by the consecutive blows of the soldiers of Islam, he insolently announced that he was the victor as well.

Today, when he announced his withdrawal, he declared without the least shame that he is the victor in this war. Query: Who won this war?

Aside from the circle of empty expressions and lustrous slogans and pursuing a logical analysis based on the opinions of strategists, we find that the Baghdad rulers have achieved nothing by their tryannical aggression.

In fact, what they have gained was the opposite of what they aimed at during the war. They aimed at liquidating the Islamic revolution and forcing it into two alternatives: either to surrender in return for the withdrawal of the Ba'thist Saddam forces from the Iranian territory or be militarily defeated, thus ending the era of the Islamic revolution.

Today, after all Saddam's attempts have failed to justify his tyrannical aggression, Saddam claimed that the Islamic Republic has expansionist ambitions regarding Iraqi territory. As for his withdrawal from the territories he had occupied, it is a political trick to hide his military disability and contain his outright defeat in the war. Here, a long pause before this decision is required [to tackle two aspects]: First, the reasons which made the Islamic Republic give up liberating the rest of territories for a specific period of time and second, the reasons which made Saddam make this decision.

The first pause presents the humanitarian policy of the Islamic forces in regaining the occupied territores. The Islamic military command has set a main objective in its military operations. This objective was to keep the size of human and material losses of both parties as low as possible.

Therefore, the command set its military plan in two phases: First, the orientation and guidance of the Iraqi forces positioned in the occupied territories and the exposure of the dimensions of the conspiracy against Islam which they are carrying out against their will.

In the second phase, when the Iraqi Army becomes educated as required, the Islamic forces carry out an operation to establish contact with the troops of the Iraqi Army so they can easily give up to the Islamic forces as a result of the education they attain in the first phase.

By this method, the Islamic Republic has guaranteed minimal losses in life and property with the motivation to end the war without shedding the respected blood that was meant to bleed for free at the threshold of the U.S.-Zionist conspiracy. Therefore, every liberation or purging operation by the Islamic forces lasted for brief intervals.

The tyrannical enemy has realized the dimensions of this humanitarian plan and wanted to keep what is left of his self-respect, because undoubtedly he knows that the Islamic forces are marching toward the rest of the usurped territories and that he will pay a high price for his presence in these territories, equal to the price he paid in Khorramshahr. Therefore, he has decided to flee before he receives the decisive fatal blow.

This final result which the Baghdad rulers have announced raises a very important question: Did they really win this war as they claim? Have the Baghdad rulers achieved their objective of overthrowing the Islamic Republic? Or has their unsuccessful venture enhanced the military and political leverage of the Islamic Republic after the magnificent victories the republic has achieved on different [word indistinct] fronts?

The victor in this war is whoever achieved his objectives. It is our Muslim people of Iran who decided to wage the war until they liberated the land from the stooges of colonialists and taught the Saddam regime a lesson it will never forget. This is what has been really achieved, and this is precisely what makes our people in the field of victory proud and they hold their heads high, showing the sign of victory and glory.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 952

LD221738 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Communique No 952 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. We wish to inform our dear Muslim compatriots of events on the battlefronts of good against evil during the past 24 hours:

Yesterday, on the country's western fronts, an exchange of artillery and heavy-weapon fire took place between our forces and those of the enemy. The enemy's losses and casualties were as follows:

On the Gilan-e Gharb to Salehabad fronts: Three vehicles and several supply points were destroyed and seven trucks and a parking lot belonging to the Saddamists were damaged.

In the Harginah, Biarreh and Halabcheh garrison regions in Iraq, huge losses and casualties were also inflicted on enemy positions.

On the fronts under the responsibility of the heroic irregular tribal warfare units and the gendarmerie combatants, sporadic exchange of fire also continued.

According to a report by the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, thanks to heavy-artillery fire by Islam's combatants on the positions of the aggressive Saddamists on one of the country's western fronts, the Iraqi forces were forced to change their defensive positions after suffering heavy losses and casualties.

In an exchange of fire on the Khorramshahr and Abadan fronts our naval heroes and gendarmerie combatants opened fire on enemy positions. They silenced the enemy's fire, destroyed more than five light- and heavy-weapon emplacements and observation posts, killed or wounded a number of enemy servicemen and prevented their activities.

During the past 24 hours, parts of Abadan and Khorramshahr came under artillery and heavy-weapon fire from the Iraqi Ba'thist forces; as a result, 5 houses were destroyed and 11 people were wounded.

During the past 24 hours all aggressive enemy airraids were neutralized by the antiaircraft units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

IRAQI PLANES VIOLATE ILAM AIRSPACE 21 JUNE

All these attacks, attempting to bomb the residential areas of Ilam, have been foiled by the air defence units of the Islamic Republic.

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, the Cuban ambassador in Tehran met with Minister of Foreign Affairs Velayati this morning.

During this meeting, the Cuban ambassador, while referring to the recent remarks made by the imam, asked for Iran's views on the retreat of Saddam's forces from Iranian territory.

In reply, Mr Velayati said: Saddam's forced withdrawal is only one of our conditions for ending the war; and the war will continue until the other conditions are realized.

On the basis of the same report, the Cuban ambassador, whose term of office in Iran ended -- he was appointed head of the Middle East and North Africa Department in the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Relations -- today met and conferred with Mr Ahmad 'Azizi, deputy minister of foreign affairs.

During this meeting, the Cuban ambassador expressed hope that the opening of the newly established Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran in Havana and the new possibilities which were created in relations between the two countries, would help in expanding relations between the two countries.

The deputy minister of foreign affairs, in reply, said: No doubt this period spent here was effective in making you familiar with the three basic and triangular foundations which are the secret of the steadfastness and livelihood of the Islamic revolution: Islam, the imam and the nation.

Mr 'Azizi added: Certainly, during your term of office, you found out that in the Islamic Republic ideological considerations are greater than the usual political and economic considerations. You witnessed the reflection of this priority in the decisive and noncompromising attitude of the Islamic revolution vis-a-vis conspiracies of world arrogance; the imposed war was an example of this.

The deputy foreign minister, in conclusion, while expressing hope for expanding relations between the two nations, said: No doubt the Government of Cuba and any other government, by making use of this fact and by a sincere understanding of our positions, can lay down foundations for more healthy and constructive relations with the Islamic Republic of Iran on the basis of mutual interests.

KURDS REPORTEDLY KILL 85 GUARDS IN MIANDO'AB

GF221646 (Cladestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 22 Jun 82

[Text] Some 200 Kurdish fighters in northwest Miando'ab, situated in Western Azerbayjan, during attacks on camps of the revolution guards, killed more than 85 guards of the Khomeyni regime.

According to a report by our correspondent, while this bloody skirmish resulted in the deaths of 85 revolution guards of the Khomeyni regime, Khomeyni's propaganda organs claimed that the revolution guards of the Islamic Republic of Iran killed 60 Kurdish rebels.

The revolution guards, besides suffering many losses, (?left behind a great quantity of arms and equipment) and fled from their camps and took refuge at army bases in the area.

A Kurdish spokesman told the Free Voice of Iran correspondent that the Kurdish fighters have abstained from attacking these military organizations because the military brothers do not cooperate with the revolution guards against Kurdish forces and also help the Kurdish fighters in times of need.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

25 JUNE 1982

Israeli Invasion of Lebanon

Military Situation -- After the Syrians launched a massive attack in the central sector on 24 June, the IDF counterattacked and took control of the Damascus-Beirut highway at Bhamdun, thereby surrounding the Syrians, "terrorists," and Iranian volunteers on three sides and cutting off their sources of supply, according to an IDF announcement broadcast by Jerusalem radio. Citing reports from correspondents in Beirut, the radio reported early on 25 June that the Syrian force near 'Alayh was crumbling and that both Lebanese Christian and Israeli forces had captured Jumhur. Voice of Lebanon radio said Israeli forces entered Al-Luwayzah early on 25 June and about 1,000 of their opponents withdrew eastwards during the night. In an announcement over Jerusalem radio's Arabic service, the IDF Command called on the Syrians to profit from a "last chance" to escape under the cover of darkness. The radio later announced that hundreds of Syrian soldiers had fled, abandoning scores of tanks and personnel carriers in the Bhamdun-'Alayh sector. However, a Syrian military spokesman announced in a statement broadcast by Damascus radio that the Syrian force in 'Alayh had completed an organized transfer to another defensive position on the cease-fire line in order to keep supply lines open. The spokesman also claimed that Syrian air defenses downed two Israeli planes over the Al-Biqa' region early on 25 June. In previous announcements over Damascus radio, the Syrians admitted that the Israelis had reached Bhamdun and had downed two MiG aircraft on 24 June, but expressed pride that despite Israel's use of planes, tanks, artillery and "internationally-banned nerve gas," the IDF had only been able to push the Syrians a short distance backward. However, the IDF spokesman denied that the Syrians shot down two Israeli planes and that the IDF used nerve gas when it captured Bhamdun, according to Jerusalem radio. He also announced that 16 IDF soldiers were killed and 47 were wounded in the fighting with the Syrians from the night of 23 June through 24 June, the radio noted.

Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces foiled an IDF landing attempt on the coast of Beirut during the night and Israeli warplanes launched intensive strikes against the city on the morning of 25 June, according to statements carried by the Voice of Palestine. Voice of Lebanon radio spoke of scores of dead and wounded amid the debris in west Beirut, which was covered by palls of smoke. Israeli airstrikes on Beirut the previous day killed 12 civilians and wounded 60, according to AFP. Another 19 people were killed by a car bomb explosion in Ash-Shiyah, the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said. It attributed the blast to "lackeys of Israel and the Phalangists."

Al-Wazzan Resignation, Political Developments -- Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan submitted his resignation to President Ilyas Sarkis on 25 June, the Voice of Lebanon radio reported.

In another development, Progressive Socialist Party leader Walid Junblatt informed AFP that he is quitting the National Salvation Council. Noting that he had been willing to participate in the council on the condition that the United States guarantee the future of the PLO, Junblatt said he decided to withdraw because no guarantee is possible since the United States "proposes the physical and military liquidation of the PLO." Earlier, Junblatt told journalists that the PLO must face reality and leave Beirut, AFP reported. Asserting that PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat is stalling for time "hoping for a miracle from the Arab world," Junblatt said the PLO is in danger of splitting up and needs a new leadership.

Meanwhile, Lebanese sources cited by Voice of Palestine stated that the National Salvation Council is expected to disband shortly. The sources added that the government may also be forced to submit its resignation because the president and some other officials have completely identified themselves not only with the "U.S. formula" for the Palestinian surrender but also with the formula for the national and Islamic surrender to Israel.

Lebanese Contacts — Following a 24 June meeting between Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis, Prime Minister al-Wazzan and U.S. envoy Habib, the Lebanese Cabinet met to discuss military and diplomatic developments, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. It added that Sarkis interrupted the Cabinet session to call Saudi King Fahd and exchange views on developments in Lebanon. The radio said Al-Wazzan announced that the Lebanese Government had summoned Arab League Secretary General Chedli Klibi to come quickly to Beirut from Damascus.

According to Monte Carlo radio, PLO leader 'Arafat held a telephone conversation with Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil. The radio said Al-Jumayyil called on 'Arafat to cooperate with the government and the National Salvation Council.

PLO on Negotiations — While noting that U.S. envoy Habib is waiting for the Palestinian and Lebanese joint forces to surrender, a Voice of Palestine radio commentary declared they would not lay down their arms but would continue to fight until "we beat official Arab defeatism and rottenness and until we defeat the U.S.-Israeli scenario." However, a PLO spokesman said at a press conference in Beirut that the PLO has responded to questions by the U.S. envoy and is continuing negotiations aimed at restoring peace to west Beirut without a bloodbath, AFP reported. It added that the U.S. questions had been transmitted to the PLO by the National Salvation Council. The spokesman said negotiations would continue after Habib's trip to Israel. According to AFP, the Palestinian news agency WAFA warned that the PLO is not opposed to an honorable settlement but that if such a settlement is not found "words will give way to arms."

A FALASTIN ATH-THAWRAH editorial carried by the Voice of Palestine declared that the Palestinians are ready to put aside their secondary differences with the Phalangists and reach an agreement with all Lebanese. The paper said the Palestinians are prepared to make "major concessions" so that a united Lebanese authority can be in a strong position to confront the enemy.

Israeli Policy on Beirut — Reacting to demands that the IDF stay out of west Beirut, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said no decision has been made on entering the area, HA'ARETZ reported. Meanwhile, Jerusalem radio noted that the Israeli ambassador in Washington refused to confirm that the IDF will not enter west Beirut. Political circles in Jerusalem stressed that the IDF will not withdraw from the Beirut area as long as the PLO remains in the western part of the city, the radio reported.

Shamir on French Involvement — Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir said in an interview with the Israeli weekly BAMAHANE that France's sudden support for the PLO is "astonishing" and casts doubt over possible French participation in any multinational force for Lebanon.

French Appeal, Mubarak Message — French President Francois Mitterrand, in a statement issued in Paris, called on Israel to respect the Lebanese cease-fire, AFP reported. Mitterrand said it is vital and urgent that there should be a disengagement by all forces in Beirut and that the Lebanese Army should be able to interpose itself. He added that the army could be supported, if the government agrees, by a force established under the auspices of the UN Security Council. He noted that through such an arrangement the neutralization of western Beirut could be achieved under UN supervision.

In another development, Egyptian President Husni Mubarak sent an urgent message to President Ronald Reagan asking him to adopt a firm and urgent stand to secure the withdrawal of Israeli forces from Lebanon, beginning with a lifting of the Israeli siege of Beirut, Cairo radio reported.

ERSHAD COMMENTS ON RELATIONS WITH SOVIET UNION

BK231131 Hong Kong AFP in English 0729 GMT 23 Jun 82

[Text] Dacca, 23 Jun (AFP) -- Bangladesh's military ruler, Lt Gen Ershad, indicated today an early improvement of the country's relations with the Soviet Union.

The general, who returned home this morning from New York after attending the disarmament session of the UN General Assembly, told newsmen that while he was there he had fruitful discussions with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrey Gromyko.

He expressed the hope these discussions would help "remove the little misunderstanding which existed in the relations" between Moscow and Dacca.

Gen Ershad said that, during their meeting, Mr Gromyko had extended an invitation to Bangladesh Foreign Minister Shamsul Doha to visit the Soviet Union.

On the present state of Bangladesh's relations with the Soviet Union, which had provided active support and assistance to Dacca during and after the war of liberation of 1971, Gen Ershad said: "I thought there was some misunderstanding (between the two countries)."

Mr Doha, who was sitting next to the general, hastened to add: "Our relations (with Moscow) were not as they ought to have been."

Referring to his address at the disarmament session of the United Nations last Thursday, Gen Ershad said that he had proposed the imposition of new taxes on arms sale and that the revenue thus earned should be used for humanitarian and development projects in underdeveloped and developing countries.

He had also proposed a drastic cut in the military expenditures of the developed countries and said that a part of this money should be diverted to help nations that were fighting hard against poverty, hunger and disease.

The general, who came to power 3 months ago through a bloodless coup, dispelled rumours against his military regime. He said there was complete peace and stability in the country.

"The very fact that nothing happened during my absence for 10 days from the country has proved that rumours both at home and abroad about instability and the possibility of a counter-coup are unfounded," he added.

DAWN EDITORIALIZES ON STUDENT POLITICS

GF181100 Karachi DAWN in English 14 Jun 82 p 7

[Editorial: "Student Indiscipline & Campus Environment"]

[Text] A high-level educational committee is reported to have recommended an "absolute" ban on political activities in the universities.

Since the committee is headed by the chairman of the university grants commission, its recommendation is unlikely to be ignored. It has been reported that the committee in its recent meeting in Islamabad discussed political intervention at the campuses and took a serious view of the overall situation. Members of the committee are also said to have agreed to devise some measures to discourage the rising trend of violence among students.

Coming in the wake of an unusually bloody wave of violence among university students, particularly in Karachi, the proposed ban would widely be deemed legitimate. Since political activities as such are banned in the country, the proposed restrictions on political activities in the universities would logically be taken to refer to students' organisations and elections to their unions. Political infiltration through students' organisations is well established and, in some cases, political figures have been directly involved. As a consequence, the students have been deeply polarised and elections to unions have often led to violence.

Fire-arms, even Sten guns, were recovered from students in the recent past. Two students died of bullet wounds in clashes connected with elections to the students' union at the University of Karachi in December last. At times, the authorities fail to curb the excesses of student activism on the campuses. This enhances frustration among the majority of students who are immobilised in the face of organized gangsterism.

Disorder at the campuses naturally disrupts the academic atmosphere and schedules. Viewed in this perspective, the proposed ban may seem to be the easy out of the situation created by the students' political involvement. But this kind of solution may not produce order and tranquillity. It will drive political activism underground.

The high-level educational committee should have a lot more to ponder than immediate measures to curb expressions of the students' political involvement.

It should be realised that the present situation is itself the result of a series of misjudgments concerning the imperatives of a good academic environment. Students would not take to lethal weapons or become tools in the hands of disruptive forces all of a sudden.

They have fallen prey to such crude manipulation largely because the academic environment at the campuses has been stifled and the teachers have been deprived of their traditional leadership role. Constant bureaucratisation of the universities and lack of genuine academic and intellectual freedom at the campuses have undermined the very purpose and meaning of higher education in our country.

Post-graduate students do not have to be treated like children. They are expected to be responsible citizens, conscious of the great responsibilities that the educated have to bear in an under-developed, largely illiterate society. Postgraduate students encounter their chosen disciplines at a level that calls for independent thinking and a spirit of inquiry. They should be capable of forming their own opinions and judgments. If universities had truly grown into seats of learning and inquiry, the present state of moral and educational decay would not have been possible.

Hence, irrespective of the short-term measures they find necessary to deal with immediate problems, the authorities would do well to contemplate the seed issues and try to restore the dignity and high idealism that belong to seats of higher learning.

A major cause of the decline of the university is its lack of autonomy. Unfortunately, even small affairs that pertain to day-to-day working are controlled by the officialdom. The ills born of bureaucratic control are sought to be remedied by further control.

In the process, the teaching staff has been reduced to the status of minor functionaries. Made to behave like ordinary government servants, the teachers themselves tend to become careerists and usually abdicate their traditional role. Their capacity to influence the conduct of their pupils has declined catastrophically.

It is a consequence of excessive bureaucratic control that even normal extracurricular activities have died out at the campus. Students are not supposed to participate in literary, cultural and academic activities that would nurse their mental and creative abilities. In our circumstances, the university should be expected to play a social role and invest the considerable talent that it technically harbours in problem solving efforts. This, obviously, is not feasible as long as the university is conceived as a mere dispenser of degrees -- or, worse, a house of correction for way-ward youth.

We should have more confidence in our teachers and also the grownup students who, if not emotionally and intellectually shackled, will usually opt for a constructive and progressive role. It is not known if the high-level educational committee has deliberated on these basic questions. But it is easy to see that deteriorating academic standards and the increasing trend of violence among students are to a large extent the result of the manner in which our universities are managed.

SRI LANKANS TO BE REPATRIATED FROM LEBANON

BK191503 Hong Kong AFP in English 0817 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Text] There is complete freedom in the country now for trade unions to engage in legitimate activities. The right to topple a government lies in the hands of the people and not trade unions. President Jayewardene said that the government is answerable not to trade unions but to the 14 million people of the country.

The president was addressing the 9th anniversary of the Post and Telecommunications Union at the Ramakrishna Hall in Colombo yesterday.

Recalling a strike staged 2 years ago, Jayewardene noted that workers who participated in that strike were given ample time to return to work. Those who did not report lost their job. The government did not dismiss them. This same principle will be applied in the event of any future work stoppages.

The president took the opportunity to remind that independent trade union movements were not found in communist countries. He singled out Poland as an example adding that even political freedom and press freedom were not enjoyed by the people in these countries.

PUBLICITY CHIEF ON IRAQI WITHDRAWAL, PROPOSALS

LD241154 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 24 Jun 82

[Text] According to a report by the Central News Unit, Mr Kamal Gharazi, the official in charge of the War Publicity Staff and IRNA supervisor, this morning to a gathering of domestic and foreign reporters explained Iran's positions toward Saddam's new propaganda gestures. Referring to the political and propaganda conspiracies of imperialism and its servants in the region, he regarded the meeting between Kamal Hasan 'Ali and Begin, Israel's invasion of south Lebanon, the coordination of the activities of the United States, Israel and Egypt in favor of Iraq, the assistance of the reactionary regimes of the region and the preventing of the change of the Nonaligned Conference venue as some of the conspiratorial activities which have been engaged in to save Saddam.

Concerning the announcement of the withdrawal by Saddam and the new gesture of the Iraqi Government, Mr Gharazi said: This announcement is a propaganda maneuver in order to put us in a position to refrain from continuing the war so that we cannot gain our legitimate rights. Referring to the fact that Iran had previously planned to start an extensive offensive in the west of the country, he said: This withdrawal is a tactical withdrawal. In order to prevent the further annihilation of his forces, Saddam has started this withdrawal. His claims about loving peace are also pure lies. If Saddam had the power to destroy our cities and forces he would not hesitate to do so.

He said: The attempts of Saddam and his supporters, who are the servants of the superpowers in the region, are directed at saving him by holding the Nonaligned Conference in Baghdad and gaining some position for Saddam.

After his remarks, Mr Gharazi answered the questions of the domestic and foreign reporters about the war imposed by Iraq and the aggressive war of the Zionists in south Lebanon.

Concerning the coordination of the propaganda of the Islamic revolution in south Lebanon [as heard], he said: A War Publicity Staff office has been set up in that region and the propaganda work will be coordinated.

In answer to a question concerning where the Iranian volunteers have been stationed, he said: Our forces are mainly in the stage of familiarizing themselves, choosing tactics and investigation.

At the end of today's interview, the director of the War Publicity Staff put some photographs of Qasr-e Shirin, Hoveyzeh and Hamid garrison, which have been destroyed by the Iraqi forces, at the disposal of the reporters.

NVOI: U.S. STARTED WAR; GUARDS SLANDER USSR

TA242053 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 24 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Iran and Iraq Are the Victims of the Plots of World-Devouring America"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As you are aware Iraq announced that it has begun the withdrawal of its armed forces from our homeland's territory. Both our combatant nation and the Iraqi nation hope that fratricide and bloodshed will end and that such an event will never be repeated.

Without doubt the certain conclusion that both our nations draw from this imposed war is that both the Iraqi and Iranian nations have been the victims of the plots of world-devouring U.S. imperialism and its agents in the region.

This is precisely the fact although some of the officials of the Guards Corps are striving to make our homeland's people believe that allegedly it was the Soviet Union which instigated Iraq to wage war against Iran. However, as much as such individuals wish to hurl a flood of accusations and slanders at others in the pages of our country's newspapers, including the SOBH-E AZADEGAN -- in the very style of imperialist mass media -- nothing will alter the facts.

The fact is that with the overthrow of the annihilated shah's despised regime world-devouring America lost its main base in the Near East. The fact is that in order to make up for this loss the U.S. administration decided to surround south Iran in a semicircle with a chain of the Pentagon's military bases stretching from Israel to Saudi Arabia, Oman and Pakistan. It was particularly for this reason that U.S. espionage organizations, which are specialists in international provocations, unleashed such an imposed war.

On the eve of the battle operations, the United States and the CIA disseminated widespread false reports about Iran's Armed Forces and the lack of fighting capacity the Iranian nation would have in a military battle, and step by step provoked the Iraqi regime in this imposed war. All means and facilities were used to assure Iraq's leadership that it will be given unconditional support, including financial support, by Saudi Arabia and some of the governments of the Persian Gulf region.

On the basis of the calculation that it will draw Iraq as well into the orbit of so-called moderate countries that are militarily and economically dependent on the United States, Washington started a two-sided game. On the one hand it widened differences among Arab states and consequently weakened the power of the Arabs against the Israeli aggressors, and on the other it set some of the region's Arab countries against our Islamic Republic and actually exposed our homeland to a military threat and armed aggression.

Of course, irresponsible statements by some individuals in our country and the tumult about the export of the revolution to other countries and similar remarks were widely exploited by the region's reactionaries and the United States. Thus, the American plotters were able to achieve their conspiratorial plans.

The imposed war started and America and its allies were overjoyed at the sight of thousands of old and young Iranians and Iraqis being killed every day. Tens of thousands were killed in this war. A great number of institutions, residential areas and in some instances entire cities were leveled to the ground.

Oil exploration and production in both countries reached its lowest level; this was and remains their only main source of income. The daily military expenditure of each of the countries involved in the war was about $200 million whereas we are two neighboring countries and the nations of both countries could and must live in peace and friendship, in particular when both nations have identical positions and interests regarding the main international issues and the situation in the region.

Both the Iranian and Iraqi nations, in particular, support the struggles of the Arabs and Palestinians against the aggressor Israel and the ally of world-devouring America.

Without doubt the self-sacrifice, resistance and the crushing blows which the Iraqi Army confronted in our homeland played a valuable role in Baghdad's decision to withdraw its armed forces from our homeland's territory. Our ever-on-the-scene nation, having resolute faith that the perpetuation of the Iranian revolution is conditional on the realization of its age-old objectives, has risen in defending and safeguarding the national sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of its homeland.

Grave tasks face our nation and the Iraqi nation in connection with rebuilding the foundation of life, the reconstruction of the war damages and the struggle against imperialism and Zionism. Without doubt putting an end to the war can aid in resolving these problems in the best possible manner.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 954

LD241736 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 24 Jun 82

[Communique No 954 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The situation on the battlefronts during the past 24 hours was as follows: On the country's southern fronts, our mighty, victorious combatants safeguarded their defensive positions and fortifications while vigilantly controlling enemy movements and operations. They increasingly strengthened and stabilized their defensive positions while using retaliatory fire to neutralize the Saddamist forces' activities.

The gendarmerie combatants deployed in the Abadan region opened fire on enemy positions on the opposite bank of the Shatt al-'Arab, destroying one ammunition dump and four concrete bunkers belonging to the Iraqi troops.

Yesterday the Khorramshahr region and some Abadan residential areas and oil installations were the targets of the enemy's long-range artillery. As a result, 9 of our compatriots were martyred and 30 were wounded.

During the past 24 hours, Islam's combatant forces returned enemy fire and destroyed three enemy ammunition dumps, one mortar launcher and one assembly point belonging to the Iraqi troops in the Tutman and Biarreh regions in Iraq. Nine Saddamist troops were either killed or wounded.

During an exchange of fire on the Meymak and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab fronts, our forces fired on the aggressive Saddamist army's deployment points and set one ammunition dump, one vehicle and a number of trenches and their servicemen on fire. During the same operation one enemy motor pool was also greatly damaged.

Sporadic exchange of fire took place in the Qasr-e Shirin and Ilam regions; our Islamic forces maintained their firepower superiority.

TEHRAN CALLS FOR ARAB OIL EMBARGO AGAINST WEST

GF201527 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 19 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Using Oil as a Weapon Against the Regime Occupying Jerusalem"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: The Zionist regime's attack on the defenseless Muslim Palestinian people began at the same time that the OPEC conference convened in Vienna, the capital of Austria, in October 1973. This action infuriated the Arab peoples at the time, and after becoming aware of the fact that Zionism was being supported by the usurper America and its European allies, the representatives of Arab countries decided to use oil as a political and economic weapon.

Taking into view the importance of using oil as a political weapon, why are Arab oil-producing countries not moving to use oil as a weapon against Zionism, preferring instead to make anti-Zionist statements, at a time when the occupationist Zionist regime has resorted to an unprecedented onslaught and genocide in Lebanon, with the support of its European allies, including the United States? The Arab world gained valuable experience from the oil embargo it imposed in 1973. The Arab states can again move to use the same weapon in order to counter the attacks organized by the Zionists.

By adopting a resolute stand with regard to imposing an oil embargo as a weapon, the oil-producing Arab countries can attain a position whereby they can deal heavy blows on international oppressors and murderous Zionism, headed by the usurper United States.

Meanwhile, in addition to the oil embargo, the Islamic and the Arab worlds can use other weapons to deal heavy blows on international oppressors and Zionism -- weapons such as the imposition of an embargo on Western products and the withdrawal of Arab assets from European banks. As has already been stated by Prime Minister Mir-Moseyn Musavi, there is absolutely no reason why an oil embargo should not be imposed against the usurper America. The unity of the Muslims in the region can be described as the most important and serious requirement for using the oil weapon against the supporters of Zionism and oppressors and for countering and repelling the onslaught by the regime that has been occupying Jerusalem.

Those who give assurances that the Arabs do not intend to impose an oil embargo against the United States and Europe should be asked whether this is not in the direction of what is established by the United States and Zionism in connection with the status of the regime occupying Jerusalem. [sentence as heard] Undoubtedly the current developments will expose the true identities of those who have secret relations with Zionism -- relations which sometimes come into the limelight unintentionally. It is obvious that our world is one where experience is gained and therefore the character of everyone, every trend and every group will eventually become known.

28 JUNE 1982

Lebanon

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- The IDF ceased fire at 2000 on 25 June in compliance with a U.S. request, IDF radio reported. While Beirut radio said the cease-fire held on 26 and 27 June, the Israeli Air Force destroyed a Syrian SAM-6 battery in the Al-Biqa' Valley early on 26 June, according to Jerusalem radio. The radio said the Syrians had taken advantage of the cease-fire to infiltrate missiles into Lebanon. Jerusalem television subsequently noted that the Israeli Cabinet regards the reintroduction of SAM batteries into Lebanon as a cease-fire violation.

Before the cease-fire, IDF radio reported that the entire Syrian stronghold on the mountains east of Beirut had collapsed. Jerusalem radio subsequently noted that the IDF cease-fire line on the Beirut-Damascus highway is only 40 km from the Syrian capital. Reporting attempts by all sides to reinforce their positions over the weekend, Voice of Lebanon radio spoke of "huge" Israeli troop concentrations just south of Beirut and later reported that Israeli forces were advancing from Bhamdun toward Hammana. Syrian and allied forces in Hammana exchanged artillery fire with the IDF, according to the radio. However, Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon told correspondents on 27 June that the fighting near Hammana was between Syrian and Lebanese Christian forces, IDF radio reported.

A statement broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said the Israeli bombardment of Beirut on 25 June had caused 2,000 casualties. A 27 June car bomb explosion near the AFP office in west Beirut caused more casualties, according to the radio. Noting that Israeli planes have dropped leaflets calling on civilians to leave west Beirut, a Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces spokesman denied that the joint forces have prevented civilians from leaving the city, the radio noted.

Israeli Policy -- Israel will maintain the cease-fire in Lebanon but will respond with "full severity" to any violation by the other side, the Cabinet secretary announced in an official statement over Jerusalem radio following the 27 June Cabinet meeting. Israel wants all 15 organizations under the aegis of the PLO to hand over their weapons to the Lebanese Army, which should enter west Beirut, and then to leave Beirut and Lebanon for Syria. The departing column will be protected by the International Red Cross and will be guaranteed safe passage along sections of the Beirut-Damascus highway controlled by the IDF, the Cabinet statement said. If the "terrorists" prefer an alternative route, the IDF will make this possible for them.

Political negotiations to guarantee peace, Lebanon's territorial integrity and the departure of all foreign forces can follow the "liberation" of west Beirut and the reunification of the Lebanese capital, the statement added. It said Israel will gladly accept the good offices of the United States in the negotiations for such an agreement, which will also ensure Israel's security.

Commenting on the Cabinet meeting, IDF radio said Israel's demands, which have now been made clear, are generally acceptable to the United States, except for the question of whether all the "terrorists" should be removed, or only their leaders. The radio also noted that Israeli sources had disclosed that contrary to reports published in Washington, Prime Minister Menahem Begin did not promise President Ronald Reagan that Israel would not enter Beirut. Defense Minister Sharon said that if there is no response to Israel's demands, then a new Cabinet resolution will be needed, according to another report by the radio. Sharon also told correspondents that Israel will make every conceivable effort to get the PLO to leave Beirut without a battle, the radio subsequently reported.

Noting that Israel awaits answers and clarifications on political questions from U.S. envoy Philip Habib, Jerusalem radio said Israel's call for the departure of all "terrorists" from Lebanon was in addition to its previous demand that the PLO leaders leave the country. It said the Cabinet resolution, which is a compromise between various positions presented at the Cabinet session, offers the PLO a generous proposal: not surrender, but to leave Lebanon in an organized way.

PLO Contacts, Stand -- An official Palestinian source disclosed on 27 June that U.S. envoy Habib had communicated to the PLO new U.S. proposals which constitute a compromise between the vetoed French draft UN Security Council resolution and Israel's conditions for ending the Beirut problem, Beirut radio reported. The Palestinian official said the U.S. proposals involve "positive loosening up." On the same day, PLO Executive Committee member Khalid al-Hasan told the Kuwaiti daily AL-ANBA' that the PLO categorically rejects Israel's proposals for the Palestinian forces to leave Lebanon and will "fight to the last man," AFP reported. However, early on 28 June, Lebanese Government sources disclosed that the PLO had agreed to hand over its weapons to the Lebanese Army and evacuate all its fighters to another Arab capital by sea, on condition that the Israelis withdraw 5 km from their present positions around Beirut, according to Monte Carlo radio. On the other hand, the PLO information spokesman subsequently announced in a statement broadcast by the Voice of Palestine that the Palestinians will fight until victory or martyrdom. He scored reports aimed at "undermining the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples' steadfastness." Meanwhile, Beirut radio said the PLO leadership would resume its contacts with the Lebanese authorities on 28 June in order to achieve final and quick results. After meeting with PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat and other Palestinian leaders on 27 June. Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan said in remarks broadcast by Beirut radio that partial and tangible progress had been made.

According to Monte Carlo radio, Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine Secretary General Nayif Hawatimah said on 26 June that any political solution of the current crisis should include the maintenance of the PLO's political presence in Lebanon and the reorganization of its military presence. Hawatimah also expressed indignation at the stand of the USSR. Nevertheless, a 27 June Voice of Palestine radio commentary claimed that the Soviet Union will forcibly prevent any attempt to invade Beirut. The previous day, Yasir 'Arafat received a message of firm Soviet support from President Leonid Brezhnev, according to the radio.

Arab Emergency Conference -- At the Arab foreign ministers emergency conference in Tunis, the Lebanese delegation submitted a paper calling for an end to PLO military activities from Lebanese territory and the removal of the Palestinian military presence, KUNA reported. Demanding that the Lebanese Government be allowed to exercise unconditional authority and sovereignty over all its territory through its army and security forces, the paper also called on the ministers to strongly condemn Israel's aggression against the Lebanese and Palestinian peoples. Meanwhile, the PLO representative called for an Arab economic boycott of the United States that would include the withdrawal of funds and a rupture in diplomatic relations, according to AFP. An ironic Voice of Palestine commentary on the conference said the Palestinian-Lebanese people are not interested in the meeting, in which the ministers will try hard to select emotional terms from a dictionary with which to phrase their "historic statement."

Noting that the conference is to continue, Kuwait radio reported that the ministers decided to establish a committee which will hold urgent contacts with the UN Security Council.

Lebanese Political Situation, Appeals -- Prime Minister al-Wazzan may withdraw his resignation in the wake of appeals from other Lebanese political leaders, including Phalangist Party leader Pierre al-Jumayyil, according to Voice of Lebanon radio repots. Meanwhile, Beirut radio broadcast an appeal from President Ilyas Sarkis to leaders of fraternal and friendly states to help in rescuing Beirut from the calamity threatening it. The radio also noted that Al-Wazzan made a similar appeal to Saudi King Fahd, who promised to exert utmost efforts on all levels.

Saudi Message, Reaction -- Saudi King Fahd cabled President Reagan on 25 June, urging the U.S. leader to put an end to Israel's "bestial" invasion of Lebanon and stressing that Israel's actions will have terrible consequences for peace, Riyadh radio reported. The same day, King Fahd told Yasir 'Arafat over the telephone about Saudi Arabia's diplomatic attempts to rescue the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples, SPA noted.

A Saudi official expressed "deep regret" over the UN Security Council's rejection of the French draft resolution on Lebanon, which "could have led to positive and effective results" to stop the Lebanese situation from deteriorating, SPA noted.

Mubarak, Ghali Statements -- In a statement to reporters cited by MENA, Egyptian President Husni Mubarak stated that he was "greatly disappointed" at the U.S. veto of a French draft resolution on Lebanon at the UN Security Council. Mubarak asserted that the United States should not have used the veto and observed that when a veto is used by a country, it should have an alternative solution. Mubarak said he has informed President Reagan of his dissappointment over the situation in Lebanon. Asked about the status of the PLO, Mubarak said it constitutes a political power in Lebanon and before it leaves there must be negotiations. He warned that the expulsion of the PLO will result in more terrorism in the region, naturally affecting U.S. interests. Mubarak went on to reiterate an earlier announcement that Egypt is ready to accept a Palestinian government-in-exile.

Meanwhile, Egyptian Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Butrus Ghali, in a statement to the BBC reported by MENA, demanded the withdrawal of Israeli forces from Lebanon and Israel's noninterference in Lebanon's internal affairs. Ghali asserted that Egypt will honor its peace agreement with Israel but pointed out that it will be difficult to continue the Palestinian autonomy talks until a solution to the Lebanese problem is reached.

Libyan Warning -- Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi warned the Soviet Union and East European socialist bloc countries, during a meeting with their ambassadors, that the friendship between progressive Arab forces and the socialist countries is passing through "a danger" similar to that facing the PLO in Beirut, JANA reported. He added that this friendship is almost ready to go up in flames.

Reaction to Haig Resignation

According to IDF radio, Israeli political circles have expressed fear of a change in the U.S. position on Lebanon in the wake of Secretary of State Alexander Haig's resignation. The radio cited the political circles as saying Israel should now reassess the situation in Lebanon and possibly speed up all processes in order to lead to a quicker solution of the terrorist problem in Beirut and reach a political settlement before the U.S. administration's approach changes. However, Jerusalem television reported that Israel had received a message from the United States which stresses continuity in U.S. policy on the Lebanese crisis. The radio noted that the message was apparently intended to prevent a lightning action by Israel in Beirut. According to political sources cited by Jerusalem radio, despite soothing words which National Security Adviser William Clark asked to be delivered to Israel, no one should harbor any illusions. The sources concluded that Israel will not receive the full U.S. backing in the negotiations in Lebanon it would have received if Haig had remained in his post.

Noting that the Israeli Cabinet discussed the Haig resignation, IDF radio observed that while Jerusalem expressed concern over the possibility of a far-ranging change in U.S. policy, it hoped that it will be possible to carry on a substantive working relationship with Secretary of State George Shultz and that the administration will not change U.S. guidelines on Lebaon.

During an interview with journalists, Egyptian President Mubarak speculated that events in Lebanon might be linked to Haig's resignation, MENA reported. Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Ghali said Egypt hopes the new U.S. secretary of state will play a more positive role within the framework of a "balanced outlook toward Israeli aggression" against the Lebanese and Palestinian peoples, Cairo radio reported. The Qatari paper AR-RAYAH reported that diplomatic sources in Cairo have welcomed the appointment of George Shultz. An official Egyptian source cited by the paper noted that Cairo confidently dealt with Shultz when Egyptian-U.S. relations improved during the presidency of Richard Nixon. The source added that relations between the two countries were strained because of Haig and noted that Egyptian and Arab efforts regarding the Lebanese situation were obstructed because of Haig's bias toward Israel. The source concluded by saying he has confidence that under Shultz the United States will reassess its policy and will side with the Arabs or will at least adopt a balanced position between the Arabs and Israel.

Jordanian Information Minister 'Adnan Abu 'Awdah expressed hope that Haig's resignation would allow the United States to adopt a more balanced policy in the Middle East, Amman radio reported, citing his statement to the Qatari News Agency. However, a Damascus radio commentary concluded that Shultz' appointment would not add anything new to the U.S. policy of absolute support to Israel.

BK260838 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1700 GMT 25 Jun 82

[Text] The present round of discussions conducted through the intermediary of the personal representative of the UN secretary general, Diego Cordovez, has concluded in Geneva.

A press release issued by the office of Cordovez said that the discussions were wide-ranging and were carried out in a constructive spirit. The interlocutors reaffirmed their support for the efforts of the secretary general and their desire to achieve a political solution. The discussions focused on the four agenda items identified for consideration. They dealt with the specific substance of four items as integral components of the comprehensive settlement.

The press release further said that the personal representative of the secretary general will remain in close contact with the interlocutors with a view to obtaining such [word indistinct] information and clarifications as needed. He is expected to visit the area later this year to continue the discussions.

Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan and the representative of the ruling party in Afghanistan, Shah Mohammad Dost, were present in Geneva for the talks. Later, addressing a crowded news conference in Geneva, the secretary general's personal representative said he was satisfied with the indirect talks on Afghanistan. He said it should not have been possible for us to go further than we did.

Cordovez said it was at the same time important that the interlocutors have been talking about substantive and specific issues which were extremely difficult to resolve. The interlocutors did all the talking and addressed themselves to substantive subjects according to the undertaking they had given to him during his pre-Geneva contacts. Moreover, they responded to specific questions and came up with specific ideas and suggestions. He said when it came to clarifications among the interlocutors, they did not only mean knowing their respective positions but also making certain adjustments of positions to orient themselves to the specific objective of comprehensive settlement. He said he also kept Iran informed about the progress of talks and consulted the Soviet Union, the United States and other countries.

Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan left Geneva this afternoon for Amman on way back home after attending the UN-sponsored indirect talks on Afghanistan which lasted 9 days. He led the six-man Pakistan delegation to the talks. During his short stay in Amman, Sahabzada Yaqub Khan will hold talks on bilateral matters with Crown Prince Hasan and other Jordanian Government leaders. He is also expected to discuss the latest Middle East situation with the Jordanian leaders, especially the situation in Lebanon.

DAWN: KARMAL TROOPS 'WIPED OUT' IN AMBUSH

GF261144 Karachi DAWN in English 24 Jun 82 p 10

[Text] Peshawar, June 23: The Afghan mujahidin are reported to have wiped out a big number of Karmal troops in an ambush over the Dabgi fort in Khowst area of Paktia Province during the second week of this month.

According to a press release of Harkat-e Enqelab-e Eslami, Afghanistan, the mujahidin, during their different guerrilla activities in this area killed over 250 Karmal troops. As many as eight mujahidin also lost their lives while twelve of them sustained injuries.

According to reports, the mujahidin besieged the fort of Dabgi and killed the entire force guarding the fort. However, heavy reinforcements supported by dozens of tanks were sent by the Russians to end the siege of the fort. Fierce fighting broke out and the freedom fighters inflicted heavy losses on the fresh reinforcements.

The mujahidin also captured a large number of heavy and light weapons during these encounters.

In another clash that took place in Khowst cantonment, the mujahidin captured seven vehicles along with a huge quantity of foodstuffs loaded in a few of them. Three mujahidin also sacrificed their lives in the clash. The cantonment, the report further reveals, was still in the firing range of the mujahidin and small clashes were occurring in the area.

The mujahidin have also started a new campaign of arresting some notorious communists of the ruling party. After taking hold of them, they are brought in the liberated areas where they are tried by the Islamic courts and after their conviction they are executed. Four high-ranking Afghan officials were recently executed by the mujahidin, namely, Gol Bahra, Naik Mohammad, Qadir and Gen Ruzi. Another 13 persons were also captured by the mujahidin alive and were facing trial. -- PPI.

KARACHI REPORTS ALEXANDER HAIG'S RESIGNATION

BK260900 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 0200 GMT 26 Jun 82

[Text] President Reagan has announced the resignation of U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig. President Reagan has accepted his resignation but gave no details in this regard.

Haig, however, said in a press conference in Washington last night that in recent months it had become clear to him that the foreign policy of which he and President Reagan had embarked together was shifting away from the set course. President Reagan has announced that George Shultz, a former Treasury secretary, will succeed Haig as secretary of state.

INFORMATION MINISTER ON INDIA, AFGHANISTAN

BK271357 Karachi Overseas Service in Urdu 0800 GMT 27 Jun 82

[Text] Federal Minister of Information and Broadcasting Raja Mohammad Zafarul Haq, who is also the acting foreign minister, told the Advisory Council during question hour today that India has acquired latest weapons on a large scale from foreign countries in addition to indigenously manufactured weapons.

Giving details of various kinds of aircraft, surface-to-air missiles and submarines possessed by India, he said that it is the Pakistani Government's position that every country has the right to produce and acquire military equipment for its own defense. This is the reason why Pakistan has made no protest against India's massive arms import over and above its large-scale indigenous production of weapons. However, he said, the Government of Pakistan notes with regret that the Indian Government has often protested against Pakistan's acquisition of a comparatively meager amount of weapons.

Answering a question, Raja Mohammad Zafarul Haq told the house that it has been the consistent effort of the Government of Pakistan to seek a comprehensive settlement of the Afghanistan issue under which foreign troops will be withdrawn and Afghan refugees can voluntarily return to their homes. Pakistan fully understands the fact that without the withdrawal of foreign troops from Afghanistan, the Afghan refugees, who have taken shelter in Pakistan [words indistinct] the issue of Afghan refugees is also basic and major one. This issue is included on the agenda of the indirect talks being held through the personal representative of the UN secretary general.

HAQ INTERVIEWED BY INDIAN WEEKLY ON RELATIONS

BK280430 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 0200 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq has said that Pakistan wanted a genuine and lasting peace with India and to achieve this objective any proposal would be welcomed.

In an interview with the editor of an Indian weekly who recently visited Pakistan, the president said he was looking forward to an opportunity to meet Indian Prime Minister Mrs Indira Gandhi and exchange views with her. The president described Mrs Gandhi's letter -- brought by Natwar Singh, secretary in the Indian Ministry of External Affairs -- as a very positive response to the letter he had sent to the Indian prime minister some time back.

The president added that Mrs Gandhi's letter has paved the way for a followup meeting of the last foreign ministers conference in New Delhi. He said the aim is not just to sign a piece of paper, but to find a way to a permanent settlement.

The president said if we have to open a new chapter then we have to forget a lot of past things. The president assured that Pakistan has forgotten many things of the past and we are committed to this process. Answering a question, the president said that for quite some time Pakistan has been watching the Indian reaction to its proposal of a no-war pact, especially since Mrs Gandhi came to power again. He said Pakistan expected a warmer and more spontaneous reaction to the offer, but the Indian reaction was very cautious and not up to our expectations.

In reply to a question on Kashmir, the president said the people of Pakistan wanted a peaceful settlement of this issue in light of the UN declarations and the Simla Agreement.

Referring to Pakistan's nuclear program, the president said all reports saying Pakistan was going ahead with the atom bomb are absolutely false. He added it was Pakistan which had proposed a nuclear-free zone in the Indian Ocean.

Asked if Pakistan was behind the Sikh problem, he said the accusation was totally false. Pakistan believes in straight business because we firmly believe in the moral principles of Islam and it considers interference in neighbors' affairs as immoral.

About the Indian hijackers detained in Pakistan, the president said the legal position is they have to be tried in Pakistan according to the existing laws, which are very stringent. On the issue of Indian prisoners detained in Pakistan jails, he said as far as he understood there were no prisoners in Pakistani jails who were unnecessarily detained. We asked India, however, to send details and photographs of the prisoners and we have received 40 photographs of 40 persons. He added if and when found, the prisoners would not be detained in Pakistan. On the other hand, about 340 Pakistani soldiers were missing and we are also trying to send their photographs.

Answering a question about Pakistan's relations with its neighbors, the president said that China is a great friend of Pakistan. We have very good relations with India and we are trying to explore a peaceful and normal relationship with India.

He said the Soviet Union is our immediate neighbor with whom we have had very friendly relations and we have economic development programs with them. He said the only bone of contention with the Soviet Union is its military intervention in Afghanistan and on that principle we will never compromise.

Asked why civilian governments failed in Pakistan, he said one reason was that unfortunately Pakistan lacked trained politicians. Mohammad Ali Jinnah died soon after the creation of Pakistan and his few close colleagues also did not live long.

He said he had a limited role to play and his objectives were limited which will be, God willing, completed at the right time and it will not take long to achieve this. He said we will hold elections to give new leadership to the country.

Referring to the introduction of an Islamic system, the president said we are optimistic about it.

TEHRAN REPORTS ALEXANDER HAIG'S RESIGNATION

GF260830 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 0430 GMT 26 Jun 82

[Text] U.S. Secretary of State Haig resigned his post last night. He said that the reason for his resignation is the current differences among Republican members of the administration. He did not mention the nature of the differences within the U.S. administration.

On the other hand, President Reagan declared that he has approved the resignation of Haig, his secretary of state. Reagan also said that he has appointed George Shultz as his successor. George Shultz was the secretary of the Treasury Department in the Nixon administration, and during Reagan's presidential campaign he was Reagan's foreign policy adviser. The Zionist Foreign Ministry announced today that it was grieved by Haig's resignation, saying that he was a notable statesman and Israel's sincere friend.

SOBH-E AZADEGAN Comments

GF271003 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0800 GMT 27 Jun 82

[From the press review]

[Text] Following Haig's resignation from the U.S. State Department, the newspaper SOBH-E AZADEGAN published an article under the title "Why Has Haig Resigned?" We quote some parts of what the newspaper said in this regard:

Observers have given many justifications for Haig's resignation. The most significant of these were disagreement over military policy and the economic boycott of the Soviet Union. But U.S. imperialism does not change faces that simply. Before he came to the State Department, Haig was commander of NATO forces and tended to favor settlement of disputes by military means. Haig turned the State Department into a good market to drown the world in arms. This being the case, and after he drowned the world in U.S. military machines and equipment, he could not perform the role of secretary of state. Therefore, someone else had to be given the job.

On the other hand, Haig showed great sympathy and support for the Zionist aggression in southern Lebanon against the deprived Lebanese people. The United States wanted to better its reputation among those deprived in order to play new roles through further conspiracies. Thus, it decided to replace Haig with another imperialist in addition to the pressures the United States faced as a result of its policy by the European peoples. [sentence as heard] Many demonstrations were staged in European countries against this policy. Finally, replacing a militant with an economist to head U.S. foreign policy is sufficient evidence that the United States feels that its economic policy was not right or accepted.

In conclusion, this resignation and the change of ruling faces in the West are evidence of the deadend in the West's economy and policy.

KHOMEYNI CALLS FOR DEFENSE OF ISLAM'S HONOR

LD272258 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 27 Jun 82

[Message from Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni delivered by his son Hojjat ol-Eslam Seyyed Ahmad Khomeyni, at a memorial ceremony in Tehran on 27 June marking the anniversary of the death of Islamic Republican Party leaders in an explosion at the party's central headquarters -- recorded]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. "From Him we come and to Him we shall return." [Koranic verse]

On the anniversary of the martyrdom of 72 of the imam's friends in the Islamic Republican Party: The sad tragedy and a string of martyrdoms subsequently helped to accelerate the Islamic, revolutionary victory. Many thanks to the most exalted God who, through His special benedictions, helped the country of the remnant of God [the hidden imam], may our lives be sacrificed at his blessed feet, and this Hezbollahi nation to reach victory or be at the threshold of victory at every stage and in every phase. The power of the Islamic Republic and its organs is increasing daily.

Today, the dear Iranian nation, which the ignorant imagined would be driven away from the scene by inhuman crimes and by martyring its worthy figures, and the secret of whose presence on the scene the ignorants could not and cannot perceive, is continuing to march forward with its divine power. We hope that with the defeat of America's recent plot to preserve Saddam and the 'Aflaqi party, our brave forces will be opening the road to storming toward Jerusalem with the final defeat of the Iraqi Government. [chants of "God is great"]

Similarly, it is hoped that we will not witness indifference from the countries in the region toward the Israeli onslaught and the murder and plundering of the Islamic country of Lebanon, whose (?existence) is in danger of extinction. Muslim nations must realize that, with the deadly silence of some of the countries in the region and with their unreserved submission to America and Israel, today one will see dear Lebanon being swallowed up by this world devourer and its leftovers and other dear countries will be swallowed up in the near future.

If the countries in the region confronted these criminals today with the oil weapon and arms, the problem of Israel -- and later of America and of any other powerful plunderers -- would be solved. We express deep regret over the fact that some of the Islamic countries extend their hands toward America, which is the principal criminal and first-hand plotter, and that they are seeking their deliverance from this man-eating wolf. We strongly condemn this attitude.

The warrior Iranian nation and the revolutionary government -- had it not been for the problem of war with Iraq, the plot to pull wool over our eyes concerning what is plaguing us, and the plan to defeat us on two fronts -- would have acted in a different war.

For the umpteenth time we turn to the Islamic governments, particularly the governments in the region, and call upon them and firmly point out to them to rise for the sake of safeguarding their own countries and preserving the Islamic nations' honor, its lives and property; to unite with us and with Syria and the Palestinians to defend in a united front the respect and honor of Islam and of Arabs, thus eliminating these criminals from their rich countries forever. You should not lose this opportunity, for tomorrow will be too late.

I appeal to the holy God, the most exalted, for the greatness of Islam and Muslims, alertness for Islamic governments, respect and honor for Islamic countries, blessing for the martyrs of Islam throughout history, particularly the martyrs of 28 June 1981, and patience for the Iranian nation and for the survivors of the martyrs.

KHAMENE'I: PREPARE REGION FOR ISLAMIC REGIMES

LD251142 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 25 Jun 82

[Excerpts] Mr Seyyed Mohammad Khamene'i was the speaker before the sermon during today's Friday prayers in Tehran.

In his speech, Mr Khamene'i referred to the Iraqi war imposed upon Iran, saying there are few people today who might not have understood the importance of war between us and the Iraqi Ba'thist infidels. Today, at a time when our nation is determined to end the imposed war in victory, it has not forgotten the people of Lebanon either. And as the imam graciously said: The way to fight Israel will be through Iraq. And it was Iraq, which by launching an attack on Iran, implemented the American plot in the region.

Finally, addressing the nations of the region, he stated: Since Iraq is a dangerous neighbor for all the nations of the region, all of them are dutybound to rise against their own reactionary rulers and prepare the grounds for establishment of Islamic governments in the region.

VELAYATI, PAKISTANI ENVOY DISCUSS LEBANON

LD262304 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 26 Jun 82

[Text] The Central News Unit reports that the Pakistani ambassador to Tehran met and conferred with Mr Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs, this morning. The Pakistani ambassador explained the extent of the Zionists' savage aggression on Lebanon and listed the aid the Pakistani people have given to the Palestinians and the deprived people of Lebanon. He then asked that relations between Iran and Pakistan be expanded in different respects.

In reply, Mr Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs, announced the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran's support for the struggle of the Palestinian people and said: The way to fight the criminal Zionist regime is through unifying all the Muslims. He then elaborated on the Islamic Republic of Iran's stands in the war imposed by Iraq on Iran and said: The conditions we proposed from the beginning were all justified, we are still waiting for these conditions to be fulfilled.

KUWAIT SENDING MILITARY SUPPLIES TO IRAQ

LD261142 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 26 Jun 82

[Text] In continuation of its overall military and economic assistance to the Iraqi Ba'thist and Zionist regime in its war with the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Government of Kuwait dispatched 70 trailers carrying 40 tanks and armored personnel carriers and considerable amounts of ammunition to Iraq last week. Traffic movement along one of the main highways in Kuwait was banned for 30 minutes in order to allow this military convoy to pass. The contents of these trailers was totally camouflaged with military tents, and a heavy guard of Kuwaiti security forces strictly protected the convoy.

We recall that the reactionary regimes of the region who continue to support Saddam's toppling regime by their military and financial assistance have not reacted to the vast military aggression of the usurping Zionists against Lebanon, which has left thousands of Lebanese and Palestinian Muslims martyred, wounded or homeless.

[Communique No 956 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The situation at the fronts of the imposed war, and the efforts rendered by the self-sacrificing personnel of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran yesterday to eliminate the criminal Saddamists and invader mercenaries, are as follows:

Limited clashes and sporadic exchange of artillery and heavy-weapon fire continued yesterday on most of the country's western fronts, especially in Gilan-e Gharb, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab, Sumar and Salehabad, and the powerful ground forces' combatants answered the Saddamists' fire with superior fire. While leveling the enemy positions, our forces destroyed 2 enemy heavy-weapon trenches, several individual trenches, 10 heavy and light vehicles and 1 tank belonging to the mercenary Saddamist forces. A further four Iraqi vehicles were damaged and a number of enemy personnel were either wounded or killed. Our forces controlled the movement of enemy forces on these fronts and fired on the enemy's armored unit.

On other fronts in the west, the combatants of Islam succeeded in inflicting comparatively heavy losses and casualties on Iraqi forces in the Iraqi regions of Khurmal and Panjwin. Sporadic exchanges of fire also continued on the Paveh front.

On the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts, sporadic exchange of fire continued between the able Islamic forces and the forces of the mercenary Ba'thists. As a result of retaliatory fire by the navy combatants and the valiant gendarmerie, several of the enemy's light- and heavy-weapon positions and observation posts were destroyed and a number of Iraqis were either killed or wounded.

Sporadic exchanges of fire also continued on some southern fronts.

[Communique No 957 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. While expressing congratulations and condolences on the occasion of the martyrdom of 72 servants of Islam and the Koran, to the imam of the nation and the nation of Islam, we bring a summary of military operations during the past 24 hours to your attention:

Yesterday, on most of the western fronts exchange of fire was in progress; the forces of Islam returned the enemy fire and destroyed enemy positions.

In the Meymak, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Gilan-e Gharb sectors, our indefatigable combatants destroyed 16 vehicles carrying enemy personnel. They also destroyed an ammunition dump of the Saddamite forces. As a result of these operations, a number of foxholes, trenches and various weapon emplacements of the Saddamites were destroyed and a number were killed or wounded. Firing by our forces was so intense that any form of movement by the Iraqi forces in these sectors was prevented.

In the Marivan sector, exchange of fire continued and our combatants enjoyed complete superiority. As a result of our forces' artillery fire on enemy positions in the Panjwin sector, a number of enemy infantry bunkers were destroyed and a number of Saddam's soldiers were killed.

On the southern fronts, sporadic exchange of fire was in progress; while strengthening their positions, our forces were engaged in defending their positions, and by performing military reconnaissance missions they kept close watch on enemy movements.

Yesterday, as a result of heavy-weapon fire by Saddam's army on Khorramshahr and the residential areas of Abadan, two of our compatriots were martyred and nine were injured.

NVOI ASSAILS HOJJATIYEH ISLAMIC ASSOCIATION

TA252215 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 25 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Those Who Under the Mask of Islam Act Against the Imam's Line"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: In recent weeks, simultaneously with the discovery of America's new plot which was to be implemented by the Qotbzadehs and the pseudoclergy, a new wave of savage propaganda attacks, law breaking, prosecution and arrests has begun with intensity and ferocity by some sources in government organizations and in some instances by a number of organs. Certain individuals, who have moved with a signal given by the Satans, the large landowners, the major capitalists, the liberals and their American masters, are striving with all their might to replace the slogan of "Death to America" with the slogan of "Death to the Soviet Union" in streets, on walls, in schoolyards, in marches and in various meetings.

In some gatherings even a number of congregational imams also openly invite and encourage the people to kill and murder members or followers of the true revolutionary forces faithful to the imam's line.

All these regretful incidents are taking place precisely under conditions in which both Imam Khomeyni and the realistic officials of the Islamic Republic have obligated all individuals and organs and administrative, judicial, security and revolutionary sources to carry out the law and to observe the principles of the Constitution. Large-scale measures against the true forces of the revolution that are contrary to the explicit principles of the Constitution indicate that the wing opposed to the imam's line in the Islamic government is striving with all power and by utilizing all facilities to turn back the wheel of history and time.

The danger of this wing and this line lies above all in the fact that it is carrying out all its measures under cover of Islam and pseudo-Islam and by the hands of the pseudoclergy, the court preachers and even in some instances under the mask of the imam's line.

One can observe a clear example of these groups and associations in the feature of associations such as the Hojjatiyeh association. The nature of some of the leaders of this association, its objectives and ploys have recently been exposed. These so-called Islamic associations which frequently talk about the clergy and sometimes even about the militant clergy, are in fact opposed to revolutionary Islam and the militant clergy and are opponents of the imam's line. Some time ago one of the prominent members of this Hojjatiyeh association frankly said in an interview with the SOBH-E AZADEGAN newspaper that the Hojjatiyeh association had never adopted nor could adopt a frank stance against the clergy, or precisely against the pseudoclergy, such as the Muslim People's Party and so forth, who during various periods had expressed their frank opposition to the revolution and the imam who had officially had adopted a clear stance, and who had frankly denigrated the imam and the revolution.

You may ask: Why? You can hear the answer to this question from this same former member of the leadership of the Hojjatiyeh association who says that sometimes among those who used to financially help the Hojjatiyeh association you could find certain pawns, namely, wealthy people who in our current standards and criteria are counted as unhealthy individuals, but the association did not see this as a shortcoming, that is, it is not sensitive toward capitalists who have sucked the blood and property of the people and who are living in very prosperous satanic conditions.

In order to comprehend the final outcome of the deeds and acts of such so-called Islamic associations it is appropriate that we pay attention to another part of the remarks by Mr Tayyeb, former member of the Hojjatiyeh association. He says that one cannot state that members of the Hojjatiyeh association are the agents of foreigners, but at the same time that they want to serve God. They act in such a way that if an American had wanted to act similarly he would have had to spend and plan a great deal, but these individuals carry out these measures for the Americans very easily. This is what it is all about.

These seemingly Islamic associations, with the aid of the pseudoclergy, the court preachers and [word indistinct] do precisely what America wants. Now it is not difficult to understand the nature and content of the new wave of propaganda attacks, law breaking and pressures by individuals associated with these associations that are the foe of revolutionary Islam against the sincere followers of the imam's line and the true forces faithful to the revolution and the Islamic Republic of Iran.

These gentlemen, with the aid of robe and gown, the very gown which according to the imam of the nation very likely deserves to be set on fire, have entered the arena in order to overtly strike at the revolution. One can clearly see their footsteps in the Islamic Majlis, government organizations, revolutionary organs and all places. On the one hand, by law breaking, by intensifying the climate of violence and by indifference even to the imam's guidelines and the realistic officials of our Islamic Republic, these individuals distort the face of the revolution and the Islamic Republic and create a climate of discontent; on the other, they confront, oppose and, at best, emasculate every decision, measure and legal bill that the true followers of the imam's line present in the interest of the millions-strong and oppressed masses.

In one of his Friday prayer sermons Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani justly said: There exist centers of power that only move in the interest of the rich. There are certain respected persons in this country who since the outset of the revolution whenever they referred to us lodged a complaint as to why the property of such and such an individual was seized, and similar complaints. But not even once did they ask why did they not give the oppressed their rights, why did they not provide electricity to such and such a village, and why did they not inquire about the deprived?

Yes, the group opposed to the imam's line, the group that has concealed its true face under the Islamic guise, these gentlemen move and act in various garbs and under different masks, particularly the mask of pseudo-Islam, to maintain the domination of the large landowners and the major capitalists and to bring America in through the window. They raise obstacles at every step and in the face of every positive measure by the sincere followers of the imam's line.

It is these individuals who break the law by the hands of their elements in order to show the world that the law does not reign in this country, in the Islamic Republic, and that if there is a law it is the law of the jungle. It is these individuals who in the garb of Islam and pseudo-Islam destroy revolutionary Islam.

The danger of these elements, these gentlemen who have concealed their true and counterrevolutionary face under the mask of pseudo-Islam, is many times greater than the danger of the SAVAKists, the monarchists and the overt foes of the revolution and the Islamic Republic of Iran. By blackmail, by resorting to slander and accusations, and by affixing a label on every measure, act, proposal and legal bill and on every organization and party loyal to the revolution and the imam's line, these individuals want to divest the Iranian revolution of its main content -- that is, its popular, anti-imperialist and Islamic aspect.

One must decisively and consistently confront this outwardly Islamic line, which is inwardly the American line and the line opposed to the revolution and in fact the follower of Brzezinski's line.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

29 JUNE 1982

Lebanon

Israeli Policy, Comment -- There are grounds for hope that Israel's call for the removal of the "terrorists" from Beirut will not be in vain, Prime Minister Menahem Begin said in a message to MAPAM leaders reported by Jerusalem radio. However, Begin also told Agudat Yisra'el MK's that if the "terrorists" do not respond "within a short time" to Israel's demands, Israel will remove them from the city with all the means at its disposal, according to IDF radio. Nevertheless, Jerusalem radio said that after a day of feverish contacts involving U.S., French, Saudi, Egyptian and Lebanese representatives, authoritative sources in Jerusalem expressed cautious optimism that the "terrorists" will leave Lebanon shortly. The radio said Israel is prepared to allow them to depart by sea instead of overland and their likely destination would be Libya. Noting that Israel has already given answers to the PLO's demand to be allowed to retain its personal arms and to leave a nucleus of units in the Lebanese Army, the radio stressed that if the "terrorists" do not leave Beirut, Israel will soon decide on other ways to remove them. In a related report, IDF radio said the question of whether the PLO would depart with or without its arms was still an unresolved problem. It noted that Israel had been informed of the chance for a settlement by the United States. The radio subsequently reported that on 29 June the Israelis were awaiting further news from U.S. envoy Philip Habib in Beirut. Government sources affirmed that the PLO is not in a position to present conditions and that Israel does not intend to negotiate with it, the radio said. Earlier, senior Israeli officials warned that U.S. diplomacy is operating within a limited time-frame of days not weeks, according to Jerusalem radio.

Lebanese Contacts, PLO Position -- Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan said he had given U.S. envoy Habib "useful Palestinian ideas" for a solution to the Lebanese conflict during a meeting which also included the Lebanese president and foreign minister, AFP reported. Al-Wazzan said the ideas are aimed at reaching a solution that will allow the reestablishment of Lebanese sovereignty over the country and an end to the Israeli occupation. According to Beirut radio, Al-Wazzan emphasized to Habib the need to exert every effort to maintain the cease-fire.

Meanwhile, Jerusalem radio cited a Beirut radio report that the PLO had agreed to lay down its arms and leave Lebanon. According to diplomatic sources cited by Maj Sa'd Haddad's Voice of Hope radio, a PLO offer to evacuate Beirut by sea was conveyed to Israel through Habib. The sources said the PLO agreed to evacuate if Israel withdrew its forces 5 km from forward positions around Beirut.

However, the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio called the reports on the alleged PLO offer "lies and intrigues," adding that false reports will not change the firm and just Palestinian stand. In a statement reported by the radio, PLO Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf said the PLO is adhering to its decision not to negotiate with Israel or the United States but with the legitimate Lebanese authority, on condition that Israeli forces withdraw 5-10 km from their positions around Beirut. He added that once this takes place the PLO will enter into negotiations with the Lebanese authorities aimed at "regulating the Palestinians' armed presence in Lebanon."

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- The cease-fire continued on 28 June, although Israeli planes drew antiaircraft fire when they overflew Beirut and dropped leaflets, Beirut radio reported. Noting that the leaflets warned west Beirut residents to save their lives by leaving the area since "time is running out," Voice of Lebanon radio spoke of an intense evacuation of west Beirut early on 29 June. The previous day, the radio reported an Israeli-Syrian clash in the outskirts of Hammana, north of the Beirut-Damascus highway in the central sector. The radio subsequently noted that the Syrians had reinforced positions in the Zahlah area. Meanwhile, the IDF spokesman announced that IDF casualties in the Lebanese campaign were 268 dead and 1,255 wounded, according to Jerusalem radio.

Evacuation Proposal, Denial -- Under a Saudi proposal reported by Voice of Lebanon radio, the Palestinians will be airlifted by Saudi planes to the place of their choice. Earlier, in a statement to AL-AHRAM reported by MENA, Egyptian Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Butrus Ghali categorically denied reports that five Egyptian ships had left Alexandria for Beirut to facilitate the transfer of the PLO to Egypt.

Mubarak Statement -- Egyptian President Husni Mubarak, in a message to the EEC summit conference, called on Europe to play an important role in finding a solution to the Lebanese crisis and the Palestinian problem, AFP reported,. Mubarak said the U.S. veto of the French-sponsored UN Security Council resolution on Lebanon proves that although the United States has accepted the role of full partner in the peace process, it is not yet willing to adopt a policy consistent with this role. He stated that a lack of firmness by the United States gives Israel the impression it can count on American support regardless of its policy.

In a statement reported by Monte Carlo radio, Mubarak launched a "fierce attack" on the Syrian authorities because of their stand on the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and accused them of reaching a friendly agreement with Israel which provides for making Jordan a national homeland for the Palestinians while Syria takes over the Al-Biqa' Valley as compensation for the Golan Heights.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Iraqi forces have completed their withdrawal from Iran and now stand on the border in a high state of preparedness, according to an armed forces communique carried by INA.

Iraq

Eight government ministers and the same number of Revolution Command Council (RCC) members lost their posts in a reshuffle announced at the end of the Ba'th Party congress in Baghdad, INA reported. Ten new ministers have been appointed and a new nine-man RCC has been established. Six presidential advisers with ministerial status have also been appointed. According to a congress statement broadcast by Baghdad radio, President Saddam Husayn said in a speech to the delegates that "enemies of the revolution" have influenced some Iraqi students and workers. Criticizing those party officials who have been unable to uphold Ba'thist principles and ideology, he said antiparty and lazy elements must be weeded out.

Iran

Revolution guards arrested some 50 Mojahedin-e Khalq members in Karaj, Tehran radio reported. Meanwhile, the clandestine Radio Iran said the authorities have demanded the maximum sentence for 150 recently arrested members of the "Nima" organization, which was reportedly planning a coup d'etat.

MASHRIQ: SOVIETS USING CHEMICAL WEAPONS

GF281710 Karachi MASHRIQ in Urdu 27 Jun 82 p 6

[Text] London, 26 Jun (AAP) -- The Soviets have once again widely used chemical gas against the resistance in Afghanistan. Chemical bombs were dropped in the (Sur) region of the Qeysar subdivision of the far northern Faryab Province of Afghanistan during several attacks by Soviet helicopter gunships flying in from across the border during the first week of June.

The poisonous gas produced by these bombs was of red, white and black color and affects the brain. It makes the victim lose consciousness for 4 to 5 hours. It is reported that after making the people unconscious with these bombs, hundreds of Soviet troops landed in the area and searched the houses in the villages and captured young men between the ages of 14 and 22 whose whereabouts are still unknown.

It has been reported that the Soviet helicopters landed in (Takhta Bazar) and (Marveh) and then flew back int Soviet territory. Similarly, Soviet troops are also reported to enter the (Chul) subdivision in tanks and armored cars and then return to Soviet territory.

On 12 June Soviet troops mounted a severe attack on Qeysar with guns and helicopter gunships, killing 15 citizens, a majority of them women and children. Early warning prevented a greater loss of life, in spite of the great number of houses destroyed during the attack.

KABUL REPORTS U.S. 'BUILDUP' IN INDIAN OCEAN

GF290547 Kabul in English to South Asia 1530 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Unattributed commentary: "For Peace in the Indian Ocean")

[Excerpts] International imperialism, headed by U.S. imperialism, has in the course of this [word indistinct] been always seeking to consolidate its neocolonial and exploitative domination of the territories in vast areas of the world which are of great importance in view of their strategical location. World-devouring imperialism ignores the need of international peace and security and neither shows the least concern about the national sovereignty and independence of developing countries. It uses all means, foremost (?adopting) military and economic pressures, to achieve its sinister objectives. It is common knowledge that imperialism wants to preserve itself (?through) use of its military and economic power.

From the strategic, political and economic viewpoint, the Indian Ocean has acquired considerable importance. As the world has witnessed, the U.S. imperialism has turned the Diego Garcia Island in the Indian Ocean into a big naval base in order to achieve domination over the littoral countries in the region. The United States plans to spend $25 billion in the next 5 years for militarization of the Indian Ocean.

The U.S. military buildup in the Indian Ocean, from the very outset, caused a [word indistinct] concern and anxiety of peace-loving countries in the world, especially the littoral countries of the region. Only recently, in the joint declaration of the DRA and the GDR, both sides expressed their concern at the militarization of the Indian Ocean by the United States. They noted further that the DRA and the GDR will continue for implementation of the UN resolution concerning the transformation of the Indian Ocean into a zone of peace.

While supporting the proposal of the countries in the Indian Ocean region for turning it into a zone of peace, we believe that such a proposal can be (?transformed) into reality by the (?concerted) efforts of the world's peace-loving forces.

PAKISTAN ACQUIRING ELECTRONIC MILITARY EQUIPMENT

BK270944 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 27 Jun 82

[Text] Pakistan has sent high-powered teams to the United States, Britain, West Germany and Italy to acquire highly sophisticated electronic countermeasure military equipment. An agency report says, under a recently signed contract, Pakistan started receiving sophisticated low-level mobile radars and other communication equipment from the West European countries. These radars are stated to be of pulse-doppler type and can take very low flying aircraft and scan areas up to 100 km.

Pakistan has also concluded an agreement with the United States for the supply of automatic data-handling equipment. The agency says a major portion of this new equipment is now being flown into Pakistan. Pakistan's Air Force is also reported to be finalizing plans to convert one squadron of its transport planes into some kind of airborne warning and control system. It is stated that this will help in upgrading Pakistan's electronic warfare capabilities to a highly offensive level.

RAO ON LEBANON, TALKS WITH PRC, PAKISTAN

BK251515 Delhi ISI Diplomatic Information Service in English 1432 GMT 25 Jun 82

[Text] In a statement, the official spokesman said that the consultative committee for the Ministry of External Affairs met on June 25 morning and extended into the afternoon. Attention was accorded as a matter of priority to the situation in Lebanon arising out of Israel's aggression in that country. Other subjects discussed included the results of last round of talks at the official level between China and India, review of Indo-Bangladesh relations in light of the foreign minister's visit to Dacca in May and Indo-Pak relations with special reference to the draft relating to a nonaggression pact and establishment of a joint commission.

There was a unanimous condemnation of Israeli action by all members of the consultative committee. It was suggested that India must stand by the PLO and its chairman Yasir 'Arafat in his hour of need as earnest of India's goodwill for and friendship with the people of Palestine. The foreign minister confirmed to the consultative committee that our permanent representative in the United Nations has been instructed to work in close cooperation with the PLO representation there in line with the positive and principled stand on the Palestine question which India had consistently adhered to.

On the India-China talks held in May, the foreign minister began by reviewing the developments since June 1981 when the Chinese foreign minister visited India. He recalled that it was during that visit that the Chinese had agreed that the boundary issue is the central issue to relations between the countries.

The foreign minister said that at the second round of talks various principles and working propositions were advanced regarding the approach to be adopted for starting negotiations for the settlement, including the possibility of full implementation of the Colombo proposals. The foreign minister went on to say that it was recognized on both sides that the common basis and approach has to be evolved as a first step towards solving the boundary problem in each sector. It was recognized that an atmosphere conducive for the settlement needs to be maintained.

Summing up the foreign minister said that the main result of these exercises have been a greater degree of engagement of minds on points of difference and the extent of these differences between India and China on the border question. Regarding the third round the foreign minister said this shall be held at a time to be decided in consultation with China.

On Indo-Pak relations, the foreign secretary will go to Pakistan on 7 August for the foreign secretary level meeting of South Asian countries, then he will stay for some days for discussing bilateral matters. He also confirmed that we have received the draft no-war pact from Pakistan and we are preparing our own draft which will be given to Pakistan shortly.

The foreign minister acquainted members with the discussions he had with General Ershad during his recent visit to Dacca. He said that India is keen to have friendly and cooperative relationship with Bangladesh.

OPPOSITION PROTESTS BHAJAN LAL HARYANA MINISTRY

BK240944 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 24 Jun 82

[Excerpts] Haryana Chief Minister Bhajan Lal has won the first trial of strength on the floor of the state assembly today when Tara Singh of the Congress-I was declared elected speaker of the newly constituted house.

Earlier, when the governor arrived in the house for his address, the opposition did not rise from their seats to welcome him. During the governor's address, the opposition kept shouting, protesting against his invitation to Bhajan Lal to form the new Haryana government.

In Chandigarh, a protest march was organized by some opposition parties against the installation of the Bhajan Lal ministry in Haryana. The police resorted to cane charge when demonstrators tried to break the police cordon about half a kilometer from the state assembly.

According to an official spokesman, 50 policemen were injured, 2 of them seriously, in stone throwing indulged in by the demonstrators. Some demonstrators were also reported to have been injured.

OPPOSITION CANDIDATE COMMENTS ON ELECTIONS

BK281500 Hong Kong AFP in English 1119 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] New Delhi, June [date as received] (AFP) -- The opposition parties' candidate for the July 12 presidential election, Justice H. R. Khanna, said today he considered his chances of winning good if voting was free and based on conscience.

Justice Khanna, 70, who is the nominee of the combined nine-party opposition in Parliament, told a press conference that at the same time he had no plans to appeal to Prime Minister Indira Gandhi to allow her party legislators to cast their votes according to their conscience and not along party lines.

Opposing Justice Khanna for the chief executive's post which falls vacant on July 24 is ruling Congress Party candidate Giani Zail Singh, 66.

The electoral college for the poll consists of members of the two houses of Parliament and those of the 22 state assemblies.

As the ruling Congress controls the two houses of Parliament as well as the majority of the state assemblies, Mr. Singh's election as India's seventh president is considered by observers here to be a foregone conclusion.

Justice Khanna made it clear that he did not think Mrs. Gandhi would allow her party men to indulge in a conscience vote.

If elected, Mr. Singh would be the first member of the 12-million-strong Sikh community to reach the high office.

In a prepared statement issued to the press, Justice Khanna said it was essential for the proper functioning of the Indian Constitution that the president should "project an image of impartiality, fairness and independence."

He believed that the president and the Council of Ministers should work in harmony and he was against any kind of confrontation between the two, he added.

Justice Khanna, who resigned as justice of the Supreme Court because he was superceded by Mrs. Gandhi's government for the post of chief justice, deplored that political chicanery and corruption had taken deep roots in Indian public life.

He warned that unless the situation was remedied the Constitution and the democratic system would be in danger.

Justice Khanna refused to pass remarks on the personality of his opponent but hinted that Mr. Singh, an ardent supporter of Mrs. Gandhi, could not be expected to be non-partisan and fair in his main job, which was to uphold the Constitution.

He also said his main aim seeking election was to raise the moral tone of public life and protect the image of fairness, impartiality and independence of the Constitution.

Justice Khanna is expected to tour the various Indian states in the coming days campaigning for his election.

PAKISTANI, INDIAN OFFICIALS TO MEET IN AUGUST

BK281058 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1005 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] A Foreign Office spokesman said in Islamabad today that the foreign secretaries of Pakistan and India are expected to meet in Islamabad next August for bilateral discussions. The dates for the meeting are being worked out. He recalled that the foreign ministers of Pakistan and India agreed in February last that the officials of the two countries would meet in order to continue exchanges of views on the substance of the proposed nonaggression and nonuse of force agreement. Some of the elements of the proposed agreement were discussed during Agha Shahi's visit to New Delhi last January.

Pakistan's draft of the proposed agreement was handed over to K. Natwar Singh, secretary in the Ministry of External Affairs of the Government of India, when he visited Pakistan on the first of this month. The spokesman said that the Government of Pakistan has been informed that the draft is receiving careful and serious consideration of the Government of India.

He said the Government of Pakistan looks forward to the visit of M. K. Rasgotra, the foreign secretary of India. He further recalled that during Agha Shahi's visit to New Delhi, Prime Minister Mrs Indira Gandhi proposed the establishment of a joint commission to review and promote bilateral relations. Pakistan welcomed the proposal. So far, no discussion has taken place on the substantive aspects of this matter.

On the 26th of this month, the charge d'affaires of the Pakistan Embassy in New Delhi was given a draft agreement on a joint commission for economic, trade, scientific, technical and cultural cooperation. The text is expected to reach Islamabad shortly. It will receive earnest consideration of the Government of Pakistan.

HAQ INTERVIEWED ON FOREIGN, DOMESTIC ISSUES

GF281735 Jidda AL-MADINAH in Arabic 26 Jun 82 p 15

[Interview granted by President Mohammad Ziaul Haq to AL-MADINAH correspondent 'Abd ar-Rashid Andijani -- date and place not given]

[Excerpts] [Question] Mr President, there has been much talk about Indo-Pakistani relations. Recently there have been some developments, what is your assessment of these relations?

[Answer] We in Pakistan believe that Indo-Pakistani relations are good and must remain so. We have exerted continuous efforts to improve these relations because we are aware of the importance of good relations with neighboring countries in order to help the peoples construct their countries and achieve prosperity and progress.

[Question] Do you not believe that the Indian Ocean must be kept out of international rivalries?

[Answer] As I said before, we are trying to have good relations not only with India but also with all our neighbors; the Indian Ocean must be kept out of international compromises, one-upmanship and conflicts. The only way for the region's countries to do so is to cooperate and unite against any attempt of foreign intervention or presence.

[Question] You almost signed a no-war pact with India. However, the agreement was not signed because of continued differences between the two countries. New efforts have been made to sign this pact. Will these efforts be fruitful?

[Answer] As you know, we tried to sign a no-war pact with India. However, this agreement was obstructed or postponed due to minor differences of opinion. We are now renewing efforts to sign the no-war pact because we are aware of the fact that this agreement is important in expanding our relations with India and other neighboring countries.

[Question] Some people believe that U.S. relations with India and Pakistan are tense, and this is shown in the continued postponement of your visit and Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's visit to the United States. How do you evaluate these relations?

[Answer] I want to say that we hope that our relations with the United States are improving. In my view, they are improving. I have received an invitation from President Ronald Reagan to visit the United States. I will visit the United States in December, God willing.

[Question] The Iraqi-Iranian war is still going on despite the great efforts that have been exerted by the Islamic Good Offices Committee and other commitees. What is your view on the dimensions of this war? Can we say that the committee's efforts have failed?

[Answer] We cannot say that the efforts by the Islamic Good Offices Committee -- which was formed by the Islamic summit conference to end the Iraqi-Iranian war -- have failed. We still hope that the Baghdad and Tehran leaders will understand the need to preserve Muslim blood and to quickly end this war. We had hoped the war would end before Ramadan. We believe that when Iraq and Iran agree to end the war and give guarantees to preserve peace between them it will be necessary to call for convening an Islamic summit conference.

[Question] Western information media frequently raise a storm about Pakistan's nuclear program in an attempt to foil it. Have you gone beyond the dangerous stage in this program and its objectives?

[Answer] We are going ahead with our nuclear program and are always trying to improve it because we are aware of the necessity for this technology in our country. That is why we are trying to use it for peaceful purposes.

[Question] Many people wonder when democratic life will return to Pakistan as disturbances take place in your country from time to time. What is your comment?

[Answer] We in Pakistan are trying to comprehensively apply Islamic law after a long period during which our country witnessed some violations. In fact, we have made a great step in this regard. As for the talk about internal disturbances, what takes place is on a much smaller scale than what is reported by the media.

In fact, what takes place are attempts by some parties to spread disorder and disturbances. We are following these groups to protect the Pakistani people and Pakistan's supreme interests against their harmful effects. I want to say that these groups do not pose any threat nor do they obstruct us in implementing our policy aimed at serving the nation's interest.

HAQ ADDRESSES GRADUATING NAVAL OFFICERS

GF251250 Karachi DAWN in English 23 Jun 82 p 8

[Text] President Gen. Mohammad Ziaul Haq has said that modern naval warfare has become a very intensive equipment-oriented phenomenon.

In a message to the newly commissioned naval officers on the occasion of the 37th commissioning parade at Pakistan Naval Academy PNS Rahbar, the president said the pace of advancement in technology is particularly relevant to the modern naval forces, as has recently been demonstrated in the South Atlantic.

"The deadlines and speed with which retribution can now come at sea make it imperative for the future naval officers to be also highly accomplished technicians", he said.

The president said: "I am pleased to know that the Pakistan Navy has lately made a major effort to improve the technical content of the training of its officers and men. But this blend of the art of naval warfare with the science of modern weaponry shall not come to you easily and will demand constant and consistent effort on your part".

He told the commissioning cadets of their responsibility of country's shares to safeguarding its Islamic ideology. "The strength of your faith will fortify you in your resolve to excel yourselves in the fulfilment of your responsibilities".

The president expressed satisfaction that Pakistan, despite its limitations, is doing its best to assist the brotherly Muslim countries in training their naval officers at the Pakistan Naval Academy.

WALI KHAN: ELECTIONS ONLY SOLUTION TO PROBLEMS

GF281148 Karachi DAWN in English 27 Jun 82 p 1

[Text] Peshawar, June 26 -- Khan Abdul Wali Khan, leader of defunct NDP, who left here for London last evening, told newsmen at the Peshawar airport before his departure that he saw no other solution to the national problems except general elections under the 1973 Constitution, transfer of power to elected representatives of the people and restoration of all democratic institutions.

Replying to a question, he said that in his opinion referendum on national issues will not work as establishment of Majlis-i-Shoora has proved "a failure."

He said: "If we claim that the holy Koran is our only guide, we should follow it in letter and spirit. It does not have the institution of a regular military and every individual of the Muslim society was a mujahid and a soldier."

Regarding MRD's ineffectiveness, Mr Wali Khan said when the leaders of its component parties were not allowed to enter other provinces how could it play any positive role.

He, however, admitted that it was only a movement and some parties had agreed upon certain points which could lead to restoration of democracy and it was not a permanent political collaboration.

Replying to a question, he said if zakat and usher were the pillars of Islam, what is the necessity of imposing other taxes in the country as in an Islamic state there exists no such taxes.

He stressed that there was no class system in Islam and Koran teaches complete equality and parity among the various sections of the Muslim ummah. -- PPI

RAFSANJANI ON 28 JUNE BOMBING ANNIVERSARY

LD282036 Tehran IRNA in English 1948 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] Tehran, June 28 (IRNA) -- Majlis Speaker Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani told a one-million-strong rally in front of the Islamic Consultative Assembly (Majlis) here today that the martyrdom of the group of 73 on June 28 last year had helped to further the Islamic revolution as much as would have any scheme for doing away with the enemies of the Islamic revolution. He said that the bomb blast at the headquarters of the Islamic Republic Party (IRP) on this day last year, had been a plot designed and engineered jointly by the "hypocrites" (members of the outlawed Mojahedin-e Khalq organisation). He reminded the audience that the promoters of the plot were now "living in abject misery in Paris or elsewhere in the United States with a dark future." The hojjat ol-Eslam said the performance of the government and the people during the one year since the catastrophe had been brilliant.

Said he: "Those who were able to pull to the streets certain groups of our people last year (in defiance of the Islamic government) are now most hated and despised by the people."

He said members of the opposition were now repenting in their prison cells and imploring the nation's forgiveness. He noted also that while the Baghdad regime is now writhing in the agony of defeat, the Iraqi prisoners of war are repenting in the POW camps in Iran and openly and unequivocally voicing their support for the Islamic Republic. The hojjat ol-Eslam also announced, for the first time in public since the mishap, a list of the names of all people who had been martyred in the headquarters of the IRP last year, and assured the crowd as well as the nation at large, that neither the martyrdom of the group, nor any other plot was capable of blunting the people's enthusiasm for the Islamic revolution.

Minutes before Rafsanjani's speech, an 8-point resolution was read paying tribute to the group of 73. The resolution paid homage to the group, and sanctified June 28 as a day recorded by a sanguine pen in the chronicle of the Islamic revolution and certainly to be remembered in the future as a unforgettable turning point, and a day...upon which the followers of Imam Hoseyn's path responded to his call and reposed forever in their own blood.

The resolution also demanded a decisive continuation of the war against the invading enemy troops, and noted that the Baghdad regime had been withdrawing in a tactical move for saving its (?face) on the international scene and mustering fresh energy in order to renew its territorial attacks against the Islamic Republic. The people demanded in the resolution for the government to disregard the seemingly conciliatory, but really underhanded moves of the Baghdad regime, and continue the holy war against the invading Iraqi soldiers until Saddam Husayn is toppled and the Ba'thist regime in Iraq is done away with. Similar rallies were held in other cities of the country in homage to the group today.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 958

LD281756 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Communique No 958 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The honorable heroes and the victorious combatants of Islam are continuing their battle against the destructive Saddamist mercenaries on the hot and burning battlefronts of Khuzestan and on the other fronts in the south and west of our Islamic homeland, Iran, and are enjoying complete superiority. They are defending their positions on all the fronts and are busy annihilating the wretched Iraqi Ba'thists. The situation on some of the fronts of the imposed war is brought to the attention of the beloved compatriots:

Exchanges of artillery and heavy-weapon fire continued between the strong forces of Islam and the crumbling Saddamist forces on most of the western fronts of the country yesterday. The Iraqi forces on the Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Sumar fronts witnessed the destruction of several trenches and foxholes, four guns, four light and heavy vehicles, one trailer and two other vehicles. On these fronts, the self-sacrificing combatants of the ground forces managed to inflict considerable damage on six Saddamist vehicles and one command car, killing or wounding a number of the Ba'thist Iraqi forces.

The artillery fire of the combatants of the ground forces on the enemy positions on the Nowsud front set on fire and destroyed one Iraqi supply truck and either killed or wounded its occupants.

The heroes of the gendarmerie and the irregular tribal warfare units bravely returned and silenced the enemy's fire and stopped all the movements of the Iraqi Ba'thist forces, denying them the opportunity of gaining any positions.

Sporadic exchanges of fire continued on some of the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts during the past 24 hours. They were more intense around the positions of the gendarmerie heroes. On all the positions of our combatants that came under enemy fire, the strong forces of Islam silenced the enemy's fire and inflicted losses and casualties on the forces of blasphemy.

Yesterday, as a result of the enemy's long-range artillery fire, 2 beloved Abadani and Khoramshahri compatriots were martyred and 16 others wounded.

Yesterday three intruding aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi Army intended to violate the airspace of Ilam but they were forced to flee by the fire of the air defense units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

CLANDESTINE ON 'IMAGINARY COUP D'ETAT'

GF281704 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] We start this newscast with a report from Tehran. The Khomeyni regime has again discovered an imaginary coup d'etat. According to world news agencies, recent claims by the government mass media in Tehran concerning the discovery of a coup are related to the arrest of 150 persons among which are armed forces personnel.

DEUTCHE WELLE, the voice of the FRG, referring to the reports by the mass media in Tehran, has claimed that the coupists intended to bring a military regime into power. It seems that the antinationalist regime of Khomeyni, using this empty claim, again intends to murder the armed forces personnel and massacre various groups of the people of our homeland. The discovery of imaginary coups by the regime of mullahs is an excuse for the arrest of the patriotic officers of the Iranian Army and the creation of terror among the patriotic armed forces, and the story of the discovery of the latest coup -- like all the former lies of the regime — is a plot.

150 Arrested

GF281455 (Clandestine) Radio Iran in Persian to Iran 1330 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] The maximum sentence has been asked for the 150 (Nima) organization members arrested 2 days ago. According to the claims of the Islamic Republic, the clandestine (Nima) organization had widespread plans for a coup d'etat against the present Tehran regime and for the establishment of a military government.

The Islamic Republic did not mention the discovery of a coup in the beginning, mentioning it in yesterday's ETTELA'AT only after it was reported by the southern countries of the Persian Gulf.

As we said, the maximum sentence has been asked for the arrested individuals. However, many of the 150 arrested are probably not members of the (Nima) organization.

We remind you that after the unsuccessful uprising of 9 June 1980 by the Neqab ["Mask," a clandestine resistance organization formed by supporters of former Prime Minister Bakhtiar] organization, many army personnel and civilians who had no ties with the Neqab organization were put in front of firing squads for 'participating' in the uprising.

GUARDS REPORT OPERATION AGAINST KARAJ 'HYPROCRITES'

LD281216 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Statement issued by the Central Islamic Revolution Committee — date not given]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Some of the successful operations of the guards of the Islamic Revolution Committees of Tehran and the township of (Raja'i Shahr) are brought to the attention of the members of the Hezbollahi nation.

The selfless guardsmen of the Islamic Revolution Committee of (Raja'i Shahr), helped by the guardsmen of the Islamic Revolution Committees of Tehran, after pursuing, checking and discovering safehouses in a long series of operations named after Martyr Raja'i, succeeded in destroying approximately 80 percent of the hellish hyprocrites organization in Karaj. In these operations, approximately 50 important cadres of the hypocrites, including members in charge of military teams, supplies, finance, security and news who have been on the wanted list for the last year or so were arrested, and 1 was killed.

Also in these successful operations four safehouses were discovered and destroyed in connection with these mercenaries in Karaj and Tehran. From these houses a considerable number of important interorganizational documents, including various plots to deal blows to the Islamic revolution, were seized. Also, following the discovery of a house belonging to the hyprocrites by the selfless guards of the Islamic Revolution Committee of Tehran, three criminal hypocrites were killed and several firearms such as G-3's and grenades and several interorganizational documents were seized by the guardsmen.

CLANDESTINE: GUARDS KILLED IN KARAJ, TEHRAN

GF281658 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] (?Twenty-nine) guards have been killed in the clashes which have occurred in Tehran during the past 3 days. This dispatch was sent to us a few moments ago by our correspondent, who sent it to the clandestine transmitter center of the Free Voice of Iran.

The annihilated guards were destroyed by the forces opposing the regime in clashes in Karaj, around Mehrabad Airport in Tehran and in Qazvin. According to this report, the agents of the Khomeyni regime attempted to stop people from going to the areas of the clashes, to remove the bodies of the guards at night from these places to take them to the cemetery.

Meanwhile, the antinationalist regime of the mullahs claimed today that a group of the active members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq organization were killed in Karaj's Golshahr villa in clashes with guards.

The names published consist mostly of names of those who were previously shot in Evin. According to our correspondent, in a clash near Zanjan, a Hezbollahi leader and three guards were killed.

The claims of the antinationalist regime on the (?discovery) of safehouses is for the sake of explaining the destruction of people's houses by heavy machineguns and RPG-7's and the murder of the opposition.

Our correspondent's report indicates that at the same time as the [word indistinct] mourning on the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Beheshti, the level of the activities of the opposition has increased.

CLERGYMAN ASSASSINATED IN KORDESTAN PROVINCE

GF271745 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 27 Jun 82

[Text] Another mullah has again been hit by the invisible arrow and killed. According to reports reaching us from the west of the country, Mullah Hojjat ol-Eslam Habib (M'adi) was killed in Kordestan at the hands of the Iranian fighters who carried out his revolutionary execution.

The occupied Tehran radio, the dishonored voice of the regime, however, did not give any details about this revolutionary execution.

Irrespective of the repeated warnings to the mullahs by the forces opposing Khomeyni's regime, a group of mullahs still imagine that they can continue their treachery without being harmed. The regime's opposition, meanwhile, carry out their threats and give the mercenary mullahs of the regime their just deserts.

I add that the Khomeyni regime claims that Mullah (M'adi) is a Sunni mullah. For the liberation fighters, Shi'ism or Sunnism is a matter raised by Khomeyni; what concerns them is following the theocratic line. The armed fighters have stated that they do not care about Shi'ism or Sunnism. Any mullah who participates in the criminal and treacherous acts of the Khomeyni regime and follows the antinationalist and anti-Islamic Khomeyni policy is sentenced to death in their view and revolutionary execution will be carried out against him.

Lebanon

Knesset Debate on Lebanon -- Israel is willing to allow the "terrorists" to keep their personal weapons but under no condition will they be allowed to remain in Beirut, Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin declared in a live speech to the Knesset carried by Jerusalem radio. Begin said the "terrorists" have the choice of leaving the capital by the Beirut-Damascus highway, or through Tripoli in Lebanon to Syria, or by sea. Israel does not want to humiliate the "terrorists," he said, and that is why they are not being asked to surrender. The prime minister added that they are not entitled to pose conditions to Israel and he described as "worthless" a proposal in which the leaders and commanders would leave and the soldiers would stay.

Defending his earlier statement that Israel would not enter Beirut, "which from a political point of view it was appropriate to state," Begin went on to tell the Knesset that he will not rule out an attack on the capital although he noted that the government has not made a decision to enter the city. He continued by noting that he would not commit himself to anything and said an announcement that Israel would not enter the city would give the "terrorists" no incentive to leave. Asserting that before Israel can resume its alliance with Lebanon it must first get rid of the "terrorist plague," Begin asked the Knesset for patience and said "in another day or two we will get them out." The prime minister appealed to civilians in Beirut to leave the city and advised "all the other parties" that they have no alternative other than the dignified way out they are being given. Begin said he thought Israel could make the PLO leave without resorting to force.

Commenting on the future of Lebanon, Begin predicted that the Lebanese will reach an agreement among themselves and will establish a government and an army. He added that the United States, and Israel, if necessary, will help equip their army with modern weapons. He stated that following all of this, Israel will sign a peace treaty with Lebanon.

Earlier, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon opened the Knesset debate on Lebanon with a speech in which he catalogued the history of Israel's conflict with the PLO and provided details of Cabinet decisions pertaining to the "Peace for Galilee" Operation. In his remarks, which were broadcast live by Jerusalem radio, Sharon said the operation has achieved five objectives: the capture of a security belt of 40 to 45 km; the encirclement of the PLO's headquarters and members; the elimination of the Syrian SAM's; the creation of an opening for a political settlement; and the creation of an opening for peace with another Arab state. Israel is determined that the PLO should no longer exist, Sharon added, but is not fighting the Palestinian people, with whom it wants to coexist. The defense minister expressed hope that Israel will soon be able to realize a "triangle of peace" formed by Israel, Egypt and Lebanon.

Labor Party Chairman Shim'on Peres stressed in his speech to the Knesset that while the PLO has been beaten, the Palestinian problem remains unsolved. Israel must recognize that the problem exists and must be solved in a political way. "We must sit down with the Palestinians, whatever their views, on condition that they recognize Israel, reject terror and seek peace," Peres stated in his remarks, which were also broadcast by the radio.

Other Israeli Comment, Reportage -- Israel takes a very "grave view" of PLO procrastination and rejects demands that the PLO retain units within the Lebanese Army and a political nucleus in Beirut, according to Jerusalem radio. Noting that Israel is "unprepared" to receive the PLO's demand that the IDF withdraw from the suburbs of Beirut. The radio stressed that such a demand has not come from the Lebanese Government. The Israeli Cabinet met briefly late on 29 June to discuss "a certain development" in Beirut, the radio subsequently reported, and high-level sources emphasized that if the "terrorists" do not leave Lebanon within the shortest period of time, the Cabinet will meet again to decide on a new resolution.

Arab Contacts, PLO Position — After reporting that a draft solution to the Beirut problem was imminent, Beirut radio subsequently said nothing concrete and final has yet been achieved, since Israel's refusal to withdraw from around Beirut has made it impossible to implement many proposals concerning details. Citing informed sources, the radio said the PLO demands specific guarantees from the United States to ensure that the IDF will not enter the capital after the departure of the Palestinian Resistance. Political contacts continued throughout the day, the radio said, with Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan twice meeting U.S. envoy Philib Habib and also holding contacts with Phalangist and PLO officials. Noting that Al-Wazzan contacted Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal, Voice of Lebanon radio said the Saudis were making strenuous efforts to find an appropriate means for the departure of the Palestinians from Beirut. The radio reaffirmed that the Saudi initiative centers on airlifting the Palestinian leaders and fighters on Saudi planes to a place of their choice outside Lebanon.

Meanwhile, a FALASTIN ATH-THAWRAH editorial broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said the PLO is seeking a minimum in safeguards to protect Beirut and the Palestinian Revolution and masses. However, the PLO's minimum conditions must be agreed on with the Lebanese authorities and not with the Israelis, the paper added.

Other Diplomatic Efforts — While Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali returned to Cairo from Washington, where his diplomatic efforts had a "great effect" in bringing about the cease-fire in Lebanon, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Butrus Ghali reached an agreed formula on Lebanon in talks with French External Relations Minister Claude Cheysson in Paris according to reports by MENA. Meanwhile, AFP noted that the Arab League foreign ministers would meet again to discuss Lebanon on 30 June and that the EEC leaders issued a summit declaration restating the Palestinian right to self-determination and calling for the complete and rapid withdrawal of all foreign forces from Lebanon, except those authorized by the Lebanese Government.

Cease-Fire, Military Situation — Although Voice of Lebanon radio reported that Israeli and Syrian forces exchanged fire in the mountainous central sector during the day and night of 29 June, Jerusalem radio said that Syrian and "terrorist" units were fighting Phalangists in the Druze villages north of Bhamdun and that the IDF had maintained the cease-fire. In west Beirut a new organization called "The Red Hand" has threatened to strike U.S. interests to avenge the crushing of the PLO, the Voice of Lebanon said.

Jordanian Comment — "What has happened in Lebanon is not due to Soviet failure, but to our own failure," the Amman paper AR-RA'Y commented on 28 June. Amman radio subsequently noted that the events in Lebanon had occupied an important part of King Husayn's talks with Soviet leaders in Moscow and that viewpoints were "identical" on the issue.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

An Iranian Foreign Ministry "reply" to the Iraqi withdrawal from Iran declared that the withdrawal demonstrates nothing but the weakness of the Iraqi president, Tehran radio reported. The ministry said that by continuing to bomb and attack residential areas in southern and western Iran, even after its "so-called cease-fire", the Iraqi regime shows it does not even respect its own unilateral peace. The statement asserted that in view of this, Iran will continue the war until the sources of Iraqi fire are silenced and an honorable peace is secured.

In an interview carried by Tehran radio, Supreme Defense Council representative 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani declared that the Iraqi "retreat" was not motivated by a desire for peace. He asserted that the Iraqis have not yet completely withdrawn since they still control "many of the heights and even a small portion of the south in Shalamcheh."

DEFENSE MINISTER ON WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT

[Text] Some more ordnance factories are being set up as part of government's plan to achieve self-sufficiency in defense equipment. Defense Minister Venkataraman today gave details of what has already been achieved in this direction. He was addressing the consultative committee of MP's of his ministry in New Delhi.

The minister said that a new weapon system is being developed to replace the antitank system which is of the second world war vintage. A new version of the powerful 105-mm fieldgun is in an advanced stage of development. A great deal of progress has been made in developing the new main battle tank which will have better mobility, firepower and capacity to survive. He said a lot of work has also been done on missiles, including their guidance system.

A factory is being set up at Hyderabad for producing special alloys used for making aircraft.

The committee members expressed concern about thefts and pilferages of defense stores while in transit. The defense minister said a working group is looking into the problem.

BK251410 Delhi General Overseas Service in English 1330 GMT 25 Jun 82

[Text] Both India and Bangladesh have expressed great optimism about the talks on sharing of the Ganges Waters at Farakka and augmenting its flows beginning in New Delhi tomorrow.

Leader of the Bangladesh delegation A.Z.M. Obaidullah Khan and leader of the Indian delegation Kedar Pandey told newsmen today that the second mandatory review of the agreement may lead to a fair and equitable solution given the atmosphere of trust and friendliness between the two countries. Khan said the recent visit of External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao to Dacca has helped to create a positive atmosphere.

Earlier, the Bangladesh delegation was received at the airport by Irrigation Minister Kedar Pandey, Minister of State for Irrigation Z.R. Ansari and other high officials of both countries.

[Text] In New Delhi, India and Bangladesh today exchanged reports reviewing the agreement between the two countries on sharing of the Ganges waters at Farakka and on augmenting its flows. The exchange took place at a meeting between Bangladesh Agriculture Minister Obaidullah Khan and Kedar Pandey, the minister of irrigation. The review examined the working of the agreement and its impact as also the progress of arrangements envisaged in it.

A joint statement was signed by both the ministers at the end of the talks today. Both sides noted that the arrangement for sharing of the Ganges waters at Farakka had been fully carried out as provided in the agreement.

They, however, differed on the impact of the sharing on the two countries. On the question of augmenting the flows of the Ganges during the dry season, the two sides said that this is a matter to be decided by India and Bangladesh at a high political level. They noted that this process has already started.

[Text] India and Bangladesh today expressed their determination to arrive at an agreement quickly on sharing the waters of the Ganges at Farakka and the augmentation of its flows. They have sought the necessary political directions from the two governments in this regard. This was stated in a joint press statement in New Delhi after 6 days of discussions between the delegations of the two countries. They are to meet again in Dacca in August.

Bangladesh Minister for Agriculture A.Z.M. Obaidullah Khan and his delegation have gone back to Dacca. They were seen off at Delhi airport by Minister of Irrigation Kedar Pandey, who led the Indian side.

The leaders of both delegations expressed the hope that concerted and sincere efforts of the two sides would lead to a solution of the problem. Pandey said both sides appreciated each other's difficulties. Obaidullah Khan said there is a new dimension of political will to solve the problem. They now show a much better possibility of coming to a mutually acceptable arrangement.

Obaidullah Khan earlier met Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi. They had a general review of the results of the New Delhi discussions. Khan conveyed to Mrs Gandhi the good wishes and greetings from Lt Gen Ershad, the chief martial law administrator of Bangladesh. Mrs Gandhi reciprocated her sentiments and said India consistently supports its neighbors and extends all possible assistance to them.

ONE KILLED BY POLICE IN ORISSA VILLAGE

BK281700 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 28 Jun 82

[Text] One person was killed and three others were injured when the police opened fire at Aradi, a cyclone-affected village in the Balasore District of Orissa yesterday.

According to an official report, the police resorted to firing when a large group of supporters of Communist Party of India-Marxist dragged out and attacked the additional tahsildar [chief of a village] who was distributing house-building grants to the cyclone-affected people.

Home Secretary R.N. Das told the All-India Radio Bhubaneshwar correspondent that the situation is now well under control. Chief Minister J.B. Patnaik has asked the district magistrate of Balasore to conduct an inquiry into the incident.

BRIEFS

OIL, GAS IN GODAVARI -- New Delhi, June 28 (AFP) -- Commercial production of oil and gas in the Godavari estuary in southeastern India may be possible within the "next few months", Indian Petroleum Minister P. Shiv Shankar said today. Shiv Shankar told reporters in Vijayawada, southern Andhra state, that engineers and geologists working the Godavari basin had assured him that there are "tremendous" prospects of getting large quantities of oil and gas in the area, Press Trust of India news agency reported. Mr Shiv Shankar said the state-run Oil and Natural Gas Commission (ONGC) perspective plan for the decade might have to be recast to undergo some changes to accelerate drilling and processing operations in the southern oil zone, which extends from the Palk Straits to Godavari basin. The minister said he had instructed the ONGC to get two more rigs to the offshore drilling sites in the Godavari basin. The first of them would arrive in a few weeks' time. An Indian team is currently in Washington negotiating a "big" World Bank loan for prospecting the Krishna-Godavari region. The ONGC has set an oil production target of 17.91 million tons this year -- 5.80 from onshore and 12.11 million tons offshore -- as against 13.20 million tons last year. FURTHER ON 22 JUNE ARREST OF POLITICAL WORKERS

GF251309 Karachi DAWN in English 23 Jun 82 pp 1, 10

[Excerpts] About 40 political leaders and workers, students and members of different women organisations were rounded up by the police in Saddar area on Tuesday afternoon for trying to stage a demonstration in support of the Palestinians.

They were arrested in small batches and taken to nearby police stations in pick-ups.

Hundreds of political activists belonging to the Movement for Restoration of Democracy (MRD) and defunct Pakistan National Party (PNP) were present to participate in the planned demonstrations. But a strong police posse, armed with teargas shells, guns and sticks, frustrated their attempts to take out a procession from Saddar to the American Consulate to register their protest against the Israeli aggression against Lebanon and the U.S. policies in the Middle East.

The Palestinians who also participated in the demonstration made an attempt to take out a procession. But the armed police chased them out and dispersed them. While dispersing, they raised slogans against the Israeli aggression in Lebanon and American support to the Zionist invasion.

About four handbills, including one by the Palestinians, were distributed among the people who were there to watch or participate in the planned demonstration.

The shopkeepers in the Saddar area pulled down their shutters as the police tried to disperse the crowd.

DAWN: ISRAEL 'PRACTICING GENOCIDE' IN LEBANON

GF251221 Karachi DAWN in English 25 Jun 82 p 9

[Editorial: "Hitler's Legatees"]

[Text] It would appear that what the Jews suffered at the hands of Adolf Hitler is now being taken out on the Arabs. The past thirty years are replete with Zionist atrocities towards the Arabs, not only in Palestine where Muslim and Jew lived in peace for centuries, but also towards Arabs of other countries. Drawing a parallel with Hitler's actions may seem exaggerated but the Israelis are practising the same genocide in Lebanon with guns which Hitler did with gas chambers in Germany or occupied territories. There is also the analogy between Hiter's technique of mounting a lightning military attack upon his victims after a propaganda campaign accusing the latter of hostile deeds and Israel's similar conduct towards the Arabs. Israel may deny that its forces are killing Palestinians and civilians alike in a wanton manner, and Western media and governments may look the other way or support its assertion, but it is gradually becoming clear despite this cover-up that the Israeli aim is to wipe out the Palestinians as a fighting unit, and it does not care how many innocent lives are taken in the process. Independent sources are now confirming that this is a fact, among which are eyewitness accounts by two Norwegian doctors of the brutal treatment of Palestinians by Israeli soldiers.

The continued bombing of civilian areas alone has resulted in enormous loss of life. At one time it had seemed that Israel would restrict itself to whatever territory it had gained in Lebanon, and withdraw after a settlement favourable to it had been achieved. But repeated violations of cease-fires by Israel, and continued occupation of territory has made the war a wait-and-see game to find out what the future brings, and how far Israel is going to go.

Amidst all the condemnation of Israel's aggression, no country seems to be willing to examine its own motives and behavior during the short war which has already wreaked such havoc, and showed up the Islamic countries in such a pathetic light.

In its drive to Beirut Israel went far beyond the pretence of retaliation to PLO shelling, or what may be considered reasonable support to Mr Begin's slogan of 'Peace for Galilee'. The drive was quite obviously aimed at annihilating the present structure of Lebanon and imposing one favourable to Israel, removing for quite some time to come the PLO threat, and forcing Syria to withdraw. And while the Israelis advanced ruthlessly towards Beirut, mindlessly killing Palestinians and civilians in the process, the world stood by and watched helplessly. The question is: Was the world really so helpless or, more specifically, was the Muslim world incapable of taking action which would have prevented or minimised the tragedy?

The West can be condemned for its inaction or complicity, but the reality is that the concepts of morality or justice have no part to play when it comes to international jockeying for power. Ultimately Israel's decision was based on a reading of America's mind and the mood of the Islamic nations, and it is quite obvious that its assessment was chillingly accurate. If there had been real danger of resolute military support from Islamic nations, the decision to invade Lebanon would not have been so easy to take. Warnings had been given several times that Israel was planning to attack Lebanon; in fact, so certain was this that it was really only a matter of judging the time it would choose. Yet there was little response from the Islamic countries. Two front-line states, Egypt and Jordan, had already been neutralised. Sabrerattling by one particular Arab state came too late in the day, and even then it was just that. The warnings by some other states were similarly late. Syria, the only Arab state having a military presence in Lebanon, assessed that at the moment it did not have the necessary support to take on the burden of war.

Ahmed Ben Bella summarised the whole affair when he said that the indifference of Arab governments and their failure to react to Israeli aggression was another proof of their powerlessness to confront the international Zionist plot for total domination of the entire region.

Strong words, but borne out by the events of the past weeks. Egypt was condemned for its talks and 'peace' with Israel. How that affair is judged is up to individual nations' perception. But in the light of the tragic bloodshed of the last few weeks, it does appear that there is a flaw in the reasoning of the so-called hard-line nations. If they are not prepared to make peace, they should be prepared to make war; Israel has shown repeatedly that as far as it is concerned, there can be no question of any Arab country taking a non-commital stand. But events in Lebanon have shown conclusively that this is precisely what the Arab and Islamic countries are trying to do, that is, unless commitment means only verbal support.

In the face of the horrendous bloodshed in Lebanon, which largely went unreported by the Western media, and keeping in mind the atrocities of Sidon, one can legitimately ask the Arab and Islamic countries whether they think the limit of Israel's ambitions has been reached and whether they are willing to accept an Israeli peace being imposed upon a large part of the Islamic region.

FOREIGN MINISTRY REPLY TO IRAQI WITHDRAWAL CLAIM

LD291852 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, the Foreign Ministry of the Islamic Republic of Iran has issued the following reply concerning the claims of the Ba'thist regime of Iraq addressed to international associations and organizations:

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. The Ba'thist regime of Iraq, with the criminal Saddam at its head, recently hatched a new plot in order to save its shaky government and is appealing to international organizations for the purpose of securing an artificial peace. The people of the world remember well that Saddam Husayn never approached any international organization 22 months ago when he launched a cowardly attack against the newly established Islamic Republic of Iran and invaded our homeland in a surprise offensive from land, air and sea in order to topple this republic because he felt that having the power to occupy vast areas of the territory of our Islamic homeland he had no need to approach the international organizations.

The question we should ask now is this: What has happened that the aggressive Saddam Husayn, who did not have any respect for international organizations and their regulations when he was pounding (?the people) and residential districts of Dezful, Abadan and Susangerd with 9-meter missiles and was proud to hear his foreign minister happily announcing that forces of that country were able to massacre thousands of the Iranian people, is now appealing to international organizations to secure a so-called peace? No doubt the reply to this question is summarized in the glorious victories of the combatants of the Islamic Republic of Iran and in the disgraceful defeats of the Ba'thist regime of Iraq, which resulted in the liberation of many of the occupied territories and the capture of 42,000 mercenary Iraqi forces. The importance of these victories can be appreciated when we remember that the combatants of Islam, after months of bravely resisting the overall Iraqi attack, were able to change the tide of the war in their own favor gradually and afterward to deliver the final blows against the enemy one after another.

These defeats were inflicted on the Iraqi regime when the Iraqi soldiers and officers recognized Saddam's deceptions and surrendered in droves to the combatant forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran. But the world public opinion is aware that this is not the first time that Saddam has resorted to such conspiracies. Saddam's face is better known to the people of the world and no one can be deceived by his (?gestures) such as contacting international organizations and unilateral withdrawal.

No doubt the announcement of withdrawal of the Iraqi forces from the occupied territories of Iran within 10 days, as announced by Saddam, demonstrates nothing else but the weakness and disgrace of this criminal. He, who at one time with a detestable arrogance was calling himself a hero and the conquerer of Qadisiyah [scene of an Iranian defeat in 642 A.D.], is now calling it a withdrawal for peace after he has been inflicted with such a disgraceful defeat and has been forced to abandon his positions and, while keeping the strategic regions, he is planting mines in areas which he has to leave.

But the interesting point is this: The Iraqi regime does not even respect its unilateral peace. By continuing to bomb residential areas in southern and western Iran and by continuing to wound and martyr dozens of our compatriots, he removes the peace-loving mask from his face.

On the other hand, millions of the people who have been made homeless and who lost their belongings as a result of Iraq's barbaric attacks, are still unable to return to their cities because the Iraqi forces continue to bomb these regions.

These crimes committed by the Iraqi regime against Iranian cities and residential areas, even after its so-called cease-fire, resemble very much the crimes committed by the usurping regime of Al-Quds in (Kuneitra) and recently in Lebanon. These crimes expose the similar nature of these two criminal regimes better than anything else ever before.

The existing aerial photographs show very well that the Iraqi forces, when forced to leave the cities under the blows of combatants of the Islamic Republic of Iran, leave nothing behind but piles of destruction and misery. Naturally, under such circumstances, the Islamic Republic of Iran cannot remain indifferent while witnessing the daily martyrdom or wounding of its citizens at the hands of the Iraqi mercenary forces. Therefore, it will continue its honorable war against Saddam's regime, which is on the verge of collapse, until the sources of Iraqi fire are silenced and an honorable peace is secured. The most important principles of this peace are: the unconditional withdrawal of all the forces of the Ba'thist regime from the Islamic homeland, payment of reparation by the aggressor and his trial and punishment.

RAFSANJANI COMMENTS ON IRAQI WITHDRAWAL

GF291555 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Interview with 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani, Ayatollah Khomeyni's representative on the Supreme Defense Council, following the 29 June session of the council -- recorded]

[Excerpts] [Question] (?Mr Hashemi), as you know, the Saddam mercenaries have evacuated some of the western cities. However, the evacuation has left the cities in a state of destruction, for example, in Qasr-e Shirin. Please tell us your opinion on the subject and give us any new information you can in this connection.

[Answer] In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. One of the reasons for this session of the Supreme Defense Council was to review this new development and to obtain exact information from those in charge of the war. The commander of the ground forces, therefore, participated in the session. We obtained the details of the events.

In general, it seems that Iraq is retreating in the face of our forces. That is to say, it is not their desire for peace or ending the war which has caused this new move. Iraq has felt that our forces have plans concerning the parts of the Iranian soil occupied by Iraq and since experience has shown them that our moves result in the capture or the destruction of great parts of their forces -- especially in the attacks it suffered in the west at the hands of our forces -- it has resorted to escape to save itself. The areas where Iraq would have been vulnerable have been evacuated.

Of course, the evacuation was not under normal conditions since they have left much of their equipment behind. Our forces which chased them are currently busy collecting the ammunition and equipment they left behind.

In order to emphasize that Iraq has only resorted to a tactical retreat and escape, [I should say] they have not left our soil and have only moved to more defensible positions out of areas where they were vulnerable. The western heights of our country, the final border areas, are currently in the hands of the Iraqis. These include the (Zeyn al-Kush) heights, which are very important strategically. There are many other areas as well. This may be a cautious move by them but it is prodded by fear and is being done in order to avoid further losses and capture, something that the Iraqi Army cannot handle now.

[Question] What other actions will the Supreme Defense Council undertake in order to expel the rest of the Saddam mercenaries from the soil of the Islamic homeland and -- considering the recent actions by the Saddamist mercenaries -- and obtain compliance with the other two conditions?

[Answer] We have the same position as before. That is to say, nothing new has come up. This is similar to the Iraqi escapes from Hamid garrison and Susangerd — I am sorry — Hoveyzeh. When they saw that our forces -- probably they obtained some information — intended to attack, they fled. Nothing new has come up. They have only acted in order to move to a stronger position. They have not even complied with our first condition.

The unconditional withdrawal of the Iraqi forces has not yet been met since many of our heights and even a small portion of the south in Shalamcheh are under their control. Even if, as they lied, they are leaving our country and are returning to the pre-war international borders, then only one of the conditions the imam has set has been met. We have the same position as before about obtaining the rest of our demands. We will continue the road we have chosen. Of course, it is our habit that whenever we carry out an operation and teach the enemy a lesson, then we give the enemy a little time to think, ponder, realize and maybe surrender to right. When we see that they do not realize this and have no intention of surrendering to right then we make our next move.

I hereby inform the dear Iranian nation that the youth who have war experience should go to the arena as soon as possible in order to make it possible for us to end the war quickly and obtain our rights and thus bring our forces into the service of reconstruction within the country. They should not think that they have to wait out the month of Ramadan. The best form of worship in Ramadan is crusading for God. They should not even miss a day and, if possible, they should go to the fronts today. This is because the situation in the world is such that the sooner we obtain our rights from the aggressor the better it will be for us and the region.

[Question] What decisions have been taken in order to combat the adverse propaganda by our Zionist and imperialist enemies concerning the evacuation of these western parts?

[Answer] I do not think they can carry out any effective propaganda since, as I said, they [the Iraqis] are still holding onto the sensitive heights and cannot leave them. These heights have a very important military value and I do not think the Iraqis will leave them easily and of their own volition. Therefore, they have no grounds for propaganda. Secondly, following our heroic victory in Khorramshahr, the Iraqi evacuation of another city, township or village has no [propaganda] value. If they had done this before the Khorramshahr and Jerusalem Operations [bayt al-moqaddas] then they would have been successful.

Finally, how would they answer to our logical statements? It has been almost 2 years since they pitted two countries against one another in destructive war. They have involved several other countries as well and destroyed the sources of the wealth of the Islamic countries. By doing this they have left the hand of Israel free to commit aggressions in Lebanon. How are they going to answer this? With what propaganda?

They have to return our rights, pay us for the damages. We do not want anything else. Those who are the instigators of this great crime have to be brought to justice. These are matters which are well understood by those who should. Western propaganda has been so extensive that they have nothing to add at this point. They will not get anywhwere with new scenarios like this.

[Question] As you are aware, Saddam has changed some of his ministers and advisers following the crisis in the Iraqi leadership cadre. What do you think caused these events?

[Answer] I cannot make a decisive judgment yet. I have not read the news in detail and do not know the nature of those who have been removed or the new arrivals. The general atmosphere of the situation, however, shows that this is a move similar to their military move.

As far as I know, the main faces ruling the country have remained. The secondary faces have no importance. Even supposing the main faces had been changed, we would not consider it sufficient. Even if Saddam had been removed, it would not have been sufficient since the Ba'th Party is responsible. Of course, the main responsibility lies with the United States, but the role of the servant was that of the Ba'th Party.

[Question] [Words indistinct] regarding the activities of U.S. [word indistinct] in southern Lebanon, interference by certain other countries, and the question of the disarming of the Palestinians and that of the Lebanese refugees. What is the aim of such actions and what plans do we have regarding our own fighters in Lebanon?

[Answer] Looking back into the past at the proceedings at the United Nations and events in the region and in the world in general, events in this country have (?somewhat cleared) up. First, owing to its aggressive nature, Israel has always looked for opportunities to expand its territory. This has been done. Now the question of returning to the status quo: Unless there is effective and definitive pressure, Israel will not return to its former position.

Second, the Israelis have been thinking for a long time of placing a puppet regime in Lebanon which would cooperate with Israel and its friends.

Third, the Israelis were apprehensive of the Palestinian armed forces (?near) Israeli territory, and Israel, its friends, and those people in the region who did not want to engage in war with Israel wanted to annihilate the Palestinians as a military force. [Words indistinct] if they succeed it would be a great success for Israel but for the Islamic world it would be a matter of grave concern.

Fourth, the presence of Syria in Lebanon was very important and the Israelis also wanted to end Syrian power in Lebanon and were ready to (?pay the price) for it. [Words indistinct] this also enabled them to move nearer to Syria through Lebanon and closer to its strategic points.

In connection with this, the most important problem is the position of Iran. When the Israelis saw that an Iranian victory would change the balance in the region they wanted to create a political situation that would tie the hands of Iran or involve Iran in something that would stay its hand and would (?weaken it) politically. God be praised, they were defeated in this objective.

This was possible thanks to the foresight and clear objectives of the imam. We seized the situation in time. However, the question of Lebanon and Palestine are important problems and form a part of our principles, and one of the objectives of our revolution is that these countries remain free.

In this matter we did not delay and [words indistinct] despite the difficulties involved, a force was immediately sent there. We thought that we were setting an example for the Arabs and the rest of Islamic world by being a country which, in spite of being (?itself engaged) in war goes quickly to a sensitive spot. We expected that our presence would encourage the presence of other Islamic countries and make them act as we did. If they would send forces equal to what we have sent, tens of Islamic countries would be brought into confrontation with America and Israel. This could make an important impression. It could also prevent them from achieving their objective.

We have done our part and have sent as many as we could. It was very difficult for us but we finally solved the problem with some hardship. (?We were ready at that time) and we will be ready in the future as well.

The very first day we arrived in Syria, the rulers of Syria, especially Hafiz al-Asad, said that our main work was on the Iraqi borders. That place was important and until we solve the problem there, the problem in Lebanon cannot be solved. Libya told us the same thing.

COMMENTARY PLEDGES SADDAM 'WILL BE PUNISHED'

[Unattributed commentary from the "Revolution Guards" program]

[Excerpts] Following the American regime of Iraq's savage attack on Iran 21 months ago when the Islamic Republic of Iran asked that the aggressor be tried and the occupiers be punished, Iran showed the world its relentless and uncompromising defense of human rights, the greatness of mankind, the honor of the creatures of God as well as Iran's nature and legitimate rights and proved that Iran is a relentless defender of human rights and an uncompromising enemy of all inhuman aggressors and oppressors, both in the war imposed by Iraq and in the world of mankind.

Now, 21 months after inviting the world to try and punish the aggressor, the Islamic Republic of Iran is determined to undertake this great divine and humane task itself. With the help of its powerful military forces, which enjoy vast popular support, Iran is determined to punish the aggressor for more than 21 months of crime, destruction, mass slaughter and aggression and to show the world that in the face of the silence of those who proclaim to defend human rights, only Iran -- by relying on the divine strength of its revolution -- is capable of punishing the savage and evil mercenaries of America and Israel.

The Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Guards Corps of the Islamic revolution of Iran and the popular and tribal forces have repeatedly shown this great truth -- especially with the liberation of Khorramshahr and the great victories of the Jerusalem Operation -- that, with the strength of their faith and their belief in God, they are capable of defeating and destroying the forces of the At-Tikriti Saddam in spite of all the assistance and facilities he receives from both the East and the West, and this time it will certainly be so.

Our powerful forces are ready to defend the rights of the oppressed people and to restore not only the usurped rights of the innocent people of Iran and Iraq, but the rights of all the people of the world, wherever America and international Zionism trample on human rights. It is certain that America is frightened by this. After the signs of Saddam's certain downfall appeared, America tried very hard to prevent -- by making certain concessions to us -- first the downfall of Saddam and, second, the exposure of the deceptions of human rights throughout the world. However, our stance was decisive both in attaining our rights and in defending the rights of uncompromising people.

Today we are about to retrieve the rights of thousands of our martyrs and the rights of our ruined cities and villages from Saddam. By punishing this mercenary of international Zionism, we are about to show the world of the oppressed that humanity is not dead yet and that the notion of truly defending mankind still exists. Yes, we will punish Saddam.

GF292021 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1730 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Communique No 959 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The Muslim combatants are continuing to consolidate God's government and cleanse the sacred borders of the Islamic homeland of the enemies with full determination and steadfastness. They are determined to rub the face of Saddam's regime in the dirt and achieve the full objectives of the Islamic Republic of Iran with all their strength.

During the past 24 hours the Muslim combatants returned enemy fire on all battlefronts, inflicting heavy blows.

On the western fronts, exchange of fire continued. As a result of artillery fire by the Islamic forces on enemy positions, 8 heavy and light enemy vehicles, 1 Saddamist depot, an enemy vehicle assembly point and 28 military assembly points were destroyed. During these operations, seven vehicles were set on fire, fatal blows were dealt to an enemy column and the movements of enemy forces were paralyzed.

In the Marivan area, as a result of the superiority of our forces' firepower, enemy sources of heavy fire were silenced in the areas of (Waliabeh) and Hargineh, and all movements by the aggressor forces were paralyzed.

As a result of the fire directed by the heroes of Islam in the areas of Abadan and Khorramshahr, four enemy positions on the other side of the Arvand Rud were destroyed and a number of the Saddamist forces were killed. The heroes of Islam also paralyzed, with their heavy fire, the movement of the Saddamist forces on the Al-Faw-Basra road.

Yesterday, as a result of enemy artillery and mortar fire on the Khorramshahr area and several residential areas of Abadan, 3 innocent citizens were martyred and 17 were wounded.

On the other southern fronts, our forces returned the Saddamist forces' sporadic fire.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

LD292148 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, the Soviet charge d'affaires in Tehran met with Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the speaker of the Islamic Consultative Assembly, today. During this meeting they held talks and discussed the aggression by usurping Israel on southern Lebanon.

According to the same report, Mr Sa'd Mujbir, the head of the Libyan Peoples Bureau, also met with the speaker of the Islamic Consultative Assembly in Tehran today.

The Indian ambassador in Iran also met and conferred with Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani. During this meeting, the speaker of the Indian Parliament invited the speaker of the Majlis to visit his country. This invitation was accepted by Hashemi-Rafsanjani.

The same report indicates that the Syrian ambassador in Tehran also met and conferred with the speaker of the Islamic Consultative Assembly, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani today. During this meeting, the Syrian ambassador presented a report on the situation at the Lebanese battlefronts and the dimensions and goals of the Israeli aggression, and said: The president of Syria agrees with the recent remarks made by the imam about the Iran-Iraq war that: First the problem with Iraq should be sorted out and then it will be the turn of the Zionist regime. His excellency welcomed the imam's remarks.

The Syrian ambassador added: If all the Islamic countries had chosen the same decisive stand as the Islamic Republic of Iran and if they all had reached the confrontation point like Iran, then the United States and Israel, who would have found themselves facing the entire Islamic and Arab world, would not have been so bold.

Afterward, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani made some remarks in this connection.

KHOMEYNI GUARDS REPORTEDLY ARRESTED IN JORDAN

GF291855 (Clandestine) Voice of Iran in Persian 0330 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Text] According to our correspondent in the Jordanian capital of Amman, the border police of the country arrested a number of the armed guards of Khomeyni who intended to enter Jordanian territory and sent them off to Damascus a few hours later.

Our correspondent adds: During the questioning of these mercenaries it became clear that they intended to start a series of moves to create unrest following their entry into Jordan in order to encourage the Jordanians to revolt against King Husayn. One of Khomeyni's mercenaries said that the Jordanian king has chosen a wrong policy on the Lebanese crisis and the crushing of the Palestinians and therefore his regime must be toppled.

At the end, our correspondent adds: This group of Khomeyni's guards returned to their headquarters in Damascus on Saturday afternoon.

VOICE OF IRAN REPORTS ON TEHRAN CLASHES

GF300439 (Clandestine) Voice of Iran in Persian 0330 GMT 29 Jun 82

[Text] On Monday, in a clash between the regime's guards and the opposition, two guards were killed and a hardline member of the opposition to the regime of the Islamic Republic of mullahs was severely wounded. According to our correspondent's report on the subject, the professional marchers of the regime came out into the streets of the capital on the orders of the mullahs in order to hold a memorial for the 73 treacherous criminals who were annihilated in the bomb explosion. In Tehran's bazaar a number of merchants opposed participation in the contrived demonstrations of the regime and, as a result, they clashed violently with the regime's guards. Our correspondent adds: The group of armed bazaaris replied to the fire of the Khomeyni's mercenaries and, as a result, killed two of them on location. During the same shootout a bazaari named Eqbal was wounded and taken to a hospital.

We remind you that on Sunday the regime's agents issued a communique in the union of Tehran's guilds -- on the order of the mullahs -- asking the merchants of the capital's bazaar to close their shops on the first anniversary of the death of Beheshti and the other criminals of the regime.

Lebanon

Evacuation Plan, Reaction -- Under a plan which has been discussed between the United States and Israel for the past 3 days the United States is ready to send 1,600 U.S. Marines to west Beirut as soon as the evacuation of the "terrorists" begins, Jerusalem radio announced. The U.S. 6th Fleet will oversee the evacuation in U.S.-financed ships that will take the "terrorists" to several countries which have already expressed willingness to accept them, including Algeria, Syria, Iraq and Egypt, according to the radio. The radio noted that the "terrorists" were not excited about the idea of going to Libya and that west European countries pressured the United States not to send them there. It also said France had expressed willingness to send soldiers to Beirut to help man positions vacated by the "terrorists."

Meanwhile, both France and the PLO denied any participation in the evacuation plan, according to French and Palestinian media. While MENA cited Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali as saying the Palestinians had agreed to leave Beirut under U.S.-French supervision, a responsible PLO spokesman cited by Monte Carlo radio contradicted 'Ali's statements and said no agreement had been reached on a Palestinian withdrawal from Beirut. A spokesman for the PLO Unified Information Office cited by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said the reports are only worthy of ridicule and added that "we will pay no more attention to these rumors than we did to the fairy tales about Egyptian ships" evacuating Palestinian forces. In Paris, PLO International Department Chief Faruq Qaddumi announced the PLO's rejection of all U.S. proposals for the Palestinian evacuation of Lebanon but expressed support for a French diplomatic initiative "which aims for withdrawal by Palestinians and Israelis," AFP reported. The Voice of Palestine subsequently reported that in a meeting with Lebanese representatives, PLO officials totally rejected the U.S. idea presented by the Lebanese and "thanked the Lebanese side for its sensitive feelings toward the Palestinian people." Emphasizing that the Palestinians will implement agreements reached with the Lebanese "in our own way" and without U.S. help, the PLO officials insisted on the proposals submitted by the PLO on 23 June.

However, the Jerusalem POST said Israeli officials have treated the PLO's public rejection of the U.S. proposal with skepticism. Jerusalem radio's Arabic service claimed that Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan has told Saudi King Fahd that the PLO has agreed to withdraw all its armed men from Beirut within 48 hours.

In other developments, French External Relations Minister Claude Cheysson denied the Israeli report on the plan and said if it were true the whole Lebanese problem would be solved. Cheysson held talks with Qaddumi early on 7 July, according to AFP.

Begin on Evacuation Plan, Other Matters -- Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin, in a meeting with the Likud Knesset faction, said the U.S. readiness to send marines to help evacuate the "terrorists" from Beirut constitutes the turning point on the way to a political solution of the problem, IDF radio reported. Begin expressed hope that France will cooperate with the United States in the initiative to remove the "terrorists" from Beirut and disappointment that the French have openly sided with the PLO, the radio reported. The prime minister was optimistic about the chances for a political settlement in west Beirut but added that if such a solution is not found, military action will be taken, Jerusalem television reported. Begin said that at the beginning of the week U.S. envoy Philip Habib had achieved a framework for a settlement with the Lebanese Government and the PLO but Israel did not accept some points in this plan, such as leaving a PLO political bureau in Beirut as well as a token military unit in the Lebanese Army, according to IDF radio. However, Begin noted that the United States and Israel have already reached an understanding on these matters, especially that the PLO cannot remain in Lebanon. He stressed that after the PLO is evacuated, efforts to achieve a stable political settlement in Lebanon may take a long time and necessitate a prolonged IDF stay in the country.

Military Situation — Israeli-Palestinian artillery exchanges in and around Beirut were renewed during the afternoon of 6 July, according to Voice of Lebanon radio. The IDF hit several Palestinian ammunition and weapons dumps, the radio noted. While IDF radio cited IDF statements accusing the "terrorists" of violating the cease-fire, Voice of Palestine radio said the Israelis were responsible for the resumption of the shelling. The radio accused the Israelis of using cluster, phosphorous and fragmentation bombs and said the Soviet Embassy had been damaged. Beirut radio said dozens of people in east and west Beirut were killed or injured in the shelling, which continued throughout the night until dawn on 7 July.

Jerusalem radio announced that the IDF intended to restore the supply of water and electricity to west Beirut during the evening. Beirut radio later said the supply of electricity had been restored. Earlier, Beirut radio noted that the IDF had tightened its blockade of the city of cutting off the crossing point in the port area and that while Lebanese Army personnel and diplomats were occasionally being allowed into the western sector, the Israelis were preventing the flow of foodstuffs into the area.

Syrian Activities — If Israel and the United States think they can forcibly impose a certain formula and a certain government on Lebanon, the coming days will prove that any solution which is not based on national dialogue cannot survive, Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad said in remarks reported by Damascus radio. During the day, Al-Asad received Libyan Staff Maj 'Abd as-Salam Jallud before the latter's departure for Libya, according to Damascus radio and television reports. Meanwhile, the London daily ASH-SHARQ AL-AWSAT said that despite the resupply of the Syrian Air Force by Libya and the Soviet Union, Syria's Air Force is still weaker than before the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and its efforts to raise the level of the freindship and cooperation treaty with the Soviet Union have produced no tangible results.

Iran on Islamic Summit, USSR — Iranian President 'Ali Khamene'i announced that Iran is ready to participate in the extraordinary Islamic summit conference called for by PLO leader 'Arafat, Tehran radio noted. Iran's deputy foreign minister criticized Soviet inaction over the Lebanese crisis, according to IRNA.

Israel

The civilian administration in Judaea and Samaria dismissed the Janin Municipal Council and appointed an ad hoc committee of local residents to run the area, Jerusalem radio reported.

Meanwhile, Bi'r Zayt students demonstrated against the war in Lebanon, according to Jerusalem radio.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

An Iranian push into Iraq "of course not with the incentive of occupation" is not improbable, Deputy Foreign Minister Ahmad 'Azizi declared in an interview with KEYHAN cited by IRNA. 'Azizi said this might be done to silence Iraqi fire on Iranian towns and to prevent the Iraqis from regrouping for any future aggression. He also observed that the only way for Iranian troops to reach Lebanon and fight the Israelis is to cross Iraqi territory. Likewise, Defense Minister Colonel Salimi stated that despite the superpowers' opposition, a push into Iraqi territory has become "inevitable" just as fighting the Israelis has become "unavoidable," IRNA reported.

Iran

Security forces killed or captured more than 150 Mojahedin-e Khalq activists in Khuzestan, according to Tehran radio.

DOST: FLEXIBILITY SHOWN IN GENEVA TALKS

LD062006 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] The cooperation and organization department of the Council of Ministers reports that the periodic DRA Council of Ministers Executive Committee session was held yesterday at the headquarters of the Council of Ministers under the chairmanship of Soltan Ali Keshtmand.

DRA Minister of Foreign Affairs Shah Mohammad Dost presented to the Council of Ministers Executive Committee a comprehensive report about the DRA delegation's participation in the nonaligned countries' Coordinating Bureau session in Havana, the UN special session on disarmament and the talks between the Afghan and Pakistani delegations that took place in Geneva as a result of the efforts of Diego Cordovez, representative of the UN secretary general. The report was approved.

Shah Mohammad Dost said that the DRA delegation took an active part in all discussions by the foreign ministers at the nonaligned countries' Coordinating Bureau meeting in Havana. In the special session of the UN General Assembly which was devoted to disarmament, the Afghan delegation took a clear and principled stand on all aspects of disarmament including [words indistinct] and its prevention. The DRA representative at this session expressed firm support for the Soviet Union's constructive proposals on disarmament, which were reflected in the recent message by L.I. Brezhnev. These proposals are of major significance in preserving international peace and security.

Shah Mohammad Dost described as straightforward the talks that took place between the Afghan and Pakistani delegations as a result of the efforts of Diego Cordovez, representative of the UN secretary general. The Afghan delegation, while preserving the DRA Government's foreign policy principles, showed flexibility during the talks. The opposing side also showed a measure of flexibility. During the talks, issues concerned with procedure were generally solved and the actual issues were also discussed.

The DRA expressed support for the efforts of the UN secretary general and his representative Diego Cordovez, which prepared the ground for the talks between the two sides on a comprehensive solution of the issue.

Shah Mohammad Dost said that in light of the Geneva talks the DRA Government will continue its sincere efforts toward a political solution of the matter.

SOVIETS REPORTEDLY WITHDRAW FROM PANJSHER

BK061340 Hong Kong AFP in English 1252 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] New Delhi, July 6 (AFP) -- Soviet ground troops have been withdrawn from the strategic Panjsher Valley, 100 kms (60 miles) north of Kabul, following a futile Afghan Government offensive to dislodge the Moslem rebels entrenched there, Western diplomatic sources said here today.

The offensive, aided by several columns of armored troops and Soviet air strength spearheaded by SU-25 ground attack aircraft, high explosive parachute bombs and heavy artillery, failed to dislodge the rebels.

The diplomats quoted eye-witness accounts estimating the total strength of Soviet-Afghan troops sent to Panjsher at 12,000.

Independent confirmation of the Soviet withdrawal came from Asian diplomatic sources, who said, however, that there were tactical reasons for it.

The offensive began on May 17 and was one of numerous attempts by the government of Babrak Karmal to clear the valley. Indeed it was considered one of the most serious attempts made since the Soviet troops entered Afghanistan in December 1979.

The eye-witnesses said rebel leader Ahmed Shah Masud, who commanded the rebel forces, had about 7,000 men at his command. But his intelligence network and strategy were better than that of the government troops.

When the Soviet-Afghan troops entered the valley they found most of the villages deserted, but no sooner had they begun to celebrate the "victory", they were attacked from the mountains where the rebels had entrenched themselves, the sources said.

The armoured support arrived three days later, but the rebels took advantage of the narrow road leading into the valley where the tanks and the armoured personnel carriers were forced to slow down or stop because of jams and road conditions.

The diplomats said Masud and his men had captured weapons which had been distributed reinforcing the rebels in the surrounding areas.

Masud has claimed that his men had shot down at least 25 helicopters and three MiGs, but the Asian diplomats doubted it as eye-witnesses only reported to have seen the wreckage of two MI-8 transport helicopters.

The essence of Masud's strategy was to concede the low ground to the government troops and occupy high ground.

The Soviets bombed the area but many of the bombs reportedly failed to explode because of the difficulty of bombing an uneven terrain at a low altitude.

The Soviets resorted to dropping high explosive bombs with parachutes for proper impact and many deserted houses in the valley were razed to the ground. Eye-witnesses told the diplomats that in Astana village, between Rokha and Khenj, only three houses were left standing after the bombardment.

Meanwhile, the Kabul military hospital, in the Afghan capital, reported a sudden increase in the admission of wounded soldiers. Eye-witnesses told the diplomats that tents had been pitched in the gardens to accomodate the injured as the hospital corridors were full of patients and there was hardly any space to put up more beds. The hospital normally has a 400 bed capacity.

The diplomats said that the Afghan capital had seen a sudden spurt in daylight assassinations. On June 30 the son of a senior government official was gunned down and four days earlier a member of the ruling party's youth organization was killed. In addition, on July 2, at least 13 government militiamen were killed and in June, an unknown number of party loyalists were killed.

SPA Report

LD062156 Riyadh SPA in English 1921 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] Islamabad, July 6 (SPA) -- Afghan mujahidin have recaptured the strategic (?Khenjan) town and scored a series of victories in Panjsher Valley, Western diplomatic sources said here today. The sources said the mujahidin succeeded in beating last week's offensive by the communist Kabul regime on their stronghold in Panjsher, 10 kms northeast of Kabul.

"Days are numbered for the regime's presence in the valley," the sources added.

They said the Islamic freedom fighters (mujahidin) have launched attacks on Soviet-backed government troops in the first week of July at Bazarak, Rokheh and Anawa townships in the valley. "The attacks have resulted in loosening of the Kabul government's hold on parts of the valley," the sources added.

The sources said the mujahidin had attacked government vehicles passing through a highway leading from Kabul northward to Soviet borders and touching the western fringe of Panjsher Valley.

"Defections from government ranks are now quite frequent in Panjsher. Moreover, the communist regime is finding it difficult to maintain its presence in the valley," they added.

The sources said Kabul hospitals were overflowing with bodies of the regime's forces killed during an escalated fighting between mujahidin and Soviet-Afghan Government troops in areas adjoining the capital city.

A truckload of Soviet dead was also seen in Kabul after the mujahidin had ambushed a Soviet-Afghan column which had been on its way to Miadam Province [as received] west of Kabul on July 3.

The sources said "the decimated column was forced to return to Kabul. The sound of gunfire during the ambush was heard and the resultant smoke seen by citizens of the Afghan capital."

Kabul's Wazir Akbar Khan hospital received bodies of 22 members of the communist regime on June 29, they added.

The sources also reported an end of a hunger strike in the notorious Pol-e Charkhi prison, near Kabul. The strike was staged by former ministers belonging to Khalq (Peoples) faction of the ruling People's Democratic Party (PDPA).

"The strike has caused much embarrassment to the Kabul regime," the sources said.

37 SOVIETS KILLED; AFGHAN CHILDREN SENT TO USSR

GF041121 Karachi DAWN in English 30 Jun 82 p 9

[Text] London, June 29 -- Afghan freedom fighters killed 37 Soviet Army officers and advisers holding a meeting in the fashionable Herat Hotel.

The mujahidin received information on June 16 that an important meeting to discuss the mounting pressure of the mujahidin in the province was in progress. They knew all about the meeting through their sources in the official circles, launched a full-scale attack on this government-owned hotel and, after eliminating 23 Afghan security guards, succeeded in reaching the venue of the meeting. After killing the Soviet officers and advisers, numbering about 37, they returned safely to their base carrying the snatched arms and ammunition and two Afghan soldiers who had helped them carry out the operation. The bodies of three martyred mujahidin and four injured were also brought back to the base.

Seven hundred Afghan children between the ages of 6 and 9 years, drawn up from entire Afghanistan were sent to the Soviet Union for "mental recreation" by four flights on June 27 and 28, Kabul radio announced.

The broadcast did not indicate the period the "recreation" would last.

During the regime of Hafizollah Amin, too, 300 Afghan children were sent to the Soviet Union, out of whom 200 belonging to Afghan martyrs' families have not yet reached to their homeland. Last year, on July 28, four hundred children were sent to Russia.

According to Soviet social scientists, the conditions in Afghanistan were influencing the minds of the children; therefore, a maximum number of Afghan children were being sent to the country of the invaders for a brainwashing. -- AAP

DEFENSE MINISTER: PUSH INTO IRAQ 'INEVITABLE'

LD062040 Tehran IRNA in English 1942 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 6 IRNA — The defence minister, Colonel Salimi, said here today that, despite superpowers' opposition, a push into Iraqi territory has become inevitable just as fighting the Zionist aggressors was unavoidable.

Salimi said that the revolutionary Muslim nation of Iran, guided by Imam Khomeyni, has conveyed the true message of Islam throughout the world and denounced U.S. imperialism.

This gathering was attended by representatives of military and state organisations as well as those of the revolutionary foundations.

'AZIZI ON ENTERING IRAQ, SOVIET 'SILENCE'

LD062034 Tehran IRNA in English 1930 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 6, IRNA — Deputy Foreign Minister Ahmad 'Azizi stated today that an Iranian push into Iraq, "of course, not with the incentive of occupation" was not improbable, that in principle it was a basic and essential way to inflict a blow upon Saddam. He said the only way for the Iranian troops to reach Lebanon and fight against the Zionists, was to cross Iraqi territory, something which 'Azizi said may be done in an attempt to silence the Iraqi fire upon Iranian towns and to prevent regrouping of the enemy army for future aggression against the Islamic Republic.

Interviewed by the evening Persian daily KEYHAN the deputy foreign minister further stated that in case the Islamic combatants were allowed to cross Iraq unconditionally, then we could say that our forces would be prepared to play their real and fundamental role in Lebanon. 'Azizi stressed that the Iraqi Army had never fully withdrawn from Iranian territory and that several strategic points were still under enemy control.

In his interview with KEYHAN, 'Azizi also discussed the Islamic Republic's stand on the Lebanon crisis, Iran's opposition to cease-fire talks, the silence of the Soviet Union towards the Lebanon crisis, the situation of the Iranian combatants in Syria and Lebanon and the reasons for Haig's resignation.

The Zionist regime, 'Azizi stressed, aimed at occupying the Islamic lands and annexing them to its own usurped soil, from the banks of the Nile to the Euphrates, and he immediately went on to reiterate that Iran's stand against this strategy and tactic was to continue its ceaseless struggle, by relying on the power of faith and the dictum of 'Allah-o akhbar' [God is great], until the complete elimination of the Al-Quds usurper regime. He meanwhile rejected a cease-fire and any direct and indirect talks with the Zionist regime and the U.S. as long as the aggressor forces remained in Lebanon. He thus declared the Islamic Republic's opposition to the disarming and withdrawal of Palestinian and Syrian troops from Lebanon as well as to the destruction of the territorial integrity of Lebanon.

On the Soviet silence towards the Lebanon crisis, 'Azizi said it was regrettable that the Soviet Union, despite its announcements issued in condemnation of the Zionist aggression, enjoyed very limited resources for confronting the U.S. in this corner of the world. Nevertheless, asserted the deputy foreign minister, if the Soviet Union was honest in its claim to be against the Zionist regime and if it really believed that a fundamental movement should take place against the fulfillment of the ideals of the Zionist regime and the U.S., then as had been experienced in similar cases, it (the Soviet Union) could do something.

Mr 'Azizi said that those groups of Islamic combatants of Iran who had volunteered to fight against the Zionists were now on the Lebanese battlefronts, and he added that this participation would increase after Saddam had been done away with.

In conclusion, 'Azizi pointed out that Haig's resignation was in fact a political game to save the face of the U.S.'s reactionary friends in the region before the world public.

KHAMENE'I REPLIES TO 'ARAFAT CALL FOR SUMMIT

LD061818 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, in his reply to a message from Yasir 'Arafat, PLO Executive Committee chairman, inviting Iran to take part in the extraordinary conference of heads of Islamic states in order to investigate the situation arising from the latest aggression committed by the regime occupying Jerusalem, Mr Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i, referring to the incriminating silence of the heads of Islamic states and the need for all-round efforts by these countries on the problem of Palestine and Lebanon, and pointing out the particular sensitivity of the time, announced the Islamic Republic of Iran's readiness to accept the said invitation in conditions agreeable from the standpoint of the participants and the venue.

The text of the message from Yasir 'Arafat, PLO Executive Committee chairman, which was dispatched this afternoon, is as follows:

Brother President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i, president of the Islamic Republic of Iran:

Peace and God's mercy and blessings be upon you!

The problem of Palestine, as you may be aware, is going through a difficult period, thanks to the U.S.-Zionist aggression against Lebanon and the two peoples of Palestine and Lebanon and against the Palestinian armed revolution. On this basis I have extended an invitation for holding an extraordinary conference of heads of Islamic states to investigate the situation arising out of this aggression and I hope you will accept this invitation on the desired head-of-state level. We hope to receive your immediate and positive reply in this connection.

With our profound respects,

TEHRAN URGES PALESTINIANS TO CONTINUE FIGHT

GF050521 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1800 GMT 4 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary]

[Text] Events in Lebanon are exacerbating in an incredible manner. The issue now is the method of the departure of the Palestinian forces from Beirut and what the PLO's program will be in the next stage. Yes, indeed, Israel has achieved the strategic objectives it has been dreaming of since its establishment in Palestine. These are objectives proclaimed by Ben-Gurion and Hertzl. However, how far can Israel go in achieving its expansionist aims?

After the achievement of its present aim, the departure of the Palestinian forces from Beirut, it will be the turn of the Arab Deterrent Force [ADF], whose fate will be the same as that of the Palestinian forces if they should agree to the enemy's demands.

After the departure of what Israel calls "the foreign forces," the stage of the total liquidation of Lebanese revolutionary forces will begin, so that the field will be clear for Israel to sign an agreement similar to the Camp David accords with the Lebanese Government, an agreement that would make Lebanon Israel's partner.

Israel is also seeking to appoint a president of Lebanon by force on the pretext of establishing a strong government in Lebanon. It is anticipated that the president will be one of its surrogates -- apparently it will be the military commander of the agent Phalangist Party, Bashir al-Jumayyil.

Israel is not alone in implementing this involved plot, which begins with the elimination of the Palestinian and Lebanese national forces and will end with the appointment of Bashir al-Jumayyil as president. All the reactionary Arab circles support this plot. Indeed, these circles are seriously seeking to facilitate all the steps in the Israeli plot. Some of these reactionary circles, Arab regimes which are surrogates of imperialism and Zionism, are trying to persuade the Palestinian Revolution — through their agents, Lebanese figures who are well-known for their continual services to Zionism and U.S. imperialism -- to leave Lebanon. After persuading the Palestinians to leave Lebanon these reactionary circles will exert pressure on Syria to make it withdraw the ADF from Lebanon. The implementation of this conspiracy began some time ago when one of the wealthy regimes withdrew its financial support for the ADF, a support to which it was committed in accordance with the resolutions of Arab summit conferences.

The reactionary parties [words indistinct] election votes for the Zionist stooge, Bashir al-Jumayyil, to become president in September of this year. The visit of this stooge to At-Ta'if is part of the imperialist scheme being implemented by reactionary circles in the region, which have assumed the responsibility for putting the final touches to the last chapter of the conspiracy by having Al-Jumayyil assume office in Lebanon.

The question which these surrogate regimes may perhaps not be able to answer is: Why Al-Jumayyil for president? Is it because he is being chosen for this important part by Israel and the United States and all imperialist circles to become, as Israel wants him to be, a strong ruler? With whom will he be 'strong' and against whom?

It is clear that from the outset of its treacherous aggression against Lebanon, Israel sought to achieve the two objectives it proclaimed in its statements and in the words of its leaders. [sentence indistinct] The two objectives constitute the two ends of the plot which Israel is seeking to implement at present after having invaded Lebanon's most important strategic areas. Its approach toward B'abda palace [the seat of the Lebanese presidency] is but another proof of its intention to constantly interfere in Lebanese affairs — an objective that can only be achieved with the appointment of a 100-percent surrogate ruler.

[Words indistinct] the plan needs some preliminaries, and some of the reactionary regimes in the area will take care of this. This is what we are witnessing now — the attempt to exonerate Bashir al-Jumayyil of his crimes. He is fully responsible for all the crimes that have been perpetrated in Lebanon. He is also now responsible for the Israeli aggression, which would not have taken place but for the support it enjoyed from the Phalangist gangs. Today, Bashir al-Jumayyil's comrades are standing alongside the Israeli forces against the steadfast Lebanese and Palestinian peoples. How can this Zionist stooge who has committed all these crimes be innocent? How can he dare to assume the presidency of a country in which he is responsible for so many crimes? What state will Lebanon be in if Zionism and reactionary circles succeed in appointing this stooge to this important post?

This is the bleak picture of the international plot in which many parties are taking part, a plot aimed at Lebanon's independence, the freedom of its people and the dignity of its fighters. Will this plot succeed?

The plot's success or failure now depends on the stand of the Palestinian and Lebanese fighters toward the peaceful solution proposed by Israel and trumpeted by Arab reactionaries. The steadfastness of the Palestinian fighters in the face of the usurper enemy will be the ax that destroys Israeli dreams and the sick dreams of all reactionary rulers. Let the Palestinians ask themselves: Why did they carry arms? Did they fight and make sacrifices for this peaceful solution? Is it in order to put the Palestinian cause in [words indistinct]? Is it not in order to repulse aggression that they trained in the use of arms and carried arms? This is their hour. Israel, which they have yearned and still yearn to fight has come to their doorstep. So why lay down their arms in the hour of decision?

The historic hours through which the Palestinian cause is passing today depends on the determination of the heroic fighters in Lebanon. Resistance to Israeli aggression and turning a deaf ear to capitulatory solutions are the ways to liberate Palestine and mark the road to a bright future.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 966

LD061746 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Communique No 966 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Sporadic exchanges of fire have continued on southern and western fronts of the country. During the past 24 hours these exchanges have been more intense on the Abadan and Khorramshahr fronts. Details of the battles are brought to the attention of the dear compatriots:

On the Meymak front, sporadic exchanges of artillery and other heavy-weapon fire continued between our forces and the enemy. As a result of these exchanges two Saddamist tanks and one fuel tanker were destroyed. On other fronts of the border regions in Bakhtaran Province, the self-sacrificing combatants of the ground forces, in harmony with the other forces of Islam, are continuing mopping-up operations in the areas which have been liberated from the occupation of the destructive Saddamist forces. While consolidating their own defensive positions our forces have defused a large number of mines which the Saddamist forces had planted. The task of defusing and collecting the mines is continuing in earnest.

Exchanges of fire have continued on the Paveh and Marivan fronts. Thanks to the artillery fire of our ground forces, around 20 Iraqi troops were either killed or wounded in the Toveyleh and [name indistinct] sectors, and several of their trenches and foxholes were destroyed. Enemy movements and activities were prevented in the Hargineh region.

On the Khorramshahr front, the Islamic combatants' firing on enemy positions killed or wounded over (?20) of the infidel forces. Two enemy trucks and two trenches were also set ablaze.

During the past 24 hours, mercenaries of the Iraqi Ba'thist forces opened artillery fire on some districts of Abadan and Khorramshahr. As a result, 4 people were martyred and 23 others were wounded.

Yesterday several aggressive Iraqi planes tried to violate the airspace of Ilam and several other border cities in the south of the country. However, the vigilance and antiaircraft fire of the air defense units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran forced them to flee.

MUSAVI-ARDABILI SPEAKS ON WAR, ASSAILS SADDAM

LD021608 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 2 Jul 82

[Excerpts] Today on the second Friday in the blessed month of Ramadan, millions of our Muslim, combatant fellow countrymen have observed the political-religious rites of the auspicious Friday prayers. Meanwhile, as on previous Fridays Tehran University and its surrounding avenues -- where those who love God and walk the path of justice meet -- witnessed the vast participation of a mammoth throng of our revolutionary Tehran citizens -- who are ever-present on the scene -- in the august, immortal Islamic tradition of Friday prayers under the imamate of Ayatollah Musavi-Ardabili, Tehran's acting Friday imam.

Tehran's acting Friday imam devoted his second sermon to the various problems of the war, and said: We are an Islamic nation waging jihad, a vast and extensive jihad. Others give it another interpretation. Had we not spoken up, had we not risen and had we been the tool of the world powers, no one would have waged war against us. However, we felt our religious duty, we rose and began the struggle. We boiled over, raised our voices in clamor and followed Islam. We did not deem it permissible to be silent when faced with the world's great powers. They, in turn, started the war against us.

Referring to the expulsion of a group of Muslim Iranian students from Germany, he said: They are harming their international prestige with this deed. For our Islamic nation, which considers martyrdom as a cause for pride, the expulsion of a few students from a country is not all that important. We who are opposing Israel, we who are finally sorting out our account with the United States, we who are resisting the Saddamists and gaining all of this glory in the process will solve such problems quite easily.

Today I proclaim that such unworthy behavior cannot be used toward a rising revolutionary Islamic nation. Those countries that behave toward us in this unprincipled and inhuman manner should know that such action will have consequences.

Continuing his second sermon, Tehran's acting Friday imam referred to Saddam's alleged victories, which are tantamount only to abysmal defeat, and emphasized the fact that we would continue the war until we achieve our goals. He said:

[Begin Musavi-Ardabili recording] What did we achieve from this war? Did we achieve our demands? We did not. Why? We have not been able to achieve any of the things we wanted. Our demand was that this germ of corruption should declare his political life to be at an end -- either by his own hand, through world intervention or by our hand. His life is now at an end. Saddam and the Saddamists have no right to impose their satanical power on an area and on an Islamic nation that closely follows the Islamic order just so they could daily create headaches for us by attacking us whenever they wished. They would kill us, plunder us and, when they were defeated, they would effect a tactical retreat, reinforce themselves and attack us again! We cannot have this. The issue should be sorted out once and for all. As God is my witness, I say this with all my heart. Norhing will make up for our martyrs except the fall of Saddam and the destruction of the Ba'th Party. [applause and shouts of "God is great"]

These people do not seem to believe that we are independent. They still do not believe it. They think that they can wage war whenever they wish and have peace whenever they wish! Such a situation has been over for some time now. We are an independent Islamic nation. [passage indistinct] We are an independent nation. We prefer continuing the war a hundred times to having an imposed peace! [applause]

The blood of our combatant youths who are alive on the battlefields is not more precious than the blood of those who have fallen. "There are those who have perished and there are those who are awaiting their turn." [Koranic verse] The issue of war is our foremost issue. If we were to lose all of our young men, the old men would go the battlefields. [applause and shouts of "God is great, Khomeyni is leader"] If all of the men were to perish, the women would continue the war until we attained our goals. We will continue a war on two [as heard] fronts: on the Lebanon front, on the Jerusalem front, on the western front, on the southern front. All of this is one war. As our imam has said, the road to one front is through the other front. We will hurtle ourselves toward Jerusalem via Baghdad. [applause]

For 14 centuries we have taught our children and they have taught us that as Imam 'Ali's fruitful son stood up against a hail of enemy arrows waiting for them to strike, Imam 'Ali came to him before he resumed his attack and said: You have inherited this courage from your mother: [Fatima, daughter of the prophet]; my son will not be afraid to wage jihad in order to serve God on the battlefield.

Brothers and sisters: I bring you glad tidings! Saddam is dead; Saddam is exposed. Let him say: Five thousand of our soldiers were proudly taken prisoner, tens of thousands of our troops proudly went to hell and the rest heroically took to their heels! The Ba'thist logic cannot be any better than this. [end recording]

Continuing his second sermon, Ayatollah Musavi-Ardabili called on all those people who have military experience and who can bear arms to go to the fronts, even in the blessed month of Ramadan and in the holy nights, and bring us victory as soon as possible. This victory and this war are mandatory to us. We traverse this path in order to achieve either martyrdom, which is the height of our young people's aspirations, or victory forever.

In conclusion, Tehran's acting Friday imam read a sermon in Arabic for the benefit of our Muslim Arab sisters and brothers.

VELAYATI ADDRESSES SEMINAR ON REVOLUTION

LD021332 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 2 Jul 82

[Text] The Central News Unit reports that the seminar which began last Sunday, held by the headquarters in charge of organizing the 28 June celebrations with the participation of the scholars and instructors of the Qom religious seminary in Feyziyyeh School [in Qom] on the continuation of the revolution, ended yesterday afternoon.

At the last meeting of this seminar, which was attended by seminarians and various other people, Mr Velayati, minister of foreign affairs, spoke about the importance of following the policy of "Neither Eastern nor Western" in the continuation of the Islamic revolution.

Commenting on the fact that to date there has been no revolution in the world which has continued its course without dependence, he said: Our revolution has presented the world with the new belief that one can fight but remain independent; one can fight against America without depending on the Soviet Union; and one can fight against those who possess modern weapons and advanced technology without submitting to another great power in order to receive weapons.

Continuing his speech, he referred to the crimes of imperialism and Zionism in Lebanon and the similar behavior of the Soviet Union in Afghanistan and, addressing Islamic governments who are turning hopefully toward the East, he said: The 3 and 1/2 years of experience which we have gained from Iran's Islamic revolution leaves no room for anyone to doubt that it is only through reliance upon Islam, the power of the Muslims and independence from the East or the West that one can renounce the tyrannical domination of the superpowers.

According to this report, the seminar's resolution on the continuation of the revolution, drawn up in eight articles, was then read. In the resolution, which pays respect to the martyrs of the 28 June catastrophe, especially the wronged martyr Ayatollah Dr Beheshti, and the struggling martyr Hojjat ol-Eslam Mohammad Montazeri [son of Ayatollah Montazeri], and renews the covenant with these external martyrs in following in their blood-stained path, the rule of theocracy and canonist Islam are regarded as the only means for the continuation of the Islamic revolution.

The resolution also stresses the need to implement Islamic instructors and intellectuals by the esteemed scholars of the religious seminary in connection with the orders of the imam of the nation, and emphasizes the guidelines of Ayatollah Montazeri about unity between the clergy and students and the necessity of establishing greater cooperation between universities and religious seminaries. Also, in the resolution the slogan "Neither Eastern nor Western" is regarded as one of the basic means for the continuation of the revolution, and the heroic fighters of Islam have been requested to continue the war until the achievement of final victory and the attainment of all the legitimate demands of the Islamic nation and the downfall of the blasphemous regime of Saddam.

The headquarters in charge of organizing the ceremonies on 28 June has been asked that through cooperation with the religious seminaries and universities it should make arrangements for the holding of a great scientific and scholarly gathering at the beginning of the month of Tir [Tir begins 22 June] each year on the problems of the revolution, with the participation of Islamic intellectuals from all over the world.

NEGATIVE RESPONSE BY FRG TO COMPLAINT REPORTED

LD061202 Tehran IRNA in English 0900 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] Bonn, July 6 IRNA -- The Supreme Court of West Germany, as was expected, gave a negative response to the complaint of the Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran here, protesting a FDR's [as received] court verdict on the deportation of 17 Iranian students.

With this decision the FDR Government is now authorised to take measures for the deportation of these Iranian students. In protest to this verdict, the Islamic Republic of Iran had temporarily closed its diplomatic offices in West Germany.

A German court last week issued the deportation order for the said Iranian students who were among some 68 Iranian Muslim students arrested by the police in the city of Mainz. This incident took place about two months ago when the Muslim students were attacked by a group of Iranian counterrevolutionaries being protected by the German police.

Meanwhile the Iranian Ministry of Culture and Higher Education Monday strongly condemned the FDR court's measure, labelling it as part of a great wave of actions against the Islamic revolution of Iran.

OPPOSITION GROUPS 'TOTALLY DESTROYED' IN ARAK

GF061306 Tehran ETTELA'AT in Persian 27 Jun 82 p 4

[Excerpts] With the vigilant efforts of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps of Arak and the efforts of the Revolution Prosecutor's Office and Revolution Court, the entire organization of all minigroups opposing the Islamic Republic has been destroyed in the city.

This was announced by Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadyani, the Arak Islamic revolution prosecutor, in a special interview with the IRNA correspondent in the city. Stating that the entire group of hypocrites organization's members and the supporters of this warwagers operating in Arak have been arrested, he said: With the efforts of the brother guards we were able to discover a main gathering center of the minority minigroup [Feda'iyan-e Khalq]. As a result, we arrested 30 active members of this group, killed the head of the military branch of this minigroup and confiscated a considerable amount of arms, ammunition and propaganda equipment.

Discussing the trial of those arrested, Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadyani said: To date around 500 members and supporters of the warring minigroup have been arrested and jailed in Arak. Out of this number, 29 have been executed following trials. A group of them were released following interrogation and after they posted bail. The rest are in jail.

At the end of his interview Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadyani referred to Shari'atmadari's trial and said: From the point of view of Islam, the offender, whoever he is and in whatever profession, has to be punished. The bigger the title of the person, the more serious the crime. Therefore, Shari'atmadari must also be tried and punished.

Israeli Position -- During a meeting with two U.S. senators Prime Minister Menahem Begin said Israel is ready to let U.S. envoy Philip Habib exhaust every opportunity in order to reach a solution to the situation in Beirut, IDF radio reported. Begin said Israel did not present an ultimatum regarding the negotiations and expressed optimism about the chances of evacuating the PLO peacefully, the radio reported. According to Jerusalem radio the decision to give Habib more time results from the realization that the United States has actually succeeded in reaching an agreement on the evacuation and the only questions that remain concern how and when the "terrorists" will be removed. However, during a meeting between Habib and Israeli officials it emerged that Habib has no timetable for the departure of "terrorists" and that they "continue to try and mark time," Jerusalem radio reported on 9 July. The radio noted that the "terrorists" want to move from Beirut to Al-Biqa' and to northern Lebanon rather than evacuate by sea and reported that this demand is unacceptable to both Israel and the United States.

Meanwhile, Jerusalem radio said Foreign Ministry Director General David Kimche transmitted a "grave warning" to the "terrorists" through the United States saying that if they intend to take action against the IDF through a war of attrition, Israel will act against them with full severity. The warning goes on to say that the "terrorists" will very quickly find out they made a serious mistake if they continue to shoot at IDF soldiers under the cover of Habib's mediation efforts.

In a separate development, Deputy Chief of Staff Maj Gen Moshe Levi said the IDF has worked out a plan that takes into account the possibility of remaining in Lebanon for the winter although he emphasized this should not necessarily be regarded as indicative of Israel's intentions, Jerusalem radio reported. According to another radio report the IDF has begun to deploy for a long stay in southern Lebanon with camps being moved from rocky areas to more comfortable places and roads being paved.

PLO Position -- PLO Political Department Chief Faruq Qaddumi affirmed the PLO's rejection of the U.S. evacuation plan and called for the formation of an international force to supervise a disengagement in Beirut, clandestine Voice of Palestine radio reported. Qaddumi stated that any disengagement in Lebanon should be supervised by an international peacekeeping force made up of nonaligned, European, Arab and Islamic nations, AFP reported. He added that while the United Nations could develop such a plan, there is no indication the United States accepts this approach.

According to Voice of Palestine, while the Palestinian and Lebanese Nationalist sides insist on a disengagement through the deployment of international forces, the Lebanese Government insists on the use of U.S. forces. The radio said the Palestinian working paper, which the Palestinian leaders are using in their negotiations with the Lebanese authorities, includes the following proposals: putting an end to the fighting; withdrawing Israeli forces 8 km; deploying international forces to disengage the two sides; returning PLO soldiers to their camps; protecting the security of the camps with the help of international forces; implementing the agreements regarding the situation in Beirut and Lebanon between the Lebanese authorities and the Palestinian Resistance.

Commenting on the Soviet warning to the United States regarding Lebanon, a responsible PLO source said U.S. policy put the Soviet Union in a "predicament" with the Lebanese and Palestinian peoples, Beirut radio reported. The PLO official said the Soviet warning has not yet taken a "concrete form" and that the Soviet Union will soon be forced to adopt concrete stands. Executive Committee member Salah Khalaf said the USSR is a friend of the Palestinian Resistance and is serious in its warning, Voice of Palestine reported.

Lebanese Contacts, Statements -- Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis and Foreign Minister Fu'ad Butrus met with U.S. envoy Philip Habib to review the current consultations and contacts on the situation in Lebanon, Beirut radio reported. Sources close to Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan affirmed that he will not go to the Presidential Palace for meetings unless the crossing points in Beirut are opened and the Israelis keep a distance from them, the radio added. AFP reported that all three checkpoints between east and west Beirut remain closed to traffic in both directions despite reports that Israeli forces had reopened one crossing. However, according to Jerusalem radio the Israeli defense minister personally checked that there is no IDF presence at the crossing point in the Galerie Sim'an area "so that Al-Wazzan cannot claim he is not ready to cross an Israeli barrier." Voice of Palestine reported that Palestinian negotiations with the Lebanese side have stumbled because the Israelis have prevented the Lebanese prime minister from going to the Presidential Palace by blocking the roads.

Meanwhile, Al-Wazzan accused Habib of working to end the role of some political and official leaders in future Lebanese politics, Voice of Palestine reported. He added that Habib is trying to turn Lebanon into a "U.S. ranch" while also attempting to destroy the PLO militarily and politically.

In an interview with AFP, Lebanese Forces Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil said all Palestinians must leave Lebanon. Declaring that he opposes their maintenance of even a symbolic presence, Al-Jumayyil accused the Palestinians of never keeping their word and of turning Lebanon into a center of international subversion.

Military Situation -- After a period of relative calm, periodic exchanges of fire took place in Beirut throughout the day, IDF radio reported. The radio said IDF tanks opened fire at targets where "terrorist" activity was observed in the southern sector of Beirut and in the area east of the airport. Beirut radio reported that Israeli forces shelled the southern suburb of Beirut and the airport perimeter while they continued to titghten the economic blockade of west Beirut. According to Jerusalem radio four terrorists were killed when they tried to attack an IDF position at the international airport. Meanwhile, Voice of Palestine radio reported that Israeli warplanes overflew Beirut on 9 July. Earlier the radio carried a statement by the PLO-Lebanese Nationalist Movement joint command which said their forces clashed with Israeli units in the Al-Biqa' area. According to Voice of Lebanon radio, Syrian forces continued to deploy reinforcements in the Al-Biqa' area.

Islamic, Nonaligned Conferences -- Islamic Conference Organization Secretary General Habib Chatti announced that Tunisia has agreed to host an Islamic states foreign minister's conference on 17 and 18 July to prepare for an Islamic summit which will discuss the Israeli invasion of Lebanon, KUNA reported. According to this report, 18 Islamic countries have agreed to attend the meeting.

Meanwhile, Nicosia radio reported that the Cypriot Government has agreed to host an extraordinary meeting of the Coordination Bureau of the Nonaligned Movement at the foreign minister's level 13-15 July in order to examine the situation in Lebanon and the Palestinian problem in general.

Israel

Gaza Mayor Rashad ash-Shawwa was dismissed from his post after rejecting the demands of the civilian administration that he lift the suspension of municipal council activities and return to normal work, Jerusalem radio reported.

Iran-Iraq Conflict

In a press conference reported by Tehran radio, Iranian Government spokesman Ahmad Tavakkoli said that as long as Iraq is occupying part of the country, Iran will continue the war. He said that Iran regards it as its right to defend itself inside Iraqi territory.

BK090931 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 9 Jul 82

[Text] External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao told the Rajya Sabha today that the demand for the closure of the Israeli Consulate in Bombay is under serious consideration of the government. Replying to questions, he said there were strong demands for closing down the consulate. Rao said that the decision to expel the present Israeli consul was the result of certain activities which are against the code of conduct governing diplomats.

Rao informed the house that an amount of 1 million rupees in foreign exchange is being handed over to the Lebanese Government. He said India is in touch with the PLO ambassador in New Delhi and has already dispatched medicines and will continue to render all assistance.

The minister said that India has taken initiative for the settlement of Israel-Lebanon war. He said India has urged immediate implementation of the Security Council's resolution demanding Israel's withdrawal and total cessation of hostilities.

Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi is to make a statement in the Lok Sabha this afternoon on the crisis created by the Israeli aggression in Lebanon. This was announced by Speaker Balram Jakhar. As soon as the house assembled, some members referred to the explosive situation in Lebanon and sought a discussion.

INDIAN MP CITES WAN LI ON SINO-INDIAN RELATIONS

OW062004 Hong Kong AFP in English 1944 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] New Delhi, July 6 (AFP) -- Chinese Vice-Premier Wan Li is said to have expressed the hope of better relations with India.

An opposition Congress Party member of Parliament, Suresh Kalmadi, who has been a member of an Indian athletic delegation which toured China recently, told a press conference today at Poona, western India, that they had a meeting with Mr. Wan when he made the remarks.

According to a Press Trust of India (PTI) dispatch, Mr. Kalmadi quoted the Chinese leader as having suggested that regular exchange of sports and cultural teams would greatly help normalisation of relations between the two countries.

He said his impression was that China was desirous of resurrecting the popular slogan of the fifties (before the 1962 Sino-Indian border war) of "Hindi-Chini bhai, bhai " (Indians and Chinese are brothers), with an eye on the leadership of the Third World countries.

BK081700 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Excerpts] External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao has said that the friendship treaty with Pakistan proposed by India covers a wide range of subjects. The no-war pact proposed by Pakistan will be an outcome of the friendship treaty. Replying to questions in the Lok Sabha, he said India is now examining the Pakistani proposal.

He also informed the house that a note on the joint commission has been forwarded to Pakistan. The joint commission was proposed by Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi during the visit of the then Pakistani Foreign Minister Agha Shahi who had welcomed it. Narasimha Rao said that India would also take up with Pakistan ways to fortify the Simla Agreement.

When a member drew his attention to Pakistani President Ziaul Haq's statement on Gilgit, Hunza and Skardu in occupied Kashmir, Narasimha Rao said India's stand is firm and clear on this. This will be taken up in the forthcoming talks.

The minister also informed the house that India and Bangladesh will shortly decide upon the composition of the joint economic commission to further improve bilateral economic and technical cooperation between the two countries. The two governments will also decide the frequency of the joint commission's meetings and the scope of its activity. It may be recalled that India and Bangladesh decided to set up a joint economic commission when the external affairs minister visited Bangladesh in May this year.

SPOKESMAN COMMENTS ON IRAQ, LEBANON, SHORTAGES

LD081244 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Government Spokesman Ahmad Tavakkoli took part this morning in a radio, television and press conference with correspondents of the domestic mass media, and answered their questions on various issues.

According to our correspondent, Mr Tavakkoli said in a brief introduction: I hope in the near future we will be able to celebrate our victory over the blasphemy of Saddam and, God willing, overcome all internal and foreign difficulties and achieve definite results as soon as possible.

Concerning the entry [as heard] of the forces of Islam into Iraqi territory, which had been referred to by some officials of the country, the government spokesman said: The enemy is still occupying some parts of our country and is continuously bringing us under its bombardment. As long as this is so we shall continue the war. We do not regard it as ended. We regard it as our right to defend ourselves inside Iraqi territory. We are not casting a greedy eye toward any country, he said, rather we are acting only in order to regain our rights that have been violated. Those who wrongfully regard themselves as guardians of the people should be toppled as soon as possible, so that the Iraqi people may take their destiny into their own hands.

Concerning the kidnapping of Iranian diplomats in Beirut, Mr Tavakkoli said: The Iranian Embassy in Beirut is one of the most active embassies and is a center for the gatherings of various resistance movements which are active in Beirut. This is very difficult for America to accept. At the moment, all the embassies in Beirut are either closed or are inactive. There are only two embassies which are active in that country at the moment: One is the American Embassy, which has been transferred to a secure quarter and which, under Israeli protection, is acting toward the elimination of Palestine. The other active embassy is the Embassy of Iran which is the center for all the resistance movements in Lebanon.

Mr Tavakkoli added: While the Iranian charge d'affaires was going to the embassy through Bog'a, accompanied by Lebanese police, he was kidnapped by the Phalangists, who are the Zionists' fifth column in Lebanon, contrary to all the principles which they believe in. The Lebanese policemen were released after a while. He said: We have taken some steps for their release but we have not achieved any positive results.

With regard to Iran receiving some groups from the Palestinian Resistance movement -- a subject which has been raised by some Western sources -- he said: because we are a Muslim country, the doors of our country are open to all Muslims. However, because this is one more plot aimed at implementing other American plots to expel the Palestinians from their own land in order to create a special security condition for Israel, we are 100-percent against this plan.

We believe that not only should the Palestinians not come to Iran, they should not go to any other country either. They should continue their struggle against the usurping Israel. We wish to go to Al-Quds through Karbala'. It is not appropriate for them to come to Iran.

Concerning the stationing of American ships, including marines and important military equipment, in Lebanese waters, Mr Tavakkoli said: The main aim is to set up a secure region for Israel and to remove the Palestinians from Israel's borders.

In 1970 King Husayn removed the Palestinians from the borders of Islamic lands [as heard] by expelling them. Egypt, too, put an end to the possibility of fighting against Israel as a result of its agreement. Therefore, the Palestinians have been limited from every point of view. This plan was hatched by the superpowers and is being implemented with the shameful silence of reactionary countries.

Concerning the shortage of some of the general items needed by the people, Mr Tavakkoli said: I feel ashamed. We should take further steps in this direction. During the meeting at the Economic Mobilization headquarters it was decided that they should investigate this matter as soon as possible. It was decided that discussions should be held at the next meeting about the distribution of goods. God willing, the goods needed by the people will be put at their disposal in the best possible form.

18 LEADERS DEMAND 'FINAL OFFENSIVE' AGAINST IRAQ

NC081529 Paris AFP in English 1444 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Excerpts] Tehran, July 8 (AFP) -- Eighteen Iranian religious, political and military leaders today moved that Tehran send troops into Iraq to launch a "final offensive" against Baghdad.

In comments issued in the daily newspaper KEYHAN today, the group urged that Iran continue the 22-month-old war with a final offensive waged inside Iraq itself.

The move follows an ongoing political campaign designed to step up public support for a new offensive.

Air Force Chief Colonel Mo'inpur said in the paper that the "only way to ensure a final victory" was to wage "an all out offensive" in Iraq "or at least in eastern Iraq".

During the last few days, the Iranian press has published an increasing number of interviews and editorials advocating a "final offensive".

Meanwhile, the authorities have also stepped up conscription for people of varying ages after calling on volunteers with previous experience on the Iranian-Iraqi warfront to join "the combatants of Islam".

On June 21, on the eve of the beginning of the current Islamic holy month of Ramadan, Iran's spiritual guide Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni said the war would continue until Iraq met with Tehran's demands.

COMMENTARY DEFENDS MOTIVES FOR ENTERING IRAQ

GF090142 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1730 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary]

[Excerpts] It is no secret that the military commanders of the Islamic forces have announced their intention to enter Iraqi territory in order to complete the unfinished Jerusalem Operation [bayt al-moqaddas] which, with God's help, will continue until holy Jerusalem is liberated from the claws of Zionism. It is not difficult for the press and public opinion to accept this sincere attempt which the Islamic forces will make out of good will, not for expansion or occupation. It is not difficult for the sincere people in the Islamic world to grasp the dimensions of the serious attempt to enter Iraqi territory if they realize the real motives behind it -- motives which are humanitarian and Islamic. We will present them as follows so that everyone will have a clear idea of the matter:

The first motive is to give the Islamic forces access to the battlefronts in Palestine and Lebanon in order to fight against the Israeli invading forces. Geographically speaking, it is well known that the only land access for transporting these numerous forces is Iraqi territory. Militarily speaking, without crossing this territory, it would be difficult to achieve full mobilization in the Palestinian arena.

Perhaps someone opposing this idea would say the Iraqi regime has offered full readiness to open the way to the Islamic forces to cross Iraqi territory to the Palestinian arena.

To refute this objection, we say: Three reasons made the Islamic Republic reject the offer made by the Baghdad rulers: First, the falsehood of those rulers that makes everyone distrust them and their offers. The history of those rulers is full of these falsities they practiced with political forces within and outside Iraq.

Second, the continuous cooperation between the Iraqi regime and international Zionism, the Iraqi regime's direct coordination with the parties of Camp David and its suspect stands on the Palestinian cause.

All this presents to us the possibility that Saddam's offer was nothing but a trap to liquidate the Islamic forces going to the battlefield against Zionism in order to save the Israeli enemy from a constant threat to its existence.

Third, the Baghdad regime's condition for the Islamic forces' crossing Iraq was ending the war. In other words, Saddam's condition for approving this was the Islamic Republic's waiving of all its legitimate rights that have been violated by the treacherous Ba'thist aggression. This is impossible.

Therefore, we see only two means for the Islamic forces to cross Iraqi territory: either with the overthrow of the tyrannical regime of Iraq -- which is expected -- or the liberation of the road connecting the Islamic Republic with Syrian territory through Iraq. It is on this road the convoys of strugglers will march to Palestine; it will be secured by the Islamic forces in order to eliminate any plot or trap that might beset the Islamic forces.

In addition to this motive for crossing Iraqi territory, there is another motive that makes the Islamic Republic contemplate the decision to enter Iraq. The Islamic Republic demands that the Baghdad regime fulfill the rest of the Islamic conditions and ensure all rights wrested in this hostile war. Without the Ba'thist regime's response to these conditions, the war will continue and the Islamic Republic is entitled to take any honorable way to guarantee its rights.

We trust that everyone will grant us this right. If the Islamic forces enter Iraqi territory, their presence there will depend upon the extent to which the conditions set by the Islamic Republic are fulfilled.

When the commanders of the Islamic army frankly announce the intention of the Islamic forces to cross the Iraqi border, it should be taken as a conditional warning to the Baghdad regime beforehand which will depend on the extent of the response by this entity to the conditions set by the Islamic Republic to end the war. We are not warmongers, but we do not overlook our legitimate rights. This is a truth that the rulers of Iraq should realize. Without realizing it the problem will have a different look which the Islamic Republic will impose until it achieves all its goals. [sentence as heard]

The last factor that urges the Islamic forces to cross the international border is to silence Saddam's artillery, which is still seeking out a number of our oppressed people every day. The cities of Abadan and Khorramshahr have been exposed to continuous brutal bombardment by Saddam for some time. Therefore, the Islamic Republic is entitled to put an end to Saddam's continuous savage actions.

In light of the above, therefore, we can loudly say that the victorious, courageous Islamic forces are on the alert to carry out any task in order to achieve their holy objective of holding the banner of Islam above all other banners. The role of these forces will not end without the achievement of full victory for Islam on all fronts.

AL-HAKIM SUPPORTS IRANIAN ENTRY INTO IRAQ

GF080821 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0700 GMT 9 Jul 82

[Excerpts] Hojjat ol-Eslam Muhammad Baqir al-Hakim, head of the office of the Islamic revolution in Iraq, has asserted that it is the natural right of the Iranian Army to enter Iraqi territory to defend itself and liberate the Muslim Iraqi people who have asked for assistance from the imam of the nation and the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Addressing more than 3,000 Iraqi prisoners in Tehran yesterday, Al-Hakim referred to the victories achieved by Muslims in early Islam under the leadership of prophet Muhammad, may God have peace on him, including the battle of Badr which took place during the month of Ramadan.

Al-Hakim said: The Iraqi Ba'thist regime is in a constant state of decline and collapse. The fleeing of the aggressor Iraqi forces from Iranian territory and the change of Saddam's henchmen in the farce of changing government posts is irrefutable evidence of the collapse of this regime.

Referring to the shelling of Iranian cities by the aggressor Iraqi forces and Saddam's claims of Iraq's readiness to receive Iranian Muslims visiting the holy shrines, Al-Hakim said: If Saddam is sincere in his claim, let him allow visits by families of prisoners and the return of Iraqi Muslim deportees to their homeland, Iraq.

Al-Hakim urged the prisoners to abide by the teachings of Islam. He also appealed to all world Muslims to mobilize their efforts under the leadership of Imam Khomeyni to fight against world infidelity.

Al-Hakim attacked the reactionary regimes in the area which supported the unjust war against Iran and warned that an end to the war will give imperialism and its agents in the area the opportunity to achieve their evil objectives.

He said that the Iranian Army has sacrificed many of its youths in this war. In view of this, as well as the destruction of hundreds of Muslim villages by the Ba'thist mercenaries, it has no choice but to enter Iraqi territory to defend itself and liberate the Muslim Iraqi people who have asked for the assistance of the Islamic Republic of Iran to save them from the tyranny of the Saddamists.

Hojjat ol-Eslam al-Hakim added: There are several reasons for the entry of the Army of the Islamic Republic into Iraq. These include: regaining the rights of Iranian Muslims, the liberation of the Muslim Iraqi people and saving them from the tyranny of the Iraqi regime. Therefore, Saddam should be fought unless Iranian conditions are met. The entry of Iranian forces into Iraq has Islamic and humanitarian aims.

Our correspondent reports that, during the ceremony which followed the evening prayers and breaking the fast, an Iraqi prisoner expressed the Iraqi prisoners' desire to take part in the war imposed by Saddam's regime on the Islamic Republic.

He said Iraqi prisoners are eagerly awaiting the orders and instructions of Imam Khomeyni to accompany the Iranian Army into Iraq and save their people from the tyranny of the Iraqi regime.

In conclusion, an Iraqi prisoner delivered a poem and declared his allegiance to the nation's imam. He attacked the government of Saddam at-Tikriti.

TEHRAN ATTACKS SADDAM HUSAYN'S PEACE OFFER

GF061305 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 5 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "The Iraqi Ba'thist Regime's Zionist Peace Offer"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: Infidel Saddam, who is the ruler of Iraq within the framework of the ruling Ba'thist Party there, is destroying all the cities and towns he has occupied in Iran under the guise of a purported withdrawal from occupied territory. Under the pretext of withdrawing, Saddam is actually deploying his troops in new positions which are more secure. Meanwhile, Ba'thist rulers continue their widespread propaganda campaign aimed at camouflaging their crimes and securing the maintenance of their dictatorship for a few more days.

The pro-Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist regime's onslaught against our Islamic country has been continuing for about two years now. The Ba'thist Army of Iraq and the criminal United States suddenly attacked our Islamic land when they became dissatisfied with the coming to power in Iran of a mature government, in other words, with the accession to power of a wise government. To put it in simple terms, they attacked Iran after the Iranian Majlis cast its vote of confidence for the Cabinet presented to it by martyr Raja'i.

The Iraqi Ba'thist regime, upon the orders it received from the criminal United States, mercilessly attacked the oppressed Iranian people and their Islamic country with a view to preventing the Islamic revolution from spreading in the region and with a view to obstructing the unity of Muslims under the banner of "there is no God but God" for the commencement of an unwavering struggle against international imperialism and Zionism.

It will be recalled that at the time of the said attack the Iranian Army was not properly organized because of the revolution. According to a number of documents in hand and according to Prime Minister Musavi's short statement made some time ago, the Zionist Iraqi regime had planned to attack Iran a long time ago. It had already completed its preparations and mobilized all its resources for the eventuality. For example, Iraq is on record as having increased its defense budget every year. In fact, it was common knowledge to both friend and foe two years ago that when the Iraqi Army attacked the Islamic Republic it was the strongest and the most well-organized army in the Middle East.

The character of the Zionists should not be judged only on the basis of their tendency to attack, expand and prosper. Volumes of books have been written on this issue. The attack Ba'thist Saddam has launched against our Islamic country has forced our people to endure great suffering and pain. Numerous innocent and defenseless Iranian children, women and men have been martyred, wounded or maimed in the battlezones by the savage artillery bombardment carried out by the Iraqi Ba'thists in the course of their attack, which is aimed at safeguarding the interests of the criminal United States. All our cities, towns and villages in Iran's southern and western regions have been destroyed. Factories and economic establishments in these regions have been totally ruined. The port of Khorramshahr, which once handled the entire load of Iran's foreign trade, has been turned into rubble, dirt and stone. The railway line and the bridges of Khorramshahr have also been destroyed. The criminal assailants have also raped numerous girls and women in Bostan. Numerous youths have been martyred at the battlefronts. Numerous others have been maimed.

Realizing after the liberation of Khorramshahr that his mercenaries would not be able to stand against the Islamic fighters, pro-American Saddam moved to hatch a new conspiracy by declaring he would withdraw from the regions he had occupied. It now seems that he has already withdrawn from various sectors. However, it has become apparent that he has set up and reinforced new positions on a number of hills within the Iranian border.

Meanwhile, Saddam has embarked upon a propaganda campaign to convince the world that his withdrawal is an indication of his wish to establish peace. In fact, he is currently spreading the following view: I favor peace and my withdrawal confirms what I say. However, Iran does not favor peace. It hasn't done so in the past. Iran is for war.

Although Saddam has withdrawn from part of the territory he occupied in the course of the war, he hasn't fully complied with even one of the conditions put forward by Iran. Although Saddam has said he is withdrawing from Iranian soil, he has failed to do so. And, what is more, he has set up new positions within Iran's border and reinforced them. This means there is always the possibility that Saddam will attack again.

How can our people believe, in the face of Saddam's stand, that he will not attack our cities, towns, villages and people? What has occurred to hint that there has been a change in Ba'thist Party's lust for expansion? What is the difference between the intitial days of the war and the present time?

Saddam is currently talking about peace and a cease-fire. However, he continues to maintain his air raids and artillery bombardment against Iran, resulting in the killing or wounding of people every day. Saddam's aircraft are attacking Ilam every day. Abadan and Khorramshahr are targets of the infidel Ba'thists' long-range artillery every day. How can the stand of Ba'thist Saddam inspire any confidence in Iranian villagers and farmers, confidence which will encourage them to go out to work in their destroyed fields? How can our farmers have confidence in Saddam's sincerity and move to repair their damaged property?

It is obvious that the region will remain without tranquillity and security so long as there are obstacles which prevent peace and security and impede unity and solidarity among the Muslims. God willing, the Muslims of the region will enjoy peace, tranquillity and security when the Islamic Republic's conditions for peace are met and when the Zionist and infidel aggressors are penalized. We vest our hopes in such a day.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 968

LD081818 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Communique No 968 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. By spinning a cocoon of fortifications, barriers and minefields as vast as their imagination, the aggressive Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries thought they would become immune from the smashing blows of the victorious combatants of Islam. And now, by their treacherous and destructive deeds, the enemy forces are adding to the shameful load they are carrying. These hard-hearted people should know that the army of Islam will continue to deal fatal and destructive blows to them and that the battle will continue until the aggressive Saddamist mercenaries and the puppet and criminal Iraqi Ba'thist leaders are annihilated. The following report on the situation on the battlefronts of the Iraqi-imposed war is brought to the attention of the Muslim people:

Over the past 24 hours, sporadic exchanges of fire continued from the Qasr-e Shirin region to the Meymak front and the Musian sector. Fire was more intense on the Meymak front, with the combatants of Islam enjoying superior firepower.

The powerful warriors of the ground forces on the Marivan front opened fire on the Saddmists' positions in the Tutmal region and destroyed several bunkers and trenches of the Iraqi forces. The enemy suffered considerable loss and damage.

Exchanges of fire continued on some of the southern fronts yesterday. The gendarmerie on the Abadan front opened fire on enemy positions on the other side of the Arvand Rud and killed or wounded 20 of the Iraqi Ba'thist troops. Damage was also inflicted on the Saddamists' positions and equipment. An ammunition depot and four heavy- and light-weapon emplacements of the enemy were also set ablaze.

Yesterday artillery fire from the Saddamist mercenaries continued to pound Abadan and Khorramshahr. Twenty-three of our dear compatriots in Khorramshahr were wounded.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

TEHRAN REPORTS CONTINUED FIGHTING WITH IRAQ

LD081808 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Text] According to an IRNA correspondent who visited the region of Qasr-e Shirin, Bazi Deraz, (Cham-e Emam Hasan) and part of the border regions yesterday, despite the claims of Baghdad radio that the Iraqi forces have withdrawn to the prewar border lines, the enemy forces still occupy a large area of (Khan Beyli), (Tangab-e Now), (Tangab-e Kohneh), (Chogha Hammam), (Sarkatan) and strategic points of the region along the Sumar and Naftshahr axis. During the recent days, Iraqi forces have continued to pound the regions of Qasr-e Shirin and Sumar and villages in the vicinity of Gilan-e Gharb, in Bakhtaran Province, with artillery and heavy-weapon fire.

According to this report, Saddam at-Tikriti's forces fired 11 shells on the Qasr-e Shirin and (Cham-e Emam Hasan) regions between 1800 and 1930 yesterday evening alone. At 2030 last night, two aggressive Iraqi planes violated the airspace of Qasr-e Shirin and Gilan-e Gharb regions, but timely fire by the ever-vigilant air defense unit of the ground forces confronted them.

Along the Gilan-e Gharb axis, 12 villages have been destroyed by the Saddamists, including (Qeyton Marjan), which has been completely demolished. Another village has been flattened so completely that it seems never to have existed.

The same report indicates that the task of defusing and detonating enemy minefields continues in a vast region along the Gilan-e Gharb-Qasr-e Shirin axis. By yesterday evening, 15,200 antitank, antipersonnel and propelled [kesheshi]-type mines had been discovered and defused. Around 23,000 of the mines planted by the Saddamists were also destroyed in several other large minefields.

INDUSTRIAL, SCIENTIFIC MOBILIZATION DISCUSSED

LD062056 Tehran in English to Europe 1830 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Text] The mode of mobilization of national possibilities to further war was studied today at a session presided over by the minister of defense of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Colonel Salimi. At this gathering Colonel Salimi, with reference to transformations witnessed as the result of the imposed war, said: The meeting was aimed at mobilizing the industrial and scientific possibilities at the disposal of ultimate goals of the imposed war. [sentence as heard] The minister of defense further said: We will increase our combat readiness in such a way that the enemies of Islam would not dare think of invading us in the future.

GHARAZI COMMENTS ON OIL MARKET, DEPARTS

LD082258 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 8 Jul 82

[Excerpts] On the eve of the extraordinary meeting of the OPEC petroleum ministers in Vienna, our country's petroleum minister, accompanied by a delegation representing the Islamic Republic of Iran, has left for Austria.

Before his departure the Iranian petroleum minister commented in an interview with our correspondent on the oil market situation on the eve of this meeting.

He said: The oil market situation, compared with what it was at the time of the previous meeting held in Quito, has not changed very much, except during a short 3-week period.

He added: The change in the market situation during the 3 weeks -- some time between the previous meeting and this extraordinary session -- was caused by Saudi Arabia's overproduction. Saudi Arabia is producing approximately 1.5 million barrels more than the amount it produced at the time of the Quito meeting and is supplying the market. This affected the prices for some time. But, on the eve of the new session, the situation is returning to normal.

The Iranian petroleum minister said of this extraordinary session of OPEC petroleum ministers, to be held 9-10 July 1982 in Vienna: Because of the sensitivity of the market situation, OPEC has decided to hold an extraordinary meeting before its next ordinary session in order to review the market situation. During this meeting the OPEC stance will be determined for this period.

Commenting on Iran's position in the extraordinary OPEC session, the petroleum minister said: Iran defends the idea of OPEC's maximum daily production being 17.5 million barrels.

According to our correspondent, Iran has always supported the idea of a 17.5-million-barrel ceiling for OPEC's production. But Iran also believes that within OPEC's overall agreed framework some of Iran's export share, which has been assumed by Saudi Arabia in the last 2 years during the aggression by the Iraqi regime against Iran, should be returned to Iran.

CLANDESTINE ON ARREST, IMPRISONMENT OF OPPONENTS

NC061412 (Clandestine) Voice of Iran in Persian 1805 GMT 5 Jul 82

[Summary] Our correspondent has reported that revolution guards "with the close cooperation of SAVAMA agents arrested (?800) opponents of the clerical regime during the past 48 hours." Our correspondent adds that all these people were arrested on Saturday and Sunday "and were immediately taken to four prisons in the capital.

"The arrest of these people was the regime's reaction to the revolutionary execution of Sheykh Mohammad Sadduqi. This savage act by the clergy has plunged Tehran families into deep terror and most of the capital's inhabitants prevent their children from leaving home."

Our correspondent reports that the sound of shots were heard on (?Monday) around Evin Prison. "A reliable source said that Khomeyni's revolution guards fired in the air to disperse a crowd that had gathered around the prison.

The clerical regime, feeling compelled to show a reaction to the arrest of these (?800) opponents, claimed that these people were veteran smugglers."

The last report by our correspondent states that (?most) of the arrested people are "members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq Organization."

TEHRAN CARRIES AFGHAN REBEL OFFICIAL'S STATEMENT

LD062336 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 6 Jul 82

[Statement by Mr Mazari, representative of the Nasr movement of Afghanistan, to the Muslim people of Afghanistan -- date not given -- recorded]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. More than 2 years have passed since the military occupation of Afghanistan by Russia, but from the military point of view Russia has been completely defeated in Afghanistan and is confusedly seeking a way out of this (?mess). It is seeking some behind-the-scenes discussion and is thinking of forming [as heard] the National Fatherland Front [NFF]. This NFF is composed of the same landowners, capitalists and masters who thought they were behind the revolution in Afghanistan.

They returned the land and capital to the farmers in order to extinguish the people's revolution. However, this was nothing but a dream and the revolution is still moving forward [words indistinct]. The only thing they have managed to do is to send their mercenaries to spy in the liberated regions. They are also creating discord and waging conflict between various minorities. They create discord among various parties. In the northern regions, in (?Sarkani) and Qaleh-ye Sarkari [word indistinct], this NFF has waged a destructive war.

We call upon the martyr-rearing and heroic nation of Afghanistan to maintain its revolutionary vigilance and expel these Russian mercenaries. We call upon them to ignore these treacherous feudal chiefs and maintain their unity of word. Without unity of word, they will not be able to expel this criminal from the East from Afghanistan.

Another very dangerous problem Afghanistan is facing today has colonial roots. Russian colonialism has today created the same problem as that of the British era -- the problem of racial discrimination.

When the British found that they were unable to confront this heroic nation, they raised the issue of racial differences in order to create (?discord). Soltan 'Ali Keshtmand, this traitor and agent of Russia, is stressing the issue of differences among the Persian-speaking and other nationalities like Uzbek, Hazara, Tajik and the rest, while [names indistinct] stress the main issue.

At this point it is essential that the heroic nation of Afghanistan take care and avoid being deceived by this poisonous propaganda. This is colonial propaganda and they should maintain their unity of word today because [words indistinct] are the enemies of Islam and the Koran and enemies of the faith of the Muslim people of Afghanistan. Neither these criminals nor the treacherous Keshtmand are friends of Pashtun and Hazara, Turkman or Tajik. They are all helpless against your heroic struggle and hatched this conspiracy and plot to separate you from one another. This way they hope to achieve their sinister goals of destroying the Koran, Islam and your faith.

Another issue at this point in history is the problem of the military occupation by Zionism -- the usurping Israelis -- of southern Lebanon. This is extremly painful and tragic and Russia is pounding the Muslims in another place.

The East and West have joined in a united front against the Muslims and the oppressed. Thus, one is pounding them in Lebanon and Russia is pounding them in Afghanistan. The reactionary countries of the region have remained silent.

Since we condemn this occupation, we announce our support for the revolutionary deeds of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran. We call upon all the world's Muslims and oppressed to form a united front against international arrogance, headed by America and Russia. We call upon them to form this front under the wise leadership of the imam of the Islamic nation, the great Khomeyni, in order to have the power to resist these aggressors.

Although we have hundreds of thousands of martyrs, imprisoned friends and homeless men and women in Afghanistan, we are prepared to send forces from Afghanistan, from mujahidin, to southern Lebanon in order to take part in a united Islamic front against Zionism, because in Islam there is no question of death; there is only the issue of faith [word indistinct] and belief. We are ready to send volunteers if a united Islamic front is formed against Zionism, in order to remove this cancerous tumor from the heart of our Islamic land, as our great imam has said.

BRIEFS

TEHRAN-QOM HIGHWAY OPENED -- Tehran, June 27, IRNA -- The 127-km-long Tehran-Qom highway was opened for traffic this morning. The work on the highway which is the first one connecting Tehran to the holy city of Qom, 130 kms south of Tehran, started some eight years ago and has cost 12.3 billion rials. The opening of the highway coincided with the first anniversary of the martyrdom of over 70 officials in the bombing of the central headquarters of the Islamic Republic Party in Tehran last June. The opening ceremony was attended by the minister of roads and transport, Mohammad Hadinezhad-Hoseyniyan, Majlis deputies and families to the June 28th martyrs. Hadinezhad-Hoseyniyan told IRNA that part of the work of the highway was in the hands of the Iranian and foreign contractors but since they did not accomplish much finally three years ago the late minister of roads and transport, Musa Kalantari, gave the contract to the reconstruction jihad which saw to the completion of the road. This road is part of a road system linking northern Iran with the southern Persian Gulf ports and bears the heaviest overland trade within Iran. [Text] [Tehran IRNA in English 1925 GMT 27 Jun 82 LD]

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

13 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Lebanese-PLO Agreement -- PLO Executive Chairman Yasir 'Arafat and Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan have reached agreement on the deployment of a multinational force before the evacuation of the Palestinian fighters from Beirut, the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio announced early on 13 July. The previous day, 'Arafat's political adviser Hani al-Hasan said the PLO had agreed with the Lebanese Government on a solution to the crisis that would provide for: an Israeli withdrawal south of the Beirut-Damascus road, the deployment of international forces to separate the combatants and guarantee security inside the Palestinian camps and the organization of a Palestinian political presence in Lebanon, Beirut radio reported. Meanwhile, after a meeting with U.S. envoy Philip Habib, Al-Wazzan denied he had received an 11-point plan from 'Arafat but said he knows many of the ideas the Palestinians have adopted, according to the radio.

A Voice of Palestine radio commentary stressed that if Israel insists on using the PLO's "flexible" stand as an excuse to adopt a harder line, the PLO will reject Israel's conditions and fight them with all means.

Israeli Position -- Israel "categorically" rejects the PLO's 11-point peace plan, which was submitted to Israeli Foreign Ministry Director General David Kimche and two IDF generals in Beirut by U.S. envoy Habib, IDF radio reported early on 13 July. The radio notes the plan providing for the disengagement of forces supervised by a multinational force, negotiations and then the departure of the "terrorists" overland for Syria, contains "dangerous practical problems." The "terrorists" might profit from the IDF withdrawal by leaving or reinforcing the city, the radio said, and it is not yet clear whether Syria can be persuaded to receive them. In a related report on Kimche's visit to Beirut, Jerusalem radio said there was no breakthrough in the talks. Citing Israeli sources close to the negotiations, the radio said that while progress was made on some points, no progress has yet been made on setting the date for the removal of the "terrorists" and their destination.

Earlier, the radio reported that Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon told air force officers that time is running out for envoy Habib. After the 11 July Cabinet meeting, an Israeli official said the Cabinet would probably decide within 2 or 3 days on new military steps in Beirut -- though not an all-out assault -- if the talks are still bogged down, THE JERUSALEM POST reported. Meanwhile, MA'ARIV said Israel has warned the PLO through intermediaries that it is playing with fire and bringing its end closer.

Regarding U.S. reports that President Ronald Reagan has warned Israel against obstructing the negotiations and has mentioned the possibility of U.S.-PLO contacts, IDF radio said the reference is to an exchange of messages on 8 July in which Reagan called on Israel to relax the siege of Beirut and Prime Minister Menahem Begin gave a reply sufficient to meet Reagan's requests and conclude the entire issue.

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- The cease-fire was holding and Beirut was calm, according to Beirut radio reports on 12 and 13 July. However, the Voice of Palestine reported that sniper fire continued and that several PLO groups raided positions behind Israeli lines on the night of 11-12 July, damaging military equipment.

Syrian soldiers clashed with Israeli forces near the cease-fire line, resulting in three IDF soldiers wounded, IDF radio reported. On 11 July, IDF soldiers clashed with Yemeni combatants in eastern Lebanon and six Yemenis were killed, according to Jerusalem radio.

Arab Summit -- Syria welcomed the call by Tunisia to hold an extraordinary summit conference of Arab states to discuss the Lebanon situation, Damascus radio reported. Tunis radio said that so far 11 states including Libya, Kuwait, the YAR, the UAE and the PDRY agreed to attend the summit. On the other hand, Sudanese President Ja'far Numayri, in an interview with a Cairo paper reported by SUNA, said he does not support holding this conference now because it will be an angry meeting without a well-studied program for action.

Israel

The West Bank civilian administration on 11 July dissolved the Dayr Dibwan Municipal Council because it would not cooperate with the authorities, HA'ARETZ reported.

Gulf Cooperation Council

The GCC Ministerial Council released a statement on 13 July at the end of its session warning Israel of the consequences of its occupation of Lebanon and the "exploding conditions" which could result, SPA reported. The council called for efforts to end the Iran-Iraq war, expressed appreciation for Iraq's position on withdrawing and negotiating and asked Iran to respond to spare the region "any escalation of the dispute."

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Saddam Husayn Warning -- Iraqi President Saddam Husayn warned Iran that if it attacks Iraq, the Iraqis will fight more fiercely than in 1980, INA reported. He denied Iranian claims that Iraq is preparing to attack Iran and said this is an "outright lie" to justify an Iranian offensive.

Iranian Comments -- In an interview reported by Tehran radio, Iranian Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati said Iran is close to its main goal of liberating the Iraqi people from Saddam Husayn. He questioned the value of the UN Security Council special session on ending the war and said it is up to Iran to "vindicate its rights." A related radio commentary claimed Iran is about to "end this imposed war through a grand and historic battle" which will topple Saddam Husayn and the Ba'th Party.

Military Front -- In recent fighting, 38 Iranians and 4 Iraqis were killed, INA reported. An Iranian communique reported by Tehran radio spoke of intense fighting on the Khorramshahr and Abadan fronts.

Iran

FRG Relations -- The Iranian Embassy and consulates in the FRG resumed official business after being closed since 1 July to protest the expulsion of Iranians, Hamburg DPA reported.

Security Operations -- Out of 380 "counterrevolutionaries" found in Urumiyeh, 80 were killed and 95 were wounded in a series of operations, Tehran radio claimed. In Arak, 30 members of a "minigroup" were arrested, according to JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI.

HAQ SENDS MESSAGES TO LEBANESE LEADERS

BK111711 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 1500 GMT 11 Jul 82

[Text] President Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq has assured Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis that Pakistan will spare no effort to restore peace and stability in Lebanon as soon as possible. He was replying today to an appeal made by President Ilyas Sarkis to all heads of state, seeking their assistance in saving Beirut from imminent disaster.

Gen Mohammad Ziaul Haq informed the Lebanese president that the suffering and difficulties being faced by the people of Lebanon in the wake of Israel's ruthless military assault has deeply moved the people and the Government of Pakistan. He said we fully realize that every possible effort should be made to save the lives of hundreds of thousands of innocent civilians and to protect Beirut.

He said massive losses of life and the large-scale destruction of property -- which has rendered hundreds of thousands of people homeless in Lebanon -- has made it imperative for the international community to take immediate steps to stop Israel from pursuing genocide in Lebanon.

President Mohammad Ziaul Haq said that Pakistan has always enjoyed cordial relations with Lebanon. He assured President Ilyas Sarkis that Pakistan will spare no effort for Lebanon to regain its universal respect and to protect its territorial integrity, independence and sovereignty. Meanwhile, the people of Pakistan are making every effort to send relief supplies to Lebanese and Palestinian victims of fighting in Lebanon.

In a separate message to Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan, the president said that ever since Israeli armed forces launched their unprovoked invasion of Lebanon, the people and the Government of Pakistan have been closely following the escalating barbarity of the Israeli military operations with anguish and concern.

He said the massacre of innocent men, women and children and the staggering devastation caused in the brotherly country of Lebanon has filled our hearts with profound sorrow and indignation. The government and the people of Pakistan have repeatedly voiced their unequivocal condemnation of Israeli barbarism, which constitutes not only a violation of the territorial sovereignty of an independent brotherly country, but also violates all the norms of the civilized world.

The president said although our resources are limited, the Pakistani nation has been mobilizing all its efforts to extend moral and material support to victims of Israeli aggression.

Both messages from the president were delivered to the Lebanese ambassador in Pakistan, who was called to the Foreign Office this afternoon.

BK110706 Karachi Domestic Service in English 1700 GMT 10 Jul 82

The main items of exports from Pakistan will be cotton textiles, dry fruits, medicinal herbs, cigarettes and razor blades.

Imports from China will include printed clothes, woolen blankets, quilts and quilt covers, agricultural power tillers, agricultural implements, hardware and farm tools. PRC DELEGATION LEADER STRESSES CLOSE TIES

GF091111 Karachi DAWN in English 5 Jul 82 p 6

[Text] Lahore, July 4 -- Haji Yefu Abdul Hamid, leader of the 13-member Chinese trade delegation now visiting Pakistan, today stressed close friendship between Pakistan and China and said that the two people supported each other politically, economically, culturally and in other fields.

He was speaking during a visit to the Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry here this afternoon.

He said the visit by the trade delegation would further strengthen the bonds of friendship which was already higher than the Karakorams.

Haji Yefu Abdul Hamid said that ever since the start of border trade 14 years ago, the relations between the two countries had been greatly strengthened. He described the Karakoram highway as a permanent monument of friendship between the two countries.

Earlier the president of the chamber, Mr Abdul Qayyum Bhatty, in an address of welcome, said that Pakistan-China friendship, based on the principles of international peace, sovereign equality and noninterference in the internal affairs of each other, had stood the test of time. China, he said, had always stood by Pakistan in its hours of need.

He said that the friendship between the two countries had found expression in many forms. Besides the world famous Karakoram highway, there are many other monuments like heavy machinery complex, the heavy forge and foundry and a number of other industrial projects set-up with the Chinese assistance are indicative of the growing cooperation between the two sides.

He said that private sector in Pakistan would like to significantly increase industrial, commercial and economic cooperation with China.

Mr Mumtaz Ahmed Khan, president of the Pakistan-China friendship association, also spoke on the occasion and said that friendship between the two countries was everlasting. He said that a silver jubilee of the friendship association would be celebrated in November this year and invited the members of the delegation to come back to participate in the ceremonies connected with the occasion. Later he distributed friendship badges between the members of the delegation.

Earlier talking to newsmen at the airport he said that the border trade between Pakistan and China was greatly contributing towards further consolidation of friendship between the two countries.

He said his delegation and Pakistani officials, by signing border trade agreement in Gilgit last week, had accomplished the task assigned to them by their government satisfactorily, in a quite friendly atmosphere. -- APP

GF101200 Karachi DAWN in English 7 Jul 82 p 1

[Text] Iran has signed contracts with Pakistani exporters for import of goods worth 30 million dollars including 50,000 tons of wheat, under a long-term trade agreement between the two countries.

Informed sources said within two months of the agreement, which was signed in April last, the response had been quite encouraging although Pakistani exporters were faced with a number of handicaps.

According to figures presented before a meeting of a high-level standing committee to monitor the Pakistani-Iran agreement, contracts have been signed between Pakistan and Iranian parties for a variety of goods, including cloth, yarn, canvas, paper sacks, chemicals, gum powder, jute bags, leather goods, sewing thread and plaster of paris bandages, besides wheat.

Sources said a contract for 50 power-looms had also been signed for export to Iran.

Major problems faced by Pakistani exporters include difficulties in obtaining Iranian visas, high cargo freight charges of Iranian airlines as no PIA flight is available for Tehran, and lack of refrigerated containers for shipment of poultry and eggs.

All exporters have to register their contracts with the Iranian cell of the export promotion bureau so that a proper check is maintained on flow of exports, and the targets fixed in the trade agreement are met.

Exporters also have to obtain a certificate of origin for all goods exported to Iran.

Besides the long-term trade agreement, Pakistan and Iran have signed an overland route pact under which each side would send goods worth up to Rs. 20 million by land routes.

IRAQIS STAGE 'GRAND' PROTEST MARCH IN TEHRAN

GF111336 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 11 Jul 82

[Excerpt] According to the Central News Unit, at the invitation of the combatant clergy of Iraq, a grand march was staged today by the Muslim brothers and sisters of Iraq who live in Tehran against the Zionist Ba'thist Party of Iraq in Tehran on the first day of the observation of "Iraq in Fetters" week.

At the beginning of this march, the Muslim brothers and sisters of Iraq resident in Tehran congregated in Imam Khomeyni Square and then marched toward the Islamic Majlis. In front of the Islamic Majlis, participants in the procession shouted slogans of hatred for the Ba'thist Party of Iraq, and demanded the establishment of an Islamic government as soon as possible and the overthrow of the Saddam regime in Iraq.

According to the Central News Unit correspondent, in this gathering the son of Ayatollah Mohammad Baqarsadr and Hojjat ol-Eslam Hakim demanded the establishment of the government of God in Iraq in their address and asked the shackled Muslims of Iraq to rise up and topple the Ba'thist regime of Iraq and to annihilate Saddam and the Saddamists as their Muslim Iranian brothers and sisters did.

Then Islamic Majlis Deputy Mohammad Yazdi said in his speech: We will stand by you until the last moment against the infidel Saddam as it is our divine obligation. Iraq is in fetters and it is the duty of all the Muslims to liberate Iraq from these trammels.

IRANIAN LEADERS ASKED TO LIBERATE IRAQ

GF111337 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 11 Jul 82

[Excerpts] Following the immense march held at the request of the society of the Iraqi combatant clergy, a resolution was issued by the society and read. In the resolution, the leaders and the officials of the Islamic Republic have been asked to liberate Iraq from the claws of the Saddamist regime and its innumerable criminal acts.

The resolution states: We believe that the liberation of Jerusalem and the fight against the Zionist occupiers requires the participation of the Islamic nations. We have certain faith that this matter and Iraq's liberation cannot become a reality except by cleansing Iraq of the filth of the Satanic mercenaries. We ask Iran not to allow the regime of Saddam to become the host of the nonaligned nation's conference and represent the Iraqi nation by using any political or military means at its disposal, since it would be an excuse to gain a reputation which [that regime] would use to crush the Muslim and imprisoned Iraqi people.

We ask the United Nations, the Nonaligned Movement and the Islamic countries to officially recognize our rights as the people of Iraq to live in our country. [We ask for] the quick facilitation of the return of all the Iraqis forced out of their country and the unconditional return of our confiscated belongings and plundered wealth to our families by the Ba'thist and anti-Islamic Iraqi elements.

We ask for the formation of a committee to look into the criminal actions of the Ba'thist rulers in Islamic Iraq and to inform the world about the Muslim political prisoners that the mass media of the West and the mercenary newspapers of the East and the West in the region have shamelessly closed their eyes on at the orders of the superpowers and financed by the reactionary rulers of the area.

We ask for official recognition of Saddam as the initiator of the war which aims at destroying the Islamic revolution, weakening the manpower of the Muslim countries and lowering their military and economic wealth.

We ask the nonaligned countries not to hold their conference in Baghdad since the mercenary Ba'thist regime of Iraq is not the representative of the oppressed Iraqi nation and is only its own representative. Therefore, holding the nonaligned conference in Baghdad -- considering the presence of the Iraqi criminal Ba'thist regime -- is a sign of support for fascism and is a criminal and unfriendly act against the afflicted Iraqi nation.

We ask all the governments of Islamic countries who claim to be defendants of Islam to return to Islam, avoid reliance on the East or the West and put their military and economic facilities at the disposal of the Iraqi Muslims and the Islamic Republic of Iran for the liberation of Iraq from the rule of the infidel Ba'thists so that they can be mobilized for the true desires of the people and with the will of the Almighty make the Islamic revolution in Iraq victorious.

VELAYATI: IRAQI NATION DEMANDING IRANIAN HELP

LD122116 Tehran IRNA in English 2020 GMT 12 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, 12 Jul (IRNA) -- Foreign Minister Velayati said here today that the resolution the thousands of Iraqi demonstrators released yesterday in Tehran, asking the Islamic Republic to overthrow the Iraqi regime through a direct military attack, proved that Saddam's regime was intolerable for the Iraqi nation.

The Iraqi nation has been demanding the Islamic Republic's help for a long time, Velayati added.

Referring to certain Turkish dailies which have been warning about an Iranian military attack and threatening that the United States and Turkey would not be silent towards such an intervention, the foreign minister, while hoping this was not the Turkish Government's position, said that if the US and these dailies were really seeking justice and humanistic aspirations, they should have said something during the 22 months of brutal Iraqi aggression against Iran. And if their design is to create an atmosphere of threat, he added, the Islamic Republic has proved that it will not be terrified by such attempts.

Analysing the upcoming session of the UN Security Council to be held to study the ways of finding a diplomatic settlement for the Iraq-Iran war, Velayati said that the Security Council, having been totally mute vis-a-vis the two year savage attack of Iraqi troops on Iranian territory, would lose the rest of its prestige if it didn't consider the rightful positions of Iran. He said this is necessary especially when the Islamic army was in a position to gain what the Iraqis had robbed and when the Iraqi forces were still stationed in certain parts of Iranian territory, shelling residential areas, despite their ceasefire claims.

Velayati, who is going to attend the non-aligned foreign ministers' session in Nicosia on Thursday, to study the Zionist invasion of Lebanon, went on to say that US imperialism, assisted by its regional allies, had prepared the grounds for current Zionist military aggression a long time ago through strengthening its militaristic stance and designing diplomatic plots such as the Camp David accord and Fahd plan.

This brutal military move of the Zionists, he added, was practically confronted by the Palestinian and Lebanese combatants as well as the Islamic Republic. Meanwhile Velayati said reactionaries of the region were awakening to see how the US-inspired peace plans changed faces and turned into the bloody massacre of the Palestinian and Lebanese people.

Talking about the deportation of Iranian students from West Germany and the closure of Iranian diplomatic offices in West Germany, the foreign minister emphasised that the Islamic Republic would do anything to protect the rights of Iranians abroad, especially where revolutionary Muslim students were concerned. These students were defenders of the Islamic revolution throughout the world, he added.

VELAYATI: CLOSE TO GOAL OF LIBERATING IRAQIS

LD121848 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 12 Jul 82

[Text] Interviewed by IRNA, Foreign Minister Mr Velayati made some remarks on the Islamic combatants' advancing inside Iraqi territory, on the UN Security Council's desperate efforts to issue a solution on the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist regime's aggression against Iran, on the need for the speedy formation of the Jerusalem corps and on the deportation of Iranian Muslim students from West Germany.

Replying to our correspondent's question on the possibility of an advance by Islamic combatants inside Iraqi territory, he said: The Iraqi Muslim nation, considering the Islamic atmosphere in Iran and aware of the Iranian nation's Islam-seeking sense, has long been asking us to hasten to its aid.

Mr Velayati added: The Islamic Republic of Iran has behind it many of the difficult stages of achieving this desire and has drawn close to the main goal, which is the liberation of the Iraqi people from the clutches of Saddam's monstrous rule.

It is natural that the Iraqi nation has become more hopeful about the achievement of this desire. The best help for the Iraqi Muslim nation is to rid it of the sinister shadow of Saddam's Ba'thist-Zionist regime.

Regarding the UN Security Council special session to find a political solution to end the Iraqi Ba'thist regime's aggression against Iran and the Islamic Republic of Iran's position vis-a-vis this desperate effort, Mr Velayati said: We really have the right to ask the United Nations and its Security Council: How is it that after 2 years you have just thought about the case of Saddam's war imposed on the Islamic Republic of Iran? Does this mean that Saddam's government is on the verge of fall and destruction? Where were you when our country's integrity and the basis of the Islamic Republic of Iran were threatened by the Iraqi mercenaries? Has one single word been uttered by the vast United Nations in condemnation of this wild aggressor? Since nothing of the sort happened, why should we attach any value to this session?

Mr Velayati also said: The aggressive Iraqi Army has been inside the territory of the Islamic Republic of Iran for about 2 years and the Security Council has held no session for this illegal and savage occupation; but now that we are vindicating our lost rights it is making noises. We suggest to the Security Council that it be on the side of justice and help Iran to at least preserve the rest of its credibility so that Iran might regain its rights.

Our country's foreign minister said with reference to the continuation of the Iraqi aggressors' presence in Iranian territory and the heavy-weapon and long-range artillery attacks of the Iraqi Ba'thist regime's mercenaries on our country's border cities:

In our opinion about 2 years is a long time to wait for justice. Now we have proved in practice that justice is something to be obtained and that it is vain to sit and wait for others to help. Our oppressed nation will vindicate its rights; even if there are some people in the United Nations who oppose this vindication of justice.

Asked what measures have been taken to date toward the formation of the Jerusalem corps, our country's foreign minister said: No practical and encourging measure has been taken by Islamic countries toward the formation of the Jerusalem corps. But Iran continues to be firm in its position, believes that victory over the aggressive Zionism will be achieved only under the shadow of Muslim unity, and has proved its belief in this matter in practice through the deployment of combatant forces to Syria and Lebanon and through practical participation in this battle.

NC131026 Paris AFP in English 1015 GMT 13 Jul 82

[Text] Istanbul, July 13 (AFP) -- Iran will launch a major assault on Iraq July 16 to mark the third Friday in the Moslem holy month of Ramadan, Ayatollah Tabrizi, a special envoy of Iranian spiritual leader Ayatollah Khomeyni, said here today.

Iraq has declared a ceasefire in the conflict with Iran and has announced that all its troops have now been withdrawn from captured Iranian territory.

The envoy also claimed that a force of some three to five thousand Iranian soldiers is now in Syria to assist Syrian units in their confrontation with the Israelis in Lebanon.

The ayatollah is part of a three-member Iranian delegation that is headed for Syria where, he said, a call will be made to Islamic countries to unite against Israel.

IRAQ CONTINUES TO OCCUPY IRANIAN TERRITORY

LD121800 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 12 Jul 82

[Text] According to an IRNA report, despite the enemy's empty claims about complete withdrawal from the occupied territories of our Islamic homeland, the mercenary forces of Saddam, who are occupying strategic heights, savagely bring Qasr-e Shirin, Naftshahr and residential areas in the villages in the west of the country under intense fire every day. According to the same report, the mercenary enemy can rebuild its forces from the same places, which are very important from a military point of view, in order to start new aggressions.

This report states that the Aqda heights, which overlook Qasr-e Shirin and from where the enemy attacks this steadfast city, as well as Bamou and the Bavaisi heights, the north of (Qaritang), Hobah and (Tangegan) and the left bank of the Qaratu River are still under the occupation of the Ba'thist enemy. The heights south of Naftshahr, Shahmana, Tang-e Hammam, Bishgan, Mianpanj, Bahramabad and Mehran Hill 343, as well as Yown al-Kosh, Helkaleh and Shur-e Shirin are still under the occupation of the aggressive enemy. In addition, some parts in the south of the Islamic homeland are under the occupation of the aggressors, including Shalamcheh and the area from this border region up to the Arvand Rud. From these areas the enemy continually brings the forces of Islam, as well as Abadan and Khorramshahr, under its artillery fire and each day it martyrs a number of civilians and fighters of Islam.

TEHRAN REBUTS IRAQI WITHDRAWAL CLAIMS

GF121450 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 7 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "The Iran-Iraq War and the Question of Withdrawal"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: The widespread propaganda campaign being waged by the pro-Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist administration over its purported withdrawal, its desire for a cease-fire and its wish for a peaceful solution is indicative of the fact that the regime has resorted to a vile policy aimed at rectifying and strengthening its shaken authority. The Ba'thist administration, which clamors every day and every hour that it has vacated the areas it had occupied in Iran, continues to hold a number of regions of strategic importance, regardless of what it says.

In order to maintain their control over the areas of strategic importance in Iran and in order to legalize their move, the aggressive forces have changed the location of a number of international borderlines between the two countries and then moved to mislead the world by withdrawing from a number of occupied areas.

Needless to say, withdrawing does not mean a total withdrawal from Iranian soil. Obviously, they have withdrawn to areas of strategic importance and set up their new positions in them. In fact, they are currently shelling nearby cities and villages from those areas. In pursuance of this policy, the aggressive Iraqi forces have moved their positions to the heights around Takyeh and (Khoveyn). They have also abandoned the ruins of Qasr-e Shirin, (Norsen), Sumar and Naftshahr only to set up positions on the heights around them.

The aggressive Saddam forces, who claim that they have withdrawn from Iran, have been shelling already-destroyed Qasr-e Shirin with heavy artillery for the past 2 days. Furthermore, the aggressive Iraqi forces still maintain their occupation of 11 important villages in Iran's (Norsen) border region. Apart from this, reports in hand say that enemy forces also control villages in the (?valleys of) (Akhramir), (Bayat), (Bagheh), (Savap), (Rud), Jamhendi, (?Yengezeh), Khaveh, (Abuveyr) and [name indistinct]. All this proves that the claim put forward by the pro-Zionist Ba'thist regime that Iraqi forces have withdrawn from occupied Iranian soil is unfounded and untrue. Meanwhile, at a time when the imperialist mass media continue to report that the Iraqi forces are maintaining their unilaterally declared cease-fire, Abadan, Khorramshahr, Ilam and other Iranian regions are being subjected to artillery and air bombardment.

The fighting still going on between the Islamic forces and the aggressive supporters of Saddam and the Iranian presidential centers still being heavily bombed by the pro-Zionist Ba'thist administration regarding its withdrawal from Iran and its decision to cease fire are out of place and untrue.

However, let us assume that the mercenary Saddam administration has withdrawn from the territory it had occupied in Iran. This would mean that only one of the conditions set by Iran to bring the war to an end has been realized. Therefore, the Islamic forces will continue the war against the mercenary Iraqi Ba'thist administration until the remaining four Iranian conditions are realized.

The Muslims of Iran know well that the mercenary Ba'thist administration is the major obstacle preventing the Islamic Republic of Iran from clashing with the Zionist Israeli administration. In view of this, they will never surrender to the conspiracies hatched by the imperialist propaganda media which support Saddam, nor will they allow international oppressors and Zionists to achieve their disgusting objective -- in other words to save Saddam and the Ba'th Party. The Islamic (?fighters) will continue their heroic struggle until they achieve their ultimate objective and until the pro-Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist administration is overthrown.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 972

[Communique No 972 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. We express our condolences on the anniversary of the martyrdom of the first brilliant star of the imamate, the embodiment of bravery, the lord of the pious, 'Ali, may God's peace be upon him, to his holiness the lord of the age, the hidden imam, may God hasten his glad advent, and his deputy Imam Khomeyni, the illustrious leader of the revolution and commander in chief of the armed forces, and to all the Muslims of the world, especially the dear compatriots. We bring to your attention the deeds and self-sacrifices yesterday of those who follow 'Ali's path and who, with utmost courage and steadfastness on the battlefronts, have rushed against the deceived mercenaries of Saddam.

As a result of exchanges of fire on the Salehbad and Meymak fronts, one truck belonging to the Iraqi forces was destroyed and the fire of the Ba'thist mercenaries was stopped.

In the Naftshahr region, an exchange of fire which began at dawn yesterday continues between our forces and the mercenaries of the Ba'thist regime.

After stationing troops in the Mishijan region and strengthening and consolidating their positions, the self-sacrificing forces of the gendarmerie confronted the enemy. During the past few days they inflicted losses on the Iraqi Ba'thist forces in the Shur-e Shirin region. On the Marivan and Paveh fronts, exchange of fire continues between our forces and the enemy. As a result of heavy-weapon fire by the ground forces, a number of ammunition and supply depots of Saddam's forces were destroyed and some of their personnel were killed in the Sheykhan, (Dargah) and Toveyleh areas.

Yesterday on most of the southern fronts exchanges of artillery and other heavy-weapon fire continued between the victorious forces of Islam and the Ba'thist mercenaries of Iraq. Firing was more intense on the Khorramshahr fronts than on other fronts. On the Abadan front, as the result of the fire of the heroic forces of the gendarmerie directed against the Saddamist forces on the other side of the Arvand Rud, 1 ammunition depot and 10 trenches and foxholes were set on fire and more than 15 of the enemy soldiers were killed or wounded. The heroic units of the navy destroyed a number of observation posts and their crew.

Yesterday Abadan and Khorramshahr came under artillery and other heavy-weapon fire from the aggressive Ba'thists. As a result, 1 person was martyred and 30 others were wounded.

Aggressive Iraqi aircraft yesterday several times tried to violate the airspace over Abadan and the southern ports but were repulsed as a result of heavy fire from the antiaircraft units of the forces of Islam.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

GF121502 Tehran ETTELA'AT in Persian 1 Jul 82 p 4

[Excerpts] Urumiyeh (IRNA) -- The oppressive lackey elements of the world and the mischiefmongers affiliated to the defunct mercenary Democrat Party, whose members tremble before the Islamic combatants, martyred the director of the clinic of the district organization of the West Azarbayjan Health Department, along with three others, in an unfortunate incident. They also stole their ambulance.

ANTIREGIME ORGANIZATION DESTROYED IN ARAK

GF120905 Tehran JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI in Persian 26 Jun 82 p 4

[Text] Arak -- With the persistence of the Islamic revolutionary prosecutor and court and the day and night efforts of the Arak Islamic revolution guards, the minigroup organization acting against the Islamic government in this city was completely overthrown.

Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadiani, the Islamic revolution prosecutor of Arak, in a private interview with an IRNA reporter, after announcing that all the members and the supporters of the hypocrites minigroup that were working in Arak have been arrested, said: A few days ago, thanks to the efforts of the guards, we succeeded in finding the place in which the minigroup members meet. After killing the military official of this minigroup and arresting 30 working members, we found different kinds of arms and advertisements and recorded them.

On the trial of these criminals, Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadiani also said: Up to now we have arrested more than 500 members and supporters of minigroups in Arak and sent them to prison. Twenty-nine of these people were hanged. Some others were freed after investigation. Those left are still in prison.

He said that prison is the bast place for these people to learn how to choose the right way of living. There are ideology classes, libraries and speeches made by religious leaders and the revolution guards for the prisoners in prison.

Hojjat ol-Eslam Qadiani, the Islamic revolution prosecutor of Arak, regarding the part of the Constitution that says judgment is only the responsibility of the courts, said: Hopefully, by choosing responsible judges from revolutionary courts and prosecuting offices, there will be a court system developed just like that indicated in the Constitution. Then, hopefully, this court system will be able to put the laws passed in the Majlis into effect.

BOMB-PLANTING NETWORK DISCOVERED IN WEST

LD121742 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 12 Jul 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, the Public Relations Office of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps has announced that following the discovery of a spying and bomb-planting network associated with the criminal Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi regime, bomb-planting agents have been arrested in Bakhtaran, Arak and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab. The text of the announcement is as follows:

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. The aggressive Ba'thist-Zionist regime ruling in Iraq, which has no other objective than to foment disruption in the region and to implement the policies of world arrogance, continues its barbaric crimes. Simultaneously with the bombing of Arab and Muslim inhabitants of Khuzestan and pouring shells on our country's border towns, it shamelessly resorts to murdering the Islamic people by sending terrorists and saboteurs. The self-sacrificers of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, assisted by the Hezbollahi nation, have uncovered a spying and bomb-planting network associated with the criminal Ba'thist-Zionist regime ruling in Iraq. The network was discovered in the Javanrud and Bakhtaran regions and those agents involved in it have been arrested. The group, which was directly supplied by the Iraqi Ba'th Party with explosives, arms and money, was involved in planting bombs in Bakhtaran, Arak and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab before the start of the war with Iraq.

The Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, stressing once again the need to overthrow the American, bloodthirsty regime ruling in Iraq, warns the Zionist rulers of that country that it will avenge the blood of the dear Islamic people shed by these surrogates of international Zionism. There is no alternative to the overthrow of Saddam and the 'Aflaqi Ba'thist Party.

19 JULY 1982

Iran-Iraq Conflict

Military Situation -- After Iranian forces failed to penetrate Iraqi territory on 13-14 July, the enemy was allowed to advance into Iraqi territory before being surrounded and destroyed, an Iraqi Armed Forces communique carried by Baghdad radio reported. Another communique carried by the radio on 17 July claimed Iranian forces were pursued near Basra and the enemy lost many men in the central battle sector of Iraq. It added that Khark Island was again bombed and admitted that one Iraqi plane was shot down. An armed forces communique carried by INA on 18 July said the battle raged near Basra and a helicopter raid successfully destroyed enemy positions in the area. It said 3,000 were killed in the Basra area alone, while Baghdad radio reported earlier that over 6,000 were killed and over 100 tanks were destroyed from 13 to 15 July.

For their part, the Iranians claimed that several Iraqi counteroffensives mounted on 16 and 17 July in the Basra area were crushed and the Iraqis were forced to retreat after they had lost over 50 tanks and hundreds of men, according to Tehran radio and IRNA reports. On 16 July Tehran radio reported that Iraqi planes bombed Hamadan and Abadan, and according to IRNA over 100 civilians were killed in Hamadan. IRNA reported that an Iraqi attempt to infiltrate the Qasr-e Shirin area on 16 July was smashed and that Iranian fire hit the Banamil oil installations in Iraq. The following day, an Iranian military communique carried by the radio said an assault was successfully launched on Iraqi soil in which 77 tanks were destroyed and over 700 enemy soldiers were killed or wounded.

In an interview with a Tehran paper reported by IRNA, Ground Forces Commander Col 'Ali Sayyad Shirazi said that to gain Iran's rights, the army may have to advance toward Baghdad.

Iraqi Political Position -- President Saddam Husayn said in a speech commemorating the anniversary of the 1968 revolution, broadcast by Baghdad radio on 17 July, that Iraq is not only defending itself but the entire Arab nation against the "alliance" between Israel and Iran, and warned Iran to end its aggression. Husayn severely criticized Arabs whose support for Iran is based on "false claims" that Iran backs the Arab nation in liberating Palestine, and said this led to the breakup of Arab solidarity. He reiterated that Arab states should support each other when there is a war with a foreign country and when the victim of aggression is Arab. He said the collapse of Arab solidarity prevented a response to the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and even those Arabs who promised to support Iraq in case of an Iranian invasion could not be depended on when the time came. Regarding the upcoming nonaligned meeting in Baghdad, Husayn said work will continue in preparation for the conference and he explained that the Nonaligned Movement will meet in Iraq because it wants a change in the policy line and wants a "new spirit."

Iranian Political Position -- Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani in an address on 18 July carried by Tehran radio told the Persian Gulf states that Iran would not claim anything from them but warned that they must not be involved in supplying arms to the enemy. He added that Iran would not attack another country unless it was in defense. On the current war, he said invading Iraq was a "defensive necessity" and Khorramshahr and Abadan must not be threatened by Iraq.

Before departing for Algeria, Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi gave an interview carried by Tehran radio in which he likewise said the Gulf states should not feel threatened by Iran. He denied that his visit to Algeria is related to Algerian mediation in the Iran-Iraq war.

In a speech by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni read out over Tehran radio at the Jerusalem Day rally in Tehran, he criticized Islamic "hypocrites" who made no effort to counter the United States and Israel, saying it was the duty of Islamic nations to use their military and oil weapons against these countries and that Iran could not take any measures except to invade Iraq and depose the regime. He added that if no action is taken by the regional Islamic governments, Iran has the right to appeal directly to the peoples. In a speech carried by the radio on the same occasion, Prime Minister Musavi warned that the United States is trying to expand its policy in the Persian Gulf with the aid of Israel, Egypt and Saudi Arabia. He claimed that Iran has assumed the leadership of the struggle against this policy and that it has the duty to expand this cause. Musavi chided the Soviet Union for its lack of decisiveness toward Israel.

During the nonaligned meeting held in Nicosia, Iranian Foreign Minister 'Ali Akbar Velayati gave a press conference reported by Nicosia radio in which he said Iran did not make the overthrow of Saddam Husayn a condition, but simply a "recommendation" to the Iraqi people.

Iran

Council of Guardians member Ayatollah Mohammad Mahdavi-Kani said the Assembly of Experts will meet in late July to discuss the leadership succession, IRNA reported. Later a government spokesman denied "rumors" of extensive Cabinet changes impending and said only three or four ministers will be involved, Tehran radio noted.

Lebanon

Israeli Position -- The "terrorists" do not have 30 days to leave west Beirut of their own accord, Prime Minister Menahem Begin told a 17 July Tel Aviv rally in a speech reported by Jerusalem radio. The IDF has liquidated 90 percent of the "terrorists," Begin said, and will eliminate the remaining 10 percent as well. He also announced that Israel will sign a peace treaty with Lebanon this year and that he intends to ask King Husayn of Jordan to likewise sign a peace treaty and establish a confederacy with Israel. Begin promised that Israel will provide the Jordanians with a free port at Haifa.

Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon also addressed the rally, which was in support of the "Peace for Galilee" Operation, telling his audience that Israel will provide a temporary, immediate asylum to any "terrorist" who surrenders to the IDF in Beirut, providing his hands are not "stained with the blood" of terrorist actions and he immediately renounces his membership in the PLO, the radio reported.

The following day, Begin told IDF disabled veterans he will shortly end the campaign in Lebanon, according to the radio. Nevertheless, Communications Minister Mordekhay Tzipori emphasized earlier that Israel must fully exhaust political moves because otherwise the political damage to Israel will exceed the advantages of annihilating or capturing the "terrorists" in Beirut, the radio noted. Estimating that there are reasonable chances the PLO will leave Lebanon, Tzipori said that the political moves should be exploited without a timetable. However, an Israeli Government source subsequently revealed that U.S. envoy Philip Habib has failed in his mission and that Israel no longer expects a breakthrough in the negotiations, the radio said. Only a dramatic U.S. move -- such as sending Henry Kissinger to the region -- will prevent Israel from deciding to remove the "terrorists" from Beirut by its own means, the radio added. According to another radio report, Israeli circles were surprised by reports that Habib is to visit Amman.

Destination of PLO -- Syria is prepared to accept the PLO leaders but will not give shelter to the Palestinian fighters besieged in west Beirut, Syrian Foreign Minister 'Abd al-Halim Khaddam reaffirmed during a stopover in Amsterdam on his way to Washington, Damascus radio reported. Meanwhile, Beirut radio noted that the main problem in the negotiations continues to be that no Arab country has agreed to host the PLO fighters.

PLO Position -- Asked in a Nicosia television interview about the possible evacuation of Beirut, PLO International Department Chief Faruq Qaddumi said the PLO is there to stay and "if we want to leave Lebanon, we have to go to our homeland -- to Palestine." Fatah Central Committee member Salah Khalaf said in an interview reported by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio that the PLO refuses to acquiesce to the demand that it apply to Syria for its acceptance of the PLO and its leaders. This is not only because of Syria's stated refusal to receive the PLO fighters, but also because "these conditions are not the ones we had agreed upon," he said. While Syria's stance is understandable, he asserted, the Syrians should "in return" commit their whole army to the battle in Lebanon and stand alongside the PLO. Khalaf also criticized U.S. envoy Habib's "total partiality" to Israel and the Phalangists. Nevertheless, the PLO representative in Vienna announced that the PLO does not object to U.S. participation in a UN-controlled international force, according to a subsequent Monte Carlo radio report.

Lebanese Comments, Contacts -- Lebanon will not sign a unilateral peace treaty with Israel and if an Israeli withdrawal cannot be secured by political means, Lebanon will soon form a "combatant national unity" designed to terminate the occupation, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan declared in a MONDAY MORNING interview reported by Beirut radio. Indicating that he has withdrawn his resignation, Al-Wazzan said the matter is considered ended.

In another development, Progressive Socialist Party leader Walid Junblatt met with Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil in an attempt to surmount obstacles between the Socialists and Phalangists, according to statements by both men cited by Beirut radio after the meeting. In a Voice of Lebanon radio interview, Al-Jumayyil said he hopes the talks with Junblatt, which were the first for 8 years, will dispel the atmosphere of anxiety and fear in the mountains.

Junblatt subsequently left for Damascus for talks with Syrian officials and then visited Jordanian King Husayn in Amman, according to the Voice of Palestine and Amman radio.

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- Beirut was relatively calm over the weekend despite intermittent shelling and sniping, according to Beirut and Voice of Lebanon radio reports. The IDF spokesman accused the "terrorists" and the Syrians of violating the cease-fire and warned that the IDF will not tolerate such activity forever without reacting, Jerusalem television noted. Meanwhile, the Voice of Lebanon said Soviet experts have inspected Syrian equipment in the Al-Biqa' Valley.

Nicosia Nonaligned Meeting -- The Nonaligned Coordinating Bureau conference held in Nicosia adopted a communique that called for the UN Security Council to impose comprehensive sanctions on Israel until it implements UN decisions and resolutions on Palestine, Nicosia radio reported. The communique also called for the nonaligned to impose sanctions on Israel; to hold an emergency session of the UN General Assembly before the end of August to study the Lebanese crisis; and for the United States to revise its policy on the issue. In the closing address to the meeting carried by Nicosia television, Cypriot Foreign Minister Nikolaos Rolandhis read a portion of the action program adopted by the nonaligned countries which, among other things, established an eight-member ministerial committee on the Palestinian problem to visit Lebanon and to keep in contact with the United Nations. The program called for a declaration supporting the Palestinians and PLO to be submitted to the upcoming Baghdad nonaligned meeting, and messages were sent to the presidents of Lebanon and Syria and the head of the PLO.

In a speech to the meeting reported by Damascus radio, Syrian Foreign Minister Khaddam called for a total, worldwide boycott of Israel, a UN resolution canceling its acceptance of Israel and an international trial of its leaders.

Egypt

Interior Minister Hasan Abu Basha issued a 17 July decree releasing 453 detainees imprisoned under the emergency law, MENA reported. Those freed included the father of President Anwar as-Sadat's killer, Khalid al-Islambuli.

LEADERSHIP SUCCESSION TO BE DECIDED 'LATE JULY'

LD172118 Tehran IRNA in English 2009 GMT 17 Jul 82

["Leading Theologian Speaks on Assembly of Experts" -- IRNA headline]

[Text] Ahvaz, Jul 17, IRNA -- Ayatollah Mahdavi-Kani, a religious jurist of the Council of Guardians of the constitutional law and the director of the Islamic Revolutionary Committees, said Friday in Abadan, Khuzestan Province, that the Assembly of Experts would convene in late July to select the successor to the leadership. Visiting the Islamic Revolutionary Committees, Ayatollah Kani reaffirmed the Islamic combatants would overthrow the Iraqi regime so that no would-be aggressor would dare to trespass on the Islamic Republic's territory in the future.

MUSAVI DENIES MEDIATION SOUGHT; CABINET CHANGES

LD180050 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Interview given by Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi to a Central News Unit correspondent in Tehran prior to his departure for Algeria on 17 July -- recorded]

[Text] [Question] Mr Musavi, which countries do you intend to visit on this trip and what are your objectives?

[Answer] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. One of the countries we will visit during this trip is the brother and friendly country of Algeria, following an official invitation from the Algerian Government. This invitation was extended a long time ago, and the dates for the visit were set at that time. The relations between our two countries on the basis of [worlds indistinct] and a defined and united strategy and the [words indistinct] in the regional scene. We hope that this trip will be beneficial to the broadening of our relations with the brotherly country of Algeria, especially since Algeria was one of the few countries with which we maintained friendly relations during the war. Of course, we now have a deeper understanding with the outside world. But since at one time we had many difficulties with respect to our relations with the world at large, we have valued our ties with Algeria, and Algeria has proved its sincerity in its relations with us.

Of course, during the past few days the mass media have been carrying reports about our trip, and I would like to clarify certain points in this respect. It has been said that Algeria is to mediate between Iran and Iraq. I would like to say that this is not true and is a fabrication concocted by the agencies. Obviously, the problems of and issues pertaining to the region will be discussed with our Algerian brothers, one of them being the Iraqi-imposed war; we will listen to the views of these brothers and explain our stance. But I deny that the trip is taking place because Algeria is to mediate. This is not true.

[Question] During the past few days we have seen our war with the Ba'thist regime of Iraq enter a new phase. Some of our towns have been bombed by the Iraqi Ba'thists. What measures have been taken to prevent such bombings?

[Answer] This is characteristic of a dying regime. When it has lost all hope, is desperate and is taking its last breaths, its commits such crimes. I believe that we should expect even greater tragedies, since nothing is beyond these madmen. I think the way to stop such actions is to speed up our offensive operations. We should deal the final blow to this rotten regime as soon as possible. I believe that the final day is approaching, with the help of God.

[Question] The question I am going to ask now has been repeatedly put to you in the past, and you have given specific replies to it every time, but now that the war situation is such that we are quite close to gaining our practical objectives and we have entered Iaaqi territory, the imperialists are trying to represent Iran as a force threatening the countries of the Persian Gulf region. Would you please tell us what the clear stance of our government is in this respect?

[Answer] We have announced this many times before. I remember that even when I was the minister of foreign affairs, our foreign policy under martyr Raja'i was to assure the small countries that Iran does not have its eyes on them. We have continued to follow this decisive, strong and resolute policy. We reiterate that we present no threat whatsoever to these countries and that it is in their interests not to be so enamoured of and dependent on imperialism and America and not to be influenced by their machinations. I believe these interests will be met by living by the side of a revolutionary, powerful and Islamic country which has no covetous intentions toward any of them.

The entire world knows that our entering Iraqi territory is, in fact, part of our defensive policy. Our land has always been threatened by shelling. Even now, despite receiving crushing blows, Saddam Husayn's regime has not abandoned its claims to be fighting an Al-Qadisiyan war [the first war between Iranians and Arabs at the dawn of Islam which Iran was defeated]. It is a dangerous element to the security of the region. Our action is a step toward establishing security in the region.

Once again, I would like to tell these countries not to feel at all threatened. In this respect, I would like to point out that some of these countries have come to realize this. We have seen positive responses from the UAE, which shows that it is assessing this question with more insight. But the decisions taken by some other countries do not show the same insight. I believe that the new realities occasioned by the attacks of our combatants will be imposed on them.

[Question] My last question is about the Cabinet. Mr Musavi, there are rumors about a Cabinet reshuffle.

[Answer] These are not rumors, but facts. We are going to have certain changes in the Cabinet. We will have three or four new posts and new faces in the Cabinet. Well, naturally, one of these new faces will fill the new post of the minister of Revolution Guards Corps. We are expecting the passing of a law to determine the status and parameters of this new post, so that we may proceed with establishing it. Apart from this, some of our brothers in other ministries wish to serve in other trenches. Then there is the issue of the physical condition of one of our brothers, for he is not physically up to the job. Having said that, it is natural that we should be thinking of making some changes in the Cabinet. We will deal with this issue in 1 or 2 weeks when these new faces are introduced.

GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN ON CABINET CHANGES

LD181740 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 18 Jul 82

[Text] The Cabinet, chaired by the interior minister, Nateq-Nuri, held a meeting today and reviewed the latest developments in Iran and in the world. In an interview afterwards, the government spokesman addressed our correspondent and explained the issues raised in today's session. He denied rumors concerning extensive changes in the Cabinet, saying that as the prime minister stated these changes do not involve more than three of four Cabinet ministers. The changes will take place at the request of the ministers themselves, something which will ultimately be announced by the prime minister himself. We now draw your attention to the interview:

[Begin recording] [Question] Mr Tavakkoli, could you please tell us about the issues raised in today's Cabinet meeting?

[Answer] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. A report was heard on the situation of our combatants on the battlefronts. [Passage indistinct]

[Question] My second question deals with the possible changes in the Cabinet. Could you please comment on the extent of these changes?

[Answer] [Words indistinct] the issue at stake is that one of our brothers asked to be transferred elsewhere. Then there is the question of another brother who is ill. I do not believe that the changes will involve more than three or four, as pointed out by Mr Musavi. However, the details of these changes will be announced by him. [end recording]

RAFSANJANI WARNS GULF STATES NOT TO ARM IRAQ

LD181506 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 18 Jul 82

[Address by Hojjat ol-Eslam val-Moslemin 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani to Majlis session on 18 July -- recorded]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. In connection with the Ramadan Operation launched recently and the watershed it will constitute in the history of the Islamic movement, I think the Majlis should use its platform to express a view for public knowledge.

As the esteemed deputies are aware, the centers of power and news in the world recently have expressed fresh concern over the regional developments and the move taken by our forces. This is to the extent that satellite communications equipment is being hired by foreign mass media for extensive periods in order to ask us for reports and news concerning the war and its aspects. What is distinct in the policy pursued by the Western media and the superpowers is that it is introducing the Islamic Republic of Iran as a military might and a new phenomenon in the region. This move and policy contains an element of truth, in acknowledging the reality which the Western media had in the past failed to confess and now are obliged to confess, an aspect also acknowledged by world nations. What is also distinct in the new policy pursued by the Western media is the wickedness behind the actions that they will be wanting to take against the Islamic Republic.

Sufficient explanations concerning the operations we have launched have been given in our communiques as well as remarks made by our great leader. First, our recent move is a continuation of our defensive actions, that is to say, the nature of the latest operations is within the context of the past defensive actions aimed at expelling the enemy from our territory. The whole world knows that our frontier cities of Khorramshahr, Abadan and other cities are still within the range of direct Iraqi shelling and each day we sustain a number of martyrs and injured in those cities and their surrounding areas. The whole world knows that Iran cannot possibly continue its economic moves without its huge port of Khorramshahr and a refinery such as Abadan. Our country will remain incomplete without reconstructing these two important cities as well as other war-stricken regions, so our move will be incomplete until the tasks of reconstruction are carried out.

Therefore, in order to bring these two cities of Khorramshahr and Abadan out of range of Iraqi artillery we had no choice but to take action, action which we launched after declaring our intention well in advance. After the bayt al-moqaddas operations we called on Saddam and his masters through speeches delivered by most of our country's officials, and gave him 2 months to stop shelling our civilians and to pay us reparations. Two months were sufficient had they wanted to pay us what was due to us. But Saddam assumed a plausible and sinless air and pretended to be a peace-loving person, but continued with his past crimes. Therefore, we have at present launched our operations as a defensive necessity.

But our second aim, which has been repeatedly declared, is that we have to collect our reparations. We have said on numerous occasions in the past that we are not the kind of people to wait behind the border and stretch our hand and ask for our rights. We shall not do that and we know we would not. We have no choice but to exert pressure and the pressure is nothing but military actions, which we have started and which were not secret.

The third point which again we have reiterated and have not tried to hide is the existence of an aggressive country [Iraq] which has inflicted bloodshed on the region and on Islamic countries. To defend themselves is also a right for Muslims and we consider such a task among our main duties as an Islamic government, which we will firmly pursue.

The fourth point which again we have declared in the past is to open the road to Jerusalem and to unify the eastern flank of war with Israel, which constitutes one of our strategic goals. As the imam remarked, the people of Iraq are now provided with an opportunity to free themselves. At the same time we have not kept it a secret that the destiny of the people of Iraq is important to us, and today we consider our right in this case is to stand next to the people of Iraq so they gain their rights and get rid of the Ba'th Party. These were the main aims of our policy in launching the war.

At the same time, what the superpowers are planning to do is bound to be futile and, as we declared in the past from the same forum of the Majlis, today too we openly declare that we will not become a monstrous power in the region. We agree that we are a power, but we are a humane power. We have said repeatedly that we have no territorial claim over any country, including Iraq, and all our neighbors should rest assured that we will not be claiming from them anything within the context of (?disputed) territory.

We have told the small Persian Gulf states and again today we repeat that the Muslim and mighty Iran backs what is right in the region so there is no cause for their concern. Of course, if they take a wicked action then they should fear the consequences.

From now on, if we continue to witness the passing of trucks carrying arms to be later rained on our heads, then we will consider it our right to defend ourselves. But you should not involve yourselves any longer. We will forgive you if you deserve to be forgiven, which you do; therefore, do not involve yourselves, so you can live with us in peace and in an atmosphere of brotherhood.

You should also treat your people in a humane way. We have said this repeatedly before and we continue to say that the nature of our revolution is humane. You can see for yourselves we are the people whose artillery along the borders has all the Iraqi border regions under its direct range. Most of the Iraqi border cities and villages are today within the range of our artillery.

In return, the enemy has inflicted so many crimes on our civilians. The examples of which can be seen in the heroic Hamadan, in the heroic Khorramabad, heroic Bakhtaran and the heroic Ilam. The civilians were bombed on Jerusalem Day; the day our people were marching, the criminal Saddam committed a crime not even committed by Israel in Jerusalem. In fact, Saddam outstripped Israel; he conducted an action with extreme cruelty, the same action that the Israelis carried out with (?consideration). As a result of the latest Iraqi shellings and bombardment we have in recent weeks had hundreds of martyrs and thousands of injured now in hospital. In return, we refrained and silenced our artillery which could directly hit and destroy Basra and [word indistinct] and many other Iraqi cities.

Why? Because we are facing civilians and we will not take action against civilians. This is the humane aspect of our revolution and the Islamic Republic -- that is the manners of our enemies and this is our [word indistinct] at war. After the war we will naturally render even more kindness.

The Western world should know that their propaganda to create fear among the Persian Gulf states over the export of the Islamic revolution is not a propaganda initiated by them. We ourselves have declared that we support the spreading of the revolution. We have also defined the meaning of the export of revolution. We have the Islamic move, Islam is right for this region, and Islam must rule the region. This is a reality which the world has acknowledged.

These days you witnessed that in spite of all counteractions against the imam's Jerusalem Day proposal, the day was marked, even in such nests of corruption as Washington, Paris and England, by mass demonstrations by the liberated Muslim inhabitants of those cities. This was in spite of police prevention. Jerusalem Day was also marked in India, Bangladesh, Syria, war-stricken Beirut, Ba'labakk and other places in the world. You have heard the reports concerning these demonstrations, an acknowledgement of imam's viewpoint. This is what we mean by export of revolution. The countries of the world have accepted Islam's move and have realized that this move is a humane and Islamic one. This is what we mean by export of the revolution -- we shall never conquer any country with the use of force, army and corps unless it is a country which has invaded us -- in which case, such an action would be a right given us by the world.

We once again warn the UN and all other international bodies. These bodies who have so far remained indifferent should not buy themselves any more disgrace. They should not take advantage of our kindness because we ignored their 2 years of indifference over the crimes inflicted on us. We shall stand firm to defend our rights and we are not prepared to be blackmailed by empty threats, especially since your masters such as the United States and others were not able to do anything in the past. Peace be upon you.

INTERNATIONAL JERUSALEM DAY MARKED IN TEHRAN

Khomeyni Message

LD161756 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1123 GMT 16 Jul 82

[Message by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni at 16 July Jerusalem Day rally at Tehran University -- read by Ahmad Khomeyni]

[Text] In the name of God, the merciful, the compassionate. We are from God and to Him we return. [Koranic verse]

On the anniversary of Jerusalem Day this year we are going through the most sorrowful and painful days and we are putting behind us the saddest and most tragic periods. This sorrow is not only because of the defenseless and innocent martyrs of oppressed Lebanon; this sadness and tragedy is not only because of the extensive attack launched by criminal Israel, using cluster bombs and incendiary bombs on the Arab and Muslim citizens of Beirut, resulting in martyrdom or injury to thousands of old and young people, women, men, children, all innocent and defenseless; and it is not only because of the sinister plans of the arch-criminal United States aimed at (?defeating) Islam in Iran and in other countries; and not only for the material and moral help given by Egypt, Jordan and others of their kind to the unbridled criminals Begin and Saddam -- who boast of savage and criminal natures and whose material life depends on aggression against the rights of nations and against the oppressed of the world.

Oppressing and crushing the oppressed nations is a cause for pride for them; and not only the merciless aggression launched by 'Aflaqi Saddam and the Iraqi Ba'thist Party on the Islamic state of Iran, killing of thousands of young children and youths, old women and old men, reducing to rubble the prosperous and green cities of Iran inhabited by Arabs and Persians. Such a party, such a (?wicked) party, could not tolerate Islam; its plan is to overthrow Islam and its supporters.

The tragedy, sorrow, sadness and pain stem from Muslims being plagued by such governments who are subservient to and intimidated by the U.S. superpowers and who blindly obey the orders of the enemies of Islam and the Muslims. These people used to make excuses for opposing the Islamic Republic and for their military arms, material and moral assistance to Saddam who deems Islam as his enemy. They used to raise the issue of Arab soil, contrary to the teaching of Islam and of the glorious Koran. In the propaganda (?media) and in the press serving the superpowers they used to resort to the obvious lie of giving as an excuse Israel's so-called support for Iran.

But today, when Israel has attacked an Arab country and is dragging Muslims through blood and dust, what excuse is there for their deadly silence? What excuse could they have in the presence of Almighty God and the Islamic nations for their help to Israel and its nefarious masters? What excuse could they have for following the abject Camp David proposal and the Fahd plan? What excuse could they have for their connivance with these professional and blood-thirsty criminals?

Could it be because the United States has changed from the previous United States, with whom they have falsely accused us of conniving? Or could it be that Israel has changed from the Israel which, under the pretext of giving us weapons, hastened to help Saddam and to embark on enmity against us in order to save the 'Aflaqist Ba'thist Party?

O God, the Muslims in the region are slighted by such liars just as their master, 'Ali ibn Abu Talib, was beset with hypocrites who were superficially benevolent people and by whose hands he was martyred and thereby found salvation from his tribulations!

O merciful God, Islam today is blighted by hypocrites more criminal than the [word indistinct] who are crushing Islam in the name of Islam, and who are conniving with the enemies of Islam in the name of Islam in order to plunder the riches of the oppressed and deprived nations and to fetter the free among the nations!

O God, these ignorant politicians are bearing the burden of Israeli indignity in order to prolong their rule over Muslim nations for a few more days! O God, these ignorant governments, despite having all the capabilities for scoring victory over the superpowers, are approving the crimes of the United States and Israel. In order to consolidate the foundations of blasphemy, they cannot tell the difference between day and night! O merciful God, save the oppressed Muslim people from the claws of these people!

But what should one do now? Could marches, shouts, being beside oneself with rage because of the enemies of Islam and of the world oppressed be sufficient? Or do these things constitute a means to [words indistinct]? The governments of the region and the agents of the colonialists and the oppressors do not tolerate even these shouts; rest assured they would stifle these shouts in the throats of the oppressed and deprived.

These very people who are already opposing the cry of the oppressed, who once every year seek the very zenith of their aspirations, who shout and moan, who are rising in opposition in a forum whose foundations were based on political issues [as heard], they will stifle by all possible means the angry shouts of the Muslims caling for the liberation of Jerusalem.

Dear Islam and its illustrious prophet and the martyr of its path, who was dragged in blood and dust in order to serve the cause of the deprived on that blessed holy night, where should they voice this complaint that the oppressors in the Islamic countries are saying: Bear your pain and suffering, but do not complain; be crushed under the tortures of the United States and filthy Israel and other powers, but never say a word! The sorrows are great, but what is one to do?

The Iranian nation, following the noble Koran and great Islam, has found the remedy. It overthrew the U.S.-backed Pahlavi regime, after its cries and strikes; it used fists and teeth against the tanks and machineguns; it toppled [as heard] the criminal Saddam and his polytheistic party with its faith and in the name of God; it dragged in the dust the self-opinionated Saddam who used to boast of being a leading general of the battle of Qadisiyah; it nipped in the bud all the plots, with God's guidance.

So now, too, it will not rest until it translates into action what it asked from the very first day: reparations from and punishment for the criminal. It does not consider the resolutions of the Security Council and of the worthless organizations as anything other than scraps of paper which serve those with a veto.

Those people who, despite all their shouts and baseless propaganda, have bowed in obeisance to the Zionists and who have embarked on setting up meetings and issuing resolutions in order to strengthen the foundations of the Zionists' government, and those subservient to them such as Saddam who is on the brink of a disgraceful death -- could you see Iran's Government, which relies on God and the great Iranian nation, being afraid of such (?scraps of paper)? A nation which has already tasted martyrdom, which is following its lord the prince of the faithful and his illustrious children, who deemed martyrdom as a great honor and who raised the cry of "(?I die) by the lord of Ka'bah at the scene of martyrdom and on the battlefield," does not fear organizations which are subservient to the superpowers. A nation which has expelled the U.S. superpower in disgrace from the land of God's chosen one -- may our lives be sacrificed for his coming -- and which has dragged its oil and riches from its own throat, does not fear the empty drums of America's concocted organizations.

This nation and the government following its commands, as they have repeatedly announced, will retrieve their lawful demands from Saddam and his 'Aflaqist party. In order to achieve their lawful right they will resort to any measure, whatever that may be!

As for the duty of the nations on the eve of Jerusalem Day and the anniversary of the martyrdom of the great man of human history [Imam 'Ali], this duty is to take part in rallies and marches and to seriously demand that their governments should use their military power and the oil weapon in order to confront the United States and Israel. And if they do not heed this demand and if they support criminal Israel -- which is threatening the entire region and even the two holy places, and already the depth of its demands have become manifest -- the nations should force them to act by pressure, strikes and threats.

At a time when Islam and its holy places are being subjected to threat and aggression, no Muslim can remain indifferent. What the region's governments are doing in reaction against Israel's aggression against Muslim homelands, resulting in shedding the blood of innocent and defenseless Muslims, is nothing but empty and compromising words. What is even more tragic is that they appeal to America, the real criminal, for what Israel is doing to them. This means, in fact, seeking refuge with the dragon for fear of the snake. Despite having the means of confrontation they are, nevertheless, unprepared to even utter a violent word of a threat. Consequently, everyone should prepare themselves for elimination and annihilation, (?or if they wish to continue) their lives, they should prepare themselves for subjection to any humiliation.

As it has already declared, Iran cannot take any effective measures except by crossing Iraq and deposing the governing Ba'th Party. Having met its legal obligations, Iran is quite prepared to volunteer its services for cooperation -- more than it is doing now -- with other Muslims, particularly Arab nations and governments, in the battle against Israel. Iran is prepared, as one of the big Muslim governments of the region, to cooperate with other powers of the region in the battle against Israel in a much more crushing manner than it is doing now. However, God forbid, if the situation and status of Islamic and Arab countries as well as the region's government continue as they are -- namely, submitting to, compromising and supporting the main enemy, and providing financial and psychological assistance to dependent governments -- then combative Iran is justified before Almighty God in seeking assistance from Islamic nations, minus their governments. Once they respond to this appeal, then Iran will resort to more effective and serious measures.

I advise the Palestinian leaders to abandon their comings and goings and -- relying on Almighty God and the Palestinian people, as well as their own weapons -- continue their battle against Israel to the death; because these comings and goings will result in the combative nations losing faith in you. You must rest assured that neither West nor East will be of any use to you. Have faith in God, rely on your weapons and continue your battle against Israel just like the people and Armed Forces of Iran, who do not rely on powers and superpowers; who rely on God Almighty and His boundless power and who will not abandon their weapons until their legitimate demands are met.

O God, I turn to you, seeing such procrastination, indifference, ambition and [word indistinct] throughout the Islamic world. O God, I appeal to you for your assistance for the sake of the victory of Islam and of the oppressed peoples of the world; for the sake of oppressed people enslaved by the oppressors; for the sake of the victory of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic over the misled Ba'thist Saddamite. May God bless you all.

Musavi Speech

[Speech by Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi at Jerusalem Day rally at Tehran University on 16 July -- recorded]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. I start by offering regards and greetings to our self-sacrificing combatants who are defending the borders of Islam. Glory to those who, by sacrificing their blood, are opening new borders for Muslims of the world and are preparing the ground for an overall attack by all Muslims against the regime occupying Jerusalem. Peace and glory to the great leader of the revolution and the leader of the world oppressed. Glory to you, the great nation, a nation which is looking and fixing its gaze to further heights despite all the conspiracies and the crimes committed by the arrogant governments against you, and despite your own problems. You are gazing at far away places, at the vast borders of the world of Islam and at dear Jerusalem.

In order to understand the circumstances in which we are honoring this day and in order to follow developments since (?2 years) ago, when the leader of the revolution declared this auspicious day as Jerusalem Day and to understand why we are talking about the liberation of Jerusalem at a time when on our western and southern borders we are engaged in war with a tyrannical enemy, we have to glance at the conspiracies hatched among Muslim nations by the arrogant powers. It is impossible to appreciate the greatness of this decision and this action without a proper evaluation of these conspiracies. Why does our nation declare a Jerusalem Day and invite all Muslims of the world to honor this day? What is our aim? What are we fighting for? In what direction are we moving? What is our aim in raising this question?

If we look at the political arena of the Islamic countries, we will see that the scope of the American plots has widened further. On the one hand we find an axis in North Africa, where Egypt is implementing America's filthy policy of recruiting agent countries in line with the U.S. policy of splitting the united ranks of the Muslims and the Muslim Arabs. On that axis Egypt is not only a base for America, it is also trying to dominate the Islamic and African countries. Around this main axis, we find Morocco, Sudan and other reactionary countries of that region, gathering round and strengthening the axis. It seems that this axis is one of the foundations of American hegemonism and one of the foundations on which American policy rests in the world of Islam.

During the past few years, since the era of the shah's regime, America has tried hard to strengthen this axis. At one time, during the shah's period, there was talk of an axis comprising Israel, Egypt and Iran. American policy toward Egypt not only has not changed since that time, rather it has advanced further. Several months ago, or perhaps 1 month ago, America formed an agreement for the construction of a base in Morocco. Right now, the baseless government of Ja'far Numayri is kept in power by America and is protected from the great wave of the Islamic revolution, from the great movement of the millions-strong masses. They are afraid of this wave and this movement, and have thus sought refuge under the wings of domination by the fascist government of Begin. They want to save themselves and graft themselves to the body of the 1 billion Muslims in the world. The progressive countries of North Africa and the Middle East are threatened by these regimes. The unblessed [na-mubarak] regime of Husni Mubarak and his policies are threatening the borders of Libya, Algeria and other governments which refuse to be servants to America.

Meanwhile, America is trying to create another axis in the Persian Gulf, an axis which will gather other reactionary countries around itself, an axis strengthened with the unstinting support of America and the AWACS so as to become a gendarme of the region, an axis which is aimed at absorbing all the (?reactionary) governments of the region, an axis which is trying to use its petrodollars to strengthen American governments in the region and throughout the Islamic world. This axis is trying to encourage the expansion of an Islam in line with American policy. Islam cannot be in line with America. An (?American) and Saudi Islam would not be a real Islam; such an Islam would be in line with the ideology of Satan.

However, the most important axis of U.S. policy in the region is Israel. If we look we can see that all American adventures, all its targets and all the moves that it intends to follow in the region and among all the Islamic countries rest on a three-legged stool made up of Israel, Egypt and Fahd in the Persian Gulf. During the past year, America has tried very hard to bring these three axes closer together. It has tried to link them together and to create a real joint among them. The Fahd plan was actually aimed at strengthening this tripod of American power among the Islamic countries. We can see that Jordan has joined this (?axis). Other reactionary countries of the region have also gathered around it. Saddam's regime is reinforced by this axis, with its troops, weapons and AWACS.

Still, the problem would have been different if there were only American conspiracies in the Islamic countries. That is why Israel is following some objectives independently for itself. It has certain objectives related to the occupation of Muslim territories, in its attempt to create a Christian government in Lebanon. It is trying to show the world today that the Muslims' struggle against Israel is rooted in religion. It is pretending that this struggle is not against Judaism alone, but that it is also against Christianity. That is, Israel is trying to misrepresent the high aspirations of the Muslim nations for the destruction of Zionism.

We can see today that there are rumors about the Phalangists taking power in Lebanon. Israel is trying to protect itself by creating puppet and subservient government around itself. Once there was Jordan and Egypt. Today Lebanon is going to be added to them; and perhaps tomorrow, through pressure, military invasion or political conspiracies, they might try to bring Syria into this circle. Thus Israel will create a circle of affiliated countries around itself to protect it from the great front of the Muslims throughout the world. The cooperation between our government and Syria is (?mainly) for this purpose and is aimed at neutralizing this plot.

The Soviet Union is also harvesting some benefit in the midst of all this. On the one hand, with its bloody military presence in Afghanistan it gives the best excuse to America for its military presence in the Indian Ocean and the reactionary and American countries of the region. All these countries and all these puppet governments, constantly talk of the danger of communism and the Soviet threat. They justify the American presence by referring to the Soviet presence in Afghanistan.

At the same time, through its lack of decisiveness toward Israel, the USSR is trying to attract those countries which are helpless in their struggle against Israel and those nations which are pleading despair in their struggle against the Zionists; although it cannot be decisive against Israel, nevertheless it has set a trap. [sentence as heard] We have not seen any trap more deceitful than this. It is a disgrace to Islam.

Under such circumstances, our country appeared like a spiritual and divine superpower and endangered all these calculations, all these plans and all these conspiracies.

The problem of Israel and the confrontation of Israel means that the authoritarian governments which are dependent on the West and East will have to stand on their own feet. The Jerusalem Day declaration that all Muslims must take to the streets on a specified day and shout "Death to Israel, death to America" will expose the subservient governments' secret to their peoples.

It will distinguish good from evil; it will enable nations to realise the filthy nature of their (?governments), or it will force those governments to draw close to the sacred Islamic aspirations and the sacred aspirations of their own peoples. Otherwise, they would have to take a clear stand against their own nations. (?This is why) all the reactionary governments which are subservient to America are afraid of such a day. Those governments are fully aware that should the day come when 1 billion Muslims take to the streets and simply shout "Death to America, death to Israel" then both America and Israel would be annihilated.

The problem of fighting the occupying Jerusalem regime is not a national one, nor is it a problem confined to the Arab world. It is a front as extensive as the size of all the Islamic countries. Only when all Muslims unite can this germ be eliminated; only when all are motivated by Islam and the idea of closer contact with God throughout this extensive front of invasion against American interests and Israel can this be achieved. This cannot be a merely regional invasion, however.

The final point is the issue of the leadership of this movement. A glance at the past shows that a fight against colonialism and, during the recent decades, the fight against Israel has been led by certain individuals in the Islamic world who were dependent on the West or the East or by people who, to some degree, were influenced by Western or Eastern culture. Now the leadership of this movement is being assumed by a man who has sprang from the heart of the ideology, the heart of Islam and the heart of the oppressed masses of the people. This time it is the imam of the nation who is assuming the leadership of the fight against Israel and America. This leadership cannot be confined only within the limited boundaries of our country. This leadership relies on the Koran and Islam; it does not rely on any power in the world, rather it relies on God. That is why our nation's slogan and prayer in connection with the preservation of this leadership are not simply nationalistic ones. They are not confined only to our country, rather the slogan is one which is in the service of man; it is a slogan imbedded in the conscience of all world Muslims and oppressed peoples. The prayer is "O God, O God, preserve Khomeyni until the mahdi's revolution is accomplished."

Rally Issues Resolution

LD161424 Tehran IRNA in English 1043 GMT 16 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran July 16 IRNA -- On the occasion of International Al-Quds Day (last Friday of the holy month of Ramadan coinciding with July 16 this year) massive demonstrations were held throughout the country, in which Iranian Muslims severely condemned the Zionist regime and its aggressive policy.

The demonstrators in Tehran carried pictures of the (?leader) of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Imam Khomeyni, as well as of Ayatollah Montazeri and other officials of the Islamic Republic and shouted slogans against the Al-Quds occupier regime and the aggressor Army of Iraq. In their slogans the marchers also called on Muslims throughout the world to rise up and liberate Al-Quds (Jerusalem).

In a resolution read to the crowd gathered at Tehran University, it was said that the annihilation of the Zionist regime was indeed one of the main objectives of the Islamic revolution of Iran. It further supported the formation of a Palestinian state in Bayt al-Moqaddas (Jerusalem) and the determining of their fate by themselves.

The resolution pointed out that the Iranian Muslim nation considered the war with the Ba'thist regime of Iraq not separate from the struggle against the Zionist regime, and stressed that the only path for the liberation of Al-Quds was through Karbala' (in Iraq). As soon as the Iraqi imposed war was put an end to, added the resolution, the Islamic Republic would deploy all its resources and strength in the battlefronts of Islam against the Zionists.

YAZDI ON LIBERATING JERUSALEM THROUGH IRAQ

GF161202 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0745 GMT 16 Jul 82

[Arabic sermon delivered at Tehran University by acting Friday Imam Mohammad Yazdi on 16 July -- live]

[Excerpts] Don't the experiences of history show that if tyrants shed the blood of the oppressed and if the oppressed rebel, blood will defeat the swords? Shouldn't we benefit from the present experiences of Iran, where Islam is reborn and where Islamic Iran, by upholding the cause of God through the orders of the leader of revolution, is capable of retaliating against the enemies and aborting all treacherous plans being hatched by great and small devils? How long will we continue to watch the secret machinations of expansionists and their stooges? How long will the superpowers, the United States, the Soviet Union, France and Britain, design the destinies of Muslims through Saddam, Shah Husayn, Mubarak the unblessed, Begin and the like? O Muslim brothers and sisters, we are sure that beloved Jerusalem will be liberated through our unity and (?our economy). By closing our ranks and joining together, our Muslim peoples can dispel the oppression of the Zionists. We believe that the liberation of Jerusalem will be achieved through liberating Iraq, the shackled. In defense of our legitimate rights, Islam and Muslims, we will continue the war imposed by Iraq until the last phase, until we receive the last dirham for the losses we have sustained, and until we eliminate the aggressor and succor the Iraqi people. O homeless Iraqis, we heard you cry out during the week of Iraq, when you held demonstrations and gatherings in Iran's cities. We will respond to your demands, God willing.

Is it known to you that the UN Security Council's resolution, which contradicted the previous resolutions for the sake of arrogant power, was not [words indistinct]? How can a council controlled by tyrants who abuse the right of veto be in favor of the oppressed and of righteousness? Iran's representative did not attend the meeting [of the council] in order to let the world realize that the resolution of this council is illegitimate. Therefore, what is the value of resolutions instigated by the masters and accomplices -- resolutions upon which everyone agrees beforehand? We will advance until we succor Muslims from the yokes of servility, until we liberate Jerusalem from the defilement of the tyrants of the occupying Zionist entity, and until we liberate Iraq from the infidel Ba'th Party. We are certain that you will remain as you were with us, O Muslims, and that the opposing tyrant governments will fall sooner or later. "If you support the cause of God, He supports you and gives you footing." [Koranic verse]

VELAYATI INTERVIEWED AFTER RETURN FROM NICOSIA

LD170446 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 0330 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Excerpt] Mr Velayati, our country's minister of foreign affairs, returned to Tehran last night after taking part in the extraordinary session of the foreign ministers of the nonaligned countries held in Cyprus. On his return, he gave an interview to an IRNA correspondent at the airport in which he stressed the need for an all-round struggle against the usurping Zionists and said: As we have repeatedly announced, fighting Zionism and the regime occupying Jerusalem should not be limited to the political dimension. We believe that political struggle is necessary but not enough and that an extended political, propaganda and military struggle against the Satans of the world, led by the arch-Satan America and its agents in the region, is called for.

Referring to the behavior of the Islamic revolution toward the Zionist regime and its boss, the United States, Mr Velayati said: For instance, from the political point of view, one can celebrate Jerusalem Day, which is the last Friday of the blessed month of Ramadan. This year, like last year, it was marked by ceremonies, and delegations were sent to Islamic countries to invite nations and governments to take a more active part in marking it. From the military point of view, we are the only country which sent volunteers and regular forces to Syria and Lebanon after the aggression by the regime occupying Palestine against Lebanon. These forces are now fighting the Zionists.

From the political point of view, we took part in the extraordinary session of the UN General Assembly in connection with the illegal annexation of the Golan Heights. We also took part in the session of the Coordinating Bureau of the nonaligned foreign ministers which was held at the request of Yasir 'Arafat and with the approval of Fidel Castro.

SAYYAD SHIRAZI ON AIMS OF ADVANCE IN IRAQ

LD182156 Tehran IRNA in English 1956 GMT 18 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 18, (IRNA) -- "Our attention and target is him (Iraqi President Saddam Husayn)...and also to find an overland route to reach Al-Quds," said Colonel Sayyad Shirazi in an interview with the daily newspaper ETTELA'AT today.

He said that to gain Iran's rights Iran might have not only to besiege Basra but also "it may pull us to move towards Baghdad," he said.

In his first major interview with the press since the beginning of the Ramadan Operation, Colonel Shirazi said that until Saddam Husayn was punished, the Islamic forces would continue to go after him.

"When he is gone and destroyed," he said, "then our presence in a brother country like that of the Muslim people of Iraq would cease to have any meaning." The commander of the ground forces said that the Islamic forces felt responsible to give an answer to the martyrs of the Iraqi imposed war, to get exact retribution for the relatives they left behind and for all the destruction and more than two million refugees caused by Saddam's imposed war.

Colonel Shirazi added that today the Islamic Republic had proven to the world that none of the governments dependent on the East or West would recognise its rights against the Iraqi Ba'thist regime. "We are firmly standing," he said, "and we want to get our rights from the enemy."

Asked about the advances of the Iranian fighters since the beginning of the Ramadan offensive, Shirazi said that the operation had progressed "relatively well" and the enemy morale was very low. In contrast he said that the Islamic forces were in very high spirits despite the extreme hot weather in the region and that they were eager to fight the enemy. He said that it would not take long before the Islamic fighters won their awaited victory and he said that the Iraqi regime would receive a stronger blow "in the next few days."

"They thought that we were only dependent on modern capabilities and equipment for war, Colonel Shirazi said, adding that the key to the victory of the Islamic forces was not only their material capabilities but moreover the spiritual zeal created in the Iranian people. On the other hand, he added that the enemy had unwittingly become the best military supplier of the Iranian forces in abandoning their arms.

On the help and support of other regional countries to Iraq he said that King Husayn of Jordan had been acting more than others out of fear of his own future. "Before we went after him (King Husayn), he came after us," he said, "but they saw that no one was able to resist this thundering force (the Islamic forces) and they jumped back a step."

He said that the Islamic Republic was not worried whether the reactionary countries of the region might deploy their forces against Iran, because he said "to win our rights we have made our continuation of the struggle a principle. No power is able to stop us from going (forward) and with the help of God, as He has promised, we will be victorious."

MATERIALS CONCERNING RAMADAN OPERATION

Joint Staff Communique 978

LD151810 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 15 Jul 82

[Communique No 978 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In is exalted name. With the advent of the fourth year of commemorating International Jerusalem Day, the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran continue their ceaseless battle against the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of the 'Aflaqite Saddam. With God's help and with the cooperation of the oppressed Iraqi people, the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic will destroy the criminal and falling regime of the mercenary Ba'thist by crossing the Karbala, this victory bridge to Al-Quds. They will be moving toward the destruction of the regime occupying Jerusalem and the liberation of beloved Palestine.

Following the extensive Operation Ramadan and the successes achieved in the country's southern operational areas, the ever-victorious combatants of the army of monotheism are continuing their efforts to route the enemies of Islam in the west of the country.

In the past 24 hours, exchanges of artillery and mortar fire continued between our forces and Saddam's servicemen on the Meymak front. Opening fire on the enemy positions, the combatants of Islam inflicted losses and casualties on the Iraqi soldiers in this area.

Exchanges of fire also continued in the Marivan area. Opening artillery fire, our courageous combatants destroyed two vehicles carrying Iraqi servicemen in the Biarreh area; they also inflicted many losses on the Biarreh garrison.

The mercenary enemy, fearing the attacks of our combatants in the country's western operational areas and in order to reduce the vulnerability of his forces, is increasing his construction activities. His forces are building and extending minefields, consolidating positions and digging trenches.

The enemy's air operations have increased considerably in the past 24 hours. Air raids have mostly been carried out on the residential areas of cities and in the foul manner of the Ba'thist regime. In addition to the four Iraqi aircraft which were shot down yesterday in the southern area of the country, one intruding enemy aircraft was shot down by our antiaircraft batteries at 0740 yesterday morning in the Ilam region and another at 1430 on the same day in the Abadan region. The number of downed enemy aircraft in the past day is therefore six.

Furthermore, yesterday afternoon fighter aircraft of the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran based in the southern region managed to bomb a Saddamist assembly center in the Al-Qurnah to Nashwah direction. The aircraft returned safely to their bases. This afternoon the enemy's assembly point south of Kushk was bombed by our fighter aircraft; losses and casualties were inflicted upon the Saddamist mercenaries.

Yesterday Saddam's army shelled residential areas of Abadan with long-range weapons; as a result, several residential units caught fire and were destroyed.

Hamadan Bombed

LD161245 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1049 GMT 16 Jul 82

[Text] According to a report by the Central News Unit correspondent from Hamadan, at 0935 this morning while the steadfast and militant people of Hamadan, along with the rest of their compatriots, were marching in the streets of that city on the occasion of International Jerusalem Day, aggressive fighter planes of the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of Iraq, flying high in retaliation for their recent defeats at the hands of the forces of Islam, bombed two districts in the city of Hamadan. As a result of this crime by American mercenaries, a number of innocent people were killed or wounded and a number of residential areas in the city were damaged. According to the same report, at this moment relief operations to dig out those killed or wounded by this savage crime of the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of Iraq are still continuing. The number killed in this frightful crime is 30 and more than 200 wounded have been taken to hospitals.

According to an IRNA report at 1137 this morning, aggressive enemy planes once again attacked Hamadan and bombed the city. Also, according to IRNA, the aggressive planes of Iraq's defeated armed forces at 0930 and 0955 today violated the airspace of Ilam from an extreme altitude, but before they were able to do anything, they met with timely fire by antiaircraft guns and were forced to flee.

According to the Central News Unit and IRNA, enemy planes in the past 24 hours repeatedly flew over Ilam to bomb residential areas and kill the innocent people of that town. They were forced to flee, however, as a result of the timely antiaircraft of the fighters of Islam. The mercenary pilots of the Ba'thist-Zionist regime of Iraq had to return without carrying out their missions.

Another IRNA report says that aggressive Iraqi planes continue their repeated violations of the airspace of Abadan. Last night and today they many times violated Abadan's airspace in order to bomb residential areas. At 1000 this morning aggressive Iraqi forces attacked Bakhtaran but the antiaircraft fire of the ground forces stopped them from doing anything.

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, following the command issued by Imam Khomeyni, the great leader of the Islamic revolution and commander in chief of the armed forces, regarding the presence of Muslim combatants in the war against the mercenaries of the Ba'thist Zionist regime of Iraq, another group of combatants connected with the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps from the Mohammad Rasul Allah Brigade has been sent to the battlefronts.

Captured Officer Interviewed

GF171455 Ahvaz Domestic Service in Persian 1330 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit's correspondent, reporting from the fronts of right against wrong, the fighters of Islam, in continuation of the Ramadan Operation codenamed "O lord of the ages, save me," attacked the defensive lines of the Ba'thist-Zionist enemy last night and inflicted heavy damage and casualties on the enemy in breaking these lines. According to this report, the forces of Islam penetrated the enemy lines by around 10 km and destroyed over 78 tanks and 30 vehicles of the Ba'thist aggressors. The Islamic zealots also captured 12 of their tanks intact. In the operations, a large number of the Iraqi mercenaries were killed and many more were wounded. The rest of the Saddamist mercenaries who attempted to escape became the prisoners of our capable fighters.

An enemy plane which attempted to bomb our positions this morning was shot down by the timely fire of air defense units. The report by the Central News Unit correspondent also states that the zealous braves of Islam captured a number of vehicles and other equipment during the operations carried out last night in two axes. The selfless brave fighters then established their positions and began defending them. The Ba'thist mercenaries captured by the Islamic fighters are being transferred behind the fronts.

Second Lieutenant (Abdolmajid Moayyed Majid 'Abdulbaqi), an officer of the 1st Batallion stationed northwest of Khorramshahr, who became a prisoner of the powerful fighters of Islam, in an interview with our correspondent said:

Following the start of the attack by the fighters of Islam against our defensive lines, the majority of the personnel of the 1st atallion, which included my men, were either killed or wounded. The rest attempted to escape in the desert in utter confusion. By morning most of them, including myself, were captured by the Iranian fighters and transferred behind the fronts.

One of the Iraqi armored columns began fighting the Islamic fighters last night ahead of us. A large number of the tanks, vehicles and personnel carriers were destroyed bv the Iranian shells and RPG-7's, and the rest attempted to escape. Around 70 tanks, personnel carriers and vehicles were left behind and the forces of Islam captured these together with other equipment left behind.

The Iraqi officer, referring to the Iraqi Army's situation, said: The Iraqi Army lost about half of its forces following the Iraqi aggression against Iran. The majority of the remaining forces are currently against the war or are trying to evade it. The Iraqi Army has no choice but to resort to use of propaganda about its so-called victories.

Talking about the internal situation in Iraq, the army officer said: The internal situation in the country is grave and the majority of the people want the fall of the Ba'th Party. This is because there is at least one dead or wounded in every family.

The Iraqi people have seen nothing but war and suffocation from the Ba'th Party and its mercenary rulers. They are under severe pressure and all their activities are controlled by the army and the security organization.

Joint Staff Communique 981

[Communique No 981 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] While the powerful combatants of Islam are achieving repeated victories in the Ramadan Operation, their heroic brothers on other battlefronts are dealing blows on the feeble Saddamites and are hastening the downfall of the ghoulish regime of Baghdad.

During the past 24 hours, the exchange of fire was intense in the Meymak region and sporadic in other western areas. While preventing enemy movements on the western fronts, our forces continued their efforts to clear those fronts of minefields and boodytraps and to strengthen their defensive positions. As a result of the artillery fire of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran on enemy positions in the Tutman, Haft Tavanan and Biarreh areas, a number of military supply points and trenches belonging to the enemy were destroyed. In addition, the (Bannir) oil installations in Iraq were set on fire as a result of our forces' artillery fire.

Yesterday our brave combatants in the (Bayat) area, near Musian, fought hard against Ba'thist mercenaries who intended to penetrate their positions. After hours of fighting, our forces killed a group of Saddamites, captured 14 Iraqis and forced the others to retreat. Large quantities of ammunition and arms were captured from the enemy during this operation.

There was an exchange of fire near Abadan between the shore units of the Gendarmerie of the Islamic Republic of Iran and enemy forces of the banks of the Arvand Rud. Thanks to our forces' superior firepower, the Iraqi forces' traffic on the Al-Faw-Basra road was disrupted and a number of enemy personnel were either killed or wounded. Saddam's army fired on the residential areas of Abadan yesterday with long-range heavy weapons. This resulted in losses and casualties.

Iraqi 'Infiltration' Attempt

LD172042 Tehran IRNA in English 1938 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Text] Bakhtaran, July 17, IRNA -- The aggressor Iraqis suffered considerable losses Friday night as their infiltration attempt in the Qasr-e Shirin region, Bakhtaran Province, was severely smashed by the Islamic combatants. In these operations, 17 Iraqi soldiers were captured.

In another development yesterday 5 enemy soldiers were killed and 10 others were taken captive when the Iranian defenders smashed the Iraqi forces who attempted to attack the Iranian positions in the Musian region, Ilam Province. In this region, the Islamic troops, seizing some Iraqi munitions, forced the enemy to retreat.

Meanwhile, exchanges of fire continued in most of the western fronts over the 24 hours preceding Saturday. During this same time the Iranian forces, firing on the enemy positions and installations in the Banamil region of Iraq silenced the Iraqi artillery as well as setting ablaze the Banamil oil installations. Also, the Islamic forces inflicted heavy casualties upon the Iraqi forces when the former barraged the enemy strongholds in the Iraqi regions of Chilat, Tutman, Haft Tavanan and Biarreh.

Some aggressor Iraqi planes which violated the western airspace of Ilam, Sumar, Marivan, Sar-e Pol-e Zahab and Sar Dasht, were all forced to flee by the anti-aircraft fire of the Iranian defenders over the aforementioned time.

Another report indicated that 2 Iraqi citizens who had come to realise the wicked nature of Saddam's regime sought asylum in Iran Saturday. These refugees entered the Islamic Republic through the western border presenting themselves to the Islamic forces.

Iraqis Killing Iranian POW's

LD172114 Tehran IRNA in English 1949 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Text] Khorramshahr, July 17 (IRNA) -- An Iraqi colonel, Abdolnaam 'Abdallah, recently taken captive by the Islamic forces, said today that Iraqi soldiers killed Iranian POWs upon the orders of their commanders. The colonel, who was captured during the Ramadan offensive of the Islamic forces, said in an interview with IRNA here that he had personally heard and seen this during the Iraqi occupation of Sar-e Pol-e Zahab in western Iran and a few days ago when "several" Iranian soldiers and Islamic revolutionary guards were "executed" when they were taken captive by the Iraqis near the Kativan stream, a branch of the Arvand River.

Colonel 'Abdallah, who commanded the Second Battalion of the 504th Iraqi Infantry Brigade, said that the tide of the Islamic revolution of Iran was considered a threat to the Iraqi regime which in turn launched its aggression on Iran. He said now he believed that the Iranian offensive into Iraq would lead to the overthrow of the Iraqi regime. The colonel, who did not seem unhappy over his captivity, said that he considered Iraqi president's allegations that Iran shelled civilian areas as "empty talk," adding that he knew well that "Iran only pounded military and economic targets (inside Iraq)." Questioned if the Islamic fighters of Iran had the right to enter Iraq, Colonel 'Abdallah said that Iran did have the right — since, in his point of view, Iran did not covet Iraqi territory and only entered Iraq to liberate the Iraqi people from the "infidel rulers" in Baghdad.

Another Iraqi captive officer, Second Lieutenant Davud Jabir Anad, said that out of 405 soldiers he commanded in the third company of the 12th Battalion of the 102nd Brigade, 105 of them had escaped and the rest were either killed or taken captive during last night's offensive of the Iranian forces east of the Iraqi fish hatchery in the southern fronts. He said that it was "too late" for the Iraqi Army to be able to resist the Islamic forces because they lacked the necessary morale to fight.

Joint Communique 6

LD181232 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 18 Jul 82

[Joint Communique No 6 of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Mohammad, the prophet of God, and those who follow him are harsh with the enemy but are merciful among themselves. [Koranic verse]

The determined Islamic warriors shall continue their relentless fight against world oppressors and their mercenary lackneys such as 'Aflaqite-Zionist Iraqi regime and Zionist Israel until their rotten roots are eradicated.

Continuing the Ramadan Operation, the mighty Islamic forces, comprising the heroes of the Islamic Republic's Army, the self-sacrificing guards, and the Mobilization of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps enjoying the divine blessing and the prayers of the imam and the martyr-nurturing nation, and continuing their liberation advance, dealt heavy blows and high casualties on the Ba'thist-Zionists inside Iraqi territory. The children of Islam have fortified their positions in Iraqi territory and continue to mop up the theater of operations of the Saddamite forces, maintaining their full (?superiority) and their observations of the enemy's deployment. Full figures of recent operations by the Islamic warriors show they are inflicting heavy and crushing blows on the Ba'thist enemy.

Our warriors, continuing their mopping-up operations in the battlefields, have destroyed 62 tanks and personnel carriers on one axis and 54 tanks and personnel carriers on another. A total of 116 Iraqi tanks have been destroyed [as heard]. Furthermore, following coordinated operations by Islamic warriors, heavy losses and casualties were inflicted on 30th Armored Brigade of the 6th Division and the 6th Brigade of the 3d Division.

Figures on Iraqi POW's already transferred reach 800, among which are a number of officers and NOC's. One of the POW's is (Col 'Abd al-Moqim 'Abdallah) commander of 2d Battalion in 504 Brigade. This Ba'thist-Zionist Iraqi battalion was totally smashed by the Islamic warriors, with all its servicemen either killed, wounded or taken prisoner. The enemy's casualties -- those killed or wounded, during the recent operations by Islamic forces, total 850.

The air force and air corps airmen of the Islamic forces also attacked enemy positions and fortifications in the theater of operations, causing enemy casualties and losses. Meanwhile, our brothers are engaged in collecting booty and transferring it behind the frontlines. In line with the misled Ba'thist-Zionist servicemen who joined the Islamic forces, about 14 more sought asylum. These were servicemen who discovered the filthy and criminal nature of the Iraqi regime. The Islamic force's open arms are always ready to welcome misled Iraqi Army servicemen -- servicemen who have realized the legitimacy of the Islamic front and of the Islamic revolution.

We hope for the final victory of the Islamic fighters and the liberation of Jerusalem from the claws of the occupying Zionists. Victory comes from God and it is near.

NVOI EXAMINES RENEWED FIGHTING WITH IRAQ

NC161422 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 15 Jul 82

[Commentary: "The Outcome of Incorrect Calculations Will Be Calamitous"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: As you know, the war and military disputes have now been drawn into Iraqi territory. The world's news agencies and press carry various comments on reports on the attack by the Armed Forces and Revolution Guards Corps of Iran.

(?In relation with this) it is worthwhile to briefly review the incidents of 20 months ago, that is, at the time when this destructive war, which is contrary to our interests and the interests of the Iraqi nation, was imposed on our country and nation at the hands of imperialist elements, led by world-devouring America. What [word indistinct], the United States and regional reaction thought that by using the postrevolutionary problems faced by our nation and the dispersion of the former regime's armed forces, they could have toppled the Islamic Republic and reimposed a favored regime, like the dead shah's regime, on our nation.

But the truth is that world-devouring America and regional reaction did not take into consideration an important factor in their calculations, which is the feeling of patriotism, the high revolutionary spirit and (?the unity of our ever-alert nation).

Even though during the first months of the imposed war, our country suffered many physical and financial losses with a part of our homeland's territory occupied by foreign forces, it was nevertheless not long before our nation foiled the plot hatched by Bani-Sadr and his clique and aimed its strength and possibilities, with (?more unity) at defending the country's independence and territorial integrity to oust foreign troops from the country. Everyone, both friend and foe, confess that the devotion and heroism shown by the Iranian nation -- young and old, men and women -- in defending the homeland, the revolution's gains and in ousting the foreigners was a rare and, in some cases, unprecedented act.

Our country's officials have repeatedly announced that Iran does not intend to occupy others' territories. What Iran wants is a regime and government in power in its neighboring country that will not once again spark off the flame of a similar calamity and inflict so many physical and financial losses both on our nation and on the Iraqi nation. Such a demand is reasonable and (?legitimate) as any country would demand of its neighbor. (?Until the time) that our military and popular forces defended our homeland in order to oust foreign troops from our territory, our objective was a human, just and legitimate objective. But now the continuation of the war on Iraqi territory presents the problem in another form, both in the relations between the two countries and on the regional level. This means that under present conditions it is possible that by using the present situation, the United States may bring the regimes dependent on it in the region -- the regimes of Saudi Arabia, Egypt and their likes -- that are terrorized with Iran's revolution and its scene of war, thereby, at the same time, further increase U.S. military presence in the region. [sentence as heard]

From the time when our country's press and mass media started carrying articles on exporting the revolution and the need to continue the war on Iraqi territory, we said that these remarks and articles are contrary to the views and remarks of the country's officials and far from (?reality). It cannot be claimed that the continuation of the war on Iraqi territory is the best path and means for gaining war compensations or for divesting the opposite side of the possiblity to reattack our territory. In addition, when undertaking [words indistinct] the right thing would have been, and is, to take into consideration all the possibilities of the opposite side and especially the maneuvers by world-devouring America and the insane efforts of regional reactionary regimes and their outcomes. Needless to say, the determination of the destiny of each nation is the affair of the nation concerned, and if we want to help the fraternal nation in forwarding this vital issue, then basically, assistance should be in the form of support for that nation's popular and anti-imperialist movement in which organizations, parties, religious and secular councils and various peoples participate. It should not be forgotten that the trend of the liberation, popular and anti-imperialist movement in any country, even in Muslim countries, is based on a range of general rules and norms; nevertheless, each movement has its own special characteristics. We cannot point to two Muslim countries as an example of complete similarity from all aspects in the trends of their popular and anti-imperialist movements. It is important to note this reality, especially since once in a while some officials, even in higher echelons, rely on and support one faction -- the religious faction -- in Iraq's anti-imperialist and popular forces but do not want to take into consideration the political, social, popular and progressive forces that are effective in that country's anti-imperialist movement.

The fear is that egotistic approach and incorrect calculations may be costly for our Islamic Republic, for the ultimate destiny of the war and for the whole of our nation's struggles to weaken the bases of U.S. imperialist domination.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

21 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Arab-U.S. Talks, Related Comment -- The talks between the two Arab foreign ministers and U.S. President Ronald Reagan were "fruitful and frank" and centered on UN Security Council resolutions, Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal said in remarks reported by Damascus radio. Syrian Foreign Minister 'Abd al-Halim Khaddam had earlier called on the United States to "shoulder its responsibility" in ending the Israeli invasion of Lebanon, according to the radio. Meanwhile, Riyadh radio expressed optimism that the U.S.-Arab talks would be successful.

Citing sources close to the negotiations in Washington, Monte Carlo radio said the Americans have offered the PLO, through Al-Faysal and Khaddam, recognition if the PLO accepts UN Resolutions 242 and 338. This would be followed by recognition of the Palestinians' right to self-determination. The radio spoke of the emergence of the beginning of a solution to the crisis under which the cease-fire would be consolidated and UN troops would be deployed between Israeli and PLO forces. The IDF would withdraw southward and the PLO fighters would withdraw from Beirut, some going to Syria and the rest deploying temporarily in the Al-Biqa' Valley and northern Lebanon prior to departing for other Arab host countries. Asserting that President Reagan told Khaddam and Al-Faysal that he will pressure Israel into refraining from dealing any military blow to Beirut, the radio said the Americans promised to convince the Israelis to accept the preliminary agreement as part of an attempt to find an overall solution to the Arab-Israeli conflict. Mutual recognition between the PLO and the United States is expected "within the next few days," the radio claimed. Earlier, Hani al-Hasan, an adviser to PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat, told the UAE paper AL-ITTIHAD that the United States must recognize the PLO as the sole legitimate representative of the Palestinians and deal with the basic issue in a direct way, according to WAKH. He said U.S. recognition of the PLO would be a minimum condition for the PLO's military withdrawal from Beirut. Another of 'Arafat's advisers, 'Isam as-Sartawi, told a Paris press conference that the PLO wants to recognize the State of Israel if at the same time the right of all nations to exist is also recognized, Paris radio reported.

In Beirut, U.S. envoy Philip Habib has worked out a three-stage plan with all the parties concerned, Beirut radio reported. The plan calls for: the withdrawal of the IDF from Khaldah to Ad-Damur; the withdrawal of the Palestinian forces from Lebanon, probably to Syria; and the deployment of multinational forces, including U.S., French, Italian, Greek and Yugoslav troops and possibly some from Eastern bloc countries. The Palestinian civilians would return to their camps and the Syrian forces would gradually withdraw from Al-Biqa' and the north in return for a gradual Israeli withdrawal, first to Sidon, and then to the international border. However, sources close to the Lebanese Government denied that these ideas are new and said all negotiations in Lebanon are frozen pending the outcome of the talks in Washington, according to a subsequent radio report.

In an interview with the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio, Nayif Hawatimah, secretary general of the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, said he expected no positive results from the U.S-Arab meeting in Washington. Only bitter and brave fighting against the Israeli invasion forces can produce positive results, he asserted. In a similar vein, Mustafa Abu 'Ali, assistant secretary general of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine said in a Damascus television interview that the Arabs must exploit Israel's inability to wage a long war and sustain heavy losses.

Israeli Comments, Shamir Visit -- Citing U.S. sources, Jerusalem radio reported that President Reagan spoke "firmly" to the Saudi and Syrian foreign ministers, telling them to either propose real solutions to the PLO problem or stop making demands. The U.S. side again stressed its refusal to hold direct contacts with the PLO unless the latter recognizes Israel's right to exist, the radio said.

Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir may visit Washington next week for talks with U.S. officials about the situation in Lebanon, IDF radio noted.

Egyptian Message -- Egyptian President Husni Mubarak has sent a "highly important" message on Lebanon and other Middle East issues to President Reagan, MENA reported.

Military Situation -- Sporadic shooting continued in Beirut and the port area was hit by shellfire causing the Port Road to be closed, Beirut radio reported. The radio said there was traffic movement between east and west Beirut and Israeli planes continued to fly over the city. The Voice of Palestine claimed Israeli forces attempted to advance toward a Beirut airport runway but were forced to retreat. The radio also indicated that SAM batteries were moved into the Al-Biqa' Valley by the Syrians, but this was later denied by an IDF spokesman cited by Jerusalem radio. A katyusha shell landed in northern Galilee and two "terrorists" admitted responsibility for the act, IDF radio reported.

Israel

The strike in Druze villages in the Golan Heights is over, IDF radio reported.

Jordan

The PLO is pleased with King Husayn's decision to release 24 Palestinian fedayeen from Jordanian jails, KUNA reported citing a high-level Palestinian source in Amman.

Iran-Iraq War

Heavy fighting continued on the southern and western fronts, with both sides claiming heavy enemy losses. An Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio reported that there was heavy artillery and tank fire on the western fronts; and that Abadan was hit by enemy shellfire. IRNA claimed that enemy tanks were destroyed along the Shatt al-'Arab, and another IRNA report said repeated Iraqi attacks against various Iranian outposts were unsuccessful and hundreds of Iraqis were killed or wounded. An Iraqi military communique carried by Baghdad radio said fighting continued around Basra; two naval targets were destroyed in Khowr-e Musa and Iranian artillery hit Basra and Khanaqin. Later, a military spokesman cited by the radio said Iranian losses around Basra for 19-20 July amounted to over 1,800 dead and 15 tanks destroyed. An Iranian plane was shot down during an attempted raid on Baghdad, according to another Baghdad radio report.

Deputy Prime Minister Tariq 'Aziz told a Baghdad press conference cited by INA that he is pleased with the military situation east of Basra. He also noted that Iraq's nuclear program is continuing.

On the diplomatic side, Iranian Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi told an Algiers press conference reported by APS that Iran would accept Algeria's mediation in the conflict if it would help to achieve the conditions set by Iran for a settlement. Afterward, Musavi arrived in Libya and said Iran regarded Libya as its "second country," JANA reported. According to Tehran radio, Musavi met with Libya's Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi and the two agreed that fighting Iraqi President Saddam Husayn is an important phase in fighting Zionism.

Iraq

President Saddam Husayn has pardoned Iraqi communists living inside or outside the country, Monte Carlo radio said, citing unofficial reports.

KARMAL ADDRESSES NATION ON 'ID AL-FITR

LD210644 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0420 GMT 21 Jul 82

["Text" of radio-telecast speech by Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the Revolutionary Council, to the nation on the eve of 'Id al-Fitr]

[Text] Dear compatriots, Muslim and toiling brothers and sisters:

Permit me to present the best congratulations and wishes of the Revolutionary Council, the Government of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan and my own to you noble and religious people of the revolutionary Afghanistan and to all the fraternal peoples of Islamic countries on the occasion of the holy 'Id al-Fitr and wish the prosperity, progress and all Muslim toilers of the world.

Noble and toiling compatriots, this year, despite the efforts of reaction and imperialism and continuation and intensification of their undeclared war against our people and homeland, the toiling Muslims of our country passed the happy days of Ramadan in an atmosphere of calmness and greater confidence and welcomed the arrival of the holy 'Id al-Fitr.

This state of affairs is the result of the heroic efforts of the militant sons of the country and its religious people, especially our heroic armed forces, these messengers of peace who have sacrificed their rest day and night in order to see that the children, the old and the women and finally every family and every individual in our country may lead a happy life and work in an atmosphere void of anxiety and concern in a calm environment free from terror and fear of the counterrevolutionary elements.

The return of calm, peaceful and happy life in the Panjsher and Paghman Districts and in a number of other regions of the country in the recent days is a strong witness of this claim of ours.

Your revolutionary state, simultaneously with relentlessly crushing the enemies of our revolution, is consistently and determinedly proceeding in the way of realisation of the long cherished aspirations of the people as reflected in the programme of action of the People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan adopted in the countrywide party conference.

The beginning of the second stage of distribution of land and land ownership documents to the toiling farmers of the country is an example of the efforts of the party and the state for the fulfillment of this great and historical task.

As a result of the measures taken by the party and the state, the revolutionary legality and the atmosphere of trust and confidence among the people has been further consolidated.

Lately, thousands of our compatriots, who had left the country under the effect of hostile propaganda, have returned to their country, to their homes and have resumed their peaceful and honest work in the interest of the country and revolution. Likewise, hundreds of the armed individuals, who were deceived by the enemies of the revolution, have laid down their arms, joined the ranks of the defenders of revolution announced their desire to cooperate with the revolutionary government. This state of affairs reflects the fact that our countrymen increasingly realize the falsity of the poisonous propaganda of the counter-revolution and every day greater numbers of the deceived persons become aware of the futility and harmfulness of cooperation with the counter-revolution.

In relation to this situation we invite all the noble compatriots once again to join hands in the ranks of the National Fatherland Front of the country for the creation of durable and permanent peace in the country, construction of peaceful and confident, progressive and blossoming life and to work and struggle unitedly.

Dear compatriots, I consider it my duty to express sympathy and condolence, in these days of 'Id al-Fitr, with those families of our compatriots who have lost their sons and relatives in the way of defending the honor and prestige of the revolutionary Afghanistan, in the way of defending the revolutionary gains of the country's toilers against the aggression and conspiracies of imperialism, reaction and hegemonism or as a result of the acts of terror of the mercenaries and counter-revolutionary marauders.

Arduous and endless praise to the holy spirits of all heroic martyrs of this prideful and great cause!

The state of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan is determined to pay serious attention to these families and individuals for all the time, so that they are not faced with moral and material difficulties. An example of this care of the state can be clearly seen in the recent adoption of the law of rights and privileges of the wounded, disabled and the survivors of the martyrs of the April Revolution.

Dear compatriots, in these auspicious days of Ramadan, and right now at the threshold of the happy days of 'Id al-Fitr, all the Muslims and the toiling peoples of the world are witnessing one of the most shameful aggressions of Zionism and imperialism against the Arab people of Palestine and the people of independent and sovereign Lebanon. As we have pointed out several times, this criminal and shameful aggression of the Israelis, which is a gross violation of all norms of international life and another tragic example of negligence of the principles of international law, was impossible without the help and support of the USA.

The stand of our country in this regard and vis-a-vis all the problems of the Middle East is fully clear and principled. We strongly condemn these shameless acts of the aggressive and Zionist Israel which are taking place with the cooperation of the USA and once again express our militant solidarity with the brother people of Palestine and patriotic forces of Lebanon.

We invite all the Muslims of the world to fight in one broad and united front against the Zionist conspiracies against the Palestine Arab people and Lebanese and for repelling the imperialist aggressions.

At the end once again I congratulate all the people of Afghanistan, Pashtun and Baluch brothers and all the toiling Muslims of the world, among them the brother peoples of Iran and Pakistan, on the occasion of these auspicious days and wish them prosperity, happiness and flourishing.

Once again we announce on the occasion of the 'Id al-Fitr that the policy of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan is a policy of peace and friendship with all the peoples and nations of the world.

Long live the unity of the world toiling Muslims against the reaction, imperialism and Zionism, for the sake of peace, freedom, happiness and welfare of all.

Down with the enemies of the toiling Muslim peoples of the world.

KARMAL SENDS MESSAGE TO 'ARAFAT ON LEBANON

LD201904 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Message from Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the DRA Revolutionary Council, to PLO Chairman Yasir 'Arafat -- date not given]

[Text] Dear Brother Yasir 'Arafat: These days, the world is witness to the aggression of the Israeli Zionists and their imperialist masters -- that is, U.S. imperialism -- against Lebanon and the Arab people of Palestine.

Once again the Israeli occupiers have embarked on a major war in the Middle East, have transformed the peaceful villages and towns in Lebanon into rubble, and have (?massacred) thousands of Palestinian and Lebanese children, old people and innocent women. The Israeli aggressors shamelessly violate the accepted norms and behavior in international (?affairs) and all resolutions of the United Nations Organization concerning Lebanon and are trying, by way of the massacre of Palestinians, to eliminate the PLO and also annihilate the united and independent Lebanon.

All these actions conceal the sinister strategic aims of Tel Aviv and Washington. By exploiting Arab disunity, they want to bring Arab countries, one after the other, under their imperialist sway and their subversive policy to further (?isolate) the Arabs and stifle the national liberation struggle in that part of the world.

The people of Afghanistan, who are themselves victims of the armed interference of imperialist and reactionary forces, deeply feel all the suffering, pain and innumerable persecutions the brazen aggression by the Israelis has brought on the people of Palestine and Lebanon.

The DRA considers Israel's recent aggression and its new crimes against Lebanon as a shameless [word indistinct] to the peace-loving people of the world, to all international society as the most hostile and most brazen action of flouting the legitimate rights of the Arab people -- that is, the right of freedom, political independence, national independence and the territorial integrity of the Arabs. The people of Afghanistan express their hatred of U.S. imperialism, which is putting fatal new weapons at the disposal of the Israeli criminals, encouraging Israel in its savage aggression and supporting its savage and intimidating terror.

In these turbulent moments of test and sacrifice for the people of Lebanon, Palestinians and all the Arab people, the DRA and our people resolutely demand the cessation of Israel's criminal aggression against Lebanon and that Israeli forces withdraw unconditionaly from Lebanese soil, and that the expansion of new incidents in the Middle East be stopped.

The DRA once again expresses its support for the people of Lebanon, the national and patriotic forces of that country, the Palestine Resistance movement, the other Arab peoples and the leading members of the Arab Steadfastness and Confrontation Front in their just struggle to win the legitimate rights of the Arab people against imperialism and Zionism.

Stop Israeli aggression against the soil of Lebanon!

Zionist occupiers out of Lebanon!

EX-FINANCE MINISTER JAILED FOR CORRUPTION

BK181045 Hong Kong AFP in English 1605 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Text] Dacca, July 17 (AFP) -- A special martial law tribunal today found former Finance Minister Saifur Rahman guilty of one charge of corruption and sentenced him to imprisonment but acquitted him of two other charges.

The tribunal, headed by a colonel, ordered 51-year-old Rahman, who served as finance minister for 5 years in the government of the slain President Zia and later of the deposed President Sattar, to pay a fine of taka 200,000 (about U.S. $10,000) failing which to suffer hard labour for two years.

The tribunal which tried the former minister for corruption and abuse of official position acquitted him of the first and second charges of exempting a housing society from paying stamp duty worth taka 2,200,000 (U.S.$110,000) and recommending a hotel owner to get a loan of taka 500,000 (U.S. $25,000) from a nationalised commercial bank.

The third charge of which he was convicted relates to unauthorised use of a vehicle of a government bank by members of his family.

Official news agency BSS said the tribunal in its unanimous judgement observed that the prosecution had failed to prove the first and second charges but had proved the third one beyond doubt.

Mr. Rahman, who was arrested shortly after the military takeover by General Ershad last March, became the fifth former minister of the ousted civilian government of BNP to be convicted under martial law for corruption.

The other convicted ministers are Jamaluddin Ahmed, Abul Hasnat, Chowdhury Tanvir, Ahmed Siddique and retired Naval Captain Nurul Haq (tried in absentia).

Prosecution sources said that they did not have any fresh charges against Mr. Rahman, adding "if Mr. Rahman agrees to pay the fine, he may be freed from jail soon."

Another tribunal headed by a brigadier early this week began the trial of former Deputy Prime Minister S.A. Bari, State Minister Aftabuzzaman and several others on charges of corruption.

Former Youth Development Minister Abul Kashem was arrested last month at his home for sheltering a hardened murderer in his official residence and obstructing police in catching the criminal, known as Imdu, who was later arrested.

Imdu himself was condemned to death last month by a summary martial law court and press reports said the government recently had turned down his petition for mercy.

In an interview to the Urdu daily, JANG, he said General Zia should either hold general elections or call a referendum. He said that there would be no objection if the military rule gets the mandate from the people. He, however, made it clear that a political settlement could be reached only on the basis of the 1973 Constitution and elections under it.

Meanwhile, the martial law regime is facing mounting criticism for a recent order banning political activities by bar associations and councils. Pakistani press reports say that the bar associations of Lahore, Karachi and Peshawar have demanded immediate withdrawal of the ban and restoration of people's rights.

[Text] Hadann, July 19, IRNA -- Four tanks and several personnel carriers of the enemy were smashed today beyond the Arvand River by the artillery fire of the Islamic defenders.

The smoke caused by the destruction of these tanks and personnel carriers was seen for several hours. The Islamic combatants overran the enemy bunkers in one of the western battlefields on Saturday, killing 50 Iraqis and blasting eight group and individual bunkers.

Iraqi Counterattacks Defeated

LD201038 Tehran IRNA in English 0935 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Text] Fajr military outpost, (Khuzestan Province), July 19 (IRNA) -- The commander of the 77th Khorasan Army Division said here today that at least 20 Iraqi soldiers had been killed in an abortive attempt to penetrate the lines of the Iranian troops north of the Zeid outpost. He said the Iraqis had lost 11 tanks and military personnel carriers, and one truckful of ammunition.

The Iraqi troops again tried to recapture the outpost at 05.00 am (01.30 GMT) today but were repulsed by the Iranian forces. They lost at least (?11) tanks and armoured personnel carriers and sustained a heavy toll of 500 wounded at the end of a 7-hour useless struggle.

In another interview, the commander of the 21st Hamzeh Division said in the Nasr outpost today that the Iraqis had launched fresh attacks against the positions of the Iranian troops but in the wake of four aborted counterattacks the Iraqi troops eventually retreated after having sustained a heavy toll of casualties. They also left behind undamaged several tanks.

He said the Iraqi Mechanised Brigades Number Six and Eight, and its Armoured Brigades Number 35 and 10, as well as its Divisions Number Six and Nine had incurred heavy casualties during the early morning operations today.

Commenting on the presence of the Iranian troops inside Iraqi territory, he said massive massacres by the Ba'thist regime, and the crimes that it had committed (?against Iran) for 22 months since the start of the war duly justified the Iranian thrust into Iraqi territory "in order [word indistinct] right themselves and safeguard the sanctity of the blood of our martyrs."

Iraqi Counteroffensives Fail

LD201122 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Text] According to a report received from the central Karbala' garrison, the joint operational headquarters of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, the combatants of Islam on the battlefronts continue their operations in order to strike blows against the deceived and aggressive Ba'thist forces, neutralize enemy movements to regain liberated zones and crush the enemy's feeble attempts to regain occupied areas inside Iraq.

At dawn today, collecting his forces along the (?Shahabi) axis, an operational sector, the enemy attempted a counteroffensive supported by artillery but was confronted by the alertness and resistance of the Islamic combatants. At 0900, leaving behind several dead or wounded, five tanks and three destroyed personnel carriers, the enemy was forced to flee.

Again, at 1000, under strong pressure from his commanders and from threats, the enemy attempted another counteroffensive. This time, too, the enemy move was severely crushed by the powerful forces of Islam and the deceived enemy fled, leaving behind (?20) destroyed tanks and personnel carriers, 3 bulldozers and several dead or wounded.

During this operation, about 200 of the enemy were killed or wounded. The commander of one of the active tank battalions was killed by the forces of Islam.

Rafsanjani Condemns Air Raids

[Excerpts] The Islamic Majlis held an open session today. At this session, which was chaired by Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the speaker of the Majlis delivered the following speech:

[Begin recording] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. As you have been informed, yesterday there were air raids on the champion town of Ilam and the martyr-nurturing town of Khorramabad. A number of people were martyred or wounded in these two towns.

We send condolences to the honorable people of these two towns and to the families who have suffered. The greatest condolence is that it was crimes like these committed by Saddam that gave our fighting forces one of their motives during the war. Saddam's filthy [word indistinct] bombing towns like Dezful, Ahvaz, Abadan and committed such crimes, exposed itself to the world and our combatants realized what criminals they were fighting against.

At this sensitive juncture, when we have entered Iraqi territory, we need such motivation more than ever before, although the principle of fighting [word indistinct] blasphemy is in itself the greatest motivation. Once again Saddam has revealed his true nature, in spite of all his claims of loving peace and innocence, and made our combatants and our people determined in their fight to restore their rights and to revenge these crimes.

At the end of today's open session, Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani announced the Majlis summer recess and thanked the students of Tehran's teachers training center for girls for being present at today's open session. He beseeched God for their success in carrying out their programs and work.

Joint Staff Communique 985

LD201806 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Communique No 985 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The proud and victorious combatants of Islam, during their just and righteous battle yesterday, just as on previous days, fired on the disintegrating body of the aggressive Iraqi Ba'thist Armed Forces on battlefronts and in confrontations. The warriors of Islam taught a lesson to the godless Saddamist mercenaries in the war of Islam against blasphemy on the battlefield. The criminal Saddamist mercenaries should know that the more they bomb the cities of our homeland, the more they drop bombs on the defenseless people of the cities and the more defenseless people they martyr or make homeless, the more they will see their punishment on the battlefronts; but the Muslim people of Iraqi cities will never suffer retaliation for these crimes.

Yesterday the combatants of Islam continued their efforts on the western fronts of the country in order to destroy the Saddamists. The outcome of their efforts yesterday is as follows:

During exchange of fire on the western fronts of the country, from Qasr-e Shirin to Meymak and Salehabad, the brave warriors of the ground forces and other self-sacrificing forces of Islam opened artillery and tank fire on positions and units of the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries, destroying one tank, several weapon emplacements and several of their trenches; preventing the operations and movement of the Saddamist forces, our forces killed a number of their troops on each front.

The sporadic exchange of artillery and mortar fire between our forces and the Saddamist mercenaries continued on the Marivan and Paveh fronts, in which our forces had superior firepower. The losses suffered by the Iraqi forces include the destruction of two emplacements for heavy weapons and the annihilation of three of their troops.

In addition to bombing Ilam and Khorramabad yesterday, the criminal Saddamist mercenaries tried to encroach upon the airspace of several other southern cities of the country, but the aggressive Iraqi planes were confronted by the prompt fire of the air defense units of the forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran and were forced to flee before having a chance to commit more crimes.

At 1230 yesterday one of the encroaching aircraft of the Iraqi aggressive forces was hit by the antiaircraft fire of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran on one of the western fronts of the country and crashed in enemy territory.

The city of Abadan was under long-range artillery fire from the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries. As a result, several houses were demolished and one person was wounded.

Iraqi Colonel on War

LD201832 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Text] According to an IRNA dispatch, Colonel 'Abd al-Mun'im, the commanding officer of the 2d Battalion of the 504th Brigade of the 4th Iraqi Division, who was taken prisoner a few days ago by the combatant forces of Islam, described in an interview the attack by the forces of Islam during the Ramadan Operation as very powerful and unexpected and noted that after the arrival of the forces of the Islamic Republic on Iraqi soil the military commanders of the Iraqi Army certainly learned about the power of the Islamic army. He, personally, was confident that the Iranian forces, just as they have already scored remarkable successes, in the future, too, will be able to defeat the Iraqi Army on all fronts.

Emphasizing the fact that in the course of this attack the Iranian forces suffered few casualties, he said that the losses in military hardware suffered by our forces were also negligible in the extreme.

In conclusion, Colonel 'Abd al-Mun'im, expressing his hope for the establishment of an Islamic regime in Iraq, said: I hope that in the near future, with the overthrow of the Iraqi Ba'th Party, the two nations in Islamic brotherhood will be able to repair the destruction resulting from the war.

Iraqi Planes Strafe Ahvaz

[Text] The first item in this newscast is about the latest aggressive Saddamist crimes against our tranquil Islamic cities.

O brothers: As we are about to celebrate the holy feast of 'Id al-Fitr, the aggressive Saddamist warplanes resumed attacking the residential areas in our Islamic homeland, leading to the martyrdom or wounding of a huge number of our innocent fasting civilians. This morning the vegetable market in Ahvaz was subjected to violent strafing by the hostile warplanes as a huge number of our citizens were preoccupied in buying their daily-needed goods. A huge number of the city's citizens were martyred or wounded as a result of this savage strafing. In addition, serious damage was inflicted on the market. Rescue teams are still removing the wounded and the corpses of the martyrs from under the debris. It is worth reporting that the area which was subjected to the hostile strafing this morning is inhabited by a huge number of our brother Arab citizens, in addition to the other city inhabitants who carry out their duties in the commercial field.

From God we come and to Him we shall return. Power and might come from Almighty God. [Koranic verses]

SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION CRITICIZED

GF201337 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 18 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "The UN Security Council Resolution and the Islamic Revolution"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: The UN Security Council, which woke up from its 22-month sleep after the commencement of the Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist regime's imposed war on Iran, has organized an emergency session to pass a resolution drawn up by vampire United States, Jordan and the Iraqi Ba'thist regime.

All clauses in the resolution loudly support the Ba'thists in Iraq and are a kind of lifebuoy for the aggressive Ba'thist regime. In fact, a careful study of the clauses in the Security Council resolution will reveal a long-standing, coordinated conspiracy hatched by international imperialism against the Islamic revolution of Iran.

A point worth mentioning is the sudden decision by the Security Council to wake up and say "Hey, we are here too" after the Zionist Iraqi Ba'thists decided on a unilateral cease-fire and resorted to a tactical withdrawal from part of occupied Iranian territory and after the Zionist regime, which occupies the Islamic land of Palestine, moved to organize savage attacks on southern Lebanon involving crimes and massacres.

In light of all this, how can the following questions be answered: Where has the Security Council been in the course of the 22-month-long war Iraq has imposed on the Islamic revolution? Taking into consideration the inhumane bombing of Iran by the Ba'thist regime in violation of international law, which has resulted in the martyrdom and maiming of hundreds of Iranians, does the Security Council resolution recognize any humane rights at all for the innocent Iranian people? No, never.

In fact, this is why the Islamic Republic has justifiably said that the Security Council resolution has been drawn up by the anti-Islam and anti-Islamic revolution vampire United States and its lackeys, the Jordanian and Iraqi regimes. This is why the Islamic Republic strongly criticized and categorically rejected the Security Council's acceptance and unanimous approval of such an imposition. Furthermore, there is no doubt that at the time the resolution was passed those who sat around the mysterious table in the Security Council failed to take into consideration the situation of the Iraqi people, who are suffering under the military boot of the Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist Party. Consequently, the Muslim Iraqi people, who have been placed under captivity by the infidel and criminal Ba'thist regime, are also criticizing the said resolution. In fact, they have rejected it outright.

Under the circumstances, we now ask the UN Security Council the following questions: Does your call for a cease-fire mean official permission for the Iraqi regime to continue bombing Iranian cities, killing or wounding civilians and destroying their homes, and shelling Iranian border cities and towns? What end would the plan for deploying a peace force in Iraq serve other than safeguarding the shaken position of the Iraqi regime and possibly crushing the strengthening of Islam in the international arena? Doesn't the Islamic Republic of Iran have the right to take the necessary steps to safeguard the gains of the Islamic revolution, which was achieved at the expense of the blood of thousands of youths? How can you expect the Islamic revolution to remain a mere onlooker to reinforcement of military position on the legal borders of Iran by the Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist aggressors?

It must be understood that the Islamic revolution can never allow the reinforcement on its borders of the armed forces of the infidel and murderer Saddam -- armed forces which have been proved to be not in the service of the Iraqi people but in the service of international imperialism. Moreover, if Iran were to remain indifferent toward such a development, it would be in conflict with the targets of the Islamic revolution.

It has been established on several occasions that UN peace forces are ineffective. This is common knowledge. The Islamic Republic of Iran is well aware to what extent the Security Council and other organizations side with defenseless innocent people and endeavor to see justice done. It is therefore crystal clear that the Islamic Republic will never relinquish its legal rights, regardless of the military and political pressures of the superpowers -- that is to say, even if these pressures manifest themselves through Security Council resolutions.

The Islamic Republic is opposed to such diplomatic moves and believes that such conspiracies are characteristic of the superpowers. Furthermore, the Islamic Republic is confident that the strings of those who take part in such conspiracies are held by the magic fingers of Eastern and Western actors. Therefore, if the Security Council has failed to understand how determined a stand the Islamic revolution has outside the sphere of political conspiracies, then let us remind its members once more that Islamic Iran, instead of political conspiracies, thinks more of the situation and fate of the poor masses of the world. It also believes that the road to Jerusalem crosses through Karbala'. In other words, it believes in the slogan "Jerusalem through Karbala'."

TEHRAN ASSAILS U.S. STAND ON WAR WITH IRAQ

GF180711 Tehran International Service in Arabic 1730 GMT 17 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary]

[Text] The description given by the information media circles hostile to the courageous operation carried out by the Islamic forces is no more than an attempt to mar the reputation of the Islamic revolution and brand the Islamic revolution as an invading country ambitiously seeking to occupy the territories of others.

We are not here to discuss this false and feeble claim which is being exploited by certain (?mean information media organs). It is important to emphasize the noble objectives of the Islamic forces' operation inside Iraqi territory and recall the real objectives which motivated the Islamic Republic to adopt this great stand, which will change the course of events and developments in the region.

We can simply and easily understand the (?background from several aspects). The past 5 days have recorded an event which gives the authentic and genuine picture of the operations of the Islamic forces inside Iraqi territory, or rather, the real picture of the region's fate. The United States has announced through the Pentagon that it is worried about what it calls the Iranian invasion of Iraq.

As soon as Reagan heard the news of the attack, he conferred with his advisers in the National Security Council. He discussed with them means to guarantee the encirclement of the courageous Islamic attack. An assistant to the U.S. President has announced to the world's press that Washington intends to supply the friendly small countries in the region with defensive and security equipment, some of which they can use to safeguard themselves and some of which they can send to Iraq through their territories. What does this statement mean, and what does Reagan's meeting with his advisers mean?

Doesn't this mean that the United States has actually entered the war alongside the Saddam regime and against the Islamic Republic? And why does the United States adopt this stand? This is the crux of the matter and this is exactly what we are looking for, the answer we are seeking. Washington's obvious siding with Iraq has been affirmed by all radio stations, among which are the pro-Saddam regime stations. This stand, which has been recorded by the latest events, clearly shows several important facts -- foremost of which is the danger posed by the courageous Islamic push to U.S. interests in the region.

In Washington's opinion, this attack will not only affect the destiny of the regime ruling Baghdad, but it will affect all the reactionary regimes in the region -- regimes which protect U.S. interests. This U.S. notion is due to the anti-U.S. imperialism trend pursued by the Islamic Republic of Iran, which daily participates in shaping events conflicting with U.S. interests. The United States has common interests with the rulers of the reactionary regimes, and those rulers in fact represent the watchdog of U.S. interests. With their fall, these interests would be in jeopardy.

The Islamic attack has posed danger to these interests because, in the first place, it is aimed at the overthrow of these regimes circling the U.S. orbit and protecting U.S. interests and, in the second place, at the replacement of these regimes with Islamic regimes that would safeguard the interests of the peoples instead of the interests of colonialists. The mere upholding of this slogan is an act opposed to the U.S. policy, so what about working for implementing this slogan as did the Islamic Republic of Iran? By so doing it reaped Washington's enmity and attempts aimed at supporting the Baghdad regime through the agent reactionary regimes.

This is one aspect of the matter. As for the other aspect, which the U.S. administration views in terms of the courageous action of the Islamic forces, it is as follows:

The United States views two trends in the region: the one representing its interests and those defending them, and the other as represented by the wing opposed to these interests. Since establishing the Israeli petty state, the United States has been supporting and strengthening the pro-American wing which is represented by the hireling rulers. The U.S. policy has been weakening and dividing the anti-American wing. Therefore, its ferocious war against all revolutionary movements and good voices calling for the liberation of the region from the noose of the U.S. interests was unleashed. U.S. policy shapes the U.S. view on the conflict in the region -- conflict between the two trends, and the victory of either trend will be reflected on U.S. interests and will hamper U.S. colonialist economic plans.

Washington's stand on the Islamic revolution and the revolution's victory over the pre-Islamic shah regime was hostile because the revolution represented the anti-U.S.-interests trend. From the beginning, the United States feared the Islamic revolution and feared that the victory of this revolution would strengthen the anti-U.S. trend represented by the free peoples and anticolonialism revolutionary forces. Thus, the United States viewed the victory of the Islamic forces over the Baghdad regime and these forces' entry into Iraqi territory as elements which would naturally boost the morale of the anti-U.S. forces and would redesign the map of the region in a fashion that would exclude its strategic interests.

The future dimensions of this victory, which will be crowned by the overthrow of the regime of agentry in Baghdad, God willing, worries the United States, which colonialistically realizes the negative impact of the fall of the Saddam regime and the establishment of a popular revolutionary regime in Iraq.

Based on these dimensions, Washington insistently announced its full support for the Saddam regime in the war imposed on the Islamic Republic. However, the United States and its allies said they support Saddam because the Iranian armed invasion of the regime has Soviet objectives. We do not know how the Soviets got involved in this matter and we do not know why those who make these claims do not view objectively what the Islamic revolution does for the people, considering that it is hostile to all kinds of imperialist hegemony in the region and does not distinguish between this or that colonialism. What the Islamic forces carried out in recent days was against all colonialists because it was aimed at liberating all the oppressed from suffering and pain. Therefore, let the anti-Islamic revolution circles realize this plan fact.

U.S. STRENGTHENING 'IMPERIALIST VOICE'

LD202052 Tehran IRNA in English 1959 GMT 20 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 20 (IRNA) -- The United States is planning to update its international broadcasting system. The plan will cover the Voice of America, Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. The measure was announced by American President Ronald Reagan yesterday. He said following the boosting of the transmissions millions of people living in communist countries would be able to hear "facts" about the disputes between the Western and Eastern blocs.

The American president did not give any information concerning the budget of the programme. However, it is expected that the budget would be several hundred million dollars for the next six to eight years.

In the past few years, U.S. imperialism, in tandem with increasing its military and armaments activities, has boosted its propaganda programmes by opening radio stations in various parts of the world. After the victory of the Islamic revolution of Iran, it has markedly increased the volume of its radio broadcasting hours in the region.

TUDEH PARTY'S KIANURI ON SITUATION IN IRAN

AU161242 Vienna VOLKSSTIMME in German 16 Jul 82 p 3

["Text" of statement by Nureddin Kianuri, Tudeh Party first secretary, "at a so-called 'question and answer meeting' held in mid-May 1982" -- place not given]

[Text] Our revolutionary fatherland is at present going through a very complicated and contradictory stage. We are witnessing a dangerous struggle between the followers of the line of Imam (Khomeyni), who represent the cause of anti-imperialism and social justice, and on the other side those people who are opposed to a deepening of the revolution. The enemies of the revolution have resorted to various tactics to promote their cause. They increasingly operate under the cover of "Islam" and through all kinds of doubtful organizations and societies. Their feverish "Islamization" campaigns are actually attempts to discredit the line of Imam Khomeyni, to deform the revolution and to evade anti-imperialist and social measures.

The exacerbation of the current struggle and the increasingly unconventional and artificial forms should not lead to a one-sided assessment especially regarding the direction in which we are moving. It is dangerous to oversimplify the heterogeneous structure of the ruling circles. It is also dangerous to ignore the realities and the setbacks.

In a situation where things are developing very quickly it is more important than ever to avoid simplifications and rash judgments. Every single incident, every decision must be seen as the product of an increasingly violent struggle between the friends of the revolution (the revolutionary Muslims and genuine leftists) and their enemies -- big landowners and capitalists and their "clerical" representatives. Only in this manner can the contradictory nature of the decisions made in the recent past be understood.

Let us, for example, take the events of the past few weeks. On the one hand we have such positive things as: The successful resistance to attempts aimed at postponing the discussion about a nationalization law; steps by the revolutionary institutions -- especially the so-called "seven-man commission," which deals with the implementation of land reform; the sharp rejection of a letter by Ayatollah Golpayegani by the majority of Parliament, a letter in which the Ayatollah complains about the "communist nature" of certain laws; the resistance (though inadequate) to the slander campaign originating from the fanatical pseudo-Muslims of the Hojjatiyeh society (an organization that is similar to the reactionary Muslim Brotherhood in Syria).

On the other hand we have a number of negative factors which one cannot overlook: the irresolute way of dealing with the open and hidden enemies of the revolution, the conspicuous repeated reconciliation with groups seeking to deform the revolution and which are sitting both in and around the revolutionary leadership; the capitulation to blackmail campaigns; the undemocratic practices; and the grave violations of the principles of law and order.

This also includes the fact that virtually nothing has been done against the campaigns of oppression organized by false friends of the revolution against those who seek to support the revolution — campaigns against the Tudeh Party and against the Feda'iyan-e Khalq (majority). There are also certain attempts to deform Iranian foreign policy in such a way that it permits a return to imperialism "through the back door," by advocating the deepening of relations with the so-called "friendly Islamic countries," irrespective of which domestic and foreign policy these so-called "friendly Islamic countries" are pursuing. (This is an allusion among others to the NATO country Turkey and to Pakistan — VOLKSSTIMME).

All this goes to show how complicated the current development is. It is necessary for us to carefully distinguish between the various lines, to be vigilant against the multifaceted conspiracies, and to stick to principled support of the revolution.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

22 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Israeli Position -- The "terrorists" must all leave Beirut, Prime Minister Menahem Begin reaffirmed in an interview with MA'ARIV. They will not be able to hold out, he said, and the Beirut problem will end within 2 or 3 weeks. In a similar vein, the prime minister subsequently told a U.S. Jewish delegation that the "terrorists" will soon leave Beirut and the fighting will be over, Jerusalem radio reported. Begin said he does not envisage any war in the near future after the fighting in Lebanon has ended. Meanwhile, Minister Without Portfolio Yitzhaq Moda'i revealed that the Cabinet is determined to activate a military plan for the capture of Beirut unless some political arrangement is realized within a week or two, ITIM reported.

Israel can solve the Beirut problem militarily but prefers to solve it by negotiation, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon told the U.S. Jewish delegation in remarks broadcast by Jerusalem radio. While Israel appreciates the importance of U.S. diplomatic efforts, he said, it will not make arrangements through any third party but will sign security arrangements directly with the Lebanese Government. Meanwhile, Israeli political circles stressed that Israel rejects proposals for the evacuation of the PLO in stages by way of northern Lebanon and the Al-Biqa' Valley, Jerusalem television reported. According to a subsequent Jerusalem radio report, Israeli political sources have said U.S. claims that Israel is piling up obstacles in the negotiations may have been made in order to prepare the ground for halting U.S. envoy Philip Habib's mission to the Middle East.

Regarding the possibility of Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir visiting Washington shortly, government sources said Shamir will only go if the Israelis believe there is something to talk about, the JERUSALEM POST reported.

PLO Position -- A FALASTIN ATH-THAWRAH editorial broadcast by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio called on the United States to take the initiative of recognizing the PLO and the rights of the Palestinian people. Expressing anxiety that the Saudi and Syrian foreign ministers have made facesaving agreements in Washington, the paper said the PLO rejects confining the negotiations to bartering the PLO's departure from Beirut for an Israeli withdrawal. The radio also broadcast a message by PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat that lambasted the "painful indifference" of Arab and Islamic leaders to the invasion of Lebanon, reminding them of their national and religious obligations.

Syrian, Algerian Activities, Stand -- Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad paid a secret visit to Moscow for talks on the Lebanese crisis earlier this week, AFP reported citing AS-SAFIR. In Washington, Syrian Foreign Minister 'Abd al-Halim Khaddam stressed that Syria adheres to its "clear, constant and principled" stand of refusing to accept the Palestinian fighters, who should only leave to return to Palestine, Damascus radio reported. Israel's withdrawal from Lebanon is the important issue on which all efforts should concentrate, Khaddam said. Algeria likewise affirmed that the problem does not lie in transferring the Palestinian Resistance from one Arab country to another but in tackling the central issue of a Palestinian homeland and state, according to Algiers radio. Algeria was surprised by claims that it might agree to receive the PLO, the radio said.

Egyptian Advice for U.S., Phalangists -- The United States can directly recognize the PLO and start negotiations with it, AL-AHRAM emphasized in a commentary reported by MENA. Egypt has warned the Phalangists not to make the historic error of supporting Israel's plans "aimed at destroying the Palestinian people," MENA also reported citing AL-MUSAWWAR.

Military Situation -- Five IDF soldiers were killed when an Israeli patrol encountered a "terrorist" squad which had penetrated through the Syrian-controlled area in eastern Lebanon, ITIM reported. The report added that the four members of the squad were also killed. Meanwhile, five IDF soldiers were injured when an RPG shell hit an Israeli vehicle north of Tyre, Jerusalem radio reported. According to a Voice of Lebanon report, Syria has reinforced its forces in 'Akkar, installing a radar device there, and has brought SAM batteries into Al-Qulay'at. In Beirut itself, sporadic firing and shelling took place round the city and in the southern suburb, Beirut radio reported.

Israeli-Egyptian Relations

Egypt has reopened the Tabah border with Israel but insists that arbitration on the contested Tabah region be renewed, according to AFP.

Iran-Iraq War

Iranian planes bombed Baghdad oil installations early 21 July, inflicting heavy losses and casualties on the Iraq, Tehran radio reported. It added that one plane crashed inside Iraq. Fighting continued on various fronts and one Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by the radio reported that an Iranian offensive was launched against Iraqi frontlines and successfully destroyed a "large enemy force." Tehran radio reported that Iraqi planes bombed residential areas in Ahvaz and Dezful and many were wounded. According to intelligence sources cited by the radio, Egyptian pilots have participated in bombings of Iranian residential areas. An Iraqi military communique carried by Baghdad radio updated the figures on Iranian losses around Basra, saying that 1,942 have been killed since 19 July.

According to a report by the London paper ASH-SHARQ AL-AWSAT, Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister Tariq 'Aziz told a Baghdad press conference on 20 July that Iranian losses in the current offensive had already exceeded 10,000 dead and over 800 captured. 'Aziz also denied reports that an attempt had been made to assassinate Iraqi President Saddam Husayn.

Iran

The United States has not met its obligations under the Algiers declaration and has committed 21 violations of the agreement, the Iranian official in charge of the office for coordination of the Algiers declaration said in an interview reported by Tehran radio. He added that Iran expects Algeria to put pressure on the United States to adhere to the agreements and to publicly announce U.S. violations.

GANDHI, RAO WANT HOMELAND FOR PALESTINIANS

[Text] Prime Minister Mrs Gandhi and External Affairs Minister P.V. Narasimha Rao have reiterated India's stand in favour of creating a homeland for the Palestinian people at the earliest. They were speaking at a function at which the prime minister handed over three truckloads of medicines and blankets to PLO Ambassador (Aweidah) as a gesture of India's moral support to the Palestinian people against the Israeli aggression. Relief materials are meant for distribution among the injured people in Lebanon.

Mrs Gandhi said the heart of every Indian is full of anguish at the situation unnaturally and unnecessarily created in Lebanon. Both Mrs Gandhi and Narasimha Rao said that it is not a question of settling the Palestinian people here and there. What is necessary is to find a permanent and just solution. Mrs Gandhi said the Palestinians were denied their homeland and their basic rights. The situation, she said, is desperate and all friends of the Palestinian people can only hope and pray from outside.

Mrs Gandhi also announced the formation of a committee headed by Dr Shanker Dayal Sharma, member of Parliament, to receive voluntary monetary contributions for remittance to the PLO.

The Palestinian ambassador said he was overwhelmed by the support given to his people by the government and people of India. The gifted articles were collected by the India-Arab society following a call given by the prime minister.

The Lok Sabha will discuss the situation in Lebanon tomorrow.

YAQUB KHAN COMMENTS ON STAND ON LEBANON

BK220822 Karachi Domestic Service in Urdu 1500 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Foreign Minister Sahabzada Yaqub Khan has said Pakistan's participation in the emergency session of the Coordinating Bureau of the Nonaligned Movement in Nicosia represents a reaffirmation of its full support for the Palestinian cause and its commitment to the principles of the Nonaligned Movement. The minister, who represented Pakistan at the meeting, was addressing a news conference in Islamabad this morning.

He said that in his statement to the plenary session of the conference he once again reiterated Pakistan's full support for the Lebanese and the Palestinian people in unequivocal terms. Pakistan also participated fully in the drafting of the declaration issued by the conference. He said he believed the conference achieved its objective by adopting a declaration which demonstrated the solidarity of the Nonaligned Movement with Lebanon and the Palestine Liberation Organization in the face of Israeli aggression.

The foreign minister said that during his stay in Nicosia he also held talks on bilateral issues with a number of foreign ministers, including those of Algeria, Bangladesh, Cuba, India, Iran, Jordan, the PLO and Yugoslavia to exchange views and determine the best course of action to be pursued at the conference.

Replying to a question, he said the Islamic foreign ministers will be meeting in a regular session in Niger in the third week of next month.

Concerning the postponement of the Tunis meeting, he said some of the countries were of the view that better results could be achieved through bilateral contacts rather than in multilateral gatherings. He said, however, that Pakistan was the first to accept the call for the meeting and in doing so responded to popular sentiment in Pakistan. He said the Nonaligned Movement's meeting, under the circumstances, was not intended to replace the meeting of the Islamic Conference Organization. Both are working in a similar direction.

In reply to another question, the foreign minister said the messages sent by President Mohammad Ziaul Haq to the five permament members of the UN Security Council condemning the barbaric Israeli invasion of Lebanon had a powerful effect. He said individual countries can only play their small part in exerting moral pressure and to that extent these messages have certainly had an effect. He said he cannot expect to bring about dramatic or spectacular results but by reflecting the strong feelings of the people of Pakistan it does contribute to the moral and political pressure which is brought to bear on a country that has direct influence on the future evolution of events in the area.

In reply to another question, the foreign minister said the Iran-Iraq war was disturbing stability in the area. Israel had a sense of satisfaction at the 2-year-old war between the two Islamic countries and has benefitted from it.

Sahabzada Yaqub Khan said Pakistan's military delegation had not been able to go to Damascus because Syria, presently in the midst of a war time situation, was not in a position to receive it. The delegation will visit Syria as soon as circumstances are favorable.

Asked to comment on Yasir 'Arafat's reply to President Mohammad Ziaul Haq in appreciation for his efforts to deter Israel from its genocidal war in Lebanon, the foreign minister said in Pakistan Yasir 'Arafat has found a faithful and sympathetic friend which has never hesitated to raise the voice of reason and of morality on behalf of the Palestinian cause, even though it had to pay a huge price for it.

JEWS CONDUCTING 'INTELLIGENCE WORK' IN PAKISTAN

BK191706 Delhi PATRIOT in English 12 Jul 82 p 3

[Text] The people of Pakistan, who have been angrily condemning the Israeli aggression on Lebanon, have learnt to their shock that many Jews have been working on different projects in their own country for intelligence purposes, reports UNI.

The government-owned PAKISTAN TIMES has published three letters revealing that Jews have been visiting, or working in Pakistan as citizens of the United States. A letter from Islamabad said that several channels were being used by Jews to carry on intelligence work in Pakistan. The most commonly used tract is the one which winds its way through the mysterious bureaucratic lanes of Washington D.C. into Islamabad.

"As is commonly known, American laws debar people from retaining dual citizenship but the American Jews are exempt from their purview. An American Jew is automatically a citizen of the illegal State of Israel and vice versa."

According to this letter, "many Israeli citizens have in the past sojourned and continue to visit Pakistan on American passports as scholars and specialists sponsored by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, or by winning grants from the American institute of Pakistan studies."

Some Jews come to Pakistan as area specialists, sponsored by the U.S. foreign office, the letter added and alleged that they were sabotaging "our cultural, moral, political, social and ideological values by spreading rumours and by stealthily starting subtle whispering campaigns at certain predetermined periods of time."

One letter writer from Lahore, shocked at the revelation Jews were operating in Pakistan, wrote: "It will be interesting for every Muslim to know how and why the Jews are sneaking into Pakistan."

The first letter was written from Lahore by one "perplexed." It pointed out that while the Pakistan Government refused entry to an EEC delegate, David Israel (a French minister), there were Jews working in Pakistan although they did not bear the name "Israel."

BHUTTO BROTHERS TO CONTINUE ANTIREGIME ACTS

GF211805 Lahore JANG in Urdu 15 Jul 82 pp 1, 8

[By JANG correspondent 'Ajaz Hashmat]

[Text] Faisalabad, 14 July — According to informed sources, Nusrat Bhutto, chairman of the defunct People's Party, has sent a special message to her two sons Murtaza and Shahnawaz Bhutto advising them to stop their terrorist activities in Pakistan immediately and declaring that persons sent into Pakistan for terrorist activities should also desist from sabotage and illegal acts.

According to the sources, Mustafa Jatoi, leader of the defunct People's Party, who has just returned home from abroad, had been given this message to deliver to her two sons. According to the sources, the message which Mustafa Jatoi took with him said that under the present conditions in the country acts of terrorism and sabotage in no way helped the cause of the People's Party but in fact were causing irreparable loss to it. Fear and apprehension are increasing among party workers because police, under the pretext of terrorist activities, are harassing party workers and involving them in the criminal charges. This, in turn, prejudices the families of workers against the party and is causing it an irreparable loss in popularity. It is also strengthening the government's hand.

The sources report that Murtaza and Shahnawaz Bhutto told Mustafa Jatoi clearly that they would not give up acts of terrorism and would continue their activities against the government.

He said this step is being taken because people hesitate to assist the police in investigations owing to certain complications in existing laws. The interiorminister said that qazi courts are also being set up shortly for quicker disposal of litigations.

NEPAL

THAPA GOVERNMENT BLAMED FOR FAMINELIKE SITUATION

BK180706 Hong Kong AFP in English 0635 GMT 18 Jul 82

[By Kedar Man Singh]

[Text] Katmandu, July 17 (AFP) -- Despite record food production in the last year people in 59 of Nepal's 75 districts are suffering severe food shortages and the Thapa government has faced unprecedented criticism for its handling of the crisis by National Panchayat (legislature) members.

A National Panchayat member said that there had been three deaths from starvation in his district and it was reported yesterday that 39 people died of gastro-enteritis after eating unsuitable food in the face of grain shortages in most of the country.

But Nepal had a record food production of about 3.9 million tons during the last fiscal year (ending July 16) -- 3.6 percent [more] than in 1980-1981.

The government has been forced to rush food by army helicopter to the affected areas -- mainly the northern hills and mountainous far western districts -- to try to avert starvation. But several National Panchayat members have charged the government with gross negligence in not introducing quickly enough emergency measures to supply food.

The anti-Thapa lobby in the National Panchayat gained unprecedented support in the house -- some 62 percent -- in tabling a motion of public importance against the government and forcing a debate on the famine-like situation, expected to be discussed this week. It is the first time that a majority of members of the National Panchayat have agreed to discuss the possible famine in critical terms.

The Thapa government's food policy, which is believed to have contributed to food price rises also came in for strong criticism from Panchayat members.

One member told the house that the northern sector of his zone was facing severe food shortage and one sack of rice cost four times more than in Katmandu.

Members also want to urge the government to make special arrangements to avert the starvation deaths in different parts of the kingdom.

In the general debate on the food situation, Nepalese Minister for Finance and Local Supplies Dr. Yadav Prasad Pant assured the house that the government was making special arrangements to supply food to the affected areas.

But National Panchayat members have laid the blame on Prime Minister Surya Bahadur Thapa's government for negligence in not supplying food on time.

According to a senior spokesman of the Nepalese Ministry of Local Supply, the government had exported 36,000 metric tons of food grain to Bangladesh, Mauritius and Singapore early this year. But the spokesman stressed that a similar amount had been kept back as a buffer stock maintained in different districts. The spokesman said "the only problem for us is to get the food distributed by earliest means and therefore we have used Army helicopter to transport food grains in Humla, Dolpa and Mugu districts in far north western Nepal." In other areas we are going to use the buffer stock in order to continue the supply line, he added.

The situation has been made worse by climatic conditions. Strong hail storms lashed the mid-mountainous and low land tropical regions a couple of months ago and destroyed 80 percent of the maize crop which forms the staple diet for people in these regions and they are now suffering food shortages.

In addition, Panchayat members told the government that because of the late monsoon, which has already affected rice planting in several districts, there was a likelihood of famine occurring this winter. Of the total cultivatable land only 14 percent has irrigation facility and the rest is dependent on the monsoon rains.

Meanwhile, the Nepalese Government is reported to have asked the European Economic Community (EEC) for food grain aid totaling 8,000 metric tons of wheat. The EEC has granted the aid, which is to be sold at subsidised prices and used to finance the transport of food to the deficit areas.

CABINET APPROVES CHANGES IN ELECTION LAWS

BK171027 Colombo SUN in English 8 Jul 82 p 1

[By Jennifer Henricus and Lalith Allahakoon]

[Text] An early presidential poll became imminent yesterday as the Cabinet decided to adopt a series of far-reaching changes to the election laws and the Constitution.

Ministers approved the preparation of legislation to remove the present restriction on the president seeking a mandate before the expiry of the term of his office and to enable the president to call for a presidential election.

The Constitution presently states that "the president of the republic shall be elected by the people, and shall hold office for the term of six years'

The Cabinet approved in principle the amendments and this will now enable the president to call for a presidential election in time after four years of his assumption of office.

J.R. Jayewardene, the first executive president of Sri Lanka, has already completed four years after assumption of office on February 4, 1978.

Shortly after the Cabinet meeting, President Jayewardene disclosed these decisions to party leaders in Parliament at his office. Members of the opposition who met him were V.N. Navaratnam, TULF; Maithripala Senanayake, SLFP (M); Sarath Muttetuwegama, CP; and R. Sampanthan, TULF.

Any person making use of a person who had lost civic rights during a election would be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice. On an injuction being applied for in the courts (Court of Appeal) in this regard, during the course of the election, votes for that party in respect of that district will not be counted.

A person who has been deprived of his civic rights, such as former Premier Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike, by a special presidential commission will be subject to no further disqualification, the Cabinet also decided.

On an election petition on this ground, the candidates of the party so elected will not be able to sit in Parliament pending a determination of that election petition. Election petitions will be determined within two months of filing.

Members of Parliament soon after a general election will be permitted to cross over "to participate in the formation of a government for the purpose of assuring a stable government". Cabinet Spokesman Anandatissa de Alwis said yesterday that this provision, which will be provided to members of Parliament of all parties, will be restricted. He said that this restriction may apply to a period of about 21 days.

Present restrictions on the president in dissolving Parliament in the first year will be removed. Provision will be made for the president to dissolve Parliament in the first year after a general election on not more than two occasions.

The Cabinet approved the preparation of legislation to change the present provisions regarding making available TV time and broadcasting time as between political parties which is mandatory, to be determined by administrative means after consultation with the opposition.

Changes Opposed

BK171139 Colombo SUN in English 13 Jul 82 p 7

[Editorial: "Amendments"]

[Text] Last week the Cabinet of ministers approved a series of wideranging constitutional changes. The proposed amendments are not only controversial in character but appear at first glance to be motivated by party considerations. Even a schoolboy could detect that the underlying purpose of the proposed changes was a naked attempt to perpetuate the United National Party [UNP].

The latest exercise in constitution tinkering, it appears, is an affront to the democratic traditions and to the philosophy that the United National Party leadership professes. These contemplated changes cannot by any stretch of the imagination be labelled 'righteous'.

The protagonists of the constitutional changes argue that these are necessary in order to give a human face to the Constitution of 1978, particularly as regards the new fangled proportional representation [PR] electoral system.

With the vast majority at its command the government can of course bulldoze its way and ensure that these unpopular amendments are placed on the statute book.

If these changes were really necessary why were they not made before? Much misunderstanding could have been avoided. The government would then have avoided being exposed to charges of mala fide.

The propriety and the necessity to tinker with the Constitution by bringing in frequent amendments are open to inquiry. The present exercise could even be construed as a blow to the sovereignty of the people which the self-cu [as published] same Constitution boldly affirms.

It is lamentable that these amendments are sought by the persons that impeached the former government when it prolonged the life of Parliament through a two-third majority. For this those responsible were voted out of office and live to rule their actions as constitutional lepers.

Perhaps the government is convinced that if the changes were not made during its current term of office, it may be impossible to do so after the PR system becomes operative. But is the eve of an election the proper time to bring these draconian amendments? Hence the hurry.

We fear that even an overwhelming election landslide for the UNP after these amendments would be a pyrrhic victory and would bo so claimed by the defeated. We venture to think that even the 'Jupiter effect' that is supposed to be shining on the administration may not be bright enough to ward off the people's derision.

OFFICIAL: U.S. VIOLATES ALGIERS AGREEMENT

LD211148 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Mr Mohammadi, the official in charge of the office for coordination of the Algiers declaration, accompanied Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi to Algeria, where he held several meetings with officials of the Algerian Foreign Ministry. Mr Mohammadi gave an interview to IRNA in which he commented on U.S. violations of the Algiers declaration, saying:

Our country knew the United States would not meet its commitments, despite its claims. Two years after the United States agreed to these commitments and the hostages were released, the U.S. Government has not met its obligations.

He added: The United States has committed 21 violations of the Algiers declaration, including the freezing of Iranian assets in U.S. banks. The United States refuses to hand over Iranian assets, has taken no steps regarding the dead shah's property and is trying to hide the truth from the Iranian Government. We have raised these violations both at the International Court at The Hague and in U.S. courts in order to prevent them from falling under the statute of limitations.

We expect the brother Government of Algeria, which is responsible for the exact implementation of this declaration, to put pressure on the U.S. Government and expose the violator of this declaration to the world.

MUSAVI RETURNS FROM ALGERIA, LIBYA 21 JULY

LD212104 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi, who had gone to Algeria and Libya accompanied by Energy Minister Ghafuri-Fard, Minister of Higher Education and Culture Najafi, Foreign Ministry Under Secretary 'Azizi and other officials, after concluding his trip to the brother country of Libya, was cordially seen off by Libyan Revolution Council member Ahmed 'Abd as-Salam Jallud and a group of Libyan officials and also by the ambassador and [embassy] staff of the Islamic Republic of Iran. They left Libya for Tehran this morning.

According to the report, after a short stopover at Istanbul airport for prayers, the prime minister and his entourage gave an interview to a correspondent of the daily MILLIYET published in Turkey, and answered questions on various subjects, including the imposed war and the conditions set by the Islamic Republic of Iran for ending the war against the Ba'thist mercenaries of Iran. Then, after being seen off by the governor general of Istanbul and the consul general of Iran, the prime minister and his entourage left that city and arrived at Tehran airport at 1900. They were welcomed by Mr Aqazadeh, the minister of state for executive affairs, and a number of other officials.

Reports on Talks

LD212248 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Interview with Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi following his return from Libya -- time and place not given -- recorded]

[Text] [Question] Mr Musavi, would you please tell us what was the overall outcome of your trip to Algeria and Libya?

[Answer] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. I offer my congratulations to our honorable nation on the occasion of the 'Id al-Fitr. This visit was made at the formal invitation of the Algerian Government and we were welcomed with very warm hospitality. I would like to add here that we received a similar warm welcome in Libya too.

Under the present circumstances, and in our situation concerning the Iraq-imposed war, this kind of hospitality can be very meaningful in the eyes [word indistinct] of the Arab countries. This makes nonsense of the efforts of those who are trying to pretend that this is a war between Arabs and Persians and the hospitality frustrates all the propaganda of Saddam and the reactionary regimes.

It is natural that we discussed the important issues of the region with our Algerian brothers, and we discussed relations between the two countries. We were a high-ranking delegation. We set up three political, economic and cultural committees. The committees reviewed cultural, economic and other matters and held talks which resulted in the preparation of a memorandum of understanding. Together with the Algerian prime minister, we signed the memorandum before our departure from Boumedienne Airport.

[Words indistinct] held brief talks with Algerian officals about regional issues. We talked with the Algerian foreign minister about the Iraqi-imposed war, about imperialist conspiracies in the region and in North Africa, about the link between these conspiracies, the method of struggle against Israel and the need for unity of Muslim forces against the arrogant forces, particularly against Zionism and imperialism. These were the main points we discussed with our brothers.

There are several interesting points in the memorandum of understanding. Our exchange (?should be) reflected somehow. From the political point of view it is important for us to declare what was mentioned in the memorandum of understanding about the outcome of the OPEC conference. It has become quite clear that from [words indistinct] Saudi Arabia was identified as the guilty party, and American policies in this regime have caused this problem.

Apart from these talks we and our brothers held lengthy discussions about the Algerian accord. You know that in this accord Algeria plays the role of supervisor, coordinator and [word indistinct] to some extent, and can be very effective in the final outcome of our claims against America. (?We are complaining) about the obstruction created by the criminal America in connection with the Algerian accord. We raised this with our Algerian brothers and asked them to be more active in this matter. They promised to review the issue and pursue it.

After visiting Algeria we went to Libya. We were very warmly welcomed. We (?had) meetings with Brother al-Qadhdhafi and Brother Jallud. Naturally, our discussions there were in two parts. First, we continued the discussions that we had in Tehran (?and we discussed) ways of implementing the agreements that we signed. We discussed the problems of the region. Because of its particular importance, we held lengthy discussions about the conspiracies of Zionism and imperialism in Lebanon. We talked about the pressure being exerted on our brother country of Syria and reached some conclusions. Naturally, we shall have further exchanges of views with our brothers about our decisions. This is a brief (?summary) that I can present here. [passage indistinct]

GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN HOLDS PRESS CONFERENCE

LD212302 Tehran IRNA in English 1720 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 21 (IRNA) -- The government spokesman of the Islamic Republic, Ahmad Tavakkoli, held a press conference this morning.

When asked about the recent statement of the Iraqi deputy prime minister, Tariq Hana [name as received], in which he announced one condition for ending the twenty-two month old war would be Iranian recognition of the sovereignty of the present Iraqi regime, Tavakkoli said that as a Muslim nation Iran could not be satisfied seeing a criminal clique, in clear contradiction to Islam and preserving the interests of the West, ruling Iraq. "We will continue our path until we root out this lawless regime", Tavakkoli told reporters.

In another part of the press conference, Tavakkoli added that the recent statement of the Zionist regime's prime minister, Menahem Begin, would have no effect on the determination of the Iranian people concerning the liberation of Al-Quds. "We will continue in this endeavor," Tavakkoli said.

The statement of the government spokesman was in response to a recent speech by Begin in which, commenting on the objective of the Iranian people in liberating the holy city Al-Quds, he had said the Zionist regime's army would destroy the Iranian forces halfway to Al-Quds.

Continuing his remarks on the subject, Tavakkoli said that such statements were expected of Begin; however, he said he was surprised with the silence of the Islamic countries concerning the expansionist goals of the Zionist regime. He criticised these countries for having failed to take a proper stance against the Zionist regime.

The government spokesman reiterated the point that the power of faith prevailed over the power of advanced weapons. Although the superpowers have been providing Iraq with advance armaments, the Iranian forces, relying on their faith, have been victorious. He also noted that the bombardment on Iranian border cities by the Iraqi Air Force, which has resulted in the martyrdom of hundreds of civilians, were signs of the weakness of the Iraqi regime, which was in its final days of power.

Citing the admission of the Iraqi ambassador to West Germany that if the countries of the European Economic Community (EEC) did not act decisively to end the Iran-Iraq war, with the fall of Saddam, the regional interests of the West would be imperiled, Tavakkoli said the Iraqi regime was a protection for U.S. interests. He added that other Western and imperialist regimes should not rule over Muslim nations, and the Iranian policy remains inflexible in this regard.

In connection with the changing policy of some countries of the region, reflecting Saddam's crimes in the bombardment of residential areas, the government spokesman said that these countries initially favored Iraq but gradually they became alarmed at the atrocities committed by Saddam. First the United Arab Emirates and then other countries realised the rightfulness of the Iranian position, Tavakkoli added.

Further Details

LD212036 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Mr Tavakkoli, minister of labor and government spokesman, has addressed a press conference attended by domestic correspondents, and replied to their questions. While congratulating Iran's Muslim nation on the happy occasion of 'Id al-Fitr, he said the following about remarks by Begin, the prime minister of the regime occupying Jerusalem, pertaining to the latest victory achieved by Islam's combatants: These remarks will not have any effect and we will continue along our path. But what surprises us is the behavior of the Islamic countries, so much so that despite the fact that Sharon says "we shall not confine ourselves to the plan for expanding Israel but rather will advance to Iran and Pakistan," these negligent people are so amiss they cannot even recognize their worldly interests.

Speaking about the recent bombings of residential areas by aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi regime, he said: This action is taking place because the Saddam regime is crumbling and, naturally, in order to continue its rule for a few more days it resorts to any action. But this very thing has made our people even more steadfast and resistant.

He added: On the other hand, everyone knows that the East and West are protecting and helping Israel and Iraq. But what they lack is the weapon of faith and just as the Koran says: It is this very weapon that will vanquish.

In connection with the reconstruction of the war-damaged regions, the government spokesman said: The government believes that in order to reconstruct, cheap building materials should be available to the people. Some of these materials are being imported while another lot can be supplied from within the country.

The government's task in this connection is to place a certain amount of money at the disposal of the housing bank so that it can be paid to those persons who could utilize these funds for the benefit of society and reduce our needs for building materials and ironware. In this connection, the government has set up a commission within the Housing Ministry to investigate requests.

Concerning the change in the position adopted by certain countries in connection with the war imposed on Iran by the aggressive Iraqi regime, he said: In the beginning these countries used to think that right was not on our side but with the continuation of the war. The UAE, before all others, gradually came to recognize the rightful position of Iran and when the realities became clear, of course, every Muslim felt committed to defending our position.

As for the bureaucracy in government departments, the government spokesman said: The Majlis presented the government with an approved resolution about 4 months ago whereby the government is dutybound to (?reappraise) the organization of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, to clarify common lines of action and do away with duplication of tasks and to present the Majlis with a plan to simplify organizations. With the tasks currently being carried out by government departments, ministries, by the Civil Service Commission and also by the deputy prime minister, who has been entrusted with supervising this task, we hope in the appointed time we will be able to present the Majlis with this draft bill for its approval.

Concerning insurance, Mr Tavakkoli said: Within the next 2 or 3 days the Ministry of Labor will issue a circular wherein the government undertakes to pay part of the insurance dues for small-production and technical workshops so that these types of workshops can be activated, so that production can increase and so that the closure of these workshops can be prevented. God willing, the government is determined to carry out this task over 3 years and the regulations covering this will be announced within the next few days.

[Text] In His exalted name. Blessed be the great 'Id al-Fitr, which coincides with the victories scored by the combatants of Islam in the Ramadan Operation, in the presence of the holy al-mahdi [the 12th imam] -- may Almighty God hasten his esteemed advent -- of his rightful vicar, Imam Khomeyni, and of the entire Islamic and combatant nation of Iran.

According to dispatches we have received from the battlefronts during the past 24 hours, exchange of fire has continued in the operational zones in the western parts of the country and on each of the fronts our fighting combatants, by retaliating against enemy fire, inflicted losses and casualties on the Saddamist forces.

In the Meymak, Sumar and Qasr-e Shirin areas, exchange of heavy fire continued and Islam's forces succeeded in destroying 3 enemy tanks and vehicles, 4 trenches and several enemy ammunition dumps, and killed or wounded more than 20 of their servicemen. In these regions, thanks to our firepower superiority, the enemy's artillery was silenced and the movements of the aggressive enemy forces were frustrated.

In the exchange of fire that took place on the Marivan fronts, our forces, by opening fire on enemy positions, destroyed one ammunition dump in the Biarreh region and one in the Paveh region. As a result of our combatants' firing on the Saddamist positions, several enemy trenches were set ablaze and destroyed and at least eight of the Ba'thist mercenaries were killed.

Yesterday Iraq's Zionist, Ba'thist Army, using heavy weapons, set ablaze several residential parts of Abadan causing material damage and losses in lives.

At 0930 today the Saddamist criminals subjected the residential parts of Ahvaz to aerial bombardment and as a result about 40 houses and shops were destroyed. In the course of rubble-clearance operations, so far the pure bodies of 9 martyrs have been retrieved and 58 of those wounded during this barbarous action were moved to hospitals.

This morning the fighter aircraft of the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran, in the course of air raids outside our country's borders, bombed oil installations in Baghdad and destroyed a part of them.

In Hamadan alone, 111 civilians were martyred and 595 others wounded Friday, July 16, when the Iraqi fighters planes bombed the people demonstrating on the occasion of International Al-Quds Day. In the city of Sargeneh, more than 100 were martyred and hundreds of others wounded.

In Ilam, some 70 civilians were martyred or wounded as the city's residential quarters were bombed twice.

4 Iraqi Divisions Dispersed

LD221030 Tehran IRNA in English 0954 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Text] Ahvaz, Jul 22, (IRNA) -- The Islamic forces destroyed at least 100 tanks and personnel carriers of the Iraqi forces and killed many enemy soldiers during last night's offensive, near the Iraqi port city of Basra. The Islamic forces infiltrated 7 kms into Iraqi territory northeast of Basra, near a fishing canal, in a seven hour battle with the Iraqi forces, dispersing four enemy divisions. An IRNA correspondent on the scene said that the Islamic forces returned to their previous positions after reaching the Kutayban stream. Also, according to reports received from Iranian listening posts on the fronts, the Iraqi commanders had ordered their troops to retreat as soon as the Muslim combatants crossed the stream, while the Iraqi "special brigade" had already (?abandoned) the battle area.

More details will be reported, as more accurate figures on Iraqi losses are received.

Iraqi Losses Detailed

LD221032 Tehran IRNA in English 1004 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Text] Ahvaz, Jul 22 (IRNA) -- At least 179 tanks and personnel carriers of the Iraqi enemy were destroyed by the Islamic combatants of Iran on two axes 10 kms east of the Iraqi port of Basra during a 7-hour offensive Wednesday night. The attack, a continuation of the Ramadan Operation, started at 20:30 p.m. on Wednesday and continued until 03:13 a.m. today, an IRNA field correspondent reported.

Meanwhile the number of martyrs of the Ahvaz shelling by the Iraqi forces yesterday mounted to 10 as one more body was discovered in the wreckage left by the bombing this morning.

It should be noted that since the inception of the Iraqi-imposed war, the Iraqi forces have targetted populated areas with their short and long-range artillery, martyring many innocent people in the western and southern cities of Iran. The Islamic Republic of Iran has so far avoided any air or artillery raids against civilian areas in Iraqi territory.

REFUGEE SAYS EGYPTIANS STAFF IRAQI GOVERNMENT

LD211156 Tehran IRNA in English 1021 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Khorramshahr July 20 IRNA -- After introducing himself to the Islamic combatants in southern fronts during the Ramadan Operation, one of the Iraqi Muslim mujahidin in an interview with IRNA said after the beginning of the Iraqi imposed war, the Iraqi Ba'thist purged the government offices of devout Muslims, replacing them with Egyptian intelligence agents. The purge victims were sent then to the battlefronts.

The Iraqi refugee, who asked not to be identified, said that presently Egyptian security personnel were keeping the Iraqi people in check.

The Iraqi refugee said many former lower-echelon Ba'thist Party members or fellow-travellers had become disillusioned or disgusted with Saddam and some had even joined the Muslim mujahidin.

He said not only did the Iraqi Muslim mujahidin recognise the leadership of Imam Khomeyni, but so did all the Iraqi people who wished to be his followers. Contrary to what Saddam was claiming, the people of Basra were anxiously waiting for the arrival of the forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran to liberate them from the oppression of the Iraqi Ba'thists, the Iraqi refugee said.

He concluded by saying that except for a few individuals whose lives and careers are inextricably tied to the Iraqi Ba'thist Party, most Iraqi families in Basra were ready to welcome the Islamic forces.

WELFARE MINISTER RESIGNS FOR 'PERSONAL REASONS'

LD212056 Tehran IRNA in English 1943 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 21 (IRNA) -- The minister of state and head of the Welfare Organisation, Dr Mahmud Rohani, today announced his resignation. He said that his resignation was offered for personal reasons and added that Prime Minister Musavi had agreed with this request.

In a farewell meeting with the personnel of the organisation this morning, Rohani hoped that the committed staff of the Welfare Organisation would continue to serve the oppressed and needy. During the ceremony officials of the organisation praised the service of the minister.

Prime Minister Musavi last Saturday announced that there was going to be some changes in the Cabinet and Dr Rohani is the first member of the Prime Minister Musavi's Cabinet to resign since then.

According to Tehran newspapers, Minister of Ershad Eslami (Islamic Guidance), 'Abdolmajid Ma'adikhah will probably offer his resignation as well, which is said to be due to his ill health.

30 'ARMED INSURGENTS' KILLED IN URUMIYEH AREA

GF201300 Tehran ETTELA'AT in Persian 11 Jul 82 p 14

[Excerpts] In the purging operation named after martyr Beheshti that was carried out at 0100 on Thursday by the valiant and antiapostate Islamic combatants in the (Suman) district of Urumiyeh, some villages of the area, especially where the defunct Democratic Party was based, and the village of (Hursen) were cleansed of armed insurgents and a large number of counterrevolutionaries were killed.

The IRNA correspondent in Urumiyeh confirmed this report by contacting revolution guards who informed him: In the skirmish, which lasted 15 hours, the fearless Islamic revolution guards, Islamic Republic troops and the gendarmerie valiantly cleansed the area of the filth of the counterrevolutionaries, especially some strategic hills in the Shahid Soltani area and the villages of (Juni) and (Marneh). They liberated the Muslim people of these villages from the clutches of the unlawful armed elements and endowed them with the blessing of freedom under the auspices of the Islamic Republic.

According to this report, 30 armed insurgents were killed. A large quantity of certificates and documents pertaining to the defunct Democratic Party, which indicated their affiliation with the adventurers and feudalists of the area, were also seized by the victorious Islamic combatants.

The report says that the Islamic soldiers are in complete control of the area. By the grace of God, the fearless forces of Islam did not sustain any losses.

NVOI: RELATIONS WITH TURKEY HARM INTERESTS

NC180017 [Editorial Report] The clandestine National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran at 1730 GMT on 16 July carried a commentary entitled: "The U.S.-Affiliated Coupist Regime Cannot Be the Friend of Anti-U.S. Iran."

It stated that some officials of the Islamic Republic continue to refer to U.S.-stricken Turkey as the friend of anti-U.S. Iran and steps have been taken by some to expand cooperation with the regime of coupists.

Apparently, these gentlemen are unaware of reality and do not even care to look at official and semiofficial publications. Some time ago SOBH-E AZADEGAN and other newspapers published an interesting item on U.S.-stricken Turkey, and had these gentlemen read the newspapers, they would have preferred silence to continued support for Turkey. Reports on Turkey's affiliation to the United States are so many that we cannot study them in this short talk. We only suffice to refer to a report appearing in JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI on General Haig's trip to Turkey -- a trip directly linked with U.S. pressures on Iran, the Persian Gulf, Syrian and Palestinian forces in Lebanon.

Quoting foreign sources, JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI reported on U.S. intentions to set up bases in eastern Turkey, where it already has an extensive military presence. JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI's report flagrantly speaks of joint military plan -- something that can upset the balance of regional power, on building of new bases and on basing of rapid deployment force there. The objective of this joint plan is apparently not to protect the revolutionary gains of our nation as some claim, but our revolutionary country and the oil-rich Persian Gulf. In other words, Turkey's coupist regime grants the United States use of Turkey's territory whenever it wishes to attack our territory and oil-rich areas in the Persian Gulf. Everyone knows that elements of the past regime and former SAVAKists and officers are living in Turkey and are being trained by Pentagon and CIA advisers.

However, despite the existence of dozens and hundreds of documents and proofs, we can find some officials in Iran who consider the coupists' regime in Turkey as Iran's friend and work toward the expansion of relations with this U.S.-stricken country. These people are either working unknowingly or are knowingly helping the great Satan and counterrevolution. In both cases the result is one. They are harming Iran's revolutionary gains and will be held responsible for this.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

23 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Military Situation -- The IDF attacked Syrian and "terrorist" targets along the cease-fire line in the Al-Biqa' region and subsequently launched air attacks against PLO targets in Beirut, according to announcements by the IDF spokesman reported by IDF radio during the afternoon of 22 July. Noting that the Israeli attacks were in response to repeated cease-fire violations by "terrorist" squads operating from within the Syrian lines, the spokesman said the IDF stopped shooting in the eastern sector during the evening. Two IDF soldiers were killed and two more were injured in the battles with the Syrians, which led to no change in positions, Jerusalem radio reported. A Syrian military spokesman claimed that Israeli losses included 24 tanks destroyed but admitted that the Syrians lost 16 tanks, 2 dead and 14 wounded, according to Damascus radio. Israeli warplanes raided Syrian targets in Barr Ilyas, southeast of Shtawrah, and Ba'labakk, according to Voice of Lebanon radio.

In Beirut the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces military spokesman said 62 people were killed or wounded in three Israeli air raids on the Western sector, the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio reported. A subsequent radio report raised the estimated casualty toll to 182 people and claimed two IDF tanks were destroyed in artillery exchanges in and around Beirut. The capital was calm early on 23 July despite limited exchanges of fire in the southern suburbs during the night, according to the Voice of Lebanon.

Israeli Position -- The IDF operation was a warning to the Syrians and the "terrorists" to cease activities against the IDF and reinstate the cease-fire, Israeli Government sources cited by IDF radio announced. The operation was not intended to terminate the political process, the sources stressed, but Israel has no intention of conducting political negotiations while military attrition is taking place. Noting that the IDF did not use all its power in the fighting, government sources also emphasized that if the "terrorists" continue to violate the cease-fire, the IDF will react with all of its power, according to Jerusalem radio. Syria is responsible for any attack against Israeli soldiers launched from territory it controls, Israeli Deputy Foreign Minister Yehuda Ben-Me'ir said in an radio interview. Earlier, Prime Minister Menahem Begin conveyed a firm warning to the Syrians through the United States, according to MA'ARIV.

In a 21 July dinner speech at the Knesset, Begin announced that after the conclusion of the fighting in Lebanon, he will invite Jordanian King Husayn for peace talks in Jerusalem or Switzerland, YEDI'OT AHARONOT reported. While a diplomatic source claimed that Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir recently met with King Husayn in Switzerland, an Israeli Government source merely revealed that Shamir held secret talks with "a leading figure" from a country that has no diplomatic relations with Israel, AFP reported.

PLO Position -- Israel will pay a high price for expanding the scope of the war, a Voice of Palestine commentary warned in the wake of the new Israeli air raids. Meanwhile, according to another report by the radio, PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat welcomed Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev's proposals on disengagement and for an international conference on Lebanon.

Before the renewed fighting in Beirut, a WAFA statement carried by the Voice of Palestine announced that the PLO is ready to accept a new UN Security Council resolution that emphasizes "the legitimate national rights" of the Palestinians to self-determination while also "affirming the principles epitomized in the UN resolutions." WAFA restated the PLO's readiness to adhere to UN resolutions, including UN General Assembly Resolutions 181, 194 and 236. "If we are in fact proceeding toward a new phase, you will find the PLO ready to study this phase if it will help the Palestinians accede to their rights," WAFA concluded.

Meanwhile, sources close to the Palestinians revealed that the PLO is confident that a peaceful settlement will be reached, basing their assessment on the outcome of the U.S.-Arab "agreement" reached in Washington on the PLO's withdrawal from Beirut, Beirut radio reported.

Egyptian Stance, Soviet Message — An Egyptian Foreign Ministry spokesman denounced Israel's new "unjustified aggression" in Lebanon, Cairo radio reported. Egypt has decided to intensify its efforts to achieve an Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon, according to a 23 July AL-AHRAM report cited by MENA. AL-AHRAM also noted that the Soviet Union has sent an urgent message to Cairo outlining the Soviet stand on the Lebanese crisis.

Iran-Iraq War

Iranian forces mounted a three-pronged attack across the Iraqi border in the Basra sector, destroying a total of 372 armored personnel carriers and tanks -- 16 of which were T-72 models -- and killing or wounding 2,100 enemy soldiers, an Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio reported. An IRNA report on the offensive claimed that the Iranians infiltrated 7 km inside Iraq and dispersed four enemy divisions before returning to their previous positions. Iraqi planes bombed Ahvaz on 21 July killing 9 civilians; in Ilam bombings killed or wounded 70 and the toll in Hamadan reached over 100, IRNA reported.

An Iraqi Armed Forces communique carried by Baghdad radio admitted that the Iranians launched an attack across the border near Basra and that fierce fighting took place. At first the Iranians penetrated 4 km inside Iraqi territory but the Iraqis launched counteroffensives on all fronts and the effort to contain the invading forces was a "splendid success," the communique said. All the Iranian forces in this attack were either driven back or eliminated, INA reported citing military sources. A military spokepokesman cited by Baghdad radio said 2,235 Iranians were killed and 9 tanks were destroyed in the abortive attack.

Meanwhile, a Tehran radio commentary denied that the Iranian attack on Iraq is destabilizing for Middle East security and reaffirmed that Iran's goals are only to "liberate" Iraq from the Ba'thists and Jerusalem from the Zionists.

Iran

In a sermon delivered at Tehran University on the occasion of the 'Id al-Fitr, President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i commented on the war with Iraq and the Lebanon crisis, Tehran radio reported. He said support for Iraq by other Gulf states serves only the interests of the superpowers and he warned that any attempt to support Iraqi President Saddam Husayn by any Gulf state would be met with "decisive" reaction from the Iranian people. He stressed that if the United States chooses to use the Persian Gulf area as a base against Iran, the Iranian nation will respond in a "crushing manner."

Khamene'i regretted the lack of action taken by most Islamic governments over Lebanon and said only Iran has taken the proper steps by sending forces there and explaining its diplomatic position. He concluded that the PLO must resist the invasion and not leave Beirut.

RELIGIOUS LEADERS URGE SUPPORT FOR ARMED FORCES

LD222002 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. Here is a message from the Department of Islamic Affairs and the Supreme Council of the Ulema and religious leaders of the DRA to the armed forces and to all the Muslim and faithful people of Afghanistan:

The courageous troops and heroic officers of the Afghan Army: We hear and read about your continuing heroism and victories against the enemies of the revolution, of the religion, of the homeland and of the people of Afghanistan, on the radio, television and other mass media.

The Muslim people of Afghanistan are proud to have heroic and courageous sons like you who, with pride and courage, are performing your sacred military service in the ranks of the armed forces. You have pledged yourselves to the complete extinction of the counterrevolutionary elements -- these enemies of the honor and grace of the people of Afghanistan -- and at this very moment are serving under the proud (?banner) of the DRA. All the religious leaders and ulema raise the hands in prayer before Almighty God and we pray that He will keep you in His care and bestow upon you still more victories.

Mothers, fathers, sisters and brothers: The DRA Department of Islamic Affairs, the Supreme Council of the Ulema and the religious leaders are addressing you. We sincerely congratulate you too because of the victories of your sons serving in the armed forces. We ask you to encourage and assist your sons to continue their service in the ranks of the armed forces until complete and final victory, because your sons, in the ranks of the DRA Armed Forces, are defending the interests of [word indistinct] of Afghanistan, the interests of the workers, peasants and other toilers of the country. Your sons are defending the April Revolution and its new development stage as a result of which the toiling people of our country were freed from the oppressive regime of feudalists, money-lenders and arrogant, godless people.

In our country, where right wins over wrong, where the counterrevolutionaries -- these slanderous mask-wearers of Islam -- are going through the last agonies of death under the fatal blows of the heroic Afghan Army, sacred service in the armed forces is the duty of every Muslim individual in Afghanistan, because we ulema and the religious leaders of Afghanistan completely believe that our people are behind this duty and are encouraging their sons to continue the sacred service in the Armed Forces of the DRA. By performing this noble and patriotic deed, on the one hand they are making Almighty God happy and, on the other hand, they are performing their duties before the homeland, the people and the revolution.

The Muslim and toiling people of Afghanistan should know that indifference to the enemies of the faith and homeland, indifference to those who have hypocritically worn the mask of Islam but kill our innocent people, massacre our women, old men, youths and children, plunder the property and belongings of our people, destroy bridges and roads, set fire to schools and mosques and even have no mercy on the holy Koran, which is a book from Almighty God and a guidance to the Muslims of the world, indifference to all this is not (?admissible), and being indifferent to the crimes of the rebels means being a party to their crimes.

We, the religious leaders and ulema of the Islamic Affairs Department, the Supreme Council of the Ulema and religious leaders of the DRA, consider the best way to fight against the rebels, against those alien to Islam, is to serve in the ranks of the Armed Forces of Afghanistan.

The religious leaders and ulema of the Department of Islamic Affairs, the Supreme Council of the DRA Ulema and religious leaders ask you patriotic, toiling and Muslim compatriots to join hands and devote all your strength to broadening and strengthening your national army.

Success verily comes from God.

GANDHI INTERVIEWED ON RELATIONS WITH U.S.

BK230654 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0240 GMT 23 Jul 82

[Text] The prime minister has said India cannot have any other way than democracy. In an interview with a magazine released in Washington, Mrs Gandhi said: We believe in democracy and we have been brought up with those ideals.

Referring to her coming visit to the United States, Mrs Gandhi said she wants to create a better understanding with America. There is no reason why friendship with the Soviet Union should come in the way of friendship with the United States, China or anybody else. She pointed out that Washington's friendship with Pakistan does not mean that it cannot be friendly with India.

The prime minister declared that we are certainly not anti-United States in any sense of the word. There are, however, major international and economic policy differences between Washington and New Delhi.

In another interview with the Associated Press and four U.S. daily newspaper correspondents, Mrs Gandhi said it is important that Reagan and the American people should have a more realistic picture of what India is and what India stands for. On American supply of arms to Pakistan, the prime minister said Washington is well aware of India's strong opposition. She hoped for improved relations with Pakistan and said all the initiatives for peace and friendship have been from India's side.

PRESS VIEWS UPCOMING GANDHI VISIT TO U.S.

EXPRESS on Soviet 'Signals'

BK230749 New Delhi INDIAN EXPRESS in English 15 Jul 82 p 5

[Editorial: "Wrong Signals"]

[Text] Mrs Gandhi's impending visit to Washington has set dovecotes aflutter in places other than the two countries whose leaders are formally to meet at the summit after many years.

A Soviet journal, KOMSOMOLSKAYA PRAVDA, has in an article suggested that Pakistan is unlikely to test a nuclear bomb before it secures F-16 fighter bombers from the United States. The timing of this article on the eve of the Indo-U.S. summit meeting may not be fortuitous. It could be an indirect reminder from Moscow that India faces problems nearer home and that these are likely to be fuelled by the promised American deliveries of F-16s to Pakistan. A few days earlier there were reports of a seminar in the Soviet Union in which participants wondered whether the Indian public sector was anything more than state capitalism.

Maybe these statements are intended to signal Mrs Gandhi that she should be wary of American (or Western) economic and political blandishments as both security and socialism might be at stake. Such an inference may not be far-fetched because Soviet commentators were among those that warned India earlier this year against the pitfalls of entering into a no-war pact with Pakistan and have on occasion also advised caution about normalising relations with China. The Soviet Union is itself realistic enough to negotiate or resume talks with China, Pakistan, the United States and others as and when it considers it necessary and desirable to do so. But it must be rather uncertain of its relations with India and of its position in this part of Asia if it is so fretful every time India moves to mend its fences.

This knee-jerk reaction is similar to that of some elements in the United States that are prone to see an Indian tilt towards the Soviet Union. Responding to such a question Mrs Gandhi recently told the American magazine NEWSWEEK: "We are friends of the Soviet Union. We do not approve of their system; we are not communists."

"But we all have to live in the same world, and the greatest danger to us all is conflict or confrontation." The same compulsions apply in reordering India's relations with Pakistan, China and the United States. This is what nonalignment and peaceful coexistence are about.

HINDU on Expectations

BK221052 Madras THE HINDU in English 14 Jul 82 p 1

[By G.K. Reddy]

[Text] New Delhi, July 13 -- The U.S. ambassador to India, Mr Harry Barnes, left tonight for Washington to prepare the ground for the prime minister's visit and set the tone for the official level discussions on various aspects of Indo-American relations before her arrival for talks with President Reagan and his principal colleagues.

The foreign secretary, Mr M.K. Rasgotra, the secretary in the External Affairs Ministry, Mr Natwar Singh, and the additional secretary in charge of economic affairs in the prime minister's secretariat, Mr Arjun Sen Gupta, are leaving next week for these preparatory discussions in Washington.

There has been some indication from the U.S. side that the new Secretary of State, Mr George Shultz, would be visiting Delhi later this year to take part in the much postponed ministerial meeting of the Indo-American joint commission. The U.S. President, Mr Ronald Reagan, also might pay a return visit to India some time later in the course of a quick swing through several Pacific and Asian nations.

The prime minister is going to Washington at a time when there are fairly good prospects for a new opening in Indo-American relations. There has been a noticeable change in the attitudes of the two governments toward each other, although they continue to adhere to their respective policy positions.

The more immediate objective of this dialogue is to restore the missing element of warmth, without attempting a convergence of ideas or interests at this stage. The realization that the two countries have a good deal in common despite their recurring differences can serve as a useful starting point for giving more positive direction to Indo-American relations, according to well placed observers here.

The main cause of friction between India and the U.S. is the frequent confusion created by the constant overlapping of their differing concepts of bilateral, regional and global developments. The Indian intention on this occasion is to compartmentalize these issues, so that the two heads of government can review them with some degree of detachment, without letting the persisting differences in one sphere impinge on relations in other spheres.

It is argued that Mr Reagan and Mrs Gandhi can continue to disagree on some issues, while establishing a degree of accord on others of equal importance. It has also been tacitly agreed in advance that the two leaders are not meeting to settle any specific differences, but to generate a measure of mutual understanding of their policies and perceptions.

The prime minister is not going to Washington to press for a revision of the U.S. nuclear policy, suspension of military aid to Pakistan, withdrawal of its naval forces from the Indian Ocean, acceptance of the new sea law or reopening of global negotiations. Nor will President Reagan attempt to pressure her into placating Pakistan, adopt a tougher stance on Pakistan, withdraw the recognition of Kampuchea or move away from Vietnam.

The Indian and American officials who are actively associated with the preparations for Mrs Gandhi's visit to Washington feel that there is a vast grey area in Indo-American relations where it is possible to view their differences with a better appreciation of each others compulsions. The mere absence of an identity of views on problems of primary or secondary interest need not deter them from arriving at some accommodation, if only to avert a chain reaction of misunderstanding in other concomitant areas where they could usefully work together in common interest.

The whole accent is now on avoiding unnecessary irritations as far as possible, while the two countries continue to evolve a viable basis for better relations. The U.S. cannot ignore the reality that by virtue of its size, stability and strategic location, India is destined to play an increasingly important role in Asia. India, in turn, cannot afford to pretend that the U.S. has no legitimate interests in this region.

The forthcoming visit of Mrs Gandhi is thus seen as a starting point for a fresh effort to establish better Indo-American understanding not as something that is going to produce startling results. It is for this reason that the government has been privately cautioning against undue expectations, while the preparatory work goes on at various levels for this visit.

Apart from the changed attitude of Mr Reagan himself, who has lately been paying more attention to India, the appointment of Mr Shultz as secretary of state has been welcomed in Delhi, because of his known interest in closer Indo-American economic cooperation. The recent shift in India's policy in regard to foreign investment is viewed by the U.S. as a promising development.

But here again Mrs Gandhi will try to dispel the impression that India is throwing its doors open to the multinationals as part of this policy of liberalisation. She wants to make it quite clear that the new approach is to adopt a selective attitude and allow foreign investment in areas where India needs advanced technological assistance.

HERALD HAILS ZAIL SINGH'S ELECTION AS PRESIDENT

BK191654 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 17 Jul 82 p 2

[Editorial: "Historic Victory"]

[Text] As expected, Mr Zail Singh has won hands down in the presidential election. What is remarkable is the record margin of his victory, which shows that he not only got the solid block of Congress (I) votes but also the votes of a large number of MPs and MLAs belonging to the opposition parties. This is, in a way, a tribute to the great secular tradition nurtured with loving care by great Indian leaders from Jawaharlal Nehru to Mrs Indira Gandhi.

The historic victory vindicates the choice of the prime minister who selected Mr Zail Singh for the key constitutional position after consulting her party colleagues as well as the opposition leaders. She, in fact, took a good deal of pains in selecting a worthy successor to Mr Sanjiva Reddy. Habitual critics will, of course, never admit all that Mrs Gandhi does for the good of the country and the people at large. This is nothing but sheer intellectual dishonesty. But this kind of politics often becomes counterproductive if overplayed. The twist that certain opposition leaders gave to the presidential poll campaign was not only in bad taste but highly perverted in nature. It is a pity that Mr Justice H.R. Khanna should have fallen prey to the opposition designs.

We hope that now that Mr Zail Singh has been formally elected to the highest office in the land, the opposition leaders will put a stop to their smearing campaign and keep the president above their day-to-day petty politics. They should accept the choice of the people, as expressed through their legislators, and give him a helping hand in the discharge of the onerous constitutional tasks as head of the republic.

It is gratifying that even a person with a modest background belonging to the minority Sikh community can go up the ladder of power cutting across all caste, creed and religious barriers. Herein lies the strength of India's secular democracy. We wish Mr Zail Singh God-speed and hope that his tenure at Rashtrapati Bhavan [President House] will bring fresh laurels to the country.

KHAMENE'I WARNS AGAINST MACHINATIONS IN GULF

LD221408 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Excerpts] According to an IRNA report, the Muslim and alert citizens of Tehran took part in massive congregational prayers led by Hojjat ol-Eslam Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i this morning at Tehran University on the occasion of the 'Id al-Fitr.

In his second sermon on the occasion of the 'Id al-Fitr, the Friday imam of Tehran [Khamene'i] said in reference to the Zionist crimes in Lebanon: What is taking place in Lebanon today is a poor imitation of what took place in Iran over the past 22 months. Today, the true leaders of the occupied or beleaguered Lebanon, as well as all other strugglers who pay careful attention to the situation, have concluded that the usurping Zionist invasion of Lebanon and the occupation of a great part of this country as well as the seige of Beirut are a move along the same line as that followed by the usurping Ba'thist Zionists in occupying our fraternal neighboring country of Iraq. Both international world-devouring forces share the same objective. As far as criminal America is concerned, the Islamic revolution is far more important than the Palestine issue, for the Islamic revolution is a spreading flame that has placed the enemy on the defensive.

He then added: Despite all the political and economic sanctions; despite all propaganda plots; despite all the devious measures taken so far, the Islamic revolution is gradually gaining a foothold among nations, with Islamic countries witnessing their peoples' intense predilection for and interest in the Islamic revolution and its leader. Consequently, as far as our international enemies, the big criminal powers, are concerned, this wave and flame are spreading and gaining momentum. Therefore, they feel obliged to resist it, as for many years they have managed to control the Palestinian revolutionary flame. This, as far as our global enemy is concerned, is more dangerous. All efforts are aimed at extinguishing this revolution in the region. Hence the imposed war by Iraq.

The Baghdad regime claims to be independent of all foreign powers, a claim ridiculed by these very superpowers. Today, all powers and superpowers are helping the Saddam regime. As for their satellites, they too have given as much help to the Baghdad regime as they were able to. Only the independent governments, those wishing not to be dependent on anyone -- the governments that have lost hope of winning support from the superpowers — managed to take a correct stand toward our revolution. Needless to say, now that it has become apparent that the Iranian Government can pull its own weight, without having to depend on any government, it is possible that the supporters of the pro-'Aflaq regime might try to give it more help again. We are warning them, however, that any move in the Persian Gulf region by any power to support the aggressive Baghdad regime will meet a decisive and unceasing reaction from the Iranian people.

Fortunately, the number of Persian Gulf governments that assess events objectively is increasing. The number who knows that the region's ills are connected to the survival of the Saddamite's pro-'Aflaq regime are increasing. They have (?realized) that the Baghdad regime's objective is to impose its power by any means; that as far as we are concerned, we have always practiced what we preach. We have stated that we are unable [as heard] to impose our power -- the biggest political and military power in the region -- on any government or nation. Therefore, they know that their support of Iraq is in the interest neither of Iran or themselves; rather, it serves the interests of the superpowers.

The Friday imam of Tehran, continuing his second sermon and referring to America's avarice for the Persian Gulf region and its measures to protect its interests in view of the instability of the pro-American Saddam regime, said:

[Begin recording] Should America decide to use the Persian Gulf as a base against us by its usual and exposed tricks, they -- American authorities as well as the prominent world political and oil observers -- know that our nation has the power to respond in a crushing manner. We have experienced trouble and sufferings. We are a revolutionary nation that started from nothing. God has helped us and will continue to do so.

However, those whose jugular veins lie in the Persian Gulf; those whose plundering depends on this region; those who either through the purchase or sale of oil can satisfy their greed will not benefit by confronting a great and revolutionary nation, a nation prepared for jihad and martyrdom.

Now, as for the question of Lebanon, the Lebanese issue is first and foremost an American issue and, secondly, a Zionist one. Faced with the ever-spreading Islamic revolution wave, the Americans intended to display some sort of power, some sort of decisive stand against the region's nations and governments. Had Lebanon and Palestine -- inspired by the triumph of the Islamic revolution of Iran, the victory of our combatants in Khorramshahr and the southern borders -- remained free to continue their operations, this would have posed a great threat to Israel -- that is, to American interests in the region. Consequently, they took some preemptive measures. They gave the green light to their mercenary and vicious dog, Israel, which, taking advantage of the opportunity, invaded Lebanon.

Regrettably, a great many Islamic governments adopted a cool and indifferent attitude to the Lebanon issue. Some moved in line with the interests of America and the Zionists. As for those who adopted correct political stands, their number was very, very small.

Only the Islamic Republic of Iran took the proper step, both politically as well as on the battlefield. Our warriors went to Lebanon in order to encourage other forces from other Muslim and allied countries to join them. Even today, they are prepared to create a gigantic and powerful army in (?conjunction) with forces from other Muslim countries -- even with forces half the size of their own. The experiences gained by our Islamic revolution and the sacrifices of our young people in achieving this objective could serve as provisions for this journey, this bloody struggle.

In the political arena we have made use of every opportunity. We have stated our positions to world leaders, to Muslim leaders at large conferences, international and regional gatherings; we have explained our decisive stands. We have made available our pragmatic and constructive proposals at small and large gatherings, both openly and confidentially. Even today, we are quite prepared.

The corrupt Zionist regime's intention is to transform Palestine's resistance from an armed revolutionary resistance into an arid political movement. The leaders of the PLO must resist. We are convinced that the struggling Palestinians, those who truly believe in the slogan of Palestine in the true sense of the word -- particularly those whose hearts are illuminated with the light of reliance on God -- will resist this move.

We believe that, in confronting the faithful and struggling forces, though small in number, Israel will ultimately be defeated. Even up to now, having failed to achieve its objectives, Israel has faced defeat. However, Israel's total defeat shall come when Muslim Lebanese fighters -- the faithful who are under the Zionists' pressure and onslaught in Lebanon -- as well as the Palestinian fighters, resist this barbarous invasion and refuse to leave Beirut; when they stay in Beirut. MATERIALS CONCERNING RAMADAN OPERATION

Iraqi Losses Updated

LD221124 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1036 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Text] According to reports received from the central Karbala' headquarters, the joint command headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, last night at 2100, in continuation of the heroic Ramadan Operation, Islam's forces began their onslaught against the heart of the enemy forces inside Iraqi territory under the codename "O lord of the age, save me." Islam's combatants were able, with this heroic onslaught against the enemy's heart, to inflict substantial damages, losses and casualties on the enemy.

Enemy losses counted so far include 372 tanks and armored personnel carriers -- among them 16 modern T-72 tanks -- destroyed, 2 enemy tank battalions completely wiped out, and more than 2,100 Ba'thist hirelings, including senior officers and army commanders, killed or wounded.

According to a senior operations officer in the south [as heard] these heroic operations were a most unprecedented type of night attack on enemy territory. In this connection we are expecting a joint army and guards' communique, which we shall bring to your attention as soon as we have received it.

Joint Communuique 8

[Joint communique No 8 of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Excerpts] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. In the name of God, the crusher of the oppressors. Hail to the 'Id al-Fitr, the blessed 'Id of the Muslims, the end of a month of fasting and self-renewal and inward struggle. Greetings to the fasting trench fighters who wage onslaughts against the enemies of God and His people and who, with "God is great" on their lips, tread the path of God in order to neutralize one after another the plots hatched by big and small Satans and in order to establish God's religion with their martyrdoms and valor and with inspiration from God during nights of [religious] vigil, as well as by destroying and exposing the enemies of God. .

Islamic nation, martyr-nurturing Iranian people: In the continuation of the full-scale Ramadan Operation -- which was inspired by the blessed name of his holiness, the lord of the ages, may God hasten his noble advent, and which aimed to defend the Islamic homeland, neutralize the plots of the world's arrogance and its hirelings and destroy a vile character like Saddam, Islam's combatants, executing a divine obligation to continue to eliminate the 22-month-old aggression against our Islamic homeland by the Ba'thist-Zionist regime in Iraq, have delivered their devastating blows against the duped Saddamist forces of aggression.

The murderous enemy of Islam and its mercenary hireling, Saddam, who can see his destruction in the continuation of these operations, have tried, by assembling large forces of armored equipment against Islam's combatants and by carrying out many counteroffensives, to stop this divine and legitimate action of the Islamic combatants. However, the iron determination and infidel-smashing will of the combative sons of Islam, with their extensive 'Id al-Fitr eve operations, which were carried out at 2100 under the codename "O lord of the ages, save me," delivered yet another grave blow to the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist regime.

In unprecedented and extensive operations, which aimed to purge and destroy enemy forces in a 250-square-km area, a large section of armored enemy forces, which included many tanks and armored personnel carriers, was destroyed inside Iraqi territory, and Islam's combatants were able to destroy 85 enemy tanks and armored personnel carriers on the northern axis of Zayd post, 94 tanks and personnel carriers on the western axis and 193 tanks and personnel carriers on the southern axis. As a result, destroyed enemy tanks and personnel carriers total 372, which includes 16 advanced T-72 tanks.

In these victorious operations, the combative warriors of Islam were able to inflict heavy blows against the 14th Mechanized Brigade, 43d Armored Brigade and 35th Armored Brigade of Iraq's 9th Division, which had only recently been reequipped with new and advanced tanks. In addition, the warriors of the army of Islam, these offspring of blood and martyrdom, were able in the 'Id al-Fitr eve operations to inflict enormous losses on the 6th and 12th Armored Brigades and the 8th Mechanized Brigade of the 3d Division. They were further able to rout the (Yafa) tank battalion of the 42d Armored Brigade of the 10th Division and the Zayn al-Quds tank battalion of the 55th Armored Brigade of the 5th Division.

The number of enemy killed or wounded in these operations amounted to more than 2,100, including 1 enemy brigade commander and a large number of destroyed-battalion commanders. A number of duped Saddamists were also taken prisoner by the combatants of Islam. So far 250 of them have been evacuated to the rear. These include several officers and a large number of NCO's.

We congratulate the lord of the ages, may God hasten his noble advent; his rightful deputy, the great Khomeyni; and the martyr-nurturing Iranian nation on these great victories on the blessed day of the 'Id al-Fitr. With hope of God's assistance and favorable prayers by the imam and the nation, the combatants of Islam shall traverse the path to the liberation of Jerusalem through Imam Hoseyn's Karbala' so that, hand in hand with the people of Iraq liberated from the claws of the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist regime, we may achieve our great Islamic mission of liberating Jerusalem.

With hope for the Islamic combatants' final victory over blasphemy and the liberation of Jerusalem from the claws of the occupying Zionism. With the assistance of God, victory is near.

Joint Staff Communique 989

LD221832 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 22 Jul 82

[Communique No 989 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Victorious combatants of Islam: May your fighting be triumphant and may your victories be blessed and be a cause for pride since on the eve of the happy 'Id al-Fitr you have brought our Islamic homeland's grateful and committed Islamic nation the glad tidings of conquest and succour; and by your destruction and wiping out of the Saddamist blasphemers you have gladdened the hearts of those fasting during the blessed month of Ramadan and those traversing the path of God by carrying out a phase of the Ramadan Operation and by scoring victory.

Saluting the pure souls of the victory-creating martyrs on the battlefronts of good against evil, we wish to bring to your attention the operations and acts of self-sacrifice carried out by the combatants on the country's western fronts:

Throughout the past 24 hours, battle and exchange of fire continued on most of the fronts in the western parts of the country between the mighty forces of Islam and the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries; fighting was fiercest on the Meymak front. On this front, our ground forces' heavy-artillery fire prevented all movement and traffic by the enemy forces on their supply axes and resulted in the destruction of some of their positions and the annihilation of a number of Saddamist servicemen.

In another part of the western front, thanks to the heavy-weapon fire opened by Islam's combatants, some of the enemy's oil installations were set ablaze and several of their fuel tankers were also destroyed. Other combatant groups of Islam, while consolidating their positions in the areas under their control, continue to clear the region of minefields.

On the Qasr-e Shirin and Sar-e Pol-e Zahab fronts and the border heights in Gilan-e Gharb, the mighty forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, by opening artillery and heavy-weapon fire on the enemy positions and fortifications and while silencing the enemy's fire, inflicted appreciable blows on Iraq's Ba'thist mercenaries and, by destroying several trenches and a number of enemy armored vehicles, either killed or wounded a number of the servicemen of blasphemy.

Also, thanks to the destruction of several enemy engineering vehicles, they disrupted the enemy's trench-digging operations and those preparing their positions.

The exchange of fire on the Marivan front continued, with the combatants of Islam enjoying remarkable superiority. The self-sacrificing servicemen of the army and the Islamic Guards Corps, enjoying full coordination in carrying out penetration operations, inflicted losses and casualties on the enemy and by the grace of God they returned to their bases without having suffered any casualties.

On the Piranshah front, the self-sacrificing and mighty servicemen of the ground forces deprived the Saddamist mercenaries of all movement and of the ability to open fire.

The gendarmerie combatants on the Ilam front retaliated against fire opened by the Saddamist forces and, while guarding their defensive positions and opening fire on the positions of the Iraqi Ba'thist aggressive mercenaries, inflicted losses and damage on the enemy's servicemen and military equipment.

Saddam's criminal mercenaries, in order to avenge the blows suffered by their forces during (?close) engagements on the fronts, aimed their long-range artillery at the city of Abadan and thereby martyred 2 of our dear compatriots in this region and wounded another 20.

TEHRAN: INVASION TO ESTABLISH RULE OF JUSTICE

LD230422 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 0007 GMT 23 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary]

[Text] The victorious Ramadan Operation, launched under the codename "O lord of the ages, save me," which inflicted misery and disgrace on blasphemy, forcing it to flee, is soon -- after the downfall of the Ba'thist's regime -- going to bring back honor and dignity to Iraq thus paving the way for the liberation of Jerusalem and an all-out confrontation with the Zionist occupiers.

The operations conducted by the defenders of the Islamic Republic inside Iraqi territory together with the considerable victories achieved by the able combatants of Islam has caused growing concern and fear among the world's imperialist and Zionist circles over the goals of the Islamic revolution of Iran to such an extent that Begin, the terrorist prime minister of the Jerusalem occupying regime, warned the Islamic Republic of Iran with threatening remarks about so-called serious consequences.

At the same time, the masters of world blasphemy, the reactionaries of the region and the imperialist media have branded, in an orchestrated and coordinated tume, the righteous Iraqi territory as destablizing Middle East security, an action against peace, and called on Iran not to continue its liberating holy war. This was said in light of the fact that during nearly 2 years of savage Iraqi-Zionist aggression against Iran, we heard not one word of concern for peace and stability of the region. Now, however, that we are nearing Saddam's downfall, now that his existence is threatened by the Islamic Republic of Iran, such remarks fill the air. Such deception and false concern for stability in the Middle East is only aimed at encouraging once again the reactionaries of the region to throw their support behind Saddam. This deception at the same time is indicative of the depth of the oppressors' fear about the potential threat to world blasphemy posed by the Islamic revolution.

Because the Islamic Republic of Iran and the heroic and martyr-nurturing nation of Islam have embarked upon the righteous task of eliminating blasphemy and atheism and establishing the rule of right and justice, we will continue without fear our sacred task until Jerusalem is liberated from the yoke of the Zionist occupiers.

No doubt the terriorist Begin and criminals such as Saddam, who have embarked upon war with the Islamic Republic of Iran by relying only on weapons and material goods, will not be able to confront the will of a nation which, by reliance on the Almighty's eternal might, is striving for the realization of the rule of the oppressed and annihilation of the oppressors. The history of mankind as well as the Iraqi-imposed war have proved that in a confrontation between right and wrong, the latter has no chance of victory although it may seize the opportunity to commit aggression, bloodshed and the most savage crimes that man can imagine.

Let us examine Saddam's tricks aimed at justifying his crimes. In a so-called military communique, Saddam impudently says that in retaliation for the Iranian bombings of Iraq's civilian and industrial installations, Iraqi forces will take counteractions. Such false remarks by the Iraqi tyrant are being uttered at a time when we are witneseing every day -- day and night -- the shelling of Iranian frontier towns by attacking aircraft of the Iraqi mercenary regime.

No doubt, Saddam's remarks aim to justify the crimes he has committed during the war. He wishfully believes that such justification can help him consolidate his criminal regime in order to pursue even greater crimes. Is there anyone who really believes that the Islamic Republic of Iran has bombed Iraqi civilian targets and murdered innocent people? Is there any open-minded person who believes that after 2 years of criminal and murderous acts, the destruction of military, civilian and industrial objects, the shelling of the frontier towns of Ilam, Bakhtaran and Hamadan by the Ba'thists of Iraq, imperialism's lackies could be regarded as the guardians of peace in the region? Is there anyone who can regard the Islamic Republic of Iran, which has been firmly supporting the rule of the deprived and the oppressed and which has no goals other than to liberate the oppressed people of Iraq from the yoke of the Ba'thists and Jerusalem from the yoke of the Zionists, as being against peace in the region?

Indeed, during the first few days of the war with Iraq, the Islamic Republic of Iran, in order to show its might, sent 140 fighter aircraft over Iraqi airspace without dropping even a single bomb on the oppressed people of Iraq, while offering sacrifices in order to encourage the growth of liberal aspirations among the people of Iraq to counter Iraq's Zionist elements.

BANI-SADR CALLS GULF CONFLICT 'AMERICAN WAR'

NC211522 Paris AFP in English 1443 GMT 21 Jul 82

[Text] Paris, July 21 (AFP) — Former Iranian President Abolhasan Bani-Sadr has described the Gulf war as "an American war" forming part of "the American offensive" in the region, according to an interview with Mr Bani-Sadr in today's issue of the weekly LES NOUVELLES LITTERAIRES.

Iranian spiritual guide Ayatollah Khomeyni "has fallen into the American trap," Mr Bani-Sadr said.

"Egypt and Saudi Arabia, with the blessing of (President Ronald) Reagan," he added, "are in the process of forming the central political axis of that part of the world, at a time when Iran, Iraq and Syria are in political disarray, the steadfastness front dislocated, and the Palestinians considerably weakened since the Israeli attack."

Mr Bani-Sadr, who lives in exile in France, said that "the Americans are winning all the way down the line."

"The parity of the dollar with the European currencies," he said, "changed with the launching of the Gulf war. Saudi Arabia having compensated for the lack of (oil) exports by Iraq and Iran, the U.S. was thus able resume control of the oil market and consolidate the hegemony of the dollar, which has become a refuge currency.

"If Khomeyni wants to sell oil, he has to do so at a low price."

NVOI CRITICIZES REGIME FOR BANNING UNIONS, BOOKS

GF211249 [Editorial Report] The clandestine National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran at 1730 GMT on 20 July carried two commentaries.

The first, entitled "Do Not Appease Idolatrous and Properous Classes," said the imam has repeatedly reminded state authorities that the laborers form the backbone of Iran's revolution. Even after the success of the revolution, it is the laborer who, hand in hand with the toiler, establishes a solid and stable foundation in defending the aims of the revolution in the Islamic Republic with continuous sacrifice, devotion, martyrdom and initiative in production, even if he may be deprived of his rights. The imam says: Go and visit the battlefields. You will never see any capitalists on the fronts, only the laborer and soldier fighting against U.S. elements.

On the work fronts it is the laborer working in every field who, through his round-the-clock efforts, produces the country's requirements. By doing all this, the toiling class expects its legal and lawful rights, and for securing and safeguarding these rights, appropriate measures must be taken. Thus we cannot say that we are at the peak of the revolution or that some minigroup elements have drawn our attention or that the war has tied up our hands and we cannot pay attention and concentrate on the matter.

The fact is that some exploiters and deceitful groups under Islamic cover are trying to plunder the toilers' productive rights, but this time in a modern way, with a new color and clothes, using the old methods.

These groups in the former sinister regime of Aryamehr plundered the people and still are plundering them. These groups, previously by riding in the most modern cars and living the most modern residential areas and places, were plundering the people. Now, by growing beards and having beads in their hands, they are doing the same thing. This time they are enjoying the support of pseudoclergy groups.

There are some organizations and authorities who completely ignore the imam's decrees and instructions of high-ranking officials and ignore the Islamic Constitution. They are not willing to officially recognize the lawful rights of the workers. It is strange indeed that the Ministry of Labor, which is the sole organization for encouraging labor and defending the rights of the workers, instead issues orders to dissolve labor and workers syndicates and declares unions unlawful. The Ministry of Labor said in an announcement that as the Islamic councils are formed, the activities of the labor unions are not officially recognized. Is this not contrary to the spirit of revolution and Constitution of Islamic Republic of Iran?

The second commentary, entitled "Friends Worse Than Enemies," stated that heavy blows have been damaging the gains of the revolution. If an end is not put to these blows, our revolution will face heavy and unforgettable losses and dangers. Monopolization and blind fanaticism like a cancer will destroy the people's revolution and its gains for the Iranian nation against imperialism.

A few days ago we noticed an announcement from the Ministry of Education which produced a list of books to be banned, either in teaching in the schools or in libraries or bookstores. These books were considered harmful by the ministry. The books banned and forbidden for circulation generally deal with modern world science, aerospace sciences and zoology. Is this action not contrary to the revolution's gains and against the spirit of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Iran? We are convinced that our listeners will raise the question: Who are these officials serving?

When fanatical opportunists and monopolizers set the libraries and bookstores on fire, Imam Khomeyni strongly protested the barbaric actions and stated that nobody has the right to set fire to libraries and bookstores. The Constitution of the Islamic Republic protects scientific organizations from plunder. The SAVAK of the condemned shah also banned many masterpeices of the greatest writers and poets such as Sadeq Hedayat, Maxim Gorkiy and hundreds of others.

Our nation wants an end to the domination of plunderers who pretend that they are the friends of the nation. In reality they are the most stubborn enemies of the nation.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

27 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Military Situation -- Israeli forces mounted repeated air and sea attacks on targets in west Beirut and the southern suburbs on 26 July, according to Beirut and Voice of Lebanon radio reports. Israeli planes hit a number of Palestinian tanks, artillery positions and an ammunition dump, Voice of Lebanon reported. According to IDF radio, an Israeli military source denied that IDF soldiers attempted to land on the shore at west Beirut, and the IDF spokesman confirmed to the radio in another report that the Israeli Navy shelled Palestinian targets in the city.

The clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed that Israeli shelling caused 101 casualties from late 25 to 26 July. The Voice of Lebanon noted that Israeli and Palestinian shellfire again erupted early 27 July.

An Israeli position in western Al-Biqa' was destroyed by Joint Forces on 24-25 July, a statement by the Palestinian-Lebanese Joint Forces spokesman carried by Voice of Palestine radio claimed. Meanwhile, AFP reported that the Israeli army advanced 10 km up the valley, occupied three villages and reinforced its lines with tanks and radar.

Israel has the answer to the SAM-8's deployed by the Syrians, Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon told the Knesset Defense and Foreign Affairs Committee, according to MA'ARIV.

PLO Operations Room Commander Sa'd Sayil said a battle for Beirut is now inevitable, the Voice of Lebanon reported.

PLO Position, Reaction -- Confirming that PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat told the visiting U.S. delegation that the PLO abides by all UN resolutions pertaining to the Palestinian cause, the Voice of Palestine observed that this declaration has provoked extensive media coverage and been subject to various interpretations. Meanwhile, 'Arafat contacted PLO offices throughout the world to point out that the Palestine National Council has already approved these UN resolutions, Beirut radio reported. None of the main PLO leaders in west Beirut has yet criticized 'Arafat's initiative, the radio said. In Damascus, Palestine National Council Speaker Khalid al-Fahum said the PLO accepts "all the UN resolutions adopted since 1947", according to KUNA. Security Council Resolution 242 "had been rejected" because it views the Palestinian crisis as a refugee problem and not a problem of self-determination, he stated. Citing a PLO official in Beirut, KUNA also reported that the document signed by 'Arafat indicates that the PLO will accept an amended version of 242 that not only recognizes Israel's right to exist, but also guarantees Palestinian rights to statehood and self-determination. U.S. Congressman Paul McCloskey said he had been told by 'Arafat that the document includes 242 "if it is taken with other resolutions," KUNA added.

The director of the PLO's Tehran office said the document has absolutely nothing to do with official recognition of Israel, according to Tehran radio. Meanwhile, JANA accused the "reactionary Palestinian rightwing" of "intensifying suspicious moves with the reactionary Arab regimes and the Zionist enemy." A Kuwaiti spokesman announced that Kuwait will support any decision adopted by the PLO that helps the Palestinians regain their rights and their land, according to KUNA. Amman radio said the document signed by 'Arafat constitutes "one of our most important turning points" and the United States can no longer officially avoid negotiating with the PLO.

Habib Mission, Destination of Palestinians -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib met in London with Jordanian King Husayn, who stressed the need for a complete and unconditional Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon, Amman radio reported. In a related report, Monte Carlo radio said Husayn rejected proposals that Jordan receive all or some of the PLO fighters from Lebanon. In Lebanon the Islamic Salvation Front of Tripoli categorically rejected a proposal for the transfer of the PLO fighters from Beirut to Tripoli, according to Beirut radio. On the other hand, Sudanese President Ja'far Numayri announced that Sudan is ready to welcome the Palestinian fighters from Lebanon, SUNA reported.

Egyptian Message to U.S. -- During his forthcoming visit to Washington, Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali will deliver a message to President Ronald Reagan stressing that the Lebanese crisis must be studied in the light of the latest developments in the PLO position, MENA reported.

Israeli Position -- 'Arafat's "publicity stunt" will not help the "terrorists," and the only burning issue today is that Israel wants the PLO out of Beirut and Lebanon, an Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman said in remarks reported by Jerusalem radio. Earlier, Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir said the air force pressure on west Beirut is aimed at forcing the PLO to leave, DAVAR reported. A senior Israeli official said that if the PLO withdraws from Beirut via the Al-Biqa' Valley, Israel might permit some PLO fighters to remain in Al-Biqa' for a limited time, THE JERUSALEM POST reported.

Egypt

Israel should recognize the Palestinian people's right to self-determination and the PLO should recognize Israel's right to exist, President Husni Mubarak said in a speech at the National Democratic Party Headquarters broadcast by Cairo radio. Asserting that the Israelis are mistaken to suppose they can eliminate the Palestinian people and cause through military operations, Mubarak said the Israelis must withdraw immediately. Regarding proposals that Egypt receive the PLO command and fighters, he said the solution does not lie in removing the PLO's command from Lebanon. Mubarak also voiced strong opposition to attempts to impose the hegemony of one group over all others in Lebanon and denounced the Israeli suggestion that Jordan be transformed into a Palestinian state. Criticizing the Iranian invasion of Iraq, Mubarak called on the superpowers to declare their stand on the issue.

Regarding Egypt's internal affairs, he said security is assured but drew attention to the country's economic problems. After detailing the budgetary problems caused by price subsidies and noting the economic conference's recommendation that the subsidies should be reduced, he nevertheless promised not to lift them.

Iran-Iraq War

Fighting continued in the Basra sector of Iraq; Iraq pounded enemy positions, killing 5 Iranians, and Iranian artillery hit residential areas of Basra, killing 6 and wounding 22, an Iraqi military communique carried by INA reported. An Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio confirmed that heavy fighting took place on the southern fronts and noted that Iraqi artillery continued to hit Abadan.

Commanders of the Iranian Ground Forces and revolution guards said the Ramadan Operation is taking longer than previous operations because Iran planned to do the greatest amount of damage to Iraqi military forces without hitting Iraqi cities and civilians, Tehran radio reported. The commander of the ground forces claimed the Iraqis have so far lost 5,000 troops, 650 tanks and personnel carriers, with 1,159 soldiers and 101 tanks captured. He added that Iran controls 150 square km of Iraqi territory.

Algerian Mediation -- Regarding the Algerian offer for mediation in the war, Iranian Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi told a Cabinet meeting that Iran welcomes any effort aimed at fulfilling its conditions for ending the war, Tehran radio reported. He stressed that the Iraqi forces must withdraw unconditionally to "areas from which they started the war."

Khamene'i Speech -- Iranian President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i reiterated in a speech to military commanders carried by Tehran radio that Iran poses no threat to neighboring Gulf states, and that Iranian "victories" are cutting superpower access to the Gulf region and guaranteeing the independence of the region. He said the main conditions for ending the war are that the "aggressor" is punished and that war reparations are paid.

Kuwait on Alert -- Kuwait has declared a state of alert for army units on the border with Iraq as a precaution against further Gulf war developments, according to the London paper ASH-SHARQ AL-AWSAT.

[Statement by Maj Gen Baba Jan, chief of General Staff of the DRA Armed Forces, addressed to soldiers and officers of the armed forces "to help coordinate further the ranks of these guardians of the revolution" -- live or recorded]

Their self-sacrifice and courage have been responsible for the cleansing of our sacred homeland from the existence of these agents of reaction and thugs. [5-second break in transmission] in the service of the toilers, who are (?deprived) of the April Revolution, national independence and the unity, territorial integrity and sovereignty of the country.

The revolutionary process in our proud homeland [word indistinct] that the powerful armed forces of our country have been able to carry out with complete success their obligations and duties to the people, the revolution and the homeland. Heroism, self-sacrifice and militancy characterize the personnel of the DRA Armed Forces, and the heroic troops of our armed forces have accomplished deeds in the struggle against our class enemies that have added pride to the rich honor of our people.

The bands of counterrevolutionaries, supported by international imperialism, headed by U.S. and Chinese hegemonism, embark on murder, plunder, looting, and the destruction of public utilities. They are disrupting the peaceful life of our noble and toiling people and, by resorting to inhuman and savage actions, they want to slow down the process of the development of the revolution. But these reactionary forces cannot stop the trend of the society's development.

To implement the lofty aims of the April Revolution, which have been categorically explained in the PDPA action program, it is necessary first of all to maintain lasting, complete and all-round peace throughout the country. The PDPA and the DRA Government pay great attention to affairs concerning the all-round consolidation of the DRA Armed Forces and to the enhancement of their combatreadiness and capability. They put special emphasis on the transformation of the armed forces into a reliable (?source) for the defense of revolution and its gains and into loyal and true servants of our noble and toiling people.

Under the present conditions, every loyal and patriotic citizen of our homeland and the courageous youths must be prepared to serve in the armed forces and still further strengthen and consolidate the ranks of these reliable guardians of the revolution, and by joining in the ranks of our heroic armed forces carry out their revolutionary and national duty to our persecuted and oppressed compatriots.

Service in the militant ranks of the DRA Armed Forces is an honor for every noble citizen of Afghanistan. The (?toilers) of the independent, proud and free Afghanistan, by serving in the armed forces, show themselves to be true (?defenders) against their class enemies, because it is seen that the courageous people of the DRA are fighting courageously against the blood-devouring agents of U.S. imperialism and its collaborators in order to build a prosperous society. On this path they do not spare any sacrifice and they stay loyal to their last breath.

Our revolution has been earned with a very high price [brief interruption in transmission] and do not let the defeated counterrevolutionary enemies and their supporters extend their unclean hands to our sacred land or disrupt the peaceful life of our compatriots.

Defending the gains of the revolution is a very important and sacred duty of every one of our compatriots. The courageous and conscientious troops of the DRA Armed Forces are a force of which all toilers of our country are proud, because their heroic personnel have stood up against the treacherous and bestial actions of terrorists and professional saboteurs, those enemies of peace, freedom and equality and because they are defending their sacred homeland, their honor, their sisters, brothers, fathers and mothers, and crushing the soldout mercenary enemies under their heavy and fatal blows.

It is the supreme duty of each compatriot, as a person loving his homeland and as a patriot, to stand in the ranks of the powerful armed forces in the fight against counterrevolution and to create, with self-sacrifice and courage, an atmosphere suitable for an honorable life for themselves and our compatriots, who are suffering because of the oppression and tyrannies of counterrevolutionary rebels and who have sustained various pains and sufferings. Service in the armed forces is the sacred duty of every individual in Afghanistan. This is the [word indistinct] of patriotism and manhood. One should learn from this, and the struggle to serve the toiling mankind and patriotism must be learned with this as its nucleus. The path which the PDPA has chosen for building a new society must be courageously followed and defended.

In order to strengthen themselves our armed forces need new and experienced personnel. The strengthening of this revolutionary force, by the joining of youths in its militant ranks, needs the sincere implementation of the sacred tasks of defending the revolutionary gains [words indistinct] against the counterrevolutionaries. The conscientious and patriotic youths of our homeland ought to be deeply aware and realize that revolutionary conditions demand that they put their able hands at the service of the defense of the homeland in a lofty spirit of patriotism. Service in the DRA Armed Forces is an honor, because the DRA Armed Forces, which have been organized with the victory of the revolution, are working and active. They are at the service of the millions-strong masses. They are the army of toilers and a liberating army.

Let us, by building up still further the DRA Armed Forces and by taking an active part in the process of crushing the class enemies of the toilers of our country, create suitable conditions for building a new society based on social justice, democracy and progress.

The (?present process) in our revolutionary country and historical experiences show that victory is ours and victory is for the toiling masses of the country under the leadership of the PDPA.

Let the DRA Armed Forces be strong! Victory to the glorious April Revolution! Long live the PDPA!

AFP REPORTS REBELS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

BK230735 Hong Kong AFP in English 0658 GMT 23 Jul 82

[By Dilip Ganguly]

[Text] New Delhi, July 23 (AFP) -- Moslem insurgents in Afghanistan are on the run in seven of the country's 12 "military zones" following a government offensive throughout the Moslem fasting month of Ramadan which has just ended, Asian diplomatic reports said today.

The insurgents, fighting the Soviet-backed regime of Babrak Karmal, suffered heavy losses in clashes with government troops backed by Soviet aircraft and tanks. Large quantities of arms and ammunition, including sophisticated anti-tank weaponry were recovered from the rebel strongholds.

The reports, based on eyewitness accounts, government and rebel claims and independent assessments of the sutuation by diplomats, said over 200 rebels had been killed and another 600 to 700 captured during the month-long operation.

The offensive was suspended for a few days starting today because of the celebrations marking the end of Ramadan, the reports said.

Western diplomats who monitor developments in Afghanistan admitted the government success, but disagreed with their Asian counterparts' assessments of rebel losses.

They also expressed doubts that the government troops would be able to hold out for long.

Early last year, the Soviet military command in Afghanistan divided the country into 12 "military zones" in a bid to effectively counter the growing uprising.

The four-pronged government offensive, considered to be the most effective and well-planned since the Soviet armed intervention in December 1979, was launched in the strategic Panjsher Valley, 100 kms (60 miles) north of Kabul.

It touched the Paghman mountain range 20 kms (12 miles) north-west of the Afghan capital, the city of Charikar, the western Province of Herat and the northern provinces bordering the Soviet Union.

For the first time since the Soviet intervention, government troops now control the former royal summer resort of Paghman. Earlier offensives, including one last year, failed to dislodge the rebels from this strategic mountain range, which is linked to Kabul by two good roads, the reports said.

Part of the Panjsher Valley, considered the strongest rebel stronghold, is now under government control, the reports added.

For the first time, the government-owned newspaper KABUL NEW TIMES published photographs of "liberated" Panjsher and Paghman. Western diplomats here earlier this week admitted the government success in Paghman, but refused to accept government claims that the entire Panjsher Valley was under control.

The reports added, however, that although the rebels were still entrenched in the Panjsher Valley, their "backbone had been broken."

The Soviet-Afghan military command in Kabul is apparently trying to consolidate positions to launch another, perhaps bigger, offensive before the Afghan winter sets in, the reports said.

The offensive also cleared all rebel strongholds in and around the road connecting Kabul with the Soviet port town of Tirmiz, they said. The road has gained strategic importance after the inauguration earlier this year of the bridge over the Amu Darya (Oxus) River.

The reports estimated Afghan-Soviet losses at 200 to 400 dead or missing, adding that at least five to eight helicopters were lost during the operation. They did not mention the losses suffered by the Soviet armoured forces [sent] to the Panjsher Valley to face the first rebel counter-attack.

The Soviet military presence in Afghanistan has been steadily increasing and its total fighting strength is now estimated by the reports at between 120,000 and 135,000 men.

The reports estimated the rebels' fighting strength at between 45,000 and 70,000 men scattered around the country, but said this was a disadvantage because they were forced to face Soviet-Afghan forces concentrated in specific areas.

The reports also said that over the past six months, an estimated 4,000 refugee families had returned to Afghanistan.

GANDHI LEAVES FOR U.S.; PRESS COMMENTS ON TRIP

BK270553 Hong Kong AFP in English 0511 GMT 27 Jul 82

[Text] New Delhi, July 27 (AFP) -- Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi today scotched reports that she would discuss India's defence needs with the United States during her nine-day official U.S. visit, the first by an Indian premier in 11 years.

"I am not going to discuss defence matters.... that is for the Defence Department to consider," Mrs. Gandhi told newsmen before boarding a plane for New York.

Indian newspapers had carried reports from Washington, quoting senior Reagan administration officials, that the U.S. was willing to sell India defence equipment, including the sophisticated F-16 aircraft.

Mrs. Gandhi last visited the United States in 1971, the year India fought a war with Pakistan that saw the emergence of Bargladesh as an independent nation. She was accompanied on the current trip by her only surviving son, Rajiv Gandhi, his Italian-born wife Sona and their children.

Mrs. Gandhi, who looked cheerful, waved at the assembled dignitaries and members of the diplomatic corps before boarding the Air India Boeing "Lhotse."

Mrs. Gandhi is scheduled to have three hours of talks with U.S. President Ronald Reagan in Washington on Thursday.

Meanwhile, leading New Delhi newspapers carried editorials and reports on Mrs. Gandhi's visit.

"India not keen on buying F-16 now," said the independent HINDUSTAN TIMES on its front page.

"The Reagan administration's willingness to consider the sale of F-16 combat aircraft to India could well be aimed at taking the edge off India's protest over the gift of the planes to Pakistan," the TIMES said.

"Setting out on her official visit to the U.S., Mrs. Gandhi's mission is principally to clear fundamental perceptions of each other and create an ambiance so that matters of bilateral concern can be sorted out later with greater measure of agreement," the newspaper said.

The opposition newspaper INDIAN EXPRESS said: "A better understanding of one another's position rather than any dramatic change in Indo-U.S. relations is what might be expected from Mrs. Gandhi's visit to Washington."

"Both sides are likely to remove misunderstandings and create a more favourable climate for the future.... Mrs. Gandhi will no doubt seek to dispel the lingering American belief that India leans towards the Soviet Union," the paper said.

Commenting on the prospects of improving trade relations between India and the United States, the EXPRESS noted the recent liberalisation of certain Indian foreign-economic regulations.

"Greater economic and technological Indo-American exchanges could be an incidental, though useful, fallout arising from the interest generated in the U.S. by Mrs. Gandhi's visit," the EXPRESS said.

The United States continues to be India's major trade partner, with a two-way turnover of over 23,620 million rupees (about $1,500 million) during 1980-81.

The independent TIMES OF INDIA, commenting on the U.S. offer of arms to India, said the issue should be dealt with cautiously.

"The U.S. administration had convinced itself that India leans towards the Soviet Union primarily because it depends on Moscow for arms," the newspaper said. "Since Washington is keen to weaken this relationship and thereby increase the Soviet Union's isolation in Asia, it (the U.S.) may well be willing to incur Pakistani displeasure."

"Indeed a new situation has arisen and New Delhi shall have to deal with it carefully.... This will be especially so if Mrs. Gandhi's visit is successful," the TIMES said.

"An improvement in what the Americans call the atmospherics will accentuate rather than diminish India's dilemma as far as the arms issue is considered," the newspaper said.

COMMENTATOR SPECULATES ON GANDHI U.S. TALKS

BK261455 Delhi General Overseas Service in English 1340 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Commentary by C.S. Pandit of AMRITA BAZAR PATRIKA]

[Text] It is exactly after 11 years that Prime Minister Mrs Indira Gandhi is visiting the United States on an official visit. She leaves on her 8-day tour on Tuesday [27 July] on an invitation from President Reagan after they had a very fruitful meeting at the Cancun summit. Until then, presumably President Reagan had been given the impression that Indian's prime minister was a difficult person to deal with. The Cancun meeting, the first ever between the two leaders, apparently wiped out that impression. As reports from Cancun said at the time, for the first time India's prime minister was able to charm the U.S. President by her sincerity and genuineness.

This was remarkable for the simple reason that her last visit to the United States in 1971 during Nixon's time was a disaster and ever since the India-American relations had been rather formal, verging on studied coldness on both sides. During the brief Janata rule, an attempt was made to defreeze these relations but neither the then Prime Minister Morarji Desai's visit to Washington nor President Carter's return visit to New Delhi helped to improve matters because of various reasons, mainly being the low priority India had in the global strategy of the United States and India's insistence on an independent stand on international issues.

Even now there is no change in the posture of the two countries. And in that sense nothing spectacular was likely to emerge from the talks Mrs Gandhi is due to have with President Reagan on Thursday next. However, after the rapport established between the two at Cancun, it is reasonable to hope that they would try to understand each other's compulsions and appreciate them. Once that happens a normal working relationship may be possible between the two countries.

India would like the primary focus during these talks to be on some important international economic and political issues. Mrs Gandhi had brought them up at Cancun itself. Then followed the exchange of letters between the leaders specifically on these issues. The three main economic issues Mrs Gandhi is likely to raise relate to dwindling prospects of multilateral aid, with the United States dragging its feet on the replenishment of International Development Agency funds and the need for multilateral financing of energy development, including exploration and development of oil, coal and other sources either through a World Bank affiliate or, as the (?Arabs) wanted, through some other independent international agency. The third in this category relates to trade restrictions imposed by the developed countries on Third World manufacturers and semimanufacturers like textiles, garments, industrial fasteners and other engineering goods. And finally, Mrs Gandhi would also like to emphasize that international financial institutions should not be used as instruments to advance political interests of those controlling them.

Among the international political issues that are likely to be raised at the talks are Afghanistan, the West Asian situation, India-Pakistan relations and the situation in the Indian Ocean. It is unlikely that Kampuchea or China would figure in the talks except only indirectly. While the United States is bound to raise the Afghan issue in the context of India-Soviet relations, India on its part would be equally interested in stressing the need for a political solution through peaceful negotiations instead of military confrontation.

And in that context India would like to point out that the United States, by its decision to supply massive arms to Pakistan in the name of a threat posed by the presence of the Soviet troops in Afghanistan, was in fact creating a Pakistan problem for India. This necessarily results in a lot of economic destabilization of our country because of the diversion of huge resources from development to defense. While India does not expect the United States to resile from its military aid commitment to Pakistan, at least it hopes these exchanges would prevent further bolstering of the Pakistan military regime.

The prime minister is not expected to take up any specific bilateral issue at these talks. Of course, at the official level there would be discussion on all such matters, including the resumption of supplies of enriched uranium fuel for Tarapur under the 1963 contract. These supplies have remained suspended since Reagan assumed office. In case nothing comes out of these official-level talks, Mrs Gandhi may like to raise this particular issue with the President himself because this issue has soured relations between the two countries. Both sides feel that the objective conditions obtaining today are such that this visit could lead to a more normal and healthy relationship between the two countries. That has not been the case for the past over a decade.

STOESSEL REMARKS ON F-16, TARAPUR FUEL NOTED

BK231435 Delhi General Overseas Service in English 1330 GMT 23 Jul 82

[Text] American Deputy Secretary of State Walter Stoessel has expressed the United States readiness to sell military equipment, including F-16 aircraft, to India. He was speaking to the Indian press in Washington yesterday. Stoessel, however, made it clear that the Reagan administration's plan to carry through its program of military assistance to Pakistan will continue.

In reply to a question on nuclear fuel supply for the Tarapur plant, Stoessel said it is not a closed issue.

He commended India's policy of nonalignment and said: India is truly nonaligned and we respect her position in the Nonaligned Movement.

KHAMENE'I SPEAKS ON U.S. 'PLOTS,' GULF SECURITY

LD262002 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Speech by President Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i given on 26 July to a group of commanders from the ground forces' training centers -- read by announcer]

[Excerpts] Warning of American plots in the region, the president said: By frightening the countries in the region of the Islamic Republic of Iran, America initially intends to disrupt our friendship with those countries and then intends to establish its military presence in the region. He stressed: America also pretends that the victories of the combatants of Islam have threatened the interests of the countries in the region. This is not so; our victories are a direct threat to America's interests.

He added: The Islamic Republic of Iran poses no danger to the countries in the region. However, if Iraq had won, the peace of the region would have been threatened. This is because Iraq's aggression against Iran proves that it wants expansion and dissension in the region. Also, Iraq's victory would have paved the superpowers' way into the region.

Stressing the point that the security of the Persian Gulf should be safeguarded by members of the same family, he said: Today, not only are our victories not threatening the security of the Persian Gulf countries, but they are cutting short the superpowers' access to and guarantee the independence of the countries in the region. We seriously believe and are in favor of the independence of these countries; we will not allow enemies and aggressors to enter the region.

He said: The resistance of the Muslim nation of Iran combined with the weakness and [word indistinct] of the superpowers, their great problems and the complexity of world issues, will not allow the superpowers to effect direct military interference. However, it does not prevent them from political -- mixed with military -- plots. He said: America wants to use its extensive propaganda to prevent the progress and strengthening of the Islamic revolution. These plots have become more extensive since the superpowers lost hope in Saddam's regime and since our combatants' wondrous victories.

He said: Those who think of Iran's demands that Saddam be condemned and that the Ba'th Party be destroyed as interference in Iraq's internal affairs are mistaken. We will never interfere in Iraq's internal affairs, because we believe that Iraq's internal destiny should be determined by the people of that country.

Reiterating the conditions that the Islamic Republic of Iran recently announced, especially that the aggressor be punished and war reparations be paid, the president said that he regards them as the main conditions for ending the war. He said: We shall not stop at demanding the payment of damages, but we say that those who resort to force should be destroyed. [sentence as heard]

Referring to the Zionists' aggression against southern Lebanon, he said: The superpowers intended to destroy the Islamic revolution by creating the issue of Iraq in the Persian Gulf; the Zionists' and America's policy in creating the issue of Lebanon is that by creating a government affiliated with America -- one which might pave the way for the Camp David accord -- they could disarm the great Palestinian Revolution, which is a great threat to them, and turn it into a political [words indistinct].

Referring to countries such as Egypt and Iraq, which have invited Palestinian warriors to live in their countries, he said: Those who have invited the Palestinians to their countries to keep them away from the frontline of struggle against Zionism, are doing the biggest of favors for the Americans and the shameless Zionists. He said: In our view, the plot to establish a government in Lebanon that is subservient to America and Zionism would be as dangerous and regrettable for the world of Islam and the Middle East as would be the catastrophe of the destruction of the Palestinian Revolution and the Muslims of southern Lebanon.

WAR, ALGERIAN PEACE EFFORTS DISCUSSED BY CABINET

LD261200 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, which has just been handed to us, the Cabinet of the Islamic Republic of Iran met today with Prime Minister Mir-Hoseyn Musavi in the chair. During the session, the most important developments in the country were discussed and reviewed.

Later the minister of defense reported on the situation at the battlefronts. The minister of defense also described the recent attack by the brave Islamic combatants and their penetration of the Ba'thist-Zionist enemy's defenses, as a result of which heavy losses and casualties were inflicted on enemy personnel.

After this, Foreign Minister Velayati reported on the latest developments in the Middle East.

Then Mr Musavi informed the Cabinet about his meeting with the imam of the nation and reported on his recent visit to Algeria and Libya. The prime minister expressed the hope that his visit would help the further advancement of Middle East and North African nations. The prime minister said that during the visit the need for more practical assistance to the oppressed Palestinian and Lebanese nations was stressed.

Regarding claims by foreign agencies that Iran would accept the 1975 [Algiers] agreement as a basis for ending the war, the prime minister said what is important to us, and we have often stated it, is the unconditional withdrawal of the aggressive Saddamist forces to the areas from which they started the war.

The prime minister added: Saddam has frequently unilaterally abrogated the 1975 agreement. We have not taken a position in this matter. [sentence as heard] What interests us, however, has nothing to do with this or that agreement. What we have in mind is the enemy's withdrawal to their preaggression locations.

With regard to the Algerian Government's efforts for peace, the prime minister added: The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, as has been declared previously, will welcome any effort aimed at fulfilling its declared conditions.

At this point, Interior Minister Nateq-Nuri reported the result of his investigation into the problems of Esfahan Province. His views on the need to further strengthen revolutionary institutions and government agencies were supported by the Cabinet.

Also at this meeting, the governor general of Tehran informed the Cabinet about the province's political status and its most important problems. He proposed a plan to increase the province's development allocations. Certain decisions in this regard were adopted.

At the end of the Cabinet session today, a number of urgent decrees were reviewed and a total of 2.5 billion rials was placed at the disposal of the Gendarmerie of the Islamic Republic of Iran for extraordinary military operations.

COMMANDERS INTERVIEWED ON RAMADAN OPERATION

LD261954 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Text] According to the commander of the ground forces, despite making use of the Israeli system of deploying troops during the Ramadan Operation, the enemy has lost at least 650 tanks and personnel carriers and has suffered at least 5,000 dead. The fighters of Islam captured 1,159 Iraqi aggressors. During these operations to date, 101 tanks of Saddam's armed forces have been captured, a number of which are the modern T-72 tanks recently delivered to Iraq. Also at least 150 square km of Iraqi territory has been liberated from the occupation of the Ba'thist aggressors.

According to an IRNA report, the commanders of the ground forces and the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps today in an interview with the Voice and Vision of the Islamic Republic, held in the Karbala' headquarters, announcing the above figures said: [read by announcer] The aim of the Ramadan Operation, 3/4 of the first stage of which has been completed, is to destroy Iraqi forces and to cleanse the border regions of the artillery of the Iraqi Armed Forces which started the war against the Islamic revolution 23 months ago. As we are operating inside Iraqi territory, and because of careful observance of Islamic principles, we are forced to try to ensure that Iraqi civilians resident in the region suffer the least amount of damage, loss and casualty. We only fire at the military positions of the wicked enemy. As a result, in comparison with former operations, these operations will be longer, more accurate and will have special requirements. Despite the provocations of the Iraqi regime, which by bombing our residential towns tries to force us to fire at the civilians in that country, we believe we should inflict the least damage on Iraqi cities.

According to the commander of the ground forces, the Islamic Republic's artillery has such volume and strength that in only a few hours it could destroy Basra. However, we do not even fire at military targets near that city, to avoid inflicting damage upon the people of Basra. Our artillery fire is currently aimed at the Shu'aybah military base, 15 km south-west of Basra, and (Bamiyah) refinery.

In this interview, Brother Reza'i, commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, emphasized: We have based the policy of the Ramadan Operation on inflicting the greatest amount of losses on the Iraqi military forces, while making sure that no injury or loss is inflicted upon the civilians of that country. Brother Reza'i added: In these operations, which are only in the first stage, losses inflicted upon the military equipment and the war machine of Iraq have been more than those inflicted in the Jerusalem operation; but personnel losses inflicted upon Iraq have been less than the previous operations.

Colonel Sayyad Shirazi, commander of the ground forces, presented accurate figures of the losses inflicted upon the military units of the enemy, which on average constituted 40 percent of its entire military capability, and talked about the capturing of 101 enemy tanks, of 1,159 enemy forces, and the destruction of 650 tanks and personnel carriers.

He added: The height of the Ramadan Operation was achieved in the first stage of the operations; on the eve of the blessed 'Id al-Fitr, in only one area comprising 250 square km inside Iraqi territory, 372 tanks and personnel carriers and 200 Iraqi vehicles were destroyed. We possess documented and accurate evidence concerning this. He added: We are confronting the enemy on a 150-km front from the most southern border area up to near (Hur al-Azim) and we possess more than 150 square km of enemy territory.

Colonel Sayyad Shirazi referred to the Israeli method of deploying troops, which has been imitated by Iraq, and explained: The enemy has positioned its armored units in triangular formations, each side of which is 1-km long, and it is difficult to penetrate them [words indistinct]. However, with God's might and assistance, we will smash them.

Brother Reza'i, commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps, said in this interview: 800 km of the southern and western borders of our country are depopulated due to enemy [words indistinct] and the incessant artillery fire of its armed forces, and we are dutybound to restore security to our Muslim compatriots. Therefore, due to the necessity of punishing the aggressor, we should crush him so that in the future other people will not contemplate aggression against the Islamic revolution and against our territory.

In addition, the fighters of Islam must be placed at the side of an Islamic government in Iraq for it to be possible for them to reach Jerusalem. Therefore, Iraq should be liberated from the existence of the Ba'thist regime and Saddam should be overthrown.

The commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps recommended that the Iraqi officers submit to Islam and refrain from assisting Saddam. He compared their position with that of the Iranian officers in the last year of the monarchical regime in Iran and said: In the same way that the members of the monarchical armed forces repented and returned to the embrace of Islam and that most of them kept their positions up to [word indistinct] level, the Iraqi officers can also refrain from continuing their present path and can turn to the Islamic revolution in their country.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 994

LD261756 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Communique No 994 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The victorious combatants of Islam continue their battle on all the fronts with most commendable distinction for the honor of dear Islam and for the destruction of the aggressive hireling Iraqi Ba'thists. An account of this is hereby made available for the information of the dear compatriots:

Intense battle and exchange of fire continue with intensity on the southern fronts, particularly in the Ramadan Operation sector. Self-sacrificers of Islam victoriously defend their scattered positions, reinforce them as much as possible and, using heavy-artillery fire, carry out raids and dispatch tank-hunting squads, continuing the battle to weaken as much as possible and eventually destroy the Saddamist forces.

Exchange of fire continued sporadically on the western fronts. In the Meymak and Mehran regions this was heavier. Artillery fire by the combatants of the ground forces on the Saddamist forces' oil and military installations destroyed enemy positions and fortifications, and set oil installations on fire.

In the Abadan sector yesterday, warriors of the gendarmerie and the hireling Iraqi Ba'thists continued to exchange fire. Heavy-artillery fire by the warriors of the gendarmerie neutralized enemy activity on the Al-Faw-Basra axis.

Yesterday the city of Abadan and the surrounding areas again came under the heavy- and long-range weapon fire of the hireling Iraqi Ba'thists. As a result, one of our dear compatriots was martyred and several others were injured. In addition, one house was set on fire by the criminal Saddamists.

At various times yesterday several intruding Iraqi aircraft tried to violate the airspace of a number of southern border towns but, due to tactical actions by the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran's defense units, the intruding aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi Armed Forces were forced to flee.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

5. Complete purge of the population of the villages of Judeh, (Heni) and (Aq Seql), cleansing them of the filth of the existence of the counterrevolutionary elements, the discovery of a considerable quantity of arms, ammunition and documents and the arrest of a large number of counterrevolutionaries during the operations.

In these large-scale operations, which are still in progress, two Islamic combatants were struck by a mine and achieved the lofty status of martyrdom; four others sustained minor injuries.

In similar joint operations which took place at dawn yesterday, the combatants of Islam wiped out the rendezvous of the counterrevolutionaries in (Firenabad) and hideouts in (Susanabad) and (Buzbuzan) in Salmas District were cleansed of the filth of the counterrevolutionary elements.

Another report says that armed unlawful elements and the lackeys affiliated with world oppression stole pharmaceutical equipment from the Bukan dispensary.

The personnel at the bases of Shahid Kaffash and the Azar Mir Kiln area in Mahabad District were embroiled in a clash with the counterrevolutionaries in which they encountered the intense resistance of the brothers of the armed forces. In this clash, which continued for three hours, our forces did not suffer any casualties, but no figures of enemy casualties have been received yet.

STATUS OF JAPANESE PETROCHEMICAL TALKS NOTED

LD261308 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 26 Jul 82

[Text] The technical delegation of the Iranian petrochemical industry, which went to Tokyo last week to hold discussions with the Japanese partners, has returned to Tehran. The outcome of these talks was presented to the deputy oil minister in charge of petrochemical affairs.

The deputy minister of oil in charge of petrochemical affairs told the Central News Unit correspondent: In previous talks, the Japanese partners had clearly undertaken to provide Iran with any technical assistance and cooperation needed to complete the petrochemical project, provided the joint project's financial problems were somehow solved. Now that the Iranian partners have agreed to provide the financial needs of the project, in this round of talks the Japanese partners practically disregarded previously announced [word indistinct] and agreements and did not clearly answer the Iranian delegation's proposal to prepare a timetable for the beginning of preliminary work and the determination of how to execute the project.

He added: In any case, after the technical delegation's negotiations in Tokyo, it was decided that the Japanese partners would review and study the Iranian partners' views and communicate their view during the next week. If these views are accepted by the Iranian National Petrochemical Industry Company [NPIC] the next round of talks will probably be held in Tehran.

Commenting on the future of this project, the deputy minister of oil in charge of petrochemical affairs said: Considering the stance taken by the NPIC, which is determined to complete this huge project speedily and as soon as possible, following the policies and guidelines given by the Islamic Government of Iran, the Japanese partners should clarify their position in light of former agreements and commitments as soon as possible. Otherwise, the NPIC will consider other alternatives for the completion of this project.

On the other hand, during its stay in Japan the NPIC's technical delegation directly negotiated with several engineering and construction contractors on the problems of the project and the possibility of resuming work on the project.

The leader of the delegation said: In these talks, we felt that the contractors were ready to carry out their contractual commitments and the necessary cooperation, and it was impressed upon them that the lack of agreement with the Japanese partners would have a negative effect on contractors' extended participation and use of opportunities to reconstruct and build new petrochemical units in Iran. The Iranian NPIC delegation returned to Tehran last night.

ENERGY MINISTER DETAILS COOPERATION WITH ALGERIA

LD251058 Tehran IRNA in English 0945 GMT 25 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 24, IRNA -- Energy Minister Dr. Hasan Ghafuri-Fard, who accompanied Prime Minister Musavi to Algeria and Libya, in an interview with IRNA said that they organised joint Iranian-Algerian committees to discuss energy and cultural affairs while in Algeria.

In the energy committee they discussed more exploitation of potential hydroelectric, nuclear and experimental energy sources by both Iran and Algeria. The energy minister said that Iran would cooperate with Algeria in making and exporting electrical hardware including cables, transformers, current meters and the like since Iran had an electrical hardware industry.

He added that Iran would in turn benefit from Algeria's experience in the field of unconventional solar energy sources. He also said Algeria wanted to cooperate with Iran in dam construction, the establishment of power stations and high-tension lines.

Iran and Algeria hoped to take basic steps in making their countries self-sufficient by joint cooperation, Ghafuri-Fard added. In the trip Iran invited the Algerian energy minister and Algerian experts to travel to Iran for, he said, the highest priority was the unity, closeness and cooperation between the two friendly Muslim countries.

PETROLEUM MINISTER ON DOMESTIC OIL EXPLOITATION

LD241252 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 24 Jul 82

[Text] Mr Gharazi, minister of petroleum, who was visiting Bakhtaran Province, gave an interview to IRNA in Bakhtaran on the point of his departure, in which he said that during the visit he studied ways of renewed exploitation of the oil wells in Naftshahr region.

He said: By implementing a vast project Khorramabad's oil will be carried to the Bakhtaran oil refinery and it is forecast that this project will be completed by Shahrivar [Iranian month beginning on 23 August]. He added: Arrangements have been made so that Bakhtaran region's oil consumption requirements for 1 and 1/2 months can be stored in that province so that problems would not arise in the winter season; in the meantime, an attempt will be made to use an oil pipeline system for transferring petroleum products instead of using road tankers.

Mr Gharazi also said: At present 600,000 barrels of oil are being refined by our refineries. In order to make up for this shortage our countrymen should economize. The petroleum minister said: There is no shortage from the standpoint of gasoil and we have sufficient quantities of gasoil for consumption by agriculture and transport. With regard to petrol he said: We are more concerned with supplying the needs of those who hold coupons.

Lebanon

Military Situation -- Israeli air raids and artillery bombardments killed 108 people and injured 187 others in west Beirut, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. The Palestinians responded by firing missiles at the Christian eastern area, killing 7 and wounding 30, the radio said. Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil said his forces would not respond to the shelling, the radio noted.

The clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said 84 people were killed and 142 were wounded when Israeli planes rocketed a building in the Ar-Rawshah area. The raids also inflicted losses on the Palestinians and Syrians in the racecourse area, the Voice of Lebanon reported. Jerusalem radio said the air attacks were of "unprecedented intensity." In remarks broadcast by the radio, Israeli Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon claimed that Israel's aerial activity in Beirut is directed only against military targets.

Israeli planes bombed Beirut again early on 28 July, according to the Voice of Palestine.

In other developments, Jerusalem radio said the IDF has recently captured 200 "terrorists" in southern Lebanon. The Voice of Palestine said six IDF soldiers were killed and nine were wounded on 26 July when an Israeli patrol hit mines planted by a Palestinian guerrilla group.

U.S. Delegations in Israel -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib met for over 2 hours with Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin and requested more time for political contacts especially since, according to Habib, progress has been made in the negotiations, Jerusalem television reported. Habib reportedly told Begin about his talks in Damascus, Cairo and London and outlined U.S. proposals. Earlier, Habib met with Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir and, according to IDF radio, he said progress had been made in talks for solving the Beirut and Lebanon problems. According to Jerusalem television, Habib also told Shamir that he has the "key" to solving the Lebanese crisis.

In a meeting with a U.S. congressional delegation led by Paul McCloskey, Shamir said the PLO had not changed its character and for the PLO, violence is strategic, not tactical, IDF radio reported.

PLO Position -- PLO Information Office official Mahmud al-Labadi expressed regret that the U.S. administration has not accepted the "olive branch" presented by PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat in his recently announced acceptance of all UN resolutions pertaining to the Palestinian issue, Beirut radio reported. However, PLO officials Khalil al-Wazir and Yasir 'Abd Rabbuh both said the document signed by 'Arafat on 25 July does not alter PLO policy and contains nothing new, according to KUNA reports. Speaking at a Kuwait press conference, 'Abd Rabbuh also stressed that the PLO rejects "American-Israeli conditions" for withdrawal from Beirut and reiterated the PLO's demand for an Israeli withdrawal and the deployment of UN forces before the Palestinians discuss their own military and political presence in Lebanon with the Lebanese Government. Asserting that the basic issue is not the PLO's withdrawal from Beirut but the withdrawal of the IDF from the environs of the city, 'Abd Rabbuh said the PLO is preparing for a long battle both at the front and behind Israeli lines.

Reacting to Libyan criticisms of the PLO leadership, the Voice of Palestine radio said Libya "has contributed nothing worth mentioning" to the battle in Lebanon. A joint forces commentary broadcast by the radio criticized Arabs, Muslims and the world as a whole for failing to protest the ceaseless Israeli bombing of Beirut. Yasir 'Arafat sent urgent messages on the Beirut crisis to the Soviet, Cuban, French and Saudi leaders, according to VOP.

Withdrawal Destination -- Sources close to the PLO revealed that Syria, Jordan and Saudi Arabia have agreed to take some PLO fighters, according to Voice of Lebanon radio. Informed Jordanian sources have said Jordan is willing to receive Palestinians who hold Jordanian passports and have no security records, the radio reported. According to MENA, an Egyptian official denied an Israeli report that Egypt has agreed to receive 3,000 Palestinians.

ADF Mandate Expiry -- The Arab Deterrent Forces' mandate in Lebanon expired without the Arab League deciding to renew or cancel the mandate, Beirut radio reported.

Israel

The Qalqilyah Municipal Council was dismissed by the Judaea and Samaria civilian administration on 26 July after it had been on a 3-month protest strike, ITIM reported, adding that the council was replaced by an ad hoc committee.

Iran-Iraq War

Military Situation -- Iraqi Armed Forces continued to hit enemy positions east of Basra, killing six and destroying Iranian equipment, an Iraqi Armed Forces communique carried by Baghdad radio reported. An Iranian military communique carried by Tehran radio said that firing continued in the Ramadan Operation area and that "telling blows" prevented the movement of Iraqi units.

Saudi-Iraqi Cooperation -- Arab sources cited by JANA claimed that Saudi Arabia has reached a detailed agreement with Iraq on developing joint military cooperation against Iran.

Iran

Algiers Agreement Violations -- Iran will go to the International Court of Justice at The Hague to present specific U.S. violations of the Algiers declaration, IRNA reported citing remarks made by the Iranian head of the international law services to the paper KEYHAN. He said the violations included frozen Iranian assets in U.S. banks, nondelivery of commodities to Iran and refusal to hand over the shah's family possessions in the United States.

Security Situation -- Revolution guards arrested 39 members of the Mojahedin-e Khalq together with a large amount of arms and ammunition in a Tehran suburb, Tehran radio reported.

OAU Conference

The OAU foreign ministers meeting scheduled to begin in Tripoli on 27 July was canceled due to the lack of a quorum, the chairman of the OAU Ministerial Coucnil said, according to Rabat radio. However, according to JANA, the chairman of the council said the meeting was postponed because some delegations were delayed in arriving. On 26 July, JANA cited sources who claimed that the Saharan Republic had not been invited to the OAU meetings.

According to a Libyan delegation spokesman cited by AFP late on 27 July, the OAU ministers meeting will begin on 28 July and the OAU summit conference will go ahead as planned.

COMMERCE MINISTER COMMENTS ON FOREIGN TRADE

AU232038 Bratislava PRAVDA in Slovak 22 Jul 82 p 6

[Article by Kabul correspondent Dusan Brabec: "Trade -- the Sap of Life"]

[Summary] Afghan Minister of Commerce Mohammad Khan Jalalar has stressed at many sessions of the Afghan Revolution Council the important role of foreign trade in the development of the country's economy. That is why the people's revolutionary party of Afghanistan and the government are paying special attention to the fulfillment of the program of the country's commercial activity.

"This year the value of the country's exports will amount to $690.36 million, compared with last year's $671.1 million. The value of natural gas exports alone will be more than $300 million, against last year's revenues of $268.27 million. Other important export articles are cotton, wool, hides, fresh and dried fruit, carpets, woolen fabric, pharmaceutical herbs and chemical fertilizer. This year's exports of this merchandise will amount to $345.7 million. The remaining $44.66 million worth of exports are made up of crude oil exports. In the years to come crude oil exports will multiply on the basis of expanded extraction.

"The Afghan Government, being aware of the ups and downs and the unreliability of the free capitalist market, favors long-term agreements in foreign trade. A total of 63 percent of this year's export turnover is based on such agreements. The Democratic Republic of Afghanistan is interested in conducting trade with all countries but, as Minister M. Jalalar stressed, it will give preference to mutually advantageous conditions. Such conditions are offered, above all, by the socialist countries. This year's exports to the country of the northern neighbor, the Soviet Union, for example, will amount to $410.74 million, which is 59 percent of Afghanistan's total exports.

"This year's structure of exports is as follows: The state sector accounts for 51 percent, the private sector for 41 percent and the mixed sector for 8 percent.

"Compared with the last 2 years, there will be a slight reduction in trade with capitalist countries. Minister Jalalar explains this fact by saying that the socialist countries offer more favorable conditions during trade exchange negotiations. Aside from this, they can always be relied on and there are better conditions for the transportation and transit of their merchandise. Finally, some Western firms, American, West German and British, have canceled previous agreements and commitments for political reasons. However, Afghanistan is succeeding in overcoming such artificial obstructions by developing trade relations with Third World countries, especially in Latin America, Africa and South Asia.

The government supports both the state and the private sector. Several export companies representing the interests of private enterpreneurs have been set up. Czechoslovakia is maintaining a busy trade with one such mixed company, Spinzar, which specializes in cotton exports. Private enterpreneurs are thus finding their place in state-run trade.

GENERAL APPEALS TO YOUTH TO JOIN ARMED FORCES

LD272028 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 27 Jul 82

["Appeal" by Brig Gen 'Abdol Ghafur, deputy chief of the General Staff of the DRA Armed Forces, on 27 July in Kabul -- live or recorded]

[Text] Very dear and noble compatriots: The glorious April Revolution, which was a turning point in the history of Afghanistan, put an end to various forms of oppression and brutalities and embarked on a course to safeguard the sovereignty of the workers of Afghanistan.

The exploiters, however, do not want to lose their privileged positions and thus knowingly and willingly embark, in vain, on resistance.

The overthrown classes, with the help of regional reactionaries and international imperialism, headed by U.S. imperialism and Chinese hegemonism, have unleashed an undeclared war against the revolution and the DRA Government. The heroic Armed Forces of Afghanistan, however, with the cooperation of the working masses, have crushed their attempts and courageously continue to seek to exterminate them. These agents of the dollar and the kaldars [Pakistani currency] commit and have committed unforgivable crimes against our noble people during the last 4 years.

The DRA Armed Forces, because of their popular and [word indistinct] character, as the guardians of the interests of the workers, defend the gains of the April Revolution, national independence, territorial integrity and national sovereignty; they are displaying great self-sacrifices in their relentless struggle against the enemies, struggle in which hundreds of officers and men have been honored for their heroism and sacrifices.

Every patriotic individual and every youth whose heart beats for the prosperity of the people and for the well-being of the homeland, (?should know) that the PDPA, the DRA and all the workers of Afghanistan ask them to pick up arms and cleanse as soon as possible the sacred homeland of unclean and treacherous elements and to safeguard the peace and security of our noble compatriots. The fathers and mothers who have lost their dear ones in the course of defending the revolution; the pure souls of heroic martyrs who have sacrificed their precious lives for the well-being and the bright and prosperous future of this homeland, demand that you follow their path. Continue the fight until the last bands of counterrevolutionaries are exterminated. Thousands of patriotic youths, in order to realize the aspirations of the working people of this land, have accepted the honor of service and voluntarily join the armed forces, thus paying their debt to their homeland. Others offer to continue to serve heroically in the armed forces of which the PDPA, the DRA and the masses of workers of Afghanistan are proud.

The PDPA Central Committee and the DRA Government pay continuous and profound attention to the strengthening and consolidation of the armed forces and have transformed them into a reliable force to protect the interests of the workers. The government, in consolidating and strengthening the armed forces and the sarandoy, is paying due attention to inculcating the men with spirit of patriotism and the love of homeland, with sincerity and loyalty to the aspirations of the April Revolution, with solidarity with all the workers. The (?consolidation) of the armed forces and intensification of the struggle against the counterrevolutionary elements is a vital and necessary matter. At the present all patriotic forces of the country, in particular our heroic armed forces, resolutely defend the revolution and strengthen the defense capability of the country. The counterrevolution cannot resist against our heroic armed forces. The DRA Armed Forces have crushed the attempts of the counterrevolutionaries under the most difficult conditions and have earned for themselves unforgettable honors.

(?In order) to successfully carry out their tasks, the armed forces and the security organs should be strengthened and consolidated in their struggle against the counterrevolutionaries. The enemy has been weakened and has suffered shattering blows at the hands of our heroic armed forces throughout the country. Their strong fortresses in Panjsher, Paghman, Samangan, Qandahar and other areas suffered decisive defeats and they should never again be given the opportunity to perpetrate intrigue and conspiracy against our working people and disrupt their peaceful lives.

Dear and noble compatriots, courageous and patriotic youths, say welcome to the call of your working people; add to the honor and pride of your fathers and forefathers; fight until the final extermination of all counterrevolutionary remnants. The proud history of the past generations of Afghanistan shows that victory belongs to the people.

Victory to our heroic armed forces, the proud defenders of the gains of the April Revolution! Thank you.

TREATMENT OF INDIAN DETAINEES IN PAKISTAN SCORED

BK270414 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 23 Jul 82 p 7

[Editorial: "Prisoners of Fate"]

[Text] The fate of the 10 Indians released from Pakistan prisons will give a glimpse to the people of this country of the kind of treatment to be expected when rule of law is not mandatory. All the ten were picked up by Pakistani authorities by chance for allegedly straying into Pakistan territory, though some of them insist that they were well within Indian territory. Then they were put into prison, accused verbally of espionage, beaten, tortured and left to languish. No one thought of getting a court order for their internment. Probably this is not mandatory in Pakistan. Nor were the Indian Government and their relatives informed. Some of them tried to get in touch with their relatives, and one of them had the intelligence to write to Amnesty International. Indeed, it was this which probably secured their release.

Apart from giving Indians a feel of authoritarianism, it should be a lesson to those who raise slogans of "authoritarianism" in this country. Now that they know, from the experience of these unfortunate ten, what authoritarianism is like, they should realise how wrong they have been all along. If they learn the lesson, they will perhaps correct the distortion in their vision. For these ten are not the only Indians so treated in Pakistan. Most of them are positive that there are hundreds more, one figure mentioned being 352. Some of the released prioners seem to know of several Indians who have died in Pakistan prisons. Others seem to know of at least two who have been sentenced to death. India should now think how she can save the unfortunate people who have inadvertently fallen into the hands of Pakistan. Another task to be tackled simultaneously is how to save more Indians from falling into the hands of Pakistani authorities even by accident.

HAQ CALLS FOR REPLACEMENT OF PRESS LAWS

GF272023 Islamabad THE MUSLIM in English 18 Jul 82 p 1

[Text] Karachi, July 17 -- President Ziaul Haq has instructed the Federal Ministry of Information to consider evolving alternative system of the press and publications ordinance.

This was stated by the federal information secretary, Lt. Gen. Mujibur Rahman Khan, in an informal talk with newsmen at an iftar-cum-dinner party hosted by him today.

He said that before 1979 such scheme was prepared and later dropped. Under the fresh instruction of the president, the alternative system should be credible and positive. He added that press would be consulted before taking any decision in this respect.

Gen. Mujib said that press-government relationship was excellent and despite criticism of the government in the press, the press and publications ordinance had not been invoked.

Replying to a question, the federal secretary said that government would not adopt any system of government in the country against the aspirations of the people. He firmly said that government had no intention of imposing anything on the people.

He told a questioner that the emphasis laid by the government on the projection of national identity had yielded good results. He said that mass participation in the independence day celebrations last year amply demonstrated that people had immense love for the country and were ever ready to sacrifice anything to preserve their hard earned freedom. He said that media could play an effective role in projecting national identity.

Gen. Mujib said that people now openly talked about Islam and took pride in their culture and traditions.

About the achievements of the present government, the information secretary said that Pakistan was now a stable country in the region. It has achieved self-sufficiency in foodgrains. The dignity and honour of the people were safe.

To another question, Gen. Mujib said the mass media should not play up the attack on the ideology and the basic foundation of Pakistan. -- APP

U.S. 'VIOLATIONS' TO BE PRESENTED TO HAGUE COURT

LD272058 Tehran IRNA in English 1942 GMT 27 Jul 82

[Text] Tehran, July 27, IRNA -- Iran has detected more than 20 cases in which the U.S. has violated the Algerian declaration, said D. Mohammadi, the international law services head and official responsible for the implementation of Algerian declaration, today.

Dr. Mohammadi, who was speaking to the daily KEYHAN, said the role and responsibilities of the Algerian Government in enacting the terms of the declaration had not ended yet.

Citing some specific violations by the U.S. Mohammadi said the U.S. had not freed all Iranian assets in U.S. banks, amounting to some two billion dollars.

In addition he added that many commodities bought by Iran from the U.S. had not been delivered to Iran as provided for in the declaration. Also, Mohammadi went on, the U.S. Government had refused to sequester possessions of the defunct shah's family in the U.S.

In conclusion he said Iran would soon present to the world court at The Hague the specific violations of the U.S. and would take pertinent measures if the U.S. declined to abide by the declaration.

TEHRAN DERIDES BEGIN'S 'DELIRIUM,' THREATS

GF271457 Tehran International Service in Turkish 1830 GMT 25 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Over Begin's Delirium and Threats"]

[Excerpts] Dear listeners: The marking of Jerusalem Day by the world Muslims in an unprecedented way, the marches organized by Muslims in countries under captivity and the anti-imperialist and anti-Zionist slogans chanted during the ceremonies — slogans which have reflected the wish of the Islamic world to liberate Jerusalem -- have brought such an awe to the heads of infidel systems in the world that they have felt compelled to admit the power of the Iranian Islamic revolution -- a move conflicting with the general outlines of their propaganda. In fact, they have admitted that the Iranian Islamic revolution is the most serious threat to the existence of the Zionist regime and to the interests of international oppressors in the Middle East.

It will be recalled that immediately after the Jerusalem Day ceremonies, the [words indistinct] and experienced terrorist Menahem Begin resorted to threats while making a statement in Tel Aviv.

This state of affairs has brought the fact to light that the Zionists are fully aware of the depth of the slogans chanted by the Muslims and of the serious stand of the Islamic front. It also proves that the Zionists are no longer capable of maintaining their hypocrisy.

Yes, for the first time in the course of the history of the exploitationist policy adopted by the superpowers, the Muslims -- on a given day and for the achievement of a given objective -- chanted in unity the slogans: "God is great" and "Jerusalem must be liberated." Jerusalem Day was one that witnessed a magnificent demonstration of strength by one billion Muslims -- Muslims who are governed by political systems and who have different languages and cultures. It was a day of unity for all Muslims for the salvation of Islam and Jerusalem. It is because of all the abovementioned facts that Begin is unable to continue discharging his inimical task against the Iranian Islamic revolution. Consequently, crying out loud with satanic rage, he has threatened that if the religious leader of Iran chooses to organize a march toward Jerusalem, his military units will be destroyed halfway to their goal. With a view to concealing his fear and inspiring hope in his supporters, Begin went on to say: The Iranian troops will be destroyed by Israel's armored units and air force before they attain the halfway mark to Jerusalem, or even if they manage to cover the whole route. A few will be allowed to return to Iran so that they can recount their ordeal for others.

It appears that, overwhelmed by savage feelings, Begin has begun to talk in a state of delirium. However, we have to make the following remark: Two years ago, your close friend Saddam made similar remarks. In fact, he tried to put what he said into effect. You will only witness the fall of the infidel Saddam and the Zionist Iraqi Ba'thist Party. Meanwhile, others will witness the fall of your state and the destruction of your racist and Zionist views.

Yes, this is your unavoidable fate. Actually, it is the historic duty of world Muslims to put an end to your existence. If there is any factor that can delay the defeat awaiting you and your friend, there is nothing that can change the movement aimed at achieving liberation. In fact, the first phase of the world Muslims' unavoidable task is securing the downfall of Saddam, who is your ally. The second phase of this task is to liberate Jerusalem.

The question is: Do Begin and Saddam understand these facts?

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 995

LD271802 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 27 Jul 82

[Communique No 995 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] The self-sacrificing heroes of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, with their unceasing efforts on all the battlefronts, are bravely smashing the positions, trenches and armored vehicles of the Saddamist forces and are thereby a cause of pride for Islam, the Islamic homeland and for themselves. In the wake of the praiseworthy victories scored by the epic-making combatants and the fighting and vanguard heroes of the revolution army during the great Ramadan Operation, the defenders of the Islamic revolution continue their activities forcefully and vigilantly. The aim is to achieve their divine goals for the defense of Iran's Islamic homeland and, maintaining their superiority and domination over the Zionist, Ba'thist mercenaries of Saddam's army, they are continuing their tasks.

During the past 24 hours, exchange of fire continued in the Ramadan Operation zone and our proud combatants, with artillery and mortar fire, inflicted further telling blows on Saddam's moribund army, prevented all movement by Iraqi units and disrupted movement and traffic by enemy vehicles.

Yesterday an exchange of fire continued between our forces and Iraqi servicemen in the Abadan region and as a result enemy movement and activity on the opposite bank of the Shatt al-'Arab was neutralised and a number of Ba'thist servicemen were killed.

Yesterday the city of Abadan came under heavy- and long-range weapon fire by the Saddamist army and as a result of hits by enemy mortar shells six houses were destroyed. Yesterday we suffered three of our people martyred and 35 wounded in that area. In the operational zones in the western parts of our country clashes also took place in the form of a desultory exchange of fire, the intensity of which was greater in the Meymak region. On the country's western fronts our combatants fired on assembly points, supply axes and fortifications of the Iraqi forces, stopped the enemy's ground activities and silenced their fire. Operations for the detection and defusing of minefields on the country's western fronts are continuing.

[Signed] The Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran

MINISTERS WELCOME RESIDENTS BACK TO SUSANGERD

LD232232 Tehran IRNA in English 1958 GMT 23 Jul 82

[Text] Susangerd, July 23 IRNA -- After the 23 month struggles of the Islamic combatants to expel the Iraqi forces from the south of Iran the residents of Susangerd were able to return to their homes and hold 'Id al-Fitr prayers.

The Susangerd residents on returning to their homes were welcomed there by Nateq-Nuri, the interior minister, Dr Manafi, the minister of health, Dr Banki, the head of the Plan and Budget Organisation, the governor general of Khuzestan and some of the ulema of the region.

Nateq-Nuri in this ceremony said the Islamic combatants triumphed despite all the economic boycotts of the superpowers against the Islamic Republic of Iran. He also referred to the resistance of the Iranian Muslim people against the aggression of the Iraqi regime.

The interior minister condemned the inattention and biased attitude of the Non-aligned Movement and the Security Council towards the imposed Iraqi war. He added that the war with Iraq would ultimately expose the hypocritical nature of the Iraqi regime just as the hypocrisy of the Mojahedin-e Khalq terrorists inside the country was revealed.

After 22 months of homelessness Susangerd's residents were moved to tears of joy on being able to return home. The people were already busily beginning the rehabilitation of the devastated areas of their city.

KEYHAN STRESSES NEED FOR SECURITY ORGANIZATION

GF271601 Tehran KEYHAN in Persian 6 Jul 82 p 1

[Editorial by Seyyed Hoseyn Teheri: "In Order To Destroy Terrorism"]

[Excerpts] This prologue is in connection with the dastardly assassination of the martyr Ayatollah Sadduqi. Considering various matters, such as the repeat in the style of the assassination -- Brother Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani also mentioned this -- the U.S. forces opportunistic attacks in order to deal internal blows, and considering the decisive actions of the Islamic Republic against the Ba'thist Iraqi regime and the Zionist aggression and such things, the required coordination and the subsequent carrying out of duties and responsibilities are not evident. [sentence as published]

We see that a small amount of disagreement and lack of coordination can allow the counterrevolutionaries the opportunity to carry out their treacherous and inauspicious plots. As Brother Hashemi-Rafsanjani said: It is possible to stop these assassination plots. It is certain that had actions been taken on the basis of past events and the assassinations of great and faithful human beings like martyr Madani, Hasheminezhad and Dastgheyb as lessons in awareness and a dam against these types of recognized plots, this calamitous event would not have occurred. Since we believe in our responsibilities and the carrying out of our duties in terms of our beliefs and abilities and since the smallest shortcoming in this respect will result in bitter and unpleasant events, we consider it necessary to pay attention to awareness and a duty to fight counterrevolutionary forces.

For the sake of awareness and information, there is an urgent need for an information organization. This organization will be able to close the way for the internal agents of imperialism and Zionism with its activities and stop such aggressions so that the achievements of the revolution do not become toys in these inauspicious hands. In terms of carrying out duties and the sense of responsibility, the brother guards have already proved themselves and have shown their responsibility toward the maintenance of the values of the Islamic revolution. By their sacrifices and martyrdom they have shown that they are people of action and there is no doubt about their good intentions and their selflessness.

If these good intentions and these clear, pure and selfless ideas, with all the power they contain, are put into action they will show a great ability and we have witnessed this in the fronts of the imposed war and in the great epics of our dear ones. We hope that the creation of a powerful security force in the internal front and the military training of these brothers will give a disciplined form to their pure and loving beliefs, and thus further reinforce their abilities, which are a base for creation of responsibility. Such support will arm them for more revolutionary duties and will improve their efficiency by [a flow] of information and power, and thus increase their responsibility. With such responsibilities, the road for the infiltration of the counterrevolutionaries in the newspapers and other vacuums caused by a lack of information and ability in the security field is closed.

NVOI QUOTES LIBYAN PAPER ON SOVIET-ARAB TIES

GF271335 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 25 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "A Few Facts in the Language of AL-JAMAHIRIYAH"]

[Text] Dear listeners: The U.S. elements and enemies of popular movements and anti-imperialist movements are seeking to make use of every incident to create doubt in the public and [word indistinct].

The bloody destruction of Lebanon and the U.S.-Israeli aggression in that state have been regarded as an excuse in hand by all U.S. elements, elements linked with the United States in our region, to distract attention from their treacheries. In other words, they want to involve a state which, in the face of [word indistinct] and aggressions and in the face of conspiracies hatched by the United States and Israel, has been sincerely providing multisided support to the Arabs and the Palestinian army on various levels for years.

If lies, false claims and beating faces with slippers by these elements had only appeared in the (?press) of the conservative Arab regimes of the region, we would have probably not attached much importance to them. However, the situation has reached such a point that these lies and false claims have unfortunately also found purchasers even among those who are ready to fill their eminent begging bowls with every coin they can get.

The talk is about the relations of the Arab states with the Soviet Union. Currently, a number of the leaders of Arab regimes and their appointees have, in various shapes and forms, made the Soviet Union the target of their attacks regarding Israel's attack on Lebanon. These attacks are being made by individuals who, in the words of the president of our state, have either remained aloof or maintained their place in the bloc of world-devouring United States.

Whatever the case may be, the organ of the revolutionary committees of Libya, AL-JAMAHIRIYAH, has recently devoted one of its editorials on the matter to the discussion of certain parts of the history of Soviet-Arab relations and we are reproducing its contents here in part for the information of our dear listeners. Regarding the matter, it would be better if the facts are heard from the mouth of the clear-visioned Arabs.

In the editorial referred to, it is said that the Soviet Union has always supported in principle and action the Arab nations and their struggle in the direction of independence and freedom and has given them (?unquestionable) material and military aid. Daily AL-JAMAHIRIYAH writes that it was as a result of the effective Soviet aid that the Arab victory was assured in the 1956 war. However, the enemies of Soviet-Arab relations are seeking to use every excuse to make false accusations against the Soviet Union regarding its relations with Arab countries. For example, some of them (?write) that in a way the Arab defeat in 1967 was due to the fault of the Soviet Union and to Soviet military equipment.

Even now, they are looking for someone to blame, a so-called culprit, regarding developments in Lebanon. However, leaving aside the particular developments in Lebanon, it is not without reason that a trend has appeared in a number of Arab countries blaming the Soviet Union and counting the Soviets among the enemies of the Arab nation. AL-JAMAHIRIYAH, the organ of the revolutionary committees of Libya, further writes that these people close their eyes to the very nature of Soviet relations with Arab countries, relations which are based on mutual interest and equality of rights. This cooperation is not based on a military pact under which this or that (?line should be adopted) or (?this or) that war be (?attributed) to a certain side. Besides this, it has been established that some of them (?wrongly) assume themselves to be members of the Warsaw pact and expect that in the case of even a small threat the Soviet Union should act as a shield for them.

The organ of the revolutionary committees of Libya, AL-JAMAHIRIYAH, further writes in its editorial that before blaming the Soviet Union and its military equipment, they should be asked the following question: How trained are those who are armed with this equipment and what is their fighting spirit? Soviet military equipment has repeatedly proved its high quality in the fields of Vietnam, Kampuchea and Angola.

Instead of confusing themselves over the quality of the Soviet equipment, it would have been appropriate if the Arab soldiers had not left the Soviet equipment and all their military secrets in the hands of the enemy.

The organ of the revolutionary committees of Libya, AL-JAMAHIRIYAH, writes: "We are not pro-Soviet. Our relations with the Soviet Union are basically different than those between Israel and the United States."

The Soviet Union does not expect the smallest benefit from its cooperation with the Arab states and it does not demand military bases from them. Nor does it use their territories to station its armed forces in them.

In view of this, it is feared that a number of (?leaders) or, the actual government of any Arab country -- after accusing the Soviet Union and its [word indistinct] regarding Lebanon -- may reach a point wherefrom this or that Arab country -- after further reviewing its relations with the Soviet Union -- may fall into the lap of the United States or may lessen the importance attached to the maintenance or development of its relations with the Soviet Union. Sooner or later, such a country will join the camp of the enemies of Arabs.

Concluding its editorial, AL-JAMAHIRIYAH writes that the Palestinian Resistance movement, which has shown examples of heroism and sacrifice in July 1982, has been fighting with Soviet equipment against Israel. For this very reason, a number of Arab regimes -- in order to cover up their own dishonesty -- are once again trying to dub the Soviet Union as the defaulter in the said developments. This means that the regimes referred to, through their opportunist stand, are striking at the struggle of the Arab nation in its fight against Israeli aggression.

Such were the contents of the editorial by AL-JAMAHIRIYAH, the organ of the revolutionary committees of Libya, regarding certain aspects of the Soviet-Arab relations and the noise made by certain heads of self-selling Arab regimes in connection with the matter. It is expected that the facts which have been published in the said editorial will be helpful enough to illuminate the people who have fallen in the [word indistinct] net of the imperialist bloc.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

29 JULY 1982

Lebanon

Cease-Fire, Military Situation -- After artillery exchanges "of unprecedented intensity" had aborted one cease-fire attempt, a second cease-fire agreement came into effect late on 28 July and firing died away, according to Beirut and Voice of Lebanon radio reports. Beirut lived through "real hell," according to the Voice of Lebanon, with Israeli shells raining down on the western sector and Palestinian artillery firing not only at Israeli-held positions but also at Christian districts to the northeast. The firing left 18 people dead in all sectors, wounding 67 in the eastern area and 140 in the western sector, the radio said. Confirming that the cease-fire came into effect after heavy exchanges of fire, the IDF spokesman said two Israeli planes attacked "terrorist" positions and ammunition dumps in west Beirut for the 7th consecutive day, Jerusalem radio said. The clandestine Voice of Palestine radio said the raids killed or injured 28 people. The Israelis continued to deny water and electricity supplies to west Beirut, according to a 28 July Beirut radio report.

Regarding the situation in the Al-Biqa' Valley, Israeli Chief of Staff Lt Gen Refa'el Eytan stressed that Israel will not tolerate Syrian violations of the cease-fire, Jerusalem radio reported. A senior IDF officer said earlier that the Syrians have apparently imposed operational discipline on the "terrorists" in their sector, preventing them from launching operations against the IDF, according to Jerusalem radio. Nevertheless, in a statement reported by the Voice of Palestine, the Palestinian-Lebanese Joint Forces claimed that a guerrilla unit raided an IDF tank position in the western Al-Biqa' late on 27 July, destroying 2 tanks and causing 10 IDF casualties.

Israeli Position, Habib Visit -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib will clarify within 2 days whether the "terrorists" have truly decided to leave Beirut and has promised Israel to obtain an unequivocal commitment that they will leave, Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin announced in a statement broadcast by IDF radio. Noting that Israel has provided more time for the negotiations, Begin said that if the talks do not help, Israel will have no alternative but to bring about by its own means the "disappearance" of the "terrorists" from Beirut. In a related report, Jerusalem radio said Israel has not given Habib a deadline but has reemphasized that the PLO's removal from Beirut cannot be conceded. There are indications that Syria, Jordan and Egypt are ready to receive PLO personnel, the radio said. Habib's visit to Israel has been described there as being "the end of the race," MA'ARIV observed. MA'ARIV asserted that if the PLO leader is indeed realistic, he will soon "sober up." The paper went on to say that the "deluxe siege" thus far enjoyed by the "terrorists" in Beirut will not continue and the noose around them is getting tighter. After meeting with U.S. congressmen, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said in remarks broadcast by Jerusalem radio that he told the delegation "it is very possible that after the PLO has been annihilated in Beirut -- although we would prefer to achieve this through negotiations -- the road will indeed be paved for entering real negotiations with the Arabs of Eretz Yisra'el." Meanwhile, the prime minister's office denied Congressman Paul McCloskey's claim to have been told by Begin that Israel has the right to destroy Beirut even if 10 Lebanese and 5 Palestinian civilians are killed for every Palestinian soldier, the radio reported.

Contacts, PLO Position -- After meeting with U.S. envoy Philip Habib, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan met with PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat, Beirut radio reported. Earlier, Al-Wazzan met with 'Arafat's political adviser Hani al-Hasan and with National Movement Chairman Walid Junblatt, the radio said. Meanwhile, former Lebanese Prime Minister Sa'ib Salam held telephone contacts with Saudi King Fahd and Egyptian President Husni Mubarak, the radio noted.

Yasir 'Arafat's recent approval of UN resolutions relevant to the Palestinian problem was not an attempt to satisfy the United States and was not made just because of the current battle situation, but was an effort to end the Israeli invasion and help solve the Palestinian issue, a Voice of Palestine commentary declared. 'Arafat knows that the United States demands PLO recognition of Israel not because nonrecognition threatens Israel, but because it would prompt the PLO toward a series of destructive concessions, the radio claimed.

The PLO delegation at the Arab League ministerial meeting in Jidda will refuse to discuss the evacuation of PLO fighters from west Beirut to other Arab countries, a Palestinian source said according to AFP.

Arab Foreign Ministers Committee Meeting -- The Arab foreign minister ministerial committee met in Jidda during the evening of 28 July, SPA reported. Citing diplomatic sources in Beirut, Beirut radio said the committee is expected to announce the names of Arab states prepared to receive PLO fighters, tackle the question of the Arab Deterrent Forces' presence in Lebanon and affirm that Lebanon does not want to end the Syrian presence in Lebanon before the end of the Israeli occupation.

Iran-Iraq War

Military Situation -- Iran launched a major offensive into Iraqi territory late 28 July and overran an 11 km stretch of Iraqi defensive lines in the western battlefront, Tehran radio reported. An Iranian military communique carried by the radio said Iranian forces have "complete superiority" and that the Iraqis have suffered heavy equipment and personnel losses. An Iraqi military communique carried by Baghdad radio on 29 July said that its forces contained this fifth offensive launched in the Basra area and destroyed a large amount of Iranian equipment. The communique added that the Iraqis launched a counteroffensive and with helicopter cover forced the Iranians to retreat. Meanwhile, Tehran radio's Arabic service said 60 Iraqi officers were captured and moved to the rear. Earlier, Tehran radio reported that Iranian forces fired on positions in the Saybah region inside Iraq, killing or wounding 31 Iraqis. An Iraqi military communique carried by INA claimed that Iranian positions east of Basra were again hit, killing 17.

Majlis Speaker Comments -- After meeting with Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni, Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani said that although Algeria has offered to mediate between Iran and Iraq, Iran made it clear it does not need a mediator because its demands had not changed, IRNA reported. Hashemi-Rafsanjani went on to say that Iran will not appoint a mediator but it welcomed Algeria's efforts to mediate in the conflict. He said Iran's demands included the unconditional withdrawal of Iraqi forces; payment of reparations; punishment of Iraq as the "aggressor"; return of Iraqi refugees to their homes; and availability of a land route through Iraq to Israel. He warned Iraq that if Iran does not get its "rights," Iranian forces will go all the way to Baghdad.

OAU Conference

An effective compromise has been reached that removes the obstacles to holding the OAU summit conference and the danger of the OAU's disintegration, Libyan Secretary for Foreign Affairs 'Ali 'Abd as-Salam at-Turayki said in a press conference reported by JANA. The Saharan delegate has volunteered to withdraw until a solution to the dispute over his participation can be reached, JANA said. However, according to APS, because of the "danger of fragmentation" over the question of the SDAR's participation, it was decided to postpone the meeting "indefinitely."

AFP REPORTS DETAILS ON CENTRAL COMMITTEE PLENUM

[By Dilip Ganguly]

[Text] New Delhi, July 28 (AFP) — Afghanistan's state-owned Kabul radio last night did not report the speech made by Soviet-backed President Babrak Karmal at the Ninth Plenum of the Ruling People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan (PDPA).

The plenum ended in Kabul on Tuesday night with a call for party unity, the spreading of party ideology among the masses and respect for religious and traditional values.

The state-controlled Kabul radio broadcast the plenum's decisions last night, but abstained from reporting Afghan President Babrak Karmal's speech, which surprised diplomatic experts here monitoring developments in the embattled country.

In earlier plenums, Mr Karmal's speech had dominated the media reports, diplomats said.

The composition of the plenum, chaired by Mr Karmal, was also different from previous ones held since the Soviet Army installed Mr Karmal as the third Marxist president since the communist coup in April 1978.

In addition to regular members, secretaries of provincial committees, chiefs of the military zones, secretaries of the party organizations and the political chief of the armed forces took part in the day-long deliberations.

Another interesting aspect of the plenum was that Mr Karmal did not attend the entire deliberations.

According to the radio, he left after delivering the "principal statement" and only returned to make his concluding remarks.

In his absence the plenum was chaired by Chairman of the National Fatherland Front (NFF) Saleh Mohammad Ziray.

"The main thrust of the party responsibilities is to propagate, popularise and educate the masses on the party's ideology, economic aims and political, military and social aims of the government," the radio said.

The plenum decision came against the background of a renewed effort by the PDPA to increase party membership, especially among the young people and numerous tribes whose neutrality is the key factor in the government's offensive against the Moslem insurgents opposed to the Soviet-backed Karmal government, the diplomats said.

Though no recent official membership figures are available, diplomats estimate the size of the party at between 45,000 to 70,000.

The plenum also stressed unity, something which has eluded Mr Karmal ever since he was installed as president and the strengthening of the party "so as to enable it to do political work in a befitting manner," the radio said.

Differences between the two factions of the PDPA -- The Parcham and the Khalq -- which have surfaced violently several times in the past, are less evident now, the diplomats said.

"The Soviets apparently have succeeded in bringing the point home among the warring factions leaders that they would gain nothing by fighting each other," said a diplomat who asked not to be named. But he added "the differences... they are very much there".

The plenum gave extraordinary importance to the often repeated government "policies" on religious freedom and respect for the traditional values of the Afghan people -- the two most important factors safeguarded by Afghan Moslems, the diplomats said.

The plenum decision and instruction are in line with widespread official efforts to project a pro-religious government image.

In recent months, the state-owned Kabul NEW TIMES newspaper has carried photographs of new mosques being built and old ones being repaired and there were regular news reports of money gifts to Moslem priests, diplomats said.

They added that Moslem priests have been given prominent places in all important party organizations, and some government organs which are associated with the people such as the National Fatherland Front.

HERALD: GANDHI VISIT MAY CHANGE U.S. POLICY

BK270343 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 22 Jul 82 pp 1, 12

[By Sanjiv Prakash]

[Text] Washington, July 20 -- Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's visit may result in changed American foreign perspectives.

It is now dawning on President Reagan that world issues are far more complex than they seemed to him on January 20, 1981.

President Reagan came into office with a lot of strong rhetoric. It was all well received, particularly after the way President Carter conducted the state of affairs during the Iranian crisis. America was overjoyed at the way the new President "tough talked" with the Russians. The European allies had long last got a strong partner and an average American was once again proud of his country.

Then things started changing. Forces which the giant hierachies of the White House, Pentagon or the State Department did not predict started affecting the tough agenda of the new President.

Unexpectedly, Europe became sensitive to nuclear installations. Unprecedented public demonstrations took place in many European countries; West Germany -- the most dependable American ally -- not begging [as published] behind. The Russians looked askance while China was baffled with this new turn of events.

Mr. Reagan continued to carry Congress like a charm. AWACS deal with Saudi Arabia was orchestrated through the legislature and the administration also succeeded in getting its budget proposals through the Hill.

Budget cuts and loss of jobs found America in a recession. Families from Maine to California were affected as their bread earners were laid off. The American media made no secret of the fact that there was a rift in the White House and that the President was a novice in conducting foreign affairs. What sounded like a media fantasy as the White House watched the Central American crisis, the Polish crisis and now the war in West Asia steadily transformed into reality that the administration has to modify and mellow its stand on sensitive world issues. The Lebanese crisis has more than ever proved the helplessness of the U.S. in a particularly trying situation where a country like Israel, entirely dependent on American arms, decided to use American arsenal against civilians. The Reagan administration tolerated the bombing of the Iraqi nuclear reactor earlier this year by Israel on the plea that it was a security risk to Jewish state. But Israel's brutality and belligerence is costing the adminstration very dearly politically.

The feeling in Washington with the resignation of Secretary of State Alexander Haig is that the President is in full control of the foreign policy more comfortably with the advice of his Californian associates. And this is what is worrying everyone in Washington, except the Democrats.

Given these sets of international and domestic forces at play in America, the visit of Mrs Indira Gandhi is looked at as very important. Mrs Gandhi will encounter an administration which is flexible, willing to listen.

It is now in Mr Reagan's favour to get the support of the Indian prime minister on major world issues. Mrs Gandhi's support will provide the American foreign policy a kind of harmony it is now seeking. President Reagan is looking for wider support on various pressing issues, such as the situation in West Asia and the militarisation of the Indian Ocean. Sale of arms by the U.S. will be discussed, although without much emphasis.

HERALD VIEWS SRV PROPOSALS ON KAMPUCHEA

BK270330 Delhi NATIONAL HERALD in English 22 Jul 82 p 6

[Madan Lal article: "Kampuchea: Beyond the 'Farce'"]

[Text] The Socialist Republic of Vietnam (SRV), since its reunification in 1975, has been engaged in the task of national reconstruction. But the spate of events during the last two-three years, commencing with the Chinese aggression on Vietnam in early 1979 and developments in Kampuchea, which forced Vietnam to station its troops there to make its frontiers secure, have added to the problems of the young socialist republic.

The recent unilateral offer of Vietnam to withdraw a sizeable part of its military forces from Kampuchea is a significant move in the direction for resolving the Kampuchean tangle. Vietnam's offer, which came in the wake of the foreign ministers' conference of the Indochina states at the Ho Chi Minh City recently, is, however, not a new one. The SRV had made such offers in the past. This time, Vietnam's offer is not a "token" withdrawal, but a substantive one. According to Nguyen Co Thach, the SRV foreign minister, his country is prepared to withdraw more troops provided Thailand promises not to allow its territory to be used by the Khmer Rouge forces to invade Kampuchea.

SRV's sincere efforts for finding a permanent solution to the Kampuchean issue have been thwarted many a time by China and ASEAN. Vietnam's package of proposals this time seeks a broader solution to the problems confronting the countries of S.E. Asia by convening a Geneva-type international conference to be attended by not only the countries of Indochina and ASEAN but also by India, Burma, USA, USSR, France, Britain and China. If the experience of the 1954 Geneva Conference is any guide there is every possibility of envisaging a lasting solution to the problems as most of the countries except China and the USA are eager to work for it.

In such a fluid situation, Vietnam cannot be expected to make a total withdrawal of its troops from Kampuchea in the absence of any international guarantees that there will be no efforts to reverse the process.

Once the SRV has made its intentions clear, now the ball is in the court of ASEAN countries, who should be equally interested in finding a lasting solution to the Kampuchean issue. How will ASEAN react? Will the United States and China keep their hands off the region?

SIX CPI-M WEST BENGAL MINISTERS RESIGN

BK281616 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 28 Jul 82

[Text] In West Bengal, six ministers of the Communist Party of India-Marxist [CPI-M]-led nine-party government have resigned. The chief minister told newsmen in Calcutta this evening that he has received the resignations. They are: Jatin Chakravorty, Debabrata Bandyopadhyay, Nani Bhattacharyya -- all Revolutionary Socialist Party [RSP] -- and Kanai Lal Bhattacharyya, Kamal Guha and Sambhu Ghose of the forward bloc. Jyoti Basu disclosed no other details.

The resignation follows the impasse between the different constituents of the left front on the question of bifurcating some portfolios. The CPI-M has been proposing that health, agriculture, industry -- held by RSP and forward bloc ministers -- should be bifurcated and reallocated. The RSP has been arguing that health and family welfare could be bifurcated but both should be in the charge of their nominees. The party has opposed a CPI-M nominee being allocated one of the portfolios. The forward bloc had opposed the proposal altogether.

The resignation came on the eve of the crucial meeting of the left front committee scheduled for tomorrow to resolve the question of bifurcation of portfolios.

[Text] New Delhi, 24 July (APP) -- Two more followers of Sikh leader Sant Jarnail Singh were arrested in Amritsar last Wednesday (21 July). They have been charged with possessing explosive material against the explosives act. One of the arrested persons is Baba Thara Singh, who is in charge of the temple Gurdwara Gurudarshan Parkash, the headquarters of Sant Jarnail Singh.

The two were arrested at the district courts in Amritsar while they were trying to help the 61 followers of Sant Jarnail Singh arrested earlier for staging a demonstration near the Kotwali building in order to prompt arrest.

Sant Jarnail Singh has challenged the government that if his followers were not released by Sunday (25 July) he would retaliate and in that case the responsiblility would lie with the government.

Editorial Views Release

GF290514 Islamabad THE MUSLIM in English 19 Jul 82 p 4

[Editorial: "A Positive Step"]

[Text] Recently the government decided to release 9 political leaders from Karachi Central Jail who were arrested last month under various martial law regulations. These leaders, belonging to various components of the MRD [Movement for Restoration of Democracy], were released a few days before the expiry of their detention orders, which have been revoked by the martial law authorities.

This is a positive step because the detention of political personalities serves no purposes other than to bring the government into disrepute. Additionally, political activity within the framework of the laws of the land is a healthy sign of the involvement of the people in national affairs and it provides a very useful channel for the ventilation of popular grievances and expression of opinion.

A few days back the interior minister, while going through a round of 'iftar party' made several statements on what is termed in official jargon as the "law and order situation". In his speeches the interior minister stated that Pakistan had only 13 political prisoners and not 2,300 as claimed by the MRD. Secondly, the minister, while referring to statements made by the MRD, said that some of them were speaking on behalf of their "foreign masters".

This is a serious allegation, more so when it comes from the minister primarily responsible for maintenance of internal security. Public opinion will remain unconvinced regarding the validity of these serious charges unless these are substantiated by published evidence. For too long, the people have got used to hearing the government in power label its opponents as "traitors" or "foreign agents". In fact, an unfortunate tradition has managed to pollute our political process whereby practically all those in the opposition are labelled as such and when it is their turn to govern, they faithfully abide by the precedent established and freely slander their opponents with similar pejoratives.

Hussain Shaheed Suhrawardy, Dr. Khan Sahib, Khan Abdul Wali Khan and the khan of Kalat are among those in our political history who were routinely denounced as "traitors" and/or "foreign agents" while in opposition. While often not being credible with popular opinion, such tactics are also bad politics as these inject an unhealthy element in our political process.

While the government's decision to release the nine MRD leaders in Karachi is commendable, we would venture to add that all of them are political "lightweights" in our national context.

The "heavyweights", who are presumably among the thirteen-odd political prisoners in the country as stated by the interior minister, have been incarcerated for the last three years, mostly in preventive detention.

With five years of relative stability behind it and added confidence for the future, the government would do well to take a step further and release the remaining thirteen political detainees, whose continuing imprisonment can only be an unnecessary embarrassment as well as an impediment in the government's "long march" towards restoration of representative rule.

KHAMENE'I WARNS COUNTRIES AIDING IRAQ IN WAR

LD282302 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 28 Jul 82

[Text] According to a Central News Unit report, a group of air force personnel from Mashhad met with Mr Seyyed 'Ali Khamene'i, the president of the republic. In a speech during the meeting, the president, referring to the successful task of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, said that the excellent and exceptional situation enjoyed today by the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran is due to the grace of Almighty God and the imam of the era -- may Almighty God hasten his esteemed advent -- and the leadership of the imam of the Islamic nation. You will never find another armed force in the world whose commander is a great free human being, a canonist, a devout ascetic, a self-sacrificing illuminate and on the whole a real worshiper of God. Only you enjoy such a commander.

Mr Khamene'i said that the successes enjoyed today by the combatants of Islam both on the battlefields and in the political arenas have been extremely remarkable. During their military battles our combatants have proved that they have the power to transmit the message of the Islamic revolution and the might to cut short the traitorous hands raised against the Islamic revolution.

He said that what has brought us victory is the path of the Koran and Islam and faith in the great God. Mr Khamene'i emphasized that it has never been the policy of the Islamic Republic of Iran to quarrel with those who have no intention of waging war against us and you know full well that so long as the Baghdad regime did not commit aggression against our revolution and our Islamic homeland we left it well alone. He added that those who have not refrained from giving military, financial and political assistance to our aggressive enemy since the beginning of the war should know we feel they are in confrontation against us.

Referring to the excessive and immeasurable assistance given by Egypt and Jordan to Iraq, he said that certain countries have given and are giving military assistance to the Baghdad regime and we hereby tell them that, if they are powerless to defend right, it is in their interest to choose neutrality, for otherwise how could one possibly consider those countries as other than waging war against us?

The president said that we will never show any generous disposition toward those who are at war with us. Likewise, we deem it essential to have friendship and peaceful coexistence with those who are not at war with us.

RAFSANJANI REPORTS ON MEETING WITH KHOMEYNI

LD282326 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 2030 GMT 28 Jul 82

[Interview granted by Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani on 28 July -- recorded]

[Text] Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani, Majlis speaker and the imam's representative on the Supreme Defense Council, was today received by Imam Khomeyni, leader of the revolution and founder of the Islamic Republic of Iran. He presented a report concerning the situation of the war, Middle East issues and the recent aggression of the regime occupying Jerusalem against Lebanon, as well as economic issues and Majlis activities.

After the meeting Mr Hashemi-Rafsanjani took part in an interview with our reporter, talking about the Islamic Republic of Iran's policy concerning the continuation of the war and the issue of Algeria's mediation for achieving peace, to which we draw your attention:

[Question] Today you were received by the imam of the Islamic nation. Could you please tell us about the issues which were discussed in his presence?

[Answer] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. I came here in order to visit him. I have not been received by him for some time, because of Ramadan. I also raised a few issues, consulted with him and asked for his views. I asked him about the war and we talked about the issues of the Middle East, especially in connection with the Israeli aggression against Iran and the situation which has arisen recently [as heard]. I asked him a number of questions and enquired about his views.

We also discussed various issues about the Majlis and the country's general affairs and about economic issues and so on. I asked for his views and he made some comments.

[Question] What are your views concerning Algeria's proposal for mediation?

[Answer] Basically, to interpret the Algerian effort as mediation is incorrect, which has been made [passage indistinct]. The prime minister clearly stated that (?we did not wish to have any mediators) [words indistinct]. Our conditions were also clear from the start: the unconditional withdrawal of the aggressor, the payment of reparations, the trial of the aggressor [passage indistinct].

[question indistinct]

[Answer] We have a program and we are following it exactly. Our policy has always been to provide some time and to warn. We gave the Iraqis some time and we gave them a warning. [passage indistinct] Now we have entered [Iraq], so they know it is a serious issue.

We have given them some time so they may pay attention. If they do pay attention, this is good, because for every step we advance both we and the Iraqis will suffer damages and we do not wish this. However, if they do not pay attention we will certainly take the next step and later steps.

(?We will get our rights to the full) [words indistinct]. If they satisfy all our conditions we will return. If we feel we will gain our rights in Baghdad, we will go and get them in Baghdad. We should receive our rights. We cannot forego our rights; even if we wish to forego these rights our nation will not do so. The longer Saddam waits to give us our rights, the longer the list of his debts will become.

[Communique No 996 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. We hereby inform the dear compatriots about developments in the imposed war during the past 24 hours:

Yesterday the exchange of fire between our powerful forces and the enemy on the western fronts of the country continued, with the fighters of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran enjoying fire superiority.

In Meymak, where the enemy attempts and the fire of the fighters of Islam were most intense, heavier losses and casualties were inflicted upon the aggressive mercenaries of the Ba'thist regime of Iraq.

On the Marivan front, as a result of the artillery fire of the ground forces upon the positions of Saddam's forces in the Panjwin region, losses and casualties were inflicted upon the mercenaries of the Iraqi Ba'thists and some of their positions and fortifications were destroyed as the result of the fire of our powerful fighters.

During the exchange of fire on the Abadan fronts, our self-sacrificing forces opened fire on the positions and units of the forces of Saddam, destroying a number of enemy heavy ammunition dumps and killing about 10 of the blasphemous forces of Saddam. The heroic forces of the gendarmerie succeeded in silencing the fire of the Iraqi mercenaries, killing or wounding a number of them, as well as stopping their movements.

On 27 July a number of encroaching aircraft of the aggressive forces of Saddam appeared in the airspace over a number of southern and western border towns of our country, but they were confronted by tactical operations and by the antiaircraft fire of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran and were forced to flee.

Yesterday some parts of the town of Abadan came under the long-range artillery fire of the forces of Saddam. A number of houses were destroyed and some casualties were inflicted.

Fighting in Abadan, Saybah

LD282010 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 28 Jul 82

[Text] According to IRNA and the Central News Unit, the Ba'thist criminals again opened heavy-weapon fire on Abadan today and inflicted some loss and damage. This report indicates that in the savage attack 3 self-sacrificing residents of Abadan were martyred and 24 others were wounded. Two houses were set on fire and two other residential units were damaged.

According to IRNA the self-sacrificing guards of the Islamic Revolution Committee of Abadan and its suburbs fired on enemy positions in the region of Saybah, inside Iraqi territory, today. One large ammunition depot, 2 AA guns, 1 observation post, 1 82-mm mortar, 1 75-calibre machinegun and part of a communication channel of the Saddamists were destroyed and 31 of them were killed or wounded.

According to the same report, navy units stationed on the banks of the Shatt al-'Arab destroyed several enemy trenches and foxholes and observation posts. During the same period, at least 10 misled Saddamists were either killed or wounded.

[Text] Dear listeners: Please pay attention to the news received just now. According to an IRNA report, quoting the Karbala' central headquarters, the joint operations center of the armed forces and Revolution Guards Corps, the strong Islamic army, in the early hours of their offensive last night, succeeded in crossing the strong enemy defense lines, under heavy enemy artillery shelling, into an important, strategic enemy position. The brave Islamic army was able to break the enemy's strongholds and penetrate deeply into its fortification.

Until 2245, the enemy was desperately trying to surround the Islamic warriors by moving the position of its tanks and armored vehicles but, faced with our brave warriors' resistance and covered by our heavy-artillery shells, he was forced into defeat with heavy casualties. Meanwhile, according to reports received by 0200, all the enemy's defensive lines along 11 km on the operational western zone of the border inside Iraqi territory were crashed and the enemy's artillery was forced to withdraw by the penetration of our advanced troops.

[Joint Communique No 10 of the Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful. In the name of God, the crusher of tyrants. You continue the battle with them until all sedition has been wiped out and God's religion is established everywhere for God's sake. [Koranic verse]

Once again the mighty hand of God has emerged from the sleeves of the powerful combatants of Islam to deliver crushing, blasphemy-smashing blows to international arrogance, with the help and support from God. Last night the martyr-nurturing Islamic nation, the blasphemy-smashing army of God, these lovers of God's embrace and followers of Ruhollah [Khomeyni], continuing their victorious Ramadan Operation to vindicate the rights of the Iranian Muslim nation and continue to purge the enmey and advance in Iraqi territory, waged an onslaught on the trenches of the aggressive infidel Saddamists and, seeking God's assistance and His boundless blessing, smashed the fortifications of the Saddamists, who are associated with international arrogance.

In the course of these operations, codenamed "O lord of the ages, save me," which started at 2100 from the north and northwest of [name indistinct] border post, the Islamic warriors, with "God is great" on their lips, these lovers of Hoseyn's Karbala', with divine will and inspired by the rule of authority [velayat-e amr] to defend the Islamic revolution, delivered destructive blows to the defeated enemy.

The vile Ba'thist-Zionist lackeys, who have committed their 22-month-old crimes relying on assistance from international imperialism and satanical dreams of destroying the Islamic revolution, have now resorted to creating defensive (?might) like that deployed by Israel in the occupied territories. Islam's combatants have succeeded in destroying and purging the enemy by clearing and crossing most-extensive minefields and canals, as well as a lot of barbed wire.

At the moment this clash, aimed at the utter destruction of the enemy and the occupation of triangular fortifications, is continuing on the battlefield and Islam's combatants have absolute superiority.

So far many enemy tanks and personnel carriers have been destroyed by Islam's combatants. On one of the operational axes in the early hours of the battle alone, 25 Saddamist tanks and personnel carriers were set ablaze and destroyed. In addition, a large number of enemy troops have been killed, wounded or taken prisoner. Details of the victory of Islam's combatants will be made available to the revolutionary and martyr-nurturing nation.

Your prayers, ever-vigilant community, to the great God pleading for His assistance for the combatants of Islam will help the army of Islam to secure further victories on the battlefields, in hopes of Islam's final triumph over blasphemy and the liberation of Jerusalem from the claws of occupationist Zionism.

[Signed] The Central Headquarters of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Iraqi Divisions Retreat

LD290820 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 0710 GMT 29 Jul 82

[Unscheduled announcement]

[Text] Dear listeners: According to an IRNA report dispatched from the Karbala' central headquarters, the center for joint operations of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps and the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, which was received a few moments ago, the powerful combatants of Islam -- in continuation of their victorious operations to regain the rights of the Muslim community in defense of the bloody Islamic revolution -- early this morning in a series of coordinated operations cleared tens of kilometers of enemy positions from two eastern and southern wings. The combatants of Islam crossed the enemy defense lines and besieged them in their strongest Israelite [as heard] fortresses and began destroying their armored equipment, which included more than 41 tanks and personnel carriers.

According to some informed military authorities, the Iraqi Ba'thist regime cannot be using triangular fortresses unless they have Israeli advisers present in the Iraqi Armed Forces. Together with the Egyptian forces, there has probably been this military cooperation to help Saddam.

This report also indicates that by 0600 this morning the forces of Islam -- by cleansing the area and destroying the forces positioned on the enemy's defense lines -- rapidly began building defense earthworks inside the enemy defense lines and continued to defend their new positions.

According to the same report, by 0100 this morning the remnants of the Iraqi 5th Division and the Iraqi 9th Division suffered very heavy losses and damages and were forced to retreat.

Tens of misled Iraqi troops, captured by the zealous warriors of Islam, have been captured behind the battlelines so far. We are assisted by God and our victory is near.

Iraqi Forces in Iran

[Text] According to IRNA, following the disgraceful escape of the defeated army of Saddam, our forces are continuing mopping-up operations, discovering minefields and consolidating their positions in some border regions of our country. So far, the self-sacrificing forces of Islam have discovered and defused more than 65,000 antipersonnel and antitank mines in the Musian region.

This report also indicates that, before fleeing, the Saddamists planted mines even in the agricultural areas of Musian, (Petak), Darreh-ye Vireh and the Marzabad institute. According to the report, despite the false and baseless claims of the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist regime on their withdrawal from Iranian border regions, the enemy forces are still stationed on strategic heights and at the (Babi), (Rabi), (Tangizeh), (Samireh), (Hadi) and (Bayat) border posts. The enemy has planted mines and dug canals around its positions in those regions and continues daily to open heavy-weapon fire from these places on the devastated city of Musian.

The same report indicates that there are 18 oil wells in the region of Musian, 14 of which are under the occupation of the enemy forces in the (Bayat) and (Samireh) areas.

Reconstruction work in Dasht-e 'Abbas and Musian continues by the self-sacrificing members of the reconstruction crusade and the district office of Musian. Emamzadeh 'Abbas will soon be rebuilt and water will be reconnected to Musian.

KESHTMAND SPEECH AT 2 AUG GOVERNMENT SESSION

LD032148 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Speech by Soltan 'Ali Keshtmand, member of the PDPA Central Committee Politburo and chairman of the DRA Council of Ministers, at 2 August Council of Ministers session in Kabul -- recorded]

[Summary] Esteemed comrades: The Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum comprehensively discussed the important duty of our party under the present conditions of our society to strengthen political work among the people's masses. The report presented by Babrak Karmal to the plenum is of great importance and it adopted specific guidelines as an important plenum document for the organizations and party and government authorities and for all members of the party, social organizations and state officials. The DRA Government led by the PDPA, will be guided by the topics set out at the plenum and its resolution concerning its duties. The question of attracting the masses and support for the party in power depends mostly on the daily work of the government organs.

"The government is obligated to be consistently at the service of the people and to deal with the masses legally, lawfully and democratically and to demonstrate this in its daily activity. The observance of revolutionary legality by the state organs, including the state information services, sarandoy, the prosecutor's offices and various departments and institutions of the government who are permanently in contact with the masses, helps to further gain the confidence and trust of the people's masses in the party, the government and the revolution. Of course, maintaining revolutionary decisiveness promptly and when necessary is not only not contrary to revolutionary legality, it is implied by it."

The DRA Government makes every effort to consolidate all its efforts within the framework of democratic legality. All laws, decrees, regulations and important legal bills to date have been based on the DRA Basic Principles. In today's Council of Ministers session, too, we will discuss a number of such regulations in accordance with the requirements of work and the needs of society and the times. They will be submitted to the Revolutionary Council Presidium for final approval. Consolidation of the sovereignty and state and people's power in the regions and meeting the daily demands of the people are the principal tasks among the people's masses. Satisfying the urgent needs of the people and working to maintain their welfare will help the people to realize the benefits of the revolution and to rally around it further. Therefore, the DRA Council of Ministers is making efforts to resolve the country's major economic issues and to raise the level of agricultural and industrial production.

In addition to exploiting our own potential and resources, the economic aid of the socialist countries, in particular the Soviet Union, has an important rolein improving the living conditions of our people. The all-round aid of the USSR is a reliable foundation for the future socioeconomic prosperity of our country. The government pays serious attention to the planned socioeconomic development of the country. Thus, at today's session of the Council of Ministers the implementation of the government plan and budget during the first quarter of the year will be discussed. In the course of implementing the land and water reform in the country we should do political work among the peasants and expose the subversive activities of the counterrevolutionaries who are directly opposed to the interests of the peasants, and involve the efforts of the people in solving complicated social problems. It is the permanent duty of the DRA Government to satisfy the people's basic needs and to help them further organize their daily lives. This is the way to gain the confidence of the masses.

"Large amounts of goods-in-grant have been distributed to the needy in various parts of the country. They include large-scale aid from the Soviet Union, which has donated goods worth 100 million rubles to the DRA, much of which have been freely distributed to the needy. And we recall that with gratitude."

GANDHI MAKES STATEMENT ON TARAPUR FUEL

BK110907 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 11 Aug 82

[Text] The prime minister has made it clear that there is no question of any additional conditions being attached to getting nuclear fuel for the Tarapur atomic plant from France. Mrs Gandhi told the Lok Sabha today that according to an understanding reached between India and the United States during her recent visit to Washington, France will supply the fuel in place of United States within the framework of the 1963 cooperation agreement. Necessary modalities for the supply are being worked out.

About reprocessing the spent fuel in the country, the prime minister said that the United States may have some reservations about it but it does not make any difference to us. She asserted that no right has been surrendered and we shall go ahead with reprocessing as and when necessary. She categorically stated that the technological breakthrough achieved by Indian scientists in evolving an indigenous fuel has not gone waste. She said it would be wrong to say that our scientists are demoralized. Mrs Gandhi said that the talks on nuclear fuel were held at the official level and she did not discuss the subject with the French or American leaders.

In reply to another question, the prime minister informed the house that the country will become self-sufficient in heavy water by the end of this decade. She said several experiments are in progress regarding peaceful uses of atomic energy. Mrs Gandhi reiterated India's commitment to use atomic energy only for peaceful purposes.

The Iranian Majlis speaker added that he and his peers had enacted the methods of struggle against colonialism as introduced in the letters of the late Jawaharlal Nehru, Mrs Gandhi's father. Rafsanjani also praised the Indian people's fight for independence led by the late Mahatma Gandhi. Mrs Gandhi welcomed Hojjat ol-Eslam Rafsanjani and said that she was honored to receive him as a dear guest of the Indian Government.

ARMY STRENGTH GROWS; SOVIETS IN KABUL ATTACKED

BK171614 Hong Kong AFP in English 1414 GMT 17 Aug 82

[By Dilip Ganguly]

[Text] New Delhi, Aug. 17 (AFP) -- The strength of the Afghan Armed Forces has dramatically increased fron an estimated 30,000 to 45,000 during the last fortnight, following a government conscription drive backed by last month's announcement of the country's toughest ever draft laws.

Under the new drive, according to Western diplomats, Afghan Army patrols were active along Kabul roads rounding up prospective conscripts. Many shops are closed as their owners, fearing conscription, have either fled to the countryside or joined the ranks of the insurgents.

And with the tough new draft law making military service compulsory for all men up to age 35 and increasing the conscription period from two to three years, many government officials are failing to report to work, they said.

The law came into force on August 2 and Western diplomats, quoting unidentified informed sources in Kabul, said the drive which began on July 25 was still continuing.

Asian diplomats differed with estimates of their Western counterparts. They said the army's strength had increased by 20,000, but that the figure included recalled former soldiers. They also said that even before the conscription drive, Afghan armed strength had never fallen below 45,000.

They put the strength of the Afghan Armed Forces at 65,000 some 45,000 fewer than before the first Marxist coup in April 1978.

There was no official confirmation of the diplomatic estimates in the state-controlled Afghan news media, and the Afghan Embassy here also refused to comment on the diplomatic reports.

However, the Kabul NEW TIMES newspaper said last week that in one province alone, over 4,500 persons registered for army service during the last four months.

Western diplomats put the defection rate in the Afghan Armed Forces as high as 30 per cent and Moslem insurgents fighting the Kabul regime have often claimed that thousands of Afghan soldiers had joined their ranks with arms and ammunition -- claims which have never been confirmed by the Afghan official media.

Meanwhile, there has been an increase in reports of incidents in Kabul. Residents witnessed an explosion in the Share-naw district of the city on August 10 which blew up a Soviet personnel truck parked there, although there were no casualties.

Diplomates said on August 11-12 unusually heavy firing was heard from the district where the well fortified Soviet Embassy is situated. Moslem rebels had apparently attacked the embassy, the sources said, but were repulsed by government troops.

In another incident on the outskirts of Kabul, insurgents killed or captured an unspecified number of Soviet soldiers when their jeep was ambushed, the diplomats said, adding that the attack took place in the Deh Sabz area near the Kabul international airport.

There was no independent confirmation of the reports.

The diplomats gave sketchy reports on the military situation in Paghman near Kabul and Panjsher, the strategic valley about 100 kms (60 miles) north of the Afghan capital. Government troops were still holding on in Paghman, a former Afghan royal resort about 20 kms (12 miles) north-west of Kabul. The place was the scene of fierce fighting last month.

In Panjsher, Soviet-aided government troops were holding the valley and there was no report of any fresh clashes, the diplomats said.

KARMAL, KESHTMAND REPLY TO BREZHNEV, TIKHONOV

LD181802 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 18 Aug 82

[Text] The following reply telegram from Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and president of the DRA Revolutionary Council, and Soltan Ali Keshtmand, DRA chairman of the Council of Ministers, addressed to L.I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the CPSU Central Committee and president of the USSR Supreme Soviet, and Nikolay A. Tikhonov, chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, has been communicated to Moscow.

Comrade L.I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the CPSU Central Committee and president of the USSR Supreme Soviet; Comrade N.A. Tikhonov, chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers: On behalf of the people of Afghanistan, the PDPA Central Committee, the DRA Revolutionary Council and Council of Ministers and also on our own behalf we express our deep and hearty thanks for your warm fraternal greetings on the 63d anniversary of Afghanistan's independence.

More than 60 years ago the freedom-loving people of Afghanistan in their heroic struggle against foreign colonialists defended the independence of their beloved country. The people of Afghanistan well remember that the Soviet state in those years under the leadership of V.I. Lenin, officially recognized independent and sovereign Afghanistan before any other state. Since then Afghanistan's relations with the country of the Soviets, which are based on the principles of friendship, good-neighborliness, respect for national sovereignty, territorial integrity, and reciprocal and fruitful cooperation with equal rights have been developed in the interests of the people of both countries.

Since the victory of the April Revolution in Afghanistan, relations between our countries have risen to new higher qualitative levels. The Soviet Union is loyal to its internationalist duty. It has extended and is extending selfless fraternal aid to the people of Afghanistan to safeguard the gains of the revolution against the intrigues of the enemies of our free, independent and progressive country. The Soviet Union's aid to the people of Afghanistan in building a new and just society, which has been taking place under the leadership of the PDPA, is great and valuable. The unbreakable friendship and fraternal cooperation with the Soviet Union give inspiration for new victories in the interest of our noble and proud people and in the interest of peace in the region and throughout the world.

On behalf of the people of Afghanistan, the PDPA Central Committee, the DRA Government and Revolutionary Council and also on behalf of ourselves we wish prosperity to the CPSU Central Committee, the USSR Supreme Soviet and the Soviet Government and personally to you dear comrades, L.I. Brezhnev and N.A. Tikhonov.

[Signed] Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and president of the DRA Revolutionary Council; Soltan Ali Keshtmand, chairman of the DRA Council of Ministers

GUERRILLAS TARGET SOVIET INSTALLATIONS

BK181726 Hong Kong AFP in English 1711 GMT 18 Aug 82

[By Sami Zubeiri]

[Text] Islamabad, Aug. 18 (AFP) -- Moslem guerrillas, in what was seen here as changed strategy, have selected Soviet installations in Afghanistan as targets, reports from Kabul said.

According to Afghan sources here, the last week's "unusually heavy firing" around the well-guarded Soviet Embassy building as reported by Western diplomats in Kabul was "carefully planned attack" which followed raids on Soviet diplomatic quarters in the Afghan capital.

KARMAL SPEECH ON 63D INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY

LD190846 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0418 GMT 19 Aug 82

[Text] Kabul, Aug 18 BAKHTAR -- Following is the text of radio telecast speech of Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the Central Committee of the PDPA and president of the Revolutionary Council of the DRA, delivered on the eve of the sixty-third anniversary of the regaining of the independence of Afghanistan.

Dear compatriots, sisters and brothers: Permit me, first of all, to extend to you, patriots of Afghanistan, the best greetings and wishes of the Central Committee of the PDPA, the Revolutionary Council and the Government of the DRA and myself on the occasion of the sixty-third anniversary of the regaining of the independence of Afghanistan from the claws of the bloody British imperialism. With pride and glory in grandiose history, a history full of the heroic deeds of the working people of Afghanistan, and praising the unparalleled valour of national and patriotic forces of this land who branded with shame the greatest colonialist and imperialist force of the world, I am offering my profound homage to the sacred memory of all the martyrs of the path of freedom of Afghanistan.

Compatriots, sisters and brothers: The epic of the liberatory uprising of the people of Afghanistan, which is considered as one of the most significant and unique events of its times in Asia and in its heart, and resulted in the restoration of the political independence of Afghanistan and caused the greatest colonial empire of the world, which enjoyed an incomparable superiority in respect of the armed forces, to yield will remain forever in the memory of all the patriotic people of Afghanistan and will be the source of constant pride of our people.

The victory of the people of Afghanistan in an unequal war with the British imperialism which had recently come out victorious in the imperialist war of plunder was won as a result of the national and international favourable factors, the united and broad uprising of the heroic and epic-making people of Afghanistan including Pushtuns, Tajiks, Hazaras, Baluchis, Uzbeks, Turkmen, Nuristanis and others, which was carried out in a national front with ample sacrifices, culminated in ignominious defeat for British aggressors and put an end to their domination.

It should be stressed once again that the secret of the victory of our people against the greatest colonialist power of the time lay in the unity and integrity of the ranks of the combatants of the path of freedom of the country and the unity by all the people for the cause of achieving this great and national objective.

It should be pointed out that the victory of the Great October Revolution left a great practical and moral impression on the liberation movement of our people. The defeat of British interventionists in trans-Caspian and their expulsion from the Middle East by the Soviet Red Army and the firm support of the young Soviet republic to the right of independence and sovereignty of the people of Afghanistan was a reliable bulwark for the people of Afghanistan in their struggle against the imperialist forces and ensured favourable conditions in the international context. The young Soviet state right from the time of its creation under the leadership of the great friend of the people of Afghanistan and the working people of the world, V.I. Lenin, extended a powerful hand of friendship and assistance to the freeborn people of Afghanistan which is a decisive factor in the preservation of the sovereignty, national independence and territorial integrity of the country against the diverse plots and conspiracies of imperialism.

POLICE ATTACK JOURNALISTS PROTESTING PRESS BILL

BK211605 Delhi Domestic Service in English 1530 GMT 21 Aug 82

[Text] In Patna, 182 journalists were arrested today when a procession was prevented from entering the prohibited area on its way to Raj Bhawan [governor's residence]. According to a police spokesman, nine journalists were injured when policemen tried to stop them near Beni Road crossing. Two magistrates and five policemen also sustained minor injuries.

The procession was taken out this afternoon to protest against the Bihar press bill in response to the call by the journalist action committee. A spokesman of the committee alleged that the journalists were lathi [baton] charged when they wanted to go to Raj Bhawan to hand over a memorandum to the governor against the Bihar press bill.

Meanwhile, nine editors of the Urdu dailies and weeklies had supported the Bihar press bill.

Meanwhile, 11 Bihar legislators have also criticized the alleged incident. All the arrested journalists were later released in the night. Nine editors of Urdu dailies and weeklies have supported the Bihar press bill. In a joint statement, they expressed concern over the growing tendencies of yellow journalism and alleged that some opposition parties are using it to tarnish the image of the government.

Replying to questions, he said India is prepared to host the summit and some preliminary thinking has already been done in the matter. SANJAY GANDHI'S WIDOW TO FORM NEW POLITICAL PARTY

BK251155 Hong Kong AFP in English 1138 GMT 25 Aug 82

[Text] New Delhi, Aug 25 (AFP) -- Maneka Gandhi, widow of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's younger son Sanjay, today announced that her "Sanjay Vichar Manch" (Forum of Sanjay's Thoughts) group was shortly to be converted into a formal rival political party to the ruling Congress.

She also announced at a press conference here that two members of parliament belonging to the prime minister's party had decided to support her 4-month-old forum and sit as independents in the national legislature.

But neither of the MP's -- Kalpanath Sonkar and Ramnarayan Tripathi, both from Mrs Gandhi's home state of Uttar Pradesh -- were available for comment when contacted at home by phone.

The forum came into being shortly after Maneka abruptly quit her mother-in-law's official residence in March after a row with Mrs Gandhi.

The two were reported to have had a sharp exchange over Maneka's attendance at a public function organised by a youth faction supporting her late husband despite a strict directive by the ruling party high command, headed by Mrs Gandhi, against the rally.

Mrs Gandhi is the chairman of her party. Maneka, 25, has since been slowly but steadily working to build herself up into a political rival of her mother-in-law.

MUJAHIDIN AMBUSH SOVIET CONVOYS, DESTROY 3 TANKS

GF242010 Karachi JASARAT in Urdu 22 Aug 82 p 8

[Text] London, 21 Aug (AAP) -- Afghan freedom fighters have destroyed three Soviet tanks and five fuel tankers and captured one Soviet soldier armed with a Kalashnikov. The "Ettehad-e Eslami" mujahidin, tipped off by their collaborators in the Afghan Army that a military convoy would be moving along the Qandahar-Herat road, laid mines on the road near Pashmul and waited for the promised convoy. When the convoy passed over the mined road, the explosions destroyed two tanks. The mujahidin hiding along the road fired rockets at the convoy and, after a heated exchange of fire, captured one Soviet soldier armed with a Kalashnikov. Later, the mujahidin returned to their mountain hideouts.

On the same day, the mujahidin waylaid another Soviet convoy of fuel tankers traveling from Herat to Qandahar. The convoy hit the mined road near (Sang Sahar) and one Soviet tank was destroyed. The rockets fired by the mujahidin ignited five fuel tankers. Late at night, when the mujahidin returned to inspect the damage, they found the destroyed tank and five burned-out fuel tankers. The guerrillas removed one machinegun and two Kalashnikovs from the tank. The mujahidin suffered no casualties in either attack.

Later, when the Soviets were towing their destroyed tank toward Herat on the way to the Soviet border, the salvage party captured 50 sheep belonging to a shepherd near Towraghondi, butchered them and carried away the meat. The shepherd, who later complained to the local Karmal administration for redress, was harshly told that if he persisted in his demand, he would be thrown into prison for sympathizing with the mujahidin guerrillas. The shepherd returned without redress.

2 AUGUST 1982

Lebanon

Military Situation -- After heavy fighting over the weekend broke cease-fire agreements, a new cease-fire agreement was reached in the afternoon of 1 August. Beirut radio reported that the latest cease-fire is still holding.

According to IDF radio on 30 July, the IDF spokesman announced that repeated cease-fire violations by the "terrorists" caused the IDF to react and to no longer feel obligated to observe a cease-fire. Beirut radio reported that Israel launched air, sea and ground attacks on Beirut and the southern suburbs. Voice of Lebanon radio said the IDF hit Beirut airport, the Kuwaiti and Soviet Embassy areas and Palestinian camps. A new cease-fire agreement was signed that evening after over 20 people were killed and 50 were wounded in the fighting on 30 July, Beirut radio reported. Two Israeli soldiers were injured and the "terrorists" continued fighting after the cease-fire agreement, Jerusalem radio claimed. The cease-fire held through the next day, although Voice of Lebanon noted that shelling and clashes with the Israelis took place in several areas of Beirut. Beirut radio said the Israelis blocked food, supplies, water and power to west and south Beirut; people were getting sick from contaminated water and disease was spreading. IDF radio reported one Israeli soldier was killed when a vehicle was hit in the eastern sector.

Early on 1 August, the IDF spokesman announced that "recurrent" violations of the cease-fire agreement again caused the Israeli forces to hit positions in Beirut, Jerusalem radio reported. Beirut radio emphasized that this all-out Israeli ground, sea and air attack continued until the afternoon and that Beirut experienced the "worst human situation." The radio said all parts of the southern suburbs were hit and a violent tank battle took place around the airport. The Israeli chief of staff later announced that the IDF controlled the airport, its forces were stationed on the outskirts of Palestinian camps and nine Israeli soldiers were wounded in the operation, Jerusalem radio reported. The PLO deputy commander in chief admitted that the airport had been captured, but that this was the only Israeli advance, Monte Carlo radio reported. The Voice of Lebanon said east Beirut was subject to "indiscriminate" shellfire and clashes occurred at the museum axis. Unconfirmed reports cited by the Voice of Lebanon claimed that Israeli naval forces landed in the Summerland Hotel area, but Beirut radio sources said the attack failed.

A cease-fire agreement reached in the afternoon ended the fighting which had left no part of west or south Beirut undamaged, Voice of Lebanon reported. Beirut radio said the city was calm. The clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed the Israelis lost 1 plane, 14 tanks, and 30 soldiers killed or wounded; Beirut radio said the fighting caused 165 dead and 400 wounded. A Syrian military spokesman cited by Damascus radio said the 1 August fighting resulted in 2 Syrians killed, 14 wounded and 2 tanks destroyed.

According to Jerusalem radio, "tense quiet" prevailed in Beirut on 2 August with occasional violations of the cease-fire. The IDF spokesman, cited by the radio, said three Israelis died in the 1 August fighting.

Israeli Position -- Noting Israel's rejection of the UN Security Council resolution calling for the stationing of UN observers in Beirut, MA'ARIV reported that in his 2 August meeting with U.S. Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Morris Draper, Prime Minister Menahem Begin will stress that the political process is coming to an end and that if the PLO does not leave Lebanon, Israel will remove it. Israel will only agree to a further period of "political time" if a specific timetable and method for the evacuation of the "terrorists" is submitted to it, MA'ARIV said. Israel's decision to strike at the "terrorists" with "unprecedented force" on 1 August was intended to break the PLO, the paper said. Earlier, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon said the IDF could have entered west Beirut immediately after capturing Beirut airport but refrained from doing so because of Israel's desire to maintain moral values, ITIM reported. According to Jerusalem radio, Sharon told the Cabinet that the takeover of the airport was a local action. If and when a decision is made to enter west Beirut, the radio noted, it will be made by the Cabinet plenum and not in a limited-scale consultation.

On 30 July, Israel warned Syria that if it uses SAM's stationed in its territory near the Lebanese border, the IDF will destroy them, Jerusalem radio reported.

'Arafat Statements -- In a 1 August appeal for Arab and Muslim leaders to shoulder their responsibility to stop the Israeli "massacre" of Lebanese and Palestinians in west Beirut, PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat stressed that Israel's latest "mad aggressive military escalation" took place despite the positive results achieved by the Arab foreign ministers' committee. In his message, which was broadcast by the Voice of Palestine, 'Arafat spoke of an "Israeli-U.S. decision to frustrate any chances of reaching a solution" to protect Beirut. The radio subsequently noted that 'Arafat expressed the PLO's willingness to cooperate with UN observers. Earlier, the PLO leader said in a message to his fighters reported by the radio that while the PLO has shown political moderation in response to the request of the Lebanese, it has accompanied this by firm preparations and determination to defend Beirut. Nevertheless, 'Arafat has rejected demands from "intransigent" Arab states that the PLO hold fast in west Beirut and drag the Israeli forces into a street war, Beirut radio reported on 31 July citing Palestinian sources.

At a PLO command meeting late on 30 July, 'Arafat instructed Palestinian military commanders to intensify and reinforce Beirut's defenses, the Voice of Palestine reported. The radio also said 'Arafat told a Tunisian newspaper that at the appropriate time he will disclose which Arab countries said "yes" to the Israeli invasion.

Al-Wazzan Appeal -- In a 1 August appeal to the United Nations broadcast by Beirut radio, Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan said that at dawn that day, "as we were preparing ourselves to complete the arrangements for the implementation of the Jidda statement about the departure of the armed persons from the city of west Beirut, we were surprised by violent and bestial bombardment from the air, sea and ground." Al-Wazzan called for UN action to rescue Lebanon.

Saudi Warning, Jordanian Position -- In a 1 August meeting with the U.S. ambassador to Saudi Arabia, Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Sa'ud al-Faysal conveyed a strongly-worded protest against the Israeli attack on Beirut and warned that Saudi Arabia may adopt measures detrimental to U.S. interests in the Middle East and to U.S.-Saudi relations, Monte Carlo radio reported. Meanwhile, the Amman paper AR-RA'Y reported that Jordan will never close its doors to any citizen who carries a Jordanian passport and wishes to return home, whether this citizen is now in Lebanon or elsewhere. In a related report, Monte Carlo radio said the U.S. congressional delegation which arrived in Amman over the weekend indicated that Jordan would receive between 800 and 2,000 PLO fighters.

Al-Asad Message, Libyan Presence -- Syria's decision continues to be to fight "in defense of Arab land, honor and integrity whenever necessary," Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad affirmed in an armed forces anniversary message broadcast by Damascus radio. The Israeli paper HA'ARETZ reported that a Libyan force has reinforced Syrian Army positions in Lebanon.

Iran-Iraq War

Military Situation -- An Iraqi military commander cited by INA said Iraqi forces crushed the latest Iranian offensive near Basra and killed over 2,000 Iranians. Iraqi Armed Forces communiques carried by Baghdad radio and INA claimed that over 200 Iranians died in fighting east of Basra on 31 July and 1 August and that Iranian artillery hit Basra residential and commercial areas. An Iranian military communique carried by Tehran radio said Iranian forces defended their newly acquired positions on the Ramadan Operation Front. The commander of the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps claimed 1 million fighters have received military training and 90,000 Iraqis have died since the outbreak of the war, IRNA reported. An Iraqi military spokesman cited by Baghdad radio said the Iranians lost over 27,000 men, 297 tanks and 5 planes in fighting from 13 to 30 July.

Iran's War Aims -- According to Tehran radio, Majlis Speaker 'Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani said in his Friday sermon that Iran entered Iraqi territory to end the war. He said that after the war, Iran aims to receive reparations from whoever wishes to pay them, and also aims to "liberate" Iraq and its people. In a JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI interview reported by IRNA, he said war reparations could be paid in installments.

Islamic Peace Effort -- Secretary General of the Islamic Conference Organization Habib Chatti announced that the Islamic Good Offices Committee will meet soon to mediate in the Iran-Iraq war, KUNA reported.

Iran

In operations against the Kurdish Democratic Party near Sar Dasht, 100 "counterrevolutionaries" were killed, IRNA reported. In other operations, Iranian guards uncovered 20 Mojahedin-e Khalq hideouts and killed or captured more than 65 members, Tehran radio claimed.

Iraq

Ramadan on U.S., USSR -- In an interview with a Baghdad English-language paper cited by INA, First Deputy Prime Minister Taha Yasin Ramadan said Iraq continues to regard the USSR as a friend and relations with it had "progressed," while Iraq considers the United States to be "dishonorable and hostile" to Iraq because it is biased toward Israel and has found ways to arm Iran.

Explosion Near Ministry -- An Interior Ministry spokesman cited by Voice of the Masses radio said a car bomb exploded near the Planning Ministry, killing citizens and ministry employees.

Egypt

The supreme state security prosecution has begun to investigate the 11-member secret organization called "The Hashemite Band," which aims at opposing the basic principles on which the state is built, MENA reported.

PDPA CENTRAL COMMITTEE PLENUM STATEMENT

LD010926 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Excerpts] Dear listeners of Radio Afghanistan: As you know the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum concerning ideological matters and the strengthening of political work among the masses was held on Tuesday morning, 27 July, in the headquarters of the Revolutionary Council. Esteemed Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the DRA Revolutionary Council, read the basic statement of the Ninth PDPA Plenum about ideological matters and strengthening political work among the masses, part of which was broadcast last night; here we draw your attention to the remaining part:

[Read by announcer] Comrades, we now consider specific phases of work among the masses. [passage indistinct]

Political work among the masses must be more concentrated on describing the nature and objective of PDPA policy, propagation and popularization of our gains, and the need for strengthening the struggle against the counterrevolutionaries [words indistinct].

We are not hiding the [words indistinct] from the masses [words indistinct]. In promoting political work among the masses we should know whom we are dealing with, their characteristics, their class psychology and spirit. The success of the work depends to a large degree on which forms, methods and issues are selected for promoting political work among the masses. It must be learned how the most acceptable methods and forms to deal with the various social groups -- consisting of peasants, workers, guildsmen, tradesmen and so on -- can be found [words indistinct].

One of the most important objectives of political work among the peasants should be to assist them in perceiving their fundamental interests in the revolution, in knowing the objectives of land and water reform and to attact peasants for active participation in this union [words indistinct]. This task requires the formidable organizational and political activities of provincial party committees and local organs of the state power and administration. Regrettably, some of the secretaries of the provincial party committees and governors have not yet deeply analyzed (?the degree of maximum use) [words indistinct].

As is known some of our comrades have not yet sufficiently (?emphasized) the formidable political and social importance [words indistinct] of land and water reform in attracting the peasants in the direction of the revolution and suppporting the policy of the party and the national government. The realization of this issue is also essential from the point of view that as a result of counterrevolutionary activities, land reform in some parts of the country is being slowed down or [word indistinct] stopped. In some provinces a large number of peasant families, under the influence of intimidation, terror and fabrications by counterrevolutionaries (?have been separated) from the land they received after the revolution [words indistinct]. The implementation of land and water reform must be broadened relentlessly and constantly, and this work must be organized in such a manner that the peasant becomes aware and knows that the party and government are on their side and that the revolutionary government is their government.

Comrades,[words indistinct] revolutionary forces of our society is our proud working class whose number is increasing. At present about 150,000 workers are employed in 300 productive enterprises. The role of workers in the social [word indistinct] and other social fields of the country's life is increasing [words indistinct]. We must tell each worker that his work today is vitally important for the whole country [words indistinct].

Under our country's present conditions tradesmen play a noticeable role for the economy, one we should not ignore. Therefore, we must promote among them, as among the workers, the political work. However, under these circumstances it is required to make further use [words indistinct] from tradesmen's activities.

We must decide how these activities can be broadened and strengthened and make use of them in political work with tradesmen. In the political work an important place is allocated to work with small businessmen and national merchants.

It is required that the political work among teachers be improved and assistance be given to the broadening of their social activities; they themselves should be strengthened with the spirit of faithfulness to the aspiration of the April Revolution.

Comrades, explaining and popularising PDPA and revolutionary government policy in relation to Islam and work among clergy and [words indistinct] must become a subject of constant attention by the party. Our party desires to serve the whole people. [Words indistinct] respectful attitude toward the traditions and religious rituals of all groups and nationalities residing in the country.

After the new development stage of the April Revolution, formidable work has been accomplished in this direction.

Legal and lawful aspects of the government and the PDPA's political principles regarding Islam and the clergy of Afghanistan [word indistinct] have been implemented in practice. The [word indistict] democratic of the clergy in their [word indistinct] in revolution has been firmly considered. The DRA Government protects and perserves mosques, shrines and other Muslims' sacred places and materially and morally assists patriotic clergy. In the year 1360 [21 March 1981-20 March 1982] special aid to clergy and religious institutions amounted to more than 26 million afghanis and in 1361 this figure will increase. [passage indistinct] The DRA Government will pay more attention to renovation and construction of new mosques. For this purpose 51 million afghanis were spent in the year 1360 and 53 million afghanis have been allocated in the budget of year 1361. [passage indistinct]

However, the questions arise: Are our efforts sufficient for these [word indistinct] to reach everyone's ears? Do the Muslim people of our country know what the party and government are doing for them? And is our political work enough to inform the masses of the realities of the criminal actions of and blood shed by these so-called defenders of Islam?

These are the elements who destroy mosques and shrines and are the elements who, after the April Revolution, martyred more than 100 respectable clergy and mullahs like Malawi Gardizi, [name indistinct], Mawlawi Hafizullah Nasrat and others.

The actions of these criminals and murderers are not pardonable, let the [word indistinct] of people always [word indistinct] on them. Regarding their so-called claim of defense of Islam, we should explain to the masses that this slogan is merely a cover and excuse for [word indistinct] of our revolution. [Word indistinct] these cries and noises of the counterrevolutionary propaganda, about [word indistinct] and annoyance of the faithful in present Afghanistan, are just lies. [Words indistinct] should see and know that the so-called defense of Islam slogan is published hypocritically by those imperialist forces who, if it suits their own interests, would immediately forget the defense of Islam.

Is it not the United States that encourages Israeli aggression against the Islamic countries? Aren't they the ones who stood against the Islamic revolution in Iran? Don't the hired servants of imperialism and reaction perform [words indistinct] in our country? The PDPA and the revolutionary government will never compromise, by making use of the sacred religion of Islam, with efforts to make Afghanistan abandon the path it has chosen.

Regarding the activities of the National Fatherland Front [NFF], the [words indistinct], this system of social and mass organizations that coordinates and organizes the efforts and work of all patriotic people is gaining strength daily.

Fifteen [words indistinct] and hundreds of thousands of individual members have participated in the NFF. Now (?NFF projects) have been [word indistinct] in 23 provinces, 15 districts and [words indistinct]. Seventy-eight councils of the NFF have been formed in Kabul.

[passage indistinct] First of all, these duties should concentrate on nationwide peace and should be related to crushing the armed counterrevolution. The energy and strength of the members of the NFF should be devoted to normalizing the situation in the areas that have been freed and cooperating with the government to maintain the assured security of the enterprises and people.

In recent years thousands of full and probationary members, including workers, peasants, tradesmen, troops and NCO's of the armed forces and sarandoy and representatives of the revolutionary intellectuals, have been accepted into the ranks of the party. These people [word indistinct] with profound belief in the aspirations of PDPA and cooperated for the realization of these goals. However, due to the current situation, not all of them received the necessary theoretical training, particularly in the field of party [word indistinct]. Some of them could not finish their education and training.

As political education is organized these facts should be considered.

One of our first duties is the elimination of illiteracy. Revolution should give the people the light of knowledge: It cannot be any other way. At present 27,000 courses and anti-illiteracy centers are active in the country, at which 600,000 people are learning to read and write. Literacy courses are being held for the armed forces and sarandoy.

Comrades, mass media should play a major role in political work among the people. At present 11 daily newspapers and journals are printed in the capital and an additional 11 provincial newspapers and 42 magazines are also printed in the country.

Radio Afghanistan carries 27 hours of programming, including external broadcasts and those for the national minorities, daily.

Critical materials exposing unsuitable and improper (?work) by some institutions, departments and national institutions are being published. For example, HAQIQAT-E ENQLAB-E SAWR has published critical articles and the Voice of the People radio constantly passes the people's complaints and criticism to party and government authorities. All mass media are required to courageously expose shortcomings [words indistinct] so that party and government organs, may courageously take timely and necessary measures for [words indistinct].

The Central Committee social science institute has been transformed into a recognized center for the training of party cadres. At this very moment more than 2,500 members of the party are studying party education at this institute. The institute's role in this crucial task must be constantly increased. In this connection it must be pointed out that the party committees and relevent armed forces organs are dutybound to more responsibly tackle the selection of the individuals for the institute of social science and the distribution of its graduates. Each graduate of this institute must fully use his acquired knowledge to (?control) party work in the local areas. [passage indistinct]

The (?task) of political work among the masses is not only the job of the ideological workers. This is the job of the whole party: each party committee, each party organization and, finally, each PDPA member.

Comrades, in our political work we must also pay attention to the regional and world situation alongside home events. The international situation continues to be tense. Armed interference from abroad has taken the shape of undeclared war [word indistinct] and also hostile [word indistinct] against revolutionary Afghanistan has not been halted.

International reaction has not given up its striving to use the so-called Afghanistan issue to intensify international tension. Today it is fully clear to everybody with sound mind that imperialism, the reaction of the region and (?hegemonism want) to stifle the Afghan revolution and to isolate the DRA in the international arena.

Every day our country acquires more support and recognition from the progressive and peace-loving forces of the world. At present the DRA has diplomatic relations with more than 100 countries of the world. Our relations with the great northern neighbor, the USSR, and with socialist countries [words indistinct].

The friendly and official visit of the high-ranking DRA party and government delegation to the GDR which recently took place is a bright sign of these relations. Relations with the majority of developing countries, especially with [name indistinct] Syria, the People's Democratic Republic of Yemen, Ethiopia, Libya and so forth, are successfully developing and expanding.

The PDPA successfully develops and expands its relations and cooperation with international labor movements, parties and progressive democratic organizations and national liberation movements. We have the right to be proud of all these.

In particular we want to point out the importance of relations with the USSR, which are satisfactorily expanding and broadening in all fields, including commericial, [word indistinct], economic, scientific, technical and cultural areas. The DRA and the USSR in UN General Assembly sessions, other sessions and international gatherings, have close cooperation and have coordinated and [word indistinct] their activities and steps in connection with the solution of events around Afghanistan and strengthening peace and security of events around Afghanistan and strengthening peace and security in the region [words indistinct] and east of Asia.

The growing and [words indistinct] relations between the PDPA and the CPSU is the most important element of Afghan-USSR relations. In the name of the PDPA, the Revolutionary Council, the Government of the DRA and all the people of Afghanistan, I express profound and sincere gratitude for the all-round assistance and broad support for the DRA by the CPSU Central Committee, the Soviet Government and the person of Leonid Brezhnev [word indistinct].

It is the duty and responsibility of every party member and every employee of the government machinery to endeavour to ilize fully the USSR's huge assistance; our people should know everything about it in order to evaluate its importance properly.

Comrades, we have time and again announced and we again announce that it is our desire to normalize or even have friendly reciprocal relations with our eastern and western neighbors, that is to say Pakistan and Iran, on the basis of good intentions, reason and logic and [word indistinct] constructive talks. We are relentlessly and with determination continuing our efforts for the political solution of events concerning Afghanistan and for the normalization of relations with neighboring countries. We have always put forward constructive and useful proposals considering the interests of our country and the interests of others.

We attended with useful proposals the last talks of the DRA and Pakistani foriegn ministers in Geneva through the special envoy of the UN secretary general. These talks indicated that bases are present for reaching acceptable agreements in general for both parties in the all-round political solution. Only good intentions and mutual understanding are required to solve the existing disagreements. We are prepared, as far as the DRA is concerned, to follow our half of (?the road) for improving the situation in the region and for normalizing relations with Pakistan and Iran.

Comrades, we can point out with satisfaction that our country is taking a small but praiseworthy part in the positive solution of regional and world problems. These [word indistinct] cannot only be seen in foreign policy initiatives.

SPOKESMAN STATES RIGHT TO REPROCESS SPENT FUEL

BK010726 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0240 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Text] A government spokesman has said that India has the right to process spent fuel at Tarapur without any further consultations with the U.S. Government. There is no question of any joint determination in this regard. A member of the official delegation accompanying the prime minister on her U.S. tour explained that the original agreement provided for the transfer of the right to implement the safeguard provision to the International Atomic Energy Agency [IAEA]. After mutual consultations in 1971, India and the United States designated IAEA as the agency to administer the safeguard. India maintains that after this trilateral agreement, it can proceed with the reprocessing of the spent fuel. In other words, the joint determination which Washington is talking about has already been done. All that now remains is for India to notify IAEA so that they can start their monitoring operation.

All-India Radio special correspondent Manohar Chakru, covering the prime minister's visit to the United States, reports from New York that America has taken a different position on this issue. It says that despite the trilateral agreement it has still a say in the reprocessing. However, the disagreement will not come in the way of France supplying enriched uranium for the Tarapur plant. Our correspondent adds that there is no more storage capacity for stocking the spent fuel and this has lent urgency to reprocess it. India had notified the American Government in January last year that it will start reprocessing the fuel.

'SIGNIFICANT IMPROVEMENT' IN IRAN TIES NOTED

GF310653 Karachi DAWN in English 27 Jul 82 p 10

[Text] Islamabad, July 26 -- There has been significant improvement in the already existing cordial relations between Iran and Pakistan after the Islamic revolution in Iran. The political and economic cooperation is on the increase and the flow of trade between the two countries has improved significantly.

These views were expressed by Mr Abdul Malik Khattak [Pakistani ambassador to Iran] when he conferrred in Tehran with the Iranian minister for labour and social affairs, Mr Ahmad Tavakkoli, who is also the official spokesman for the Iranian Government, says a message received here.

The ambassador, referring to the Islamic revolution of Iran, said Pakistan, being an ideological state, viewed with happiness any step taken for the unity and strength of the Islamic ummah.

The Iranian minister for labour and social affairs expressed his satisfication and happiness over the existing brotherly relations between the two countries. He recalled his very pleasant meeting with Pakistan Federal Labour Minister Ghulam Dastgir Khan at Geneva. He said Iranian policies were based on Islamic precepts and, therefore, there was much identity of views with Pakistan.

The Iranian minister stated that Iran was reducing its dependence on Western countries so far [as] foreign trade was concerned and increasing its trade with Muslim and Third World countries, and added that in this context Pakistan was of great importance to Iran. He emphasised that Muslim nations should exploit their own resources for the benefit of all Muslims. Pakistan, he declared, was a country which had always been ready to help Muslim causes selflessly.

Mr Tavakkoli said Iran was also reducing its dependence on foreign experts. If technical experts were required, Iran would prefer to have them from Pakistan. He suggested that both countries should coordinate manpower planning and meet manpower needs of each other. The minister said the Iranian deputy minister of labour returned very happy after his visit to Pakistan.

The ambassador said the exchange of visits by government leaders was very necessary and they were hopeful that soon several high-level visits would take place.

The ambassador said further that Pakistan would be participating in the industrial exhibition to be held in Tehran in September, and offered to meet the Iranian requirements of engineering and electrical goods manufactured in Pakistan. -- APP.

RAFSANJANI RESTATES OBJECTIVES BEHIND WAR

LD301348 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Excerpts] The political-religious Friday prayers, those symbols of Muslim unity, were held today with the paticipation of millions of the Muslim and heroic Iranian nation throughout the country. The people of Tehran, who are ever-vigilant, showed mass participation today in the Friday prayers at Tehran University and in the surrounding streets, led by Hojjat ol-Eslam val-Moslemin Hashemi-Rafsanjani, the provisional Friday imam of Tehran.

In his sermon, the provisional Friday imam of Tehran talked about war issues. Referring to the continuation of the war inside Iraqi territory, he said that we took the war onto Iraqi territory for these reasons, and our reasons are just: Our most important and most significant reason is to end the war. We intensified the war in order to bring it to a close. This is the greatest aim of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Despite their claims, our enemies want the Iran-Iraq war to continue. They want us to stay on this side of the border and for Iraq to stay on the other side of the border. They want the war to continue in this way so that they can achieve their goals; so that West Azarbayjan and Khuzestan can be taken away from us; so that we cannot reconstruct our destroyed cities; so that we are forced to purchase weapons in order to continue the war and to spend our money on weapons.

Therefore, we would not be able to build the country and we would also be under pressure in the international scene, by having to be mindful of what is said about us. We would also be obligated to all the countries of the world.

It is most desirable for the world of arrogance to see that our revolution is sidetracked. On the other hand, the countries of the region, the Soviet Union, America, England and France are all helping Iraq in every way to keep it in power in order to receive protection money from those countries to whom they have told: If the Islamic revolution succeeds, it will destroy you. At the same time, those who sell arms will also sell their weapons and Israel will also make use of the situation and attack Lebanon. Therefore, America, England, France and the rest who say that the war should be ended are all lying. They want the war to continue and had we stayed within our borders they would have achieved their wish. They would not have paid war reparations or withdrawn one step from their plans. The other option for us was to end the war, and we have done so by entering Iraq.

Referring to the power of the fighters of Islam, Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani said that we cannot conduct the war in the same way as Iraq. We could raze all the Iraqi cities to the ground, but we will not do so. We will fight where those who wish to fight against us will be destroyed, not so that the ordinary people and those who are not fighting us are destroyed. Our war has the aim of self-defense. They do not understand what we are doing, but we know what we are doing.

The provisional Friday imam remarked on the analyses and interpretations of counterrevolutionaries in foreign countries about the devotion and self-sacrifice of the people and, continuing his sermon. he said:

[Begin recording] We have not announced our program, and no one knows what it is, but its essence is to crush the satanic power which Egypt, Jordan, the reactionary countries of the region, America and the Soviet Union have bestowed upon Saddam; when it is crushed, to finish the war; when the war is finished there will no longer be anyone in the region who demands protection money.

The small Arab countries should know that Kuwait, Bajrain, Qatar, Dubai and the rest of the emirates are not as large as our own Khuzestan. If we can we will build our own Khuzestan. We don't need you, your money, your oil or your livelihood.

Don't engage in any mischief; of course, you should also deal properly with your own people. Even if we are engaged in war, if you wish to mistreat your people we will support your people, in the same way that we supported the people of Iraq. This war was imposed upon us because of our support for the people of Iraq, and we will advance until the Iraqi people are set free. After all, it will be Israel's turn. On that day, if your governments do not wish to come and fight alongside us to join battle against Israel they will be eliminated. Even if we do not eliminate them, their own nations will eliminate them.

Therefore, our aim is, first of all, for the war to come to an end. Second, we wish to receive our war reparations. We have been fighting for 20 months or so and we have spent a great deal of money. Money is needed for all the damages and all the misery that this nation has endured. How much money do we have? These things must be restored. Who should pay for them? Of course, in the first instance, Iraq should pay. Iraq has oil and can pay for them. If there are other people who have incited Iraq and who now wish to pay, they can pay; this is not our concern. However, this money and the war reparations should be paid so that we can rebuild this country.

Our other goal is that the region, Iraq and the Iraqi people are liberated, so that they are put at ease. We have no political, governmental, territorial or economic ambitions in Iraq. We want the Iraqi people to be liberated. We will not withdraw one inch from the territory which international law has allocated to us. Later, we will return to that point. The people of Iraq will be free.

Of course, the Islamic Republic will not allow certain minigroups which exist in various corners of Iraq, such as those which existed in Iran -- the so-called Peykar, Feda'i, Mojahedin, Ummat and so on -- to come and make plans for the destiny of the Iraqi nation.

We will stand alongside the masses of the Iraqi nation and alongside the Muslims and the people of Iraq. We will bring about conditions necessary for them to vote and choose their own government, so that the Muslim Iraqi nation can follow the path which it decides for itself. [end recording]

REZA'I: 90,000 IRAQIS KILLED SINCE WAR BEGAN

LD311028 Tehran IRNA in English 0905 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Text] Ahvaz, July 31 (IRNA) -- The commander of the Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps, Mohsen Reza'i, said Friday night here that Iran, in order to defend itself, was forced to remove the Iraqi Ba'th Party and put an end to its crimes. He stressed that with the elimination of the Iraqi Ba'th Party, the issue of the Zionist regime could be solved -- a regime which would attack a Muslim country and massacre people whenever it desired.

Reza'i, speaking to a gathering of combatants of the Mobilisation force in Ahvaz, further added that if Islamic combatants intended to defend Muslim countries, Islamic prestige and eradicate the Zionist regime, they had no other alternative other than passing through Karbala'. It was rational to make Saddam's case clear inside Iraqi territory and this was the way which needed patience and resistance, he noted. The IRGC [Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps] commander said that there were at least one million combatants who had received military training and been in warfronts, which was unprecedented in the world.

Referring to the damages and casualties the Iraqi enemy suffered since the outbreak of its imposed war, Reza'i said that in addition to the destruction of Iraqi 3rd, 5th and 9th Divisions, 90,000 of its forces had been killed, 170,000 wounded and over 50,000 became captive.

Commander Describes Operation

LD301252 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Text] According to the Central News Unit, Colonel Niaki, commander of the 92d Armored Division in Ahvaz, in an interview with a Central News Unit correspondent this morning, explaining details of the operations carried out by combatants of Islam the night before last, announced that the aim of the fifth phase of the Ramadan Operation was to destroy the enemy forces in their own territory. He said that, during these operations, the combatants of Islam completely annihilated the 50th Armored Brigade from the 12th Division of the mercenary Iraqi Armed Forces. The combatants of Islam also inflicted blows on the 15th and 20th Mechanized Infantry Brigades and the 26th Armored Brigade from the 5th Division of the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist Armed Forces, and more than 65 percent of the equipment of these brigades was destroyed.

He announced that during this phase of the operations more than 110 Iraqi troops were captured and added that there are more than 15 officers among the POW's, including one lieutenant colonel, who was the commander of a tank brigade, and one commander of a tank company.

Colonel Niaki added that during these operations an officer pilot, the advance observer of the enemy's air force in the 50th Brigade from the 12th Division of the mercenary Iraqi Armed Forces, was taken prisoner, together with other Iraqi officers, the night before last. It was the duty of this pilot to guide the enemy planes over the first line of our forces.

Referring to the scope of operations by the combatants of Islam, he said that along just one operational axis, north of the Zayd garrison in Iraq, there were more than 90 tanks belonging to an enemy armored brigade according to the lieutenant colonel, who commanded an Iraqi tank brigade and who was captured by the warriors of Islam; more than 80 percent of these tanks were destroyed during the first moments of the offensive.

He went on to say that there seems to be an acute shortage of manpower in the Iraqi Ba'thist-Zionist Armed Forces because a very large number of the enemy infantry forces have been killed or captured by the combatants of Islam.

He added that, for the same reason, the enemy has created many obstacles on the (?ground), including minefields and canals, in an attempt to overcome this shortage.

He continued by saying that, during the Ramadan Operation, the combatants of Islam came across some irregular minefields, which had been planted without taking into account the necessary specifications. He further stated that these minefields do not require strict control [as heard], but they are an indication of the enemy's manpower shortage.

Commenting on the earthworks that the enemy had created in order to be immune from attacks of the combatants of Islam, Colonel Niaki said that even this new invention, which is one of the Zionist methods of defense, could not help the Iraqi mercenaries; the brave warriors of Islam were able to penetrate inside these fortifications within the first hours of the offensive and, while destroying a large number of arms and equipment, they killed enemy troops and inflicted effective and fatal blows on them.

Referring to the effective and useful artillery fire of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Colonel Niaki said that one of the reasons for our success in destroying the enemy forces inside their own territory during the fifth phase of the Ramadan Operation was the constant artillery fire of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran. We have some documents at our disposal, indicating that the enemy has often admitted to being under accurate and effective artillery fire.

Commenting on the messages prepared by the enemy, he said that, during the operations carried out the night before last, an Iraqi brigade commander reported to his superior commander that the Iranian forces had penetrated their fortifications for the unpteenth time and have surrounded them on two sides.

He added that another Iraqi commander asked repeatedly for an immediate retreat, because his forces were on the verge of complete destruction. This commander also said that more than 80 of the tanks in his brigade had been destroyed. But the high-ranking enemy commanders wanted him to resist. At this point the commander of the brigade strongly objected by shouting.

Finally, Colonel Niaki added that, with the complete destruction of the 50th Armored Brigade from the Iraqi 12th Division, it is proved that this armored brigade of the enemy is destroyed [as heard].

Joint Staff Communique 1,001

LD301810 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Communique No 1,001 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Dear compatriots: The conditions on the fronts of the imposed war in the southern and western parts of the country and the efforts of the combatants of Islam to destroy the aggressive Ba'thist forces of Iraq on those fronts are brought to your attention:

According to reports received from the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran, at 0242 and 0302 this morning a plane and a helicopter of the Ba'thist mercenaries of Iraq were shot down by our armed forces' antiaircraft units in the southern operational sector. With indefatigable and round-the-clock effort, the transport pilots of the Air Force of the Islamic Republic of Iran constantly and effectively support the combatant units of Islam.

The resisting and self-sacrificing combatants of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, who are ever-present in the trenches, are stopping the enemy's movements and activities by returning their fire. During exchanges of fire on the Meymak and Mehran fronts over the past 24 hours, they destroyed parts of enemy positions and emplacements and killed or wounded several Saddamites. Meanwhile, parallel with the destruction of Iraqi forces, the (Bannin) oil installations came under heavy-artillery fire, causing considerable damage.

On the western fronts the self-sacrificers of the engineering units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran are busy mopping up areas and clearing minefields. Every day they collect large quantities of assorted mines laid by the Ba'thist Iraqi aggressors.

On the Marivan and Paveh fronts, artillery and heavy-weapon fire was exchanged between the powerful forces of Islam and the mercenary Saddamite aggressors. Our combatants were considerably superior. This time the artillery fire of the combatants of the ground forces inflicted heavy losses and casualties on an Iraqi column that was moving on the Biarreh axis.

On the Abadan front, the gendarmerie combatants brought the positions and personnel of the Saddamites under fire, destroying several emplacements and killing a number of the Saddamite mercenaries.

Yesterday the criminal Ba'thists of Iraq again brought the residential areas and oil installations of Abadan under long-range artillery fire, wrecking people's houses, martyring six dear compatriots and injuring a number of others.

Yesterday a feeble attempt by aggressive Iraqi fighter planes was foiled, thanks to the strong reaction by the antiaircraft units of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran. Invading planes of the aggressive Army of Iraq were forced to flee before committing any crimes on all southern and western sectors and fronts.

Joint Staff Communique 1,002

LD311724 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Communique No 1,002 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. The self-sacrificing Muslim warriors of Iran will resist to their last breath for the sake of their sacred aspirations, which have their source in the teachings of Islam and the Koran; and the powerful hand of the Creator assists them on every occasion.

In the last 24 hours our powerful combatants in the operational sector defended newly captured positions and returned enemy fire. In this sector our combatants, in continuing their military and reconnaissance activities against enemy units, took advantage of every available opportunity to inflict loss and damage on the Saddamist forces, and so they continued the operations to destroy enemy forces inside Iraqi territory.

The weak enemy, unable to face our defenders in open combat, once again shelled residential areas of Abadan yesterday. As a result, several places were set on fire and two of our compatriots were martyred.

Exchanges of fire continued in the country's western operational sectors. On each front the forces of Islam succeeded in neutralizing the enemy moves and activities by returning their fire. The exchange of fire was intense in the Mehran and Meymak regions; during this exchange of fire, considerable damage was inflicted on the enemy's command headquarters.

Our artillery fire on enemy positions in the vicinity of Panjwin and Biarreh set fire to and destroyed some of the fortifications and positions of the Saddamist forces.

Exchange of fire continued in the Paveh sector, in which our forces were superior.

Joint Staff Communique 1,003

LD011810 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Communique No 1,003 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. This is to inform the dear Muslim compatriots of the outcome of the battles and efforts by the self-sacrificers of the Islamic Republic of Iran's Armed Forces in the last 24 hours:

In the last 24 hours, battles and exchanges of fire have continued with intensity in most of the Ramadan Operation sectors; Islam's victorious and successful combatants crushed and neutralized as vigorously as possible any action and last-ditch effort by the aggressive Iraqi Ba'thist forces.

There was sustained support provided by the self-sacrificers and the noble action by the airborne force on all fronts for the combatants of the ground forces, which helped the combatants of Islam achieve victory and overcome the enemy. On these fronts the powerful combatants of Islam, consolidating and reinforcing their defensive positions, and also identifying the positions of the Saddamist hirelings, delivered the necessary and fundamental blows to them, fired on Iraqi Ba'thist armor, artillery and fortifications, silenced their fire and inflicted substantial damages and casualties on the enemy.

The criminal Iraqi Ba'thist hirelings resorted at 1420 yesterday to a series of offensive operations and artillery fire on one of the fronts in the Ramadan Operation sector. Little do they realize that whenever and wherever they resort to such last-ditch efforts they achieve nothing except the loss of a number of dead or wounded and a large quantity or arms and equipment, for the self-sacrificers and warriors of Islam courageously block their move and by heavy and accurate artillery fire force the enemy forces to retreat.

Eventually the powerful combatants of Islam took the initiative at 1600 and controlled the hapless Iraqi Ba'thist forces, thus taking charge of the action.

Yesterday exchanges of artillery and heavy-weapon fire continued on the country's western fronts, with combative units of the Islamic Republic of Iran's Armed Forces having superior firepower. The combatants of the ground forces, directing artillery fire on Saddamist positions and units, prevented them from carrying out any operation and action and destroyed two vehicles belonging to the Iraqi Ba'thist forces and killed several personnel. Meanwhile, our engineering units continue to clear up and collect mines in mined areas.

On the Marivan and Paveh fronts, there was a sporadic exchange of fire, and the Islamic combatants' retaliatory fire aimed at Iraqi positions and the garrison at Panjwin inflicted considerable losses and damages on the Saddamist lackeys, and silenced their fire by killing or wounding several Saddamist forces.

The gendarmerie combatants on the Abadan front returned the fire of the Iraqi Ba'thist hirelings, aimed at enemy positions and fortifications on the other side of the Arvand Rud and destroyed several enemy trenches and observation posts. By silencing the fire of the Saddamist criminals, they halted their activity and movements on the Al-Faw-Basra front.

Yesterday all the Iraqi Ba'thist air attacks were neutralized by the air defense units of the Islamic Republic of Iran's Armed Forces, and intruding aircraft of the aggressive Iraqi Armed Forces were forced to flee.

The city of Abadan again came under heavy-artillery and heavy-weapon fire by the criminal Iraqi Ba'thists, as a result of which one house was destroyed and two people were injured.

FRENCH REFUSAL TO REPAY LOAN DENOUNCED

LD012136 Tehran IRNA in English 2000 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Text] Tehran, August 1 IRNA -- The Ministry of Economics and Finance today in a statement denounced the refusal of the Commissariat d'Energie Atomique of France and the French Government to repay a one billion dollar loan granted to the commissariat by the former Iranian Government back in 1974.

The statement said that the former Iranian regime, as part of its extravagant programmes and in an effort to increase the economic and technical dependence of Iran on the Western countries, signed many contracts with various French companies in 1974 and 1975. In addition to these contracts, which mainly concerned enrichment of uranium to be used in the Iranian nuclear power plants, the Iranian Government granted several loans to the French Government on easy terms including a one billion dollar loan to the commissariat. The unconditional repayment of the loan on demand was guaranteed by the French Government.

Following the victory of the Islamic revolution of Iran in 1979, after studies the Iranian Government was discontinuing its nuclear power projects, and declined to purchase uranium. Following this decision disputes arose between the Iranian Government on the one hand and the French companies, including Eurodif, in 1979 despite the provisions of the contracts, took the case to the International Chamber of Commerce of Paris, filed a complaint against the Atomic Energy Organisation of Iran and later secured a court order which froze all the sums related to the one billion dollar loan granted to the commissariat by Iran.

Following this the commissariat informed Iran that because of the court order, it could not meet its obligations towards Iran concerning the loan and, therefore, it would desposit the installments of the loan in a blocked ban account related to Iran so that these sums would be transferred to Iran once the ban were lifted.

The Finance Ministry explained that for the past three years Iran had been following the case and finally last April, the Paris Court of Appeal gave an order for lifting the ban on the said sums, which were about 275 million dollars. However, the commissariat, contrary to its claims and enjoying the full support of the French Government, resorted to other deceits and refused to pay its debts to Iran. This measure showed, said the statement, the French Government's lack of respect for its international financial obligations and instead its following on the policies of the hegemonistic powers. It proved that if the interests of these countries were seen to be at stake these countries would trample upon the principles which they pretended to observe.

The court in its verdict had said that since the French Government was involved in the case as a guarantor, the loan of the Iranian Government to the French company was related to the political relations of both governments to the foreign policy of the French Government and to the overall state of international relations. Because of these reasons, the verdict added, the French courts were not authorised to deal with the case. The Iranian Government tried to appeal to overturn the lower court ruling. However, the court of appeal reaffirmed the previous ruling.

The statement stressed that this case proved that the French Government did not have the slightest respect for its obligations, its courts, the independence of these courts and ultimately for its judicial system. It further reiterated that the incident showed the weakness of the French judicial system before the executive branch of the French Government.

At the end the statement warned countries having economic and financial relations with France to carefully consider this case and to take into account the weakness of the obligations supposedly binding the French Government. The statement further raised the question of whether the commissariat were really a corporate body independent of the French Government especially with regards to its bearing upon French foreign policy as stated in the court's ruling.

Lebanon

Shamir in U.S., Begin Warning -- In a "brief" meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir, U.S. President Ronald Reagan used "sharp and firm formulations" to emphasize that the violence in Beirut must stop, according to Jerusalem radio reports. The radio said Shamir stressed that the "terrorists" had to leave either through peaceful or other means. Later, in an interview with a Jerusalem radio correspondent carried by the radio, Shamir said there was "complete agreement" on the fact that the PLO must be removed with all foreign forces from Lebanon and that a stable government had to be set up there. Shamir also met with the U.S. secretary of state and secretary of defense, IDF radio noted.

Meanwhile, Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin in a meeting with U.S. Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Morris Draper warned that time for political contacts in Beirut is running out, IDF radio reported.

U.S. Plan, Arab Positions -- U.S. envoy Philip Habib met with the head of the Lebanese delegation to the joint Lebanese-Palestinian military committee, Staff Brig Gen Nabil Quraytim, and handed him a U.S. plan for the evacuation of the Palestinian fighters from Beirut and its southern suburbs, "which is acceptable to Israel," Beirut radio reported. Quaraytim then reportedly met with Hani al-Hasan, political adviser to PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat, and handed him the U.S. plan. According to the radio, the plan calls for the withdrawal of the Palestinian fighters over 15 days, by land and/or sea, with a large group of fighters with their personal weapons departing prior to the arrival of the multinational force and the leadership withdrawing after the arrival of the force. Israeli lines around the capital would be "modified" as soon as the force arrived.

The Kuwaiti paper AR-RA'Y AL-'AMM reported an interview with Fatah Central Committee member Salah Khalaf who outlined three ways the Arabs can help the Palestinians: Egypt should cancel participation in the Camp David accords; Saudi Arabia should impose an oil embargo on the United States and Syria should launch "comprehensive" attacks. Meanwhile, Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad addressed a message to Syrian forces in Beirut, carried by Damascus radio, which urged the fighters to continue fighting there until victory.

The clandestine Voice of Palestine radio reported that Saudi King Fahd sent a cable to PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat supporting the struggle in Beirut; earlier the Fatah representative in Saudi Arabia told a Saudi paper cited by SPA that the PLO is "fully satisfied" with the Saudi king's stance and appreciated his "great role."

A Voice of Palestine commentary alleged that the 1 August Israeli Cabinet decision to form a ministerial committee to deal with the settlement of the refugees in the Middle East "exposes" the true aims of the Lebanon conflict and the U.S. insistence on UN Resolution 242. The Palestinians reject the attitude that the problem is simply a matter of refugees, the commentary emphasized.

Egyptian Position -- Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali said at a Paris reception reported by MENA that the first priority is respect for the cease-fire, and second to support the dispatch of UN observers to Beirut. He said that Egypt has asked the United States to recognize the PLO or enter into a dialogue with it.

Cease-Fire Situation -- The cease-fire agreement in Beirut generally held; exchanges of artillery fire took place during the day but died down in the evening of 2 August, Voice of Lebanon radio reported. Jerusalem radio said a group of UN observers which had left for Beirut to observe the cease-fire was instructed by the IDF to return to its base and wait for Israeli Government approval for the observers' stationing.

According to Jerusalem radio reports, the IDF reinforced its positions around Beirut Airport while defending the area from "terrorists" fire; some fighting took place in west Beirut and the "terrorists" fired Grad missiles into east Beirut. While some areas remained calm, Voice of Lebanon radio noted that firing occurred near the Science College and the Burj al-Barajinah Palestinian refugee camp. The military spokesman of the Lebanese-Palestinian joint forces said in a statement carried by Voice of Palestine radio that the joint forces hold Israel responsible for the cease-fire violations. According to the radio, the head of the joint forces operation room said Israel lost 40 tanks and 250 killed or wounded in the 1 August battles.

Beirut was relatively calm early on 3 August with Israeli forces consolidating their positions in southern Beirut, Voice of Lebanon radio reported.

Iran-Iraq War

An Iraqi military communique carried by INA claimed that during the recent battle east of Basra, one army unit killed 1,003 Iranians and destroyed 3 tanks; the communique also said 15 Iranians died in fighting in the central sector. According to an Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio, Iran continued its efforts to destroy Iraqi "elements" remaining in the Ramadan Operation area, and the Iranian Navy shelled enemy positions across the Shatt al-'Arab.

Iran

Reza Mahdavi-Kani submitted his resignation as supervisor of the Islamic revolution committees in a letter sent to Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni, which was carried by Tehran radio.

Afghanistan

The Afghan Council of Ministers announced the recall of troops and NCO's who had completed their term of service and had been released prior to 22 October 1978 and were not over 35 years old Kabul radio reported. Another radio report noted that conscription for all soldiers and NCO's had been increased to 3 years "to maintain a peaceful atmosphere" in the country.

MUJAHIDIN ATTACK GOVERNMENT TROOPS IN PAGHMAN

GF021842 Karachi JASARAT in Urdu 26 Jul 82 p 1

[Excerpt] London, 25 Jul (AAP) -- One day before the 'Id festival the mujahidin raided the government post in Paghman, a health resort 20 km from Kabul, and made away with huge quantity of arms, money and foodstuffs. Paghman was captured by Karmal forces during Ramadan after repeated attacks during the past year. At that time, the mujahidin, keeping in view the Soviet pressure on the local population because of the mujahidin presence in Paghman, had moved to the nearby mountains.

In the raid, the mujahidin carried off one antiaircraft K-2 machinegun with its ammunition, 60,000 Kalashnikov rounds, a TT-type Soviet pistol with 6,000 rounds, 4,000 kg of foodstuffs, 2 million in Afghan currency [as published] and nearly 500,000 Pakistani rupees.

Reports on skirmishes in the Paghman Valley indicate that the Paghman citizens had reached an agreement with the Karmal administration that a small number of Karmal officials and troops would be stationed in Paghman but would not interfere with the inhabitants. The peoples themselves would maintain law and order in the area.

The Karmal administration, ignoring the agreement, sent a large force to Paghman on 12 July whose commander began efforts to recruit the locals for the army. He also promised rewards for helping defend against the mujahidin. After being snubbed by the locals, the Karmal force moved to (Khavajah Mosafir), a point lying at the beginning of Paghman Valley, and was joined by more soldiers from Kabul. These troops later spread to (Tappeh) and (Khavajah Jam).

On 13 July the mujahidin attacked these troops and caused many casualties among them. Mujahidin also made away with 25 Kalashnikovs and a large quantity of ammunition.

DIFFERENCES WITH U.S. OVER SPENT NUCLEAR FUEL

OW021954 Hong Kong AFP in English 1922 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] New Delhi, Aug. 2 (AFP) — A Foreign Office spokesman said here today that there was nothing new about the difference between the U.S. and India on the issue of reprocessing of spent U.S. supplied fuel to the Tarapur atomic power plant near Bombay.

"There is an honest difference of opinion between the U.S. and India concerning reprocessing" and India had all along maintained its right to reprocess the spent fuel, the spokesman clarified to reporters here.

He said the U.S. adhered to their view that there should be a "joint determination" while India maintained that its right to reprocess under the 1963 agreement, under which enriched uranium was supplied by the former, was "clear and firm."

The spokesman's clarification came when some Indian newspaper reports and other critics of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi saying [as received] that the latest agreement reached with the U.S. during her visit was a climbdown by India in its position in relation to the conditions applicable to the Tarapur plant even after the U.S. fuel supplies were stopped as mutually envisaged.

He said the difference did not in any way affect or detract from the new agreement reached during Mrs Gandhi's current visit to the U.S., concerning French supplies of uranium to the power plant in place of the U.S.

The exchange of notes on the arrangement would take place shortly between India and the U.S. but it was stipulated that this would be with prior agreement of the French Government, which had already been obtained, the spokesman said.

ATOMIC ENERGY TO BE USED FOR PEACEFUL PURPOSES

[Text] Defense Minister Venkataraman has reiterated India's policy of using atomic energy for peaceful purposes. He was speaking at the silver jubilee celebrations of a training school of the Bhabha atomic research center in Bombay. Describing India as one of the largest scientific manpower in the world, Venkataraman said our scientists should keep themselves abreast of the latest developments in the fields of atomic energy, space communication and ocean technology. It is only then that they would be able to utilize modern technology to find solutions to the indigenous problems of development, Venkataraman added.

OFFICIAL REPORTS ON USSR SUPPLY OF OIL

BK020925 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0730 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] Petroleum and Chemicals Minister P. Shiv Shankar told the Rajya Sabha that Iraqi and Iranian crude oil is being supplied to India by the Soviet Union on the prices prevailing in the international market. However, it is supplying its own blended crude on favorable prices. He said the terms on which the crude is supplied are highly favorable but it will not be in public interest to disclose further details in this regard, he added.

The house was also informed that the Oil and Natural Gas Commission [ONGC] plans to achieve a production target of 24.92 million tons of crude oil every year by 1984-85. The ONGC has also prepared a conceptual plan frame for accelerated exploration and exploitation of hydrocarbons for 1980-90 which envisages establishing higher production targets.

GOVERNMENT DECLARES STATE OF EMERGENCY

BK301318 Colombo Domestic Service in English 1245 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Text] The government has proclaimed a state of emergency throughout the country and imposed a curfew in the Galle municipal council area from 1900 today to 0500 tomorrow [1330 to 2330 GMT]. Traffic passing through [words indistinct] and private vehicles will be permitted to proceed.

The imposition of the state of emergency and the curfew follows attempts by certain unruly elements to engage in violence and arson, capitalizing on an incident of a personal nature between a landlord and tenant in Galle on the 26th. In the last 4 days there have been two deaths. A number of cases of arson and attacks on houses and (?boutiques) have also been reported. Attempts have also been made to stop buses and cars and to assault passengers. Sixty-five persons were injured and hospitalized, while about 70 persons involved in the incidents have been arrested.

The police and the armed forces have taken action to enforce law and order.

While the situation is now under control there is evidence that people were attempting to make use of the situation to magnify this local incident and create disturbances, communal animosity and unrest in other parts of the country.

The government has also imposed press censorship. However, meetings of recognized political parties will be permitted.

AFP Report

BK010917 Hong Kong AFP in English 0826 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Text] Colombo, Aug 1 (AFP) -- A dusk-to-dawn curfew was ordered extended to a third day in the southern city of Galle, where some 500 soldiers today backed up police patrols following last week's bloody clashes between Sinhalas and Moslems.

"The situation in Galle is much better and tensions are subsiding," said a high-ranking Sri Lankan Defense Ministry official, adding that two incidents were reported last night in the city, 115 kilometers from here.

There were no details immediately available on the new incidents in Galle, where a landlord-tenant dispute erupted into ethnic clashes that left two people dead and more than 75 hospitalized.

The violence prompted the government to declare the third nationwide emergency since July 1980. The Defense Ministry official said that the dusk-to-dawn curfew first imposed Friday would be continued today.

Members of the Sinhala community fought with Moslems for 5 days last week. Shops and houses were attacked, and buildings and cars were set ablaze. The Defence Ministry spokesman said more than 100 people were arrested.

Tensions had been brewing between the two groups. The Sinhalas, a majority in the country that is two-thirds Buddhist, are worried that the Moslems are gaining undue economic power despite accounting for only 8 percent of Sri Lanka's 14.5 million people.

The Moslems, who control much of the gem trade here, have acquired much clout through their Arab connections.

With the security situation improving, Police Chief Rudra Rajasingham returned to Colombo and Army Commander General Tissa Weeratunga was expected back today. The minister of public administration, Montague Javawickrema, was to visit Galle today to assess the situation.

Fifty troops were sent to Galle yesterday to reinforce security forces already dispatched. About 500 troops in addition to the police enforced order in the beleaguered city, the Defence Ministry spokesman said.

Yesterday, President Junius Jayewardene explained that the clashes had started when a Moslem landlord pulled down the roof of a house to get rid of a Sinhala tenant.

This had resulted in a fight during which a Sinhala youth on a bicycle, mistaken for a Moslem, was attacked and fatally wounded, the president said. Another man also involved died.

Mr Jayewardene said that emergency was declared to prevent the racial clashes from spreading to other parts of the country. The emergency allows him to call out the army, impose censorship and, if necessary, suspend laws, but was not expected to last longer than 5 days, until the end of a Buddhist festival here.

A 3-month emergency was declared last year to check violence between the Sinhalas and Tamils, the country's second largest minority, who feel they are the victims of discrimination in government employment and education.

Violence Continues

BK310848 Delhi Domestic Service in English 0830 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Text] Sporadic violence broke out again last night in the strife-torn Sri Lanka city of Galle as security forces patrolled the streets under a dusk-to-dawn curfew. The curfew was imposed under a national emergency proclaimed yesterday. The police said 4 persons were taken to hospital with injuries and 24 have been arrested.

Peace Committees Set Up

BK021228 Hong Kong AFP in English 1124 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] Colombo, Aug 2 (AFP) -- Peace committees of the majority Sinhala community and Moslems have been set up in the riot-stricken town of Galle 115 km (72 miles) south of here where the authorities today announced the curfew imposed on Friday would still be enforced.

Troops and police were rushed to the area last week after Sinhala-Moslem riots erupted in Galle leaving two dead and over 75 injured.

The trouble resulted in President Junius Jayewardene declaring a nationwide state of emergency on Friday -- the third since 1980 -- in which press censorship was also imposed in a bid to stop the unrest spreading.

Sparked off by personal dispute between a landlord and tenant, the trouble has been brought under control, the Defence Ministry said today.

"Calm has returned to the city and the situation is returning to normal," a government official told AFP today. The curfew has also been relaxed one hour and is to operate from 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m.

At the height of the racial clashes, houses and shops were attacked and cars and buildings were set ablaze.

The official said Buddhist monks and Moslem priests were travelling together in joint peace committees to appeal to people in Galle for calm.

Yesterday Public Administration Minister Montague Jayawickreme, and Internal Security Defence Minister Tikiri Banda Werapitiya visited Galle to assess the situation and ensure order is maintained while the city returns to normal.

The deputy minister presided over a conference attended by high ranking officers of the army and police, including Army Commander General Tissa Weeratunge and Police Chief Rudra Rajasingham.

The ethnic clashes and the consequent emergency are likely to figure in Parliament which meets tomorrow after a break of nearly two weeks.

Observers believe that opposition parties will attempt to get political mileage out of the discussions likely tomorrow. They believe that given the current political situation the opposition will use the Galle troubles as a stick to beat the government with.

Parliament is also to debate an important constitutional amendment which will permit the incumbent president to call for a presidential election four years after assuming office, a move opposed by the opposition parties in Sri Lanka.

Without a common opposition candidate President Jayewardene is sitting pretty, observers say.

So far two opposition parties have announced likely candidates. But former Premier Sirimavo Bandaranaike's Freedom Party, the main contender for power, has still not picked a candidate because of internal differences.

RAFSANJANI: REPARATIONS PAYABLE IN INSTALLMENTS

LD012018 Tehran IRNA in English 1900 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Text] Tehran, Aug 1 (IRNA) -- The Iraqi regime must pay war reparations to Iran, and there is no discussion on this principle, said Imam Khomeyni's representative in the Supreme Defence Council and Majlis Speaker Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani in an interview with the morning daily JOMHURI-YE ESLAMI (ISLAMIC REPUBLIC) today. He further added that the amount of the money had not yet been determined and as it had been stated before experts should estimate the amount. "Obviously it is a large sum", he added.

Speaking on the ways of collecting the reparations, Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani said that if it was in whole and in cash, it would be better, but if this was not possible, a portion of it could be paid in cash and the remainder in installments.

In reply to a question concerning the reaction of the Iraqi people towards the current offensive of the Iranian forces outside the Iraqi territory, 'the Operation Ramadan', Hojjat ol-Eslam Hashemi-Rafsanjani said that there was not much clear information. However, it was obvious that the Iranian offensive had not met with any noticeable objection by the Iraqi masses. He noted that the entry of the Iranian forces into the Iraqi territory had been considered as the right of the Iranian people since the way had been launched by the Iraqi president, Saddam Husayn, and the Iraqi forces were still present in Iranian territory. Because of this, said the hojjat ol-Eslam, the Iranian offensive had been accepted by many.

[Text] In His exalted name. The powerful and heroic fighters of Islam, by firing at the artillery positions, tanks, mortars and infantry of Saddam's defeated armed forces, destroyed several more enemy weapons and killed enemy personnel in the past 24 hours. Their timely and vigilant action prevented any movement by the enemy forces. Following their remarkable actions in the Ramadan Operation region, the faithful fighters of Islam are now effectively defending their positions and are continuing their efforts to destroy the remaining elements of the defeated enemy.

Yesterday Saddam's criminal forces once again fired heavy and long-range artillery at some residential parts of Abadan. As a result of this dastardly act, 2 of our compatriots were martyred and 21 others were wounded.

On the western fronts, our fighters smashed some enemy positions and fortifications and killed some of Saddam's mercenaries. As a result of exchanges of fire on the western fronts, our forces succeeded in preventing the enemy from carrying out its activities and in disrupting its supply routes. They also destroyed one enemy tank and six vehicles and forced the enemy to put an end to its trench-digging operations.

The devastated town of Mehran was subjected to the long-range artillery fire of the Iraqi criminals during the aforementioned time.

Meanwhile, the Iranian forces continued their operations to discover and clear the minefields throughout the liberated western regions in which thousands of mines of various types are being defused everyday.

Further Operations

LD022140 Tehran IRNA in English 2003 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] Bakhtaran, Aug 2, IRNA -- The Iraqi Ba'thist forces sustained more casualties Sunday as their positions and hardware in the Iraqi regions of Zarbatiyeh, Rashan and Panjwin came under the accurate artillery fire of the Islamic combatants. In these regions several Iraqi soldiers were killed or wounded while the Iranian forces smashed 1 enemy tank, 2 vehicles and some bunkers.

In the western regions of Sumar, Naftshahr, Qasr-e Shirin, Tang-e Hovan, Tang-e Bishgan and Tang-e Tushaveh, exchanges of fire continued and the Iranian defenders inflicted losses upon the aggressor Iraqis.

MILITARY OPERATIONS IN SOUTHERN IRAQ REPORTED

LD022154 Tehran IRNA in English 1958 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] Ahvaz, Aug 2, IRNA -- More than 14 aggressor Iraqi soldiers were killed Sunday as the enemy positions in the Iraqi region of Saybah, beyond the Arvand River, were subjected to the Iranian artillery barrages which destroyed 1 106-mm gun and 1 120-mm mortar launcher of the Iraqis.

In another development today at least 5 Iraqi soldiers were wounded when the Iranian forces stormed the Iraqi positions in the Sayhan region, southern Iraq, smashing 1 calibre-75 machinegun.

IRAQI POW'S REFUSE TO MEET RED CROSS GROUP

LD011348 Tehran IRNA in English 1024 GMT 1 Aug 82

[Text] Tehran, Aug. 1 (IRNA) -- The Iraqi POWs, stationed in Heshmatiyeh base in Tehran, did not let the visiting International Red Cross [IRC] representatives enter the camp, and chanted slogans against Saddam, the U.S. and the Iraqi Ba'thist regime.

An Iraqi POW representative, [who] wished to remain anonymous, said that they were aware of the activities of the IRC. Therefore, they did not let them enter the camp.

He questioned the International Red Cross why they did not visit Saddam's notorious prisons, or why they did not go to Lebanon or Afghanistan where the Soviet Union massacred Muslims. He asked whether these representatives were informed of Saddam's planes bombing residential areas in Iran every day, killing women and children. He called for the substitution of IRC mission with an Islamic delegation.

It should be noted that the IRC is the only means for the connection of POWs with their relatives.

In March 1982, Iranian officials submitted a proposal to the International Red Cross representative in Iran concerning the families' visits to Iraqi and Iranian POWs. Also Iran proposed Turkey and Kuwait to be the place for the exchange of the POWs, but never received a response for its humanitarian measure from the Iraqi side.

CLANDESTINE REPORTS ON WEST AZARBAYJAN CLASHES

GF021638 (Clandestine) Free Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1500 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] According to our correspondent, following the intensification of unrest in Tehran and many provinces of the country, especially Azarbayjan, [name indistinct] and Chahar Mahal va Bakhtiari, the Khomeyni regime has issued an order for the arrest of (?a large number) of the opposition. Our correspondent states in his report: Khomeyni's guards in the past few days arrested some people in Tehran and Bandar-e 'Abbas. It was said that there were a number of army, gendarmerie and police officers among those arrested because they refused to cooperate with the suffocating, dictatorial and black regime of the mullahs. [indistinct passage including portions on denial of arrest of members of opposition groups by their spokesman]

In clashes occurring in West Azarbayjan Province, the armed Kurdish fighters were able to deal crushing blows to Khomeyni's guards and they captured the guard's supply route in Sar Dasht. In these attacks the armed Kurdish strugglers also captured a large amount of ammunition. A spokesman for the Kurdish fighters told our correspondent in Paris last night: Eight Kurdish fighters were martyred by Sunday afternoon. The number of guards killed up to yesterday afternoon is over 120 and probably around 138.

We have not yet received any exact reports about the results of these battles. However, the lie-disseminating Radio Tehran yesterday claimed that 100 "counterrevolutionaries" were killed in Kordestan.

NVOI CALLS FOR FREEDOM OF SPEECH, PRESS

GF241419 [Editorial Report] The clandestine National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran at 1730 GMT on 23 July carried a commentary, entitled "The Speech of Persons Loyal to the Revolution and the Truthful Should Not Be Stopped." It said that it is essential to judge what publications say in each case impartially on the merits of the case. Adherence to law and to remaining within the framework of the law is essential. It is very difficult for publications which follow the correct line of the imam to remain unconcerned and not to point out the truth. The delinquency of publications that belonged to progressive groups was judged to lie in the fact that they tried to uncover persons who are part of the revolutionary system but are undermining it.

When any publication, despite the dangers it faces, defends the line of the imam and that of the revolution, and writes something which is against certain persons in power or against their views, how can it be silenced? If constructive criticism is stopped it would only open the path to the enemies of the Iranian revolution and that of the masked opponents of the revolution. If all criticism is stopped, this would be what the enemies of the revolution and the world-devouring U.S. desire.

The curbs on speech have reached such proportions that certain persons within the loyal circles of the imam have also started complaining. What we would like to point out is that not every criticism should be dubbed as being counterrevolutionary. This can help the charlatans and saboteurs infiltrate revolutionary groups and strike the revolution from within.

The progress of our society depends on freedom of speech for all revolutionaries loyal to the revolution, the imam's line and the Constitution of the Islamic Republic. Silencing the speech of the people will benefit only counterrevolutionaries, those loyal to the previous regimes and American agents.

NVOI ASSAILS 'SUPERFICIAL, MONOPOLIST CLERGY'

TA291955 [Editorial Report] The clandestine National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran at 1730 GMT on 29 July carried two commentaries.

The first, entitled "Do Not Let the Tragedy of History Be Repeated," stated that one of the common tricks of the counterrevolution and America in the current conditions of our homeland is to implement every sort of subversive plan and plot under the mask of religion and by the hands of the pseudoclergy. The pseudoclergy and the superficial and monopolist clergy in fact constitute the reserve forces of the counterrevolution. Every now and then the counterrevolution and its Western supporters call into service a pawn from among these forces in order to plot against the Islamic Republic and the imam's line. Let us not forget that those who plan America's policy with respect to our Islamic Republic have always recommended that their agents in Iran infiltrate the clerical community in any way possible, and to implement the CIA's programs in the guise of religion.

During the past 2-3 months, in the course of discussion over the government's bills regarding urban lands, the nationalization of foreign trade and so forth, we all saw how the opponents of the revolution and the imam's line operate under the mask of religion. This fact must be realized with full responsibility and must not be forgotten even for one moment. This bitter fact is being observed by all clear-sighted officials the truly militant clergy and all the true revolutionary forces. They are observing that a group of people has made the cloak and the turban a means for obstruction, lawbreaking, promotion of corruption, and even bribery and counterrevolutionary plots. Today these elements are putting under blows the dissenting revolutionary forces committed to the revolution and also every person that tells the truth. If they are not dealt with, tomorrow they will attack the clergy who are loyal and faithful to the imam's line. History has repeatedly and in various instances shown such calamitous developments. Do not let this tragedy of history be repeated.

The second commentary, entitled "Do Not Ignore the Vital Issue of Struggle Against One-Dimensional Superficials and Ignorant Monopolists," said:

Our nation eliminated the treacherous apparatus of Bani-Sadr and his followers. After a while the dangerous Qotbzadeh-Shari'atmadari plot was also neutralized by the self-sacrificing Iranian nation, and many of the elements of this plot were arrested. However, despite all this we are again witnessing the activity of the line of the Bani-Sadrs, the Qotbzadehs and the Shari'atmadaris. Currently the main role, wittingly or unwittingly, is being fulfilled by superficial and monopolist circles and by the line of the court preachers and the pseudoclergy, who are in some instances more effective than the blows of the great Satan and its fifth column in Iran. The endeavor of superficial and monopolist circles is more than anything else aimed at separating our homeland from its friends, both in the international arena and within the country.

In order to promote this inauspicious and harmful mission they resort to various ruses, tricks, plots and conspiracies. Their big and permanent tool in confronting the imam's popular and anti-imperialist line was and remains to intensify as much as possible the struggle against the true friends of the Islamic Republic's system on the international scene and within the country.

In order to isolate the Islamic Republic of Iran, the court preachers and the pseudoclergy, the one-dimensional superficials and the ignorant monopolists always and everywhere and more than anything else raise the name of the Soviet Union, and even stick the label of communism on the Islamic authorities.

The interests of the revolution and the Islamic Republic dictate that this line be decisively exposed and crushed. The suppression of the line of the court preachers, the one-dimensional superficials and the ignorant monopolists is a revolutionary necessity, since it is becoming evident day by day that if the followers of this line are not dealt with decisively the resulting damages will more than ever be suffered by the main line and the imam's line.

The publication adds that the fm radio transmitter of Kish Island went into operation last week with the assistance of technical personnel from Tehran.

GULF ARABS URGED TO RENOUNCE SADDAM, U.S.

GF310933 Tehran International Service in Arabic 0700 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Commentary: "The Indications of U.S. Desperation"]

[Text] Following each victorious offensive by the Islamic forces and following each shameful defeat of the Saddamist forces, the indications of [words indistinct] appear on the face of U.S. policy while the indications of despair and caution appear on the faces of the U.S. administration's officials. At one time they talk about the threat to the balance of forces in the region or about the threat of the Iranian victories to U.S. interests, and at another time they talk about the threat of war and [words indistinct], while at a third time they talk about securing the independence, integrity and safety of Iraqi and Iranian territories.

Thus, following the successful Ramadan Operation, the U.S. President called for an immediate cease-fire in the fighting and for a peaceful settlement through negotiations. It even expressed readiness to discuss with any state in the region the necessary steps to stop the war. But when it saw that the Islamic Republic of Iran is determined to regain its just rights and legitimate demands and determined to silence the Saddamist aggression and [words indistinct], its agent [word indistinct], it started to hold threatening maneuvers. These maneuvers included the deployment of part of its fleet in the Persian Gulf while it claimed that [words indistinct] and sent its spy planes to fly over the battlefield at a high altitude in order to observe events at a short distance and provide some military directives to Saddam's soldiers.

The (?U.S. administration) has started to address its agents in the region in a language of blame and regret over its allies who were not able to influence the stands of the Government of the Islamic Republic or to bolster the shaken regime of its agent Saddam, as the LOS ANGELES TIMES said on 25 July 1982.

Is there a need after all this for evidence to prove the association of the corrupt microbe, Saddam, and his aides with the mother of corruption, the United States, and to prove that they coordinate plans in order to fight the government of human justice in Iran and to attempt to crush the revolution of the oppressed? Is there any excuse left for the region's states which claim to be hostile to colonialism and loyal to Islam, which is the school of jihad as described by leader of the Islamic nation Imam Khomeyni? Do they have an excuse not to join hands with revolutionary Iran in order to eliminate Saddam and hence chop off America's hand from the region?

The excuses that some of the region's states used to use -- that is, their fear for Saddam's regime and their anxiety about the importance of U.S. friendship -- have fallen. Saddam's regime is on its deathbed and U.S. friendship resulted in nothing but an expansion of colonial influence and more intervention in the affairs of Islamic states' sovereignty. It is not appropriate for [words indistinct] to lose its dignity, shed the blood of its youth and spend the resources of its country for the sake of inferior U.S. agent Saddam.

However, we hope that all the region's states will reconsider their stands and be assured that revolutionary Iran is an Islamic power that is better for them than the United States, just as Imam Khomeyni, hope of the Islamic nation and (?exporter) of its revolution, said when he called for an Islamic attitude in accordance with the teachings of the Koran and said the Iranian Muslim people will be the brothers, supporters and defenders of those who stand with them to establish truth and abolish falsehood.

At this meeting the coming trip of the Iranian delegation to North Korea and the issues to be discussed by this delegation regarding forestry, pasture land, irrigation, fisheries, dam and canal building and the expansion of agricultural, economic and fishing relations between the two countries were discussed.

NVOI SCORES RELATIONS WITH PAKISTAN, TURKEY

TA302056 (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian to Iran 1730 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Unattributed commentary: "Turkey and Pakistan -- the Intermediate Base of World-Devouring America"]

[Text] Dear compatriots: Endeavor to expand friendly and cordial relations with two subservient countries of world-devouring America -- Ziaul Haq's Pakistan and the coupists' Turkey -- is still continuing. Some officials of the Islamic government, merely because both countries call themselves Islamic, are openly attempting to expand all-out relations with these allies of world-devouring America.

The assessment that has been made from one of the statements and elucidations by Mr Velayati, the minister of foreign affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran, about the necessity of expanding relations with Ziaul Haq's Pakistan, raises certain issues for deliberation that cannot be overlooked. After visiting Pakistan, Mr Velayati, with regard to the necessity of establishing relations with Pakistan, said the following: In view of the facts that both nations are Muslim, that the Persian and Urdu languages have common roots and numerous similarities, that the traditions and customs the people of the two countries of Iran and Pakistan have are very close, and in view of their Islamic religion, regardless of the kind of governments in both countries, our nation has always looked upon the Pakistani nation with a special attachment. Mr Velayati then draws the following conclusion: In my view it is natural for both countries to have correct and cordial relations and strong ties, and this visit was nothing more than a response to the need of the two nations and countries to expand relations.

This is the official view of our foreign minsiter regarding Ziaul Haq's Pakistan. As we are aware, on the one hand the opponents and the foes of the system of the Islamic Republic of Iran in particular, and the ignorant friends of the revolution on the other hand, by exploiting this view of the minister of foreign affairs, are striving to implement it as soon as possible on a very large scale and in all fields. Their calculation, too, is very obvious. That is, the more Iran's relations with Pakistan and Turkey, which are subservient to America, become more cordial and stronger, the counterrevolution and the great Satan will more easily be able to implement plots against revolutionary and anti-U.S. Iran.

Of course, no objection would have been raised if Mr Velayati had talked about the necessity of normal and commercial relations. Currently, while we are at war with Iraq, outwardly we have diplomatic relations and ties with it. So far the Iranian Government has maintained diplomatic relations even with countries that have up to now proved their opposition and hostility, including by participating in the economic boycott and by giving refuge to counterrevolutionary elements and remnants of the former regime and so forth. It has embassies in those countries, and this is normal. However, correct and cordial relations and strong ties are possible only with countries that truly support our popular and anti-imperialist revolution, and which have a consistent and decisive anti-imperialist policy and stance in the international arena.

To the acknowledgement of friend and foe, revolutionary Iran maintains a decisive anti-imperialist and anti-American stance. On the one hand, the cutting edge of the glorious revolution of the Iranian nation was aimed at world-devouring America and its allies, and on the other at its puppet regime in Iran. Following the revolution's victory, the liberals' Provisional Government, the ignorant friends of the revolution, and the steadfast opponents and foes of the Islamic Republic's system resorted to every plot, provocation, ruse and ploy to divert the Islamic Republic of Iran from the anti-imperialist line and then to restore the great Satan to liberated Iran. However, they did not achieve any result from their futile effort except the further perpetuation and expansion of the anti-imperialist line.

It is obvious that an anti-imperialist and anti-American country such as our homeland can never be accepted by countries like Pakistan and Turkey -- countries that are officially the base of the United States. Regarding the social system, there is no difference whatsoever between Pakistan, Turkey and the subservient regime of the accursed shah. At one time all three were members of the aggressive CENTO pact. Pakistan has secret bilateral military agreements with America, and Turkey is a member of the imperialist military NATO alliance. The United States has 27 huge military bases in Turkey, and the military domination of world-devouring America in Pakistan and Turkey is even much more extensive than the domination of U.S. imperialism in Iran during the era of Mohammad Reza, at least because of the reason that officially America did not have a military base in Iran.

Thus, there is not the slightest doubt that Pakistan and Turkey are puppets of the United States, and therefore the establishment and expansion of cordial relations with countries like Turkey and Pakistan which currently are fulfilling the role of an intermediary and an intermediate base for the penetration of imperialism and its elements into Iran cannot have any result other than the creation of possibilities for the restoration of the domination of the great Satan and the counterrevolution.

America and its allies are aware that in the current conditions they are not able to directly infiltrate into Iran. It is for this reason that they are using dependent regimes such as Turkey and Pakistan, under the Islamic mask, as a means for their penetration in various fields. The postrevolution events and the bitter experiences of liberated countries completely suffice for recognizing the true friends and foes of revolutionary Iran.

4 AUGUST 1982

Lebanon

Military Situation -- The IDF has begun an all-out offensive against west Beirut aimed at splitting the area in two, Monte Carlo radio reported early on 4 August. The Israelis have advanced on three axes, according to Beirut radio: westward from the museum area; southward from the port; and northward in the Al-Awza'i area, where a landing operation took place. Citing foreign journalists, Monte Carlo radio said that after 5 and 1/2 hours of fighting the Israelis were still in isolated areas near the racetrack and the museum and had not penetrated the Al-Barbir quarter. Meanwhile, the IDF spokesman denied that the Israelis are trying to split west Beirut in two and stressed that the current attacks do not constitute a full-scale invasion of west Beirut, Jerusalem radio reported. The IDF is tightening the siege of Beirut and strengthening its positions following repeated violations of the cease-fire by the "terrorists" in which 20 Israeli soldiers were wounded on 3 August, he said. Nevertheless, the radio reported that after massive artillery fire at "terrorist" targets, Israeli tanks and infantry were surrounding Al-Awza'i and threatening Burj al-Barajinah. Meanwhile, the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio claimed that the Palestinian-Lebanese joint forces and the Syrian units in west Beirut have repulsed all Israeli attempts to advance, destroying six tanks in the museum area, three more in the Al-Ghazzar area and thwarting a seaborne landing on the military beach. The previous day, the radio reported that the joint forces foiled an Israeli advance toward Al-Awza'i, destroying two tanks.

As a result of the latest fighting, hundreds of people have been killed or wounded in all parts of Beirut, Beirut radio said. The previous day, AFP noted a Lebanese police report that 963 Lebanese and Palestinians were killed in Lebanon and another 2,013 were wounded throughout July. Real casualties are greater because of the large number of bodies still buried amid rubble and because Israeli and Syrian military casualties are not included in this estimate, the report said. Meanwhile, Jerusalem radio said that up to 2 August the IDF captured 7,400 "terrorists" during the "Peace for Galilee" Operation.

PLO on U.S. Plan, Proposals -- The Lebanese-Palestinian military committee held a joint meeting with Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan to discuss the Palestinian plan for withdrawal from Beirut, which was drawn up after the PLO leaders had received the U.S. plan, Beirut radio reported. Afterward, Al-Wazzan met with Lebanese President Ilyas Sarkis, Foreign Minister Fu'ad Butrus and U.S. envoy Philip Habib. According to the radio, government sources said progress was achieved on the following points agreed on by the PLO to withdraw by land to Damascus, to abandon the demand to disengage its forces with the Israeli army, using an international force after Israeli withdrawal; to withdraw with only personal weapons; to withdraw over a 21-day period; and to demand a U.S. guarantee of safe passage out of Beirut. Further discussion is required on the timing of the withdrawal of the PLO leadership and its fighters, and the arrival of the international force. The PLO wanted the force to arrive as its fighters began to depart, or said it would agree to a country such as France deploying a force prior to withdrawal, the radio added. Contacts continued for the success of these proposals and Habib told former Lebanese Prime Minister Sa'ib Salam that the PLO will definitely be received by some Arab countries.

Meanwhile, Monte Carlo radio cited sources who said that within 2 days Syria will announce it will accept PLO leaders and fighters. In another report, an official Egyptian source cited by MENA said that remarks by Fatah Central Committee member Salah Khalaf in a Kuwaiti newspaper interview on ways Arabs can respond to the Lebanon crisis and the United States were "impractical" and "could not be taken seriously." In an address on 4 August carried by the Voice of Palestine, Khalaf urged fighters in Lebanon to continue their struggle until victory. In a commentary broadcast by the radio, Lebanese Front Military Commander Bashir al-Jumayyil was criticized for not taking a position against the Israeli "goal" of settling the Palestinians in Lebanon.

Israeli Position -- The IDF has not entered west Beirut but has tightened the ring around the PLO, Israeli Foreign Minister Yitzhaq Shamir told his U.S. counterpart George Shultz in Washington, Jerusalem radio reported early on 4 August. Earlier, in an interview with Jerusalem television, Shamir stressed the need to end the Beirut problem as soon as possible, preferably through political means. Meanwhile, Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon told IDF commanders in Beirut that Israel rejects U.S. envoy Habib's proposal that a multinational force enter Beirut after a first group of PLO fighters leaves the city, IDF radio reported. Sharon reaffirmed Israel's opposition to the entry of an international force before the "terrorists" leave the city, the radio noted. According to Jerusalem radio, Israeli officials were surprised by the UN secretary general's instructions that UN observers should enter Beirut without waiting for Israel's agreement.

'Ali Comments -- Egypt could not maintain normal diplomatic relations with Israel if it took over Beirut, Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali said in an interview with LE MONDE reported by AFP. He said the Lebanese crisis headed the agenda in talks with French President Francois Mitterrand.

Yemeni Leaders' Statement, Talks on Lebanon -- The presidents of the Yemen Arab Republic and PDRY held talks in Jidda with Saudi King Fahd on 3 August, SPA reported. SPA noted that a joint press statement after the meeting condemned the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and called for Arab solidarity in the face of Israeli "aggresssion." Later, the Yemeni presidents held talks in Damascus with Syrian President Hafiz al-Asad to discuss the Lebanon situation, Dasmascus radio reported.

Iran-Iraq War

Military Situation -- An Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio claimed that the Iraqis launched a counteroffensive on one of the Ramadan Operation fronts, but the Iraqi attack was repulsed. The Iranian Ground Forces commander said so much Iraqi equipment has been captured that the revolution guards formed complete armored units with Iraqi equipment, Tehran radio reported citing IRNA. The commander asserted that the war could have been over if Iran had just wanted to throw Iraq out of Iranian territory, but he said Iranian war strategy is based on "prophet-like policies" to put the "oppressor" in his place and restore Iran's rights.

An Iraqi military communique carried by Baghdad radio claimed that 187 Iranians were killed on operational fronts.

Iraq on Reparations -- In a statement reported by INA, an official Iraqi spokesman described the Iranian demand for war reparations as a "false, silly pretext" to continue the war against Iraq. He said Iran should accept international arbitration to end the war and to decide on reparations.

Baghdad Explosion Developments -- INA reported that the bomb which exploded in front of the Planning Ministry in Baghdad on 1 August resulted in 20 killed and 138 wounded. An Iraqi religious opposition group called the Iraqi Mujahidin Movement, whose members are followers of an Iraqi Shi'ite leader living in Iran, claimed responsibility for the explosion, AFP reported.

Libya

In a banquet speech in honor of Mozambique President Samora Machel on 2 August in Tripoli, Libyan leader Col Mu'ammar al-Qadhdhafi accused the United States of bribing some African leaders to boycott the African summit in Tripoli, JANA reported. He claimed he had documented proof of this and if the documents are released they would create a "big scandal."

KESHTMAND SPEECH AT 2 AUG GOVERNMENT SESSION

LD032148 Kabul Domestic Service in Dari 1600 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Speech by Soltan 'Ali Keshtmand, member of the PDPA Central Committee Politburo and chairman of the DRA Council of Ministers, at 2 August Council of Ministers session in Kabul -- recorded]

[Summary] Esteemed comrades: The Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum comprehensively discussed the important duty of our party under the present conditions of our society to strengthen political work among the people's masses. The report presented by Babrak Karmal to the plenum is of great importance and it adopted specific guidelines as an important plenum document for the organizations and party and government authorities and for all members of the party, social organizations and state officials. The DRA Government led by the PDPA, will be guided by the topics set out at the plenum and its resolution concerning its duties. The question of attracting the masses and support for the party in power depends mostly on the daily work of the government organs.

"The government is obligated to be consistently at the service of the people and to deal with the masses legally, lawfully and democratically and to demonstrate this in its daily activity. The observance of revolutionary legality by the state organs, including the state information services, sarandoy, the prosecutor's offices and various departments and institutions of the government who are permanently in contact with the masses, helps to further gain the confidence and trust of the people's masses in the party, the government and the revolution. Of course, maintaining revolutionary decisiveness promptly and when necessary is not only not contrary to revolutionary legality, it is implied by it."

The DRA Government makes every effort to consolidate all its efforts within the framework of democratic legality. All laws, decrees, regulations and important legal bills to date have been based on the DRA Basic Principles. In today's Council of Ministers session, too, we will discuss a number of such regulations in accordance with the requirements of work and the needs of society and the times. They will be submitted to the Revolutionary Council Presidium for final approval. Consolidation of the sovereignty and state and people's power in the regions and meeting the daily demands of the people are the principal tasks among the people's masses. Satisfying the urgent needs of the people and working to maintain their welfare will help the people to realize the benefits of the revolution and to rally around it further. Therefore, the DRA Council of Ministers is making efforts to resolve the country's major economic issues and to raise the level of agricultural and industrial production.

In addition to exploiting our own potential and resources, the economic aid of the socialist countries, in particular the Soviet Union, has an important rolein improving the living conditions of our people. The all-round aid of the USSR is a reliable foundation for the future socioeconomic prosperity of our country. The government pays serious attention to the planned socioeconomic development of the country. Thus, at today's session of the Council of Ministers the implementation of the government plan and budget during the first quarter of the year will be discussed. In the course of implementing the land and water reform in the country we should do political work among the peasants and expose the subversive activities of the counterrevolutionaries who are directly opposed to the interests of the peasants, and involve the efforts of the people in solving complicated social problems. It is the permanent duty of the DRA Government to satisfy the people's basic needs and to help them further organize their daily lives. This is the way to gain the confidence of the masses.

"Large amounts of goods-in-grant have been distributed to the needy in various parts of the country. They include large-scale aid from the Soviet Union, which has donated goods worth 100 million rubles to the DRA, much of which have been freely distributed to the needy. And we recall that with gratitude."

The Council of Ministers recently adopted necessary measures to provide enough basic goods and to consolidate the prices of foodstuffs in the country. The government now subsidizes some major consumer goods such as sugar, oil and others at great cost for the benefit of the people's masses. One of our other duties is to eliminate illiteracy. The Ministry of Education and Training will take necessary measures to strengthen political work, to improve the system of education in the country among the masses and to train youths with a revolutionary world outlook, lofty political and (?social) awareness and with patriotic spirit and service to the toilers.

"Comrades, one of the important factors in befriending the masses is the national question. Principled treatment of this matter [words indistinct] creates new, just and equal relations among the nationalities, tribes and ethnic groups of our country, Afghanistan, and renders sincere service on the part of the state organs."

The government must take necessary measures in the economic and social areas in regard to national questions as directed by the resolution of the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum. It will provide, without prejudice, foodstuffs, clothing and medicine to those regions which are in need of help and help the people reconstruct roads, hospitals, schools, mosques and other amenities.

"Babrak Karmal specified the tasks of the party and state organs in connection with the national question in his statement to the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum; he said in part that a revolutionary party and government believes in the principle that all the nationalities, tribes and ethnic groups of Afghanistan are equal in every way, as well as regards access to economic, social and moral development and utilizing the gains of the April Revolution. But before everything else we ought to ensure that the specific essence and contents of our national policy are correctly understood by the people. To do this we must make effective use of the press, radio, television, propaganda leaflets and other means through the representatives of the people, nationalities, tribes and ethnic groups. The leaders, elders of the tribes, ulema and religious leaders, teachers and other experienced people should be given great importance. The government assigns the state organs and the local organs of state power, alongside the party organs and the organs of the National Fatherland Front and other social organizations, to work and act consistently in implementing this instruction of the party Central Committee.

"In connection with the importance of the country's mass media, the fruitful and great assistance of the Soviet Union in this area must be recalled and emphasis must be placed on the effective and maximum use of the machinery and equipment put at the disposal of the DRA by the Soviet Union. In implementing the progressive and popular policy of our revolutionary state and party, the progressive peace-seeking foreign policy of the DRA must be explained and propagated via the mass media. The people ought to know clearly that the peace-loving policy of the Soviet Union, supported by peace-loving forces, is the guarantor of world peace. The Soviet peace proposals and initiative are a source of inspiration and [word indistinct] for all progressive forces in their peaceful work and (?foils) the warmongering conspiracies of imperialism. The internationalist foreign policy of the Soviet Union toward Afghanistan and its political, moral and material support are consolidating the pillars of revolution, sovereignty and independence of our country and are maintaining freedom and tranquillity for our people.

"The broad masses of our people must also realize that the aggressive and criminal policy of international imperialism, primarily U.S. imperialism in collusion with Chinese hegemonism, is hostile to peace, progress, freedom, humanity and the security of the peoples of the world."

(?Pursuing) this aggressive imperialist policy with its reactionary collaborators, the criminal rebels continue their subversive activities in our country and the intervention of imperialism and reaction in the domestic affairs of our country is continuing unabated.

"Comrades, our people need peace and security in the country for healthy and reliable socioeconomic development and for creating a new life. The April Revolution has (?provided) extensive opportunities for implementing economic development (?plans) and for improving the living conditions of our people. It is necessary to maintain peaceful conditions for the work and (?life) of the people. In order to create such conditions it is necessary to struggle to eliminate completely the mercenary bands of rebels infiltrated from abroad.

"To accomplish this task and to defend the revolution is not a duty which has been laid only on the shoulders of the PDPA or a certain group of the people of our country. All present and future generations of all the people of Afghanistan and all the tribes and ethnic groups in the country are (?benefitting) from the revolution and its fruits. As Babrak Karmal said in his report to the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum, the noble essence of the revolution belongs equally to all. This (?symbol) of equality and the equality of rights not only has been officially announced by the revolutionary government and state but it has also been confidently implemented through the laws regulating the practical activity of the party and government.

"Therefore, it is the duty of all workers and patriots of the country to defend the revolution and its gains. Of course, this honorable patriotic duty is carried out under the leadership of the PDPA, as the political vanguard of the toilers of Afghanistan.

"The DRA Armed Forces are playing a decisive role in crushing the counterrevolutionaries. Joining the ranks of the armed forces is a proud duty and is [words indistinct] in defending the revolution, the national sovereignty of the country freedom and the future prosperity of the people.

"In his report to the plenum, Comrade Karmal said in this regard that we ought to intensify blows at the enemies; the successes gained ought to be consolidated and extended and must be made decisive and irreversible. All this is directly and insolubly linked with the further strengthening of our armed forces and maintaining and improving them from the point of view of providing suitable individual training and enhancing (?party) moral and political awareness of the troops, NCO's and officers. Thus the DRA Government has taken necessary measures for further strengthening the country's armed forces and further filling their ranks. And these measures will be put into practice.

"Comrades, it was stated in the plenum report that the tried and tested method of influence on the masses is to talk, meet [words indistinct] and direct word [words indistinct] of the party with them. If party members have other duties and responsibilities, they are still obliged to maintain direct contact with the masses, meet them, talk to them and convey the criticism of the party to them. Practical experience has always shown the effectiveness of this method. [Words indistinct] previously, according to the instruction of Comrade Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the DRA Revolutionary Council, a plan has been prepared by the Council of Ministers by which ministers, deputy ministers and heads of department, enterprises and the main state organs would travel to the (?capital), provinces and regions of the country. [Words indistinct] would be obliged to travel to provinces and some districts. The governors of provinces, districts and subdistricts should go to the villages and regions of the country.

"The purpose of these trips, in addition to inspecting departments and enterprises and evaluating their work, is to maintain contact with the masses, talk to them. Tend to their complaints and demands and answer their questions. Those officials, during the meetings with the people and [words indistinct], should agree to carry out any possible beneficiary works within their authority, and later they should fulfill their pledge."

"According to the duties specified in the PDPA action program to ensure that the words of the party and government reach the ears of the toiling masses, and for the implementation of the resolutions of the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum, and in accordance with the resolutions of the PDPA Central Committee Secretariat, a specific radio and television program has been prepared for each minister, so that people can become familiar with the social, economic and cultural plans of the party and government and with the tasks which have already been accomplished. According to this program, each member of the Council of Ministers will deliver speeches on radio and television concerning the duties and affairs of his ministry and the texts of these speeches will be published in the newspapers and journals.

"Comrades, in the documents of the Ninth PDPA Central Committee Plenum, important and specific duties have been allotted to the Council of Ministers, all ministries, state organs and departments. These duties should be performed properly and with merit in addition to other day-to-day duties. In these matters, any kind of carelessness and inattention will not go unquestioned. Each of the ministries and governmental departments are obliged to specify their duties according to the plenum report and resolution and should take immediate steps to carry them out. Thus the Council of Ministers will be able to accomplish completely and consistently its duties as specified by the plenum.

"Forward to new victories and to the implementation of the resolutions of the PDPA Central Committee Plenum!" [applause]

AFP ON NEW AMENDMENTS TO CONSCRIPTION LAW

BK031539 Hong Kong AFP in English 1352 GMT 3 Aug 82

[By Dilip Ganguly]

[Text] New Delhi, Aug. 3 (AFP) -- Afghan Army patrols have descended on the capital Kabul rounding up all men of military age for enlistment in the guerrilla war against Moslem insurgents opposed to the Soviet-backed government of Babrak Karmal.

Diplomatic sources said here today the new mobilization drive preceded and followed the toughest military enlistment decree yet issued by the Karmal government.

The decree, announced last night by Radio Kabul, makes military service compulsory for all men up to the age of 35. It also increases the conscription period from two to three years.

Diplomats who monitor developments in the embattled country said the enlistment drives also followed a propaganda campaign in the state-controlled news media saying workers in the factories and members of the Kabul municipal corporation were volunteering to join the army to counter the "anti-revolutionaries."

The army groups, armed with the new decree, were making indiscriminate arrests of people resisting the draft, diplomats said.

A young boy, who tried to avoid a military patrol in the Wazir-Akbar Khan District of the city, was shot in the back by a patrol. In another incident, a young man who resisted drafting was severely beaten up before being dumped in a truck.

The decree further stipulates that reservists under 39 years of age also will be called up for two years' military service. Similarly, those who were discharged before 1978 -- the year the first Marxist coup in Afghanistan -- and who are under 36 years old will be drafted for another two years.

Yesterday's decree climaxed the efforts of the Afghan Government to strengthen the country's armed forces which have depleted considerably from desertion to the ranks of the Moslem insurgents, diplomatic area experts said.

According to official Afghan publications, the strength of the armed forces before the Marxist coup stood at 110,000 men, with the infantry accounting for 100,000 and the rest made up by the air force.

Since then there have been several cases when soldiers defected en bloc to the insurgents. The defections reached an alarming proportion after the Soviet armed intervention in December 1979.

According to diplomats, the total fighting strength of the Afghan Armed Forces was currently around 30,000 to 48,000 men.

Meanwhile, diplomats here said that the insurgents had succeeded in forcing the withdrawal of Soviet-backed government troops from parts of the Paghman area, about 20 kms (12 miles) northwest of Kabul.

Paghman -- a former royal summer resort of the Afghan kings -- was the scene of fierce fighting between the government troops and insurgents in recent months.

Diplomats said rebels entrenched in the Paghman mountains had received new supplies of arms and were planning a counterattack on government strongholds. There was, however, no independent confirmation of this.

They reported heavy fighting in the Farah and Lowgar Provinces. In the Lowgar Province, bordering Kabul, the Soviet-Afghan forces razed many areas apparently with air and ground armoured attacks. There were reports of many casualties, the diplomats said without giving figures.

iplomats said in the Qandahar city (Qandahar Province borders the Sovier Union) there was no government administration. The only checkpoint on the strategic Kabul-Qandahar road was manned by insurgents. There was, however, no independent confirmation of this either.

On July 26, a Soviet Air Force transport aircraft crashed near the Baghram military air base, north of Kabul. Though insurgents claimed responsibility for the downing of the aircraft, diplomats quoting well-informed sources said it might have resulted from a technical failure.

They said they had been told by a well-informed source that Lieutenant General Gol Aqa, chief of the Political Department of the Afghan Armed Forces, had been sacked.

The diplomats said they could not independently confirm the reports, but said if the reports were correct it could mean that the Soviets were determined to put an end to faction fighting between the Parchamites and the Khalqs -- the two factions of the ruling People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan (PDPA).

MUJAHIDIN DESTROY GOVERNMENT ARMS CACHE

GF021456 Karachi JASARAT in Urdu 31 Jul 82 p 1

[Text] London, 30 Jul (AAP) -- The mujahidin have completely destroyed a huge arms cache near Khavajah Rawash airfield and caused the loss of millions of rupees worth of government arms. The explosions were heard several miles away and smoke clouds and flames were seen from as far away as [word indistinct]. Soon after the incident the Karmal government increased the duration of curfew by two hours in several cities in Afghanistan. The cities include Mazar-e Sharif, Ghazni and Jalalabad.

Meanwhile, reports received from Zabol indicate that owing to differences between the Parcham and Khalq factions of the communists, two persons are claiming to have been appointed as governor of Zabol at the same time, which has created difficulties for the provincial administration.

SPOKESMAN DENIES AIDING ANTI-INDIA MIZOS

BK301227 Dacca Domestic Service in English 1205 GMT 30 Jul 82

[Text] A spokesman of the Foreign Office has expressed surprise over a statement reportedly made by Indian External Affairs Minister Narasimha Rao in reply to a question in the Indian Lok Sabha yesterday to the effect that the Indian Government has reason to believe that the elements of the Mizo National Front have been operating from the Chittagong hill tracts area of Bangladesh.

The Bangladesh spokesman categorically denied this contention and stated that the Bangladesh Government has repeatedly assured the Indian Government that it would not allow its territory to be used for hostile activity against the Indian Government.

INDIAN ALLEGATIONS OF DISCRIMINATION PROTESTED

BK311454 Dacca Domestic Service in English 1205 GMT 31 Jul 82

[Text] Bangladesh has categorically rejected as motivated, mischievous and totally baseless allegations being made in certain sections of the Indian media and (?projected) in a statement reportedly made in the Rajya Sabha on Monday last [26 July] by Murlidhar Chandrakant Bhandari, a member of the ruling party from Maharashtra, to the effect that laws enforced in Bangladesh governing enemy or vested property are being executed by the present government with discriminatory intent against the minority Hindu community in Bangladesh.

A Foreign Office spokesman in Dacca today expressed deep concern and surprise not only on the contents of such allegation, which has been made without any effort to ascertain or verify facts, but also the timing, when both countries have been actively engaged in creating a friendly climate conducive to improving their bilateral relations.

The spokesman pointed out that the facts of the matter clearly belie the calculated attempt to obstruct good-neighborly relations and to interfere in the purely domestic affairs of a friendly neighboring state while attempting to create dissension of a communal nature.

He stated that the law governing treatment of vested and enemy properties has been enforced for the last 17 years and has been executed by the successive governments since 1965, including the Bangladesh government-in-exile established during the war of independence and by the first Bangladesh Government. The de facto Government of Bangladesh sitting at Mujibnagar to its proclamation of independence declared that all laws which were in force in the erstwhile East Pakistan continued to be the laws of Bangladesh. In 1972, by President's Order No 29 of 1972, the Government of Bangladesh declared that all properties vested or managed by any board constituted by or under any law of the former Government of Pakistan were deemed to have been vested in the Government of Bangladesh on and from 26 March 1971.

The spokesman pointed out that the present government came into power on 24 March this year and orders promulgated by them in April this year contained nothing new in respect of vested property but only executed the law which has been in existence over the last 17 years. He stated that the martial law regulation has (?overall) application and is applied to all citizens of Bangladesh irrespective of religion. The legal position, therefore, is quite clear and there is no question of discrimination against any person or minority group within the country.

The spokesman expressed shock at the inference that the martial law regulation is discriminatory with regard to the minority community in Bangladesh, for the record of communal harmony is one which the government feels has undoubtedly set an example in the region.

The spokesman further stated that the reference to the present government's well-intended order is not only a gross distortion of fact but is an undisguised attempt to interfere in the internal affairs of a sovereign state. In this context the spokesman stated that the conclusions arrived at regarding the fear and widespread exodus are both malicious and unfounded. The Government of Bangladesh is deeply disturbed by the fact that false allegations had accompanied similar statements regarding the Mizos, South Talpatty and bases in St Martine Island in quick and close succession and sincerely hoped that there will be an immediate end to such references in the interest of good and friendly relations which both countries consider vitally necessary.

EXPRESS CALLS FOR DEMOCRATIC RULE IN PAKISTAN

BK021500 Delhi INDIAN EXPRESS in English 29 Jul 82 p 6

[Editorial: "Zia's Dilemma"]

[Text] The reported advice of the Pakistan council of Islamic ideology against holding elections on non-party lines shows that even fundamentalist conscience-keepers can be realists up to a point. The council, which is supposed to guide the Pakistan polity along the Islamic path, has said that perpetuation of the ban on parties would bring disrepute to Pakistan. That the council's own ideas on the political system suitable for the country hardly fit in with democratic concepts recognised elsewhere is another matter. For instance, it suggests that only parties with a firm faith in the Islamic way of life and ideology be allowed to function. Further, it is against the formation of any party-based government; it insists on a coalition.

Curious as these ideas are, it is noteworthy that even a body by no means unfriendly to the regime should plead for restoration of representative government in some form. This evidently is not what President Zia had expected. Hence his reported rejection of the advice. He has put the ball back in the council's court by asking for a more "practicable suggestion".

As it happens, the military regime is under pressure from other sides also. Prof Ghafoor Ahmed, leader of the defunct Jami'at-e Eslami, recently rapped the government for its failure to redeem the promise of transferring power to the elected representatives of the people. And now a front of regional groups has called for an interim government formed by political leaders to pave the way for democratic rule, with the president and chief martial law administrator meanwhile remaining in the saddle. Some retired generals have also spoken against indefinite continuation of army rule.

All this accentuates President Zia's dilemma. If ever he is to make good his promise, however, the time to do so, or at least to make a beginning, is now. He is on a strong wicket internally as well as externally. The economy is in fairly good shape and the administration is in control of the situation even in volatile regions like Baluchistan. Outside, the regime has won appreciation by projecting a sober and pragmatic line, especially in regard to India, Afghanistan and the Soviet Union. Logically, the same approach should prevail in internal policies, too.

HAMEED, IRANIAN DELEGATION DISCUSS NONALIGNED

BK031248 Colombo International Service in English 1045 GMT 3 Aug 82

[Text] The visiting five-member Iranian delegation met Minister of Foreign Affairs Shahul Hameed in Colombo yesterday for talks on further strengthening the friendly relations between the two countries. Leader of the delegation, Ayatollah (Ibrahim Amini) said that Iran was particularly anxious to encourage cooperation in the economic sphere among Third World countries. The Iranian delegation explained their position to the minister on the venue of the nonaligned summit.

Hameed said that the developments in the international field made it imperative that heads of state of nonaligned countries meet to discuss some of the major economic and political issues concerning Third World countries. He stressed that every endeavor should be made to ensure the continuity of nonaligned summits which had been a regular feature since 1970.

Hameed noted that in fairness to the membership of the movement he would make it clear that the nonaligned countries who propose to attend the Baghdad summit should not be considered as supporting Iraq. In the same way, those who are seeking a change of venue or postponement of the summit should not be considered as supporting Iran.

IRAQI GROUP THREATENS ACTION AGAINST SUMMIT

LD040940 Tehran IRNA in English 0906 GMT 4 Aug 82

[Text] Tehran, Aug 3 IRNA -- An official of the Iraqi Mujahidin Movement here threatened today that if the heads of the nonaligned countries participated in the upcoming nonaligned summit conference (due to be held in Baghdad in September) "we would act against their lives."

Speaking in an interview with IRNA here, the Iraqi mujahidin official further disclosed new details on the recent bomb blast at the building of the Iraqi Interior and Planning Ministry in Baghdad (on Sunday).

He said the bombing was engineered by 'Abu Balal', a member of the movement who was a follower of Imam Khomeyni's line. The official of the Iraqi Mujahidin Movement added that Abu Balal was martyred after he drove a car carrying 250 kgs of TNT explosives into the building of the Iraqi Ministry of Interior and Planning.

He said the objective behind the bombing was to indicate that Baghdad was not a secure place for the upcoming non-aligned summit conference and thus to prevent the summit from being held there. It was also to prove that the Iraqi mujahidin were on the alert against the Zionist-Ba'thist regime of Saddam, added the official.

ARMED FORCES JOINT STAFF COMMUNIQUE NO 1,005

LD031740 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1630 GMT 3 Aug 82

[Communique No 1,005 of the Joint Staff of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran]

[Text] In His exalted name. Dear compatriots, the battles and self-sacrifices of the combatants of Islam and the valiant warriors of the Armed Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran during the past 24 hours are hereby brought to your attention:

During the past 24 hours, fighting and exchange of fire continued in the Ramadan Operation sectors. On one of the fronts of the operational sector, the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries launched a counteroffensive at 1610 yesterday, but the victorious and powerful combatants of Islam crushed this last-ditch move of the enemy right at the start of the operations and repulsed the enemy counteroffensive, inflicting considerable loss and damages on the Saddamist forces. The battle and clashes ended at 1615.

On the southern fronts, the combatants of Islam bravely defended their defensive positions and, consolidating these positions, returned the fire of the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries; by silencing the fire of the aggressive Ba'thists, they did not give the enemy any chance to move or change positions. The combatants of Islam also inflicted some loss and damages on the Iraqi forces.

During exchanges of fire in the Abadan sector, the brave warriors of the gendarmerie set fire to positions and trenches of the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries, silenced their fire and inflicted some losses and damage on the Saddamist forces. These warriors also continued firing on the Al-Faw-Basra supply axis and prevented enemy movement along this axis.

The city of Abadan came under the artillery fire of the criminal Saddamist mercenaries yesterday. As a result, one house was destroyed and several of our dear compatriots in the region of Abadan were wounded.

The sporadic exchange of fire on western fronts of the country continued yesterday and, as on previous days, the fire was most intense in the Meymak region. The self-sacrificing combatants of the engineering department of the ground forces, in the Malekshahi and Chaghalvand sectors, are still busy collecting various types of mines planted by the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries and they are continuing their search.

In the Qasr-e Shirin region, the artillery fire of the combatants of the ground forces destroyed two trucks of the Saddamist forces and prevented the artillery fire of the Saddamist forces. On the Marivan and Paveh fronts, exchange of fire continued between the powerful forces of Islam and the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries.

Thanks to the timely fire of the air defense units in each border region, in the southern and western parts of the country, any aggression of the Iraqi Ba'thist mercenaries was repulsed and the enemy planes were forced to flee.

SAYYAD SHIRAZI ON CAPTURED IRAQI WEAPONRY

LD031250 Tehran Domestic Service in Persian 1030 GMT 3 Aug 82

[Text] IRNA reports that Colonel Sayyad Shirazi, the commander of the Ground Forces of the Islamic Republic of Iran, participated in a gathering of combatants and warriors of Islam in the mosque of one of the operational headquarters of the southern fronts last night. At this gathering he made a speech and said: After 23 months of the imposed war and the victory of the Muslims over all political, economic and military conspiracies hatched by the superpowers, no oppressive power will in future even think of destroying the Islamic revolution. He added: We do not expect help from any of the superpowers because, during these 23 months of imposed war, we witnessed the blessing of God and the strong determiniation of our combatants who, despite a shortage of military equipment, defeated the enemy and now, after throwing the aggressor out of the country, will not leave the enemy alone until he receives his just punishment.

Colonel Sayyad Shirazi then referred to the recent operations of the forces of Islam, especially the importance of the Ramadan Operation, and said: All in all, in these operations the enemy became the military supply source of the forces of Isalm, contrary to the expectations of the enemy's boss, the United States. So much so that the brothers in the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps have formed complete armored units from the weapons and armor taken from the enemy. Today, the weapons and modern equipment of the enemy are being used against them.

At the end of his speech, he referred to the divine motive of the combatants of Islam in their battle against the Ba'thist Zionist forces of Saddam and said: If we wanted to fight the enemy within the geographical boundaries on the ground, having thrown the Saddamist mercenaries out of the occupied territories of the Islamic Republic of Iran our war would be finished today. But since our war strategy is based on the prophet-like policies of theocratic rule, we will continue our battle to put the oppressor in his place and restore our rights.

LD031252 Tehran IRNA in English 0950 GMT 3 Aug 82

[Text] Tehran, Aug. 3 (IRNA) -- Iran is interested in participating in international organisations, like UNESCO, and while presenting its Islamic culture, it seeks to be informed about the realities of other nations, said Javad Mansuri, deputy foreign minister for cultural affairs, in his meeting with the secretary general of UNESCO, Amadou Mahtar M'bow, in Mexico, Friday morning.

In reply the UNESCO secretary general said that he was interested in Iran not only because of his position but as a person from the Third World and a Muslim. They also discussed mutual cooperation between Iran and UNESCO. The Iranian delegation stated that the major human problem in the world was man's carelessness towards spirituality and hoped that Iran would be able to introduce Islamic culture to the world via UNESCO.

Mr. M'bow said that UNESCO was an organisation where all beliefs and religions are represented and respected.

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTH ASIA REVIEW

6 AUGUST 1982

Lebanon

Israeli Position -- The Israeli Cabinet met for over 5 hours on 5 August and took a "hawkish" line in its decisions, Jerusalem radio observed. The Cabinet resolution read out over IDF radio asserted that UN observers will not be allowed -- if only for "practical" reasons -- to monitor the activity of "terrorist organizations" in and around Beirut; and it said a decision on the presence of Israeli troops will be determined after all the "terrorist" organizations leave Lebanon in accordance with the principle that all foreign forces leave Lebanese territory. The resolution stated that the presence of UN observers would signal to the "terrorists" that they do not have to leave Lebanon, and it averred that all 10 cease-fires were violated by "terrorist" groups. Jerusalem radio said the Cabinet meeting was "a victory" for Prime Minister Menahem Begin and Defense Minister Ari'el Sharon, with only three ministers criticizing the government. According to the radio, Begin told the Cabinet that U.S. envoy Philip Habib has hardly achieved anything and that Israel only reacted to enemy cease-fire violations in defense.

Prime Minister Begin has replied to the message sent by U.S. President Ronald Reagan on halting the fighting in Beirut. According to Jerusalem radio, Begin stated that it is not Israel that violates the cease-fires, so Reagan should not address this request to him. IDF radio said the reply message was formulated "with respect and politeness." It attributed Israel's pessimism to the failure of Habib to contribute any positive results. A Jerusalem source cited by MA'ARIV said the "sharp" message sent by Reagan could reinforce the PLO in its refusal to leave Beirut.

PLO Withdrawal Position, Messages -- The Palestinian leadership met with Lebanese Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan and gave him a new formula with a timetable for the withdrawal of PLO fighters from Lebanon, Monte Carlo radio reported. Voice of Lebanon radio revealed that in response to U.S. proposals, the PLO had agreed to withdraw half of its fighters when the multinational force arrives in Beirut and takes over Israeli positions, and the other half when the multinational force is completely deployed. The radio also said the PLO prefers to depart on French ships. Both Fatah Central Committee member Salah Khalaf and PFLP Political Bureau member Bassam Abu Sharif confirmed that the PLO is ready to withdraw from Beirut, according to Beirut and Damascus radio reports.

Al-Wazzan officially announced that the PLO had agreed to evacuate Beirut within 15 days, Jerusalem radio reported.

PLO Executive Committee Chairman Yasir 'Arafat received messages of sympathy and support from Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, Saudi King Fahd and French President Francois Mitterrand which were carried by the clandestine Voice of Palestine radio.

Military Situation -- Beirut was generally calm on 5 August although the "terrorists" violated the cease-fire several times, according to Jerusalem radio reports. The radio noted that Israeli forces had consolidated their newly captured positions in the southern and central sectors. Voice of Lebanon radio said the Palestinians had reinforced their positions and noted that shells had landed in the Jumhur area. Beirut radio reported that Israeli planes overflew the city. A boobytrapped car exploded outside the Alexander hotel in Al-Ashrafiyah, injuring nine people including three Israelis, the radio reported. On 6 August, Beirut awoke to a "painful calm" and people began to appear in the streets, the radio said.

Meanwhile, 12,000 people left west Beirut for "secure areas," Voice of Lebanon reported, even though they were urged by the popular conference of Islamic and Lebanese nationalist forces to remain in the city, according to Voice of Palestine radio.

USSR Message to Egypt -- The Soviet Government has presented the Egyptian Government with an "urgent" letter regarding the situation in Lebanon and the dispatch of UN observers, Cairo Radio reported.

Saudi-U.S. Contacts, Comment -- King Fahd was "satisfied" with the response he received from U.S. President Reagan when he asked Reagan to act to halt the Beirut fighting, SPA reported citing the Saudi information minister.

A commentary carried by Riyadh radio stressed that Arab patience on the Beirut situation has run out and the United States and the rest of the world will be held responsible if a "catastrophe" results. The USSR has adopted an attitude of "indifference" to punish the Arab states for not supporting its objectives, the commentary went on, adding that the USSR will not win new allies from this war.

Israeli-Egyptian Relations

Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hasan 'Ali stated that events in Lebanon will delay negotiations on the Palestinian autonomy section of the Camp David accords, Cairo radio reported. The same radio reported that the Egyptian ambassador to Israel warned that the invasion of Lebanon has affected Egypt's relations with Israel and he does not expect the Tabah talks to resume again soon.

Iran-Iraq War

An Iranian Armed Forces communique carried by Tehran radio claimed that artillery fire hit two Iraqi oil installations and that 20 Iraqis were killed or wounded in fighting on the Abadan front. IRNA reported that a "lightning" air raid on positions in Iraqi territory resulted in great enemy material and personnel losses.

Iran

Musavi-Tabrizi Remarks -- Prosecutor General Seyyed Hoseyn Musavi-Tabrizi told a press conference that Iranian security guards have succeeded in crushing almost 95 percent of the Mojahedin-e Khalq and Peykar forces, Tehran radio reported. He also said the trial of Sadeq Qotbzadeh will take place after further investigations.

Hajj Supervisor Appointed -- Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeyni has appointed Seyyed Mohammad Musavi-Kho'ini as his representative and supervisor of the Iranian hajj pilgrims, Tehran radio reported.

KARMAL REPORT TO PDPA CENTRAL COMMITTEE PLENUM

LD052126 Kabul in Dari to Europe 1730 GMT 2 Aug 82

[Text] Our dear listeners know that the PDPA Central Committee's Ninth Plenum was convered last week at the Revolutionary Council headquarters. We now present a shortened version of the test of the report given to this plenum by Babrak Karmal, general secretary of the PDPA Central Committee and chairman of the DRA Revolutionary Council: [read by announcer]

Comrades, the extensive conference of the PDPA, convened during February and March 1982, was a very important event in the history of our society and state. In the decisions of the conference, the PDPA action program and other resolved documents, an all-round and profound analysis was made of the present stage the national and democratic revolution. The necessary steps were taken to eliminate counterrevolutionaries, and the major tasks of Afghanistan's economic and social development, raising the level of the people's material and cultural life, further consolidation of party unity and increasing its leading role in the society and state were adopted and drafted. The party's nationwide conference maintained the experience of the PDPA's political and ideological activity in the new development stage of the revolution; it pointed out its positive and strong aspects as well as its shortcomings.

During the period which has elapsed since that conference, meetings and gatherings of members and party activists have been held in party organizations, in which the conference decisions were put under consideration and analysis. Party members highly evaluate the results of the conference's work. Their proposals and views help the speedy realization of its decisions and the improvement of political work among the masses of the people and are among the major conditions of our progress. The PDPA Central Committee, attaching prime importance to this matter, decided to discuss at this plenum the question of the party's tasks in strengthening political work among the masses. In the meantime it should be pointed out that such a decision is based on the principled dictates of revolutionary progressive theory, which is the guide for our action, the experience of the world revolutionary process and the present revolutionary reality of Afghanistan.

It is obvious that the task of attracting the masses and of accomplishing active and permanent work among them emanates from the character and essence of a truly revolutionary party because such a party reflects the intentions, demands and fundamental interests of the masses in a centralized form. It is on such a basis that such a party can become the vanguard and political leader of the people. The parties of the new era, thanks to the confidence, sympathy and active support of the masses, are strong and powerful. This is the guarantee of all their successes and victories.

Is not the experience of the great Communist Party of the Soviet Union, which relied on the broad masses of the people and which has gained victory in the most complicated and tense moments of its history with the blessing of the support and sacrifice of the masses, a proof of this claim of ours? And is not the (?victory) of the Vietnamese Communist Party blessed by the righteousness of this conclusion? Only the support of the masses helped this party to totally defeat much greater powers, first the French and then the Americans. They are now successfully resisting the aggressive policy of the Chinese hegemonists.

Contemporary history and time shows many such examples. But, on the other hand, the problem of relations between the party and the masses is also present and must be always considered. The point in question is this: That the confidence, trust and support of the masses for a ruling party cannot be gained once and for all. The party is dutybound to prove its suitability and merit for the people's confidence. If the party itself does not try to expand and strengthen its social base and to further improve organizational and political work among the masses it will be deprived of their support. Under such circumstances a party cannot succeed, cannot accomplish its historical mission and cannot meet the demands and aspirations of the people.

Comrades, we must not forget that such examples exist in the history of the world's revolutionary movements. We must learn from them and must always remember that the party's ability to work among the masses is one of the most important yardsticks of the party's seriousness and sense of responsibility and is one of the most important conditions for its final victory. Comrades, allow me to point out with all strength that this matter has an exceptional and extraordinary importance for party members and for all the revolutionaries of Afghanistan. As an example, the success of the April Revolution once again proves the truth of these words of the leader of the world's workers, who said: Under specific conditions and under suitable situations and conditions -- as it was on 7 April in our country -- a very (?small) party is enough to draw the masses of the people toward itself.

In specific moments, then greater organizations (?become necessary). But in order to succeed one must have the (?nucleus) of the masses. By profoundly considering and thinking about these words we can better understand the events of our recent past.

Let us remember how in the first days of the revolution Kabul and the entire country was overwhelmed with happiness and the people's enthusiasm. Let us remember the unforgettable atmosphere full of hopes and happiness which ruled the streets, lanes, grounds and the families of our simple compatriots. This atmosphere was created because our people waited a very long time to see a change; and they felt that our party is a party which struggles for such changes. Such an approach by the people resulted in the victory of the April Revolution. And for us, too, in order to rule the country and to realize the changes for which people have waited a very long time, it is necessary to have permanent, live and active support of the broad masses of the people based on the realization of our aims and policy.

But this demands consistent, serious and careful work among the masses. The party must become still closer to the workers. The party's activity must be deeply (?felt) by the masses. Only in such a way will the PDPA be able to follow and attain the future development of our people. Once again we refer to the words of the leader of the world's workers, who pointed out: A revolutionary party should carry out all its activity among the masses; it should attract only the best forces from among the masses and, at every step, it should realistically and carefully test and see that the link with the masses is maintained, and is this link alive or not? We must realize that we cannot solve any problems, be they international or military problems or be they socioeconomic or cultural problems, without the support of the masses.

The factors which necessitate strengthening the political work among the masses are:

1. Our revolution is faced with the country's serious backwardness and, therefore, it is necessary that during the process of revolutionary changes in addition to socioeconomic, political and cultural problems, religious, tribal, ethnic and other problems will also have to be solved. These numerous problems necessitate the broader participation of the people in the search for solutions. Furthermore, the masses should become politically aware and should receive broad training.

2. Ours is a heterogenous society which is undergoing a very acute class struggle. This demands that the party and the revolution make themselves attractive to all the workers and the broad masses.

3. The revolution is evolving under complicated international and domestic conditions. The counterrevolutionaries, the regional reactionaries and the imperialists have created a tense situation in and around Afghanistan. This, in turn, demands the further strengthening of national unity and unity around the party.

The PDPA, bearing in mind all these conditions, consciously pursues a policy of strengthening unity and coordinating the military, economic, organizational and training activities to enhance the effectiveness of all aspects of struggle and work.

After careful analysis of the new social experiences, the permanent satisfaction of the major material and moral needs of our society constitute the foundations of the ideological, theoretical and practical work of the party. This reflects the party's desire and effort to creatively put into practice the revolutionary theory according to the existing conditions of the country and our revolution.

Now let us analyze some aspects of our present political and military situation. Thanks to our recent measures, numerous rebel bands have been crushed and most of the country has been cleansed of them. Also, dissension has appeared in the enemy camp. Many band leaders have asked to talk with the representatives of the revolutionary government and have ceased their hostile activities against the state. Hundreds of rebels, realizing that they have been misled, want to return to their families and to their peaceful work.

The PDPA Central Committee and the Revolutionary Council welcome such individuals. That is the reason why we proclaimed an amnesty. There are, however, areas where the amnesty proclamation has not yet been sufficiently publicized.

Have we done all that we can in order that the truth of this decree and the stand of the DRA Government in this important matter is clarified and made as explicit as possible so that the remaining small number of deceived and misled individuals can learn of the truth? Moreover, is the necessary explanatory work being carried out in the villages and cities where the relatives of these people live so they can discuss with them the conditions under the revolutionary government?

Broader use must be made of all these possibilities. And explanatory work must be carried out more strongly and actively. The faster the masses realize the truth and the fruits of our policy and the party's and government's concern toward them, the faster they will accept us. We should intensify our struggle against our enemies, consolidate and expand the victories gained and make them decisive and irreversible. All these have a direct and unbreakable link with our armed forces which must be further strengthened by enhancing the fighting, moral and the political awareness of the troops, NCO's and officers.

Let us now analyze our economic conditions: In spite of the difficulties resulting from the activities of the counterrevolutionaries certain positive results have been achieved in the economic development of the country. For example, during 1360 [21 March 1981 to 20 March 1982] the national income increased by 3.4 percent in comparison to the previous year and was 94.3 billion afghanis. New establishments and projects in the areas of gas and food industries, communications, energy and public health were completed. New plants such as the Mazar-e Sharif fertilizer plant, the Kabul house construction plant, the Jangalak factory, bakeries and others were finished or improved. The production of electricity, cement, coal, construction materials and others have been increased. Analyzing the implementation of the plan for 1360 indicates that the earlier decline in the volume of production has ended.

We should note that the reform of the structure of the state administration organs is being accomplished. The level of production in the leading economic sectors is rising. Planning is being improved and control over the activity of the ministries and departments to implement the country's economic development plan and the decisions of the party and government have been strengthened. The party's general economic policy has been explained in the action program. We have realistically and carefully considered annual plans for the development of the country's economy as a whole and complex plans for every province which include definite economic measures for each.

It should be clear to all what has to be done. It is time for the entire state administration, all ministries, departments, committees and party organizations and the whole party to consistently and in a determined fashion move firmly toward practically realizing the stated goals and attaining the necessary results. We all must learn to struggle against bureaucratism, division, lack of discipline, irresponsibility and idleness, which are unfortunately still in evidence.

Although all these are inherited and are the legacy of the past social order, their remnants still exist in some individuals. The essence of our revolution, party and government are irreconcilable with these. The historical responsibility which the party has undertaken demands a new rhythm in the movement. Our great mission should be realized within a very short time.

The PDPA Central Committee, the Revolutionary Council and the DRA Government will vigorously investigate the activities of [words indistinct] staff. Undoubtedly we will; the lofty feeling of responsibility, strong discipline and the high standard of demands toward accomplishing tasks quickly and consistently well will become routine in the life of the party and the government. Only in such a way will our policy become effective, our work specific, and our influence on the masses broad. Of course, until the complete extermination of the counterrevolutionaries there will be many difficulties. Therefore, the people must know that if their material conditions do not improve or, in some cases, deteriorate, it is because of the actions of counterrevolutionary saboteurs and the servants of reaction and imperialism who are inflicting damages on our factories, establishments and mines; who destroy roads and set fire to hospitals, mosques and schools.

The PDPA Central Committee and the DRA Government will take every possible measure toward the development and consolidation of the economy, so the work of industry, agriculture and all branches of social production and social services will be stable and the people of the country can live better.

Comrades, the condition of the party and its internal organization and the degree of unity of its ranks have a most decisive impact on political work among the masses. The PDPA, despite the difficult conditions of struggle, is strengthening and [word indistinct]. The full and candidate members of the party currently number more than 70,000. The composition of the party ranks is being improved and the proportion of workers and peasants among the party members has increased from 23 to 48 percent. Since the national party conference, this figure among the new candidate members has increased to 48 percent and in some provinces even reaches 60-80 percent.

The constant development of the PDPA is extremely important. This process must be developed and encouraged. The party ranks are dutybound to pay constant and increasing attention to this trend. The point is not only to involve new members in the party; the most important thing is that they represent the broadest masses of the toiling people.

The involvement of a substantial number of workers and peasants is [word indistinct] a new phenomenon in the history of our party and, of course, a number of party workers, despite requirements, are not observing all its phases clearly and properly. As a matter of fact, the involvement of a worker, peasant and soldier in the party is merely the beginning of the work; their involvement and active participation in the life of party and government organizations and broad political work among the masses -- of which they themselves are part — is a clear and serious requirement, as they know and perceive very well the spirit, mentality, desires and wishes of the people and it is easier for them to talk with the people. Worker and peasant members of the party have a massive impact on the masses, as the people listen to them more. Any party member who generates mistrust and lack of confidence must be decisively removed.

There is another important new process: The organizational (?structure) of the party is being constantly enhanced and broadened. Committees and new organizations, including primary organizations, are being created among the people. Hundreds more new organizations are being created in comparison with 1360 and this increase is still continuing.

The party committees must pay constant attention to building up party organizations, in particular in districts, subdistricts, villages and educational institutions, and enhancing the leadership activities and consolidation of these organizations.

The more members it has and the more they enjoy better consolidation, the more possiblities the PDPA will have for work among the masses. All comrades must daily search and find the ways and new methods of expanding and extending the party's political influence in society.

There is another problem of internal party life which we should discuss. This is the problem of unity. Time and again talks have been held on this issue, particularly at PDPA Central Committee plenums and at the national party conference. Positive changes have taken place in this regard, but they are not sufficient. In this task we have not yet succeeded in creating in all party levels an atmosphere of full trust, mutual understanding and complete quantitative [as heard] and friendly joint work.

We know that we cannot immediately remove the consequences and the undesirable inherited disagreements of so many years, or the reciprocal hurts and impatience; but we should not allow these feelings to overpower rationality. That which separated us before no no longer exists. And the past will never return. For the real revolutionary and genuine patriot, the interests and order of the party must be supreme above all else; and this means that today we members of the party must be in unity and in cohesion more than ever before.

For those who damage unity there is no [word indistinct] there are still people who are striving to give (?special) interpretations and explanations to every reality and even to positive words, so as to excite unnecessary feelings and tension and to distract the party members' attention from the major issues. Let everyone know that we will implement with [word indistinct] relentlessness and decisiveness, the decision of the national party conference in this regard. That is to say, we will (?train) those who make mistakes and punish those who do not want to abandon their past inspirations and mentality.

BAKHTAR CRITICIZES SWEDISH 'AFGHANOLOGIST'

LD060550 Kabul BAKHTAR in English 0415 GMT 6 Aug 82

[Excerpts] Kabul, August 5 BAKHTAR -- The commentator of the committee of the BAKHTAR information agency writes:

Western media have displayed great zeal recently in publicizing the products of the wild imagination of one Karl Schmeir, supposedly an "Afghanologist" on the situation in Afghanistan.

The reason is that Karl Schmeir, in an article published in Swedish daily DAGENS NYHETER, has proved to be quite original in composing a fantasia of horror with the use of the most novel slanders and insinuations against the limited military contingents of the Soviet Union which are presently stationed in the DRA.

Alluding to certain imaginary events in his article and then discovering an analogy between these non-existent incidents and the real and bloody events of Song May, a Vietnamese village where the American GI's had carried out a mass murder of all residents including women, children and old men, Karl Schmeir has tried not only to create misgivings and false notions about the real state of affairs in Afghanistan, he has at the same time tried to whitewash in the eyes of public opinions the U.S. murderers who conducted a dirty war against a sovereign Vietnam creating many Song Mays and My Lais for more than a score of years.

What are the facts, anyway? First, all the allegations levelled by Karl Schmeir are absolutely baseless and frivolous.

Second, the fact recognized even by many colleagues of Karl Schmeir in the imperialist propaganda machine is that active in the country are groups of armed counterrevolutionary bandits who have been trained abroad, are based abroad, and are exported to Afghanistan for carrying out plunder, loot, arson and killing.

Third, while there exists no testimony whatever for the slanders made by Schmeir and his like, one can see in Afghanistan shrieking testimonies of the crimes committed by the hirelings of imperialism since the victory of popular Sawr Revolution in Afghanistan in the form of burnt mosques, schools and hospitals, blown up bridges, and widows and children bereaved of their near and dear because of his love for people, for revolution, for progress and knowledge.

If Karl Schmeir had an iota of knowledge about present day Afghanistan he would have known that there is no mass base at all for the so-called mujahidin, who are actually crusading against knowledge, progress and culture. The people throughout the country are growingly coming out arms in hand to eliminate these murderers financed by imperialist circles.

No doubt the trainers and mentors of these bandits are the same people who are responsible for criminal tragedies like Song May in Vietnam, Chile, El Salvador and so on.

Every new victory scored by the Armed Forces of the DRA in eliminating the remaining pockets of these bandits is welcomed by the people.

Now the people with honest cooperation with the party and the state foil the plots of the counterrevolution before they are realised. The counterrevolution, which cannot rely on the masses and the masses are not cooperating with them, are resorting angrily to the massacre of innocent people beside their several other crimes at the instigation and order of their foreign masters.

Mr Karl Schmeir in his article is trumpeting about the nature of the presence of Soviet limited military contingents in this country. We express decisively that as expressed in all the official statements of the DRA, the Soviet Union's limited contingents are in our country at the request of the legal Government of DRA only to repell the aggression of imperialism, and that it is only the heroic Armed Forces of the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan who are fighting heroically in the operations against the bandits, assault on the last vestiges of the counterrevolution and relying on the cooperation of the peoples masses and their direct and active participation.

Earlier, before leaving Honolulu for Tokyo, Mrs Gandhi told newsmen that she is leaving the United States with a definite feeling that her visit will help generate friendship and better understanding between the two nations.

The important thing now is to build up on this achievement, she said. She had not come to the United States with any specific agenda. She had reviewed a wide range of subjects with President Reagan and his colleagues. It is for the officials to follow it up later, she added.

In reply to a question, the prime minister said she has sensed a warm response to her visit, not only at the official level, but also at the level of the people.

ISLAMIC COUNCIL'S RECOMMENDATIONS TO HAQ

GF050435 Islamabad THE MUSLIM in English 27 Jul 82 pp 1, 6

[Shamsul Islam Naz report on final recommendations of Council of Islamic Ideology presented to President Ziaul Haq -- date not given]

[Text] Faisalabad, July 26 -- Despite the passage of half a decade since the assumption of power by the present regime and its all out endeavors to promulgate a form of govt. according to the norms of Islamic jurisprudence, the task is still half way. Nevertheless the Council of Islamic Ideology [CII] have presented their final recommendations to President Gen Ziaul Haq in the form of a 21-point draft enabling him to hold national elections in due course and to formulate a government in keeping with the ideology of Islam.

The salient features of the draft recommendations are the formulation of a federal government in Pakistan whose members should be elected on the basis of adult franchise; fixation of an age limit of 21 for voters; right of vote for the women folk who shall also be entitled to proxy through first of kin ('namehram').

According provincial status and provincial autonomy to the existing administrative divisions of the country, right of vote to non-Muslims, bi-cameral Majlis-e Shoora, pre-qualification of graduation or equivalent degree and a fair knowledge of religious moral code and/or graduation from any recognised religious institution. The consensus of the CII has been averse to the holding of elections on non-party basis and have recommended separate electorates.

[1.] The separate electorates: The basic pre-requisites for candidature for presidential seat has been an unstinted faith in Islam and minimum age limit of 40. The recommendations envisaged above have been authenticated by 14 members of the CII chaired by Mr Justice (retd.) Tanzeel-ur-Rehman.

The twenty-one points for which the CII has given its recommendations are as follows:

1. Aims and objects of an Islamic state.
2. Adult franchise.
3. Minimum age limit of voters.
4. Right of vote for women.
5. Right of vote for non-Muslims.
6. Status of Majlis-e-Shoora.
7. Conduct of Majlis-e-Shoora.
8. Party system vis-a-vis elections.
9. Unicameral or bicameral legislature.
10. Pre-qualification for the president.
11. Should the presidential election be direct or indirect.
12. Precondition for candidature.
13. Voters' qualifications.
14. Age limit for candidates.
15. Separate electorate.
16. Electoral college.
17. Should the president be subordinate of the shoora?
18. Electoral college for the president.
19. Tenure for head of the state.
20. Right of the president's election to parliament or the masses?
21. Preparation of a report and self presentation by candidates.

Main highlights of the draft recommendations of the above 21 points are listed hereunder:

Aims and objective of Islamic state: Supreme power would vest with Allah whose dictates shall govern various facts of life while the function of power are the masses and the agents of government are responsible for promulgation of a form of government according to the dictates of Allah. In other words the government would deputise Allah the Almighty for promulgating the ideology of Islam with a view to devising ways and means for doing so. The basic principle of the recommendations is the initiation of Islamic values, injunctions and ethics envisaged in the charter of the constituent assembly in 1949, universally acclaimed as basic guidelines by all the leading courts of law throughout Pakistan.

2. Charter of rights: Since Allah is the undisputed and indivisible ruler of the universe who had deputed the domain of Pakistan to manage the affairs of the state within stipulated powers in which delegation is a sacred trust, the representative law-enforcing body of Pakistan is constrained to formulate a constitution to fulfil the rights and obligations of the state through elected representatives of the masses according to the norms of justice, equity and fairplay to enable the Muslim population of the state to organise their affairs in harmony with the dictates of the holy Koran and Sunnah and to enable the non-Muslim citizens to carry on their daily affairs freely according to their religion and culture.

The council arrived at the decision after detailed discussion that the participation of the masses in the affairs of the state is in keeping with the injunctions of Islam as there is no commandment contrary to such participation and this fact is further obviated through the procedure and practice adopted by the Muslim ummah in electing the exalted caliphs after the death of holy prophet (may peace be upon him). This leads to the conclusion that adult franchise is not un-Islamic but pro-Islamic.

3. Age limit for the voters: Minimum age for voters had been laid down as 21 for voters [as published] which is an age of maturity and sound judgement and is in vogue in several other countries of the world.

4. Female franchise: The views of council members were divided on the matter of voting right for ladies with one section in favour and the other against this right. Although the vesting of this right could not be substantiated through specific sayings of the prophet (Hadith) yet there were arguments in favour. Adopting the way of least resistance the council supported this right with the comments that pardah-observing ladies could cast their votes through proxy.

5. Voting right for non-Muslims: Pros and cons of this issue were thoroughly thrashed out. Ultimately it was decided that the right should be given them. But if at any stage it was learnt that such voter had created hurdles or impediments in the implementation of Islam or acted in a manner derogatory to Islam or the Islamic state, had or tried to create a rift in the society or damage the defence or solidarity of Pakistan, such right could be forfeited.

6. Status of shoora as legislature: The purview of Majlis-i-Shoora as a legislative body shall be on those affairs or administrative problems which are not divergent to the preachings of the holy Koran or Sunnah. All those affairs about which divine jurisprudence has issued a commandment already shall fall outside such purview. Where there are no vivid injunctions in the sharia, decision would be taken by the shoora according to the underlying spirit of Islam in the wider interest of the Muslim community.

7. Membership qualifications: According to the recommendations of the CII, only those members could afford an access in the Majlis-e-Shoora who should really be capable of providing advice to an Islamic state and should also be well-versed in state administration. Consequently, the following prequalifications have been laid down for eligible candidates:

(A) He should be a graduate of possess equivalent academic and/or religious qualification.

(B) He should carry good reputation and be honest, dutiful and pious.

(C) His minimum age should be 30 years.

The condition of being graduate was subequently relaxed and it was agreed that the candidate should be literate and capable of reading the holy Koran fluently. The candidate and his supporter both should be good Muslims and be regular in their prayers and testify this on oath (affidavit).

8. Elections on party basis: The most important part of the deliberations of the CII was perhaps the portion pertaining to this point, wherein the pros and cons have been elaborated at length. It has veen observed that difference of opinion is a natural phenomenon. Nevertheless, establishing of parties on basis of differences of opinion and adhering to their view-point of another group on party basis knowing fully well that their view-point was correct is styled as "party system" or grouping. The points noted in favour and against the system are in fact the crux of the report. Points in favour of party system are:

(A) Banning of elections on party basis would endanger the solidarity of the country and people would be subject to pure slavery and constrained to armed rebellion.

(B) If a person is elected from a particular constituency in his personal capacity, he would enjoy the confidence of his own particular region but if he is elected on the ticket of a political party which is represented in other parts of the country as well, he would enjoy the confidence of a much wider circle or constituency.

(C) Individual candidates cannot portray their manifesto while parties can do so, and act upon the manifesto for solving the problem of the masses.

(D) Pakistan came into existence through election on party basis. Likewise, Islam could also be infused through this exercise.

(E) In Islam, religion and politics cannot be set apart and channelised in water-tight compartments. Political parties can educate the sector of religion and had a right to seek power for achieving this object.

(F) Tabooing of politics might tend to defame the country.

(G) The implementation of restrictions on political parties would become a complicated affair.

(H) It was observed here that the implementation of Islamic system, social overhaul, reforming of the conduct and act of the masses, and realistic and dispassionate appraisal of national problems and offering a solution of these problems through the Constitution could all be done by political parties rather than an individual.

(I) Imposing of a ban on political parties would virtually turn the political sector of our religion into a graveyard.

(J) Only political parties are capable of organising and strengthening the followers of the true faith and consolidate Islamic elements.

(K) Participating and succeeding in elections being a member for implementation of manifesto. This could not be achieved individually.

The arguments which have been advanced against the conduct of elections on party basis were as under:

(I) Islam has got a political system of its own and hence there are no separate compartments for religion and politics in Islam.

(II) Political parties indulge in a tug-of-war for the attainment of power and tend to disrupt national solidarity.

(III) Political parties get foreign aid for their elections, which subjects the country to internal dissention and foreign aggression. [It is] virtually impossible for an intruder to dole out funds to individual candidates which in fact can save the country from foreign intervention.

(IV) Political parties even go to the extent of damaging national interest and aspirations, opposing agriculture tax being a glaring instance thereof.

(V) There is no concept of party in power and opposition in Islam; but there are only two groups: party of Allah and party of devils.

(VI) Nomination of party candidates is done on the basis of piety but on party affiliation.

(VII) During electioneering campaign provincial, regional andparochial prejudices are aggravated.

(VIII) Even moral values and code of ethics is being set aside during elections which renders us poorer morally after every campaign.

(IX) Due to rule of the majority party, talent in the opposition goes to waste.

(X) Right or wrong is determined through party decision and discipline instead of merit.

(XI) There is no legal force behind the manifesto.

(XII) Political parties are destined to engage themselves in welfare projects. They are to educate the masses ethically and to inculcate unity and cohesion in the people, but they have never bothered to do so. It has been a common observation that political parties keep on slumbering underneath the soil like toads and with the advent of elections they tend to indulge in loud and incoherent songs. The ensuing noise embarrassed all.

(XIII) Political parties indulge in fallacious and impracticable promises for which they have neither the capacity to fulfil nor the intention.

In view of the above predicament, a workable via-media [as published] has been suggested thus: Advantages of political parties are so many that these cannot be overruled, so it may be decided to keep the parties subject to imposition of following restrictions:

(A) Only those parties may be allowed to function which have a firm faith in Islamic way of life and ideology of Pakistan and which undertakes to promulgate Islamic system of govt. in Pakistan.

(B) Parties who betray scepticism about ideology of Islam through belief or acts shall not be allowed to participate in election.

(C) Every political party should give an undertaking in its manifesto that its candidates would be nominated on the basis of piety (taqwa).

(D) Moral rules shall be observed during elections by all parties.

(E) Govt. should not be formulated on party basis (but coalition).

(F) There should [be] legal provision in the Constitution that political parties may be penalised adequately in case of infringement of their promises.

The council therefore recommended that party formulation should be allowed so long as it does not lead to dissension and disruption. Muslim community should totally abstain from disunity. The council is of firm opinion that elections on nonparty basis as such are not advisable.

9. Unicameral or bicameral legislation: After detailed discussion on this point it was agreed that the form of govt. should be federal with a provision to elevate the present divisions to the status of provinces. This would be convenient to the people at large and do away with political prejudices and dispel disruptionistic and subversive trends. By affording smaller units an opportunity to participate in govt. national unity would be further strengthened. Provision of bicameral legislature is not advisable at present but may be adopted later, if necessary.

10. Qualifications for the president: The president should be male, Muslim, sane and grown up with age not less than 40. Free of disabling deformity, ailment and fully conversant with Islamic belief and injunctions and a good Muslim whose character should be immune of blemish and beyond reproach. Finally, he should not have participated in any anti-Pakistan movement.

11. Election of president: The president should be elected by a joint session of the provincial and federal "shooras". In case only one name is proposed, referendum may be held.

12. Qualifications for candidates: The CII advised that the qualifications for candidature in all houses should be those as laid down for the members of the shoora.

13. Qualification for voters: The voter should be literate. He should not have a history of "qadhaf", perjury or "hudood."

14. Age limit for candidates: It should be 63.

15. Separate electorate: In the opinion of CII electorates should be separate and not join different communities, i.e. Muslims and non-Muslims.

16. Electoral college: Sixty percent of the members of the shoora, according to the recommendations of the council, should be elected; twenty-five percent should be taken from among experts and technocrats, e.g. ulema, professors and lecturers, engineers, doctors, lawyers, Chamber of Commerce, trade unions and pensioners, etc., for whom separate electorates may be formulated while the remaining seats be filled by the president through nomination.

17. Would the president be bound by the decision of the shoora? The recommendations were in the negative. In case of dispute he would get an opinion from an Islamic organisation and be absolved of the decision of the shoora. If the president deems a particular decision of the shoora in the country against national interest on Islamic injections he may send it back to the shoora for review. If the shoora sticks to its previous decision the president shall have either to accept it or resign from office.

18. This is in repetition of point 16 only.

19. Presidential tenure: President would be elected for a period of 5 years but is eligible for re-election for a second or third term. Point 20 and 21 are already covered (as per report says).

(This report was sent back to the Council of Islamic Ideology by the president. -- ed.)

POLICE 'BAFFLED' BY ANTI-AFGHAN CAMPAIGN

GF011657 Karachi DAWN in English 29 Jul 82 p 8

[Text] The police are baffled by a recent campaign by some unidentified foreigners to mark houses in Drigh colony where a batch of 2,500 Afghan refugees were to be put up before being flown to Turkey.

The only apparent motive could be a conspiracy against these refugees. However, as the plan was unearthed in time, the Afghans' place of abode was quickly shifted to unknown sites.

The Afghan refugees were to be brought to Karachi from their camps in the NWFP [North-West Frontier Province] and taken to Turkey which has agreed to settle them on its soil.

Another press report said similar marks were noticed on houses in the defence society area. -- PPI
